<sup>51</sup> Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem. They prophesied to them in the name of the God of Israel. <sup>52</sup> Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build God's house which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. <sup>53</sup> At the same time Tattenai, the governor beyond the River came to them, with Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and asked them, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" <sup>54</sup> They also asked for the names of the men who were making this building. <sup>55</sup> But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they didn't make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and an answer should be returned by letter concerning it.

<sup>56</sup> The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king follows. <sup>57</sup> They sent a letter to him, in which was written: To Darius the king, all peace.

<sup>58</sup> Be it known to the king that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls. This work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. <sup>59</sup> Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" <sup>60</sup> We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. <sup>61</sup> Thus they returned us answer, saying, "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

<sup>62</sup> But after our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. <sup>63</sup> But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God. <sup>64</sup> The gold and silver vessels of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king also took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor. <sup>65</sup> He said to him, 'Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let God's house be built in its place.' <sup>66</sup> Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of God's house which is in Jerusalem. Since that time even until now it has been being built, and yet it is not completed.

<sup>67</sup> Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it is so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter."

CHAPTER 6

61 Then Darius the king made a decree, and the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon, was searched.62 A scroll was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, and in it this was written for a record:

63 In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning God's house at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; with its height sixty cubits, and its width sixty cubits;64 with three courses of great stones and a course of new timber. Let the expenses be given out of the king's house.65 Also let the gold and silver vessels of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, everything to its place. You shall put them in God's house.

66 Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, you must stay far from there.67 Leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place.

68 Moreover I make a decree what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses must be given with all diligence to these men, that they not be hindered.

69 That which they have need of, including young bulls, rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail;70 that they may offer sacrifices of pleasant aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.71 I have also made a decree that whoever alters this message, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened on it; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.72 May the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who stretch out their hand to alter this, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree. Let it be done with all diligence.

73 Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their companions did accordingly with all diligence, because Darius the king had sent a decree.74 The elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.75 This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

66 The children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy.67 They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

68 They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

69 The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.70 Because the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together, all of them were pure. They killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves.71 The children of Israel who had returned out of the captivity, and all who had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek God, the God of Israel, ate,72 and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy; because God had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of God, the God of Israel's house.

CHAPTER 7

71 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,72 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,73 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,74 the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,75 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—76 this Ezra went up from Babylon. He was a skilled scribe in the law of Moses, which God, the God of Israel, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to God his God's hand on him.77 Some of the children of Israel, including some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.78 He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.79 For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him.80 For Ezra had set his heart to seek God's law, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

71 Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of God's commandments, and of his statutes to Israel:

72 Artaxerxes, king of kings, To Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the perfect God of heaven. Now

73 I make a decree, that all those of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who intend of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you.74 Because you are sent by the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand,<sup>715</sup> and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem,<sup>716</sup> and all the silver and gold that you will find in all the province of Babylon, with the free will offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem;<sup>717</sup> therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

<sup>718</sup> Whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that according to the will of your God.<sup>719</sup> The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem.<sup>720</sup> Whatever more will be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to give, give it out of the king's treasure house.

<sup>721</sup> I, even I Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you, it shall be done with all diligence,<sup>722</sup> up to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred cors of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.<sup>723</sup> Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

<sup>724</sup> Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, or laborers of this house of God.

<sup>725</sup> You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, who all know the laws of your God; and teach him who doesn't know them.<sup>726</sup> Whoever will not do the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it is to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

<sup>727</sup> Blessed be God, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify God's house which is in Jerusalem;<sup>728</sup> and has extended loving kindness to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according to God my God's hand on me, and I gathered together chief men out of Israel to go up with me.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>95</sup> I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I looked around at the people and the priests, and found there were none of the sons of Levi.<sup>96</sup> Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, for Elnathan, for Jarib, for Elnathan, for Nathan, for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joarib and for Elnathan, who were teachers.

<sup>97</sup> I sent them out to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, and his brothers the temple servants, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God.

<sup>98</sup> According to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen;

<sup>99</sup> and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiyah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty;<sup>100</sup> and of the temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred twenty temple servants. All of them were mentioned by name.

<sup>101</sup> Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our possessions.<sup>102</sup> For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him."<sup>103</sup> So we fasted and begged our God for this: and he granted our request.

<sup>824</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them,<sup>825</sup> and weighed to them the silver, the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, his counselors, his princes, and all Israel there present, had offered.<sup>826</sup> I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, one hundred talents of silver vessels; one hundred talents of gold,<sup>827</sup> twenty bowls of gold weighing one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright bronze, precious as gold.

<sup>828</sup> I said to them, "You are holy to God, and the vessels are holy. The silver and the gold are a free will offering to God, the God of your fathers.<sup>829</sup> Watch and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' households of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the rooms of God's house."

<sup>830</sup> So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.<sup>831</sup> Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way.<sup>832</sup> We came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.<sup>833</sup> On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levite;<sup>834</sup> everything by number and by weight; and all the weight was written at that time.

<sup>835</sup> The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to God.<sup>836</sup> They delivered the king's commissions to the king's local governors, and to the governors beyond the River. So they supported the people and God's house.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> Now when these things were done, the princes came near to me, saying, "The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, following their abominations, even those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

<sup>92</sup> For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy offspring have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands. Yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass."

<sup>93</sup> When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled the hair out of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded.

<sup>94</sup> Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel were assembled to me, because of their trespass of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering.

<sup>95</sup> At the evening offering I rose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to God my God;<sup>96</sup> and I said, "My God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens.<sup>97</sup> Since the days of our fathers we have been exceedingly guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.<sup>98</sup> Now for a little moment grace has been shown from The Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and revive us a little in our bondage.<sup>99</sup> For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

<sup>910</sup> "Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments,<sup>911</sup> which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness.<sup>912</sup> Now therefore don't give your daughters to their sons. Don't take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.'

<sup>913</sup> "After all that has come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, since you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant,<sup>914</sup> shall we again break your commandments, and join ourselves with the peoples that do these abominations? Wouldn't you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant, nor any to escape?<sup>915</sup> God, the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is today. Behold, we are before you in our guiltiness; for no one can stand before you because of this."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before God's house, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very bitterly.

<sup>102</sup> Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing.<sup>103</sup> Now therefore let's make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and those who are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let it be done according to the law.<sup>104</sup> Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you. Be courageous, and do it."

<sup>105</sup> Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore.

<sup>106</sup> Then Ezra rose up from before God's house, and went into the room of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. When he came there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of the trespass of those of the captivity.<sup>107</sup> They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem;<sup>108</sup> and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his possessions should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity.

<sup>109</sup> Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the wide place in front of God's house, trembling because of this matter, and because of the great rain.

<sup>10</sup> Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel.<sup>1011</sup> Now therefore make confession to God, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women."

<sup>1012</sup> Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "We must do as you have said concerning us."<sup>1013</sup> But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside. This is not a work of one day or two, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.<sup>1014</sup> Now let our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned from us, until this matter is resolved."

<sup>1018</sup> Among the sons of the priests there were found who had married foreign women: of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.<sup>1019</sup> They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt.

<sup>1044</sup> All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

NEHEMIAH

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

Brief background summary

Dating:

The first edition of the combined Ezra-Nehemiah text may have originated in about the 4th century BC.

Authorship:

Originally combined with the book of Ezra, it was traditionally believed to have been the work of Ezra, but there were three King Ezra's in the history of Israel about that time, and it is now thought that the work originated with earliest of the three, being around 458 BC.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Susa the palace, <sup>12</sup> Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them about the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> They said to me, "The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

<sup>14</sup> When I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and mourned several days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, <sup>15</sup> and said, "I beg you, God, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments: <sup>16</sup> Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants, while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned. <sup>17</sup> We have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses.

<sup>18</sup> "Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, 'If you trespass, I will scatter you among the peoples; <sup>19</sup> but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there.'

<sup>10</sup> "Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. <sup>11</sup> Lord, I beg you, let your ear be attentive now to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." Now I was cup bearer to the king.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> In the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, I picked up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad before in his presence. <sup>22</sup> The king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart."

Then I was very much afraid. <sup>23</sup> I said to the king, "Let the king live forever! Why shouldn't my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been consumed with fire?"

<sup>24</sup> Then the king said to me, "What is your request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven.

<sup>25</sup> I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it."

<sup>26</sup> The king said to me (the queen was also sitting by him), "How long will your journey be? When will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me, and I set a time for him. <sup>27</sup> Moreover I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; <sup>28</sup> and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I will occupy." The king granted my requests, because of the good hand of my God on me. <sup>29</sup> Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

<sup>30</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. <sup>31</sup> So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. <sup>32</sup> I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I didn't tell anyone what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There wasn't any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. <sup>33</sup> I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal's well, then to the dung gate, and inspected the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. <sup>34</sup> Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool, but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. <sup>35</sup> Then I went up in the night by the brook, and inspected the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned.

<sup>36</sup> The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did. I had not as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.

<sup>37</sup> Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let's build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we won't be disgraced." <sup>38</sup> I told them about the hand of my God which was good on me, and also about the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, "Let's rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

<sup>39</sup> But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?" <sup>40</sup> Then I answered them, and said to them, "The God of heaven will prosper us. Therefore we, his servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem."

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the sheep gate. They sanctified it, and set up its doors. They sanctified it even to the tower of Hammeah, to the tower of Hananel. <sup>32</sup> Next to him the men of Jericho built. Next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

<sup>33</sup> The sons of Hassenaah built the fish gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
<sup>34</sup> Next to them, Meremeth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to them, Zadok the son of Baana made repairs.
<sup>35</sup> Next to them, the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles didn't put their necks to the Lord's work.

<sup>36</sup> Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the old gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars.<sup>37</sup> Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor beyond the River.<sup>38</sup> Next to him, Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him, Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they fortified Jerusalem even to the wide wall.<sup>39</sup> Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.<sup>40</sup> Next to them, Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.<sup>41</sup> Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces.<sup>42</sup> Next to him, Shallum the son of Hallohes, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters, made repairs.

<sup>51</sup> After him, Meremeth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.<sup>52</sup> After him, the priests, the men of the Plain made repairs.<sup>53</sup> After them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs across from their house. After them, Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house.<sup>54</sup> After him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another portion, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner.<sup>55</sup> Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.<sup>56</sup> (Now the temple servants lived in Ophel, to the place opposite the water gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.)<sup>57</sup> After him the Tekoites repaired another portion, opposite the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of Ophel.<sup>58</sup> Above the horse gate, the priests made repairs, everyone across from his own house.<sup>59</sup> After them, Zadok the son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. After him, Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east gate made repairs.<sup>60</sup> After him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another portion. After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs across from his room.<sup>61</sup> After him, Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths to the house of the temple servants, and of the merchants, made repairs opposite the gate of Hammiphkad, and to the ascent of the corner.<sup>62</sup> Between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> But when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and was very indignant, and mocked the Jews.<sup>42</sup> He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, since they are burned?"

<sup>43</sup> Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "What they are building, if a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall."

<sup>46</sup> So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height: for the people had a mind to work.<sup>47</sup> But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be filled, they were very angry,<sup>48</sup> and they all conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion among us.<sup>49</sup> But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night because of them.

<sup>50</sup> Judah said, "The strength of the bearers of burdens is fading, and there is much rubble; so that we are not able to build the wall."<sup>51</sup> Our adversaries said, "They will not know or see, until we come in among them and kill them, and cause the work to cease."

CHAPTER 5

<sup>5</sup><sup>7</sup> Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, "You exact usury, everyone of his brother." I held a great assembly against them.<sup>5</sup><sup>8</sup> I said to them, "We, after our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Jews that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us?" Then they held their peace, and found not a word to say.<sup>5</sup><sup>9</sup> Also I said, "The thing that you do is not good. Shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies?<sup>5</sup><sup>10</sup> I likewise, my brothers and my servants, lend them money and grain. Please let us stop this usury.<sup>5</sup><sup>11</sup> Please restore to them, even today, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you are charging them."

<sup>5</sup><sup>12</sup> Then they said, "We will restore them, and will require nothing of them. We will do so, even as you say." Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise.<sup>5</sup><sup>13</sup> Also I shook out my lap, and said, "So may God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that doesn't perform this promise; even may he be shaken out and emptied like this." All the assembly said, "Amen," and praised God. The people did according to this promise.

<sup>5</sup><sup>14</sup> Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor.

<sup>5</sup><sup>15</sup> But the former governors who were before me were supported by the people, and took bread and wine from them, plus forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants ruled over the people; but I didn't do so, because of the fear of God.<sup>5</sup><sup>16</sup> Yes, I also continued in the work of this wall. We didn't buy any land. All my servants were gathered there to the work.<sup>5</sup><sup>17</sup> Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred fifty men, in addition to those who came to us from among the nations that were around us.<sup>5</sup><sup>18</sup> Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days a store of all sorts of wine. Yet for all this, I didn't demand the governor's pay, because the bondage was heavy on this people.<sup>5</sup><sup>19</sup> Remember me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>6</sup><sup>1</sup> Now when it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates)<sup>6</sup><sup>2</sup> Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come! Let's meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me.

<sup>6</sup><sup>3</sup> I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down. Why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?"

them the same way.<sup>65</sup> Then Sanballat sent his servant to me the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand,<sup>66</sup> in which was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to these words."<sup>67</sup> You have also appointed prophets to proclaim of you at Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let's take counsel together."

<sup>68</sup> Then I sent to him, saying, "There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart."<sup>69</sup> For they all would have made us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done." But now, strengthen my hands.

<sup>70</sup> I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home; and he said, "Let us meet together in God's house, within the temple, and let's shut the doors of the temple; for they will come to kill you. Yes, in the night they will come to kill you."

<sup>71</sup> I said, "Should a man like me flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in."<sup>72</sup> I discerned, and behold, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.<sup>73</sup> He was hired so that I would be afraid, do so, and sin, and that they might have material for an evil report, that they might reproach me.<sup>74</sup> "Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear."

<sup>75</sup> So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days.<sup>76</sup> When all our enemies heard of it, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they lost their confidence; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.<sup>77</sup> Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.<sup>78</sup> For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife.<sup>79</sup> Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> Now when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed,<sup>72</sup> I put my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.<sup>73</sup> I said to them, "Don't let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house."

<sup>74</sup> Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built.

<sup>75</sup> My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be listed by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found this written in it:

<sup>772</sup> That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, plus two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments.

<sup>773</sup> So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel, lived in their cities. When the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their cities.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the wide place that was in front of the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which God had commanded to Israel.<sup>82</sup> Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.<sup>83</sup> He read from it before the wide place that was in front of the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand. The ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.<sup>84</sup> Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.<sup>85</sup> Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people (for he was above all the people), and when he opened it, all the people stood up.<sup>86</sup> Then Ezra blessed God, the great God.

All the people answered, "Amen, Amen," with the lifting up of their hands. They bowed their heads, and worshiped God with their faces to the ground.<sup>87</sup> Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law; and the people stayed in their place.<sup>88</sup> They read in the book, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading.

<sup>89</sup> Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, "Today is holy to The lord your God. Don't mourn, nor weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

<sup>90</sup> Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared, for today is holy to our Lord. Don't be grieved, for the joy of God is your strength."

<sup>92</sup> All the people went their way to eat, to drink, to send portions, and to celebrate, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

<sup>93</sup> On the second day, the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered together to Ezra the scribe, to study the words of the law.<sup>94</sup> They found written in the law how God had commanded by Moses that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month;<sup>95</sup> and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and get olive branches, branches of wild olive, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make temporary shelters, as it is written."

816 So the people went out, and brought them, and made themselves temporary shelters, everyone on the roof of his house, in their courts, in the courts of God's house, in the wide place of the water gate, and in the wide place of Ephraim's gate.<sup>817</sup> All the assembly of those who had come back out of the captivity made temporary shelters, and lived in the temporary shelters; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Israel had not done so. There was very great gladness.<sup>818</sup> Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

CHAPTER 9

91 Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, with sackcloth, and dirt on them. 92 The offspring of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. 93 They stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of The Lord their God a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed, and worshiped The Lord their God. 94 Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani of the Levites stood up on the stairs, and cried with a loud voice to The Lord their God.

95 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Stand up and bless The lord your God from everlasting to everlasting! Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise!<sup>96</sup> You are God, even you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all. The army of heaven worships you.

97 You are God, the God who chose Abram, brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, gave him the name of Abraham,

98 found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Gergashite, to give it to his offspring, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.

99 "You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea,<sup>100</sup> and showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and against all his servants, and against all the people of his land; for you knew that they dealt proudly against them, and made a name for yourself, as it is today.<sup>101</sup> You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the middle of the sea on the dry land; and you cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters.<sup>102</sup> Moreover, in a pillar of cloud you led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go.

913 "You also came down on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments,<sup>14</sup> and made known to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, statutes, and a law, by Moses your servant,<sup>15</sup> and gave them bread from the sky for their hunger, and brought water out of the rock for them for their thirst, and commanded them that they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.

916 "But they and our fathers behaved proudly, hardened their neck, didn't listen to your commandments,<sup>17</sup> and refused to obey. They weren't mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and didn't forsake them.<sup>18</sup> Yes, when they had made themselves a molded calf, and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed awful blasphemies,<sup>19</sup> yet you in your manifold mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither did the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go.

920 You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and didn't withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.<sup>21</sup> "Yes, forty years you sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing. Their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet didn't swell.<sup>22</sup> Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you allotted according to their portions. So they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.<sup>23</sup> You also multiplied their children as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which you said to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

924 "So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they pleased.<sup>25</sup> They took fortified cities and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled, became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

926 "Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against you, cast your law behind their back, killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies.

927 Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them. In the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hands of their adversaries.<sup>928</sup> But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore you left them in the hands of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times you delivered them according to your mercies,<sup>929</sup> and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they were arrogant, and didn't listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances (which if a man does, he shall live in them), turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear.<sup>930</sup> Yet many years you put up with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets. Yet they would not listen. Therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.<sup>931</sup> "Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you didn't make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God.

<sup>932</sup> Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you, that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, on our priests, on our prophets, on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.<sup>933</sup> However you are just in all that has come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly.<sup>934</sup> Also our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you testified against them.<sup>935</sup> For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and rich land which you gave before them. They didn't turn from their wicked works.

<sup>936</sup> "Behold, we are servants today, and as for the land that you gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its good, behold, we are servants in it.<sup>937</sup> It yields much increase to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins. Also they have power over our bodies and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.<sup>938</sup> Yet for all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, seal it."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> Now those who sealed were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,

<sup>1028</sup> The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters—everyone who had knowledge, and understanding—<sup>1029</sup> joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of God our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes,<sup>1030</sup> and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;<sup>1031</sup> and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

<sup>1032</sup> Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;<sup>1033</sup> for the show bread, for the continual meal offering, for the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.<sup>1034</sup> We, the priests, the Levites, and the people, cast lots for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on The Lord our God's altar, as it is written in the law;<sup>1035</sup> and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all kinds of trees, year by year, to God's house;<sup>1036</sup> also the firstborn of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;<sup>1037</sup> and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, our wave offerings, the fruit of all kinds of trees, and the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.<sup>1038</sup> The priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes. The Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure house.<sup>1039</sup> For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the rooms, where the vessels of the sanctuary are, and the priests who minister, with the gatekeepers and the singers. We will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>111</sup> The princes of the people lived in Jerusalem. The rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities.<sup>112</sup> The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.

<sup>1110</sup> Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,<sup>1111</sup> Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of God's house,<sup>1112</sup> and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,<sup>1113</sup> and his brothers, chiefs of fathers' households, two hundred forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,<sup>1114</sup> and their brothers, mighty men of valor, one hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggedolim.

hundred seventy-two.<sup>1120</sup> The residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance.<sup>1121</sup> But the temple servants lived in Ophel: and Ziha and Gishpa were over the temple servants.

<sup>1122</sup> The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of God's house.<sup>1123</sup> For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required.<sup>1124</sup> Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

<sup>1240</sup> So the two companies of those who gave thanks in God's house stood, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; <sup>1241</sup> and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

<sup>1243</sup> They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women and the children also rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even far away.

<sup>1244</sup> On that day, men were appointed over the rooms for the treasures, for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who served. <sup>1245</sup> They performed the duty of their God, and the duty of the purification, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. <sup>1246</sup> For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>1247</sup> All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, as every day required; and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>131</sup> On that day they read in the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and it was found written in it that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, <sup>132</sup> because they didn't meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them; however our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>133</sup> It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

<sup>134</sup> Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, <sup>135</sup> had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers; and the wave offerings for the priests.

<sup>136</sup> But in all this, I was not at Jerusalem; for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king; and after some days I asked leave of the king, <sup>137</sup> and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a room in the courts of God's house. <sup>138</sup> It grieved me severely. Therefore I threw all Tobiah's household stuff out of the room.

<sup>139</sup> Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms. I brought into them the vessels of God's house, with the meal offerings and the frankincense again.

<sup>1310</sup> I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had each fled to his field.

<sup>1311</sup> Then I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is God's house forsaken?" I gathered them together, and set them in their place. <sup>1312</sup> Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the treasures.<sup>1313</sup> I made treasurers over the treasures, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers.

<sup>1314</sup> Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances.

<sup>1315</sup> In those days I saw some men treading wine presses on the Sabbath in Judah, bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; also with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. <sup>1316</sup> Some men of Tyre also lived there, who brought in fish and all kinds of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

<sup>1317</sup> Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day?" <sup>1318</sup> Didn't your fathers do this, and didn't our God bring all this evil on us, and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

<sup>1319</sup> It came to pass that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, so that no burden should be brought in on the Sabbath day.

<sup>1320</sup> So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares camped outside of Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>1321</sup> Then I testified against them, and said to them, "Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on, they didn't come on the Sabbath.

<sup>1322</sup> I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me for this also, my God, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness.

<sup>1323</sup> In those days I also saw the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab; <sup>1324</sup> and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

<sup>1325</sup> I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves."

<sup>1326</sup> Didn't Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, and he was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin.<sup>216</sup>

<sup>1327</sup> Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?"

<sup>1329</sup> Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

<sup>1330</sup> Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work;<sup>1331</sup> and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>14</sup> He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred eighty days.<sup>15</sup> When these days were fulfilled, the king made a seven day feast for all the people who were present in Susa the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.<sup>16</sup> There were hangings of white and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble.<sup>17</sup> They gave them drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, including royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king.

<sup>18</sup> In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had instructed all the officials of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

<sup>20</sup> On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,<sup>21</sup> to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the people and the princes her beauty; for she was beautiful.<sup>22</sup> But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the eunuchs. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him.
<sup>23</sup> Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times (for it was the king's custom to consult those who knew law and judgment;<sup>24</sup> and next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom),<sup>25</sup> "What shall we do to Queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the King Ahasuerus by the eunuchs?"

<sup>28</sup> Today, the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's deed will tell all the king's princes. This will cause much contempt and wrath.

<sup>29</sup> "If it pleases the king, let a royal command go from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she."<sup>30</sup> When the king's decree which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honor, both great and small."

<sup>31</sup> This advice pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan:
<sup>32</sup> for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every man should rule his own house, speaking in the language of his own people.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>33</sup> After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

<sup>34</sup> Then the king's servants who served him said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.<sup>35</sup> Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the women's house, to the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, keeper of the women. Let cosmetics be given them,<sup>36</sup> and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." The thing pleased the king, and he did so.

<sup>37</sup> There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite,<sup>38</sup> who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.<sup>39</sup> He brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter.

<sup>40</sup> So, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to the citadel of Susa, to the custody of Hegai, Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

<sup>41</sup> The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him. He quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens to the best place in the women's house.<sup>42</sup> Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives, because Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make it known.

<sup>43</sup> Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house, to find out how Esther was doing, and what would become of her.

(for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women)

<sup>214</sup> In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second women's house, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who kept the concubines. She came in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name.

<sup>215</sup> Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women, advised. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at her.

<sup>216</sup> So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.<sup>217</sup> The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she obtained favor and kindness in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

<sup>218</sup> Then the king made a great feast for all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces, and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

<sup>220</sup> Esther had not yet made known her relatives nor her people, as Mordecai had commanded her; for Esther obeyed Mordecai, like she did when she was brought up by him.<sup>221</sup> In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, who were doorkeepers, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus.<sup>222</sup> This thing became known to Mordecai, who informed Esther the queen; and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.<sup>223</sup> When this matter was investigated, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a gallows; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.<sup>32</sup> All the king's servants who were in the king's gate bowed down, and paid homage to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai didn't bow down or pay him homage.<sup>33</sup> Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's commandment?"

<sup>34</sup> Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.<sup>35</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai didn't bow down, nor pay him homage, Haman was full of wrath.<sup>36</sup> But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had made known to him Mordecai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even Mordecai's people.

<sup>37</sup> In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, and chose the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.<sup>38</sup> Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and their laws are different from other people's. They don't keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them to remain.<sup>39</sup> If it pleases the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

<sup>312</sup> Then the king's scribes were called in on the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman commanded was written to the king's local governors, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, and it was sealed with the king's ring.

<sup>313</sup> Letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to plunder their possessions.<sup>314</sup> A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day.<sup>315</sup> The couriers went out in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Susa was perplexed.

one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai, to find out what this was, and why it was.<sup>46</sup> So Hathach went out to Mordecai, to city square which was before the king's gate.<sup>47</sup> Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasures for the destruction of the Jews.<sup>48</sup> He also gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Susa to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him, for her people.

<sup>49</sup> Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.<sup>50</sup> Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a message to Mordecai.<sup>51</sup> "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king into the inner court without being called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom the king might hold out the golden scepter, that he may live. I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days."

<sup>52</sup> They told Esther's words to Mordecai.<sup>53</sup> Then Mordecai asked them to return this answer to Esther: "Don't think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the Jews."<sup>54</sup> For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

<sup>55</sup> Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai,<sup>56</sup> "Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Susa, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish."

<sup>57</sup> So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>62</sup> Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

<sup>63</sup> The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed."

<sup>64</sup> Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this.<sup>65</sup> If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said."

<sup>69</sup> Haman also said, "Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king.<sup>70</sup> Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

<sup>71</sup> Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet." This pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>72</sup> On that night, the king couldn't sleep. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king.<sup>73</sup> It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus.<sup>74</sup> The king said, "What honor and dignity has been given to Mordecai for this?" Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

<sup>75</sup> The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

<sup>77</sup> So Haman came in. The king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?" Now Haman said in his heart, "Who would the king delight to honor more than myself?"<sup>78</sup> Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor,<sup>79</sup> let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a royal crown is set.<sup>80</sup> Let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delights to honor with them, and have him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!'"

<sup>6</sup><sup>10</sup> Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken."

<sup>7</sup><sup>5</sup> Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do so?"

Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

<sup>7</sup><sup>9</sup> Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the king said, "Behold, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at Haman's house." The king said, "Hang him on it!"

<sup>7</sup><sup>10</sup> So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath was pacified.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>8</sup><sup>9</sup> Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the local governors, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing, and in their language. <sup>8</sup><sup>10</sup> He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift steeds.

Jews had light, gladness, joy, and honor.<sup>817</sup> In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness, joy, a feast, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews had fallen on them.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, when the king's commandment and his decree came near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to conquer them, (but it was turned out the opposite happened, that the Jews conquered those who hated them),<sup>92</sup> the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people.<sup>93</sup> All the princes of the provinces, the local governors, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them.<sup>94</sup> For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater.<sup>95</sup> The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they wanted to those who hated them.

<sup>911</sup> On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Susa was brought before the king.

<sup>912</sup> The king said to Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Susa, including the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done."

<sup>913</sup> Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to do tomorrow also according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

<sup>914</sup> The king commanded this to be done. A decree was given out in Susa; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

<sup>915</sup> The Jews who were in Susa gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men in Susa; but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder.

thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of that month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

<sup>918</sup> But the Jews who were in Susa assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.<sup>919</sup> Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another.

<sup>920</sup> Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far,<sup>921</sup> to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly,<sup>922</sup> as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy.<sup>923</sup> The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them;<sup>924</sup> because Haman the son of Hamedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast "Pur", that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;<sup>925</sup> but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked plan, which he had planned against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

<sup>926</sup> Therefore they called these days "Purim", from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them,<sup>927</sup> the Jews established and imposed on themselves, and on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year;<sup>928</sup> and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their memory perish from their offspring.

<sup>101</sup> King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land, and on the islands of the sea.<sup>102</sup> Aren't all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?<sup>103</sup> For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his descendants.

CHAPTER 1

1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job.<sup>217</sup> That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil.<sup>12</sup> There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. 13 His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east.<sup>14</sup> His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.<sup>15</sup> It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Job did so continually.

16 Now on the day when God's sons came to present themselves before God, Satan<sup>218</sup> also came among them.<sup>17</sup> God said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Then Satan answered God, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

18 God said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is no one like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."

19 Then Satan answered God, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?<sup>10</sup> Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.<sup>11</sup> But stretch out your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face."

12 God said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only on himself don't stretch out your hand." So Satan went out from the presence of God.

13 It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,<sup>14</sup> that a messenger came to Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them,<sup>15</sup> and the Sabeans attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

17 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

18 While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,<sup>19</sup> and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

20 Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped.

21 He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked will I return there. God gave, and God has taken away. Blessed be God's name."<sup>22</sup> In all this, Job didn't sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

CHAPTER 2

21 Again, on the day when God's sons came to present themselves before God, Satan came also among them to present himself before God.<sup>22</sup> God said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered God, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

23 God said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause."

24 Satan answered God, and said, "Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.<sup>25</sup> But stretch out your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce you to your face."

26 God said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand. Only spare his life."

27 So Satan went out from the presence of God, and struck Job with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head.<sup>28</sup> He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat among the ashes.<sup>29</sup> Then his wife said to him, "Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die."

210 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job didn't sin with his lips.<sup>211</sup> Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him.

212 When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and didn't recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky.<sup>213</sup> So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth. <sup>32</sup> Job answered: <sup>33</sup> "Let the day perish in which I was born, the night which said, 'There is a boy conceived.' <sup>34</sup> Let that day be darkness. Don't let God from above seek for it, neither let the light shine on it. <sup>35</sup> Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that makes the day black terrify it. <sup>36</sup> As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year. Let it not come into the number of the months. <sup>37</sup> Behold, let that night be barren. Let no joyful voice come therein. <sup>38</sup> Let them curse it who curse the day, who are ready to rouse up Leviathan. <sup>39</sup> Let the stars of its twilight be dark. Let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see the eyelids of the morning, <sup>40</sup> because it didn't shut up the doors of my mother's womb, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes. <sup>41</sup> "Why didn't I die from the womb? Why didn't I give up the spirit when my mother bore me?" <sup>42</sup> Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breast, that I should nurse? <sup>43</sup> For now I should have lain down and been quiet. I should have slept, then I would have been at rest, <sup>44</sup> with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up waste places for themselves; <sup>45</sup> or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver. <sup>46</sup> or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been, as infants who never saw light. <sup>47</sup> There the wicked cease from troubling. There the weary are at rest. <sup>48</sup> There the prisoners are at ease together. They don't hear the voice of the taskmaster. <sup>49</sup> The small and the great are there. The servant is free from his master. <sup>50</sup> "Why is light given to him who is in misery, life to the bitter in soul? <sup>51</sup> Who long for death, but it doesn't come; and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, <sup>52</sup> who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave? <sup>53</sup> Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in? <sup>54</sup> For my sighing comes before I eat. My groanings are poured out like water. <sup>55</sup> For the thing which I fear comes on me, That which I am afraid of comes to me. <sup>56</sup> I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither do I have rest; but trouble comes."

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, <sup>42</sup> "If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? But who can withhold himself from speaking? <sup>43</sup> Behold, you have instructed many, you have strengthened the weak hands. <sup>44</sup> Your words have supported him who was falling, You have made the feeble knees firm. <sup>45</sup> But now it has come to you, and you faint. It touches you, and you are troubled. <sup>46</sup> Isn't your piety your confidence? Isn't the integrity of your ways your hope? <sup>47</sup> "Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent? Or where were the upright cut off?"

<sup>48</sup> According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity, and sow trouble, reap the same. <sup>49</sup> By the breath of God they perish. By the blast of his anger are they consumed. <sup>50</sup> The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, are broken. <sup>51</sup> The old lion perishes for lack of prey. The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad. <sup>52</sup> "Now a thing was secretly brought to me. My ear received a whisper of it. <sup>53</sup> In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, <sup>54</sup> fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake. <sup>55</sup> Then a spirit passed before my face. The hair of my flesh stood up. <sup>56</sup> It stood still, but I couldn't discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes. Silence, then I heard a voice, saying, <sup>57</sup> 'Shall mortal man be more just than God? Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?' <sup>58</sup> Behold, he puts no trust in his servants. He charges his angels with error. <sup>59</sup> How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth! <sup>60</sup> Between morning and evening they are destroyed. They perish forever without any regarding it. <sup>61</sup> Isn't their tent cord plucked up within them? They die, and that without wisdom.'

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> "Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn? <sup>52</sup> For resentment kills the foolish man, and jealousy kills the simple. <sup>53</sup> I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed his habitation. <sup>54</sup> His children are far from safety. They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there any to deliver them, <sup>55</sup> whose harvest the hungry eats up, and take it even out of the thorns. The snare gapes for their substance. <sup>56</sup> For affliction doesn't come out of the dust, neither does trouble spring out of the ground; <sup>57</sup> but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward. <sup>58</sup> "But as for me, I would seek God. I would commit my cause to God, <sup>59</sup> who does great things that can't be fathomed, marvelous things without number; <sup>60</sup> who gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields; <sup>61</sup> so that he sets up on high those who are low, those who mourn are exalted to safety. <sup>62</sup> He frustrates the plans of the crafty, So that their hands can't perform their enterprise. <sup>63</sup> He takes the wise in their own craftiness; the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong. <sup>64</sup> They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope at noonday as in the night. <sup>65</sup> But he saves from the sword of their mouth, even the needy from the hand of the mighty. <sup>66</sup> So the poor has hope, and injustice shuts her mouth. <sup>67</sup> "Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects. Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty. <sup>68</sup> For he wounds and binds up. He injures and his hands make whole. <sup>69</sup> He will deliver you in six troubles; yes, in seven no evil will touch you."

<sup>5</sup>21 You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, neither will you be afraid of destruction when it comes.

<sup>5</sup>22 You will laugh at destruction and famine, neither will you be afraid of the animals of the earth.<sup>5</sup>23 For you will be allied with the stones of the field. The animals of the field will be at peace with you.<sup>5</sup>24 You will know that your tent is in peace. You will visit your fold, and will miss nothing.

<sup>5</sup>25 You will know also that your offspring will be great, Your offspring as the grass of the earth.

<sup>5</sup>26 You will come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season.

<sup>5</sup>27 Look at this. We have searched it. It is so. Hear it, and know it for your good."

CHAPTER 6

<sup>6</sup>1 Then Job answered,<sup>6</sup>2 "Oh that my anguish were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances!

<sup>6</sup>3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, therefore my words have been rash.<sup>6</sup>4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me. My spirit drinks up their poison. The terrors of God set themselves in array against me.<sup>6</sup>5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder?

<sup>6</sup>6 Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?<sup>6</sup>7 My soul refuses to touch them. They are as loathsome food to me.<sup>6</sup>8 "Oh that I might have my request, that God would grant the thing that I long for,<sup>6</sup>9 even that it would please God to crush me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

<sup>6</sup>10 Let it still be my consolation, yes, let me exult in pain that doesn't spare, that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.<sup>6</sup>11 What is my strength, that I should wait? What is my end, that I should be patient?<sup>6</sup>12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of bronze?<sup>6</sup>13 Isn't it that I have no help in me, that wisdom is driven away from me?

<sup>6</sup>14 "To him who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from his friend; even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty.<sup>6</sup>15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook, as the channel of brooks that pass away;<sup>6</sup>16 Which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself.<sup>6</sup>17 In the dry season, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

<sup>6</sup>18 The caravans that travel beside them turn away. They go up into the waste, and perish.<sup>6</sup>19 The caravans of Tema looked. The companies of Sheba waited for them.<sup>6</sup>20 They were distressed because they were confident. They came there, and were confounded.

<sup>6</sup>24 "Teach me, and I will hold my peace. Cause me to understand my error.<sup>6</sup>25 How forcible are words of uprightness! But your reproof, what does it reprove?

<sup>6</sup>26 Do you intend to reprove words, since the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind?

<sup>6</sup>27 Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, and make merchandise of your friend.<sup>6</sup>28 Now therefore be pleased to look at me, for surely I will not lie to your face.<sup>6</sup>29 Please return. Let there be no injustice. Yes, return again. My cause is righteous.<sup>6</sup>30 Is there injustice on my tongue? Can't my taste discern mischievous things?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>7</sup>1 "Isn't a man forced to labor on earth? Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand?<sup>7</sup>2 As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, as a hireling who looks for his wages,<sup>7</sup>3 so I am made to possess months of misery, wearisome nights are appointed to me.

<sup>7</sup>4 When I lie down, I say, 'When will I arise, and the night be gone?' I toss and turn until the dawning of the day.<sup>7</sup>5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh.<sup>7</sup>6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

<sup>7</sup>7 Oh remember that my life is a breath. My eye will no more see good.<sup>7</sup>8 The eye of him who sees me will see me no more. Your eyes will be on me, but I will not be.<sup>7</sup>9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more.<sup>7</sup>10 He will return no more to his house, neither will his place know him any more.

<sup>7</sup>11 "Therefore I will not keep silent. I will speak in the anguish of my spirit. I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.<sup>7</sup>12 Am I a sea, or a sea monster, that you put a guard over me?<sup>7</sup>13 When I say, 'My bed will comfort me. My couch will ease my complaint,'<sup>7</sup>14 then you scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions:<sup>7</sup>15 so that my soul chooses strangling, death rather than my bones.<sup>7</sup>16 I loathe my life. I don't want to live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath.

<sup>7</sup>17 What is man, that you should magnify him, that you should set your mind on him,<sup>7</sup>18 that you should visit him every morning, and test him every moment?<sup>7</sup>19 How long will you not look away from me, nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle?<sup>7</sup>20 If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of men? Why have you set me as a mark for you, so that I am a burden to myself?<sup>7</sup>21 Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity? For now will I lie down in the dust. You will seek me diligently, but I will not be."

CHAPTER 8

<sup>8</sup>1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,<sup>8</sup>2 "How long will you speak these things? Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?<sup>8</sup>3 Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?<sup>8</sup>4 If your children have sinned against him, he has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience.<sup>8</sup>5 If you want to seek God diligently, make your supplication to the Almighty.

<sup>86</sup> If you were pure and upright, surely now he would awaken for you, and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.<sup>87</sup> Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end would greatly increase.

Whose trust is a spider's web.<sup>95</sup> He will lean on his house, but it will not stand. He will cling to it, but it will not endure.<sup>96</sup> He is green before the sun. His shoots go out along his garden.<sup>97</sup> His roots are wrapped around the rock pile. He sees the place of stones.

<sup>102</sup> Those who hate you will be clothed with shame. The tent of the wicked will be no more."

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> Then Job answered,<sup>92</sup> "Truly I know that it is so, but how can man be just with God?<sup>93</sup> If he is pleased to contend with him, he can't answer him one time in a thousand.<sup>94</sup> God is wise in heart, and mighty in strength. Who has hardened himself against him and prospered?<sup>95</sup> He removes the mountains, and they don't know it, when he overturns them in his anger.

<sup>101</sup> Behold, he goes by me, and I don't see him. He passes on also, but I don't perceive him.<sup>102</sup> Behold, he snatches away. Who can hinder him? Who will ask him, 'What are you doing?'<sup>103</sup> "God will not withdraw his anger. The helpers of Rahab stoop under him.

<sup>104</sup> How much less will I answer him, And choose my words to argue with him?<sup>105</sup> Though I were righteous, yet I wouldn't answer him. I would make supplication to my judge.

<sup>106</sup> If I had called, and he had answered me, yet I wouldn't believe that he listened to my voice.<sup>107</sup> For he breaks me with a storm, and multiplies my wounds without cause.<sup>108</sup> He will not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me with bitterness.

<sup>920</sup> Though I am righteous, my own mouth will condemn me. Though I am blameless, it will prove me perverse.<sup>921</sup> I am blameless. I don't respect myself. I despise my life.<sup>922</sup> "It is all the same. Therefore I say he destroys the blameless and the wicked.<sup>923</sup> If the scourge kills suddenly, he will mock at the trial of the innocent.<sup>924</sup> The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of its judges. If not he, then who is it?<sup>925</sup> "Now my days are swifter than a runner.

They flee away. They see no good.<sup>926</sup> They have passed away as the swift ships, as the eagle that swoops on the prey.<sup>927</sup> If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face, and cheer up,'<sup>928</sup> I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that you will not hold me innocent.<sup>929</sup> I will be condemned. Why then do I labor in vain?

<sup>930</sup> If I wash myself with snow, and cleanse my hands with lye,<sup>931</sup> yet you will plunge me in the ditch. My own clothes will abhor me.<sup>932</sup> For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, that we should come together in judgment.<sup>933</sup> There is no umpire between us, that might lay his hand on us both.<sup>934</sup> Let him take his rod away from me. Let his terror not make me afraid;

<sup>935</sup> then I would speak, and not fear him, for I am not so in myself.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> "My soul is weary of my life. I will give free course to my complaint. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.<sup>102</sup> I will tell God, 'Do not condemn me. Show me why you contend with me.<sup>103</sup> Is it good to you that you should oppress, that you should despise the work of your hands, and smile on the counsel of the wicked?

<sup>104</sup> Do you have eyes of flesh? Or do you see as man sees?<sup>105</sup> Are your days as the days of mortals, or your years as man's years,<sup>106</sup> that you inquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin?<sup>107</sup> Although you know that I am not wicked, there is no one who can deliver out of your hand.

<sup>109</sup> Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay. Will you bring me into dust again?<sup>1010</sup> Haven't you poured me out like milk, and curdled me like cheese?<sup>1011</sup> You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews.

<sup>1012</sup> You have granted me life and loving kindness. Your visitation has preserved my spirit.<sup>1013</sup> Yet you hid these things in your heart. I know that this is with you:<sup>1014</sup> if I sin, then you mark me. You will not acquit me from my iniquity.<sup>1015</sup> If I am wicked, woe to me. If I am righteous, I still will not lift up my head, being filled with disgrace, and conscious of my affliction.

<sup>1016</sup> If my head is held high, you hunt me like a lion. Again you show yourself powerful to me.<sup>1017</sup> You renew your witnesses against me, and increase your indignation on me. Changes and warfare are with me.

<sup>10</sup><sup>18</sup> "Why, then, have you brought me out of the womb? I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me.

<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> Life will be clearer than the noonday. Though there is darkness, it will be as the morning. <sup>11</sup><sup>18</sup> You will be secure, because there is hope. Yes, you will search, and will take your rest in safety. <sup>11</sup><sup>19</sup> Also you will lie down, and no one will make you afraid. Yes, many will court your favor. <sup>11</sup><sup>20</sup> But the eyes of the wicked will fail. They will have no way to flee. Their hope will be the giving up of the spirit."

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>1</sup> Then Job answered, <sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> "No doubt, but you are the people, and wisdom will die with you. <sup>12</sup><sup>3</sup> But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Yes, who doesn't know such things as these?

carry their god in their hands. <sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> "But ask the animals, now, and they will teach you; the birds of the sky, and they will tell you.

CHAPTER 13

speech. Let my declaration be in your ears.<sup>1318</sup> See now, I have set my cause in order. I know that I am righteous.<sup>1319</sup> Who is he who will contend with me? For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit.<sup>1320</sup> "Only don't do two things to me, then I will not hide myself from your face:<sup>1321</sup> withdraw your hand far from me, and don't let your terror make me afraid.<sup>1322</sup> Then call, and I will answer, or let me speak, and you answer me.<sup>1323</sup> How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my disobedience and my sin.<sup>1324</sup> Why do you hide your face, and consider me your enemy?<sup>1325</sup> Will you harass a driven leaf? Will you pursue the dry stubble?<sup>1326</sup> For you write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth:<sup>1327</sup> You also put my feet in the stocks, and mark all my paths. You set a bound to the soles of my feet,<sup>1328</sup> though I am decaying like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>141</sup> "Man, who is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble.<sup>142</sup> He grows up like a flower, and is cut down. He also flees like a shadow, and doesn't continue.<sup>143</sup> Do you open your eyes on such a one, and bring me into judgment with you?<sup>144</sup> Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one.

<sup>145</sup> Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with you, and you have appointed his bounds that he can't pass;<sup>146</sup> Look away from him, that he may rest, until he accomplishes, as a hireling, his day.

<sup>147</sup> "For there is hope for a tree if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, that the tender branch of it will not cease.<sup>148</sup> Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stock dies in the ground,<sup>149</sup> yet through the scent of water it will bud, and sprout boughs like a plant.

<sup>1412</sup> so man lies down and doesn't rise. Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake, nor be roused out of their sleep.<sup>1413</sup> "Oh that you would hide me in Sheol, that you would keep me secret until your wrath is past, that you would appoint me a set time and remember me!<sup>1414</sup> If a man dies, will he live again? I would wait all the days of my warfare, until my release should come.

<sup>1415</sup> You would call, and I would answer you. You would have a desire for the work of your hands.

<sup>1418</sup> "But the mountain falling comes to nothing. The rock is removed out of its place;

<sup>1421</sup> His sons come to honor, and he doesn't know it. They are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it of them.<sup>1422</sup> But his flesh on him has pain, and his soul within him mourns."

CHAPTER 15

<sup>156</sup> Your own mouth condemns you, and not I. Yes, your own lips testify against you.<sup>157</sup> "Are you the first man who was born? Or were you brought out before the hills?<sup>158</sup> Have you heard the secret counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?<sup>159</sup> What do you know that we don't know? What do you understand which is not in us?<sup>1510</sup> With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men, much older than your father.

<sup>1511</sup> Are the consolations of God too small for you, even the word that is gentle toward you?<sup>1512</sup> Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash,<sup>1513</sup> that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth?

<sup>1514</sup> What is man, that he should be clean? What is he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

<sup>1517</sup> "I will show you, listen to me; that which I have seen I will declare<sup>1518</sup> (which wise men have told by their fathers, and have not hidden it;<sup>1519</sup> to whom alone the land was given, and no stranger passed among them).<sup>1520</sup> the wicked man writhes in pain all his days, even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.<sup>1521</sup> A sound of terrors is in his ears. In prosperity the destroyer will come on him.

He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

<sup>1529</sup> He will not be rich, neither will his substance continue, neither will their possessions be extended on the earth.<sup>1530</sup> He will not depart out of darkness. The flame will dry up his branches. He will go away by the breath of God's mouth.<sup>1531</sup> Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; for emptiness will be his reward.<sup>1532</sup> It will be accomplished before his time.

His branch will not be green.<sup>15</sup><sup>33</sup> He will shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and will cast off his flower as the olive tree.<sup>15</sup><sup>34</sup> For the company of the godless will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of bribery.<sup>15</sup><sup>35</sup> They conceive mischief and produce iniquity. Their heart prepares deceit."

It testifies to my face.<sup>16</sup><sup>9</sup> He has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me. He has gnashed on me with his teeth. My adversary sharpens his eyes on me.

<sup>18</sup><sup>19</sup> He will have neither son nor grandson among his people, nor any remaining where he lived.

<sup>18</sup><sup>20</sup> Those who come after will be astonished at his day, as those who went before were frightened.

<sup>19</sup><sup>20</sup> My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh. I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.<sup>19</sup><sup>21</sup> “Have pity on me. Have pity on me, you my friends; for the hand of God has touched me.

<sup>20</sup><sup>19</sup> For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor. He has violently taken away a house, and he will not build it up.<sup>20</sup><sup>20</sup> “Because he knew no quietness within him, he will not save anything of that in which he delights.

The honorable man, he lived in it. <sup>22</sup><sup>9</sup> You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken. <sup>22</sup><sup>10</sup> Therefore snares are around you. Sudden fear troubles you, <sup>22</sup><sup>11</sup> or darkness, so that you can not see, and floods of waters cover you.

<sup>22</sup><sup>29</sup> When they cast down, you will say, ‘be lifted up.’ He will save the humble person.

<sup>22</sup><sup>30</sup> He will even deliver him who is not innocent. Yes, he will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.’

<sup>23</sup><sup>17</sup> Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

<sup>24</sup><sup>20</sup> The womb will forget him. The worm will feed sweetly on him. He will be no more remembered. Unrighteousness will be broken as a tree.

of life.<sup>24</sup><sup>23</sup> God gives them security, and they rest in it. His eyes are on their ways.<sup>24</sup><sup>24</sup> They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone. Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.

<sup>24</sup><sup>25</sup> If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?"

He makes peace in his high places.

On whom does his light not arise?

Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?

who is without power! How have you saved the arm that has no strength!<sup>26</sup><sup>3</sup> How have you counseled him who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge!<sup>26</sup><sup>4</sup> To whom have you uttered words?

Whose spirit came out of you?<sup>26</sup><sup>5</sup> "The departed spirits tremble, those beneath the waters and all that live in them.<sup>26</sup><sup>6</sup> Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering.<sup>26</sup><sup>7</sup> He stretches out the north over empty space, and hangs the earth on nothing.<sup>26</sup><sup>8</sup> He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, and the cloud is not burst under them.<sup>26</sup><sup>9</sup> He encloses the face of his throne, and spreads his cloud on it.<sup>26</sup><sup>10</sup> He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters, and to the confines of light and darkness.<sup>26</sup><sup>11</sup> The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>27</sup><sup>1</sup> Job again took up his parable, and said,<sup>27</sup><sup>2</sup> "As God lives, who has taken away my right, the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter<sup>27</sup><sup>3</sup> (for the length of my life is still in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils);

<sup>27</sup><sup>4</sup> surely my lips will not speak unrighteousness, neither will my tongue utter deceit.<sup>27</sup><sup>5</sup> Far be it from me that I should justify you. Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me.<sup>27</sup><sup>6</sup> I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go. My heart will not reproach me so long as I live.<sup>27</sup><sup>7</sup> "Let my enemy be as the wicked. Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.

be valued with pure gold.<sup>28</sup><sup>20</sup> Where then does wisdom come from? Where is the place of understanding?<sup>28</sup><sup>21</sup> Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the sky.<sup>28</sup><sup>22</sup> Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'

<sup>28</sup><sup>28</sup> To man he said, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom. To depart from evil is understanding.'

CHAPTER 29

<sup>29</sup><sup>1</sup> Job again took up his parable, and said,<sup>29</sup><sup>2</sup> "Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me;<sup>29</sup><sup>3</sup> when his lamp shone on my head, and by his light I walked through darkness,<sup>29</sup><sup>4</sup> as I was in my prime, when the friendship of God was in my tent,

CHAPTER 30

<sup>301</sup> "But now those who are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I considered unworthy to put with my sheep dogs.<sup>302</sup> Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, men in whom ripe age has perished?

<sup>303</sup> They are gaunt from lack and famine. They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation.

<sup>3010</sup> They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and don't hesitate to spit in my face.<sup>3011</sup> For he has untied his cord, and afflicted me; and they have thrown off restraint before me.<sup>3012</sup> On my right hand rise the rabble. They thrust aside my feet, They cast up against me their ways of destruction.<sup>3013</sup> They mar my path.

They promote my destruction without anyone's help.<sup>3014</sup> As through a wide breach they come. They roll themselves in amid the ruin.<sup>3015</sup> Terrors have turned on me. They chase my honor as the wind. My welfare has passed away as a cloud.<sup>3016</sup> "Now my soul is poured out within me. Days of affliction have taken hold of me.

<sup>3017</sup> In the night season my bones are pierced in me, and the pains that gnaw me take no rest.<sup>3018</sup> My garment is disfigured by great force. It binds me about as the collar of my tunic.

<sup>3019</sup> He has cast me into the mire. I have become like dust and ashes.<sup>3020</sup> I cry to you, and you do not answer me. I stand up, and you gaze at me.<sup>3021</sup> You have turned to be cruel to me. With the might of your hand you persecute me.

<sup>3022</sup> You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it. You dissolve me in the storm.<sup>3023</sup> For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all living.<sup>3024</sup> "However doesn't one stretch out a hand in his fall? Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?

<sup>3025</sup> Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy?<sup>3026</sup> When I looked for good, then evil came. When I waited for light, darkness came.<sup>3027</sup> My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest. Days of affliction have come on me.<sup>3028</sup> I go mourning without the sun. I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.<sup>3029</sup> I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.<sup>3030</sup> My skin grows black and peels from me. My bones are burned with heat.<sup>3031</sup> Therefore my harp has turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

CHAPTER 31

Almighty on high?<sup>313</sup> Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of iniquity?

<sup>314</sup> Doesn't he see my ways, and count all my steps?

<sup>315</sup> "If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit<sup>316</sup> (let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity),<sup>317</sup> if my step has turned out of the way, if my heart walked after my eyes, if any defilement has stuck to my hands,<sup>318</sup> then let me sow, and let another eat. Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.<sup>319</sup> "If my heart has been enticed to a woman, and I have laid wait at my neighbor's door,<sup>3110</sup> then let my wife grind for another, and let others sleep with her.<sup>3111</sup> For that would be a heinous crime. Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges;<sup>3112</sup> for it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase.

<sup>3113</sup> "If I have despised the cause of my male servant or of my female servant, when they contended with me, <sup>3114</sup> what then will I do when God rises up? When he visits, what will I answer him?<sup>3115</sup> Didn't he who made me in the womb make him? Didn't one fashion us in the womb?<sup>3116</sup> "If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

<sup>3117</sup> or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it<sup>3118</sup> (no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, I have guided her from my mother's womb);<sup>3119</sup> if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or that the needy had no covering;

<sup>3126</sup> if I have seen the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in splendor,<sup>3127</sup> and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth,<sup>3128</sup> this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; for I should have denied the God who is above.<sup>3129</sup> "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him

transgressions, by hiding my iniquity in my heart.<sup>220</sup>

<sup>3134</sup> because I feared the great multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door—<sup>3135</sup> oh that I had one to hear me! Behold, here is my signature! Let the Almighty answer me! Let the accuser write my indictment!

<sup>3136</sup> Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; and I would bind it to me as a crown.<sup>3137</sup> I would declare to him the number of my steps. I would go near to him like a prince.<sup>3138</sup> If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep together;<sup>3139</sup> if I have eaten its fruits without money, or have caused its owners to lose their life,<sup>3140</sup> let briars grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley." The words of Job are ended.

<sup>321</sup> So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.<sup>322</sup> Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job. His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God.<sup>323</sup> Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

<sup>324</sup> Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he.<sup>325</sup> When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.<sup>326</sup> Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered, "I am young, and you are very old; Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion.

<sup>3210</sup> Therefore I said, 'Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.'<sup>3211</sup> "Behold, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning, while you searched out what to say.

<sup>3212</sup> Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Job, or who answered his words, among you.<sup>3213</sup> Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom. God may refute him, not man;'

<sup>3214</sup> for he has not directed his words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

<sup>3215</sup> "They are amazed. They answer no more. They don't have a word to say.<sup>3216</sup> Shall I wait, because they don't speak, because they stand still, and answer no more?<sup>3217</sup> I also will answer my part, and I also will show my opinion.<sup>3218</sup> For I am full of words. The spirit within me constrains me.<sup>3219</sup> Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; like new wineskins it is ready to burst.<sup>3220</sup> I will speak, that I may be refreshed. I will open my lips and answer.<sup>3221</sup> Please don't let me respect any man's person, neither will I give flattering titles to any man.<sup>3222</sup> For I don't know how to give flattering titles, or else my Maker would soon take me away.

<sup>331</sup> "However, Job, please hear my speech, and listen to all my words.<sup>332</sup> See now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue has spoken in my mouth.<sup>333</sup> My words will utter the uprightness of my heart. That which my lips know they will speak sincerely.<sup>334</sup> The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

<sup>335</sup> If you can, answer me. Set your words in order before me, and stand up.<sup>336</sup> Behold, I am toward God even as you are. I am also formed out of the clay.

<sup>337</sup> Behold, my terror will not make you afraid, neither will my pressure be heavy on you.

<sup>338</sup> "Surely you have spoken in my hearing, I have heard the voice of your words, saying,<sup>339</sup> 'I am clean, without disobedience. I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.'<sup>3310</sup> Behold, he finds occasions against me. He counts me for his enemy.<sup>3311</sup> He puts my feet in the stocks. He marks all my paths.<sup>3312</sup> "Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just, for God is greater than man.<sup>3313</sup> Why do you strive against him, because he doesn't give account of any of his matters?

<sup>3328</sup> He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit. My life will see the light.<sup>3329</sup> "Behold, God does all these things, twice, yes three times, with a man,

Adam sinned with his sexual part, as did Eve (see Gen 3:10; Prov 30:20; Song 4:12–16; Matt 15:11–19).

<sup>33</sup><sup>32</sup> If you have anything to say, answer me. Speak, for I desire to justify you.<sup>33</sup><sup>33</sup> If not, listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

<sup>34</sup><sup>1</sup> Moreover Elihu answered,<sup>34</sup><sup>2</sup> "Hear my words, you wise men. Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
<sup>34</sup><sup>9</sup> For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.'<sup>34</sup><sup>10</sup> "Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

CHAPTER 35

<sup>35</sup><sup>7</sup> If you are righteous, what do you give him? Or what does he receive from your hand?

<sup>35</sup><sup>14</sup> How much less when you say you don't see him. The cause is before him, and you wait for him!

<sup>36</sup><sup>1</sup> Elihu also continued, and said,<sup>36</sup><sup>2</sup> "Bear with me a little, and I will show you; for I still have something to say on God's behalf.<sup>36</sup><sup>3</sup> I will get my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

and they are exalted.<sup>36</sup><sup>8</sup> If they are bound in fetters, and are taken in the cords of afflictions,<sup>36</sup><sup>9</sup> then he shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.<sup>36</sup><sup>10</sup> He also opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.<sup>36</sup><sup>11</sup> If they listen and serve him, they will spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.<sup>36</sup><sup>12</sup> But if they don't listen, they will perish by the sword; they will die without knowledge.

<sup>40</sup><sup>4</sup> "Behold, I am of small account. What will I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth.
<sup>40</sup><sup>7</sup> "Now brace yourself like a man. I will question you, and you will answer me.<sup>40</sup><sup>8</sup> Will you even annul my judgment? Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?

made as well as you. He eats grass as an ox.<sup>4016</sup> Look now, his strength is in his thighs. His force is in the muscles of his belly.<sup>4017</sup> He moves his tail like a cedar. The sinews of his thighs are knit together.<sup>4018</sup> His bones are like tubes of bronze. His limbs are like bars of iron.

CHAPTER 41

<sup>411</sup> "Can you draw out Leviathan with a fish hook, or press down his tongue with a cord?<sup>412</sup> Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

<sup>413</sup> Will he make many petitions to you, or will he speak soft words to you?<sup>414</sup> Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever?<sup>415</sup> Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your girls?<sup>416</sup> Will traders barter for him? Will they part him among the merchants?

<sup>4111</sup> Who has first given to me, that I should repay him? Everything under the heavens is mine.

<sup>4134</sup> He sees everything that is high. He is king over all the sons of pride."

CHAPTER 42

<sup>421</sup> Then Job answered God,<sup>422</sup> "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be restrained.

<sup>423</sup> You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' therefore I have uttered that which I didn't understand, things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know.

<sup>424</sup> You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer me.'

<sup>425</sup> I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you.<sup>426</sup> Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

<sup>427</sup> It was so, that after God had spoken these words to Job, God said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has.

<sup>428</sup> Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has."

<sup>429</sup> So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what God commanded them, and God accepted Job.

<sup>4210</sup> God turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. God gave Job twice as much as he had before.

<sup>4211</sup> Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, came to him and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that God had brought on him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money, and everyone a ring of gold.

<sup>4212</sup> So God blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys.<sup>4213</sup> He had also seven sons and three daughters.<sup>4214</sup> He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren Happuch.<sup>4215</sup> In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.<sup>4216</sup> After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations.

PSALMS

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

Brief background summary

Dating:

It is believed that the writing of the psalms spanned a period of about 500 years.

Authorship:

Traditional thought was that King David was the literal author of many of the psalms. However, modern scholars do not believe this to be the case, but rather that they were attributed to David, or offered in honor of him.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

BOOK 1

PSALM 1

11 Blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand on the path of sinners, nor sit in the seat of scoffers;12 but his delight is in God's law. On his law he meditates day and night.13 He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaf also does not wither. Whatever he does shall prosper.14 The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

15 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.16 For God knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 2

21 Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?22 The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take counsel together, against God, and against his Anointed, saying,23 "Let's break their bonds apart, and cast their cords from us."24 He who sits in the heavens will laugh. The Lord will have them in derision.

25 Then he will speak to them in his anger, and terrify them in his wrath:26 "Yet I have set my King on my holy hill of Zion."27 I will tell of the decree: God said to me, "You are my son. Today I have become your father."

28 Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.29 You shall break them with a rod of iron. You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

30 Now therefore be wise, you kings. Be instructed, you judges of the earth.31 Serve God with fear, and rejoice with trembling.32 Give sincere homage to the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish on the way, for his wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

PSALM 3

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

31 God, how my adversaries have increased! Many are those who rise up against me.32 Many there are who say of my soul, "There is no help for him in God." Selah.

33 But you, God, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.34 I cry to God with my voice, and he answers me out of his holy hill. Selah.

35 I laid myself down and slept. I awakened; for God sustains me.36 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.37 Arise, God! Save me, my God! For you have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone. You have broken the teeth of the wicked.38 Salvation belongs to God. May your blessing be on your people. Selah.

PSALM 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

41 Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness. Give me relief from my distress. Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.42 You sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor? Will you love vanity and seek after falsehood? Selah.43 But know that God has set apart for himself him who is godly: God will hear when I call to him.44 Stand in awe, and don't sin. Search your own heart on your bed, and be still. Selah.45 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness. Put your trust in God.46 Many say, "Who will show us any good?" God, let the light of your face shine on us.47 You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased.48 In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for you, God alone, make me live in safety.

PSALM 5

For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

51 Give ear to my words, God. Consider my meditation.

52 Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God; for I pray to you.53 God, in the morning you will hear my voice. In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly.54 For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness. Evil can't live with you.55 The arrogant will not stand in your sight. You hate all workers of iniquity.56 You will destroy those who speak lies. God abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.57 But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will come into your house. I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of you.

58 Lead me, God, in your righteousness because of my enemies. Make your way straight before my face.

59 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth. Their heart is destruction. Their throat is an open tomb. They flatter with their tongue.60 Hold them guilty, God. Let them fall by their own counsels. Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.61 But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice. Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them. Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.62 For you will bless the righteous. God, you will surround him with favor as with a shield.

PSALM 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David.

61 God, don't rebuke me in your anger, neither discipline me in your wrath.62 Have mercy on me, God, for I am faint. God, heal me, for my bones are troubled.

63 My soul is also in great anguish. But you, God—how long?64 Return, God. Deliver my soul, and save me for your loving kindness' sake.65 For in death there is no memory of you. In Sheol, who shall give you thanks?

66 I am weary with my groaning. Every night I flood my bed. I drench my couch with my tears.67 My eye wastes away because of grief. It grows old because of all my adversaries.<sup>68</sup> Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for God has heard the voice of my weeping.

<sup>69</sup> God has heard my supplication. God accepts my prayer.<sup>70</sup> May all my enemies be ashamed and dismayed. They shall turn back, they shall be disgraced suddenly.

PSALM 7

A meditation by David, which he sang to God, concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite.
<sup>71</sup> God, my God, I take refuge in you. Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me,<sup>72</sup> lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces, while there is no one to deliver.<sup>73</sup> God, my God, if I have done this, if there is iniquity in my hands,
<sup>74</sup> if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me (yes, I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary),<sup>75</sup> let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it; yes, let him tread my life down to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust. Selah.<sup>76</sup> Arise, God, in your anger. Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries. Awake for me. You have commanded judgment.<sup>77</sup> Let the congregation of the peoples surround you. Rule over them on high.

<sup>78</sup> God administers judgment to the peoples. Judge me, God, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me.<sup>79</sup> Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God.

<sup>80</sup> My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.<sup>81</sup> God is a righteous judge, yes, a God who has indignation every day.<sup>82</sup> If a man doesn't repent, he will sharpen his sword; he has bent and strung his bow.<sup>83</sup> He has also prepared for himself the instruments of death. He makes ready his flaming arrows.<sup>84</sup> Behold, he travails with iniquity. Yes, he has conceived mischief, and brought out falsehood.<sup>85</sup> He has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which he made.<sup>86</sup> The trouble he causes shall return to his own head. His violence shall come down on the crown of his own head.<sup>87</sup> I will give thanks to God according to his righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of God Most High.

PSALM 8

For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by David.

<sup>81</sup> God, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens!
<sup>82</sup> From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength, because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.
<sup>83</sup> When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have ordained;<sup>84</sup> what is man, that you think of him? What is the son of man, that you care for him?

<sup>22</sup> Man is a higher creation than angels, but begins life lower than the angels in development. Man must go through a process of growing in intellect, heart and will, and grow to inherit the character

<sup>89</sup> God, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

PSALM 9

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Death of the Son." A Psalm by David.

<sup>91</sup> I will give thanks to God with my whole heart. I will tell of all your marvelous works.<sup>92</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in you. I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.<sup>93</sup> When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish in your presence.

<sup>94</sup> For you have maintained my just cause. You sit on the throne judging righteously.

<sup>95</sup> You have rebuked the nations. You have destroyed the wicked. You have blotted out their name forever and ever.<sup>96</sup> The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin. The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.<sup>97</sup> But God reigns forever. He has prepared his throne for judgment.<sup>98</sup> He will judge the world in righteousness. He will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness.<sup>99</sup> God will also be a high tower for the oppressed; a high tower in times of trouble.<sup>100</sup> Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, God, have not forsaken those who seek you.<sup>101</sup> Sing praises to God, who dwells in Zion, and declare among the people what he has done.

<sup>102</sup> For he who avenges blood remembers them. He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.<sup>103</sup> Have mercy on me, God. See my affliction by those who hate me, and lift me up from the gates of death,<sup>104</sup> that I may show all of your praise. I will rejoice in your salvation in the gates of the daughter of Zion.<sup>105</sup> The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made. In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.<sup>106</sup> God has made himself known. He has executed judgment. The wicked is snared by the work of his own hands. Meditation. Selah.<sup>107</sup> The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God.<sup>108</sup> For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.<sup>109</sup> Arise, God! Don't let man prevail. Let the nations be judged in your sight.<sup>1010</sup> Put them in fear, God. Let the nations know that they are only men. Selah.

PSALM 10

and personality of God. This level of self-perfection, together with the creation of a family, gives dominion over angels and all creation in man's spiritual maturity (see Heb 1:5, 14; 1 Cor 6:3).

wicked hunt down the weak. They are caught in the schemes that they devise.

<sup>10</sup><sup>9</sup> He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush. He lies in wait to catch the helpless. He catches the helpless when he draws him in his net. <sup>10</sup><sup>10</sup> The helpless are crushed. They collapse. They fall under his strength. <sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup> He says in his heart, "God has forgotten. He hides his face. He will never see it." <sup>10</sup><sup>12</sup> Arise, God! God, lift up your hand! Don't forget the helpless. <sup>10</sup><sup>13</sup> Why does the wicked person condemn God, and say in his heart, "God won't call me into account?" <sup>10</sup><sup>14</sup> But you do see trouble and grief. You consider it to take it into your hand. You help the victim and the fatherless. <sup>10</sup><sup>15</sup> Break the arm of the wicked. As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none. <sup>10</sup><sup>16</sup> God is King forever and ever! The nations will perish out of his land. <sup>10</sup><sup>17</sup> God, you have heard the desire of the humble. You will prepare their heart. You will cause your ear to hear, <sup>10</sup><sup>18</sup> to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that man who is of the earth may terrify no more.

PSALM 11

For the Chief Musician. By David.

<sup>11</sup><sup>1</sup> In God, I take refuge. How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain"? <sup>11</sup><sup>2</sup> For, behold, the wicked bend their bows. They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. <sup>11</sup><sup>3</sup> If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? <sup>11</sup><sup>4</sup> God is in his holy temple. God is on his throne in heaven. His eyes observe. His eyes examine the children of men. <sup>11</sup><sup>5</sup> God examines the righteous, but his soul hates the wicked and him who loves violence. <sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> On the wicked he will rain blazing coals; fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup. <sup>11</sup><sup>7</sup> For God is righteous. He loves righteousness. The upright shall see his face.

PSALM 12

For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.

<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> "Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy, I will now arise," says God; "I will set him in safety from those who malign him." <sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> God's words are flawless words, as silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.

PSALM 13

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>13</sup><sup>1</sup> How long, God? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me? <sup>13</sup><sup>2</sup> How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart every day? How long shall my enemy triumph over me?

<sup>13</sup><sup>6</sup> I will sing to God, because he has been good to me.

PSALM 14

For the Chief Musician. By David.

<sup>14</sup><sup>1</sup> The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt. They have done abominable deeds. There is no one who does good. <sup>14</sup><sup>2</sup> God looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there were any who understood, who sought after God.

PSALM 15

A Psalm by David.

<sup>15</sup><sup>4</sup> in whose eyes a vile man is despised, but who honors those who fear God; he who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change; <sup>15</sup><sup>5</sup> he who doesn't lend out his money for usury, nor take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be shaken.

PSALM 16

A Poem by David.

PSALM 17

A Prayer by David.

PSALM 18

For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of God, who spoke to God the words of this song in the day that God delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said, my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.<sup>18</sup><sup>3</sup> I call on God, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies.<sup>18</sup><sup>4</sup> The cords of death surrounded me. The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.<sup>18</sup><sup>5</sup> The cords of Sheol were around me. The snares of death came on me.<sup>18</sup><sup>6</sup> In my distress I called on God, and cried to my God. He heard my voice out of his temple. My cry before him came into his ears.

<sup>18</sup><sup>33</sup> He makes my feet like deer's feet, and sets me on my high places.

PSALM 19

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

nothing hidden from its heat.<sup>9</sup><sup>7</sup> God's law is perfect, restoring the soul. God's covenant is sure, making wise the simple.

God's commandment is pure, enlightening the eyes.

<sup>19</sup><sup>9</sup> The fear of God is clean, enduring forever. God's ordinances are true, and righteous altogether.

<sup>19</sup><sup>12</sup> Who can discern his errors? Forgive me from hidden errors.<sup>19</sup><sup>13</sup> Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins. Let them not have dominion over me. Then I will be upright. I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.<sup>19</sup><sup>14</sup> Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, God, my rock, and my redeemer.

PSALM 20

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>20</sup><sup>1</sup> May God answer you in the day of trouble. May the name of the God of Jacob set you up on high,<sup>20</sup><sup>2</sup> send you help from the sanctuary, grant you support from Zion,<sup>20</sup><sup>3</sup> remember all your offerings, and accept your burned sacrifice. Selah.<sup>20</sup><sup>4</sup> May he grant you your heart's desire, and fulfill all your counsel.<sup>20</sup><sup>5</sup> We will triumph in your salvation. In the name of our God, we will set up our banners. May God grant all your requests.<sup>20</sup><sup>6</sup> Now I know that God saves his anointed. He will answer him from his holy heaven, with the saving strength of his right hand.<sup>20</sup><sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we trust in the name of The Lord our God.<sup>20</sup><sup>8</sup> They are bowed down and fallen, but we rise up, and stand upright.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

PSALM 22

For the Chief Musician; set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by David.

Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning? <sup>22</sup><sup>2</sup> My God, I cry in the daytime, but you don't answer; in the night season, and am not silent. <sup>22</sup><sup>3</sup> But you are holy, you who inhabit the praises of Israel. <sup>22</sup><sup>4</sup> Our fathers trusted in you. They trusted, and you delivered them. <sup>22</sup><sup>5</sup> They cried to you, and were delivered. They trusted in you, and were not disappointed. <sup>22</sup><sup>6</sup> But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised by the people.

PSALM 23

A Psalm by David.

PSALM 24

A Psalm by David.

<sup>22</sup><sup>25</sup> When Jesus uttered these same words on the cross (see Matt 27:46; Mark 15:34), he may have not only been expressing that God had forsaken him in his final hour, for God could not bare to watch His only begotten son die at the hands of faithless sinners, dashing both God's and Jesus' hope for the earthly kingdom in his lifetime. Jesus may also have been expressing his love of the Father, as David in Ps 22:3 demonstrates.

PSALM 25

By David.

<sup>25</sup>1 To you, God, I lift up my soul. <sup>25</sup>2 My God, I have trusted in you. Don't let me be shamed. Don't let my enemies triumph over me. <sup>25</sup>3 Yes, no one who waits for you will be shamed. They will be shamed who deal treacherously without cause. <sup>25</sup>4 Show me your ways, God. Teach me your paths. <sup>25</sup>5 Guide me in your truth, and teach me, For you are the God of my salvation, I wait for you all day long. <sup>25</sup>6 God, remember your tender mercies and your loving kindness, for they are from old times.

<sup>25</sup>7 Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions. Remember me according to your loving kindness, for your goodness' sake, God.

<sup>25</sup>12 What man is he who fears God? He shall instruct him in the way that he shall choose. <sup>25</sup>13 His soul will dwell at ease. His offspring will inherit the land.

<sup>25</sup>14 The friendship of God is with those who fear him. He will show them his covenant. <sup>25</sup>15 My eyes are ever on God, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.

<sup>25</sup>16 Turn to me, and have mercy on me, for I am desolate and afflicted. <sup>26</sup>17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged. Oh bring me out of my distresses.

<sup>25</sup>18 Consider my affliction and my travail. Forgive all my sins. <sup>25</sup>19 Consider my enemies, for they are many. They hate me with cruel hatred. <sup>25</sup>20 Oh keep my soul, and deliver me. Let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in you. <sup>25</sup>21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you. <sup>25</sup>22 God, redeem Israel out of all his troubles.

PSALM 26

By David.

<sup>26</sup>1 Judge me, God, for I have walked in my integrity. I have trusted also in God without wavering.

<sup>26</sup>2 Examine me, God, and prove me. Try my heart and my mind.

<sup>26</sup>3 For your loving kindness is before my eyes. I have walked in your truth. <sup>26</sup>4 I have not sat with deceitful men, neither will I go in with hypocrites. <sup>26</sup>5 I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.

<sup>26</sup>6 I will wash my hands in innocence, so I will go about your altar, God, <sup>26</sup>7 that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard and tell of all your wondrous deeds. <sup>26</sup>8 God, I love the habitation of your house, the place where your glory dwells. <sup>26</sup>9 Don't gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men; <sup>26</sup>10 in whose hands is wickedness, their right hand is full of bribes. <sup>26</sup>11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me, and be merciful to me. <sup>26</sup>12 My foot stands in an even place. In the congregations I will bless God.

PSALM 27

By David.

<sup>27</sup>1 God is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? God is the strength of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid?

<sup>27</sup>2 When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell. <sup>27</sup>3 Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident. <sup>27</sup>4 One thing I have asked of God, that I will seek after: that I may dwell in God's house all the days of my life, to see God's beauty, and to inquire in his temple. <sup>27</sup>5 For in the day of trouble, he will keep me secretly in his pavilion. In the secret place of his tabernacle, he will hide me. He will lift me up on a rock. <sup>27</sup>6 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me. I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to God.

<sup>27</sup>7 Hear, God, when I cry with my voice. Have mercy also on me, and answer me. <sup>27</sup>8 When you said, "Seek my face," my heart said to you, "I will seek your face, God." <sup>27</sup>9 Don't hide your face from me. Don't put your servant away in anger. You have been my help. Don't abandon me, neither forsake me, God of my salvation.

<sup>27</sup>10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then God will take me up.

<sup>27</sup>11 Teach me your way, God. Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.

<sup>27</sup>12 Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me, such as breathe out cruelty. <sup>27</sup>13 I am still confident of this: I will see the goodness of God in the land of the living. <sup>27</sup>14 Wait for God. Be strong, and let your heart take courage. Yes, wait for God.

PSALM 28

By David.

<sup>28</sup>1 To you, God, I call. My rock, don't be deaf to me, lest, if you are silent to me, I would become like those who go down into the pit. <sup>28</sup>2 Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you, when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place. <sup>28</sup>3 Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak peace with their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts. <sup>28</sup>4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings. Give them according to the operation of their hands. Bring back on them what they deserve.

<sup>28</sup>5 Because they don't respect the works of God, nor the operation of his hands, he will break them down and not build them up. <sup>28</sup>6 Blessed be God, because he has heard the voice of my petitions.

<sup>28</sup>7 God is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped. Therefore my heart greatly rejoices. With my song I will thank him.

<sup>28</sup>8 God is their strength. He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.

<sup>28</sup>9 Save your people, and bless your inheritance. Be their shepherd also, and bear them up forever.

PSALM 29

A Psalm by David.

<sup>29</sup>1 Ascribe to God, you sons of the mighty, ascribe to God glory and strength. <sup>29</sup>2 Ascribe to God the glory due to his name. Worship God in holy array. <sup>29</sup>3 God's voice is on the waters. The God of glory thunders, even God on many waters. <sup>29</sup>4 God's voice is powerful. God's voice is full of majesty. <sup>29</sup>5 God's voice breaks the cedars. Yes, God breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon. <sup>29</sup>6 He makes them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox. <sup>29</sup>7 God's voice strikes with flashes of lightning. <sup>29</sup>8 God's voice shakes the wilderness. God shakes the wilderness of Kadesh. <sup>29</sup>9 God's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare. In his temple everything says, "Glory!" <sup>29</sup>10 God sat enthroned at the Flood. Yes, God sits as King forever. <sup>29</sup>11 God will give strength to his people. God will bless his people with peace.

PSALM 30

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

<sup>30</sup>1 I will extol you, God, for you have raised me up, and have not made my foes to rejoice over me. <sup>30</sup>2 God my God, I cried to you, and you have healed me. <sup>30</sup>3 God, you have brought up my soul from Sheol. You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. <sup>30</sup>4 Sing praise to God, you saints of his. Give thanks to his holy name. <sup>30</sup>5 For his anger is but for a moment. His favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the morning. <sup>30</sup>6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved." <sup>30</sup>7 You, God, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong; but when you hid your face, I was troubled. <sup>30</sup>8 I cried to you, God. I made supplication to the Lord: <sup>30</sup>9 "What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise you? Shall it declare your truth?" <sup>30</sup>10 Hear, God, and have mercy on me. God, be my helper." <sup>30</sup>11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me. You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness, <sup>30</sup>12 to the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent. God my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

PSALM 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>31</sup>1 In you, God, I take refuge. Let me never be disappointed. Deliver me in your righteousness. <sup>31</sup>2 Bow down your ear to me. Deliver me speedily. Be to me a strong rock, a house of defense to save me. <sup>31</sup>3 For you are my rock and my fortress, therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me. <sup>31</sup>4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me, for you are my stronghold. <sup>31</sup>5 Into your hand I command my spirit. You redeem me, God, God of truth. <sup>31</sup>6 I hate those who regard lying vanities, but I trust in God. <sup>31</sup>7 I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness, for you have seen my affliction. You have known my soul in adversities. <sup>31</sup>8 You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a large place. <sup>31</sup>9 Have mercy on me, God, for I am in distress. My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.

<sup>31</sup>10 For my life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing. My strength fails because of my iniquity. My bones are wasted away. <sup>31</sup>11 Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors, a horror to my acquaintances. Those who saw me on the street fled from me. <sup>31</sup>12 I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man. I am like broken pottery.

<sup>31</sup>13 For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side, while they conspire together against me, they plot to take away my life. <sup>31</sup>14 But I trust in you, God. I said, "You are my God." <sup>31</sup>15 My times are in your hand. Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

<sup>31</sup>18 Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.

<sup>31</sup>19 Oh how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for those who fear you, which you have worked for those who take refuge in you, before the sons of men! <sup>31</sup>20 In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man. You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.

<sup>31</sup>21 Praise be to God, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a strong city. <sup>31</sup>22 As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before your eyes." Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you. <sup>31</sup>23 Oh love God, all you his saints! God preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.

<sup>31</sup>24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in God.

PSALM 32

By David. A contemplative psalm.

<sup>32</sup>1 Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered. <sup>32</sup>2 Blessed is the man to whom God doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit. <sup>32</sup>3 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. <sup>32</sup>4 For day and night your hand was heavy on me. My strength was sapped in the heat of summer. Selah.

<sup>32</sup>5 I acknowledged my sin to you. I didn't hide my iniquity. I said, I will confess my transgressions to God, and you forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah. <sup>32</sup>6 For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found. Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.

<sup>32</sup>7 You are my hiding place. You will preserve me from trouble. You will surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah. <sup>32</sup>8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go. I will counsel you with my eye on you. <sup>32</sup>9 Don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.

<sup>32</sup>10 Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in God.

<sup>32</sup>11 Be glad in God, and rejoice, you righteous! Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

PSALM 33

<sup>33</sup>1 Rejoice in God, you righteous! Praise is fitting for the upright. <sup>33</sup>2 Give thanks to God with the lyre. Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings. <sup>33</sup>3 Sing to him a new song. Play skillfully with a shout of joy!

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

<sup>33</sup>9 For he spoke, and it was done. He commanded, and it stood firm. <sup>33</sup>10 God brings the counsel of the nations to nothing. He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect. <sup>33</sup>11 The counsel of God stands fast forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

<sup>33</sup>22 Let your loving kindness be on us, God, since we have hoped in you.

PSALM 34

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

<sup>34</sup>1 I will bless God at all times. His praise will always be in my mouth. <sup>34</sup>2 My soul shall boast in God. The humble shall hear of it and be glad. <sup>34</sup>3 Oh magnify God with me. Let's exalt his name together.

<sup>34</sup>4 I sought God, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears. <sup>34</sup>5 They looked to him, and were radiant. Their faces shall never be covered with shame. <sup>34</sup>6 This poor man cried, and God heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. <sup>34</sup>7 God's angel encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them <sup>34</sup>8 Oh taste and see that God is good. Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him. <sup>34</sup>9 Oh fear God, you his saints, for there is no lack with those who fear him. <sup>34</sup>10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek God shall not lack any good thing. <sup>34</sup>11 Come, you children, listen to me. I will teach you the fear of God. <sup>34</sup>12 Who is someone who desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good? <sup>34</sup>13 Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking lies. <sup>34</sup>14 Depart from evil, and do good. Seek peace, and pursue it. <sup>34</sup>15 God's eyes are toward the righteous. His ears listen to their cry. <sup>34</sup>16 God's face is against those who do evil, to cut off their memory from the earth. <sup>34</sup>17 The righteous cry, and God hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles. <sup>34</sup>18 God is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves those who have a crushed spirit. <sup>34</sup>19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but God delivers him out of them all.

PSALM 35

By David.

<sup>35</sup>1 Contend, God, with those who contend with me. Fight against those who fight against me. <sup>35</sup>2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.

<sup>35</sup>3 Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me. Tell my soul, "I am your salvation." <sup>35</sup>4 Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor. Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded. <sup>35</sup>5 Let them be as chaff before the wind, God's angel driving them on. <sup>35</sup>6 Let their way be dark and slippery, God's angel pursuing them.

<sup>35</sup>7 For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me. Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul. <sup>35</sup>8 Let destruction come on him unawares. Let his net that he has hidden catch himself. Let him fall into that destruction. <sup>35</sup>9 My soul shall be joyful in God. It shall rejoice in his salvation. <sup>35</sup>10 All my bones shall say, "God, who is like you, who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him; yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?" <sup>35</sup>11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up. They ask me about things that I don't know about. <sup>35</sup>12 They reward me evil for good, to the bereaving of my soul. <sup>35</sup>13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth. I afflicted my soul with fasting. My prayer returned into my own bosom.

<sup>35</sup>14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother. I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother. <sup>35</sup>15 But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together. The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it. They tore at me, and didn't cease.

<sup>35</sup>16 Like the profane mockers in feasts, they gnashed their teeth at me. <sup>35</sup>17 Lord, how long will you look on?

Rescue my soul from their destruction, my precious life from the lions.<sup>35</sup><sup>18</sup> I will give you thanks in the great assembly. I will praise you among many people.<sup>35</sup><sup>19</sup> Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes.<sup>35</sup><sup>20</sup> For they don't speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.<sup>35</sup><sup>21</sup> Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me. They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"<sup>35</sup><sup>22</sup> You have seen it, God. Don't keep silent. Lord, don't be far from me.<sup>35</sup><sup>23</sup> Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God! My Lord, contend for me!<sup>35</sup><sup>24</sup> Vindicate me, God my God, according to your righteousness. Don't let them gloat over me.<sup>35</sup><sup>25</sup> Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha! That's the way we want it!" Don't let them say, "We have swallowed him up!"<sup>35</sup><sup>26</sup> Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity. Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.<sup>35</sup><sup>27</sup> Let those who favor my righteous cause shout for joy and be glad. Yes, let them say continually, "May God be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant!"<sup>35</sup><sup>28</sup> My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

PSALM 36

For the Chief Musician. By David, the servant of God.
<sup>36</sup><sup>1</sup> A revelation is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked: "There is no fear of God before his eyes."<sup>36</sup><sup>2</sup> For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to detect and hate his sin.<sup>36</sup><sup>3</sup> The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit. He has ceased to be wise and to do good.<sup>36</sup><sup>4</sup> He plots iniquity on his bed. He sets himself in a way that is not good. He doesn't abhor evil.<sup>36</sup><sup>5</sup> Your loving kindness, God, is in the heavens. Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.<sup>36</sup><sup>6</sup> Your righteousness is like the mountains of God. Your judgments are like a great deep. God, you preserve man and animal.<sup>36</sup><sup>7</sup> How precious is your loving kindness, God! The children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings.<sup>36</sup><sup>8</sup> They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house. You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.<sup>36</sup><sup>9</sup> For with you is the spring of life. In your light we will see light.<sup>36</sup><sup>10</sup> Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.<sup>36</sup><sup>11</sup> Don't let the foot of pride come against me. Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away.<sup>36</sup><sup>12</sup> There the workers of iniquity are fallen. They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

By David.

condemn him when he is judged.<sup>37</sup><sup>34</sup> Wait for God, and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land. When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

PSALM 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

PSALM 39

For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

<sup>39</sup><sup>1</sup> I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue. I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."<sup>39</sup><sup>2</sup> I was mute with silence. I held my peace, even from good. My sorrow was stirred.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>40</sup><sup>4</sup> Blessed is the man who makes God his trust, and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn away to lies.<sup>40</sup><sup>5</sup> Many, God, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts which are toward us. They can't be declared back to you. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be counted.<sup>40</sup><sup>6</sup> Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire. You have opened my ears. You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.

<sup>40</sup><sup>7</sup> Then I said, "Behold, I have come. It is written about me in the book in the scroll.<sup>40</sup><sup>8</sup> I delight to do your will, my God. Yes, your law is within my heart."

<sup>40</sup><sup>9</sup> I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly. Behold, I will not seal my lips, God, you know.<sup>40</sup><sup>10</sup> I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart. I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation. I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.<sup>40</sup><sup>11</sup> Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, God. Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.

<sup>40</sup><sup>12</sup> For innumerable evils have surrounded me. My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up. They are more than the hairs of my head. My heart has failed me.

PSALM 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.
<sup>41</sup><sup>1</sup> Blessed is he who considers the poor. God will deliver him in the day of evil. <sup>41</sup><sup>2</sup> God will preserve him, and keep him alive. He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.

BOOK 2

PSALM 42

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

<sup>42</sup><sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"

<sup>42</sup><sup>4</sup> These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to God's house, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day. <sup>42</sup><sup>5</sup> Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence. <sup>42</sup><sup>6</sup> My God, my soul is in despair within me. Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar. <sup>42</sup><sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.

All your waves and your billows have swept over me. <sup>42</sup><sup>8</sup> God will command his loving kindness in the daytime. In the night his song shall be with me: a prayer to the God of my life. <sup>42</sup><sup>9</sup> I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?" <sup>42</sup><sup>10</sup> As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"

<sup>42</sup><sup>11</sup> Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise him, the saving help of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 43

<sup>43</sup><sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked men. <sup>43</sup><sup>2</sup> For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? <sup>43</sup><sup>3</sup> Oh, send out your light and your truth. Let them lead me. Let them bring me to your holy hill, to your tents.

<sup>43</sup><sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy. I will praise you on the harp, God, my God. <sup>43</sup><sup>5</sup> Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise him: my Savior, my helper, and my God.

PSALM 44

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative psalm.

long my dishonor is before me, and shame covers my face, 44:16 at the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses, because of the enemy and the avenger.

44:17 All this has come on us, yet we haven't forgotten you. We haven't been false to your covenant.

44:18 Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps strayed from your path,44:19 though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death.44:20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread out our hands to a strange god,44:21 won't God search this out? For he knows the secrets of the heart.44:22 Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.

44:23 Wake up! Why do you sleep, Lord? Arise! Don't reject us forever.44:24 Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?

44:25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust. Our body clings to the earth.44:26 Rise up to help us. Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.

PSALM 45

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.
45:1 My heart overflows with a noble theme. I recite my verses for the king. My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.45:2 You are the most excellent of the sons of men. Grace has anointed your lips, therefore God has blessed you forever.45:3 Strap your sword on your thigh, mighty one: your splendor and your majesty.

45:4 In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness. Let your right hand display awesome deeds.45:5 Your arrows are sharp. The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.45:6 Your throne, God, is forever and ever. A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.

45:7 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.

45:8 All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia. Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.45:9 Kings' daughters are among your honorable women. At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.

45:10 Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear. Forget your own people, and also your father's house.45:11 So the king will desire your beauty, honor him, for he is your lord.45:12 The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift. The rich among the people entreat your favor.45:13 The princess inside is all glorious. Her clothing is interwoven with gold.45:14 She shall be led to the king in embroidered work. The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you.45:15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led.

They shall enter into the king's palace.

45:16 Your sons will take the place of your fathers. You shall make them princes in all the earth.45:17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations.

Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever.

PSALM 46

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.

46:1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.46:2 Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;46:3 though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling. Selah.46:4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad, the holy place of the tents of the Most High.46:5 God is within her. She shall not be moved. God will help her at dawn.46:6 The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved. He lifted his voice and the earth melted.46:7 The Lord God of Hosts is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.46:8 Come, see God's works, what desolations he has made in the earth.46:9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. He burns the chariots in the fire.46:10 "Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth."46:11 The Lord God of Hosts is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

PSALM 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

47:1 Oh clap your hands, all you nations. Shout to God with the voice of triumph!47:2 For God Most High is awesome. He is a great King over all the earth.

47:3 He subdues nations under us, and peoples under our feet.47:4 He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.47:5 God has gone up with a shout, God with the sound of a trumpet.

47:6 Sing praises to God! Sing praises! Sing praises to our King! Sing praises!47:7 For God is the King of all the earth. Sing praises with understanding.47:8 God reigns over the nations. God sits on his holy throne.47:9 The princes of the peoples are gathered together, the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God. He is greatly exalted!

PSALM 48

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

48:1 Great is God, and greatly to be praised, in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.48:2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the north sides, the city of the great King.48:3 God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge.48:4 For, behold, the kings assembled themselves, they passed by together.

48:5 They saw it, then they were amazed. They were dismayed. They hurried away.48:6 Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail.

48:7 With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.

<sup>48</sup>8 As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of The Lord God of Hosts, in the city of our God. God will establish it forever. Selah.

<sup>48</sup>9 We have thought about your loving kindness, God, in the middle of your temple.

<sup>48</sup>13 Notice her bulwarks. Consider her palaces, that you may tell it to the next generation.

<sup>48</sup>14 For this God is our God forever and ever. He will be our guide even to death.

PSALM 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>49</sup>1 Hear this, all you peoples. Listen, all you inhabitants of the world,<sup>49</sup>2 both low and high, rich and poor together.<sup>49</sup>3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom. My heart will utter understanding.<sup>49</sup>4 I will incline my ear to a proverb. I will solve my riddle on the harp.

<sup>49</sup>16 Don't be afraid when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;<sup>49</sup>17 for when he dies he will carry nothing away. His glory won't descend after him.<sup>49</sup>18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul—and men praise you when you do well for yourself—<sup>49</sup>19 he shall go to the generation of his fathers. They shall never see the light.<sup>49</sup>20 A man who has riches without understanding, is like the animals that perish.

PSALM 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

does not keep silent. A fire devours before him. It is very stormy around him.<sup>50</sup>4 He calls to the heavens above, to the earth, that he may judge his people:<sup>50</sup>5 "Gather my saints together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."<sup>50</sup>6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge. Selah.<sup>50</sup>7 "Hear, my people, and I will speak. Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God.<sup>50</sup>8 I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices. Your burnt offerings are continually before me.<sup>50</sup>9 I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens.<sup>50</sup>10 For every animal of the forest is mine, and the livestock on a thousand hills.<sup>50</sup>11 I know all the birds of the mountains. The wild animals of the field are mine.

<sup>50</sup>12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it.<sup>50</sup>13 Will I eat the meat of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?<sup>50</sup>14 Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving. Pay your vows to the Most High.<sup>50</sup>15 Call on me in the day of trouble. I will deliver you, and you will honor me."<sup>50</sup>16 But to the wicked God says, "What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips,<sup>50</sup>17 since you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you?<sup>50</sup>18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers.

<sup>50</sup>19 "You give your mouth to evil. Your tongue frames deceit.<sup>50</sup>20 You sit and speak against your brother. You slander your own mother's son.<sup>50</sup>21 You have done these things, and I kept silent. You thought that I was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.<sup>50</sup>22 Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be no one to deliver<sup>50</sup>23 Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me, and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him."

PSALM 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

<sup>51</sup>1 Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.<sup>51</sup>2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity. Cleanse me from my sin.

<sup>51</sup>3 For I know my transgressions. My sin is constantly before me.<sup>51</sup>4 Against you, and you only, I have sinned, and done that which is evil in your sight, so you may be proved right when you speak, and justified when you judge.<sup>51</sup>5 Behold, I was born in iniquity. My mother conceived me in sin.<sup>51</sup>6 Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.

<sup>51</sup>7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.<sup>51</sup>8 Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones which you have broken may rejoice.<sup>51</sup>9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities.<sup>51</sup>10 Create in me a clean heart, O God. Renew a right spirit within me.<sup>51</sup>11 Don't throw me from your presence, and don't take your

Holy Spirit from me.<sup>5112</sup> Restore to me the joy of your salvation. Uphold me with a willing spirit.<sup>5113</sup> Then I will teach transgressors your ways. Sinners will be converted to you.<sup>5114</sup> Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, the God of my salvation. My tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness.<sup>5115</sup> Lord, open my lips. My mouth will declare your praise.<sup>5116</sup> For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it. You have no pleasure in burnt offering.<sup>5117</sup> The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. O God, you will not despise a broken and contrite heart.<sup>226</sup>

<sup>5118</sup> Do well in your good pleasure to Zion. Build the walls of Jerusalem.<sup>5119</sup> Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings. Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

PSALM 52

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Ahimelech's house."

God's loving kindness endures continually.

<sup>525</sup> God will likewise destroy you forever. He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah.

<sup>527</sup> "Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness."

<sup>528</sup> But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house. I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.

<sup>529</sup> I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it. I will hope in your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints.

PSALM 53

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by David.

<sup>531</sup> The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity. There is no one who does good.

<sup>533</sup> Every one of them has gone back. They have become filthy together. There is no one who does good, no, not one.

<sup>534</sup> Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on God?

<sup>535</sup> There they were in great fear, where no fear was, for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you. You have put them to shame, because God has rejected them.

<sup>536</sup> Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God brings back his people from captivity, then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

<sup>541</sup> Save me, God, by your name. Vindicate me in your might.<sup>542</sup> Hear my prayer, God. Listen to the words of my mouth.<sup>543</sup> For strangers have risen up against me. Violent men have sought after my soul. They haven't set God before them. Selah.<sup>544</sup> Behold, God is my helper.

The Lord is the one who sustains my soul.<sup>545</sup> He will repay the evil to my enemies. Destroy them in your truth.<sup>546</sup> With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you. I will give thanks to your name, God, for it is good.

<sup>547</sup> For he has delivered me out of all trouble. My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

PSALM 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

<sup>551</sup> Listen to my prayer, God. Don't hide yourself from my supplication.<sup>552</sup> Attend to me, and answer me. I am restless in my complaint, and moan<sup>553</sup> because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked. For they bring suffering on me. In anger they hold a grudge against me.

<sup>554</sup> My heart is severely pained within me. The terrors of death have fallen on me.

<sup>555</sup> Fearfulness and trembling have come on me. Horror has overwhelmed me.<sup>556</sup> I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove! Then I would fly away, and be at rest."

<sup>557</sup> Behold, then I would wander far off. I would lodge in the wilderness." Selah.

<sup>5512</sup> For it was not an enemy who insulted me, then I could have endured it. Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him.<sup>55</sup><sup>13</sup> But it was you, a man like me, my companion, and my familiar friend.

<sup>55</sup><sup>17</sup> Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress. He will hear my voice.<sup>55</sup><sup>18</sup> He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, although there are many who oppose me.

PSALM 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

<sup>56</sup><sup>2</sup> My enemies want to swallow me up all day long, for they are many who fight proudly against me.

What can man do to me?<sup>56</sup><sup>12</sup> Your vows are on me, God. I will give thank offerings to you.<sup>56</sup><sup>13</sup> For you have delivered my soul from death, and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

PSALM 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

<sup>57</sup><sup>1</sup> Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for my soul takes refuge in you. Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge, until disaster has passed.

heaven, and save me, he rebukes the one who is pursuing me. Selah. God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.<sup>57</sup><sup>4</sup> My soul is among lions. I lie among those who are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.<sup>57</sup><sup>5</sup> Be exalted, God, above the heavens! Let your glory be above all the earth!<sup>57</sup><sup>6</sup> They have prepared a net for my steps. My soul is bowed down. They dig a pit before me. They fall into the middle of it themselves. Selah.<sup>57</sup><sup>7</sup> My heart is steadfast, God. My heart is steadfast. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.<sup>57</sup><sup>8</sup> Wake up, my glory! Wake up, lute and harp! I will wake up the dawn.<sup>57</sup><sup>9</sup> I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples. I will sing praises to you among the nations.<sup>57</sup><sup>10</sup> For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens, and your truth to the skies.<sup>57</sup><sup>11</sup> Be exalted, God, above the heavens. Let your glory be over all the earth.

PSALM 58

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David.

<sup>58</sup><sup>1</sup> Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones? Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men?<sup>58</sup><sup>2</sup> No, in your heart you plot injustice. You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.<sup>58</sup><sup>3</sup> The wicked go astray from the womb. They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies.<sup>58</sup><sup>4</sup> Their poison is like the poison of a snake, like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,<sup>58</sup><sup>5</sup> which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be.<sup>58</sup><sup>6</sup> Break their teeth, God, in their mouth. Break out the great teeth of the young lions, God.<sup>58</sup><sup>7</sup> Let them vanish like water that flows away. When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.<sup>58</sup><sup>8</sup> Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away, like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.<sup>58</sup><sup>9</sup> Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns, he will sweep away the green and the burning alike.<sup>58</sup><sup>10</sup> The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance. He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,<sup>58</sup><sup>11</sup> so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous. Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."

PSALM 59

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

<sup>59</sup><sup>15</sup> They shall wander up and down for food, and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.<sup>59</sup><sup>16</sup> But I will sing of your strength. Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning. For you have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress.<sup>59</sup><sup>17</sup> To you, my strength, I will sing praises. For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

PSALM 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>60</sup><sup>1</sup> God, you have rejected us. You have broken us down. You have been angry. Restore us, again.

PSALM 61

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

from the enemy.<sup>14</sup> I will dwell in your tent forever. I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings. Selah.

<sup>61</sup><sup>5</sup> For you, God, have heard my vows. You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

<sup>61</sup><sup>6</sup> You will prolong the king's life. His years will be for generations.<sup>61</sup><sup>7</sup> He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever. Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.<sup>61</sup><sup>8</sup> So I will sing praise to your name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.

PSALM 62

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

PSALM 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

<sup>63</sup><sup>1</sup> God, you are my God. I will earnestly seek you. My soul thirsts for you. My flesh longs for you, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.

Everyone who swears by him will praise him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

PSALM 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.
 64<sup>1</sup> Hear my voice, God, in my complaint. Preserve my life from fear of the enemy. 64<sup>2</sup> Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil, 64<sup>3</sup> who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, deadly words, 64<sup>4</sup> to shoot innocent men from ambushes. They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly. 64<sup>5</sup> They encourage themselves in evil plans. They talk about laying snares secretly. They say, "Who will see them?" 64<sup>6</sup> They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!" Surely man's mind and heart are cunning. 64<sup>7</sup> But God will shoot at them. They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow. 64<sup>8</sup> Their own tongues shall ruin them. All who see them will shake their heads. 64<sup>9</sup> All mankind shall be afraid. They shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely ponder what he has done. 64<sup>10</sup> The righteous shall be glad in God, and shall take refuge in him. All the upright in heart shall praise him!

PSALM 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.
 65<sup>1</sup> Praise waits for you, God, in Zion. Vows shall be performed to you. 65<sup>2</sup> You who hear prayer, all men will come to you. 65<sup>3</sup> Sins overwhelmed me, but you atoned for our transgressions. 65<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the one whom you choose and cause to come near, that he may live in your courts. We will be filled with the goodness of your house, your holy temple. 65<sup>5</sup> By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us, God of our salvation. You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth, of those who are far away on the sea. 65<sup>6</sup> By your power, you form the mountains, having armed yourself with strength. 65<sup>7</sup> You still the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.

65<sup>8</sup> They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders. You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy. 65<sup>9</sup> You visit the earth, and water it. You greatly enrich it. The river of God is full of water. You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it. 65<sup>10</sup> You drench its furrows. You level its ridges. You soften it with showers. You bless it with a crop. 65<sup>11</sup> You crown the year with your bounty. Your carts overflow with abundance.

65<sup>12</sup> The wilderness grasslands overflow. The hills are clothed with gladness. 65<sup>13</sup> The pastures are covered with flocks. The valleys also are clothed with grain. They shout for joy! They also sing.

PSALM 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.
 66<sup>1</sup> Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!
 66<sup>2</sup> Sing to the glory of his name! Offer glory and praise!

66<sup>3</sup> Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds! Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you."

66<sup>4</sup> All the earth will worship you, and will sing to you; they will sing to your name." Selah.

66<sup>5</sup> Come, and see God's deeds—awesome work on behalf of the children of men. 66<sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land. They went through the river on foot. There, we rejoiced in him. 66<sup>7</sup> He rules by his might forever. His eyes watch the nations. Don't let the rebellious rise up against him. Selah. 66<sup>8</sup> Praise our God, you peoples! Make the sound of his praise heard, 66<sup>9</sup> who preserves our life among the living, and doesn't allow our feet to be moved. 66<sup>10</sup> For you, God, have tested us. You have refined us, as silver is refined. 66<sup>11</sup> You brought us into prison. You laid a burden on our backs. 66<sup>12</sup> You allowed men to ride over our heads. We went through fire and through water, but you brought us to the place of abundance. 66<sup>13</sup> I will come into your temple with burnt offerings. I will pay my vows to you, 66<sup>14</sup> which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.

66<sup>15</sup> I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals, with the offering of rams, I will offer bulls with goats. Selah. 66<sup>16</sup> Come and hear, all you who fear God. I will declare what he has done for my soul. 66<sup>17</sup> I cried to him with my mouth. He was extolled with my tongue. 66<sup>18</sup> If I cherished sin in my heart, the Lord wouldn't have listened. 66<sup>19</sup> But most certainly, God has listened. He has heard the voice of my prayer.

66<sup>20</sup> Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor his loving kindness from me.

PSALM 67

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

67<sup>1</sup> May God be merciful to us, bless us, and cause his face to shine on us. Selah.

67<sup>2</sup> That your way may be known on earth, and your salvation among all nations, 67<sup>3</sup> let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you. 67<sup>4</sup> Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth. Selah. 67<sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you.

67<sup>6</sup> The earth has yielded its increase. God, even our own God, will bless us. 67<sup>7</sup> God will bless us. All the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.
 68<sup>1</sup> Let God arise! Let his enemies be scattered! Let them who hate him also flee before him.

68<sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. As wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

68<sup>3</sup> But let the righteous be glad. Let them rejoice before God. Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.

<sup>68</sup>17 The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands. The Lord is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary.<sup>68</sup>18 You have ascended on high. You have led away captives. You have received gifts among people, yes, among the rebellious also, that Yah God might dwell there.

<sup>68</sup>19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, even the God who is our salvation. Selah. <sup>68</sup>20 God is to us a God of deliverance. To God, the Lord, belongs escape from death.<sup>68</sup>21 But God will strike through the head of his enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.

<sup>68</sup>22 The Lord said, “I will bring you again from Bashan, I will bring you again from the depths of the sea,<sup>68</sup>23 that you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies.”<sup>68</sup>24 They have seen your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.<sup>68</sup>25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after, among the ladies playing with tambourines,<sup>68</sup>26 “Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!”<sup>68</sup>27 There is little Benjamin, their ruler, the princes of Judah, their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

<sup>68</sup>28 Your God has commanded your strength. Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.

<sup>68</sup>34 Ascribe strength to God! His excellency is over Israel, his strength is in the skies.<sup>68</sup>35 You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries. The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people. Praise be to God!

PSALM 69

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Lilies.” By David.

<sup>69</sup>1 Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck!<sup>69</sup>2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold. I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.<sup>69</sup>3 I am weary with my crying. My throat is dry. My eyes fail looking for my God.

<sup>69</sup>8 I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother’s children.<sup>69</sup>9 For the zeal of your house consumes me. The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.<sup>69</sup>10 When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.<sup>69</sup>11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.<sup>69</sup>12 Those who sit in the gate talk about me. I am the song of the drunkards.<sup>69</sup>13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, God, in an acceptable time. God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation.<sup>69</sup>14 Deliver me out of the mire, and don’t let me sink. Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.<sup>69</sup>15 Don’t let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Don’t let the pit shut its mouth on me.

<sup>69</sup>16 Answer me, God, for your loving kindness is good. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me.<sup>69</sup>17 Don’t hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress. Answer me speedily!<sup>69</sup>18 Draw near to my soul and redeem it. Ransom me because of my enemies.<sup>69</sup>19 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor. My adversaries are all before you.

<sup>69</sup>20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; for comforters, but I found none.<sup>69</sup>21 They also gave me poison for my food. In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.<sup>69</sup>22 Let their table before them become a snare. May it become a retribution and a trap.

<sup>69</sup>29 But I am in pain and distress. Let your salvation, God, protect me. <sup>69</sup>30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

<sup>69</sup>31 It will please God better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs. <sup>69</sup>32 The humble have seen it, and are glad. You who seek after God, let your heart live.

<sup>69</sup>35 For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah. They shall settle there, and own it.

PSALM 70

For the Chief Musician. By David. A reminder.

<sup>70</sup>1 Hurry, God, to deliver me. Come quickly to help me, God.

<sup>70</sup>2 Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul. Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace. <sup>70</sup>3 Let them be turned because of their shame who say, "Aha! Aha!" <sup>70</sup>4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. Let those who love your salvation continually say, "Let God be exalted!"

<sup>70</sup>5 But I am poor and needy. Come to me quickly, God. You are my help and my deliverer. God, don't delay.

PSALM 71

<sup>71</sup>1 In you, God, I take refuge. Never let me be disappointed. <sup>71</sup>2 Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me. Turn your ear to me, and save me.

<sup>71</sup>3 Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go. Give the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress. <sup>71</sup>4 Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. <sup>71</sup>5 For you are my hope, Lord God, my confidence from my youth. <sup>71</sup>6 I have relied on you from the womb. You are he who took me out of my mother's womb. I will always praise you. <sup>71</sup>7 I am a marvel to many, but you are my strong refuge.

<sup>71</sup>9 Don't reject me in my old age. Don't forsake me when my strength fails. <sup>71</sup>10 For my enemies talk about me. Those who watch for my soul conspire together, <sup>71</sup>11 saying, "God has forsaken him. Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him." <sup>71</sup>12 God, don't be far from me. My God, hurry to help me.

<sup>71</sup>13 Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed.

Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me.

<sup>71</sup>14 But I will always hope, and will add to all of your praise.

<sup>71</sup>15 My mouth will tell about your righteousness, and of your salvation all day, though I don't know its full measure. <sup>71</sup>16 I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord God. I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone. <sup>71</sup>17 God, you have taught me from my youth. Until now, I have declared your wondrous works. <sup>71</sup>18 Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me, until I have declared your strength to the next generation, your might to everyone who is to come. <sup>71</sup>19 God, your righteousness also reaches to the heavens. You have done great things. God, who is like you? <sup>71</sup>20 You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles, you will let me live. You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.

<sup>71</sup>22 I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God. I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel. <sup>71</sup>23 My lips shall shout for joy! My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you! <sup>71</sup>24 My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long, for they are disappointed, and they are confounded, who want to harm me.

PSALM 72

By Solomon.

<sup>72</sup>5 They shall fear you while the sun endures; and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

<sup>72</sup>6 He will come down like rain on the mown grass, as showers that water the earth. <sup>72</sup>7 In his days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more. <sup>72</sup>8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>72</sup>12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries; the poor, who has no helper. <sup>72</sup>13 He will have pity on the poor and needy. He will save the souls of the needy.

<sup>72</sup>14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence. Their blood will be precious in his sight.

<sup>72</sup>15 They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba. Men shall pray for him continually. They shall bless him all day long. <sup>72</sup>16 Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land. Its fruit sways like Lebanon. Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.<sup>7217</sup> His name endures forever. His name continues as long as the sun. Men shall be blessed by him. All nations will call him blessed.<sup>7218</sup> Praise be to God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.<sup>7219</sup> Blessed be his glorious name forever! Let the whole earth be filled with his glory! Amen and amen.

BOOK 3

PSALM 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>731</sup> Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.<sup>732</sup> But as for me, my feet were almost gone. My steps had nearly slipped.<sup>733</sup> For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

<sup>7313</sup> Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence,<sup>7314</sup> For all day long I have been plagued, and punished every morning.

<sup>7315</sup> If I had said, "I will speak thus"; behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.

<sup>7316</sup> When I tried to understand this, it was too painful for me,<sup>7317</sup> until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.<sup>7318</sup> Surely you set them in slippery places. You throw them down to destruction.

<sup>7323</sup> Nevertheless, I am continually with you. You have held my right hand.<sup>7324</sup> You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

<sup>7325</sup> Whom do I have in heaven? There is no one on earth whom I desire besides you.<sup>7326</sup> My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.<sup>7327</sup> For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish. You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.<sup>7328</sup> But it is good for me to come close to God. I have made the Lord God my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

PSALM 74

A contemplation by Asaph.

<sup>741</sup> God, why have you rejected us forever? Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?

<sup>742</sup> Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance: Mount Zion, in which you have lived.<sup>743</sup> Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.

<sup>744</sup> Your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly. They have set up their standards as signs.

They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.

<sup>748</sup> They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely." They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.

<sup>749</sup> We see no miraculous signs. There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.

<sup>7417</sup> You have set all the boundaries of the earth. You have made summer and winter.<sup>7418</sup> Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, God. Foolish people have blasphemed<sup>229</sup> your name.<sup>7419</sup> Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts. Don't forget the life of your poor forever.<sup>7420</sup> Honor your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the earth.

PSALM 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

<sup>751</sup> We give thanks to you, God. We give thanks, for your Name is near. Men tell about your wondrous works.<sup>752</sup> When I choose the appointed time, I will judge blamelessly.<sup>753</sup> The earth and all its inhabitants quake. I firmly hold its pillars. Selah.

<sup>228</sup> This psalm could be taken as an oracle referring to Jesus who is to come, but the writer states it is referring instead to the king's son.

<sup>756</sup> For neither from the east, nor from the west, nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.<sup>757</sup> But God is the judge. He puts down one, and lifts up another.<sup>758</sup> For in God's hand there is a cup, full of foaming wine mixed with spices. He pours it out. Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.<sup>759</sup> But I will declare this forever: I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.<sup>7510</sup> I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

PSALM 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

<sup>765</sup> Valiant men lie plundered, they have slept their last sleep. None of the men of war can lift their hands.

<sup>767</sup> You, even you, are to be feared. Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?<sup>768</sup> You pronounced judgment from heaven. The earth feared, and was silent,<sup>769</sup> when God arose to judgment, to save all the afflicted ones of the earth. Selah.

<sup>7610</sup> Surely the wrath of man praises you. The survivors of your wrath are restrained.<sup>7611</sup> Make vows to The lord your God, and fulfill them! Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.<sup>7612</sup> He will cut off the spirit of princes. He is feared by the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>771</sup> My cry goes to God! Indeed, I cry to God for help, and for him to listen to me.<sup>772</sup> In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord. My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't get tired. My soul refused to be comforted.

<sup>773</sup> I remember God, and I groan. I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. Selah.<sup>774</sup> You hold my eyelids open. I am so troubled that I can't speak.

<sup>775</sup> I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.<sup>776</sup> I remember my song in the night. I consider in my own heart; my spirit diligently inquires:

<sup>777</sup> "Will the Lord reject us forever? Will he be favorable no more?

<sup>779</sup> Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?" Selah.<sup>7710</sup> Then I thought,

"I will appeal to this: the years of the right hand of the Most High."<sup>7711</sup> I will remember Yah's deeds; for I will remember your wonders of old.

<sup>7712</sup> I will also meditate on all your work, and consider your doings.

<sup>7713</sup> Your way, God, is in the sanctuary. What god is great like God?<sup>7714</sup> You are the God who does wonders. You have made your strength known among the peoples.<sup>7715</sup> You have redeemed your people with your arm, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.<sup>7716</sup> The waters saw you, God. The waters saw you, and they writhed. The depths also convulsed.<sup>7717</sup> The clouds poured out water. The skies resounded with thunder. Your arrows also flashed around.<sup>7718</sup> The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind. The lightnings lit up the world. The earth trembled and shook.<sup>7719</sup> Your way was through the sea; your paths through the great waters. Your footsteps were not known.<sup>7720</sup> You led your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM 78

A contemplation by Asaph.

<sup>781</sup> Hear my teaching, my people. Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.<sup>782</sup> I will open my mouth in a parable. I will utter dark sayings of old,<sup>783</sup> Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

<sup>784</sup> We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of God, his strength, and his wondrous deeds that he has done.

<sup>7813</sup> He split the sea, and caused them to pass through. He made the waters stand as a heap.<sup>7814</sup> In the daytime he also led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire.<sup>7815</sup> He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

struck the rock, so that waters gushed out, and streams overflowed. Can he give bread also? Will he provide meat for his people?"<sup>7821</sup> Therefore God heard, and was angry. A fire was kindled against Jacob, anger also went up against Israel,<sup>7822</sup> because they didn't believe in God, and didn't trust in his salvation.<sup>7823</sup> Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven.

<sup>7833</sup> Therefore he consumed their days in vanity, and their years in terror.<sup>7834</sup> When he killed them, then they inquired after him. They returned and sought God earnestly.<sup>7835</sup> They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God, their redeemer.

his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

<sup>7853</sup> He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

<sup>7869</sup> He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which he has established forever.<sup>230</sup>

<sup>7872</sup> So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>791</sup> God, the nations have come into your inheritance. They have defiled your holy temple. They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.<sup>792</sup> They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your saints to the animals of the earth.<sup>793</sup> They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem. There was no one to bury them.

<sup>794</sup> We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us.

<sup>795</sup> How long, God? Will you be angry forever? Will your jealousy burn like fire?

<sup>796</sup> Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, on the kingdoms that don't call on your name;<sup>797</sup> for they have devoured Jacob, and almost 700 other expressions of the word "earth" in the Old and New Testament, but their meanings vary widely."

destroyed his homeland.<sup>79</sup><sup>8</sup> Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us. Let your tender mercies speedily meet us, for we are in desperate need.

<sup>79</sup><sup>12</sup> Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord.<sup>79</sup><sup>13</sup> So we, your people and sheep of your pasture, will give you thanks forever. We will praise you forever, to all generations.

PSALM 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>80</sup><sup>18</sup> So we will not turn away from you. Revive us, and we will call on your name.<sup>80</sup><sup>19</sup> Turn us again, The Lord God of Hosts. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

PSALM 81

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

PSALM 82

<sup>82</sup><sup>7</sup> Nevertheless you shall die like men, and fall like one of the rulers."<sup>82</sup><sup>8</sup> Arise, God, judge the earth, for you inherit all of the nations.

PSALM 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

They form an alliance against you.

<sup>83</sup>17 Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever. Yes, let them be confounded and perish;<sup>83</sup>18 that they may know that you alone, whose name is God, are the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM 84

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>84</sup>2 My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of God. My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

<sup>84</sup>3 Yes, the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young, near your altars, The Lord God of Hosts, my King, and my God.<sup>84</sup>4 Blessed are those who dwell in your house. They are always praising you. Selah.

PSALM 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>85</sup>1 God, you have been favorable to your land. You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.<sup>85</sup>2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people. You have covered all their sin. Selah.<sup>85</sup>3 You have taken away all your wrath. You have turned from the fierceness of your anger.<sup>85</sup>4 Turn us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.<sup>85</sup>5 Will you be angry with us forever? Will you draw out your anger to all generations?<sup>85</sup>6 Won't you revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?<sup>85</sup>7 Show us your loving kindness, God. Grant us your salvation.<sup>85</sup>8 I will hear what God, God, will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, his saints; but let them not turn again to folly.<sup>85</sup>9 Surely his salvation is near those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.<sup>85</sup>10 Mercy and truth meet together. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.<sup>85</sup>11 Truth springs out of the earth. Righteousness has looked down from heaven.

<sup>85</sup>12 Yes, God will give that which is good. Our land will yield its increase.<sup>85</sup>13 Righteousness goes before him, and prepares the way for his steps.

PSALM 86

A Prayer by David.

<sup>86</sup>1 Hear, God, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.<sup>86</sup>2 Preserve my soul, for I am godly. You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you.

<sup>86</sup>3 Be merciful to me, Lord, for I call to you all day long.<sup>86</sup>4 Bring joy to the soul of your servant, for to you, Lord, do I lift up my soul.<sup>86</sup>5 For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.

<sup>86</sup>6 Hear, God, my prayer. Listen to the voice of my petitions.<sup>86</sup>7 In the day of my trouble I will call on you, for you will answer me.<sup>86</sup>8 There is no one like you among the gods, Lord, nor any deeds like your deeds.

<sup>86</sup>9 All nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord. They shall glorify your name.

<sup>86</sup>10 For you are great, and do wondrous things. You are God alone.<sup>86</sup>11 Teach me your way, God. I will walk in your truth. Make my heart undivided to fear your name.<sup>86</sup>12 I will praise you, Lord my God, with my whole heart. I will glorify your name forever more.

<sup>86</sup>13 For your loving kindness is great toward me. You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.

<sup>86</sup>14 God, the proud have risen up against me. A company of violent men have sought after my soul, and they don't hold regard for you before them.

<sup>86</sup>15 But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth.<sup>86</sup>16 Turn to me, and have mercy on me! Give your strength to your servant. Save the son of your servant.

<sup>86</sup>17 Show me a sign of your goodness, that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because you, God, have helped me, and comforted me.

PSALM 87

A Psalm by the sons of Korah; a Song.

her.<sup>87</sup><sup>6</sup> God will count, when he writes up the peoples, "This one was born there." Selah.<sup>87</sup><sup>7</sup> Those who sing as well as those who dance say, "All my springs are in you."

PSALM 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

<sup>88</sup><sup>18</sup> You have put lover and friend far from me, and my friends into darkness.

PSALM 89

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

the council of the holy ones, to be feared above all those who are around him?<sup>89</sup><sup>8</sup> God, The Lord God of Hosts, who is a mighty one, like you? Yah, your faithfulness is around you.<sup>89</sup><sup>9</sup> You rule the pride of the sea. When its waves rise up, you calm them.<sup>89</sup><sup>10</sup> You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain. You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.<sup>89</sup><sup>11</sup> The heavens are yours. The earth also is yours, the world and its fullness. You have founded them.<sup>89</sup><sup>12</sup> You have created the north and the south. Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.<sup>89</sup><sup>13</sup> You have a mighty arm. Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.

<sup>89</sup>47 Remember how short my time is, for what vanity you have created all the children of men!

BOOK 4

PSALM 90

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God.

<sup>90</sup>1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place for all generations.<sup>90</sup>2 Before the mountains were born, before you had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.

<sup>90</sup>9 For all our days have passed away in your wrath. We bring our years to an end as a sigh.<sup>90</sup>10 The days of our years are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty years; yet their pride is but labor and sorrow, for it passes quickly, and we fly away.<sup>90</sup>11 Who knows the power of your anger, your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?<sup>90</sup>12 So teach us to count our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

<sup>90</sup>13 Relent, God! How long? Have compassion on your servants!<sup>90</sup>14 Satisfy us in the morning with your loving kindness, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>90</sup>15 Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil.

<sup>90</sup>16 Let your work appear to your servants, your glory to their children.<sup>90</sup>17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us. Establish the work of our hands for us. Yes, establish the work of our hands.

PSALM 91

<sup>91</sup>1 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.<sup>91</sup>2 I will say of God, "He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust."<sup>91</sup>3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.

<sup>91</sup>9 Because you have made God your refuge, and the Most High your dwelling place,<sup>91</sup>10 no evil shall happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.<sup>233</sup>

<sup>91</sup>11 For he will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you in all your ways.<sup>91</sup>12 They will bear you up in their hands, so that you won't dash your foot against a stone.

<sup>91</sup>13 You will tread on the lion and cobra. You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.

<sup>91</sup>14 "Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him. I will set him on high, because he has known my name.<sup>91</sup>15 He will call on me, and I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and honor him.<sup>91</sup>16 I will satisfy him with long life, and show him my salvation."

PSALM 92

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

<sup>92</sup>10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox. I am anointed with fresh oil.<sup>92</sup>11 My eye has also seen my enemies. My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.

92:12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree. He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

92:13 They are planted in God's house. They will flourish in our God's courts.

92:14 They will still produce fruit in old age.

They will be full of sap and green,<sup>234</sup>

92:15 to show that God is upright. He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM 93

93:1 God reigns! He is clothed with majesty! God is armed with strength. The world also is established. It can't be moved.<sup>93:2</sup> Your throne is established from long ago. You are from everlasting.<sup>93:3</sup> The floods have lifted up, God, the floods have lifted up their voice. The floods lift up their waves.<sup>93:4</sup> Above the voices of many waters, the mighty breakers of the sea, God on high is mighty.

93:5 Your statutes stand firm. Holiness adorns your house, God, forever more.

PSALM 94

94:1 God, you God to whom vengeance belongs, you God to whom vengeance belongs, shine out.<sup>94:2</sup> Rise up, you judge of the earth. Pay back the proud what they deserve.<sup>94:3</sup> God, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked triumph?<sup>94:4</sup> They pour out arrogant words. All the evildoers boast.<sup>94:5</sup> They break your people in pieces, God, and afflict your heritage.<sup>94:6</sup> They kill the widow and the alien, and murder the fatherless.<sup>94:7</sup> They say, "Yah will not see, neither will Jacob's God consider."<sup>94:8</sup> Consider, you senseless among the people; you fools, when will you be wise?

94:9 He who implanted the ear, won't he hear? He who formed the eye, won't he see?<sup>94:10</sup> He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish? He who teaches man knows.<sup>94:11</sup> God knows the thoughts of man, that they are futile.<sup>94:12</sup> Blessed is the man whom you discipline, Yah, and teach out of your law,<sup>94:13</sup> that you may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked.<sup>94:14</sup> For God won't reject his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.<sup>94:15</sup> For judgment will return to righteousness. All the upright in heart shall follow it.<sup>94:16</sup> Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?<sup>94:17</sup> Unless God had been my help, my soul would have soon lived in silence.<sup>94:18</sup> When I said, "My foot is slipping!" Your loving kindness, God, held me up.

94:19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, your comforts delight my soul.<sup>94:20</sup> Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you, which brings about mischief by statute?

94:21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.<sup>94:22</sup> But God has been my high tower, my God, the rock of my refuge.

94:23 He has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness. God, our God, will cut them off.

PSALM 95

95:1 Oh come, let's sing to God. Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!<sup>95:2</sup> Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving. Let's extol him with songs!

95:3 For God is a great God, a great King above all gods.

95:4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth. The heights of the mountains are also his.<sup>95:5</sup> The sea is his, and he made it. His hands formed the dry land.

95:6 Oh come, let's worship and bow down. Let's kneel before God, our Maker,<sup>95:7</sup> for he is our God. We are the people of his pasture, and the sheep in his care.

Today, oh that you would hear his voice!<sup>95:8</sup> Don't harden your heart, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness,<sup>95:9</sup> when your fathers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.<sup>95:10</sup> Forty long years I was grieved with that generation, and said, "It is a people that errs in their heart. They have not known my ways."

95:11 Therefore I swore in my wrath, "They won't enter into my rest."

PSALM 96

96:1 Sing to God a new song! Sing to God, all the earth.

96:2 Sing to God! Bless his name! Proclaim his salvation from day to day!<sup>96:3</sup> Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.

96:4 For God is great, and greatly to be praised! He is to be feared above all gods.<sup>96:5</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but God made the heavens.

96:6 Honor and majesty are before him. Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.<sup>96:7</sup> Ascribe to God, you families of nations, ascribe to God glory and strength.

96:8 Ascribe to God the glory due to his name. Bring an offering, and come into his courts.<sup>96:9</sup> Worship God in holy array. Tremble before him, all the earth.

96:10 Say among the nations, "God reigns." The world is also established. It can't be moved. He will judge the peoples with equity.<sup>96:11</sup> Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice. Let the sea roar, and its fullness!

96:12 Let the field and all that is in it exult! Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy<sup>96:13</sup> before God; for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, the peoples with his truth.

PSALM 97

97:1 God reigns! Let the earth rejoice! Let the multitude of islands be glad!<sup>97:2</sup> Clouds and darkness are around him. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.<sup>973</sup> A fire goes before him, and burns up his adversaries on every side.

PSALM 98

A Psalm.

<sup>989</sup> Let them sing before God, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

PSALM 99

<sup>996</sup> Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel was among those who call on his name. They called on God, and he answered them.

<sup>997</sup> He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud. They kept his testimonies, the statute that he gave them.

<sup>998</sup> You answered them, The Lord our God. You are a God who forgave them, although you took vengeance for their doings.<sup>999</sup> Exalt God, our God. Worship at his holy hill, for God, our God, is holy!

PSALM 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

<sup>1003</sup> Know that God, he is God. It is he who has made us, and we are his. We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

PSALM 101

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1011</sup> I will sing of loving kindness and justice. To you, God, I will sing praises.<sup>1012</sup> I will be careful to live a blameless life. When will you come to me? I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.

<sup>1013</sup> I will set no vile thing before my eyes. I hate the deeds of faithless men. They will not cling to me.

<sup>1014</sup> A perverse heart will be far from me. I will have nothing to do with evil.<sup>1015</sup> I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor. I won't tolerate one who is arrogant and conceited.<sup>1016</sup> My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me. He who walks in a perfect way, he will serve me.

<sup>1017</sup> He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house. He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.<sup>1018</sup> Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land, to cut off all the workers of iniquity from God's city.

PSALM 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before God.

<sup>1022</sup> Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress. Turn your ear to me. Answer me quickly in the day when I call.<sup>1023</sup> For my days consume away like smoke. My bones are burned as a torch.<sup>1024</sup> My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, for I forget to eat my bread.

<sup>10211</sup> My days are like a long shadow. I have withered like grass.<sup>10212</sup> But you, God, will remain forever; your renown endures to all generations.

<sup>10213</sup> You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for it is time to have pity on her. Yes, the set time has come.<sup>10214</sup> For your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity on her dust.<sup>10215</sup> So the nations will fear God's name, all the kings of the earth your glory.<sup>10216</sup> For God has built up Zion. He has appeared in his glory.<sup>10217</sup> He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.<sup>10218</sup> This will be written for the generation to come. A people which will be created will praise Yah,<sup>10219</sup> for he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary. From heaven, God saw the earth,<sup>10220</sup> to hear the groans of the prisoner, to free those who are condemned to death,<sup>10221</sup> that men may declare God's name in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem,<sup>10222</sup> when the peoples are gathered together, the kingdoms, to serve God.<sup>10223</sup> He weakened my strength along the course. He shortened my days.<sup>10224</sup> I said, "My God, don't take me away in the middle of my days. Your years are throughout all generations.<sup>10225</sup> Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the work of your hands.<sup>10226</sup> They will perish, but you will endure. Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment. You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.<sup>10227</sup> But you are the same. Your years will have no end.<sup>10228</sup> The children of your servants will continue. Their offspring will be established before you."

PSALM 103

By David.

<sup>1031</sup> Praise God, my soul! All that is within me, praise his holy name!<sup>1032</sup> Praise God, my soul, and don't forget all his benefits,<sup>1033</sup> who forgives all your sins, who heals all your diseases,<sup>1034</sup> who redeems your life from destruction, who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies,<sup>1035</sup> who satisfies your desire with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.<sup>1036</sup> God executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.<sup>1037</sup> He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the children of Israel.<sup>1038</sup> God is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.<sup>1039</sup> He will not always accuse; neither will he stay angry forever.<sup>10310</sup> He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities.

<sup>10311</sup> For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him.<sup>10312</sup> As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.<sup>10313</sup> Like a father has compassion on his children, so God has compassion on those who fear him.<sup>10314</sup> For he knows how we are made. He remembers that we are dust.<sup>10315</sup> As for man, his days are like grass. As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.<sup>10316</sup> For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more.<sup>10317</sup> But God's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him, his righteousness to children's children,<sup>10318</sup> to those who keep his covenant, to those who remember to obey his precepts.<sup>10319</sup> God has established his throne in the heavens. His kingdom rules over all.<sup>10320</sup> Praise God, you angels of his, who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word, obeying the voice of his word.<sup>10321</sup> Praise God, all you armies of his, you servants of his, who do his pleasure.<sup>10322</sup> Praise God, all you works of his, in all places of his dominion. Praise God, my soul!

PSALM 104

<sup>1041</sup> Bless God, my soul. God, my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty.

<sup>10424</sup> God, how many are your works! In wisdom, you have made them all. The earth is full of your riches.<sup>10425</sup> There is the sea, great and wide, in which are innumerable living things, both small and large animals.

<sup>10426</sup> There the ships go, and leviathan, whom you formed to play there.<sup>10427</sup> These all wait for you, that you may give them their food in due season.

and it trembles. He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

<sup>104</sup>33 I will sing to God as long as I live. I will sing praise to my God while I have any being. <sup>104</sup>34 Let my meditation be sweet to him. I will rejoice in God.

<sup>104</sup>35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. Let the wicked be no more. Bless God, my soul. Praise Yah!

PSALM 105

<sup>105</sup>7 He is God, our God. His judgments are in all the earth. <sup>105</sup>8 He has remembered his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, <sup>105</sup>9 the covenant which he made with Abraham, his oath to Isaac, <sup>105</sup>10 and confirmed it to Jacob for a statute; to Israel for an everlasting covenant, <sup>105</sup>11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance," <sup>105</sup>12 when they were but a few men in number, yes, very few, and foreigners in it.

PSALM 106

<sup>106</sup>4 Remember me, God, with the favor that you show to your people. Visit me with your salvation, <sup>106</sup>5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance.

<sup>106</sup>6 We have sinned with our fathers. We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly.

grass.<sup>10621</sup> They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,<sup>10622</sup> wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Red Sea.<sup>10623</sup> Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.

BOOK 5

PSALM 107

<sup>1071</sup> Give thanks to God, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever.<sup>1072</sup> Let the redeemed by God say so, whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,<sup>1073</sup> and gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.<sup>1074</sup> They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way. They found no city to live in.<sup>1075</sup> Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.<sup>1076</sup> Then they cried to God in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses,<sup>1077</sup> he led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city to live in.<sup>1078</sup> Let them praise God for his loving kindness, for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!<sup>1079</sup> For he satisfies the longing soul. He fills the hungry soul with good.

<sup>10710</sup> Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron,<sup>10711</sup> because they rebelled against the words of God, and condemned the counsel of the Most High.<sup>10712</sup> Therefore he brought down their heart with labor. They fell down, and there was no one to help.<sup>10713</sup> Then they cried to God in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

<sup>10734</sup> and a fruitful land into a salt waste, for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.<sup>10735</sup> He turns a desert into a pool of water, and a dry land into water springs.<sup>10736</sup> There he makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in,<sup>10737</sup> sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of increase.

<sup>10738</sup> He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly. He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.<sup>10739</sup> Again, they are diminished and bowed down

PSALM 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

God, with our armies.

<sup>108</sup><sup>12</sup> Give us help against the enemy, for the help of man is vain. <sup>108</sup><sup>13</sup> Through God, we will do valiantly.

For it is he who will tread down our enemies.

PSALM 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

be before God continually, that he may cut off their memory from the earth; <sup>109</sup><sup>16</sup> because he didn't remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man, the broken in heart, to kill them.

I am shaken off like a locust. <sup>109</sup><sup>24</sup> My knees are weak through fasting. My body is thin and lacks fat.

<sup>109</sup><sup>25</sup> I have also become a reproach to them. When they see me, they shake their head.

PSALM 110

A Psalm by David.

<sup>110</sup><sup>1</sup> God says to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."

<sup>111</sup><sup>6</sup> He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.<sup>111</sup><sup>7</sup> The works of his hands are truth and justice. All his precepts are sure.<sup>111</sup><sup>8</sup> They are established forever and ever. They are done in truth and uprightness.<sup>111</sup><sup>9</sup> He has sent redemption to his people. He has ordained his covenant forever. His name is holy and awesome!<sup>111</sup><sup>10</sup> The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. All those who do his work have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

<sup>114</sup><sup>7</sup> Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob,<sup>114</sup><sup>8</sup> who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of waters.

PSALM 115

<sup>115</sup><sup>12</sup> God remembers us. He will bless us. He will bless the house of Israel. He will bless the house of Aaron.<sup>115</sup><sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear God, both small and great.<sup>115</sup><sup>14</sup> May God increase you more and more, you and your children.<sup>115</sup><sup>15</sup> Blessed are you by God, who made heaven and earth.<sup>115</sup><sup>16</sup> The heavens are God's heavens, but he has given the earth to the children of men.<sup>115</sup><sup>17</sup> The dead don't praise Yah, neither any who go down into silence;<sup>115</sup><sup>18</sup> but we will bless Yah, from this time forward and forever more. Praise Yah!

PSALM 116

<sup>116</sup><sup>3</sup> The cords of death surrounded me, the pains of Sheol got a hold of me. I found trouble and sorrow.

<sup>116</sup><sup>16</sup> God, truly I am your servant. I am your servant, the son of your servant girl. You have freed me from my chains.<sup>116</sup><sup>17</sup> I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on God's name.<sup>116</sup><sup>18</sup> I will pay my vows to God, yes, in the presence of all his people,<sup>116</sup><sup>19</sup> in the courts of God's house, in the middle of you, Jerusalem. Praise Yah!

PSALM 117

PSALM 118

<sup>118</sup>1 Give thanks to God, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever.<sup>118</sup>2 Let Israel now say that his loving kindness endures forever.<sup>118</sup>3 Let the house of Aaron now say that his loving kindness endures forever.<sup>118</sup>4 Now let those who fear God say that his loving kindness endures forever.<sup>118</sup>5 Out of my distress, I called on Yah. Yah answered me with freedom.<sup>118</sup>6 God is on my side. I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?<sup>118</sup>7 God is on my side among those who help me. Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.<sup>118</sup>8 It is better to take refuge in God, than to put confidence in man.<sup>118</sup>9 It is better to take refuge in God, than to put confidence in princes.<sup>118</sup>10 All the nations surrounded me, but in God's name, I cut them off.<sup>118</sup>11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me. In God's name I indeed cut them off.<sup>118</sup>12 They surrounded me like bees. They are quenched like the burning thorns. In God's name I cut them off.<sup>118</sup>13 You pushed me back hard, to make me fall, but God helped me.<sup>118</sup>14 Yah is my strength and song. He has become my salvation.<sup>118</sup>15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous. "The right hand of God does valiantly."<sup>118</sup>16 The right hand of God is exalted! The right hand of God does valiantly!"<sup>118</sup>17 I will not die, but live, and declare Yah's works.<sup>118</sup>18 Yah has punished me severely, but he has not given me over to death.<sup>118</sup>19 Open to me the gates of righteousness. I will enter into them. I will give thanks to Yah.<sup>118</sup>20 This is the gate of God; the righteous will enter into it.<sup>118</sup>21 I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me, and have become my salvation.<sup>118</sup>22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.<sup>118</sup>23 This is God's doing. It is marvelous in our eyes.<sup>118</sup>24 This is the day that God has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it!<sup>118</sup>25 Save us now, we beg you, God! God, we beg you, send prosperity now.<sup>118</sup>26 Blessed is he who comes in God's name! We have blessed you out of God's house.<sup>118</sup>27 God is God, and he has given us light. Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.<sup>118</sup>28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to you. You are my God, I will exalt you.<sup>118</sup>29 Oh give thanks to God, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever.

ALEPH

<sup>119</sup>6 Then I wouldn't be disappointed, when I consider all of your commandments.<sup>119</sup>7 I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart, when I learn your righteous judgments.<sup>119</sup>8 I will observe your statutes. Don't utterly forsake me.

BET

<sup>119</sup>9 How can a young man keep his way pure? By living according to your word.

<sup>119</sup>10 With my whole heart, I have sought you. Don't let me wander from your commandments.

<sup>119</sup>11 I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.

<sup>119</sup>14 I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies, as much as in all riches.<sup>119</sup>15 I will meditate on your precepts, and consider your ways.<sup>119</sup>16 I will delight myself in your statutes. I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

<sup>119</sup>17 Do good to your servant. I will live and I will obey your word.<sup>119</sup>18 Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of your law.<sup>119</sup>19 I am a stranger on the earth. Don't hide your commandments from me.

<sup>119</sup>20 My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.<sup>119</sup>21 You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, who wander from your commandments.<sup>119</sup>22 Take reproach and contempt away from me, for I have kept your statutes.

<sup>119</sup>23 Though princes sit and slander me, your servant will meditate on your statutes.<sup>119</sup>24 Indeed your statutes are my delight, and my counselors.

DALED

<sup>119</sup>25 My soul is laid low in the dust. Revive me according to your word!<sup>119</sup>26 I declared my ways, and you answered me. Teach me your statutes.

<sup>119</sup>27 Let me understand the teaching of your precepts! Then I will meditate on your wondrous works.

<sup>119</sup>28 My soul is weary with sorrow: strengthen me according to your word.<sup>119</sup>29 Keep me from the way of deceit. Grant me your law graciously!<sup>119</sup>30 I have chosen the way of truth. I have set your ordinances before me.<sup>119</sup>31 I cling to your statutes, God. Don't let me be disappointed.<sup>119</sup>32 I run in the path of your commandments, for you have set my heart free.

HEY

<sup>119</sup>33 Teach me, God, the way of your statutes. I will keep them to the end.<sup>119</sup>34 Give me understanding, and I will keep your law. Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart.<sup>119</sup>35 Direct me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in them.<sup>119</sup>36 Turn my heart toward your statutes, not toward selfish gain.

<sup>119</sup>37 Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things. Revive me in your ways.<sup>119</sup>38 Fulfill your promise to your servant, that you may be feared.

<sup>119</sup>39 Take away my disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good.<sup>119</sup>40 Behold, I long for your precepts! Revive me in your righteousness.

WAW

<sup>11941</sup> Let your loving kindness also come to me, God, your salvation, according to your word. <sup>11942</sup> So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me, for I trust in your word. <sup>11943</sup> Don't snatch the word of truth out of my mouth, for I put my hope in your ordinances.

<sup>11944</sup> So I will obey your law continually, forever and ever. <sup>11945</sup> I will walk in liberty, for I have sought your precepts. <sup>11946</sup> I will also speak of your statutes before kings, and will not be disappointed.

<sup>11947</sup> I will delight myself in your commandments, because I love them. <sup>11948</sup> I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love. I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

<sup>11955</sup> I have remembered your name, God, in the night, and I obey your law. <sup>11956</sup> This is my way, that I keep your precepts.

CHET

<sup>11957</sup> God is my portion, I promised to obey your words. <sup>11958</sup> I sought your favor with my whole heart. Be merciful to me according to your word.

<sup>11959</sup> I considered my ways, and turned my steps to your statutes. <sup>11960</sup> I will hurry, and not delay, to obey your commandments. <sup>11961</sup> The ropes of the wicked bind me, but I won't forget your law.

<sup>11962</sup> At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you, because of your righteous ordinances. <sup>11963</sup> I am a friend of all those who fear you, of those who observe your precepts.

<sup>11964</sup> The earth is full of your loving kindness, God. Teach me your statutes.

TET

<sup>11972</sup> The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YUD

<sup>11973</sup> Your hands have made me and formed me. Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments. <sup>11974</sup> Those who fear you will see me and be glad, because I have put my hope in your word. <sup>11975</sup> God, I know that your judgments are righteous, that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.

<sup>11976</sup> Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort, according to your word to your servant.

<sup>11977</sup> Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live; for your law is my delight. <sup>11978</sup> Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully. I will meditate on your precepts. <sup>11979</sup> Let those who fear you turn to me. They will know your statutes. <sup>11980</sup> Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.

KAF

<sup>11981</sup> My soul faints for your salvation. I hope in your word. <sup>11982</sup> My eyes fail for your word. I say, "When will you comfort me?" <sup>11983</sup> For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke. I don't forget your statutes.

<sup>11984</sup> How many are the days of your servant? When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me? <sup>11985</sup> The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to your law. <sup>11986</sup> All of your commandments are faithful. They persecute me wrongfully. Help me!

<sup>11987</sup> They had almost wiped me from the earth, but I didn't forsake your precepts. <sup>11988</sup> Preserve my life according to your loving kindness, so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

LAMED

<sup>11990</sup> Your faithfulness is to all generations. You have established the earth, and it remains. <sup>11991</sup> Your laws remain to this day, for all things serve you.

<sup>11992</sup> Unless your law had been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction. <sup>11993</sup> I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me. <sup>11994</sup> I am yours. Save me, for I have sought your precepts. <sup>11995</sup> The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me. I will consider your statutes. <sup>11996</sup> I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.

MEM

<sup>11997</sup> How I love your law! It is my meditation all day.

<sup>11998</sup> Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for your commandments are always with me. <sup>11999</sup> I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.

<sup>119100</sup> I understand more than the aged, because I have kept your precepts. <sup>119101</sup> I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might observe your word.

<sup>119102</sup> I have not turned away from your ordinances, for you have taught me. <sup>119103</sup> How sweet are your promises to my taste, more than honey to my mouth!

<sup>119104</sup> Through your precepts, I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

<sup>119105</sup> Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path. <sup>119106</sup> I have sworn, and have confirmed it, that I will obey your righteous ordinances.

<sup>119107</sup> I am afflicted very much. Revive me, God, according to your word. <sup>119108</sup> Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth. God, teach me your ordinances.

<sup>119109</sup> My soul is continually in my hand, yet I won't forget your law. <sup>119110</sup> The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.

<sup>119</sup>111 I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart. <sup>119</sup>112 I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever, even to the end.

SAMEKH

<sup>119</sup>114 You are my hiding place and my shield. I hope in your word. <sup>119</sup>115 Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God.

<sup>119</sup>116 Uphold me according to your word, that I may live. Let me not be ashamed of my hope. <sup>119</sup>117 Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for your statutes continually. <sup>119</sup>118 You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for their deceit is in vain.

<sup>119</sup>119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross. Therefore I love your testimonies. <sup>119</sup>120 My flesh trembles for fear of you. I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

<sup>119</sup>123 My eyes fail looking for your salvation, for your righteous word.

<sup>119</sup>124 Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness. Teach me your statutes. <sup>119</sup>125 I am your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know your testimonies.

<sup>119</sup>126 It is time to act, God, for they break your law.

<sup>119</sup>127 Therefore I love your commandments more than gold, yes, more than pure gold. <sup>119</sup>128 Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right. I hate every false way.

PEY

<sup>119</sup>129 Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps them. <sup>119</sup>130 The entrance of your words gives light. It gives understanding to the simple.

<sup>119</sup>131 I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for your commandments. <sup>119</sup>132 Turn to me, and have mercy on me, as you always do to those who love your name. <sup>119</sup>133 Establish my footsteps in your word. Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.

<sup>119</sup>134 Redeem me from the oppression of man, so I will observe your precepts. <sup>119</sup>135 Make your face shine on your servant. Teach me your statutes.

<sup>119</sup>136 Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they don't observe your law.

TZADI

<sup>119</sup>137 You are righteous, God. Your judgments are upright. <sup>119</sup>138 You have commanded your statutes in righteousness. They are fully trustworthy.

KUF

<sup>119</sup>145 I have called with my whole heart. Answer me, God! I will keep your statutes. <sup>119</sup>146 I have called to you. Save me! I will obey your statutes. <sup>119</sup>147 I rise before dawn and cry for help. I put my hope in your words. <sup>119</sup>148 My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I might meditate on your word.

<sup>119</sup>149 Hear my voice according to your loving kindness. Revive me, God, according to your ordinances. <sup>119</sup>150 They draw near who follow after wickedness. They are far from your law. <sup>119</sup>151 You are near, God. All your commandments are truth.

<sup>119</sup>152 Of old I have known from your testimonies, that you have founded them forever.

RESH

<sup>119</sup>153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me, for I don't forget your law. <sup>119</sup>154 Plead my cause, and redeem me! Revive me according to your promise.

SIN AND SHIN

<sup>119</sup>161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words.

<sup>119</sup>165 Those who love your law have great peace. Nothing causes them to stumble.

<sup>119</sup>167 My soul has observed your testimonies. I love them exceedingly.

<sup>119</sup>168 I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies, for all my ways are before you.

TAV

<sup>119</sup>169 Let my cry come before you, God. Give me understanding according to your word. <sup>119</sup>170 Let my supplication come before you. Deliver me according to your word.

<sup>119</sup>171 Let my lips utter praise, for you teach me your statutes. <sup>119</sup>172 Let my tongue sing of your word, for all your commandments are righteousness.

<sup>119</sup>173 Let your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts. <sup>119</sup>174 I have longed for your salvation, God. Your law is my delight. <sup>119</sup>175 Let my soul live, that I may praise you. Let your ordinances help me.

<sup>119</sup>176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep. Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments.

PSALM 120

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>120</sup>1 In my distress, I cried to God. He answered me.
<sup>120</sup>2 Deliver my soul, God, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.<sup>120</sup>3 What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you, you deceitful tongue?
<sup>120</sup>5 Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!<sup>120</sup>6 My soul has had her dwelling too long with him who hates peace.
<sup>120</sup>7 I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM 121

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>121</sup>1 I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from?<sup>121</sup>2 My help comes from God, who made heaven and earth.<sup>121</sup>3 He will not allow your foot to be moved. He who keeps you will not slumber.
<sup>121</sup>4 Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.<sup>121</sup>5 God is your keeper. God is your shade on your right hand.<sup>121</sup>6 The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.<sup>121</sup>7 God will keep you from all evil. He will keep your soul.<sup>121</sup>8 God will keep your going out and your coming in, from this time forward, and forever more.

PSALM 122

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>122</sup>1 I was glad when they said to me, "Let's go to God's house!"<sup>122</sup>2 Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem,<sup>122</sup>3 Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact together,<sup>122</sup>4 where the tribes go up, even Yah's tribes, according to an ordinance for Israel, to give thanks to God's name.<sup>122</sup>5 For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of David's house.
<sup>122</sup>6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Those who love you will prosper.<sup>122</sup>7 Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.<sup>122</sup>8 For my brothers' and companions' sakes, I will now say, "Peace be within you."<sup>122</sup>9 For the sake of the house of The Lord our God, I will seek your good.

PSALM 123

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>123</sup>1 I lift up my eyes to you, you who sit in the heavens.
<sup>123</sup>2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes look to God, our God, until he has mercy on us.<sup>123</sup>3 Have mercy on us, God, have mercy on us, for we have endured much contempt.
<sup>123</sup>4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM 124

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>124</sup>1 If it had not been God who was on our side, let Israel now say,<sup>124</sup>2 if it had not been God who was on our side, when men rose up against us;<sup>124</sup>3 then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us,<sup>124</sup>4 then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our soul;<sup>124</sup>5 then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.<sup>124</sup>6 Blessed be God, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.<sup>124</sup>7 Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare. The snare is broken, and we have escaped.<sup>124</sup>8 Our help is in God's name, who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 125

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>125</sup>1 Those who trust in God are as Mount Zion, which can't be moved, but remains forever.<sup>125</sup>2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so God surrounds his people from this time forward and forever more.

<sup>125</sup>3 For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous; so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.<sup>125</sup>4 Do good, God, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts.<sup>125</sup>5 But as for those who turn away to their crooked ways, God will lead them away with the workers of iniquity. Peace be on Israel.

PSALM 126

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>126</sup>1 When God brought back those who returned to Zion, we were like those who dream.<sup>126</sup>2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then they said among the nations, "God has done great things for them."<sup>126</sup>3 God has done great things for us, and we are glad.<sup>126</sup>4 Restore our fortunes again, God, like the streams in the Negev.

<sup>126</sup>5 Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
<sup>126</sup>6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

PSALM 127

A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.

<sup>127</sup>3 Behold, children are a heritage of God. The fruit of the womb is his reward.

PSALM 128

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>128</sup>1 Blessed is everyone who fears God, who walks in his ways.<sup>128</sup>2 For you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be happy, and it will be well with you.

<sup>128</sup>3 Your wife will be as a fruitful vine in the innermost parts of your house, your children like olive shoots around your table.<sup>128</sup>4 Behold, this is how the man who fears God is blessed.<sup>128</sup>5 May God bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.<sup>128</sup>6 Yes, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel.

PSALM 129

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>129</sup>1 Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up. Let Israel now say, <sup>129</sup>2 many times they have afflicted me from my youth up, yet they have not prevailed against me. <sup>129</sup>3 The plowers plowed on my back. They made their furrows long.

<sup>129</sup>4 God is righteous. He has cut apart the cords of the wicked. <sup>129</sup>5 Let them be disappointed and turned backward, all those who hate Zion.

<sup>129</sup>6 Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up, <sup>129</sup>7 with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand, nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom. <sup>129</sup>8 Neither do those who go by say, "The blessing of God be on you. We bless you in God's name."

PSALM 130

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>130</sup>1 Out of the depths I have cried to you, God.

<sup>130</sup>5 I wait for God. My soul waits. I hope in his word.

<sup>130</sup>6 My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning. <sup>130</sup>7 Israel, hope in God, for there is loving kindness with God. Abundant redemption is with him.

<sup>130</sup>8 He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

PSALM 131

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>131</sup>1 God, my heart isn't arrogant, nor my eyes lofty; nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me. <sup>131</sup>2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me. <sup>131</sup>3 Israel, hope in God, from this time forward and forever more.

PSALM 132

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>132</sup>2 how he swore to God, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob. <sup>132</sup>3 "Surely I will not come into the structure of my house, nor go up into my bed;

<sup>132</sup>4 I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids; <sup>132</sup>5 until I find out a place for God, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob." <sup>132</sup>6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah. We found it in the field of Jaar:

<sup>132</sup>7 "We will go into his dwelling place. We will worship at his footstool." <sup>132</sup>8 Arise, God, into your resting place, you, and the ark of your strength. <sup>132</sup>9 Let your priests be clothed with righteousness. Let your saints shout for joy!" <sup>132</sup>10 For your servant David's sake, don't turn away the face of your anointed one. <sup>132</sup>11 God has sworn to David in truth. He will not turn from it: "I will set the fruit of your body on your throne." <sup>132</sup>12 If your children will keep my covenant, my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forever more." <sup>132</sup>13

For God has chosen Zion. He has desired it for his habitation. <sup>132</sup>14 "This is my resting place forever. I will live here, for I have desired it. <sup>132</sup>15 I will abundantly bless her provision. I will satisfy her poor with bread. <sup>132</sup>16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation. Her saints will shout aloud for joy.

<sup>132</sup>17 I will make the horn of David to bud there. I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.

<sup>132</sup>18 I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on himself, his crown will shine."

PSALM 133

A Song of Ascents. By David.

It is like the precious oil on the head, that ran down on the beard, even Aaron's beard, that came down on the edge of his robes, <sup>133</sup>3 like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Zion; for there God gives the blessing, even life forever more.

PSALM 134

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>134</sup>1 Look! Praise God, all you servants of God, who stand by night in God's house! <sup>134</sup>2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary. Praise God! <sup>134</sup>3 May God bless you from Zion, even he who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 135

<sup>135</sup>6 Whatever God pleased, that he has done, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps.

<sup>135</sup>7 He causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings with the rain. He brings the wind out of his treasuries. <sup>135</sup>8 He struck the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and animal. <sup>135</sup>9 He sent signs and wonders into the middle of you, Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his servants. <sup>135</sup>10 He struck many nations, and killed mighty kings, <sup>135</sup>11 Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan, <sup>135</sup>12 and gave their land for a heritage, a heritage to Israel, his people.

<sup>235</sup> Even here, God's promise to David that his descendants will rule forevermore is conditional based on their future obedience and faith in God's covenants. This again underscores the relationship between man and God in that it is a partnership and man has a portion of responsibility which he must fulfil for God's Will to be done.

PSALM 138

By David.

<sup>138</sup><sup>1</sup> I will give you thanks with my whole heart. Before the gods, I will sing praises to you.<sup>138</sup><sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth; for you have exalted your Name and your Word above all.
<sup>138</sup><sup>3</sup> In the day that I called, you answered me. You encouraged me with strength in my soul.

<sup>138</sup><sup>7</sup> Though I walk in the middle of trouble, you will revive me. You will stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies. Your right hand will save me.

<sup>138</sup><sup>8</sup> God will fulfill that which concerns me. Your loving kindness, God, endures forever. Don't forsake the works of your own hands.

PSALM 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>139</sup><sup>1</sup> God, you have searched me, and you know me.

You perceive my thoughts from afar.<sup>139</sup><sup>3</sup> You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.<sup>139</sup><sup>4</sup> For there is not a word on my tongue, but, behold, God, you know it altogether.

<sup>139</sup><sup>8</sup> If I ascend up into heaven, you are there. If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there!

my inmost being. You knit me together in my mother's womb.

<sup>139</sup><sup>14</sup> I will give thanks to you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful. My soul knows that very well. <sup>139</sup><sup>15</sup> My frame wasn't hidden from you, when I was made in secret, woven together in the depths of the earth. <sup>139</sup><sup>16</sup> Your eyes saw my body. In your book they were all written, the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there were none of them. <sup>139</sup><sup>17</sup> How precious to me are your thoughts, God! How vast is their sum! <sup>139</sup><sup>18</sup> If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand. When I wake up, I am still with you. <sup>139</sup><sup>19</sup> If only you, God, would kill the wicked. Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men! <sup>139</sup><sup>20</sup> For they speak against you wickedly. Your enemies take your name in vain. <sup>139</sup><sup>21</sup> God, don't I hate those who hate you? Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you? <sup>139</sup><sup>22</sup> I hate them with perfect hatred. They have become my enemies. <sup>139</sup><sup>23</sup> Search me, God, and know my heart. Try me, and know my thoughts. <sup>139</sup><sup>24</sup> See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

PSALM 140

<sup>140</sup><sup>6</sup> I said to God, "You are my God." Listen to the cry of my petitions, God. <sup>140</sup><sup>7</sup> God, the Lord, the strength of my salvation, you have covered my head in the day of battle. <sup>140</sup><sup>8</sup> God, don't grant the desires of the wicked. Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud. Selah. <sup>140</sup><sup>9</sup> As for the head of those who surround me, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. <sup>140</sup><sup>10</sup> Let burning coals fall on them. Let them be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, from where they never rise. <sup>140</sup><sup>11</sup> An evil speaker won't be established in the earth. Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him. <sup>140</sup><sup>12</sup> I know that God will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the needy. <sup>140</sup><sup>13</sup> Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name. The upright will dwell in your presence.

PSALM 141

A Psalm by David.

PSALM 142

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

<sup>142</sup><sup>4</sup> Look on my right, and see; for there is no one who is concerned for me. Refuge has fled from me. No one cares for my soul. <sup>142</sup><sup>5</sup> I cried to you, God. I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

<sup>142</sup><sup>6</sup> Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need. Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me. <sup>142</sup><sup>7</sup> Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name. The righteous will surround me, for you will be good to me.

PSALM 143

A Psalm by David.

<sup>143</sup><sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, God. Listen to my petitions. In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.

<sup>143</sup><sup>6</sup> I spread out my hands to you. My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land. Selah. <sup>143</sup><sup>7</sup> Hurry to answer me, God. My spirit fails. Don't hide your face from me, so that I don't become like those who go down into the pit.

<sup>143</sup><sup>8</sup> Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning, for I trust in you. Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my soul to you.

enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul, For I am your servant.

PSALM 144

By David.

<sup>144</sup>1 Blessed be God, my rock, who teaches my hands to war, and my fingers to battle: <sup>144</sup>2 my loving kindness, my fortress, my high tower, my deliverer, my shield, and he in whom I take refuge, who subdues my people under me.

<sup>144</sup>3 God, what is man, that you care for him? Or the son of man, that you think of him?

<sup>144</sup>15 Happy are the people who are in such a situation. Happy are the people whose God is God.

PSALM 145

A praise psalm by David.

<sup>145</sup>1 I will exalt you, my God, the King. I will praise your name forever and ever. <sup>145</sup>2 Every day I will praise you. I will extol your name forever and ever. <sup>145</sup>3 Great is God, and greatly to be praised! His greatness is unsearchable. <sup>145</sup>4 One generation will commend your works to another, and will declare your mighty acts.

<sup>145</sup>5 I will meditate on the glorious majesty of your honor, on your wondrous works. <sup>145</sup>6 Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts. I will declare your greatness. <sup>145</sup>7 They will utter the memory of your great goodness, and will sing of your righteousness.

<sup>145</sup>8 God is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.

<sup>145</sup>13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Your dominion endures throughout all generations. God is faithful in all his words, and loving in all his deeds.

<sup>145</sup>14 God upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.

<sup>145</sup>17 God is righteous in all his ways, and gracious in all his works.

<sup>145</sup>18 God is near to all those who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

<sup>145</sup>19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him. He also will hear their cry, and will save them.

<sup>145</sup>20 God preserves all those who love him, but he will destroy all the wicked.

<sup>145</sup>21 My mouth will speak the praise of God. Let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

PSALM 146

<sup>146</sup>1 Praise Yah! Praise God, my soul. <sup>146</sup>2 While I live, I will praise God. I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist. <sup>146</sup>3 Don't put your trust in princes, in a son of man in whom there is no help. <sup>146</sup>4 His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth. In that very day, his thoughts perish. <sup>146</sup>5 Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in God, his God: <sup>146</sup>6 who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps truth forever; <sup>146</sup>7 who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry. God frees the prisoners. <sup>146</sup>8 God opens the eyes of the blind. God raises up those who are bowed down. God loves the righteous. <sup>146</sup>9 God preserves the foreigners. He upholds the fatherless and widow, but he turns the way of the wicked upside down. <sup>146</sup>10 God will reign forever; your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise Yah!

PSALM 147

<sup>147</sup>6 God upholds the humble. He brings the wicked down to the ground.

<sup>147</sup>13 For he has strengthened the bars of your gates. He has blessed your children within you. <sup>147</sup>14 He makes peace in your borders. He fills you with the finest of the wheat.

Praise him with harp and lyre!

PSALM 148

Praise him, all his army! <sup>148</sup>3 Praise him, sun and moon!

Praise him, all you shining stars! <sup>148</sup>4 Praise him, you heavens of heavens, you waters that are above the heavens.

<sup>148</sup>5 Let them praise God's name, for he commanded, and they were created. <sup>148</sup>6 He has also established them forever and ever. He has made a decree which will not pass away.

<sup>148</sup>7 Praise God from the earth, you great sea creatures, and all depths; <sup>148</sup>8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds; stormy wind, fulfilling his word; <sup>148</sup>9 mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars; <sup>148</sup>10 wild animals and all livestock; small creatures and flying birds;

PSALM 149

PSALM 150

<sup>128</sup> Then they will call on me, but I will not answer. They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me,<sup>129</sup> because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of God.<sup>130</sup> They wanted none of my counsel. They despised all my reproof.<sup>131</sup> Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes.<sup>132</sup> For the backsliding of the simple will kill them. The careless ease of fools will destroy them.<sup>133</sup> But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

<sup>2</sup>1 My son, if you will receive my words, and store up my commandments within you,<sup>2</sup> so as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; <sup>23</sup> yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;<sup>24</sup> if you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures:<sup>25</sup> then you will understand the fear of God, and find the knowledge of God.<sup>26</sup> For God gives wisdom. Out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.<sup>27</sup> He lays up sound wisdom for the upright. He is a shield to those who walk in integrity,<sup>28</sup> that he may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of his saints.<sup>29</sup> Then you will understand righteousness and justice, equity and every good path.<sup>210</sup> For wisdom will enter into your heart. Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

<sup>211</sup> Discretion will watch over you. Understanding will keep you,<sup>212</sup> to deliver you from the way of evil, from the men who speak perverse things,<sup>213</sup> who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness,<sup>214</sup> who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of evil,<sup>215</sup> who are crooked in their ways, and wayward in their paths,<sup>216</sup> to deliver you from the strange woman, even from the foreigner who flatters with her words,<sup>217</sup> who forsakes the friend of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God;<sup>218</sup> for her house leads down to death, her paths to the departed spirits.<sup>219</sup> None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life.<sup>220</sup> So you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.<sup>221</sup> For the upright will dwell in the land. The perfect will remain in it.<sup>222</sup> But the wicked will be cut off from the land. The treacherous will be rooted out of it.

<sup>3</sup>1 My son, don't forget my teaching; but let your heart keep my commandments:<sup>32</sup> for they will add to you length of days, years of life, and peace.<sup>33</sup> Don't let kindness and truth forsake you. Bind them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart.

<sup>34</sup> So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of God and man.<sup>35</sup> Trust in God with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding.<sup>36</sup> In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.<sup>37</sup> Don't be wise in your own eyes. Fear God, and depart from evil.<sup>38</sup> It will be health to your body, and nourishment to your bones.<sup>39</sup> Honor God with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase:

<sup>310</sup> so your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will overflow with new wine.<sup>311</sup> My son, don't despise God's discipline, neither be weary of his correction;<sup>312</sup> for whom God loves, he corrects, even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights.

<sup>334</sup> Surely he mocks the mockers, but he gives grace to the humble.<sup>335</sup> The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Listen, sons, to a father's instruction. Pay attention and know understanding;<sup>42</sup> for I give you sound learning. Don't forsake my law.<sup>43</sup> For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.<sup>44</sup> He taught me, and said to me: "Let your heart retain my words. Keep my commandments, and live.<sup>45</sup> Get wisdom. Get understanding. Don't forget, and don't deviate from the words of my mouth.

<sup>410</sup> Listen, my son, and receive my sayings. The years of your life will be many.<sup>411</sup> I have taught you in the way of wisdom. I have led you in straight paths.

the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.<sup>418</sup> But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light that shines more and more until the perfect day.<sup>419</sup> The way of the wicked is like darkness. They don't know what they stumble over.

<sup>420</sup> My son, attend to my words. Turn your ear to my sayings.<sup>421</sup> Let them not depart from your eyes. Keep them in the center of your heart.<sup>422</sup> For they are life to those who find them, and health to their whole body.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Turn your ear to my understanding, <sup>52</sup> that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.

<sup>523</sup> He will die for lack of instruction. In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>6</sup>1 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor, if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger,<sup>6</sup>2 you are trapped by the words of your mouth; you are ensnared with the words of your mouth.

<sup>6</sup>3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of your neighbor. Go, humble yourself. Press your plea with your neighbor.<sup>6</sup>4 Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.

<sup>6</sup>14 in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who always sows discord.<sup>6</sup>15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly. He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.<sup>6</sup>16 There are six things which God hates; yes, seven which are an abomination to him:<sup>6</sup>17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood,<sup>6</sup>18 a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief,<sup>6</sup>19 a false witness who utters lies, and he who sows discord among brothers.

<sup>6</sup>22 When you walk, it will lead you. When you sleep, it will watch over you. When you awake, it will talk with you.<sup>6</sup>23 For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light. Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,<sup>6</sup>24 to keep you from the immoral woman, from the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue.<sup>6</sup>25 Don't lust after her beauty in your heart, neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.<sup>6</sup>26 For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread. The adulteress hunts for your precious life.

regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>7</sup>1 My son, keep my words. Lay up my commandments within you.<sup>7</sup>2 Keep my commandments and live! Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.<sup>7</sup>3 Bind them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart.<sup>7</sup>4 Tell wisdom, "You are my sister." Call understanding your relative,<sup>7</sup>5 that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the foreigner who flatters with her words.<sup>7</sup>6 For at the window of my house, I looked out through my lattice.<sup>7</sup>7 I saw among the simple ones. I discerned among the youths a young man void of understanding,<sup>7</sup>8 passing through the street near her corner, he went the way to her house,<sup>7</sup>9 in the twilight, in the evening of the day, in the middle of the night and in the darkness.<sup>7</sup>10 Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute, and with crafty intent.<sup>7</sup>11 She is loud and defiant. Her feet don't stay in her house.<sup>7</sup>12 Now she is in the streets, now in the squares, and lurking at every corner.

<sup>7</sup>13 So she caught him, and kissed him. With an impudent face she said to him:<sup>7</sup>14 "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me. Today I have paid my vows.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>97</sup> I love those who love me. Those who seek me diligently will find me.

<sup>103</sup> I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth existed.<sup>104</sup> When there were no depths, I was born, when there were no springs abounding with water.<sup>105</sup> Before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was born;<sup>106</sup> while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the beginning of the dust of the world.

<sup>111</sup> then I was the craftsman by his side. I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before him, <sup>112</sup> rejoicing in his whole world. My delight was with the sons of men.<sup>113</sup> "Now therefore, my sons, listen to me, for blessed are those who keep my ways.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>118</sup> Wisdom has built her house. She has carved out her seven pillars.<sup>119</sup> She has prepared her meat. She has mixed her wine. She has also set her table.<sup>120</sup> She has sent out her maidens. She cries from the highest places of the city.<sup>121</sup> "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!" As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,<sup>122</sup> "Come, eat some of my bread, Drink some of the wine which I have mixed!<sup>123</sup> Leave your simple ways, and live. Walk in the way of understanding."

victory.<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.

<sup>238</sup> This may relate to the meaning of the "Tree of Life" in Gen 2:9 (see also Prov 13:12).

but he who chases fantasies is void of understanding.
12*12 The wicked desires the plunder of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.
12*13 An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips, but the righteous shall come out of trouble.
12*14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth. The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him.
12*15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he who is wise listens to counsel.
12*16 A fool shows his annoyance the same day, but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.

12*17 He who is truthful testifies honestly, but a false witness lies.
12*18 There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword, but the tongue of the wise heals.

12*19 Truth's lips will be established forever, but a lying tongue is only momentary.
12*20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil, but joy comes to the promoters of peace.
12*21 No mischief shall happen to the righteous, but the wicked shall be filled with evil.

12*22 Lying lips are an abomination to God, but those who do the truth are his delight.
12*23 A prudent man keeps his knowledge, but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.
12*24 The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.
12*25 Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down, but a kind word makes it glad.
12*26 A righteous person is cautious in friendship, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
12*27 The slothful man doesn't roast his game, but the possessions of diligent men are prized.
12*28 In the way of righteousness is life; in its path there is no death.

CHAPTER 13

13*1 A wise son listens to his father's instruction, but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.
13*2 By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things, but the unfaithful crave violence.
13*3 He who guards his mouth guards his soul. One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
13*4 The soul of the slaggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.
13*5 A righteous man hates lies, but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.
13*6 Righteousness guards the way of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
13*7 There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing. There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.
13*8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches, but the poor hear no threats.
13*9 The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
13*10 Pride only breeds quarrels, but wisdom is with people who take advice.

13*11 Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away, but he who gathers by hand makes it grow.

13*12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.
<sup>239</sup>

13*13 Whoever despises instruction will pay for it, but he who respects a command will be rewarded.

13*14 The teaching of the wise is a spring of life, to turn from the snares of death.
13*15 Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.

13*16 Every prudent man acts from knowledge, but a fool exposes folly.
13*17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.
13*18 Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline, but he who heeds correction shall be honored.
13*19 Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning from evil.

13*20 One who walks with wise men grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.
13*21 Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous.

13*22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous.
13*23 An abundance of food is in poor people's fields, but injustice sweeps it away.
13*24 One who spares the rod hates his son, but one who loves him is careful to discipline him.
13*25 The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

CHAPTER 14

14*1 Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.
14*2 He who walks in his uprightness fears God, but he who is perverse in his ways despises him.
14*3 The fool's talk brings a rod to his back, but the lips of the wise protect them.

14*4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean, but much increase is by the strength of the ox.
14*5 A truthful witness will not lie, but a false witness pours out lies.

14*6 A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it, but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.

14*7 Stay away from a foolish man, for you won't find knowledge on his lips.
14*8 The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way, but the folly of fools is deceit.

14*9 Fools mock at making atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will.
14*10 The heart knows its own bitterness and joy; he will not share these with a stranger.
14*11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown, but the tent of the upright will flourish.

14*12 There is a way which seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.
14*13 Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful, and mirth may end in heaviness.

14*14 The unfaithful will be repaid for his own ways; likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways.

14*15 A simple man believes everything, but the prudent man carefully considers his ways.

14*16 A wise man fears and shuns evil, but the fool is hot headed and reckless.

14*17 He who is quick to become angry will commit folly, and a crafty man is hated.
14*18 The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

14*19 The evil bow down before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
14*20 The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor, but the rich person has many friends.<sup>1421</sup> He who despises his neighbor sins, but he who has pity on the poor is blessed.<sup>1422</sup> Don't they go astray who plot evil? But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.<sup>1423</sup> In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.

<sup>1429</sup> He who is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a quick temper displays folly.

<sup>1511</sup> Sheol and Abaddon are before God—how much more then the hearts of the children of men!

mouths of fools feed on folly.<sup>1515</sup> All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.<sup>1516</sup> Better is little, with the fear of God, than great treasure with trouble.

<sup>1531</sup> The ear that listens to reproof lives, and will be at home among the wise.<sup>1532</sup> He who refuses correction despises his own soul, but he who listens to reproof gets understanding.<sup>1533</sup> The fear of God teaches wisdom. Before honor is humility.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>165</sup> Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to God: they shall certainly not be unpunished.

<sup>240</sup> This means that God made the people who became evil. It does not mean that He made evil people (see 2 Pet 3:9; John 3:16).

<sup>242</sup> If people had realized the Three Great Blessings (Gen 1:28) then the family of God's children would not know "enemies", nor would God. This passage also can be seen to relate to the victorious reconciliations of Jacob and Esau (Gen 33:10) and Joseph and his jealous brothers (cf. Gen 45). Also, Jesus taught: Love your enemy (Matt 5:44).

God's; all the weights in the bag are his work.<sup>1612</sup> It is an abomination for kings to do wrong, for the throne is established by righteousness.<sup>1613</sup> Righteous lips are the delight of kings. They value one who speaks the truth.

Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.<sup>1617</sup> The highway of the upright is to depart from evil. He who keeps his way preserves his soul.

He who heeds the Word finds prosperity. Whoever trusts in God is blessed.<sup>1621</sup> The wise in heart shall be called prudent. Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.<sup>1622</sup> Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly.

Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker. He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.<sup>176</sup> Children's children are the crown of old men; the glory of children are their parents.<sup>177</sup> Excellent speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince.<sup>178</sup> A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it; wherever he turns, he prospers.

robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.<sup>1713</sup> Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.<sup>1714</sup> The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.<sup>1715</sup> He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to God.<sup>1716</sup> Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, since he has no understanding?

<sup>1724</sup> Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.<sup>1725</sup> A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.

<sup>1726</sup> Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity.<sup>1727</sup> He who spares his words has knowledge. He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.<sup>1728</sup> Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise. When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.

CHAPTER 18

knowledge. <sup>19</sup><sup>26</sup> He who robs his father and drives away his mother is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

of young men is their strength. The splendor of old men is their gray hair.
20<sup>30</sup> Wounding blows cleanse away evil, and beatings purge the innermost parts.

CHAPTER 21

21<sup>1</sup> The king's heart is in God's hand like the watercourses. He turns it wherever he desires.
21<sup>2</sup> Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but God weighs the hearts.
21<sup>3</sup> To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to God than sacrifice.<sup>243</sup>
21<sup>4</sup> A high look and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, is sin.
21<sup>5</sup> The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit; and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.
21<sup>6</sup> Getting treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.
21<sup>7</sup> The violence of the wicked will drive them away, because they refuse to do what is right.
21<sup>8</sup> The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.
21<sup>9</sup> It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop than to share a house with a contentious woman.
21<sup>10</sup> The soul of the wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.
21<sup>11</sup> When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom. When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.
21<sup>12</sup> The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked, and brings the wicked to ruin.
21<sup>13</sup> Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.
21<sup>14</sup> A gift in secret pacifies anger, and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.
21<sup>15</sup> It is joy to the righteous to do justice; but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
21<sup>16</sup> The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the departed spirits.
21<sup>17</sup> He who loves pleasure will be a poor man. He who loves wine and oil won't be rich.
21<sup>18</sup> The wicked is a ransom for the righteous, the treacherous for the upright.
21<sup>19</sup> It is better to dwell in a desert land, than with a contentious and fretful woman.
21<sup>20</sup> There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man swallows it up.
21<sup>21</sup> He who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.
21<sup>22</sup> A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the strength of its confidence.
21<sup>23</sup> Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
21<sup>24</sup> The proud and arrogant man—"Scoffer" is his name—he works in the arrogance of pride.
21<sup>25</sup> The desire of the sluggard kills him, for his hands refuse to labor.
21<sup>26</sup> There are those who covet greedily all day long; but the righteous give and don't withhold.
21<sup>27</sup> The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination—how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!
21<sup>28</sup> A false witness will perish. A man who listens speaks to eternity.
21<sup>29</sup> A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.

21<sup>30</sup> There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against God.
21<sup>31</sup> The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but victory is with God.

CHAPTER 22

22<sup>1</sup> A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favor is better than silver and gold.
22<sup>2</sup> The rich and the poor have this in common: God is the maker of them all.
22<sup>3</sup> A prudent man sees danger and hides himself; but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
22<sup>4</sup> The result of humility and the fear of God is wealth, honor, and life.
22<sup>5</sup> Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked: whoever guards his soul stays from them.
22<sup>6</sup> Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.
22<sup>7</sup> The rich rule over the poor. The borrower is servant to the lender.
22<sup>8</sup> He who sows wickedness reaps trouble, and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
22<sup>9</sup> He who has a generous eye will be blessed; for he shares his food with the poor.
22<sup>10</sup> Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out; yes, quarrels and insults will stop.
22<sup>11</sup> He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully is the king's friend.
22<sup>12</sup> God's eyes watch over knowledge; but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
22<sup>13</sup> The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside! I will be killed in the streets!"
22<sup>14</sup> The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit. He who is under God's wrath will fall into it.
22<sup>15</sup> Folly is bound up in the heart of a child: the rod of discipline drives it far from him.
22<sup>16</sup> Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.
22<sup>17</sup> Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise. Apply your heart to my teaching.
22<sup>18</sup> For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.
22<sup>19</sup> I teach you today, even you, So that your trust may be in God.
22<sup>20</sup> Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things of counsel and knowledge,
22<sup>21</sup> To teach you truth, reliable words, to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?
22<sup>22</sup> Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor; and don't crush the needy in court;
22<sup>23</sup> for God will plead their case, and plunder the life of those who plunder them.
22<sup>24</sup> Don't befriend a hot-tempered man, and don't associate with one who harbors anger;
22<sup>25</sup> lest you learn his ways, and ensnare your soul.
22<sup>26</sup> Don't you be one of those who strike hands, of those who are collateral for debts.
22<sup>27</sup> If you don't have means to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you?
22<sup>28</sup> Don't move the ancient boundary stone which your fathers have set up.
22<sup>29</sup> Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will serve kings. He won't serve obscure men.

<sup>23</sup><sup>35</sup> "They hit me, and I was not hurt! They beat me, and I don't feel it! When will I wake up? I can do it again. I can find another."

<sup>24</sup><sup>34</sup> so your poverty will come as a robber and your want as an armed man.

before the wicked.<sup>25</sup><sup>27</sup> It is not good to eat much honey, nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.

stand before jealousy.<sup>275</sup> Better is open rebuke than hidden love.<sup>276</sup> The wounds of a friend are faithful, although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.

<sup>2710</sup> Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend. Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster. A neighbor who is near is better than a distant brother.<sup>2711</sup> Be wise, my son, and bring joy to my heart, then I can answer my tormentor.

<sup>2827</sup> One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.<sup>2828</sup> When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>29</sup>17 Correct your son, and he will give you peace; yes, he will bring delight to your soul.<sup>29</sup>18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who keeps the law is blessed.<sup>29</sup>19 A servant can't be corrected by words. Though he understands, yet he will not respond.<sup>29</sup>20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.<sup>29</sup>21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end.<sup>29</sup>22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin.<sup>29</sup>23 A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains honor.

<sup>29</sup>25 The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in God is kept safe.<sup>29</sup>26 Many seek the ruler's favor, but a man's justice comes from God.<sup>29</sup>27 A dishonest man detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>30</sup>1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh; the revelation: the man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:<sup>30</sup>2 "Surely I am the most ignorant man, and don't have a man's understanding.<sup>30</sup>3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.<sup>30</sup>4 Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has bound the waters in his garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?<sup>30</sup>5 "Every word of God is flawless. He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

<sup>30</sup>6 Don't you add to his words, lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.<sup>30</sup>7 "Two things I have asked of you. Don't deny me before I die.<sup>30</sup>8 Remove far from me falsehood and lies. Give me neither poverty nor riches. Feed me with the food that is needful for me,<sup>30</sup>9 lest I be full, deny you, and say, 'Who is God?' or lest I be poor, and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God.<sup>30</sup>10 "Don't slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.<sup>30</sup>11 There is a generation that curses their father, and doesn't bless their mother.<sup>30</sup>12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness.

womb, the earth that is not satisfied with water, and the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough.'<sup>30</sup>17 "The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns obedience to his mother:

the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, the young eagles shall eat it.<sup>30</sup>18 "There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I don't understand:

<sup>30</sup>25 The ants are not a strong people, yet they provide their food in the summer.<sup>30</sup>26 The hyraxes are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks.<sup>30</sup>27 The locusts have no king, yet they advance in ranks.<sup>30</sup>28 You can catch a lizard with your hands, yet it is in kings' palaces.<sup>30</sup>29 "There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going:<sup>30</sup>30 The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and doesn't turn away for any;<sup>30</sup>31 the greyhound; the male goat; and the king against whom there is no rising up.<sup>30</sup>32 "If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, put your hand over your mouth.<sup>30</sup>33 For as the churning of milk produces butter, and the wringing of the nose produces blood; so the forcing of wrath produces strife."

CHAPTER 31

<sup>31</sup>3 Don't give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

shalt not eat of it" (see Gen 2:17; 3:11; Job 31:33; Prov 30:20; Song 4:12–16; Matt 15:11–17).

flax, and works eagerly with her hands.<sup>3114</sup> She is like the merchant ships. She brings her bread from afar.

OR, THE PREACHER

Brief background summary

Dating:

This book was probably written during the last half of the 3rd century BC.

Other scholars date it between 180 BC and 450 BC.

Authorship:

Rabbinic tradition says that Solomon is the author. The book seems to imply that its author is the son of King David, but scholars believe that the real author is unknown.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem:

2 "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity."<sup>13</sup> What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun?<sup>14</sup> One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever.<sup>246</sup>

15 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises.<sup>16</sup> The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses.<sup>17</sup> All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again.<sup>18</sup> All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.<sup>19</sup> That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.<sup>10</sup> Is there a thing of which it may be said, "Behold, this is new?" It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us.<sup>11</sup> There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.
13 I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with.<sup>14</sup> I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.<sup>15</sup> That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted.<sup>16</sup> I said to myself, "Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge."<sup>17</sup> I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind.<sup>18</sup> For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

CHAPTER 2

21 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;" and behold, this also was vanity.<sup>22</sup> I said of laughter, "It is foolishness;" and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"

23 I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives.<sup>24</sup> I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards.<sup>25</sup> I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit.<sup>26</sup> I made myself pools of water, to water the forest where trees were grown.

27 I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem.<sup>28</sup> I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men: musical instruments, and that of all sorts.<sup>29</sup> So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. 29 Whatever my eyes desired, I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor.<sup>211</sup> Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

212 I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly; for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago.<sup>213</sup> Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.

214 The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all.<sup>215</sup> Then I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?" Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity.<sup>216</sup> For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory forever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

217 So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind.<sup>218</sup> I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me.<sup>219</sup> Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

220 Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun.<sup>221</sup> For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

222 For what does a man have of all his labor and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun?<sup>223</sup> For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.<sup>224</sup> There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God.<sup>225</sup> For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I?<sup>226</sup> For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

<sup>31</sup> For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:
<sup>32</sup> a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
<sup>33</sup> a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
<sup>34</sup> a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
<sup>35</sup> a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
<sup>36</sup> a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
<sup>37</sup> a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
<sup>38</sup> a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
<sup>39</sup> What profit has he who works in that in which he labors?<sup>310</sup> I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with.<sup>311</sup> He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end.<sup>312</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live.<sup>313</sup> Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God.<sup>314</sup> I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him.
<sup>315</sup> That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago. God seeks again that which is passed away.

<sup>316</sup> Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there.
<sup>317</sup> I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work."<sup>318</sup> I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals.<sup>319</sup> For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals; for all is vanity."<sup>320</sup> All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again.<sup>321</sup> Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"
<sup>322</sup> Therefore I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.<sup>42</sup> Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive.<sup>43</sup> Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.<sup>44</sup> Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

<sup>48</sup> There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then, do I labor and deprive my soul of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business.
<sup>49</sup> Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor.<sup>50</sup> For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up.
<sup>51</sup> Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone?<sup>52</sup> If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.
<sup>53</sup> Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more.<sup>54</sup> For out of prison he came out to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor.<sup>55</sup> I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him.<sup>56</sup> There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

<sup>51</sup> Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil.
<sup>52</sup> Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few.<sup>53</sup> For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words.<sup>54</sup> When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow.<sup>55</sup> It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay.<sup>56</sup> Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?<sup>57</sup> For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words; but you must fear God.

<sup>60</sup> He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity.<sup>511</sup> When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

<sup>512</sup> The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

<sup>514</sup> Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand.<sup>515</sup> As he came out of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand.<sup>516</sup> This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind?<sup>517</sup> All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

<sup>518</sup> Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion.<sup>519</sup> Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God.<sup>520</sup> For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men:<sup>62</sup> a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

<sup>63</sup> If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say that a stillborn child is better than he:<sup>64</sup> for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness.<sup>65</sup> Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other.<sup>66</sup> Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place?<sup>67</sup> All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.<sup>68</sup> For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living?<sup>69</sup> Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.<sup>70</sup> Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he.<sup>71</sup> For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man?<sup>72</sup> For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth.

<sup>72</sup> It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart.

<sup>81</sup> Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun.<sup>82</sup> For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

<sup>83</sup> Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked?<sup>84</sup> In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

<sup>85</sup> All this I have seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing.

<sup>87</sup> Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time?<sup>88</sup> It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also don't withdraw your hand from that; for he who fears God will come out of them all.<sup>89</sup> Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city.<sup>90</sup> Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and doesn't sin.<sup>91</sup> Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you;

<sup>92</sup> for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others.<sup>93</sup> All this I have proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me.<sup>94</sup> That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out?<sup>95</sup> I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

<sup>96</sup> I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

<sup>97</sup> "Behold, I have found this," says the Preacher, "to one another, to find out the scheme<sup>98</sup> which my soul still seeks, but I have not found. I have found one man among a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all those.<sup>729</sup> Behold, I have only found this: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes."

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.<sup>82</sup> I say, "Keep the king's command!" because of the oath to God.<sup>83</sup> Don't be hasty to go out of his presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him,<sup>84</sup> for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?"<sup>85</sup> Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure.<sup>86</sup> For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him.<sup>87</sup> For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be?<sup>88</sup> There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

<sup>89</sup> All this I have seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt.

<sup>90</sup> So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity.

<sup>91</sup> Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.<sup>912</sup> Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him.<sup>913</sup> But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow, because he doesn't fear God.

<sup>914</sup> There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.<sup>915</sup> Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat, to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

<sup>916</sup> When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (even though eyes see no sleep day or night),<sup>917</sup> then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them.<sup>92</sup> All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath.<sup>93</sup> This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.<sup>94</sup> For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion.<sup>95</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten.<sup>96</sup> Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither do they any longer have a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

<sup>910</sup> Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor plan, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going.

<sup>911</sup> I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all.<sup>912</sup> For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

<sup>918</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>1014</sup> A fool also multiplies words. Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? <sup>1015</sup> The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

<sup>1016</sup> Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning!

<sup>1017</sup> Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

<sup>1018</sup> By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

<sup>1019</sup> A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things.

<sup>1020</sup> Don't curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; and don't curse the rich in your bedroom: for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>112</sup> Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth.

<sup>113</sup> If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.

<sup>114</sup> He who observes the wind won't sow; and he who regards the clouds won't reap.

<sup>115</sup> As you don't know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you don't know the work of God who does all.

<sup>116</sup> In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good.

<sup>117</sup> Truly the light is sweet, and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun.

<sup>118</sup> Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity.

<sup>119</sup> Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

<sup>1110</sup> Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>121</sup> Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;"

<sup>122</sup> Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;<sup>247</sup>

<sup>123</sup> in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened,

<sup>124</sup> and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

<sup>125</sup> yes, they shall be afraid of heights, and terrors will be on the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets:

<sup>129</sup> Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs.<sup>1210</sup> The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth.

<sup>1211</sup> The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

<sup>1212</sup> Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

<sup>1213</sup> This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.<sup>1214</sup> For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

<sup>247</sup> This is metaphorical language (see Gen 37:9; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, 3:15; Matt 24:29; 1 Cor 15:41; Rev 8:12, 12:1).

CHAPTER 1

11 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.
Beloved

12 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for your love is better than wine.

13 Your oils have a pleasing fragrance. Your name is oil poured out, therefore the virgins love you.

14 Take me away with you. Let's hurry. The king has brought me into his rooms.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved

They are right to love you.

15 I am dark, but lovely, you daughters of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents, like Solomon's curtains.

16 Don't stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me. My mother's sons were angry with me. They made me keeper of the vineyards. I haven't kept my own vineyard.

17 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you graze your flock, where you rest them at noon; for why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

18 If you don't know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of the sheep. Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

19 I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.

Friends

11 We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver.

Beloved

12 While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.

13 My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.

14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

15 Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are like doves.

Beloved

16 Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant; and our couch is verdant.

Lover

17 The beams of our house are cedars. Our rafters are firs.

CHAPTER 2

Beloved

21 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Lover

22 As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved

23 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, his fruit was sweet to my taste.

24 He brought me to the banquet hall. His banner over me is love.

25 Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I am faint with love.

27 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires.

28 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes, leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills.

29 My beloved is like a roe or a young deer. Behold, he stands behind our wall! He looks in at the windows. He glances through the lattice.

20 My beloved spoke, and said to me, "Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away."

21 For behold, the winter is past. The rain is over and gone.

22 The flowers appear on the earth. The time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

23 The fig tree ripens her green figs. The vines are in blossom. They give out their fragrance. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away."

Lover

24 My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places of the mountainside, let me see your face. let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet and your face is lovely.

25 Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that plunder the vineyards; for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

26 My beloved is mine, and I am his. He browses among the lilies.

27 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young deer on the mountains of Bether.

CHAPTER 3

31 By night on my bed, I sought him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him.

32 I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him.

33 The watchmen who go about the city found me; "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

34 I had scarcely passed from them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the room of her who conceived me.

35 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up nor awaken love, until it so desires.

36 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant?

<sup>40</sup> He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, the middle of it being paved with love, from the daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 4

Lover

<sup>43</sup> Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.

<sup>44</sup> Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, on which a thousand shields hang, all the shields of the mighty men.

<sup>45</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins of a roe, which feed among the lilies.

<sup>47</sup> You are all beautiful, my love. There is no spot in you.

<sup>49</sup> You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride. You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck.

<sup>50</sup> How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine, the fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices!

<sup>415</sup> a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

<sup>416</sup> Awake, north wind, and come, you south! Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and taste his precious fruits.<sup>249</sup>

CHAPTER 5

Lover

<sup>51</sup> I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends! Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

<sup>52</sup> I was asleep, but my heart was awake. It is the voice of my beloved who knocks: "Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my hair with the dampness of the night."

<sup>53</sup> I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on? I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them?

<sup>54</sup> My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening. My heart pounded for him.

<sup>55</sup> I rose up to open for my beloved. My hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

<sup>56</sup> I opened to my beloved; but my beloved left, and had gone away. My heart went out when he spoke. I looked for him, but I didn't find him. I called him, but he didn't answer.

<sup>57</sup> The watchmen who go about the city found me. They beat me. They bruised me. The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me.

<sup>58</sup> I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends

<sup>59</sup> How is your beloved better than another beloved, you fairest among women? How is your beloved better than another beloved, that you do so adjure us?

Beloved

<sup>249</sup> This, again, has a sexual connotation connected with the reference to the eating of "fruits" as like in the Garden of Eden when God told Adam not to eat of the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil (see Gen 2:17; Job 31:33; Prov 30:20; Song 4:12–16; Matt 15:11–17).

5:16 His mouth is sweetness; yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 6

Friends

6:1 Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women? Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

6:2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

6:3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He browses among the lilies.

Lover

6:4 You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners.

6:5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me. Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead.

6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, which have come up from the washing, of which every one has twins; not one is bereaved among them.

6:7 Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.

6:8 There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgins without number.

6:9 My dove, my perfect one, is unique. She is her mother's only daughter. She is the favorite one of her who bore her. The daughters saw her, and called her blessed. The queens and the concubines saw her, and they praised her.

6:10 Who is she who looks out as the morning, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, and awesome as an army with banners?

6:11 I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the green plants of the valley, to see whether the vine budded, and the pomegranates were in flower.

6:12 Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends

6:13 Return, return, Shulammite! Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammite, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

CHAPTER 7

7:1 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

7:2 Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting. Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.

7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, that are twins of a roe.

7:4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

7:5 Your head on you is like Carmel. The hair of your head like purple. The king is held captive in its tresses.

7:6 How beautiful and how pleasant you are, love, for delights!

7:7 This, your stature, is like a palm tree, your breasts like its fruit.

7:8 I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree. I will take hold of its fruit." Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the smell of your breath like apples.

7:9 Your mouth is like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

Beloved

7:10 I am my beloved's. His desire is toward me.

7:11 Come, my beloved! Let's go out into the field. Let's lodge in the villages.

7:12 Let's go early up to the vineyards. Let's see whether the vine has budded, its blossom is open, and the pomegranates are in flower. There I will give you my love.

7:13 The mandrakes produce fragrance. At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old, which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

CHAPTER 8

8:1 Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother! If I found you outside, I would kiss you; yes, and no one would despise me.

8:2 I would lead you, bringing you into the house of my mother, who would instruct me. I would have you drink spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate.

8:3 His left hand would be under my head. His right hand would embrace me.

8:4 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires.

Friends

8:5 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

Beloved

Under the apple tree I awakened you. There your mother conceived you. There she was in labor and bore you.

8:6 Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm; for love is strong as death. Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a very flame of God.8:7 Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, he would be utterly scorned.

Brothers

8:8 We have a little sister. She has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for?

8:9 If she is a wall, we will build on her a turret of silver. If she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved

8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in his eyes like one who found peace.

8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. He leased out the vineyard to keepers. Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.

812 My own vineyard is before me. The thousand are for you, Solomon, two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover

813 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice!

Beloved

814 Come away, my beloved! Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

ISAIAH

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars believe that some of the book of Isaiah were written by the prophet Isaiah, and that a second part of the book was written by someone during the exile in Babylon, and a third part was written after the return from Babylon. Thus, the dating would fall into the 8th century, during the time of Isaiah, himself, the 7th century and the 6th century BC. The current form of the book did not appear until about 70 BC.

Authorship:

Aside from the writings of Isaiah, himself, it is not known who the other writers were. Chapters 1–39 are thought to be authored by Isaiah, chapters 40–55 during the exile in Babylon, and chapters 56–66 thereafter.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, heavens, and listen, earth; for God has spoken:

"I have nourished and brought up children and they have rebelled against me."

3 The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel doesn't know.

My people don't consider."

4 Ah sinful nation, a people loaded with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, children who deal corruptly! They have forsaken God. They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged and backward.

5 Why should you be beaten more, that you revolt more and more? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it: wounds, welts, and open sores. They haven't been closed, bandaged, or soothed with oil.

7 Your country is desolate. Your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour your land in your presence and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city.

9 Unless The Lord God of Hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom. We would have been like Gomorrah.

10 Hear God's word, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

11 "What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?", says God. "I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed animals. I don't delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of male goats.

12 When you come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?

13 Bring no more vain offerings. Incense is an abomination to me. New moons, Sabbaths, and convocations: I can't stand evil assemblies.

14 My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts. They are a burden to me. I am weary of bearing them.

15 When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you. Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash yourselves. Make yourself clean. Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes. Cease to do evil.

17 Learn to do well. Seek justice. Relieve the oppressed. Defend the fatherless. Plead for the widow."

18 "Come now, and let's reason together," says God: "Though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow. Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land;

20 but if you refuse and rebel, you will be devoured with the sword; for the God's mouth has spoken it."<sup>250</sup>

21 How the faithful city has become a prostitute! She was full of justice. Righteousness lodged in her, but now there are murderers.

22 Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.

23 Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves. Everyone loves bribes and follows after rewards. They don't defend the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them.

24 Therefore the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, says: "Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself on my enemies.

25 I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross, and will take away all your tin.

26 I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called 'The city of righteousness, a faithful town.'

27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness.

28 But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake God shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen.

30 For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.

31 The strong will be like tinder, and his work like a spark. They will both burn together, and no one will quench them."

CHAPTER 2

1 This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 It shall happen in the latter days, that the mountain of God's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; and all nations shall flow to it.

3 Many peoples shall go and say, "Come, let's go up to the mountain of God, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For the law shall go out of Zion, and God's word from Jerusalem.

4 He will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks.<sup>251</sup>

<sup>250</sup> A concise summary stating the relationship between God and man as being a partnership wherein man has a portion of responsibility before God (see Deut 28 see Topical Index #38).

<sup>251</sup> God expected this prophecy to be realized in the time of Jesus, but it was not, due to rejection by faithless people (see Topical Index #23).

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

25 House of Jacob, come, and let's walk in the light of God. 26 For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled from the east, with those who practice divination like the Philistines, and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.

27 Their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures. Their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

28 Their land also is full of idols. They worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

29 Man is brought low, and mankind is humbled; therefore don't forgive them.

30 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust, from before the terror of God, and from the glory of his majesty.

31 The lofty looks of man will be brought low, the arrogance of men will be bowed down, and God alone will be exalted in that day.

32 For there will be a day of The Lord God of Hosts for all that is proud and arrogant, and for all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low:

33 for all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of Bashan,

34 for all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted up,

35 for every lofty tower, for every fortified wall,

36 for all the ships of Tarshish, and for all pleasant imagery.

37 The loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the arrogance of men shall be brought low; and God alone shall be exalted in that day.

38 The idols shall utterly pass away.

39 Men shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, from before the terror of God, and from the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake the earth mightily.

40 In that day, men shall cast away their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which have been made for themselves to worship, to the moles and to the bats,

41 to go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of God, and from the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake the earth mightily.

42 Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for of what account is he?

CHAPTER 3

31 For, behold, the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support, the whole supply of bread, and the whole supply of water;

32 the mighty man, the man of war, the judge, the prophet, the diviner, the elder,

33 the captain of fifty, the honorable man, the counselor, the skilled craftsman, and the clever enchanter.

34 I will give boys to be their princes, and children shall rule over them.

35 The people will be oppressed, everyone by another, and everyone by his neighbor. The child will behave himself proudly against the old man, and the wicked against the honorable.

36 Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, "You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand."

37 In that day he will cry out, saying, "I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing. You shall not make me ruler of the people."

38 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against God, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

39 The look of their faces testify against them. They parade their sin like Sodom. They don't hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have brought disaster upon themselves.

40 Tell the righteous "Good!" For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.

41 Woe to the wicked! Disaster is upon them; for the deeds of his hands will be paid back to him.

42 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. My people, those who lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.

43 God stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples.

44 God will enter into judgment with the elders of his people and their leaders: "It is you who have eaten up the vineyard. The plunder of the poor is in your houses.

45 What do you mean that you crush my people, and grind the face of the poor?" says the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts.

46 Moreover God said, "Because the daughters of Zion are arrogant, and walk with outstretched necks and flirting eyes, walking to trip as they go, jingling ornaments on their feet;

47 therefore the Lord brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, and God will make their scalps bald."

48 In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces,

49 the earrings, the bracelets, the veils,

50 the headdresses, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume containers, the charms,

51 the signet rings, the nose rings,

52 the fine robes, the capes, the cloaks, the purses,

53 the hand mirrors, the fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls.

54 It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rottenness; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a wearing of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

55 Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war.

56 Her gates shall lament and mourn. She shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing. Just let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach."

<sup>42</sup> In that day, God's branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel.

<sup>43</sup> It will happen that he who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; <sup>44</sup> when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from within it, by the spirit of justice and by the spirit of burning. <sup>45</sup> God will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for over all the glory will be a canopy. <sup>46</sup> There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.

<sup>52</sup> He dug it up, gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in the middle of it, and also cut out a wine press in it. He looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

<sup>53</sup> "Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.

<sup>54</sup> What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?

<sup>55</sup> Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up. I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down. <sup>56</sup> I will lay it a wasteland. It won't be pruned or hoed, but it will grow briers and thorns. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it."

<sup>57</sup> For the vineyard of The Lord God of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress.

<sup>58</sup> Woe to those who join house to house, who lay field to field, until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land!

<sup>513</sup> Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. Their honorable men are famished, and their multitudes are parched with thirst.

<sup>514</sup> Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, their multitude, their pomp, and he who rejoices among them, descend into it.

<sup>515</sup> So man is brought low, mankind is humbled, and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled;

<sup>516</sup> but The Lord God of Hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.

<sup>517</sup> Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich.

<sup>518</sup> Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope,

<sup>519</sup> who say, "Let him make haste, let him hasten his work, that we may see it; let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it!"

<sup>524</sup> Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust, because they have rejected the law of The Lord God of Hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>525</sup> Therefore God's anger burns against his people, and he has stretched out his hand against them and has struck them. The mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the middle of the streets. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is still stretched out.

<sup>526</sup> He will lift up a banner to the nations from far away, and he will whistle for them from the end of the earth. Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly.

<sup>528</sup> whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent. Their horses' hoofs will be like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

<sup>529</sup> Their roaring will be like a lioness. They will roar like young lions. Yes, they shall roar, and seize their prey and carry it off, and there will be no one to deliver.

<sup>530</sup> They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea. If one looks to the land, behold, darkness and distress. The light is darkened in its clouds.

CHAPTER 6

6:1 In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.

6:2 Above him stood the seraphim.<sup>252</sup>

Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew.

6:3 One called to another, and said, "Holy, holy, holy, is The Lord God of Hosts! The whole earth is full of his glory!"

6:4 The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke.<sup>65</sup> Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell among a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, The Lord God of Hosts!"

6:5 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.

6:6 He touched my mouth with it, and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven."

6:7 I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

6:8 He said, "Go, and tell this people, 'You hear indeed, but don't understand. You see indeed, but don't perceive.'

6:9 Make the heart of this people fat. Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed."

6:10 Then I said, "Lord, how long?" He answered, "Until cities are waste without inhabitant, houses without man, the land becomes utterly waste,

6:11 and God has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many within the land.

6:12 If there is a tenth left in it, that also will in turn be consumed, as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stump remains when they are cut down; so the holy seed is its stock."

CHAPTER 7

7:1 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.<sup>72</sup> David's house was told, "Syria is allied with Ephraim." His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.

7:3 Then God said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller's field.<sup>74</sup> Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

7:5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying,<sup>76</sup> "Let's go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a king within it, even the son of Tabeel."<sup>77</sup> This is what the Lord God says: "It shall not stand, neither shall it happen."<sup>78</sup> For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people.<sup>79</sup> The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established."

7:10 God spoke again to Ahaz, saying,<sup>711</sup> "Ask a sign of The lord your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above."

7:12 But Ahaz said, "I won't ask. I won't tempt God."

7:13 He said, "Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also?<sup>714</sup> Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.<sup>253</sup>

7:15 He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good.<sup>716</sup> For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken.<sup>717</sup> God will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah, even the king of Assyria.

7:18 It will happen in that day that God will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

7:19 They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures.

7:20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.

7:21 It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep.<sup>722</sup> It shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter; for everyone will eat butter and honey that is left within the land.

7:23 It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels, shall be for briars and thorns.<sup>724</sup> People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briars and thorns.<sup>725</sup> All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briars and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of oxen, and for sheep to tread on."

CHAPTER 8

8:1 God said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz';<sup>82</sup> and

I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”<sup>83</sup> I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then God said to me, “Call his name ‘Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’<sup>84</sup> For before the child knows how to say, ‘My father,’ and, ‘My mother,’ the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.”

<sup>85</sup> God spoke to me yet again, saying,<sup>86</sup> “Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah’s son;<sup>87</sup> now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks.<sup>88</sup> It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through. It will reach even to the neck. The stretching out of its wings will fill the width of your land, Immanuel.<sup>89</sup> Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered!<sup>90</sup> Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand, for God is with us.”<sup>91</sup> For God spoke this to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,<sup>92</sup> “Don’t say, ‘A conspiracy!’ concerning all about which this people say, ‘A conspiracy!’ neither fear their threats, nor be terrorized.<sup>93</sup> The Lord God of Hosts is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread.<sup>94</sup> He will be a sanctuary, but for both houses of Israel, he will be a stumbling stone and a rock that makes them fall. For the people of Jerusalem, he will be a trap and a snare.<sup>95</sup> Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured.”

<sup>96</sup> Wrap up the covenant. Seal the law among my disciples.<sup>97</sup> I will wait for God, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.<sup>98</sup> Behold, I and the children whom God has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from The Lord God of Hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.

<sup>99</sup> When they tell you, “Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter,” shouldn’t a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?<sup>100</sup> Turn to the law and to the covenant! If they don’t speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them.<sup>101</sup> They will pass through it, very distressed and hungry. It will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward,<sup>102</sup> and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>103</sup> But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

<sup>105</sup> You have multiplied the nation. You have increased their joy. They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the plunder.<sup>106</sup> For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian.<sup>107</sup> For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire.

<sup>108</sup> For a child is born to us. A son is given to us; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>111</sup> All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart,

<sup>112</sup> “The bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stone. The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place.”

<sup>113</sup> Therefore God will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, <sup>114</sup> The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

<sup>115</sup> Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>116</sup> Therefore God will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.

<sup>117</sup> The elder and the honorable man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.

<sup>118</sup> For those who lead this people lead them astray; and those who are led by them are destroyed.

<sup>119</sup> Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for everyone is profane and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.<sup>9</sup><sup>18</sup> For wickedness burns like a fire. It devours the briars and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.

<sup>10</sup><sup>2</sup> to deprive the needy of justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their plunder, and that they may make the fatherless their prey!<sup>10</sup><sup>3</sup> What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth?<sup>10</sup><sup>4</sup> They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.<sup>10</sup><sup>5</sup> Alas Assyrian,<sup>255</sup> the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation!

<sup>10</sup><sup>6</sup> I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me I will give him a command to take the plunder and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.<sup>10</sup><sup>7</sup> However he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations.<sup>10</sup><sup>8</sup> For he says, "Aren't all of my princes kings?<sup>10</sup><sup>9</sup> Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?"<sup>10</sup><sup>10</sup> As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria,<sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup> shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

<sup>10</sup><sup>12</sup> Therefore it will happen that when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his arrogant looks.<sup>10</sup><sup>13</sup> For he has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding. I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers.

<sup>10</sup><sup>14</sup> My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, I have gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped."

As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood.

<sup>10</sup><sup>20</sup> It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on God, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.<sup>10</sup><sup>21</sup> A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.<sup>10</sup><sup>22</sup> For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.<sup>10</sup><sup>23</sup> For the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, will make a full end, and that determined, throughout all the earth.

<sup>10</sup><sup>33</sup> Behold, the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.<sup>10</sup><sup>34</sup> He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>11</sup><sup>1</sup> A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

<sup>11</sup><sup>2</sup> God's Spirit will rest on him: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of God.

113 His delight will be in the fear of God. He will not judge by the sight of his eyes, neither decide by the hearing of his ears;

114 but he will judge the poor with righteousness, and decide with equity for the humble of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips he will kill the wicked.

115 Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his waist.<sup>256</sup>

116 The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, the calf, the young lion, and the fatted calf together; and a little child will lead them.

117 The cow and the bear will graze. Their young ones will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox.

118 The nursing child will play near a cobra's hole, and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.<sup>119</sup> They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of God, as the waters cover the sea.

1110 It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious.

1111 It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.<sup>1112</sup> He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.<sup>1113</sup> The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim.<sup>1114</sup> They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them.

1115 God will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals.<sup>1116</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 12

121 In that day you will say, "I will give thanks to you, God; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me.<sup>122</sup> Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yah, God, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation."<sup>123</sup> Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation.<sup>124</sup> In that day you will say, "Give thanks to God! Call on his name! Declare his doings among the peoples! Proclaim that his name is exalted!<sup>125</sup> Sing to God, for he has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth!<sup>126</sup> Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great among you!"

CHAPTER 13

131 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

132 Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.<sup>133</sup> I have commanded my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.<sup>134</sup> The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! The Lord God of Hosts is mustering the army for the battle.<sup>135</sup> They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even God, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

136 Wail, for God's day is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.<sup>137</sup> Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt.<sup>138</sup> They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame.<sup>139</sup> Behold, the day of God comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it.
1310 For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going out, and the moon will not cause its light to shine.<sup>257</sup>

1311 I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the arrogance of the terrible.<sup>1312</sup> I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir.<sup>1313</sup> Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in The Lord God of Hosts' wrath, and in the day of his fierce anger.<sup>1314</sup> It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land.

1315 Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.

1316 Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped.

1317 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it.<sup>1318</sup> Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children.

<sup>13</sup><sup>19</sup> Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>13</sup><sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there.<sup>13</sup><sup>21</sup> But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there.<sup>13</sup><sup>22</sup> Wolves will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>14</sup><sup>1</sup> For God will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob.<sup>14</sup><sup>2</sup> The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in God's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

<sup>14</sup><sup>3</sup> It will happen in the day that God will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve,<sup>14</sup><sup>4</sup> that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!"<sup>14</sup><sup>5</sup> God has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers,<sup>14</sup><sup>6</sup> who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that no one restrained.<sup>14</sup><sup>7</sup> The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out in song.<sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> Yes, the cypress trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us."<sup>14</sup><sup>9</sup> Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the departed spirits for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.<sup>14</sup><sup>10</sup> They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?"<sup>14</sup><sup>11</sup> Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.

<sup>14</sup><sup>13</sup> You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!"<sup>14</sup><sup>15</sup> Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit.<sup>258</sup>

<sup>14</sup><sup>32</sup> What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That God has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

CHAPTER 15

sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly.<sup>154</sup> Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them.<sup>155</sup> My heart cries out for Moab! Her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for on the way to Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction.<sup>156</sup> For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing.<sup>157</sup> Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows.<sup>158</sup> For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab, its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim.<sup>159</sup> For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>166</sup> We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing.<sup>167</sup> Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken.<sup>168</sup> For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea.<sup>169</sup> Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen.<sup>1610</sup> Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop.<sup>1611</sup> Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres.<sup>1612</sup> It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail.

<sup>1613</sup> This is the word that God spoke concerning Moab in time past.<sup>1614</sup> But now God has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

CHAPTER 17

<sup>174</sup> "It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.<sup>175</sup> It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleans grain in the valley of Rephaim.<sup>176</sup> Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says God, the God of Israel.<sup>177</sup> In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.<sup>178</sup> They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherah poles, or the incense altars.<sup>179</sup> In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation.<sup>1710</sup> For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings.<sup>1711</sup> In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

<sup>1712</sup> Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters!<sup>1713</sup> The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm.<sup>1714</sup> At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

CHAPTER 18

<sup>181</sup> Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,<sup>182</sup> that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, "Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!"<sup>183</sup> All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen!

<sup>184</sup> For God said to me, "I will be still, and I will see in my dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”<sup>185</sup> For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches.<sup>186</sup> They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will eat them in the summer, and all the animals of the earth will eat them in the winter.<sup>187</sup> In that time, a present will be brought to The Lord God of Hosts from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of The Lord God of Hosts, Mount Zion.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>191</sup> The burden of Egypt. “Behold, God rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it.<sup>192</sup> I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.<sup>193</sup> The spirit of the Egyptians will fail within them. I will destroy their counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards.<sup>194</sup> I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them,” says the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>195</sup> The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry.<sup>196</sup> The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away.<sup>197</sup> The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more.<sup>198</sup> The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish.<sup>199</sup> Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded.<sup>1910</sup> The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul.

<sup>1911</sup> The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, “I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?”<sup>1912</sup> Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what The Lord God of Hosts has purposed concerning Egypt.<sup>1913</sup> The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes.<sup>1914</sup> God has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the middle of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit.<sup>1915</sup> Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do.<sup>1916</sup> In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of The Lord God of Hosts’s hand, which he shakes over them.<sup>1917</sup> The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of The Lord God of Hosts, which he determines against it.<sup>1918</sup> In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to The Lord God of Hosts. One will be called “The city of destruction.”

<sup>1919</sup> In that day, there will be an altar to God in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to God at its border.<sup>1920</sup> It will be for a sign and for a witness to The Lord God of Hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to God because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them.<sup>1921</sup> God will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know God in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to God, and will perform it.<sup>1922</sup> God will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to God, and he will be entreated by them, and will heal them.

<sup>1923</sup> In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

<sup>1924</sup> In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing within the earth;<sup>1925</sup> because The Lord God of Hosts has blessed them, saying, “Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance.”

CHAPTER 20

<sup>201</sup> In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it;<sup>202</sup> at that time God spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, “Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your sandals from off your feet.” He did so, walking naked and barefoot.<sup>203</sup> God said, “As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia,<sup>204</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.<sup>205</sup> They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.<sup>206</sup> The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, ‘Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?’”

CHAPTER 21

<sup>211</sup> The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land.

<sup>212</sup> A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media’s sighing.<sup>213</sup> Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have seized me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can’t hear. I am so dismayed that I can’t see.<sup>214</sup> My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me.<sup>215</sup> They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield!<sup>216</sup> For the Lord said to me, "Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees.<sup>217</sup> When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness."<sup>218</sup> He cried like a lion: "Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post.<sup>219</sup> Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs." He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground.

<sup>210</sup> You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!" That which I have heard from The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

<sup>211</sup> The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"<sup>212</sup> The watchman said, "The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again."

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops?<sup>222</sup> You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle.<sup>223</sup> All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away.<sup>224</sup> Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn't look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who planned it long ago.

<sup>2215</sup> The Lord, The Lord God of Hosts says, "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say,<sup>2216</sup> 'What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?' Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!"<sup>2217</sup> Behold, God will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly.<sup>2218</sup> He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you disgrace of your lord's house.<sup>2219</sup> I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.

<sup>2220</sup> It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah,<sup>2221</sup> and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.<sup>2222</sup> I will lay the key of David's house on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open.<sup>2223</sup> I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father's house.<sup>2224</sup> They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers.<sup>2225</sup> "In that day," says The Lord God of Hosts, "the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for God has spoken it."

CHAPTER 23

<sup>231</sup> The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them.<sup>232</sup> Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon that pass over the sea have replenished.<sup>233</sup> On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations.<sup>234</sup> Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying,

"I have not travailed, nor given birth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins."<sup>235</sup> When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre.<sup>236</sup> Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast!

<sup>23</sup>7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel?

<sup>23</sup>8 Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honorable of the earth?<sup>23</sup>9 The Lord God of Hosts has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>10 Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more.<sup>23</sup>11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. God has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds.

<sup>23</sup>12 He said, "You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest."

<sup>23</sup>13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans. This people didn't exist. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin.<sup>23</sup>14 Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste!

<sup>23</sup>15 It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute.<sup>23</sup>16 Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered.<sup>23</sup>17 It will happen after the end of seventy years that God will visit Tyre. She will return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>18 Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to God. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before God, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

CHAPTER 24

<sup>24</sup>1 Behold, God makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants.<sup>24</sup>2 It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest.<sup>24</sup>3 The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for God has spoken this word.

<sup>24</sup>4 The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish.<sup>24</sup>5 The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant.<sup>24</sup>6 Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left.<sup>24</sup>7 The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh.<sup>24</sup>8 The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases.<sup>24</sup>9 They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.<sup>24</sup>10 The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in.<sup>24</sup>11 There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone.<sup>24</sup>12 The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction.<sup>24</sup>13 For it will be so within the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done.

<sup>24</sup>15 Therefore glorify God in the east, even the name of God, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea!

<sup>24</sup>16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous! But I said, "I pine away! I pine away! woe is me!" The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously.<sup>24</sup>17 Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabit the earth.<sup>24</sup>18 It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.<sup>24</sup>19 The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently.<sup>24</sup>20 The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again.

<sup>24</sup>21 It will happen in that day that God will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth.<sup>24</sup>22 They will be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and will be shut up in the prison; and after many days they will be visited.<sup>24</sup>23 Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for The Lord God of Hosts will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and glory will be before his elders.<sup>260</sup>

<sup>25</sup>1 God, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth.<sup>25</sup>2 For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built.<sup>25</sup>3 Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you.<sup>25</sup>4 For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall.

<sup>25</sup>5 As the heat in a dry place you will bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low.

veil that is spread over all nations.<sup>25</sup><sup>8</sup> He has swallowed up death forever! The Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for God has spoken it.

<sup>25</sup><sup>9</sup> It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for him, and he will save us! This is God! We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation!"<sup>25</sup><sup>10</sup> For God's hand will rest in this mountain. Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill.

<sup>25</sup><sup>11</sup> He will spread out his hands in the middle of it, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands.<sup>25</sup><sup>12</sup> He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>26</sup><sup>1</sup> In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city. God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks.

<sup>26</sup><sup>5</sup> For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city. He lays it low. He lays it low even to the ground. He brings it even to the dust.

<sup>26</sup><sup>8</sup> Yes, in the way of your judgments, God, we have waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul.

<sup>26</sup><sup>9</sup> With my soul I have desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me I will seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

<sup>26</sup><sup>10</sup> Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not see God's majesty.

<sup>26</sup><sup>11</sup> God, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries.

<sup>26</sup><sup>12</sup> God, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also done all our work for us.

<sup>26</sup><sup>13</sup> The Lord our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but we will only acknowledge your name.

<sup>26</sup><sup>14</sup> The dead shall not live. The departed spirits shall not rise. Therefore you have visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish.

<sup>26</sup><sup>16</sup> God, in trouble they have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them.

<sup>26</sup><sup>18</sup> We have been with child. We have been in pain. We gave birth, it seems, only to wind.

We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

<sup>26</sup><sup>19</sup> Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast out the departed spirits.

<sup>26</sup><sup>21</sup> For, behold, God comes out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>27</sup><sup>6</sup> In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit.<sup>27</sup><sup>7</sup> Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed?

<sup>27</sup><sup>12</sup> It will happen in that day that God will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel.

27:13 It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship God in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 28

28:1 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine!<sup>28:2</sup> Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand.<sup>28:3</sup> The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot.<sup>28:4</sup> The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it.<sup>28:5</sup> In that day, The Lord God of Hosts will become a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty to the residue of his people,<sup>28:6</sup> and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

28:7 They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment.<sup>28:8</sup> For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness.

28:9 Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts?<sup>28:10</sup> For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little.

28:11 But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language,

28:12 to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to the weary," and "This is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear.<sup>28:13</sup> Therefore God's word will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken.

28:14 Therefore hear God's word, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem:<sup>28:15</sup> "Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and we are in agreement with Sheol. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.'"<sup>28:16</sup> Therefore the Lord God says, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not act hastily.<sup>28:17</sup> I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place.<sup>28:18</sup>

28:18 Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it.<sup>28:19</sup> As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message."<sup>28:20</sup> For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in.<sup>28:21</sup> For God will rise up as on Mount Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act.

28:22 Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, on the whole earth.

28:23 Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech!<sup>28:24</sup> Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods?<sup>28:25</sup> When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place?

28:26 For his God instructs him in right judgment and teaches him.<sup>28:27</sup> For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod.<sup>28:28</sup> Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind it.<sup>28:29</sup> This also comes out from The Lord God of Hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

CHAPTER 29

29:1 Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around;<sup>29:2</sup> then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth.<sup>29:3</sup> I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you.<sup>29:4</sup> You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust.

29:5 But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly.

29:6 She will be visited by The Lord God of Hosts with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire.<sup>29:7</sup> The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night.<sup>29:8</sup> It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that.

<sup>29</sup>9 Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.<sup>29</sup>10 For God has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and he has covered your heads, the seers.

<sup>29</sup>11 All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't, for it is sealed;"<sup>29</sup>12 and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't read."

<sup>29</sup>13 The Lord said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and honors me with their lips, but they have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught;<sup>29</sup>14 therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden."

<sup>29</sup>15 Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from God, and whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?"<sup>29</sup>16 You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, "He didn't make me;" or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding?"

<sup>29</sup>17 Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest?<sup>29</sup>18 In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness.<sup>29</sup>19 The humble also will increase their joy in God, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.<sup>29</sup>20 For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off—<sup>29</sup>21 who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for one who reprobates in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony.

<sup>29</sup>22 Therefore God, who redeemed Abraham, says concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale."<sup>29</sup>23 But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the middle of him, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.<sup>29</sup>24 They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

CHAPTER 30

<sup>30</sup>1 "Woe to the rebellious children", says God, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin,<sup>30</sup>2 who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice, to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt!<sup>30</sup>3 Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.<sup>30</sup>4 For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes.<sup>30</sup>5 They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach."

<sup>30</sup>6 The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people.<sup>30</sup>7 For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore I have called her Rahab who sits still.<sup>30</sup>8 Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever.<sup>30</sup>9 For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear God's law;<sup>30</sup>10 who tell the seers, "Don't see!" and the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things. Prophesy deceits.<sup>30</sup>11 Get out of the way. Turn away from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."<sup>30</sup>12 Therefore the Holy One of Israel says, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it,<sup>30</sup>13 therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant.<sup>30</sup>14 He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken pieces a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern."

<sup>30</sup>15 For thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, "You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence." You refused,<sup>30</sup>16 but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses;" therefore you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift;" therefore those who pursue you will be swift.<sup>30</sup>17 One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill.

<sup>30</sup>18 Therefore God will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for God is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him.<sup>30</sup>19 For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you.<sup>30</sup>20 Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden any more, but your eyes will see your teachers;<sup>30</sup>21 and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it."<sup>30</sup>22 You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!"

CHAPTER 31

<sup>31</sup><sup>1</sup> Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek God!

<sup>31</sup><sup>2</sup> Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity.

<sup>31</sup><sup>3</sup> Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When God stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together.

<sup>31</sup><sup>4</sup> For God says to me, "As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for their noise, so The Lord God of Hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights.

CHAPTER 32

<sup>32</sup><sup>3</sup> The eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen.

<sup>32</sup><sup>9</sup> Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear my voice! You careless daughters, give ear to my speech!

<sup>32</sup><sup>13</sup> Thorns and briars will come up on my people's land; yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city.

<sup>32</sup><sup>14</sup> For the palace will be forsaken. The populous city will be deserted. The hill and the watchtower will be for dens forever, a delight for wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks,

<sup>32</sup><sup>16</sup> Then justice will dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field.

<sup>32</sup><sup>17</sup> The work of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>33</sup><sup>1</sup> Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed, and who betray, but nobody betrayed you! When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed; and when you have finished betrayal, you will be betrayed.

<sup>33</sup><sup>2</sup> God, be gracious to us. We have waited for you. Be our strength every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

<sup>33</sup><sup>5</sup> God is exalted, for he dwells on high. He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

The covenant is broken. He has despised the cities. He doesn't respect man.

<sup>33</sup><sup>12</sup> The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire.

<sup>33</sup><sup>16</sup> he will dwell on high. His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks. His bread will be supplied. His waters will be sure.

<sup>33</sup><sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the king in his beauty. They will see a distant land.

<sup>33</sup><sup>18</sup> Your heart will meditate on the terror. Where is he who counted? Where is he who weighed?

Where is he who counted the towers?

<sup>33</sup><sup>20</sup> Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals. Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, a tent that won't be removed. Its stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of its cords be broken.

<sup>33</sup><sup>21</sup> But there God will be with us in majesty, a place of wide rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars will go, neither will any gallant ship pass by there.

<sup>33</sup><sup>22</sup> For God is our judge. God is our lawgiver. God is our king. He will save us.

<sup>33</sup><sup>24</sup> The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick." The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.

CHAPTER 34

<sup>34</sup><sup>3</sup> Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up. The mountains will melt in their blood.

<sup>34</sup><sup>4</sup> All of the army of the sky will be dissolved. The sky will be rolled up like a scroll, and all its armies will fade away, as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree.

<sup>34</sup><sup>5</sup> For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky. Behold, it will come down on Edom, and on the people of my curse, for judgment.

<sup>34</sup><sup>7</sup> The wild oxen will come down with them, and the young bulls with the mighty bulls; and their land will be drunken with blood, and their dust made greasy with fat.

<sup>34</sup><sup>10</sup> It won't be quenched night or day. Its smoke will go up forever. From generation to generation, it will lie waste. No one will pass through it forever and ever. <sup>34</sup><sup>11</sup> But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it. The owl and the raven will dwell in it. He will stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plumb line of emptiness.

<sup>34</sup><sup>13</sup> Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it will be a habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches.

34:14 The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves, and the wild goat will cry to his fellow. Yes, the night creature shall settle there, and shall find herself a place of rest.

34:15 The arrow snake will make her nest there, and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade. Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with her mate.

34:16 Search in the book of God, and read: not one of these will be missing. None will lack her mate. For my mouth has commanded, and his Spirit has gathered them.

34:17 He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line. They shall possess it forever. From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

CHAPTER 35

35:1 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad. The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.

35:2 It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They will see God's glory, the excellence of our God.

35:3 Strengthen the weak hands, and make the feeble knees firm.

35:4 Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong! Don't be afraid! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution. He will come and save you."

35:5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.

35:6 Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute will sing; for waters will break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.

35:7 The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water. Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they lay.

35:8 A highway will be there, a road, and it will be called "The Holy Way". The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way. Wicked fools shall not go there.

35:9 No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it. They will not be found there; but the redeemed will walk there.

35:10 Then God's ransomed ones will return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."

CHAPTER 36

36:1 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.36:2 The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway.36:3 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

36:4 Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'The great king, the king of Assyria, says, "What confidence is this in which you trust?"36:5 I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?36:6 Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.36:7 But if you tell me, 'We trust in The Lord our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?'"36:8 Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.36:9 How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?36:10 Have I come up now without God against this land to destroy it? God said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."

36:11 Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

36:12 But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

36:13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!36:14 The king says, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you.36:15 Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in God, saying, "God will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."36:16 Don't listen to Hezekiah, for the king of Assyria says, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.36:18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "God will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria?36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand?36:20 Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that God should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?!"

36:21 But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was, "Don't answer him."

36:22 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>37</sup><sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'God says, 'Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.' <sup>37</sup><sup>7</sup> Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'

only." <sup>37</sup><sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "God, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,' <sup>262</sup>

<sup>37</sup><sup>22</sup> this is the word which God has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>37</sup><sup>23</sup> Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>37</sup><sup>24</sup> By your servants, you have defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field." <sup>37</sup><sup>25</sup> I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt." <sup>37</sup><sup>26</sup> "Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. <sup>37</sup><sup>27</sup> Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown. <sup>37</sup><sup>28</sup> But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. <sup>37</sup><sup>29</sup> Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.

the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 38

38:1 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, "God says, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'"

38:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to God, 38:3 and said, "Remember now, God, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept bitterly.

38:4 Then God's word came to Isaiah, saying, 38:5 "Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'God, the God of David your father, says, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life." 38:6 I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.' 38:7 This shall be the sign to you from God, that God will do this thing that he has spoken. 38:8 Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps.' So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.

38:9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness.

38:10 I said, "In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol. I am deprived of the residue of my years."

38:11 I said, "I won't see Yah, Yah in the land of the living. I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world."

38:12 My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me like a shepherd's tent. I have rolled up my life like a weaver. He will cut me off from the loom. From day even to night you will make an end of me.

38:13 I waited patiently until morning. He breaks all my bones like a lion. From day even to night you will make an end of me.

38:14 I chattered like a swallow or a crane. I moaned like a dove. My eyes weaken looking upward. Lord, I am oppressed. Be my security."

38:15 What will I say? He has both spoken to me, and himself has done it. I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul.

38:16 Lord, men live by these things; and my spirit finds life in all of them: you restore me, and cause me to live.

38:17 Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

38:18 For Sheol can't praise you. Death can't celebrate you. Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your truth.

38:19 The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do today. The father shall make known your truth to the children.

38:20 God will save me. Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in God's house.

38:21 Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover."

38:22 Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I will go up to God's house?"

CHAPTER 39

39:1 At that time, Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. 39:2 Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. 39:3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?" Hezekiah said, "They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon."

39:4 Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of The Lord God of Hosts: 39:6 'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until today, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says God. 39:7 'They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace.'

39:8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "God's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."

CHAPTER 40

40:1 "Comfort, comfort my people," says your God. 40:2 "Speak comfortably to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of God's hand double for all her sins."

40:3 The voice of one who calls out, "Prepare the way of God in the wilderness! Make a level highway in the desert for our God."

40:4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain.

40:5 God's glory shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of God has spoken it."

40:6 The voice of one saying, "Cry!" One said, "What shall I cry?" "All flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like the flower of the field."

40:7 The grass withers, the flower fades, because God's breath blows on it. Surely the people are like grass.

40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever."

40:9 You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength! Lift it up! Don't be afraid! Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!"

40:10 Behold, the Lord God will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him. Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

40:11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd. He will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom. He will gently lead those who have their young.

40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and marked off the sky with his span, and calculated the dust of the earth in a measuring basket, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

40:13 Who has directed God's Spirit, or has taught him as his counselor?

40:14 Who did he take counsel with, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?

40:15 Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance.

Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.

40:16 Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

40:17 All the nations are like nothing before him. They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity.

40:18 To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to him?

40:19 A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts silver chains for it.

40:20 He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot. He seeks a skillful workman to set up a carved image for him that will not be moved.

40:21 Haven't you known? Haven't you heard? Haven't you been told from the beginning? Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth?

40:22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in,

40:23 who brings princes to nothing, who makes the judges of the earth meaningless.

40:24 They are planted scarcely. They are sown scarcely. Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground. He merely blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.

40:25 "To whom then will you liken me? Who is my equal?" says the Holy One.

40:26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these, who brings out their army by number. He calls them all by name. by the greatness of his might, and because he is strong in power, not one is lacking.

40:27 Why do you say, Jacob, and speak, Israel, "My way is hidden from God, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?"

40:28 Haven't you known? Haven't you heard? The everlasting God, God, the Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint. He isn't weary. His understanding is unsearchable.

40:29 He gives power to the weak. He increases the strength of him who has no might.

40:30 Even the youths faint and get weary, and the young men utterly fall;

40:31 but those who wait for God will renew their strength. They will mount up with wings like eagles. They will run, and not be weary. They will walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER 41

41:1 "Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength. Let them come near, then let them speak. Let's meet together for judgment.

41:2 Who has raised up one from the east? Who called him to his foot in righteousness? He hands over nations to him and makes him rule over kings. He gives them like the dust to his sword, like the driven stubble to his bow.

41:3 He pursues them and passes by safely, even by a way that he had not gone with his feet.

41:4 Who has worked and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I, God, the first, and with the last, I am he."

41:5 The islands have seen, and fear. The ends of the earth tremble. They approach, and come.

41:6 Everyone helps his neighbor. They say to their brothers, "Be strong!"

41:7 So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith. He who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good;" and he fastens it with nails, that it might not totter.

41:8 "But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham my friend,

41:9 You whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners, and said to you, 'You are my servant, I have chosen you and have not cast you away.'

41:10 Don't you be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.

41:11 Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded.

Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish.

41:12 You will seek them, and won't find them, even those who contend with you. Those who war against you will be as nothing, as a non-existent thing.

41:13 For I, The lord your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Don't be afraid. I will help you.'

41:14 Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel. I will help you," says God. "Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

41:15 Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth. You will thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and will make the hills like chaff.

41:16 You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them. You will rejoice in God. You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

41:17 The poor and needy seek water, and there is none. Their tongue fails for thirst. I, God, will answer them. I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

41:18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and springs in the middle of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

41:19 I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle, and oil trees in the wilderness. I will set cypress trees, pine, and box trees together in the desert;

41:20 that they may see, know, consider, and understand together, that God's hand has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

41:21 Produce your cause," says God. "Bring out your strong reasons!" says the King of Jacob.

41:22 "Let them announce and declare to us what will happen! Declare the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come.

41:23 Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and see it together.

41:24 Behold, you are nothing, and your work is nothing. He who chooses you is an abomination.

41:25 "I have raised up one from the north, and he has come, from the rising of the sun, one who calls on my name, and he shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter treads clay.

41:26 Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know? and before, that we may say, 'He is right?' Surely, there is no one who declares. Surely, there is no one who shows. Surely, there is no one who hears your words.

41:27 I am the first to say to Zion, 'Behold, look at them,' and I will give one who brings good news to Jerusalem.

41:28 When I look, there is no man, even among them there is no counselor who, when I ask of them, can answer a word.

41:29 Behold, all of their deeds are vanity and nothing. Their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER 42

42:1 "Behold, my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights: I have put my Spirit on him. He will bring justice to the nations.

42:2 He will not shout, nor raise his voice, nor cause it to be heard in the street.

42:3 He won't break a bruised reed. He won't quench a dimly burning wick. He will faithfully bring justice.

42:4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, until he has set justice in the earth, and the islands wait for his law."

42:5 The lord God, he who created the heavens and stretched them out, he who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it, he who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it, says:

42:6 "I, God, have called you in righteousness. I will hold your hand. I will keep you, and make you a covenant for the people, as a light for the nations,

42:7 to open the blind eyes, to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.

42:8 "I am God. That is my name. I will not give my glory to another, nor my praise to engraved images.

42:9 Behold, the former things have happened and I declare new things. I tell you about them before they come up."

42:10 Sing to God a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the islands and their inhabitants.<sup>263</sup>

42:11 Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices, with the villages that Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of Sela sing. Let them shout from the top of the mountains!

42:12 Let them give glory to God, and declare his praise in the islands.

42:13 God will go out like a mighty man. He will stir up zeal like a man of war. He will raise a war cry. Yes, he will shout aloud. He will triumph over his enemies.

42:14 "I have been silent a long time. I have been quiet and restrained myself. Now I will cry out like a travailing woman. I will both gasp and pant.

42:15 I will destroy mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs. I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools.

42:16 I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know. I will lead them in paths that they don't know. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. I will do these things, and I will not forsake them.

42:17 "Those who trust in engraved images, who tell molten images, 'You are our gods,' will be turned back. They will be utterly disappointed.

42:18 "Hear, you deaf, and look, you blind, that you may see.

42:19 Who is blind, but my servant? Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is as blind as he who is at peace, and as blind as God's servant?

42:20 You see many things, but don't observe. His ears are open, but he doesn't listen.

42:21 It pleased God, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law and make it honorable.

42:22 But this is a robbed and plundered people. All of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prisons. They have become captives, and no one delivers, and a plunder, and no one says, 'Restore them!'

42:23 Who is there among you who will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

42:24 Who gave Jacob as plunder, and Israel to the robbers? Didn't God, he against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in his ways, and they disobeyed his law.

<sup>263</sup> Verses Isa 42:1–10 appear to prophesy the coming of Jesus and the Kingdom of Heaven on earth—God's Kingdom.

<sup>42</sup><sup>25</sup> Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger on him, and the strength of battle. It set him on fire all around, but he didn't know. It burned him, but he didn't take it to heart."

CHAPTER 43

<sup>43</sup><sup>1</sup> But now God who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel, says: "Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by your name. You are mine.

<sup>43</sup><sup>2</sup> When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, and through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, and flame will not scorch you.

<sup>43</sup><sup>3</sup> For I am The lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place.

<sup>43</sup><sup>4</sup> Since you have been precious and honored in my sight, and I have loved you, therefore I will give people in your place, and nations instead of your life.

<sup>43</sup><sup>5</sup> Don't be afraid, for I am with you. I will bring your offspring from the east, and gather you from the west.

<sup>43</sup><sup>6</sup> I will tell the north, 'Give them up!' and tell the south, 'Don't hold them back! Bring my sons from far away, and my daughters from the ends of the earth—

<sup>43</sup><sup>7</sup> everyone who is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made."

<sup>43</sup><sup>8</sup> Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears.

<sup>43</sup><sup>9</sup> Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled. Who among them can declare this, and show us former things? Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified, or let them hear, and say, "That is true."

<sup>43</sup><sup>10</sup> "You are my witnesses," says God, "With my servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe me, and understand that I am he. Before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me.

<sup>43</sup><sup>12</sup> I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown, and there was no strange god among you. Therefore you are my witnesses", says God, "and I am God.

<sup>43</sup><sup>13</sup> Yes, since the day was, I am he. There is no one who can deliver out of my hand. I will work, and who can hinder it?"

<sup>43</sup><sup>14</sup> God, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: "For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing." <sup>43</sup><sup>15</sup> I am God, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."

<sup>43</sup><sup>22</sup> Yet you have not called on me, Jacob; but you have been weary of me, Israel.

<sup>43</sup><sup>23</sup> You have not brought me any of your sheep for burnt offerings, neither have you honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, nor wearied you with frankincense.

<sup>43</sup><sup>24</sup> You have bought me no sweet cane with money, nor have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices, but you have burdened me with your sins. You have wearied me with your iniquities.

<sup>43</sup><sup>25</sup> I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake; and I will not remember your sins.

<sup>43</sup><sup>26</sup> Put me in remembrance. Let us plead together. Declare your case, that you may be justified.

<sup>43</sup><sup>28</sup> Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary; and I will make Jacob a curse, and Israel an insult."

CHAPTER 44

<sup>44</sup><sup>2</sup> This is what God who made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you says: "Don't be afraid, Jacob my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

<sup>44</sup><sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and streams on the dry ground. I will pour my Spirit on your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring:

<sup>44</sup><sup>5</sup> One will say, 'I am God's;' and another will be called by the name of Jacob; and another will write with his hand 'to God,' and honor the name of Israel."

<sup>44</sup><sup>6</sup> This is what God, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, The Lord God of Hosts, says: "I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

<sup>44</sup><sup>7</sup> Who is like me? Who will call, and will declare it, and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people? Let them declare the things that are coming, and that will happen.

<sup>44</sup><sup>8</sup> Don't fear, neither be afraid. Haven't I declared it to you long ago, and shown it? You are my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? Indeed, there is not. I don't know any other Rock."

<sup>44</sup><sup>10</sup> Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?

44:11 Behold, all his fellows will be disappointed; and the workmen are mere men. Let them all be gathered together. Let them stand up. They will fear. They will be put to shame together.

44:12 The blacksmith takes an ax, works in the coals, fashions it with hammers, and works it with his strong arm. He is hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water, and is faint.

44:13 The carpenter stretches out a line. He marks it out with a pencil. He shapes it with planes. He marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man, to reside in a house.

44:14 He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak, and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest. He plants a cypress tree, and the rain nourishes it.

44:15 Then it will be for a man to burn; and he takes some of it, and warms himself. Yes, he burns it, and bakes bread. Yes, he makes a god, and worships it; he makes it a carved image, and falls down to it.

44:16 He burns part of it in the fire. With part of it, he eats meat. He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.

Yes, he warms himself, and says, "Aha! I am warm. I have seen the fire."

44:17 The rest of it he makes into a god, even his engraved image. He bows down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, "Deliver me; for you are my god!"

44:18 They don't know, neither do they consider: for he has shut their eyes, that they can't see; and their hearts, that they can't understand.

44:19 No one thinks, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, "I have burned part of it in the fire. Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals. I have roasted meat and eaten it. Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination? Shall I bow down to a tree trunk?"

44:20 He feeds on ashes. A deceived heart has turned him aside; and he can't deliver his soul, nor say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"

44:21 Remember these things, Jacob and Israel; for you are my servant. I have formed you. You are my servant. Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

44:22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins. Return to me, for I have redeemed you.

44:23 Sing, you heavens, for God has done it! Shout, you lower parts of the earth! Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees, for God has redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel.

44:24 God, your Redeemer, and he who formed you from the womb says: "I am God, who makes all things; who alone stretches out the heavens; who spreads out the earth by myself;

44:25 who frustrates the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad; who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish;

44:26 who confirms the word of his servant, and performs the counsel of his messengers; who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,' and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be built,' and 'I will raise up its waste places.'

44:27 who says to the deep, 'Be dry,' and 'I will dry up your rivers,'

44:28 Who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure,' even saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be built;' and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"

CHAPTER 45

45:1 God says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and strip kings of their armor; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut:

45:2 "I will go before you and make the rough places smooth. I will break the doors of bronze in pieces and cut apart the bars of iron.

45:3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, God, who calls you by your name, even the God of Israel.

45:4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my chosen, I have called you by your name. I have given you a title, though you have not known me.

45:5 I am God, and there is no one else. Besides me, there is no God. I will strengthen you, though you have not known me,

45:6 that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is no one besides me. I am God, and there is no one else.

45:7 I form the light and create darkness. I make peace and create calamity. I am God, who does all these things.

45:8 Rain, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness. Let the earth open, that it may produce salvation, and let it cause righteousness to spring up with it. I, God, have created it.

45:9 Woe to him who strives with his Maker—a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth! Shall the clay ask him who fashions it, 'What are you making?' or your work, 'He has no hands?'

45:10 Woe to him who says to a father, 'What have you become the father of?' or to a mother, 'What have you given birth to?'

45:11 God, the Holy One of Israel and his Maker says: "You ask me about the things that are to come, concerning my sons, and you command me concerning the work of my hands!

45:12 I have made the earth, and created man on it. I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens. I have commanded all their army.

45:13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make all his ways straight. He shall build my city, and he shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward," says The Lord God of Hosts.

45:14 God says: "The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you, and they will be yours. They will go after you. They shall come over in chains. They will bow down to you. They will make supplication to you: ‘Surely God is in you; and there is no one else. There is no other god.

45:15 Most certainly you are a God who has hidden yourself, God of Israel, the Savior.”

45:16 They will be disappointed, yes, confounded, all of them. Those who are makers of idols will go into confusion together.

45:17 Israel will be saved by God with an everlasting salvation.

You will not be disappointed nor confounded to ages everlasting.<sup>264</sup>

45:18 For God who created the heavens, the God who formed the earth and made it, who established it and didn’t create it a waste, who formed it to be inhabited says: “I am God. There is no other.

45:19 I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness. I didn’t say to the offspring of Jacob, ‘Seek me in vain.’ I, God, speak righteousness. I declare things that are right.

45:20 “Assemble yourselves and come. Draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations. Those have no knowledge who carry the wood of their engraved image, and pray to a god that can’t save.

45:21 Declare and present it. Yes, let them take counsel together. Who has shown this from ancient time? Who has declared it of old? Haven’t I, God? There is no other God besides me, a just God and a Savior. There is no one besides me.

45:22 “Look to me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other.

45:23 I have sworn by myself. The word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and will not be revoked, that to me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall take an oath.<sup>265</sup>

45:24 They will say of me, ‘There is righteousness and strength only in God.’ Even to him will men come. All those who raged against him will be disappointed.

45:25 All the offspring of Israel will be justified in God, and will rejoice!

CHAPTER 46

46:1 Bel bows down. Nebo stoops. Their idols are carried by animals, and on the livestock. The things that you carried around are heavy loads, a burden for the weary.

46:2 They stoop and they bow down together. They could not deliver the burden, but they have gone into captivity.

46:3 “Listen to me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been carried from their birth, that have been carried from the womb.

46:4 Even to old age I am he, and even to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear. Yes, I will carry, and will deliver.

46:5 “To whom will you compare me, and consider my equal, and compare me, as if we were the same?

46:6 Some pour out gold from the bag, and weigh silver in the balance. They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god. They fall down—yes, they worship.

46:7 They bear it on their shoulder. They carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands there. It cannot move from its place. Yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer. It cannot save him out of his trouble.

46:8 “Remember this, and show yourselves men. Bring it to mind again, you transgressors.

46:9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is no other. I am God, and there is none like me.

46:10 I declare the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done. I say: My counsel will stand, and I will do all that I please.

46:11 I call a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country. Yes,

I have spoken. I will also bring it to pass. I have planned. I will also do it.<sup>266</sup>

46:12 Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, who are far from righteousness!

46:13 I bring my righteousness near. It is not far off, and my salvation will not wait. I will grant salvation to Zion, my glory to Israel.<sup>267</sup>

CHAPTER 47

47:1 “Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon. Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans. For you will no longer be called tender and delicate.

47:2 Take the millstones and grind flour. Remove your veil, lift up your skirt, uncover your legs, and wade through the rivers.

47:3 Your nakedness will be uncovered. Yes, your shame will be seen. I will take vengeance, and will spare no one.”

47:4 Our Redeemer, The Lord God of Hosts is his name, is the Holy One of Israel.

47:5 “Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans. For you shall no longer be called the mistress of kingdoms.

47:6 I was angry with my people. I profaned my inheritance and gave them into your hand. You showed them no mercy. You laid a very heavy yoke on the aged.

47:7 You said, ‘I will be a princess forever,’ so that you didn’t lay these things to your heart, nor did you remember the results.

47:8 “Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no one else besides me. I won’t sit as a widow, neither will I know the loss of children.’

47:9 But these two things will come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children and widowhood. They will come on you in their full measure, in the multitude

<sup>265</sup> This passage can be understood to mean that God intends to save all people in the end (Phil 2:11).

<sup>266</sup> This is seen as a statement of God’s absolute determination to fulfill His will, including the realization of His kingdom on earth.

of your sorceries, and the great abundance of your enchantments.

47:10 For you have trusted in your wickedness. You have said, 'No one sees me.' Your wisdom and your knowledge has perverted you. You have said in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one else besides me.'

47:11 Therefore disaster will come on you. You won't know when it dawns. Mischief will fall on you. You won't be able to put it away. Desolation will come on you suddenly, which you don't understand.

47:12 "Stand now with your enchantments and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth, as if you might profit, as if you might prevail.

47:13 You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels. Now let the astrologers, the stargazers, and the monthly prognosticators stand up and save you from the things that will happen to you.

47:14 Behold, they are like stubble. The fire will burn them. They won't deliver themselves from the power of the flame. It won't be a coal to warm at or a fire to sit by.

47:15 The things that you labored in will be like this: those who have trafficked with you from your youth will each wander in his own way. There will be no one to save you.

CHAPTER 48

48:1 "Hear this, house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel, and have come out of the waters of Judah. You swear by God's name, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness—

48:2 for they call themselves citizens of the holy city, and rely on the God of Israel; The Lord God of Hosts is his name.

48:3 I have declared the former things from of old. Yes, they went out of my mouth, and I revealed them. I did them suddenly, and they happened.

48:4 Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow bronze;

48:5 therefore I have declared it to you from of old; before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should say, 'My idol has done them. My engraved image and my molten image has commanded them.'

48:6 You have heard it. Now see all this. And you, won't you declare it? "I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known.

48:7 They are created now, and not from of old. Before today, you didn't hear them, lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.'

48:8 Yes, you didn't hear. Yes, you didn't know. Yes, from of old your ear was not opened, for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, and were called a transgressor from the womb.

48:9 For my name's sake, I will defer my anger, and for my praise, I hold it back for you so that I don't cut you off.

48:10 Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver. I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I will do it; for how would my name be profaned? I will not give my glory to another.

48:12 "Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he. I am the first. I am also the last.

48:13 Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens. when I call to them, they stand up together.

48:14 "Assemble yourselves, all of you, and hear! Who among them has declared these things? He whom God loves will do what he likes to Babylon, and his arm will be against the Chaldeans.

48:15 I, even I, have spoken. Yes, I have called him. I have brought him and he shall make his way prosperous.

48:16 "Come near to me and hear this: "From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it happened, I was there." Now the Lord God has sent me with his Spirit.

48:17 God, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: "I am The lord your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go.

48:18 Oh that you had listened to my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

48:19 Your offspring also would have been as the sand and the descendants of your body like its grains. His name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me."

48:20 Leave Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans! With a voice of singing announce this, tell it even to the end of the earth: say, "God has redeemed his servant Jacob!"

48:21 They didn't thirst when he led them through the deserts. He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them. He also split the rock and the waters gushed out.

48:22 "There is no peace", says God, "for the wicked."

CHAPTER 49

49:1 Listen, islands, to me. Listen, you peoples, from afar: God has called me from the womb; from the inside of my mother, he has mentioned my name.

49:2 He has made my mouth like a sharp sword. He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand. He has made me a polished shaft. He has kept me close in his quiver.

49:3 He said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

49:4 But I said, "I have labored in vain. I have spent my strength in vain for nothing; yet surely the justice due to me is with God, and my reward with my God."

49:5 Now God, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, says to bring Jacob again to him, and to gather Israel to him, for I am honorable in God's eyes, and my God has become my strength.

49:6 Indeed, he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel. I will also give you as a light to the nations, that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth."

49:7 God, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, says to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: "Kings shall see and rise up, princes, and they shall worship, because of God who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

49:8 God says, "I have answered you in an acceptable time. I have helped you in a day of salvation. I will preserve you and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage,

49:9 saying to those who are bound, 'Come out!'; to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves!' "They shall feed along the paths, and their pasture shall be on all treeless heights.

49:10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun strike them: for he who has mercy on them will lead them. He will guide them by springs of water.

49:11 I will make all my mountains a road, and my highways shall be exalted.

49:12 Behold, these shall come from afar, and behold, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim."

49:13 Sing, heavens, and be joyful, earth! Break out into singing, mountains, for God has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

49:14 But Zion said, "God has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me."

49:15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you!"

49:16 Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands. Your walls are continually before me.

49:17 Your children hurry. Your destroyers and those who devastated you will leave you.

49:18 Lift up your eyes all around, and see: all these gather themselves together, and come to you.

"As I live," says God, "you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, and dress yourself with them, like a bride."

49:19 "For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now that land will be too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

49:20 The children of your bereavement will say in your ears, 'This place is too small for me. Give me a place to live in.'

49:21 Then you will say in your heart, 'Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children and am alone, an exile, and wandering back and forth? Who has brought these up? Behold, I was left alone. Where were these?"'

49:22 The Lord God says, "Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and lift up my banner to the peoples. They shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

49:23 Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. They will bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you will know that I am God; and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed."

49:24 Shall the plunder be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captives be delivered?

49:25 But God says, "Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the plunder retrieved from the fierce, for I will contend with him who contends with you and I will save your children.

49:26 I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they will be drunk on their own blood, as with sweet wine. Then all flesh shall know that I, God, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

CHAPTER 50

50:1 God says, "Where is the bill of your mother's divorce, with which I have put her away? Or to which of my creditors have I sold you? Behold, you were sold for your iniquities, and your mother was put away for your transgressions.

50:2 Why, when I came, was there no one? When I called, why was there no one to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it can't redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea. I make the rivers a wilderness. Their fish stink because there is no water, and die of thirst.

50:3 I clothe the heavens with blackness. I make sackcloth their covering."

50:4 The Lord God has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary. He awakens morning by morning, he awakens my ear to hear as those who are taught.

50:5 The Lord God has opened my ear. I was not rebellious. I have not turned back.

50:6 I gave my back to those who beat me, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair. I didn't hide my face from shame and spitting.

50:7 For the Lord God will help me. Therefore I have not been confounded. Therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I won't be disappointed.

50:8 He who justifies me is near. Who will bring charges against me? Let us stand up together. Who is my adversary? Let him come near to me.

50:9 Behold, the Lord God will help me! Who is he who will condemn me? Behold, they will all grow old like a garment. The moths will eat them up.

50:10 Who among you fears God and obeys the voice of his servant? He who walks in darkness and has no light, let him trust in God's name, and rely on his God.

50:11 Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who adorn yourselves with torches around yourselves, walk in the flame of your fire, and among the torches that you have kindled. You will have this from my hand: you will lie down in sorrow.

CHAPTER 51

51:1 "Listen to me, you who follow after righteousness, you who seek God. Look to the rock you were cut from, and to the quarry you were dug from.

51:2 Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you; for when he was but one I called him, I blessed him, and made him many.

51:3 For God has comforted Zion. He has comforted all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of God. Joy and gladness will be found in them, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

51:4 "Listen to me, my people; and hear me, my nation, for a law will go out from me, and I will establish my justice for a light to the peoples.

51:5 My righteousness is near. My salvation has gone out, and my arms will judge the peoples. The islands will wait for me, and they will trust my arm.

51:6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, and the earth will wear out like a garment. Its inhabitants will die in the same way, but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will not be abolished.

51:7 "Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law. Don't fear the reproach of men, and don't be dismayed at their insults.

51:8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations."

51:9 Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of God! Awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Isn't it you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the monster?

51:10 Isn't it you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

51:11 Those ransomed by God will return, and come with singing to Zion. Everlasting joy shall be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy. Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

51:12 "I, even I, am he who comforts you. Who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die, and of the son of man who will be made as grass?"

51:13 Have you forgotten God your Maker, who stretched out the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth?

Do you live in fear continually all day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he prepares to destroy? Where is the fury of the oppressor?

51:14 The captive exile will speedily be freed. He will not die and go down into the pit. His bread won't fail.

51:15 For I am The lord your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar. The Lord God of Hosts is his name.

51:16 I have put my words in your mouth and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and tell Zion, 'You are my people.'"

51:17 Awake, awake! Stand up, Jerusalem, you who have drunk from God's hand the cup of his wrath. You have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it.

51:18 There is no one to guide her among all the sons to whom she has given birth; and there is no one who takes her by the hand among all the sons whom she has brought up.

51:19 These two things have happened to you—who will grieve with you?—desolation and destruction, and famine and the sword. How can I comfort you?

51:20 Your sons have fainted. They lie at the head of all the streets, like an antelope in a net. They are full of God's wrath, the rebuke of your God.

51:21 Therefore now hear this, you afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

51:22 Your Lord God, your God who pleads the cause of his people, says, "Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath. You will not drink it any more."

51:23 I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your soul, 'Bow down, that we may walk over you;' and you have laid your back as the ground, like a street to those who walk over."

CHAPTER 52

52:1 Awake, awake! Put on your strength, Zion. Put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city: for from now on the uncircumcised and the unclean will no more come into you.

52:2 Shake yourself from the dust! Arise, sit up, Jerusalem! Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive daughter of Zion!

52:3 For God says, "You were sold for nothing; and you will be redeemed without money."

52:4 For the Lord God says: "My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there: and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause.

52:5 "Now therefore, what do I do here," says God, "seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock," says God, "and my name is blasphemed continually all day long.

52:6 Therefore my people shall know my name.

Therefore they shall know in that day that I am he who speaks. Behold, it is I."

52:7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news, who proclaims salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

52:8 Your watchmen lift up their voice. Together they sing; for they shall see eye to eye when God returns to Zion.

52:9 Break out into joy! Sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for God has comforted his people. He has redeemed Jerusalem.

52:10 God has made his holy arm bare in the eyes of all the nations. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

52:11 Depart! Depart! Go out from there! Touch no unclean thing! Go out from among her! Cleanse yourselves, you who carry God's vessels.

52:12 For you shall not go out in haste, neither shall you go by flight: for God will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

<sup>52</sup><sup>13</sup> Behold, my servant will deal wisely. He will be exalted and lifted up, and will be very high.

<sup>52</sup><sup>14</sup> Just as many were astonished at you—his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men—

<sup>52</sup><sup>15</sup> so he will cleanse many nations. Kings will shut their mouths at him; for they will see that which had not been told them, and they will understand that which they had not heard.

CHAPTER 53

<sup>53</sup><sup>1</sup> Who has believed our message? To whom has God's arm been revealed?

<sup>53</sup><sup>2</sup> For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no good looks or majesty. When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

<sup>53</sup><sup>4</sup> Surely he has borne our sickness and carried our suffering; yet we considered him plagued, struck by God, and afflicted.

<sup>53</sup><sup>5</sup> But he was pierced for our transgressions. He was crushed for our iniquities. The punishment that brought our peace was on him; and by his wounds we are healed.

<sup>53</sup><sup>6</sup> All we like sheep have gone astray. Everyone has turned to his own way; and God has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>53</sup><sup>7</sup> He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he didn't open his mouth.

<sup>53</sup><sup>8</sup> He was taken away by oppression and judgment. As for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people?

<sup>53</sup><sup>9</sup> They made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, nor was any deceit in his mouth.

<sup>53</sup><sup>10</sup> Yet it pleased God to bruise him. He has caused him to suffer. When you make his soul an offering for sin, he will see his offspring. He will prolong his days and God's pleasure will prosper in his hand.

<sup>53</sup><sup>11</sup> After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light and be satisfied. My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself; and he will bear their iniquities.

<sup>53</sup><sup>12</sup> Therefore I will give him a portion with the great. He will divide the plunder with the strong; because he poured out his soul to death and was counted with the transgressors; yet he bore the sins of many and made intercession for the transgressors.<sup>268</sup>

<sup>54</sup><sup>4</sup> "Don't be afraid, for you will not be ashamed. Don't be confounded, for you will not be disappointed. For you will forget the shame of your youth. You will remember the reproach of your widowhood no more.

<sup>54</sup><sup>5</sup> For your Maker is your husband; The Lord God of Hosts is his name. The Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer. He will be called the God of the whole earth.

<sup>54</sup><sup>6</sup> For God has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off," says your God.

<sup>54</sup><sup>8</sup> In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment, but with everlasting loving kindness I will have mercy on you," says God your Redeemer.

<sup>54</sup><sup>9</sup> "For this is like the waters of Noah to me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah will no more go over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.

<sup>54</sup><sup>10</sup> For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my loving kindness will not depart from you, and my covenant of peace will not be removed," says God who has mercy on you.

<sup>54</sup><sup>11</sup> "You afflicted, tossed with storms, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in beautiful colors, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

<sup>54</sup><sup>12</sup> I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones.

<sup>54</sup><sup>13</sup> All your children will be taught by God; and your children's peace will be great.

<sup>54</sup><sup>14</sup> You will be established in righteousness. You will be far from oppression, for you will not be afraid, and far from terror, for it shall not come near you.

<sup>54</sup><sup>15</sup> Behold, they may gather together, but not by me. Whoever gathers together against you will fall because of you.

<sup>54</sup><sup>16</sup> "Behold, I have created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame, and forges a weapon for his work; and I have created the destroyer to destroy.

<sup>54</sup><sup>17</sup> No weapon that is formed against you will prevail; and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of God's servants, and their righteousness is of me," says God.

<sup>268</sup> Isaiah 53 is seen as a prophecy of Jesus' rejection and sufferings should the people of Israel reject him in faithlessness, which is what happened. Like all other prophetic expressions before this, it is contingent upon the faith or lack thereof of the people when Jesus comes. It is not a statement of what will happen, but what would happen as people exercise their human portion of responsibility before God or fail to do so.

CHAPTER 55

55:1 "Hey! Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters! Come, he who has no money, buy, and eat! Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

55:2 Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which doesn't satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in richness.

55:3 Turn your ear, and come to me. Hear, and your soul will live. I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

55:4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.

55:5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you don't know; and a nation that didn't know you shall run to you, because of The lord your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he has glorified you."

55:6 Seek God while he may be found. Call on him while he is near.

55:7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts. Let him return to God, and he will have mercy on him, to our God, for he will freely pardon.

55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways," says God.<sup>269</sup>

55:9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."

55:10 For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and doesn't return there, but waters the earth, and makes it grow and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

55:11 so is my word that goes out of my mouth: it will not return to me void, but it will accomplish that which I please, and it will prosper in the thing I sent it to do.<sup>270</sup>

55:12 For you shall go out with joy, and be led out with peace. The mountains and the hills will break out before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields will clap their hands.

55:13 Instead of the thorn the cypress tree will come up; and instead of the brier the myrtle tree will come up. It will make a name for God, for an everlasting sign that will not be cut off."

CHAPTER 56

56:1 God says, "Maintain justice and do what is right, for my salvation is near and my righteousness will soon be revealed.

56:2 Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast; who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it and keeps his hand from doing any evil."

56:3 Let no foreigner who has joined himself to God speak, saying, "God will surely separate me from his people." Do not let the eunuch<sup>271</sup> say, "Behold, I am a dry tree."

56:4 For God says, "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, choose the things that please me, and hold fast to my covenant,

56:5 I will give them in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters. I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.

56:6 Also the foreigners who join themselves to God to serve him, and to love God's name, to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast my covenant,

56:7 I will bring these to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples.<sup>272</sup>

56:8 The Lord God, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, "I will yet gather others to him, in addition to his own who are gathered."

56:9 All you animals of the field, come to devour, all you animals in the forest.

56:10 His watchmen are blind. They are all without knowledge. They are all mute dogs. They can't bark—dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

56:11 Yes, the dogs are greedy. They can never have enough. They are shepherds who can't understand. They have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter.

56:12 "Come," they say, "I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow will be as today, great beyond measure."

CHAPTER 57

57:1 The righteous perish, and no one lays it to heart. Merciful men are taken away, and no one considers that the righteous is taken away from the evil.

57:2 He enters into peace. They rest in their beds, each one who walks in his uprightness.

57:3 "But draw near here, you sons of a sorceress, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes.

57:4 Whom do you mock? Against whom do you make a wide mouth and stick out your tongue? Aren't you children of disobedience and offspring of falsehood,

57:5 you who inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; who kill the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?

57:6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion. They, they are your lot. You have even poured <sup>269</sup> This statement is not taken to mean that God does not abide by reason and logic. Rather, it means that God's thoughts and ways are based on the law of True Love, whereas fallen man operates by baser, self-centered thoughts and ways.

<sup>272</sup> God's kingdom of heaven on earth will be the spiritual home of all humankind. There will be one savior, one God, and one family of mankind on earth.

a drink offering to them. You have offered an offering.
Shall I be appeased for these things?

<sup>57</sup>7 On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed. You also went up there to offer sacrifice.

<sup>57</sup>8 You have set up your memorial behind the doors and the posts, for you have exposed yourself to someone besides me, and have gone up. You have enlarged your bed and made you a covenant with them. You loved what you saw on their bed.

<sup>57</sup>9 You went to the king with oil, increased your perfumes, sent your ambassadors far off, and degraded yourself even to Sheol.

<sup>57</sup>10 You were wearied with the length of your ways; yet you didn't say, 'It is in vain.' You found a reviving of your strength; therefore you weren't faint.

<sup>57</sup>11 "Whom have you dreaded and feared, so that you lie, and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? Haven't I held my peace for a long time, and you don't fear me?

<sup>57</sup>12 I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they will not benefit you.

<sup>57</sup>13 When you cry, let those whom you have gathered deliver you; but the wind will take them. a breath will carry them all away: but he who takes refuge in me will possess the land, and will inherit my holy mountain."

<sup>57</sup>14 He will say, "Build up, build up, prepare the way! Remove the stumbling-block out of the way of my people."

<sup>57</sup>15 For the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy, says: "I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

<sup>57</sup>16 For I will not contend forever, neither will I always be angry; for the spirit would faint before me, and the souls whom I have made.

<sup>57</sup>17 I was angry because of the iniquity of his covetousness and struck him. I hid myself and was angry; and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.

<sup>57</sup>18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him. I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners.

<sup>57</sup>19 I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near," says God; "and I will heal them."

<sup>57</sup>20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it can't rest and its waters cast up mire and mud.

<sup>57</sup>21 "There is no peace", says my God, "for the wicked."

CHAPTER 58

<sup>58</sup>1 "Cry aloud! Don't spare! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Declare to my people their disobedience, and to the house of Jacob their sins.

<sup>58</sup>2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways. As a nation that did righteousness, and didn't forsake the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments. They delight to draw near to God.

<sup>58</sup>3 'Why have we fasted,' they say, 'and you don't see? Why have we afflicted our soul, and you don't notice?' "Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and oppress all your laborers.

<sup>58</sup>4 Behold, you fast for strife and contention, and to strike with the fist of wickedness. You don't fast today so as to make your voice to be heard on high.

<sup>58</sup>5 Is this the fast that I have chosen? A day for a man to humble his soul? Is it to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself? Will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to God?

<sup>58</sup>6 "Isn't this the fast that I have chosen: to release the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke?

<sup>58</sup>7 Isn't it to distribute your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house? When you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you not hide yourself from your own flesh?

<sup>58</sup>8 Then your light will break out as the morning, and your healing will appear quickly; then your righteousness shall go before you, and God's glory will be your rear guard.

<sup>58</sup>9 Then you will call, and God will answer. You will cry for help, and he will say, 'Here I am.' "If you take away from among you the yoke, finger pointing, and speaking wickedly;

<sup>58</sup>10 and if you pour out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul, then your light will rise in darkness, and your obscurity will be as the noonday; <sup>58</sup>11 and God will guide you continually, satisfy your soul in dry places, and make your bones strong. You will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters don't fail.

<sup>58</sup>12 Those who will be of you will build the old waste places. You will raise up the foundations of many generations. You will be called Repairer of the Breach, Restorer of Paths with Dwellings.

<sup>58</sup>13 "If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy of God honorable; and honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words, <sup>58</sup>14 then you will delight yourself in God, and I will make you to ride on the high places of the earth, and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father;" for God's mouth has spoken it.

CHAPTER 59

<sup>59</sup>2 But your iniquities have separated you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear.

<sup>59</sup><sup>9</sup> Therefore justice is far from us, and righteousness doesn't overtake us. We look for light, but see darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity.

<sup>59</sup><sup>10</sup> We grope for the wall like the blind. Yes, we grope as those who have no eyes. We stumble at noon as if it were twilight. Among those who are strong, we are like dead men.

<sup>59</sup><sup>11</sup> We all roar like bears and moan bitterly like doves. We look for justice, but there is none, for salvation, but it is far off from us.

<sup>59</sup><sup>12</sup> For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them:

<sup>59</sup><sup>14</sup> Justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands far away; for truth has fallen in the street, and uprightness can't enter.

<sup>59</sup><sup>15</sup> Yes, truth is lacking; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. God saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.

<sup>59</sup><sup>16</sup> He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor. Therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness sustained him.

<sup>59</sup><sup>17</sup> He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head. He put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle.

<sup>59</sup><sup>19</sup> So they will fear God's name from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which God's breath drives.

<sup>59</sup><sup>20</sup> "A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacob," says God.

<sup>59</sup><sup>21</sup> "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says God. "My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your offspring, nor out of the mouth of your offspring's offspring," says God, "from now on and forever."

CHAPTER 60

<sup>60</sup><sup>1</sup> "Arise, shine; for your light has come, and God's glory has risen on you.

<sup>60</sup><sup>4</sup> "Lift up your eyes all around, and see: they all gather themselves together. They come to you. Your sons will come from far away, and your daughters will be carried in arms.

<sup>60</sup><sup>5</sup> Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you. The wealth of the nations will come to you.<sup>273</sup>

<sup>60</sup><sup>6</sup> A multitude of camels will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah. All from Sheba will come. They will bring gold and frankincense, and will proclaim the praises of God.

<sup>60</sup><sup>7</sup> All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you. The rams of Nebaioth will serve you. They will be accepted as offerings on my altar; and I will beautify my glorious house.

<sup>60</sup><sup>8</sup> "Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

<sup>60</sup><sup>9</sup> Surely the islands will wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far away, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of The lord your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.<sup>274</sup>

<sup>60</sup><sup>10</sup> "Foreigners will build up your walls, and their kings will serve you: for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

<sup>60</sup><sup>12</sup> For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

<sup>60</sup><sup>13</sup> "The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress tree, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

<sup>60</sup><sup>14</sup> The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you; and all those who despised you will bow themselves down at the soles of your feet. They will call you God's City, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>274</sup> A possible prophetic reference to Jesus to come.

so that no one passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

<sup>60</sup>16 You will also drink the milk of the nations, and will nurse from royal breasts. Then you will know that I, God, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

<sup>60</sup>17 For bronze I will bring gold; for iron I will bring silver; for wood, bronze, and for stones, iron. I will also make peace your governor, and righteousness your ruler.

<sup>60</sup>18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, nor desolation or destruction within your borders; but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

<sup>60</sup>19 The sun will be no more your light by day; nor will the brightness of the moon give light to you, but God will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

<sup>60</sup>20 Your sun will not go down any more, nor will your moon withdraw itself; for God will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will end.

<sup>60</sup>21 Then your people will all be righteous. They will inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.<sup>275</sup>

<sup>60</sup>22 The little one will become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation. I, God, will do this quickly in its time."

CHAPTER 61

<sup>61</sup>1 The Lord God's Spirit is on me, because God has anointed me to preach good news to the humble. He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to those who are bound,<sup>61</sup>2 to proclaim the year of God's favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn,<sup>61</sup>3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of God, that he may be glorified.

<sup>61</sup>4 They will rebuild the old ruins. They will raise up the former devastated places. They will repair the ruined cities that have been devastated for many generations.

<sup>61</sup>5 Strangers will stand and feed your flocks.

Foreigners will work your fields and your vineyards.

<sup>61</sup>6 But you will be called God's priests. Men will call you the servants of our God. You will eat the wealth of the nations. You will boast in their glory.

<sup>61</sup>7 Instead of your shame you will have double.

Instead of dishonor, they will rejoice in their portion. Therefore in their land they will possess double. Everlasting joy will be to them.

<sup>61</sup>8 "For I, God, love justice. I hate robbery and iniquity. I will give them their reward in truth and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

<sup>61</sup>9 Their offspring will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples. All who see them will acknowledge them, that they are the offspring which God has blessed."

<sup>61</sup>10 I will greatly rejoice in God! My soul will be joyful in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation. He has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

<sup>61</sup>11 For as the earth produces its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

CHAPTER 62

<sup>62</sup>1 For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning lamp.

<sup>62</sup>2 The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory. You will be called by a new name, which God's mouth will name.

<sup>62</sup>3 You will also be a crown of beauty in God's hand, and a royal diadem in your God's hand.

<sup>62</sup>4 You will not be called Forsaken any more, nor will your land be called Desolate any more; but you will be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for God delights in you, and your land will be married.<sup>276</sup>

<sup>62</sup>5 For as a young man marries a virgin, so your sons will marry you. As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so your God will rejoice over you.

<sup>62</sup>6 I have set watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. They will never be silent day nor night. You who call on God, take no rest, <sup>62</sup>7 and give him no rest, until he establishes, and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

<sup>62</sup>8 God has sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, "Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners will not drink your new wine, for which you have labored, <sup>62</sup>9 but those who have harvested it will eat it, and praise God. Those who have gathered it will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary."

<sup>62</sup>11 Behold, God has proclaimed to the end of the earth, "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Behold, your salvation comes! Behold, his

<sup>275</sup> A reference to the coming Kingdom of Heaven on earth which He anticipated to be established with the coming of Jesus, and which He still is committed to realize on earth (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>276</sup> These passages again prophesy of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth which God expected to be initiated with the coming of Jesus. However, Jesus was rejected by faithless people and the Kingdom postponed (see Matt 21:43 and Topical Index #23).

reward is with him, and his recompense before him!"

62:12 They will call them "The Holy People, God's Redeemed". You will be called "Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken".

CHAPTER 63

63:1 Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? Who is this who is glorious in his clothing, marching in the greatness of his strength? "It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

63:2 Why is your clothing red, and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat?

63:3 "I have trodden the wine press alone. Of the peoples, no one was with me. Yes, I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath. Their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, and I have stained all my clothing.

63:4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come.

63:5 I looked, and there was no one to help; and I wondered that there was no one to uphold. Therefore my own arm brought salvation to me. My own wrath upheld me.

63:6 I trod down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath. I poured their lifeblood out on the earth."

63:7 I will tell of the loving kindnesses of God and the praises of God, according to all that God has given to us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has given to them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

63:8 For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely;" so he became their Savior.

63:9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love and in his pity he redeemed them. He bore them, and carried them all the days of old.

63:10 But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit.

Therefore he turned and became their enemy, and he himself fought against them.

63:11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, "Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put his Holy Spirit among them?"

63:12 Who caused his glorious arm to be at Moses' right hand? Who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

63:13 Who led them through the depths, like a horse in the wilderness, so that they didn't stumble?

63:14 As the livestock that go down into the valley, God's Spirit caused them to rest. So you led your people to make yourself a glorious name.

63:15 Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory. Where are your zeal and your mighty acts? The yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me.

63:16 For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us. You, God, are our Father. Our Redeemer from everlasting is your name.<sup>277</sup>

63:17 O God, why do you make us wander from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance.

63:18 Your holy people possessed it but a little while. Our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary.

63:19 We have become like those over whom you never ruled, like those who were not called by your name.

CHAPTER 64

64:1 Oh that you would tear the heavens, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence.

64:2 As when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the water to boil; Make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence!

64:3 When you did awesome things which we didn't look for, you came down, and the mountains quaked at your presence.

64:4 For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, nor has the eye seen a God besides you, who works for him who waits for him.

64:5 You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness, those who remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, and we sinned. We have been in sin for a long time. Shall we be saved?

64:6 For we have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteousness is like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

64:7 There is no one who calls on your name, who stirs himself up to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

64:8 But now, God, you are our Father. We are the clay and you our potter. We all are the work of your hand.<sup>278</sup>

64:9 Don't be furious, God. Don't remember iniquity forever. Look and see, we beg you, we are all your people.

64:10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness. Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

64:11 Our holy and our beautiful house where our fathers praised you is burned with fire. All our pleasant places are laid waste.

64:12 Will you hold yourself back for these things, God? Will you keep silent and punish us very severely?

CHAPTER 65

65:1 "I am inquired of by those who didn't ask. I am found by those who didn't seek me. I said, 'See me, see me,' to a nation that was not called by my name.

<sup>277</sup> God is our parent, in character and in heart, He is our Father.

<sup>278</sup> God is our parent, in character and in heart, He is our Father.

<sup>65</sup><sup>2</sup> I have spread out my hands all day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts;

<sup>65</sup><sup>3</sup> a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense on bricks;

<sup>65</sup><sup>4</sup> who sit among the graves, and spend nights in secret places; who eat pig's meat, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

<sup>65</sup><sup>5</sup> who say, 'Stay by yourself, don't come near to me, for I am holier than you.' These are smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day.

<sup>65</sup><sup>6</sup> "Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will repay, yes, I will repay into their bosom, <sup>65</sup><sup>7</sup> your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together", says God, "who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills. Therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom."

<sup>65</sup><sup>8</sup> God says, "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, 'Don't destroy it, for a blessing is in it: so I will do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.

<sup>65</sup><sup>9</sup> I will bring offspring out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains. My chosen will inherit it, and my servants will dwell there.

<sup>65</sup><sup>10</sup> Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people who have sought me.

<sup>65</sup><sup>11</sup> "But you who forsake God, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny;

<sup>65</sup><sup>12</sup> I will destine you to the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you didn't answer. When I spoke, you didn't listen; but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn't delight."<sup>279</sup>

<sup>65</sup><sup>13</sup> Therefore the Lord God says, "Behold, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry; behold, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty. Behold, my servants will rejoice, but you will be disappointed;

<sup>65</sup><sup>14</sup> Behold, my servants will sing for joy of heart, but you will cry for sorrow of heart, and will wail for anguish of spirit.

<sup>65</sup><sup>15</sup> You will leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and the Lord God will kill you. He will call his servants by another name, <sup>65</sup><sup>16</sup> so that he who blesses himself in the earth will bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from my eyes.

<sup>65</sup><sup>17</sup> "For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be remembered, nor come into mind.

<sup>65</sup><sup>19</sup> I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; and the voice of weeping and the voice of crying will be heard in her no more.

<sup>65</sup><sup>20</sup> "No more will there be an infant who only lives a few days, nor an old man who has not filled his days; for the child will die one hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred years old will be accursed.

<sup>65</sup><sup>22</sup> They will not build and another inhabit. They will not plant and another eat: for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen will long enjoy the work of their hands.

<sup>65</sup><sup>23</sup> They will not labor in vain nor give birth for calamity; for they are the offspring of God's blessed and their descendants with them.

<sup>65</sup><sup>24</sup> It will happen that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

<sup>65</sup><sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will feed together. The lion will eat straw like the ox. Dust will be the serpent's food. They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain," says God.

CHAPTER 66

<sup>66</sup><sup>1</sup> God says, "Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will you build to me? Where will I rest?

<sup>66</sup><sup>2</sup> For my hand has made all these things, and so all these things came to be," says God: "but I will look to this man, even to he who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word.

<sup>66</sup><sup>3</sup> He who kills an ox is as he who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog's neck; he who offers an offering, as he who offers pig's blood; he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations:

<sup>66</sup><sup>4</sup> I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them; because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they didn't listen; but they did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn't delight."<sup>280</sup>

<sup>66</sup><sup>5</sup> Hear God's word, you who tremble at his word: "Your brothers who hate you, who cast you out for my name's sake, have said, 'Let God be glorified, that we may see your joy;' but it is those who shall be disappointed.

<sup>66</sup><sup>8</sup> Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion travailed, she gave birth to her children.

<sup>279</sup> God did not, and does not, predestine man's decisions and actions (see Topical Index #38).

<sup>280</sup> God did not, and does not, predestine man's decisions and actions (see Topical Index #38).

<sup>66</sup>9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to be delivered?" says God. "Shall I who cause to give birth shut the womb?" says your God.

<sup>66</sup>10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her. Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn over her;

<sup>66</sup>11 that you may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts; that you may drink deeply, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory."

<sup>66</sup>12 For God says, "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you will nurse. You will be carried on her side, and will be dandled on her knees.

<sup>66</sup>13 As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you. You will be comforted in Jerusalem."

<sup>66</sup>14 You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones will flourish like the tender grass. God's hand will be known among his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies.

<sup>66</sup>15 For, behold, God will come with fire, and his chariots will be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

<sup>66</sup>16 For God will execute judgment by fire and by his sword on all flesh; and those slain by God will be many.

<sup>66</sup>17 "Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the middle, eating pig's meat, abominable things, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together," says God.

<sup>66</sup>18 "For I know their works and their thoughts. The time comes that I will gather all nations and languages, and they will come, and will see my glory.

<sup>66</sup>19 "I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to far-away islands, who have not heard my fame, nor have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations.

<sup>66</sup>20 They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to God, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says God, as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into God's house.

<sup>66</sup>21 Of them I will also select priests and Levites," says God.

<sup>66</sup>22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me," says God, "so your offspring and your name shall remain." <sup>66</sup>23 It shall happen that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh will come to worship before me," says God.<sup>281</sup>

<sup>66</sup>24 "They will go out, and look at the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me; for their worm will not die, nor will their fire be quenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind."

JEREMIAH

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH

Brief background summary

Dating:

The book was written over a period during the 6th and 5th centuries, BC.

Current forms of the book did not appear until the 2nd century BC.

Authorship:

If the book is rooted in the words of the prophet Jeremiah, of the 6th century BC then it was heavily edited by the Deuteronomists of later years.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin.

12 God's word came to him in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.13 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.14 Now God's word came to me, saying,

15 "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations."<sup>282</sup>

16 Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Behold, I don't know how to speak; for I am a child."

17 But God said to me, "Don't say, 'I am a child,' for you must go to whomever I send you, and you must say whatever I command you.

18 Don't be afraid because of them, for I am with you to rescue you," says God.

19 Then God stretched out his hand, and touched my mouth. Then God said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth.10 Behold, I have today set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

11 Moreover God's word came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

12 Then God said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it."

13 God's word came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?" I said, "I see a boiling cauldron; and it is tipping away from the north."

14 Then God said to me, "Out of the north, evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land.15 For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says God. "They will come, and they will each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah."

16 I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

17 "You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and say to them all that I command you. Don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them.

18 For, behold, I have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land.19 They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you", says God, "to rescue you."

CHAPTER 2

21 God's word came to me, saying,

22 "Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'God says, "I remember for you the kindness of your youth, the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

23 Israel was holiness to God, the first fruits of his increase. All who devour him will be held guilty. Evil will come on them," says God."

24 Hear God's word, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel!25 God says, "What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after worthless vanity, and have become worthless?

26 They didn't say, 'Where is God who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no one passed through, and where no man lived?'

27 I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

28 The priests didn't say, 'Where is God?' and those who handle the law didn't know me. The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal and followed things that do not profit.

29 "Therefore I will yet contend with you," says God, "and I will contend with your children's children.

20 For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see. Send to Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there has been such a thing.

21 Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which doesn't profit.

22 "Be astonished, you heavens, at this and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate," says God.

23 "For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut out cisterns for themselves: broken cisterns that can't hold water.

24 Is Israel a slave? Is he born into slavery? Why has he become a captive?

25 The young lions have roared at him and yelled. They have made his land waste. His cities are burned up, without inhabitant.

26 The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

27 "Haven't you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken The lord your God, when he led you by the way?

28 Now what do you gain by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? Or why do you go on the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

29 "Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backsliding will rebuke you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing, that you have

<sup>282</sup> This passage speaks of God's ability to know us, but does not preclude man's own human portion of responsibility to either obey or not obey His wishes and directions. Man must succeed or fail these responsibilities through his own God-given free will.

forsaken The lord your God, and that my fear is not in you," says the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>20</sup> "For long ago I broke off your yoke, and burst your bonds. You said, 'I will not serve;' for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute.

<sup>21</sup> Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a pure and faithful seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?

<sup>22</sup> For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me," says the Lord God.

<sup>25</sup> "Keep your feet from being bare, and your throat from thirst. But you said, 'It is in vain. No, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.'

<sup>26</sup> As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so the house of Israel is ashamed: they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets,

<sup>27</sup> who tell wood, 'You are my father,' and a stone, 'You have given birth to me,' for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, 'Arise, and save us!'

<sup>28</sup> "But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble; for you have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah.

<sup>29</sup> "Why will you contend with me? You all have transgressed against me," says God.

<sup>30</sup> "I have struck your children in vain. They received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

<sup>31</sup> Generation, consider God's word. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, 'We have broken loose. We will come to you no more'?

<sup>32</sup> "Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number.

<sup>33</sup> How well you prepare your way to seek love! Therefore you have even taught the wicked women your ways.

<sup>34</sup> Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts. You didn't find them breaking in, but it is because of all these things.

<sup>35</sup> "Yet you said, 'I am innocent. Surely his anger has turned away from me.' Behold, I will judge you, because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

<sup>36</sup> Why do you go about so much to change your ways? You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria.

<sup>37</sup> You will also leave that place with your hands on your head; for God has rejected those in whom you trust, and you won't prosper with them.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> "They say, 'If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and becomes another man's, should he return to her again?' Wouldn't that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me," says God.

<sup>32</sup> "Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? You have sat waiting for them by the road, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness.<sup>33</sup> Therefore the showers have been withheld and there has been no latter rain; yet you have had a prostitute's forehead and you refused to be ashamed.<sup>34</sup> Will you not from this time cry to me, 'My Father, you are the guide of my youth!'?

<sup>35</sup> "Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?" Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way."

<sup>36</sup> Moreover, God said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and has played the prostitute there.<sup>37</sup> I said after she had done all these things, 'She will return to me,' but she didn't return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.<sup>38</sup> I saw when, for this very cause, that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a certificate of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, had no fear; but she also went and played the prostitute.

<sup>39</sup> Because she took her prostitution lightly, the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with wood.<sup>40</sup> Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense," says God.

<sup>41</sup> God said to me, "Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.

<sup>42</sup> Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you backsliding Israel,' says God; 'I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,' says God. 'I will not keep anger forever.'

<sup>43</sup> Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against The lord your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice," says God.<sup>44</sup> "Return, backsliding children," says God; "for I am a husband to you. I will take one of you from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.<sup>45</sup> I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

<sup>46</sup> It will come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says God, "they will no longer say, 'the ark of God's covenant!' It will not come to mind. They won't remember it. They won't miss it, nor will another be made.<sup>47</sup> At that time they will call Jerusalem 'God's Throne;' and all the nations will be gathered to it, to God's name, to Jerusalem. They will no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart.

318 In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

319 "But I said, 'How I desire to put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!' and I said, 'You shall call me "My Father", and shall not turn away from following me.'

320 "Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel," says God. 321 A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten The Lord their God.

322 Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backsliding. "Behold, we have come to you; for you are The Lord our God." 323 Truly help from the hills, the tumult on the mountains, is in vain. Truly the salvation of Israel is in The Lord our God. 324 But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. 325 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against The Lord our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed The Lord our God's voice."

41 "If you will return, Israel," says God, "if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you will not be removed; 42 and you will swear, 'As God lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations will bless themselves in him, and they will glory in him."

43 For God says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns. 44 Circumcise yourselves to God, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. 45 Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, 'Blow the trumpet in the land! Cry aloud and say, 'Assemble yourselves! Let's go into the fortified cities!' 46 Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Don't wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction."

47 A lion has gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations. He is on his way. He has gone out from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. 48 For this, clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of God hasn't turned back from us. 49 "It will happen at that day," says God, "that the heart of the king will perish, along with the heart of the princes. The priests will be astonished, and the prophets will wonder."

410 Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You will have peace,' whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

411 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; 412 a full wind from these will come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them."

413 Behold, he will come up as clouds, and his chariots will be as the whirlwind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. 414 Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long will your evil thoughts lodge within you? 415 For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: 416 "Tell the nations, behold, publish against Jerusalem, 'Watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah.' 417 As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me," says God. 418 "Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart."

419 My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart! My heart trembles within me. I can't hold my peace, because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. 420 Destruction on destruction is decreed, for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, and my curtains gone in a moment. 421 How long will I see the standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

422 "For my people are foolish. They don't know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but they don't know how to do good." 423 I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void, and the heavens, and they had no light. 424 I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. 425 I saw, and behold, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. 426 I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of God, before his fierce anger. 427 For God says, "The whole land will be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. 428 For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black, because I have spoken it. I have planned it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it."

429 Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers. They go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks. Every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. 430 You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with makeup, you make yourself beautiful in vain. Your lovers despise you. They seek your life. 431 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who gives birth to her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, "Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers."

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> "Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in its wide places, if you can find a man, if there is anyone who does justly, who seeks truth, then I will pardon her.<sup>52</sup> Though they say, 'As God lives,' surely they swear falsely."

<sup>53</sup> O God, don't your eyes look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

<sup>54</sup> Then I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they don't know God's way, nor the law of their God.<sup>55</sup> I will go to the great men and will speak to them, for they know the way of God, and the law of their God." But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.<sup>56</sup> Therefore a lion out of the forest will kill them. A wolf of the evenings will destroy them. A leopard will watch against their cities. Everyone who goes out there will be torn in pieces, because their transgressions are many and their backsliding has increased.

<sup>57</sup> "How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the prostitutes' houses.<sup>58</sup> They were as fed horses roaming at large. Everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife.<sup>59</sup> Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says God. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

<sup>510</sup> "Go up on her walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end. Take away her branches, for they are not God's.<sup>511</sup> For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says God.

<sup>512</sup> They have denied God, and said, "It is not he. Evil won't come on us. We won't see sword or famine.<sup>513</sup> The prophets will become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus it will be done to them."

<sup>514</sup> Therefore God, the Lord God of Hosts says, "Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it will devour them.<sup>515</sup> Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far away, house of Israel," says God. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know and don't understand what they say.<sup>516</sup> Their quiver is an open tomb. They are all mighty men.<sup>517</sup> They will eat up your harvest and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They will eat up your flocks and your herds. They will eat up your vines and your fig trees. They will beat down your fortified cities in which you trust with the sword.

<sup>518</sup> "But even in those days," says God, "I will not make a full end of you.<sup>519</sup> It will happen when you say, 'Why has The Lord our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just as you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'

<sup>520</sup> "Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,<sup>521</sup> 'Hear this now, foolish people without understanding, who have eyes, and don't see, who have ears, and don't hear:<sup>522</sup> Don't you fear me?' says God 'Won't you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? Though its waves toss themselves, yet they can't prevail. Though they roar, they still can't pass over it.'

<sup>523</sup> "But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart. They have revolted and gone.<sup>524</sup> They don't say in their heart, 'Let's now fear The Lord our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season, who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'

<sup>525</sup> "Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you.<sup>526</sup> For wicked men are found among my people. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men.<sup>527</sup> As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich.<sup>528</sup> They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they don't defend the rights of the needy.

<sup>529</sup> "Shouldn't I punish for these things?" says God. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

<sup>530</sup> "An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land.<sup>531</sup> The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?"

CHAPTER 6

<sup>70</sup> To whom should I speak and testify, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen. Behold, God's word has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. <sup>611</sup> Therefore I am full of God's wrath. I am weary with holding it in. "Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife will be taken, the aged with him who is full of days.

<sup>612</sup> Their houses will be turned to others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says God."

<sup>613</sup> "For from their least even to their greatest, everyone is given to covetousness. From the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

<sup>614</sup> They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace!' when there is no peace.

<sup>615</sup> Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush. Therefore they will fall among those who fall. When I visit them, they will be cast down," says God.

<sup>616</sup> God says, "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, 'Where is the good way?' and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.' <sup>617</sup> I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not listen!' <sup>618</sup> Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. <sup>619</sup> Hear, earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it.

<sup>620</sup> To what purpose does frankincense from Sheba come to me, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, and your sacrifices are not pleasing to me."

<sup>621</sup> Therefore God says, "Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together will stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend will perish." <sup>622</sup> God says, "Behold, a people comes from the north country. A great nation will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth.

<sup>623</sup> They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion."

<sup>624</sup> We have heard its report. Our hands become feeble. Anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. <sup>625</sup> Don't go out into the field or walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror are on every side. <sup>626</sup> Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation, for the destroyer will suddenly come on us.

<sup>627</sup> "I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people, that you may know and try their way. <sup>628</sup> They are all grievous rebels, going around to slander. They are bronze and iron. All of them deal corruptly. <sup>629</sup> The bellows blow fiercely. The lead is consumed in the fire. In vain they go on refining, for the wicked are not plucked away. <sup>630</sup> Men will call them rejected silver, because God has rejected them."

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from God, saying,

<sup>72</sup> "Stand in the gate of God's house, and proclaim this word there, and say, 'Hear God's word, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship God.'"

<sup>73</sup> The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel says, "Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. <sup>74</sup> Don't trust in lying words, saying, 'God's temple, God's temple, God's temple, are these.' <sup>75</sup> For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; <sup>76</sup> if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, and don't walk after other gods to your own hurt; <sup>77</sup> then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forever more. <sup>78</sup> Behold, you trust in lying words that can't profit. <sup>79</sup> Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, <sup>710</sup> then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, 'We are delivered,' that you may do all these abominations? <sup>711</sup> Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it," says God.

<sup>712</sup> "But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

<sup>713</sup> Now, because you have done all these works," says God, "and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer,<sup>283</sup>

<sup>714</sup> therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. <sup>715</sup> I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole offspring of Ephraim.

<sup>716</sup> "Therefore don't pray for this people. Don't lift up a cry or prayer for them or make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. <sup>717</sup> Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>718</sup> The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. <sup>719</sup> Do they provoke me to anger?" says God. "Don't they provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?"

<sup>720</sup> Therefore the Lord God says: "Behold, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man, on animal, on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and will not be quenched."

<sup>727</sup> "You shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you.<sup>728</sup> You shall tell them, 'This is the nation that has not listened to The Lord their God's voice, nor received instruction. Truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.'<sup>729</sup> Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for God has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

<sup>730</sup> "For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight," says God. "They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.<sup>731</sup> They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I didn't command, nor did it come into my mind.<sup>732</sup> Therefore behold, the days come", says God, "that it will no more be called 'Topheth' or 'The valley of the son of Hinnom', but 'The valley of Slaughter'; for they will bury in Topheth until there is no place to bury.<sup>733</sup> The dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. No one will frighten them away.<sup>734</sup> Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land will become a waste."

CHAPTER 8

<sup>84</sup> "Moreover you shall tell them, 'God says: "Do men fall, and not rise up again? Does one turn away, and not return?

<sup>85</sup> Why then have the people of Jerusalem fallen back by a perpetual backsliding? They cling to deceit. They refuse to return.

<sup>86</sup> I listened and heard, but they didn't say what is right. No one repents of his wickedness, saying, "What have I done?" Everyone turns to his course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle.

<sup>87</sup> Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times. The turtle dove, the swallow, and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people don't know God's law.

<sup>88</sup> "How do you say, "We are wise, and God's law is with us?" But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has made that a lie.

<sup>89</sup> The wise men are disappointed. They are dismayed and trapped. Behold, they have rejected God's word. What kind of wisdom is in them?

<sup>90</sup> Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to those who will possess them. For everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely.

<sup>91</sup> They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace.

<sup>92</sup> Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed. They couldn't blush. Therefore they will fall among those who fall. In the time of their visitation they will be cast down, says God.

<sup>93</sup> "I will utterly consume them, says God. No grapes will be on the vine, no figs on the fig tree, and the leaf will fade. The things that I have given them will pass away from them."

<sup>94</sup> "Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves! Let's enter into the fortified cities, and let's be silent there; for The Lord our God has put us to silence, and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against God.<sup>95</sup> We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!

<sup>96</sup> The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan. The whole land trembles at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell therein."

<sup>97</sup> "For, behold, I will send serpents, adders among you, which will not be charmed; and they will bite you," says God.

<sup>98</sup> Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! My heart is faint within me.

<sup>99</sup> Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: "Isn't God in Zion? Isn't her King in her?" "Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign idols?"<sup>100</sup> "The harvest is past. The summer has ended, and we are not saved."<sup>101</sup> For the hurt of the daughter of my people, I am hurt. I mourn. Dismay has taken hold of me.

822 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

CHAPTER 9

91 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

92 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

93 "They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood. They have grown strong in the land, but not for truth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me," says God.

94 "Everyone beware of his neighbor, and don't trust in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go around like a slanderer.

95 Friends deceive each other, and will not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies. They weary themselves committing iniquity.

96 Your habitation is in the middle of deceit. Through deceit, they refuse to know me," says God.

97 Therefore The Lord God of Hosts says, "Behold, I will melt them and test them; for how should I deal with the daughter of my people?

98 Their tongue is a deadly arrow. It speaks deceit. One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart, he waits to ambush him.

99 Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says God. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on a nation such as this?"100 I will weep and wail for the mountains, and lament for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are burned up, so that no one passes through; Men can't hear the voice of the livestock. Both the birds of the sky and the animals have fled. They are gone.101 "I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

102 Who is wise enough to understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of God has spoken, that he may declare it? Why has the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

103 God says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice or walked in my ways,104 but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them."

105 Therefore The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says, "Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood and give them poisoned water to drink.106 I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them."

107 The Lord God of Hosts says, "Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come. Send for the skillful women, that they may come.108 Let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears and our eyelids gush out with waters.

109 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, 'How we are ruined! We are greatly confounded because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.'"

110 Yet hear God's word, you women. Let your ear receive the word of his mouth. Teach your daughters wailing. Everyone teach her neighbor a lamentation.

111 For death has come up into our windows. It has entered into our palaces to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets.

112 Speak, "God says, "The dead bodies of men will fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester. No one will gather them."

113 God says, "Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom. Don't let the mighty man glory in his might. Don't let the rich man glory in his riches.

114 But let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am God who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for I delight in these things," says God.

115 "Behold, the days come," says God, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised only in their flesh:116 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the children of Ammon, Moab, and all who have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness, for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

CHAPTER 10

101 Hear the word which God speaks to you, house of Israel!102 God says, "Don't learn the way of the nations, and don't be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them.

103 For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the ax.104 They deck it with silver and with gold. They fasten it with nails and with hammers, so that it can't move.105 They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and don't speak. They must be carried, because they can't move. Don't be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good."

106 There is no one like you, God. You are great, and your name is great in might.107 Who shouldn't fear you, King of the nations? For it belongs to you. Because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is no one like you.

108 But they are together brutish and foolish, instructed by idols! It is just wood.

109 There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the engraver and of the hands of the goldsmith. Their clothing is blue and purple. They are all the work of skillful men.

110 But God is the true God. He is the living God, and an everlasting King. At his wrath, the earth trembles. The nations aren't able to withstand his indignation.

<sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup> "You shall say this to them: 'The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.'"

<sup>10</sup><sup>12</sup> God has made the earth by his power. He has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens.

<sup>10</sup><sup>14</sup> Every man has become brutish and without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. <sup>10</sup><sup>15</sup> They are vanity, a work of delusion. In the time of their visitation they will perish.

<sup>10</sup><sup>17</sup> Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. <sup>10</sup><sup>18</sup> For God says, "Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it."

<sup>10</sup><sup>19</sup> Woe is me because of my injury! My wound is serious; but I said, "Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it."

<sup>10</sup><sup>20</sup> My tent has been destroyed, and all my cords are broken. My children have gone away from me, and they are no more. There is no one to spread my tent any more, to set up my curtains.

<sup>10</sup><sup>21</sup> For the shepherds have become brutish, and have not inquired of God. Therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks have scattered.

<sup>10</sup><sup>22</sup> The voice of news, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals.

<sup>10</sup><sup>23</sup> God, I know that the way of man is not in himself. It is not in man who walks to direct his steps. <sup>10</sup><sup>24</sup> God, correct me, but gently; not in your anger, lest you reduce me to nothing.

<sup>10</sup><sup>25</sup> Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and on the families that don't call on your name; for they have devoured Jacob. Yes, they have devoured him, consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>11</sup><sup>2</sup> "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

<sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> God said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them.' <sup>11</sup><sup>7</sup> For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, 'Obey my voice.'" <sup>11</sup><sup>8</sup> Yet they didn't obey, nor turn their ear, but everyone walked in the stubbornness of their evil heart. Therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them."

<sup>11</sup><sup>9</sup> God said to me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup><sup>10</sup> They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words. They have gone after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

<sup>11</sup><sup>11</sup> Therefore God says, 'Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they will not be able to escape; and they will cry to me, but I will not listen to them.' <sup>11</sup><sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

<sup>11</sup><sup>13</sup> For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.'

<sup>11</sup><sup>14</sup> "Therefore don't pray for this people. Don't lift up cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble.

<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has behaved lewdly with many, and the holy flesh has passed from you? When you do evil, then you rejoice."

<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> God called your name, "A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit." With the noise of a great roar he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken.

<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> For The Lord God of Hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

<sup>11</sup><sup>18</sup> God gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it. Then you showed me their doings. <sup>11</sup><sup>19</sup> But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter. I didn't know that they had devised plans against me, saying, "Let's destroy the tree with its fruit, and let's cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered."

<sup>11</sup><sup>20</sup> But, The Lord God of Hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I will see your vengeance on them; for to you I have revealed my cause.

famine.<sup>11</sup><sup>23</sup> There will be no remnant to them, for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation."

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>1</sup> You are righteous, God, when I contend with you; yet I would like to reason the cause with you. Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are they all at ease who deal very treacherously?<sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> You have planted them. Yes, they have taken root. They grow. Yes, they produce fruit. You are near in their mouth, and far from their heart.<sup>12</sup><sup>3</sup> But you, God, know me. You see me, and test my heart toward you. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.<sup>12</sup><sup>4</sup> How long will the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? Because of the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals and birds are consumed; because they said, "He won't see our latter end."

<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? Though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan?

<sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you! Even they have cried aloud after you! Don't believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you.

<sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> "I have forsaken my house. I have cast off my heritage. I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

<sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest. She has uttered her voice against me. Therefore I have hated her.

<sup>12</sup><sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They have trodden my portion under foot. They have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

<sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> They have made it a desolation. It mourns to me, being desolate. The whole land is made desolate, because no one cares.

<sup>12</sup><sup>12</sup> Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of God devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land. No flesh has peace.

<sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup> They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns. They have exhausted themselves, and profit nothing. You will be ashamed of your fruits, because of God's fierce anger."

<sup>12</sup><sup>14</sup> God says, "Concerning all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them.<sup>12</sup><sup>15</sup> It will happen that after I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them. I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land."<sup>12</sup><sup>16</sup> It will happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As God lives;' even as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the middle of my people.<sup>12</sup><sup>17</sup> But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it," says God.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup><sup>1</sup> God said to me, "Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don't put it in water."

<sup>13</sup><sup>6</sup> After many days, God said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there."<sup>13</sup><sup>7</sup> Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was ruined. It was profitable for nothing.

<sup>13</sup><sup>12</sup> "Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'God, the God of Israel says, "Every container should be filled with wine." They will tell you, 'Do we not certainly know that every container should be filled with wine?'<sup>13</sup><sup>13</sup> Then tell them, 'God says, "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness."<sup>13</sup><sup>14</sup> I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says God: "I will not pity, spare, or have compassion, that I should not destroy them."

<sup>13</sup><sup>16</sup> Give glory to The lord your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it deep darkness.

<sup>13</sup><sup>17</sup> But if you will not hear it, my soul will weep in secret for your pride. My eye will weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because God's flock has been taken captive.

<sup>13</sup><sup>20</sup> Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock?

<sup>13</sup><sup>21</sup> What will you say, when he sets over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? Won't sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail?

<sup>13</sup><sup>26</sup> Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame will appear.

<sup>13</sup><sup>27</sup> I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem! You will not be made clean. How long will it yet be?"

CHAPTER 14

<sup>14</sup><sup>4</sup> Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed. They cover their heads.

<sup>14</sup><sup>5</sup> Yes, the doe in the field also calves and forsakes her young, because there is no grass.

<sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> You hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night?

<sup>14</sup><sup>9</sup> Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, God, are in the middle of us, and we are called by your name. Don't leave us.

<sup>14</sup><sup>10</sup> God says to this people, "Even so they have loved to wander. They have not restrained their feet."

Therefore God does not accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish them for their sins."

<sup>14</sup><sup>11</sup> God said to me, "Don't pray for this people for their good. <sup>14</sup><sup>12</sup> When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence."

<sup>14</sup><sup>13</sup> Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Behold, the prophets tell them, 'You will not see the sword, neither will you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.'"

<sup>14</sup><sup>14</sup> Then God said to me, "The prophets prophesy lies in my name. I didn't send them. I didn't command them. I didn't speak to them. They prophesy to you a lying vision, divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. <sup>14</sup><sup>15</sup> Therefore God says concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, but I didn't send them, yet they say, 'Sword and famine will not be in this land.' Those prophets will be consumed by sword and famine. <sup>14</sup><sup>16</sup> The people to whom they prophesy will be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. They will have no one to bury them—them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters, for I will pour their wickedness on them.

<sup>14</sup><sup>17</sup> "You shall say this word to them: "Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound.

<sup>14</sup><sup>18</sup> If I go out into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! If I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge."

<sup>14</sup><sup>19</sup> Have you utterly rejected Judah? Has your soul loathed Zion? Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!

<sup>14</sup><sup>20</sup> We acknowledge, God, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you.

<sup>14</sup><sup>21</sup> Do not abhor us, for your name's sake. Do not disgrace the throne of your glory. Remember, and don't break your covenant with us.

<sup>14</sup><sup>22</sup> Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? Or can the sky give showers? Aren't you he, The Lord our God? Therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>15</sup><sup>1</sup> Then God said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not turn toward this people. Cast them out of my sight, and let them go out!"

<sup>15</sup><sup>2</sup> It will happen, when they ask you, 'Where shall we go out?' then you shall tell them, 'God says: "Such as are for death, to death; such as are for the sword, to the sword; such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity."

<sup>15</sup><sup>3</sup> "I will appoint over them four kinds," says God: "the sword to kill, the dogs to tear, the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy.

<sup>15</sup><sup>4</sup> I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of

Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

15:5 For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Who will mourn you? Who will come to ask of your welfare?

15:6 You have rejected me," says God. "You have gone backward. Therefore I have stretched out my hand against you and destroyed you. I am weary of showing compassion.15:7 I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land. I have bereaved them of children. I have destroyed my people. They didn't return from their ways.

15:8 Their widows are increased more than the sand of the seas. I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday. I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly.

15:9 She who has borne seven languishes. She has given up the spirit. Her sun has gone down while it was yet day. She has been disappointed and confounded. I will deliver their residue to the sword before their enemies," says God.

15:10 Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me, a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet every one of them curses me.

15:11 God said, "Most certainly I will strengthen you for good. Most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

15:12 Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and bronze?15:13 I will give your substance and your treasures for a plunder without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders.15:14 I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which will burn on you."

15:15 God, you know. Remember me, visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors. You are patient, so don't take me away. Know that for your sake I have suffered reproach.

15:16 Your words were found, and I ate them. Your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart, for I am called by your name, God, The Lord God of Hosts.15:17 I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry and rejoice. I sat alone because of your hand, for you have filled me with indignation.

15:18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, like waters that fail?

15:19 Therefore God says, "If you return, then I will bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take out the precious from the vile, you will be as my mouth. They will return to you, but you will not return to them.

15:20 I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall. They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you," says God.

15:21 "I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible."

CHAPTER 16

16:1 Then God's word came to me, saying,16:2 "You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place."16:3 For God says concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land.16:4 "They will die grievous deaths. They will not be lamented, neither will they be buried. They will be as dung on the surface of the ground. They will be consumed by the sword and by famine. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth."

16:5 For God says, "Don't enter into the house of mourning. Don't go to lament. Don't bemoan them, for I have taken away my peace from this people," says God, "even loving kindness and tender mercies.

16:6 Both great and small will die in this land. They will not be buried. Men won't lament for them, cut themselves, or make themselves bald for them.16:7 Men won't break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead. Men won't give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

16:8 "You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink."16:9 For The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel says: "Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

16:10 It will happen, when you tell this people all these words, and they ask you, 'Why has God pronounced all this great evil against us?' or 'What is our iniquity? or 'What is our sin that we have committed against The Lord our God?'16:11 then you shall tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me,' says God, 'and have walked after other gods, have served them, have worshiped them, have forsaken me, and have not kept my law.'

16:12 You have done evil more than your fathers, for behold, you each walk after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you don't listen to me.

16:13 Therefore I will cast you out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers. There you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor."<sup>285</sup>

16:14 "Therefore behold, the days come," says God, "that it will no more be said, 'As God lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt';16:15 but, 'As God lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.' I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.

<sup>16</sup><sup>16</sup> "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says God, "and they will fish them up. Afterward I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain, from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks." <sup>16</sup><sup>17</sup> For my eyes are on all their ways. They are not hidden from my face. Their iniquity isn't concealed from my eyes. <sup>16</sup><sup>18</sup> First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations."

<sup>16</sup><sup>19</sup> God, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the nations will come to you from the ends of the earth, and will say, "Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit."

<sup>16</sup><sup>20</sup> Should a man make to himself gods which yet are no gods?" <sup>16</sup><sup>21</sup> "Therefore behold, I will cause them to know, this once I will cause them to know my hand and my might. Then they will know that my name is God."

CHAPTER 17

<sup>17</sup><sup>3</sup> My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a plunder, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders. <sup>17</sup><sup>4</sup> You, even of yourself, will discontinue from your heritage that I gave you. I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you don't know, for you have kindled a fire in my anger which will burn forever."

<sup>17</sup><sup>5</sup> God says: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man, relies on strength of flesh, and whose heart departs from God." <sup>17</sup><sup>6</sup> For he will be like a bush in the desert, and will not see when good comes, but will inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, an uninhabited salt land.

<sup>17</sup><sup>7</sup> "Blessed is the man who trusts in God, and whose confidence is in God." <sup>17</sup><sup>8</sup> For he will be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and will not fear when heat comes, but its leaf will be green, and will not be concerned in the year of drought. It won't cease from yielding fruit.

<sup>17</sup><sup>12</sup> A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.

<sup>17</sup><sup>13</sup> God, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you will be disappointed. Those who depart from me will be written in the earth, because they have forsaken God, the spring of living waters.

<sup>17</sup><sup>14</sup> Heal me, O God, and I will be healed. Save me, and I will be saved; for you are my praise.

<sup>17</sup><sup>15</sup> Behold, they ask me, "Where is God's word? Let it be fulfilled now." <sup>17</sup><sup>16</sup> As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you. I haven't desired the woeful day. You know. That which came out of my lips was before your face.

<sup>17</sup><sup>17</sup> Don't be a terror to me. You are my refuge in the day of evil.

<sup>17</sup><sup>19</sup> God said this to me: "Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem." <sup>17</sup><sup>20</sup> Tell them, 'Hear God's word, you kings of Judah, all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates.' <sup>17</sup><sup>21</sup> God says, "Be careful, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem." <sup>17</sup><sup>22</sup> Don't carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Don't do any work, but make the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers." <sup>17</sup><sup>23</sup> But they didn't listen. They didn't turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. <sup>17</sup><sup>24</sup> It will happen, if you diligently listen to me," says God, "to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; <sup>17</sup><sup>25</sup> then there will enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will remain forever." <sup>17</sup><sup>26</sup> They will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to God's house.

<sup>17</sup><sup>27</sup> But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem. It will not be quenched."

CHAPTER 18

<sup>18</sup><sup>1</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from God, saying, <sup>18</sup><sup>2</sup> "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words."

<sup>18</sup><sup>3</sup> Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was making something on the wheels.

<sup>18</sup><sup>4</sup> When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

pluck up and to break down and to destroy it;<sup>188</sup> if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them.<sup>286</sup>

<sup>189</sup> At the instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;<sup>1810</sup> if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good with which I said I would benefit them.

<sup>1811</sup> Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'God says: "Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a plan against you. Everyone return from his evil way now, and amend your ways and your doings."<sup>1812</sup> But they say, 'It is in vain; for we will walk after our own plans, and we will each follow the stubbornness of his evil heart.'"

<sup>1813</sup> Therefore God says: "Ask now among the nations, 'Who has heard such things?' The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing."

<sup>1814</sup> Will the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Will the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up?

<sup>1815</sup> For my people have forgotten me. They have burned incense to false gods. They have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up, <sup>1816</sup> to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing. Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and shake his head.

<sup>1817</sup> I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy. I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

<sup>1818</sup> Then they said, "Come! Let's devise plans against Jeremiah; for the law won't perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let's strike him with the tongue, and let's not give heed to any of his words."

<sup>1819</sup> Give heed to me, God, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.

<sup>1820</sup> Should evil be recompensed for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.

<sup>1821</sup> Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives become childless and widows.

Let their men be killed and their young men struck by the sword in battle.

<sup>1822</sup> Let a cry be heard from their houses when you bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me and hidden snares for my feet.

<sup>1823</sup> Yet, God, you know all their counsel against me to kill me. Don't forgive their iniquity. Don't blot out their sin from your sight, Let them be overthrown before you. Deal with them in the time of your anger.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>191</sup> Thus said God, "Go, and buy a potter's earthen container, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests;<sup>192</sup> and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I will tell you.<sup>193</sup> Say, 'Hear God's word, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears will tingle.

<sup>194</sup> Because they have forsaken me, and have defiled this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods that they didn't know, they, their fathers, and the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents,<sup>195</sup> and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their children in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I didn't command, nor speak, which didn't even enter into my mind.<sup>196</sup> Therefore, behold, the days come," says God, "that this place will no more be called 'Topheth', nor 'The Valley of the son of Hinnom', but 'The valley of Slaughter'.

<sup>197</sup> I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem void in this place. I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. I will give their dead bodies to be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth.<sup>198</sup> I will make this city an astonishment and a hissing. Everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues.<sup>199</sup> I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters. They will each eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, will distress them."

<sup>1910</sup> "Then you shall break the container in the sight of the men who go with you,<sup>1911</sup> and shall tell them, 'The Lord God of Hosts says: "Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again. They will bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury."<sup>1912</sup> This is what I will do to this place," says God, "and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth.<sup>1913</sup> The houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, will be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky and have poured out drink offerings to other gods."

<sup>1914</sup> Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where God had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of God's house, and said to all the people:<sup>1915</sup> "The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel says, 'Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I

<sup>286</sup> A very good example of the partnership between man and God, emphasizing the human portion of responsibility which man has, and which God will not overlook. The outcome of God's prophecies are always dependent upon man's response to His command or request. The means of and timing of the fulfillment of God's will is never predestined absolutely, but depends upon man's fulfillment of his portion of responsibility. The ultimate fulfillment of God's will is predestined absolutely, such as His Kingdom on earth (see Topical Index #38).

have pronounced against it, because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words."

CHAPTER 20

<sup>201</sup> Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in God's house, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. <sup>202</sup> Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in God's house. <sup>203</sup> On the next day, Pashhur released Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "God has not called your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib." <sup>204</sup> For God says, 'Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. They will fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes will see it. I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive to Babylon, and will kill them with the sword.' <sup>205</sup> Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all its precious things, yes, I will give all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies. They will make them captives, take them, and carry them to Babylon. <sup>206</sup> You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house will go into captivity. You will come to Babylon, and there you will die, and there you will be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely."

<sup>207</sup> God, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded. You are stronger than I, and have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day. Everyone mocks me.

<sup>208</sup> For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, "Violence and destruction!" because God's word has been made a reproach to me, and a derision, all day.

<sup>209</sup> If I say, I will not make mention of him, or speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones. I am weary with holding it in. I can't.

<sup>210</sup> For I have heard the defaming of many, "Terror on every side! Denounce, and we will denounce him!" say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall. "Perhaps he will be persuaded, and we will prevail against him, and we will take our revenge on him."

<sup>211</sup> But God is with me as an awesome mighty one. Therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they won't prevail. They will be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which will never be forgotten.

<sup>212</sup> But The Lord God of Hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them, for I have revealed my cause to you.

<sup>213</sup> Sing to God! Praise God, for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

<sup>214</sup> Cursed is the day in which I was born. Don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed.

<sup>215</sup> Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, "A boy is born to you," making him very glad.

<sup>2016</sup> Let that man be as the cities which God overthrew, and didn't repent. Let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime;

<sup>2017</sup> because he didn't kill me from the womb. So my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great.

<sup>2018</sup> Why did I come out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER 21

<sup>211</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from God, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, <sup>212</sup> "Please inquire of God for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps God will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may withdraw from us."

<sup>213</sup> Then Jeremiah said to them, "Tell Zedekiah:

<sup>214</sup> 'God, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls; and I will gather them into the middle of this city. <sup>215</sup> I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation. <sup>216</sup> I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal. They will die of a great pestilence.

<sup>217</sup> Afterward," says God, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, and the people, even those who are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. He will strike them with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them, have pity, or have mercy."

<sup>218</sup> "You shall say to this people, 'God says: "Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

<sup>219</sup> He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he will live, and he will escape with his life.

<sup>2110</sup> For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good," says God. "It will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire."

<sup>2111</sup> "Concerning the house of the king of Judah, hear God's word:<sup>2112</sup> House of David, God says, 'Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.'

<sup>2113</sup> Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain,' says God. 'You that say, "Who would come down against us?" or "Who would enter into our homes?"'

<sup>2114</sup> I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says God; and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it will devour all that is around her."

CHAPTER 22

22:1 God said, "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word, there:<sup>22:2</sup> 'Hear God's word, king of Judah, who sits on David's throne, you, your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates.

22:3 God says: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong. Do no violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Don't shed innocent blood in this place.<sup>22:4</sup> For if you do this thing indeed, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter in by the gates of this house, riding in chariots and on horses, he, his servants, and his people.<sup>22:5</sup> But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself," says God, "that this house will become a desolation."

22:6 For God says concerning the house of the king of Judah: "You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited.

22:7 I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons, and they will cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

22:8 "Many nations will pass by this city, and they will each ask his neighbor, 'Why has God done this to this great city?'<sup>22:9</sup> Then they will answer, 'Because they abandoned the covenant of The Lord their God, worshiped other gods, and served them.'"

22:10 Don't weep for the dead. Don't bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away, for he will return no more, and not see his native country.

22:11 For God says touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went out of this place: "He won't return there any more."<sup>22:12</sup> But he will die in the place where they have led him captive. He will see this land no more."

22:13 "Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire;<sup>22:14</sup> who says, 'I will build myself a wide house and spacious rooms,' and cuts out windows for himself; with a cedar ceiling, and painted with red.

22:15 "Should you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Didn't your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him.

22:16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; so it was well, then. Wasn't this to know me?" says God.

22:17 But your eyes and your heart are only for your covetousness, for shedding innocent blood, for oppression, and for doing violence."

22:18 Therefore God says concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: "They won't lament for him, saying, 'Ah my brother!' or, 'Ah sister!' They won't lament for him, saying 'Ah lord!' or, 'Ah his glory!'

22:19 He will be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem."

22:20 "Go up to Lebanon, and cry. Lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers have been destroyed.

22:21 I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, 'I will not listen.' This has been your way from your youth, that you didn't obey my voice.

22:22 The wind will feed all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity. Surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness.

22:23 Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail!

22:24 "As I live," says God, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, I would still pluck you from there."<sup>22:25</sup> I would give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

22:26 I will cast you out with your mother who bore you into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die.<sup>22:27</sup> But to the land to which their soul longs to return, there they will not return." <sup>22:28</sup> Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? Is he a vessel in which no one delights? Why are they cast out, he and his offspring, and cast into a land which they don't know?

22:29 O earth, earth, earth, hear God's word!

22:30 God says, "Record this man as childless, a man who will not prosper in his days; for no more will a man of his offspring prosper, sitting on David's throne, and ruling in Judah."

CHAPTER 23

23:1 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says God.<sup>23:2</sup> Therefore God, the God of Israel, says against the shepherds who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings," says God.

23:3 "I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they will be fruitful and multiply.<sup>23:4</sup> I will set up shepherds over them, who will feed them. They will no longer be afraid or dismayed, neither will any be lacking," says God.

23:5 "Behold, the days come," says God, "that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he will reign as king and deal wisely, and will execute justice and righteousness in the land.

23:6 In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell safely. This is his name by which he will be called: God our righteousness.<sup>287</sup>

23:7 "Therefore behold, the days come," says God, "that they will no more say, 'As God lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.'

23:8 but, 'As God lives, who brought up and who led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them.' Then they will dwell in their own land."

<sup>23</sup><sup>9</sup> Concerning the prophets: My heart within me is broken. All my bones shake. I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of God, and because of his holy words.

<sup>23</sup><sup>11</sup> for both prophet and priest are profane. Yes, in my house I have found their wickedness," says God.

<sup>23</sup><sup>12</sup> Therefore their way will be to them as slippery places in the darkness. They will be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation," says God.

<sup>23</sup><sup>15</sup> Therefore The Lord God of Hosts says concerning the prophets: "Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink poisoned water; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone out into all the land."

<sup>23</sup><sup>16</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says, "Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They teach you vanity. They speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of God.

<sup>23</sup><sup>17</sup> They say continually to those who despise me, 'God has said, "You will have peace;"' and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, 'No evil will come on you.'

<sup>23</sup><sup>18</sup> For who has stood in the council of God, that he should perceive and hear his word? Who has listened to my word, and heard it?

<sup>23</sup><sup>19</sup> Behold, God's storm, his wrath, has gone out. Yes, a whirling storm: It will burst on the head of the wicked.

<sup>23</sup><sup>20</sup> God's anger will not return until he has executed, and until he has performed the intents of his heart. In the latter days, you will understand it perfectly.

<sup>23</sup><sup>22</sup> But if they had stood in my council, then they would have caused my people to hear my words, and would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

<sup>23</sup><sup>25</sup> "I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!'<sup>23</sup><sup>26</sup> How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart?<sup>23</sup><sup>27</sup> They intend to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they each tell his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name because of Baal.<sup>23</sup><sup>28</sup> The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat?" says God.

<sup>23</sup><sup>29</sup> "Isn't my word like fire?"<sup>288</sup> says God; "and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

<sup>23</sup><sup>32</sup> Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams," says God, "who tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting; yet I didn't send them or command them. They don't profit this people at all," says God.

<sup>23</sup><sup>33</sup> "When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, asks you, saying, 'What is the message from God?' Then you shall tell them, ""What message? I will cast you off," says God.<sup>23</sup><sup>34</sup> As for the prophet, the priest, and the people, who say, 'The message from God,' I will even punish that man and his household.<sup>23</sup><sup>35</sup> You will say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, 'What has God answered?' and, 'What has God said?'<sup>23</sup><sup>36</sup> You will mention the message from God no more: for every man's own word has become his message; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of The Lord God of Hosts, our God.<sup>23</sup><sup>37</sup> You will say to the prophet, 'What has God answered you?' and, 'What has God spoken?'<sup>23</sup><sup>38</sup> Although you say, 'The message from God;' therefore God says: 'Because you say this word, "The message from God," and I have sent to you, telling you not to say, "The message from God,"'<sup>23</sup><sup>39</sup> therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence.

<sup>23</sup><sup>40</sup> I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which will not be forgotten."<sup>289</sup>

CHAPTER 24

<sup>24</sup><sup>3</sup> Then God asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so bad that can't be eaten."

set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. I will build them, and not pull them down. I will plant them, and not pluck them up.<sup>247</sup> I will give them a heart to know me, that I am God. They will be my people, and I will be their God; for they will return to me with their whole heart.

<sup>248</sup> "As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad," surely God says, 'So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the remnant of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt.'<sup>249</sup> I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them.<sup>250</sup> I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers."

CHAPTER 25

<sup>251</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (this was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon),<sup>252</sup> which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem:<sup>253</sup> From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, God's word has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened.

<sup>254</sup> God has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened or inclined your ear to hear),<sup>255</sup> saying, "Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that God has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forever more."<sup>256</sup> Don't go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don't provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; then I will do you no harm."

<sup>257</sup> "Yet you have not listened to me," says God; "that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt."

<sup>258</sup> Therefore The Lord God of Hosts says: "Because you have not heard my words,<sup>290</sup>

<sup>259</sup> behold, I will send and take all the families of the north," says God, "and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around. I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.<sup>2510</sup> Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp.<sup>2511</sup> This whole land will be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.<sup>291</sup>

<sup>2512</sup> "It will happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation," says God, "for their iniquity. I will make the land of the Chaldeans desolate forever.<sup>292</sup>

<sup>2513</sup> I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.<sup>2514</sup> For many nations and great kings will make bondservants of them, even of them. I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands."

<sup>2515</sup> For God, the God of Israel, says to me: "Take this cup of the wine of wrath from my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send you to drink it."<sup>2516</sup> They will drink, and reel back and forth, and be insane, because of the sword that I will send among them."

<sup>2517</sup> Then I took the cup at God's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom God had sent me:

<sup>2518</sup> Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, with its kings and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is today;<sup>2519</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt, with his servants, his princes, and all his people;<sup>2520</sup> and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the Philistines, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;<sup>2521</sup> Edom, Moab, and the children of Ammon,<sup>2522</sup> and all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea;<sup>2523</sup> Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off;<sup>2524</sup> and all the kings of Arabia, all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness;<sup>2525</sup> and all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes;<sup>2526</sup> and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth. The king of Sheshach will drink after them.

<sup>2527</sup> "You shall tell them, 'The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel says: 'Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.'"<sup>2528</sup> It shall be, if they refuse to take

<sup>291</sup> Because Jesus was rejected and the kingdom of God on earth was not established in Jesus' time, this 70 year period, which was part of the preparation for the coming of Jesus, was symbolically repeated in a parallel period of 69 years during Christian history when the papacy from Rome was held captive in Avignon, France from 1309 to 1378. This parallel providential period has been referred to by historians as the "Babylonian captivity of the Pope" and was part of the providential preparation for the return of Christ.

<sup>292</sup> The period of approximately 400 years prior to this time, beginning after the reign of Solomon, saw the Jewish people divided between Israel in the north, and Judah in the south. These two halves represented Cain and Abel in God's providence to prepare the Jewish people for the coming of Jesus. Judah represented Abel, and Israel represented Cain. Isreal should have united with Judah and reformed its ways, but it did not. Because Jesus was later rejected and the kingdom of God on earth was not established in Jesus' time, this 400 year period was symbolically repeated in a parallel period of approximately 400 years during Christian history when the Christian empire under Charlemagne became divided east and west. This parallel providential period was part of the providential preparation for the future return of Christ.

the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, ‘The Lord God of Hosts says: “You shall surely drink.<sup>2529</sup> For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You will not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says The Lord God of Hosts.”’

<sup>2530</sup> “Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and tell them, “God will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation. He will mightily roar against his fold. He will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>2531</sup> A noise will come even to the end of the earth; for God has a controversy with the nations. He will enter into judgment with all flesh. As for the wicked, he will give them to the sword,” says God.”

<sup>2532</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says, “Behold, evil will go out from nation to nation, and a great storm will be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.”

<sup>2533</sup> The slain of God will be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They won’t be lamented. They won’t be gathered or buried. They will be dung on the surface of the ground.

<sup>2534</sup> Wail, you shepherds, and cry. Wallow in dust, you leader of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions have fully come, and you will fall like fine pottery.

<sup>2535</sup> The shepherds will have no way to flee. The leader of the flock will have no escape.

<sup>2537</sup> The peaceful folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of God.

<sup>2538</sup> He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAPTER 26

<sup>261</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from God: <sup>262</sup> “God says: ‘Stand in the court of God’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in God’s house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Don’t omit a word.<sup>263</sup> It may be they will listen, and every man turn from his evil way; that I may relent from the evil which I intend to do to them because of the evil of their doings.’<sup>264</sup> You shall tell them, “God says: ‘If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,<sup>265</sup> to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened;<sup>266</sup> then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.’”

<sup>267</sup> The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in God’s house.

<sup>268</sup> When Jeremiah had finished speaking all that God had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, “You shall surely die!<sup>269</sup> Why have you prophesied in God’s name, saying, ‘This house will be like Shiloh, and this city will be desolate, without inhabitant?’” All the people were crowded around Jeremiah in God’s house.

<sup>2610</sup> When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to God’s house; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of God’s house.<sup>2611</sup> Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying, “This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.”

<sup>2612</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, “God sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.<sup>2613</sup> Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey The lord your God’s voice; then God will relent from the evil that he has pronounced against you.<sup>2614</sup> But as for me, behold, I am in your hand. Do with me what is good and right in your eyes.

<sup>2615</sup> Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for in truth God has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

<sup>2616</sup> Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of The Lord our God.”

<sup>2617</sup> Then certain of the elders of the land rose up, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

<sup>2618</sup> “Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘The Lord God of Hosts says: “Zion will be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.’”

<sup>2619</sup> Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn’t he fear God, and entreat the favor of God, and God relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? We would commit great evil against our own souls that way!”

<sup>2620</sup> There was also a man who prophesied in God’s name, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.<sup>2621</sup> When Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt.<sup>2622</sup> Then Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt;<sup>2623</sup> and they fetched Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

<sup>2624</sup> But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they didn’t give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>27</sup><sup>8</sup> "It will happen that I will punish the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon," says God, 'with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.<sup>27</sup><sup>9</sup> But as for you, don't listen to your prophets, to your diviners, to your dreams, to your soothsayers, or to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, "You shall not serve the king of Babylon;"<sup>27</sup><sup>10</sup> for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, so that I would drive you out, and you would perish.<sup>27</sup><sup>11</sup> But the nation that brings their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, that nation I will let remain in their own land,' says God; 'and they will till it and dwell in it."

<sup>27</sup><sup>16</sup> Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, God says, "Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, 'Behold, the vessels of God's house will now shortly be brought again from Babylon;' for they prophesy a lie to you.<sup>27</sup><sup>17</sup> Don't listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city become a desolation?<sup>27</sup><sup>18</sup> But if they are prophets, and if God's word is with them, let them now make intercession to The Lord God of Hosts, that the vessels which are left in God's house, in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon.<sup>27</sup><sup>19</sup> For The Lord God of Hosts says concerning the pillars, concerning the sea, concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels that are left in this city,<sup>27</sup><sup>20</sup> which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;<sup>27</sup><sup>21</sup> yes, The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says concerning the vessels that are left in God's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem:<sup>27</sup><sup>22</sup> 'They will be carried to Babylon, and there they will be, until the day that I visit them,' says God; 'then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place."

CHAPTER 28

<sup>28</sup><sup>1</sup> That same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in God's house, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,<sup>28</sup><sup>2</sup> "The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.<sup>28</sup><sup>3</sup> Within two full years I will bring again into this place all the vessels of God's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon.<sup>28</sup><sup>4</sup> I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon,' says God; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

<sup>28</sup><sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in God's house,<sup>28</sup><sup>6</sup> even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May God do so. May God perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of God's house, and all those who are captives, from Babylon to this place.<sup>28</sup><sup>7</sup> Nevertheless listen now to this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people:<sup>28</sup><sup>8</sup> The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, of evil, and of pestilence.<sup>28</sup><sup>9</sup> The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet happens, then the prophet will be known, that God has truly sent him."<sup>28</sup><sup>10</sup> Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it.

<sup>28</sup><sup>11</sup> Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "God says: 'Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from off the neck of all the nations within two full years.'" Then the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

Babylon; and they will serve him. I have also given him the animals of the field."

<sup>28</sup><sup>15</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! God has not sent you, but you make this people trust in a lie."<sup>28</sup><sup>16</sup> Therefore God says, 'Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth. This year you will die, because you have spoken rebellion against God.'"<sup>28</sup><sup>17</sup>

<sup>28</sup><sup>17</sup> So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29

<sup>29</sup><sup>6</sup> Take wives and father sons and daughters. Take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there, and don't be diminished.<sup>29</sup><sup>7</sup> Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to God for it; for in its peace you will have peace."<sup>29</sup><sup>8</sup> For The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel says: "Don't let your prophets who are among you and your diviners deceive you. Don't listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed.

<sup>29</sup><sup>9</sup> For they prophesy falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them," says God.<sup>29</sup><sup>10</sup> For God says, "After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place."<sup>29</sup><sup>11</sup> For I know the thoughts that I think toward you," says God, "thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope and a future.<sup>29</sup><sup>12</sup> You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you.<sup>29</sup><sup>13</sup> You shall seek me, and find me, when you search for me with all your heart.<sup>29</sup><sup>14</sup> I will be found by you," says God, "and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says God. I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive."

of Hosts says: "Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like rotten figs that can't be eaten, they are so bad.<sup>29</sup><sup>18</sup> I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them,<sup>29</sup><sup>19</sup> because they have not listened to my words," says God, "with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear," says God.

The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: "Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he will kill them before your eyes.<sup>29</sup><sup>22</sup> A curse will be taken up about them by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, 'God make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;'<sup>29</sup><sup>23</sup> because they have done foolish things in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn't command them. I am he who knows, and am witness," says God.

CHAPTER 30

<sup>301</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from God, saying, <sup>302</sup> "God, the God of Israel, says, 'Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book.'<sup>303</sup> For, behold, the days come,' says God, 'that I will reverse the captivity of my people Israel and Judah,' says God. 'I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they will possess it.'"

<sup>304</sup> These are the words that God spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah.<sup>305</sup> For God says: "We have heard a voice of trembling; a voice of fear, and not of peace.

<sup>306</sup> Ask now, and see whether a man travails with child. Why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned pale?

<sup>307</sup> Alas, for that day is great, so that none is like it!
 It is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he will be saved out of it.

<sup>308</sup> It will come to pass in that day, says The Lord God of Hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds. Strangers will no more make them their bondservants;

<sup>309</sup> but they will serve The Lord their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them.

<sup>310</sup> Therefore don't be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says God. Don't be dismayed, Israel. For, behold, I will save you from afar, and save your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob will return, and will be quiet and at ease. No one will make him afraid.

<sup>311</sup> For I am with you, says God, to save you; for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished."

<sup>312</sup> For God says, "Your hurt is incurable. Your wound is grievous.<sup>313</sup> There is no one to plead your cause, that you may be bound up. You have no healing medicines.

<sup>314</sup> All your lovers have forgotten you. They don't seek you. For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased.

<sup>315</sup> Why do you cry over your injury? Your pain is incurable. For the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins have increased, I have done these things to you.

<sup>316</sup> Therefore all those who devour you will be devoured. All your adversaries, everyone of them, will go into captivity. Those who plunder you will be plunder. I will make all who prey on you become prey.

<sup>317</sup> For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds," says God; "because they have called you an outcast, saying, 'It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.'"

<sup>318</sup> God says: "Behold, I will reverse the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places. The city will be built on its own hill, and the palace will be inhabited in its own place.

<sup>3019</sup> Thanksgiving will proceed out of them with the voice of those who make merry. I will multiply them, and they will not be few; I will also glorify them, and they will not be small.

<sup>3020</sup> Their children also will be as before, and their congregation will be established before me. I will punish all who oppress them.

<sup>3021</sup> Their prince will be one of them, and their ruler will proceed from among them. I will cause him to draw near, and he will approach me; for who is he who has had boldness to approach me?" says God.

<sup>3022</sup> "You shall be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>3023</sup> Behold, God's storm, his wrath, has gone out, a sweeping storm: it will burst on the head of the wicked.

<sup>3024</sup> The fierce anger of God will not return until he has accomplished, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it."

CHAPTER 31

<sup>311</sup> "At that time," says God, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."

<sup>312</sup> God says, "The people who survive the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest."

<sup>313</sup> God appeared of old to me, saying, "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love. Therefore I have drawn you with loving kindness.

<sup>314</sup> I will build you again, and you will be built, O virgin of Israel. You will again be adorned with your tambourines, and will go out in the dances of those who make merry.

<sup>315</sup> Again you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria. The planters will plant, and will enjoy its fruit.<sup>316</sup> For there will be a day that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim cry, 'Arise! Let's go up to Zion to The Lord our God.'"

<sup>317</sup> For God says, "Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations. Publish, praise, and say, 'God, save your people, the remnant of Israel!'

<sup>318</sup> Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together.
 They will return as a great company.

<sup>319</sup> They will come with weeping. I will lead them with petitions. I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they won't stumble; for I am a father to Israel. Ephraim is my firstborn.

<sup>3110</sup> "Hear God's word, you nations, and declare it in the distant islands. Say, 'He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock.'

<sup>3111</sup> For God has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.

<sup>3112</sup> They will come and sing in the height of Zion, and will flow to the goodness of God, to the grain, to the new wine, to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd. Their soul will be as a watered garden.
 They will not sorrow any more at all.

<sup>31</sup><sup>13</sup> Then the virgin will rejoice in the dance; the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

<sup>31</sup><sup>14</sup> I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people will be satisfied with my goodness," says God.

<sup>31</sup><sup>16</sup> God says: "Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, for your work will be rewarded," says God. "They will come again from the land of the enemy.

<sup>31</sup><sup>17</sup> There is hope for your latter end," says God. "Your children will come again to their own territory. <sup>31</sup><sup>18</sup> "I have surely heard Ephraim grieving thus, 'You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf. Turn me, and I will be turned; for you are God my God.'

<sup>31</sup><sup>19</sup> Surely after that I was turned. I repented. After that I was instructed. I struck my thigh. I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth.'

<sup>31</sup><sup>20</sup> Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I still earnestly remember him. therefore my heart yearns for him. I will surely have mercy on him," says God.

<sup>31</sup><sup>21</sup> "Set up road signs. Make guideposts. Set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went. Turn again, virgin of Israel. Turn again to these your cities.

<sup>31</sup><sup>22</sup> How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? For God has created a new thing in the earth: a woman will encompass a man."

<sup>31</sup><sup>27</sup> "Behold, the days come," says God, "that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of animal.

<sup>31</sup><sup>28</sup> It will happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," says God. <sup>31</sup><sup>29</sup> "In those days they will say no more, "'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.'

<sup>31</sup><sup>30</sup> But everyone will die for his own iniquity. Every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge.

<sup>31</sup><sup>31</sup> "Behold, the days come," says God, "that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

<sup>31</sup><sup>32</sup> not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which covenant of mine they broke, although I was a husband to them," says God.

<sup>31</sup><sup>33</sup> "But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days," says God: "I will put my law in their inward parts, and I will write it in their heart. I will be their God, and they shall be my people." <sup>295</sup>

<sup>31</sup><sup>34</sup> They will no longer each teach his neighbor, and every man teach his brother, saying, 'Know God;' for they will all know me, from their least to their greatest," says God: "for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."

<sup>31</sup><sup>35</sup> God, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; The Lord God of Hosts is his name, says:

<sup>31</sup><sup>36</sup> "If these ordinances depart from before me," says God, "then the offspring of Israel also will cease from being a nation before me forever."

<sup>31</sup><sup>37</sup> God says: "If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the offspring of Israel for all that they have done," says God.

CHAPTER 32

God: "though you fight with the Chaldeans, you will not prosper?"

<sup>32</sup><sup>8</sup> "So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to God's word, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself.' "Then I knew that this was God's word.

<sup>32</sup><sup>16</sup> Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to God, saying,

<sup>32</sup><sup>39</sup> I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and the good of their children after them.

<sup>32</sup><sup>40</sup> I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good. I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me.

<sup>32</sup><sup>41</sup> Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul."

<sup>32</sup><sup>42</sup> For God says: "Just as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them." <sup>32</sup><sup>43</sup> Fields will be bought in this land, about which you say, 'It is desolate, without man or animal. It is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.' <sup>32</sup><sup>44</sup> Men will buy fields for money, sign the deeds, seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South; for I will cause their captivity to be reversed," says God.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>33</sup><sup>1</sup> Moreover God's word came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still locked up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>33</sup><sup>2</sup> "God who does it, God who forms it to establish it—God is his name, says: <sup>33</sup><sup>3</sup> 'Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and difficult things, which you don't know.' <sup>33</sup><sup>4</sup> For God, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword;" <sup>33</sup><sup>5</sup> while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city." <sup>33</sup><sup>6</sup> 'Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth.'

<sup>33</sup><sup>7</sup> I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. <sup>33</sup><sup>8</sup> I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against me. I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned against me and by which they have transgressed against me. <sup>33</sup><sup>9</sup> This city will be to me for a name of joy, for praise, and for glory, before all the nations of the earth, which will hear all the good that I do to them, and will fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I provide to it."

<sup>33</sup><sup>12</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "Yet again there will be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. <sup>33</sup><sup>13</sup> In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of him who counts them," says God.

<sup>33</sup><sup>14</sup> "Behold, the days come," says God, "that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah.

<sup>33</sup><sup>15</sup> "In those days and at that time, I will cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David. He will execute justice and righteousness in the land." <sup>296</sup>

<sup>33</sup><sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell safely. This is the name by which she will be called: God our righteousness."

CHAPTER 34

fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will make a burning for you. They will lament you, saying, "Ah Lord!" for I have spoken the word,' says God."

<sup>34</sup>6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,<sup>34</sup>7 when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.

<sup>34</sup>8 The word came to Jeremiah from God, after king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them;<sup>34</sup>9 that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that no one should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother.<sup>34</sup>10 All the princes and all the people obeyed who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant go free, that no one should make bondservants of them any more. They obeyed and let them go;<sup>34</sup>11 but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

<sup>34</sup>15 You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor. You had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name;<sup>34</sup>16 but you turned and profaned my name, and every man caused his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return. You brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids."

<sup>34</sup>17 Therefore God says: "You have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim to you a liberty," says God, "to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine. I will make you be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth.<sup>34</sup>18 I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts.<sup>34</sup>19 The princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf.<sup>34</sup>20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth.

<sup>34</sup>21 "I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hands of their enemies, into the hands of those who seek their life and into the hands of the king of Babylon's army, who has gone away from you.<sup>34</sup>22 Behold, I will command," says God, "and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it, take it, and burn it with fire. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

CHAPTER 35

<sup>35</sup>1 The word which came to Jeremiah from God in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,<sup>35</sup>2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into God's house, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink."

<sup>35</sup>3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, with his brothers, all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;<sup>35</sup>4 and I brought them into God's house, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaiah, the man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold.<sup>35</sup>5 I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine!"

<sup>35</sup>6 But they said, "We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever.'<sup>35</sup>7 You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, or have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, that you may live many days in the land in which you live as nomads."<sup>35</sup>8 We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters;<sup>35</sup>9 and not to build houses for ourselves to dwell in. We have no vineyard, field, or seed;<sup>35</sup>10 but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.<sup>35</sup>11 But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, 'Come! Let's go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we will dwell at Jerusalem.'"

<sup>35</sup>12 Then God's word came to Jeremiah, saying,<sup>35</sup>13 "The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?"' says God.<sup>35</sup>14 "The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment; but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking, and you have not listened to me.<sup>35</sup>15 I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, 'Every one of you must return now from his evil way, amend your doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, then you will dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers:' but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me.<sup>35</sup>16 The sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me.”

<sup>35</sup><sup>17</sup> “Therefore God, the Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.’”

<sup>35</sup><sup>18</sup> Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you;’ <sup>35</sup><sup>19</sup> therefore The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to stand before me forever.’”<sup>297</sup>

<sup>36</sup><sup>11</sup> When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all God’s words, <sup>36</sup><sup>12</sup> he went down into the king’s house, into the scribe’s room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. <sup>36</sup><sup>13</sup> Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. <sup>36</sup><sup>14</sup> Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, “Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come.” So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. <sup>36</sup><sup>15</sup> They said to him, “Sit down now, and read it in our hearing.” So Baruch read it in their hearing.

<sup>36</sup><sup>16</sup> Now when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, “We will surely tell the king of all these words.”

cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.<sup>36</sup><sup>31</sup> I will punish him, his offspring, and his servants for their iniquity. I will bring on them, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen."

<sup>36</sup><sup>32</sup> Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

CHAPTER 37

<sup>37</sup><sup>4</sup> Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.

<sup>37</sup><sup>5</sup> Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem.

<sup>37</sup><sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah said, "That is false! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans." But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah seized Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.<sup>37</sup><sup>15</sup> The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

his house, "Is there any word from God?" Jeremiah said, "There is." He also said, "You will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon."

<sup>37</sup><sup>18</sup> Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "How have I sinned against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?

<sup>37</sup><sup>19</sup> Now where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you, nor against this land?'

<sup>37</sup><sup>20</sup> Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

<sup>37</sup><sup>21</sup> Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard. They gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

CHAPTER 38

<sup>38</sup><sup>4</sup> Then the princes said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but harm."

<sup>38</sup><sup>6</sup> Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard. They let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

<sup>38</sup><sup>11</sup> So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

"Now put these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords."

Jeremiah did so.<sup>3813</sup> So they lifted Jeremiah up with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon; and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

<sup>3814</sup> Then Zedekiah the king sent and took Jeremiah the prophet to himself into the third entry that is in God's house. Then the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me."

<sup>3815</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? If I give you counsel, you will not listen to me."

<sup>3816</sup> So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As God lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

<sup>3817</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "God, the Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you will go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul will live, and this city will not be burned with fire. You will live, along with your house.'<sup>3818</sup> But if you will not go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you won't escape out of their hand."

<sup>3819</sup> Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me."

<sup>3820</sup> But Jeremiah said, "They won't deliver you. Obey, I beg you, God's voice, in that which I speak to you; so it will be well with you, and your soul will live.<sup>3821</sup> But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that God has shown me:<sup>3822</sup> 'Behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house will be brought out to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women will say, "Your familiar friends have turned on you, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away from you."

<sup>3823</sup> They will bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans. You won't escape out of their hand, but will be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. You will cause this city to be burned with fire.'

<sup>3824</sup> Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you won't die.<sup>3825</sup> But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also tell us what the king said to you,'<sup>3826</sup> then you shall tell them, 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.'

<sup>3827</sup> Then all the princes came to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

<sup>3828</sup> So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER 39

<sup>392</sup> In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city.<sup>393</sup> All the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.<sup>394</sup> When Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah.

<sup>395</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. When they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he pronounced judgment on him.

<sup>396</sup> Then the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons in Riblah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also killed all the nobles of Judah.<sup>397</sup> Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

<sup>398</sup> The Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.<sup>399</sup> Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained.<sup>3910</sup> But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

<sup>3913</sup> So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, with Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon;<sup>3914</sup> they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home. So he lived among the people.

<sup>3915</sup> Now God's word came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying,<sup>3916</sup> "Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, 'The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they will be accomplished before you in that day.'

<sup>3917</sup> But I will deliver you in that day," says God; "and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

<sup>39</sup><sup>18</sup> For I will surely save you, and you won't fall by the sword, but you will escape with your life; because you have put your trust in me," says God."<sup>298</sup>

CHAPTER 40

<sup>40</sup><sup>1</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from God, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.

<sup>40</sup><sup>2</sup> The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, "The lord your God pronounced this evil on this place;<sup>40</sup><sup>3</sup> and God has brought it, and done according as he spoke. Because you have sinned against God, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you.<sup>299</sup>

<sup>40</sup><sup>4</sup> Now, behold, I release you today from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don't. Behold, all the land is before you. Where it seems good and right to you to go, there go."<sup>40</sup><sup>5</sup> Now while he had not yet gone back, "Go back then," he said, "to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go.<sup>40</sup><sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

<sup>40</sup><sup>7</sup> Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon;<sup>40</sup><sup>8</sup> then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men came to Gedaliah to Mizpah.

<sup>40</sup><sup>11</sup> Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan;<sup>40</sup><sup>12</sup> then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered very much wine and summer fruits.

<sup>40</sup><sup>13</sup> Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,<sup>40</sup><sup>14</sup> and said to him, "Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn't believe them.

<sup>40</sup><sup>15</sup> Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man will know it. Why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?"

<sup>40</sup><sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

CHAPTER 41

<sup>41</sup><sup>1</sup> Now in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah.

<sup>41</sup><sup>8</sup> But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey." So he stopped, and didn't kill them among their brothers.<sup>41</sup><sup>9</sup> Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (this was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed.

Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.

<sup>411</sup> But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, <sup>412</sup> then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. <sup>413</sup> Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. <sup>414</sup> So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. <sup>415</sup> But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.

<sup>416</sup> Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, with the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon.

<sup>417</sup> They departed and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt. <sup>418</sup> because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>421</sup> Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiyah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, <sup>422</sup> and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to The lord your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes see us; <sup>423</sup> that The lord your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the things that we should do."

<sup>424</sup> Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. Behold, I will pray to The lord your God according to your words; and it will happen that whatever thing God answers you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you."

<sup>425</sup> Then they said to Jeremiah, "May God be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which The lord your God sends you to tell us. <sup>426</sup> Whether it is good, or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of The Lord our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of The Lord our God."

<sup>428</sup> Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, <sup>429</sup> and said to them, "God, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him, says: <sup>4210</sup> 'If you will still live in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you.' <sup>4211</sup> Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Don't be afraid of him,' says God: 'for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.' <sup>4212</sup> I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.

<sup>4213</sup> "But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land;' so that you don't obey The lord your God's voice, <sup>4214</sup> saying, "No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we will see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there we will dwell." <sup>4215</sup> now therefore hear God's word, O remnant of Judah: The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says, 'If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there,' <sup>4216</sup> then it will happen that the sword, which you fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, will follow close behind you there in Egypt; and you will die there. <sup>4217</sup> So will it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there. They will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. None of them will remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.' <sup>4218</sup> For The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'As my anger and my wrath has been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you, when you enter into Egypt; and you will be an object of horror, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you will see this place no more.'

<sup>4219</sup> "God has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, 'Don't go into Egypt!' Know certainly that I have testified to you today. <sup>4220</sup> For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to The lord your God, saying, 'Pray for us to The Lord our God; and according to all that The Lord our God says, so declare to us, and we will do it.'

<sup>4221</sup> I have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed The lord your God's voice in anything for which he has sent me to you. <sup>4222</sup> Now therefore know certainly that you will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence in the place where you desire to go to live there."

CHAPTER 43

<sup>431</sup> When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of The Lord their God, with which The Lord their God had sent him to them, even all these words, <sup>432</sup> then Azariah the son of Hoshaiyah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely. The Lord our God has not sent you to say, 'You shall not go into Egypt to live there'; <sup>433</sup> but Baruch the son of Neriah has turned you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon."

<sup>434</sup> So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey God's voice, to dwell in the land of Judah.<sup>435</sup> But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who had returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah;<sup>436</sup> the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah;<sup>437</sup> and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey God's voice: and they came to Tahpanhes.

CHAPTER 44

<sup>441</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying,<sup>442</sup> "The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah. Behold, today they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them,'<sup>443</sup> because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods that they didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers.<sup>444</sup> However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, 'Oh, don't do this abominable thing that I hate.'<sup>445</sup> But they didn't listen and didn't incline their ear. They didn't turn from their wickedness, to stop burning incense to other gods.<sup>446</sup> Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is today.'

<sup>447</sup> "Therefore now God, the Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the middle of Judah, to leave yourselves no one remaining;<sup>448</sup> in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?<sup>449</sup> Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?<sup>4410</sup> They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.'

<sup>4411</sup> "Therefore The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah.'<sup>4412</sup> I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they will all be consumed. They will fall in the land of Egypt. They will be consumed by the sword and by the famine. They will die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine. They will be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.<sup>4413</sup> For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence;<sup>4414</sup> so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, will escape or be left to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there; for no one will return except those who will escape."

<sup>4415</sup> Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,<sup>4416</sup> "As for the word that you have spoken to us in God's name, we will not listen to you.<sup>4417</sup> But we will certainly perform every word that has gone out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil.<sup>4418</sup> But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine."

<sup>4419</sup> The women said, "When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?"

<sup>4420</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying,<sup>4421</sup> "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, didn't God remember them, and didn't it come into his mind?

<sup>4422</sup> Thus God could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed. Therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is today.<sup>4423</sup> Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against God, and have not obeyed God's voice, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is today.”<sup>300</sup>

<sup>4424</sup> Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Hear God's word, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt!<sup>4425</sup> The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says, ‘You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, “We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her.” “Establish then your vows, and perform your vows.’

<sup>4426</sup> “Therefore hear God's word, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: ‘Behold, I have sworn by my great name,’ says God, ‘that my name will no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord God lives.”’<sup>4427</sup> Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone.<sup>4428</sup> Those who escape the sword will return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah few in number. All the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, will know whose word will stand, mine or theirs.

<sup>4429</sup> “This will be the sign to you,” says God, ‘that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words will surely stand against you for evil.’<sup>4430</sup> God says, ‘Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.’”

CHAPTER 45

<sup>451</sup> The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
<sup>452</sup> “God, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch:
<sup>453</sup> ‘You said, “Woe is me now! For God has added sorrow to my pain! I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.”’

<sup>454</sup> “You shall tell him, God says: ‘Behold, that which I have built, I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land.
<sup>455</sup> Do you seek great things for yourself? Don't seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh,’ says God; ‘but I will let you escape with your life wherever you go.’”

CHAPTER 46

<sup>462</sup> Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necoh king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.

<sup>465</sup> Why have I seen it? They are dismayed and are turned backward. Their mighty ones are beaten down, have fled in haste, and don't look back. Terror is on every side,” says God.

<sup>467</sup> “Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers?

<sup>468</sup> Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers. He says, ‘I will rise up. I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and its inhabitants.’

<sup>469</sup> Go up, you horses! Rage, you chariots! Let the mighty men go out: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow.

<sup>4610</sup> For that day is of the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge himself of his adversaries. The sword will devour and be satiated, and will drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

<sup>4611</sup> Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt. You use many medicines in vain. There is no healing for you.

<sup>4612</sup> The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they both fall together.”

<sup>4613</sup> The word that God spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt:

<sup>4616</sup> He made many to stumble. Yes, they fell on one another. They said, ‘Arise! Let's go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword.’

<sup>4617</sup> They cried there, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by.’

<sup>4618</sup> “As I live,” says the King, whose name is The Lord God of Hosts, “surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so he will come.”

46:19 You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis will become a desolation, and will be burned up, without inhabitant.

46:20 "Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north has come. It has come.

46:21 Also her hired men in the middle of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back. They have fled away together. They didn't stand, for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation.

46:22 Its sound will go like the serpent; for they will march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters.

46:23 They will cut down her forest," says God, "though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable.

46:24 The daughter of Egypt will be disappointed; she will be delivered into the hand of the people of the north."

46:25 The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods and her kings, even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him." 46:26 I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants. Afterwards it will be inhabited, as in the days of old," says God.

46:27 "But don't you be afraid, Jacob my servant. Don't be dismayed, Israel; for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob will return, and will be quiet and at ease. No one will make him afraid.

46:28 Don't be afraid, O Jacob my servant," says God; "for I am with you; for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished."

CHAPTER 47

47:1 God's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza.

47:2 God says: "Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and will become an overflowing stream, and will overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein. The men will cry, and all the inhabitants of the land will wail.

47:3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers don't look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

47:4 because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains; for God will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor.

47:5 Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself?

47:6 "Your sword of God, how long will it be before you are quiet? Put yourself back into your scabbard; rest, and be still."

47:7 "How can you be quiet, since God has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there he has appointed it."

CHAPTER 48

48:1 Of Moab. The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Woe to Nebo! For it is laid waste. Kiriathaim is disappointed. It is taken. Misgab is put to shame and broken down.

48:2 The praise of Moab is no more. In Heshbon they have devised evil against her: 'Come! Let's cut her off from being a nation.' You also, Madmen, will be brought to silence. The sword will pursue you.

48:3 The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction!

48:4 Moab is destroyed. Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

48:5 For they will go up by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping. For at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction.

48:6 Flee! Save your lives! Be like the juniper bush in the wilderness.

48:7 For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also will be taken. Chemosh will go out into captivity, his priests and his princes together.

48:8 The destroyer will come on every city, and no city will escape; the valley also will perish, and the plain will be destroyed; as God has spoken.

48:9 Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get herself away: and her cities will become a desolation, without anyone to dwell in them.

48:10 "Cursed is he who does the work of God negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

48:11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed.

48:12 Therefore behold, the days come," says God, "that I will send to him those who pour off, and they will pour him off; and they will empty his vessels, and break their containers in pieces.

48:13 Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

48:14 "How do you say, 'We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war'?

48:15 Moab is laid waste, and they have gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter," says the King, whose name is The Lord God of Hosts.

48:16 "The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast.

48:17 All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, 'How the strong staff is broken, the beautiful rod!'

48:18 "You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you. He has destroyed your strongholds.

48:19 Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way and watch. Ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, 'What has been done?'

48:20 Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down. Wail and cry! Tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

48:21 Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, on Jahzah, on Mephaath,

48:22 on Dibon, on Nebo, on Beth Diblathaim,

48:23 on Kiriathaim, on Beth Gamul, on Beth Meon,

48:24 on Kerioth, on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

48:25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says God.

48:26 "Make him drunken; for he magnified himself against God. Moab will wallow in his vomit, and he also will be in derision.

48:27 For wasn't Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head.

48:28 You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock. Be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss.

48:29 "We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud in his loftiness, his pride, his arrogance, and the arrogance of his heart.

48:30 I know his wrath," says God, "that it is nothing; his boastings have done nothing.

48:31 Therefore I will wail for Moab. Yes, I will cry out for all Moab. They will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.

48:32 With more than the weeping of Jazer I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah. Your branches passed over the sea. They reached even to the sea of Jazer. The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruits and on your vintage.

48:33 Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab. I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses. No one will tread with shouting. The shouting will be no shouting.

48:34 From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz they have uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for the waters of Nimrim will also become desolate.

48:35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab," says God, "him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods.

48:36 Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres. Therefore the abundance that he has gotten has perished.

48:37 For every head is bald, and every beard clipped. There are cuttings on all the hands, and sackcloth on the waist.

48:38 On all the housetops of Moab, and in its streets, there is lamentation everywhere; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which no one delights," says God.

48:39 "How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So will Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him."

48:40 For God says: "Behold, he will fly as an eagle, and will spread out his wings against Moab.

48:41 Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized. The heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

48:42 Moab will be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against God.

48:43 Terror, the pit, and the snare are on you, inhabitant of Moab," says God.

48:44 "He who flees from the terror will fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit will be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation," says God.

48:45 "Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire has gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the middle of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh are undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity.

48:47 "Yet I will reverse the captivity of Moab in the latter days," says God. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER 49

49:1 Of the children of Ammon. God says: "Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?

49:2 Therefore behold, the days come," says God, "that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it will become a desolate heap, and her daughters will be burned with fire: then Israel will possess those who possessed him," says God.

49:3 "Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry, you daughters of Rabbah! Clothe yourself in sackcloth. Lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam will go into captivity, his priests and his princes together.

49:4 Why do you boast in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? You trusted in her treasures, saying, 'Who will come to me?'

49:5 Behold, I will bring a terror on you," says the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, "from all who are around you. All of you will be driven completely out, and there will be no one to gather together the fugitives.

49:6 "But afterward I will reverse the captivity of the children of Ammon," says God.

49:7 Of Edom, The Lord God of Hosts says: "Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished?

49:8 Flee! Turn back! Dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him when I visit him.

49:9 If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves came by night, wouldn't they steal until they had enough?

49:10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he will not be able to hide himself.

His offspring is destroyed, with his brothers and his neighbors; and he is no more.

49:11 Leave your fatherless children. I will preserve them alive. Let your widows trust in me."

49:12 For God says: "Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup will certainly drink; and are you he who will altogether go unpunished? You won't go unpunished, but you will surely drink." 49:13 For I have sworn by myself," says God, "that Bozrah will become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. All its cities will be perpetual wastes."

49:14 I have heard news from God, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Gather yourselves together! Come against her! Rise up to the battle!"

49:15 "For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men.

49:16 As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill, though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," says God.

49:17 "Edom will become an astonishment. Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will hiss at all its plagues.

49:18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities," says God, "no man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein."

49:19 "Behold, he will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it. For who is like me? Who will appoint me a time? Who is the shepherd who will stand before me?"

49:20 Therefore hear the counsel of God, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they will drag them away, the little ones of the flock. Surely he will make their habitation desolate over them.

49:21 The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea.

49:22 Behold, he will come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah. The heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. 49:23 Of Damascus: "Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news. They have melted away. There is sorrow on the sea. It can't be quiet." 49:24 Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized her. Anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail.

49:25 How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy?

49:26 Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says The Lord God of Hosts.

49:27 "I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad."

49:28 Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck, God says:

"Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east.

49:29 They will take their tents and their flocks. they will carry away for themselves their curtains, all their vessels, and their camels; and they will cry to them, 'Terror on every side!'

49:30 Flee! Wander far off! Dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor," says God; "for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you.

49:31 Arise! Go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care," says God; "that has neither gates nor bars, that dwells alone.

49:32 Their camels will be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a plunder. I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them," says God.

49:33 Hazor will be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever. No man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein."

49:34 God's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

49:35 "The Lord God of Hosts says: 'Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.'

49:36 I will bring on Elam the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds. There will be no nation where the outcasts of Elam will not come.

49:37 I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life. I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger,' says God; 'and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.

49:38 I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes,' says God.

49:39 'But it will happen in the latter days that I will reverse the captivity of Elam,' says God."

CHAPTER 50

50:1 The word that God spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.

50:2 "Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and don't conceal: say, 'Babylon has been taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed! Her images are disappointed. Her idols are dismayed.'

50:3 For a nation comes up out of the north against her, which will make her land desolate, and no one will dwell in it. They have fled. They are gone, both man and animal.

50:4 "In those days, and in that time," says God, "the children of Israel will come, they and the children of Judah together; they will go on their way weeping, and will seek The Lord their God.

50:5 They will inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, 'Come, and join yourselves to God in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.'

<sup>506</sup> My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have caused them to go astray. They have turned them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill. They have forgotten their resting place.

<sup>507</sup> All who found them have devoured them. Their adversaries said, 'We are not guilty, because they have sinned against God, the habitation of righteousness, even God, the hope of their fathers.'

<sup>508</sup> "Flee out of the middle of Babylon! Go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks.

<sup>509</sup> For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they will set themselves in array against her. She will be taken from there. Their arrows will be as of an expert mighty man. None of them will return in vain.

<sup>510</sup> Chaldea<sup>301</sup> will be a prey. All who prey on her will be satisfied," says God.

<sup>511</sup> "Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses;

<sup>512</sup> your mother will be utterly disappointed. She who bore you will be confounded. Behold, she will be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

<sup>513</sup> Because of God's wrath she won't be inhabited, but she will be wholly desolate. Everyone who goes by Babylon will be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

<sup>514</sup> Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her. Spare no arrows; for she has sinned against God.

<sup>515</sup> Shout against her all around. She has submitted herself. Her bulwarks have fallen. Her walls have been thrown down, for it is the vengeance of God. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, do to her.

<sup>516</sup> Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest. For fear of the oppressing sword, they will each return to their own people, and they will each flee to their own land.

<sup>517</sup> "Israel is a hunted sheep. The lions have driven him away. First, the king of Assyria devoured him, and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."

<sup>518</sup> Therefore The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>519</sup> I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan. His soul will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.

<sup>520</sup> In those days, and in that time," says God, "the iniquity of Israel will be sought for, and there will be none, also the sins of Judah, and they won't be found; for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.

and utterly destroy after them," says God, "and do according to all that I have commanded you.

<sup>523</sup> How the hammer of the whole earth is cut apart and broken! How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!

<sup>524</sup> I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware. You are found, and also caught, because you have fought against God.<sup>302</sup>

<sup>525</sup> God has opened his armory, and has brought out the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

<sup>527</sup> Kill all her bulls. Let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their visitation.

<sup>528</sup> Listen to those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of The Lord our God, the vengeance of his temple.

<sup>529</sup> "Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow. Encamp against her all around. Let none of it escape. Pay her back according to her work. According to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against God, against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>530</sup> Therefore her young men will fall in her streets. All her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says God.

<sup>531</sup> "Behold, I am against you, you proud one," says the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts; "for your day has come, the time that I will visit you.

<sup>532</sup> The proud one will stumble and fall, and no one will raise him up. I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all who are around him."

<sup>534</sup> Their Redeemer is strong: The Lord God of Hosts is his name. He will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

<sup>536</sup> A drought is on her waters, and they will be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols.<sup>303</sup> Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves will dwell there. The ostriches will dwell therein; and it will be inhabited no more forever; neither will it be lived in from generation to generation.

50:40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities," says God, "so no man will dwell there, neither will any son of man live therein.

50:41 "Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth.

50:42 They take up bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea. They ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon.

50:43 The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor.

50:44 Behold, the enemy will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation; for I will suddenly make them run away from it. Whoever is chosen, I will appoint him over it; for who is like me? Who will appoint me a time? Who is the shepherd who can stand before me?"

50:45 Therefore hear the counsel of God, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they will drag them away, even the little ones of the flock. Surely he will make their habitation desolate over them.50:46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles; and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER 51

51:1 God says: "Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind.51:2 I will send to Babylon strangers, who will winnow her. They will empty her land; for in the day of trouble they will be against her all around.

51:3 Against him who bends, let the archer bend his bow, also against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail. Don't spare her young men! Utterly destroy all her army!

51:4 They will fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.

51:5 For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, by his God, by The Lord God of Hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

51:6 "Flee out of the middle of Babylon! Everyone save his own life! Don't be cut off in her iniquity; for it is the time of God's vengeance. He will render to her a recompense.

51:7 Babylon has been a golden cup in God's hand, who made all the earth drunk. The nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations have gone mad.

51:8 Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed! Wail for her! Take balm for her pain. Perhaps she may be healed.

51:9 "We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed. Forsake her, and let's each go into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

51:10 'God has produced our righteousness: come, and let's declare in Zion the work of The Lord our God.'

51:11 "Make the arrows sharp! Hold the shields firmly! God has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it; for it is the vengeance of God, the vengeance of his temple.

51:12 Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon! Make the watch strong! Set the watchmen, and prepare the ambushes; for God has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.51:13 You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness.

51:14 The Lord God of Hosts has sworn by himself, saying, 'Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they will lift up a shout against you.'

51:15 "He has made the earth by his power. He has established the world by his wisdom. By his understanding he has stretched out the heavens.

51:16 When he utters his voice, there is a roar of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning for the rain, and brings the wind out of his treasures.

51:17 "Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.51:18 They are vanity, a work of delusion. In the time of their visitation, they will perish.51:19 The portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the former of all things; including the tribe of his inheritance: The Lord God of Hosts is his name.

51:20 "You are my battle ax and weapons of war. With you I will break the nations into pieces. With you I will destroy kingdoms.51:21 With you I will break in pieces the horse and his rider.51:22 With you I will break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein. With you I will break in pieces man and woman. With you I will break in pieces the old man and the youth. With you I will break in pieces the young man and the virgin.

51:23 With you I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock. With you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke. With you I will break in pieces governors and deputies.

51:24 "I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight," says God.

51:25 "Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain," says God, "which destroys all the earth. I will stretch out my hand on you, roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burned mountain.

51:26 They won't take a cornerstone from you, nor a stone for foundations; but you will be desolate forever," says God.51:27 "Set up a standard in the land! Blow the trumpet among the nations! Prepare the nations against her! Call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz! Appoint a marshal against her! Cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm!51:28 Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion!"

<sup>51:29</sup> The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of God against Babylon stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

<sup>51:30</sup> The mighty men of Babylon have stopped fighting, they remain in their strongholds. Their might has failed. They have become as women. Her dwelling places are set on fire. Her bars are broken.

<sup>51:31</sup> One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter.

<sup>51:32</sup> So the passages are seized. They have burned the reeds with fire. The men of war are frightened."

<sup>51:34</sup> "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me. He has crushed me. He has made me an empty vessel. He has, like a monster, swallowed me up. He has filled his mouth with my delicacies. He has cast me out." <sup>51:35</sup> May the violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon!" the inhabitant of Zion will say; and, "May my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea!" will Jerusalem say.

<sup>51:36</sup> Therefore God says: "Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry.

<sup>51:39</sup> When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says God.

<sup>51:40</sup> "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

<sup>51:41</sup> "How Sheshach is taken! How the praise of the whole earth is seized! How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!

<sup>51:42</sup> The sea has come up on Babylon. She is covered with the multitude of its waves.

<sup>51:43</sup> Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells. No son of man passes by it.

<sup>51:44</sup> I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up. The nations will not flow any more to him. Yes, the wall of Babylon will fall.

<sup>51:45</sup> "My people, go away from the middle of her, and each of you save yourselves from God's fierce anger.

<sup>51:46</sup> Don't let your heart faint. Don't fear for the news that will be heard in the land. For news will come one year, and after that in another year news will come, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

<sup>51:47</sup> Therefore behold, the days come that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land will be confounded. All her slain will fall in the middle of her.

<sup>51:48</sup> Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, will sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers will come to her from the north," says God.

<sup>51:49</sup> "As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so the slain of all the land will fall at Babylon.

<sup>51:50</sup> You who have escaped the sword, go! Don't stand still! Remember God from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind."

<sup>51:51</sup> "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach. Confusion has covered our faces, for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of God's house." <sup>51:52</sup> "Therefore behold, the days come," says God, "that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded will groan." <sup>51:53</sup> Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet destroyers will come to her from me," says God. <sup>51:54</sup> "The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!" <sup>51:55</sup> For God lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice! Their waves roar like many waters. The noise of their voice is uttered.

<sup>51:56</sup> For the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon. Her mighty men are taken. Their bows are broken in pieces, for God is a God of retribution. He will surely repay. <sup>51:57</sup> I will make her princes, her wise men, her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men drunk. They will sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says the King, whose name is The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>51:58</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "The wide walls of Babylon will be utterly overthrown. Her high gates will be burned with fire. The peoples will labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they will be weary."

<sup>51:59</sup> The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. <sup>51:60</sup> Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. <sup>51:61</sup> Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, <sup>51:62</sup> and say, 'God, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one will dwell in it, neither man nor animal, but that it will be desolate forever.' <sup>51:63</sup> It will be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates. <sup>51:64</sup> Then you shall say, 'Thus will Babylon sink, and will not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they will be weary.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER 52

<sup>52:1</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign. He reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>52:2</sup> He did that which was evil in God's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>52:3</sup> For through God's anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

<sup>52:4</sup> In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.<sup>525</sup> So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

<sup>526</sup> In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.<sup>527</sup> Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. Now the Chaldeans were against the city all around. The men of war went toward the Arabah,<sup>528</sup> but the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.<sup>529</sup> Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he pronounced judgment on him.<sup>5210</sup> The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

<sup>5211</sup> He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

<sup>5212</sup> Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem.<sup>5213</sup> He burned God's house, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire.<sup>5214</sup> All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.<sup>5215</sup> Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude.<sup>5216</sup> But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers.

<sup>5217</sup> The Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were in God's house, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in God's house in pieces, and carried all of their bronze to Babylon.<sup>5218</sup> They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered.<sup>5219</sup> The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lamp stands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver.

<sup>5220</sup> They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for God's house. The bronze of all these vessels was without weight.<sup>5221</sup> As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow.

<sup>5222</sup> A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze:

and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates.

<sup>5223</sup> There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around.

<sup>5224</sup> The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold.<sup>5225</sup> and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city.<sup>5226</sup> Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.<sup>5227</sup> The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.<sup>5228</sup> This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Jews;

<sup>5229</sup> in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons;

<sup>5230</sup> in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five people: all the people were four thousand six hundred.

<sup>5231</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and released him from prison.<sup>5232</sup> He spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon,<sup>5233</sup> and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life.<sup>5234</sup> For his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

CHAPTER 1

11 How the city sits solitary, that was full of people!
She has become as a widow,
who was great among the nations!
She who was a princess among the provinces has become a slave!

12 She weeps bitterly in the night.
Her tears are on her cheeks.
Among all her lovers
she has no one to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her.
They have become her enemies.

13 Judah has gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude.
She dwells among the nations.
She finds no rest.
All her persecutors overtook her within the straits.

14 The roads to Zion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn assembly.
All her gates are desolate.
Her priests sigh.
Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

15 Her adversaries have become the head.
Her enemies prosper;
for God has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions.
Her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary.

16 All majesty has departed from the daughter of Zion.
Her princes have become like deer that find no pasture.
They have gone without strength before the pursuer.

17 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries
all her pleasant things that were from the days of old;
when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her.
The adversaries saw her.
They mocked at her desolations.

18 Jerusalem has grievously sinned.
Therefore she has become unclean.
All who honored her despise her,
because they have seen her nakedness.
Yes, she sighs, and turns backward.

19 Her filthiness was in her skirts.
She didn't remember her latter end.
Therefore she has come down astoundingly.
She has no comforter.
“See, God, my affliction;
for the enemy has magnified himself.”

10 The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things; for she has seen that the nations have entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

11 All her people sigh.
They seek bread.
They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh their soul.
“Look, God, and see;
for I have become despised.”

12 “Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
which is brought on me, with which God has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 “From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them.
He has spread a net for my feet.
He has turned me back.
He has made me desolate and I faint all day long.

14 “The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand.
They are knit together.
They have come up on my neck.
He made my strength fail.
The Lord has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

15 “The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men within me.
He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men.
The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah as in a wine press.

16 “For these things I weep.
My eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me.
My children are desolate,
because the enemy has prevailed.”

17 Zion spreads out her hands.
There is no one to comfort her.
God has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries.
Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

18 “God is righteous;
for I have rebelled against his commandment.
Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow.
My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

19 “I called for my lovers, but they deceived me.
My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, while they sought food for themselves to refresh their souls.

20 “Look, God; for I am in distress.
My heart is troubled.
My heart turns over within me,
for I have grievously rebelled.
Abroad, the sword bereaves.
At home, it is like death.

21 “They have heard that I sigh.
There is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble.
They are glad that you have done it.
You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they will be like me.

22 “Let all their wickedness come before you.
Do to them as you have done to me for all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER 2

21 How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!
He has cast the beauty of Israel down from heaven to the earth, and hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

22 The Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob without pity.
He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah.
He has brought them down to the ground.
He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

23 He has cut off all the horn of Israel in fierce anger.
He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy. He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around.

24 He has bent his bow like an enemy.
He has stood with his right hand as an adversary.
He has killed all that were pleasant to the eye.
In the tent of the daughter of Zion, he has poured out his wrath like fire.

25 The Lord has become as an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces.
He has destroyed his strongholds.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.

26 He has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were a garden.
He has destroyed his place of assembly.

God has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion.
In the indignation of his anger, he has despised the king and the priest.

27 The Lord has cast off his altar.
He has abhorred his sanctuary.
He has given the walls of her palaces into the hand of the enemy.
They have made a noise in God's house,
as in the day of a solemn assembly.

28 God has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
He has stretched out the line.
He has not withdrawn his hand from destroying;
He has made the rampart and wall lament.
They languish together.

29 Her gates have sunk into the ground.
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not.
Yes, her prophets find no vision from God.

210 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground.
They keep silence.
They have cast up dust on their heads.
They have clothed themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

211 My eyes fail with tears.
My heart is troubled.
My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.

212 They ask their mothers,
“Where is grain and wine?”
when they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul is poured out into their mothers’ bosom.

213 What shall I testify to you?
What shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion?
For your breach is as big as the sea.
Who can heal you?

214 Your prophets have seen false and foolish visions for you.
They have not uncovered your iniquity,
to reverse your captivity, but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment.

215 All that pass by clap their hands at you.

They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, "Is this the city that men called 'The perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth'?"

216 All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you.

They hiss and gnash their teeth.

They say, "We have swallowed her up.

Certainly this is the day that we looked for.

We have found it. We have seen it."

217 God has done that which he planned.

He has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old.

He has thrown down, and has not pitied.

He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you.

He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

218 Their heart cried to the Lord.

O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night. Give yourself no relief. Don't let your eyes rest.

219 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

220 "Look, God, and see to whom you have done thus! Should the women eat their offspring, the children that they held and bounced on their knees? Should the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

221 "The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets.

My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword. You have killed them in the day of your anger. You have slaughtered, and not pitied.

222 "You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side. There was no one that escaped or remained in the day of God's anger. My enemy has consumed those whom I have cared for and brought up.

CHAPTER 3

31 I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

32 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.

33 Surely he turns his hand against me again and again all day long.

34 He has made my flesh and my skin old.

He has broken my bones.

35 He has built against me, and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

36 He has made me dwell in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

37 He has walled me about, so that I can't go out.

He has made my chain heavy.

38 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

39 He has walled up my ways with cut stone.

He has made my paths crooked.

40 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.

41 He has turned away my ways, and pulled me in pieces. He has made me desolate.

42 He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

43 He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my kidneys.

44 I have become a derision to all my people, and their song all day long.

45 He has filled me with bitterness. He has stuffed me with wormwood.

46 He has also broken my teeth with gravel.

He has covered me with ashes.

47 You have removed my soul far away from peace. I forgot prosperity.

48 I said, "My strength has perished, along with my expectation from God."

49 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the bitterness.

50 My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me.

51 This I recall to my mind; therefore I have hope.

52 It is because of God's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail.

53 They are new every morning.

Great is your faithfulness.

54 "God is my portion," says my soul. "Therefore I will hope in him."

55 God is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him.

56 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of God.

57 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

58 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him.

59 Let him put his mouth in the dust, if it is so that there may be hope.

60 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him. Let him be filled full of reproach.

61 For the Lord will not cast off forever.

62 For though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.<sup>63</sup> For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.<sup>64</sup> To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,<sup>65</sup> to turn away the right of a man before the face of the Most High,<sup>66</sup> to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord doesn't approve.

67 Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord doesn't command it?

68 Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?

<sup>339</sup> Why does a living man complain,
a man for the punishment of his sins?
<sup>340</sup> Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to God.
<sup>341</sup> Let's lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.
<sup>342</sup> "We have transgressed and have rebelled.
You have not pardoned.
<sup>343</sup> "You have covered us with anger and pursued us.
You have killed. You have not pitied.
<sup>344</sup> You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.
<sup>345</sup> You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the middle of the peoples.
<sup>346</sup> "All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.
<sup>347</sup> Terror and the pit have come on us, devastation and destruction."
<sup>348</sup> My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
<sup>349</sup> My eye pours down and doesn't cease, without any intermission, <sup>350</sup> until God looks down, and sees from heaven.
<sup>351</sup> My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.
<sup>352</sup> They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause.
<sup>353</sup> They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.
<sup>354</sup> Waters flowed over my head. I said, "I am cut off."
<sup>355</sup> I called on your name, God, out of the lowest dungeon.
<sup>356</sup> You heard my voice: "Don't hide your ear from my sighing, and my cry."
<sup>357</sup> You came near in the day that I called on you.
You said, "Don't be afraid."
<sup>358</sup> Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul.
You have redeemed my life.
<sup>359</sup> God, you have seen my wrong.
Judge my cause.
<sup>360</sup> You have seen all their vengeance and all their plans against me.
<sup>361</sup> You have heard their reproach, God,
and all their plans against me,
<sup>362</sup> the lips of those that rose up against me, and their plots against me all day long.
<sup>363</sup> You see their sitting down and their rising up.
I am their song.
<sup>364</sup> You will pay them back, God, according to the work of their hands.
<sup>365</sup> You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.
<sup>366</sup> You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of God.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> How the gold has become dim!
The most pure gold has changed!
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.

<sup>42</sup> The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold,
how they are esteemed as earthen pitchers,
the work of the hands of the potter!
<sup>43</sup> Even the jackals offer their breast.
They nurse their young ones.
But the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
<sup>44</sup> The tongue of the nursing child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst. The young children ask bread, and no one breaks it for them.
<sup>45</sup> Those who ate delicacies are desolate in the streets.
Those who were brought up in purple embrace dunghills.
<sup>46</sup> For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown as in a moment.
No hands were laid on her.
<sup>47</sup> Her nobles were purer than snow.
They were whiter than milk.
They were more ruddy in body than rubies.
Their polishing was like sapphire.
<sup>48</sup> Their appearance is blacker than a coal.
They are not known in the streets.
Their skin clings to their bones.
It is withered.
It has become like a stick.
<sup>49</sup> Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger;
For these pine away, stricken through,
for lack of the fruits of the field.
<sup>50</sup> The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children.
They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
<sup>51</sup> God has accomplished his wrath.
He has poured out his fierce anger.
He has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations.
<sup>52</sup> The kings of the earth didn't believe, neither did all the inhabitants of the world, that the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.
<sup>53</sup> It is because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the middle of her.
<sup>54</sup> They wander as blind men in the streets.
They are polluted with blood,
So that men can't touch their garments.

415 "Go away!" they cried to them.

"Unclean! Go away! Go away! Don't touch!

When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, "They can't live here any more."

416 God's anger has scattered them.

He will not pay attention to them any more.

They didn't respect the persons of the priests.

They didn't favor the elders.

417 Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help.

In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.

418 They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets. Our end is near. Our days are fulfilled, for our end has come.

419 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky. They chased us on the mountains. They set an ambush for us in the wilderness.

420 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of God, was taken in their pits; of whom we said, under his shadow we will live among the nations.

421 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, who dwells in the land of Uz. The cup will pass through to you also. You will be drunken, and will make yourself naked.

422 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion.

He will no more carry you away into captivity.

He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom.

He will uncover your sins.

CHAPTER 5

51 Remember, God, what has come on us.

Look, and see our reproach.

52 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our houses to aliens.

53 We are orphans and fatherless.

Our mothers are as widows.

54 We have drunken our water for money.

Our wood is sold to us.

55 Our pursuers are on our necks.

We are weary, and have no rest.

56 We have given our hands to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

57 Our fathers sinned, and are no more.

We have borne their iniquities.

58 Servants rule over us.

There is no one to deliver us out of their hand.

59 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.

510 Our skin is black like an oven, because of the burning heat of famine.

511 They ravished the women in Zion, the virgins in the cities of Judah.

512 Princes were hanged up by their hands.

The faces of elders were not honored.

513 The young men carry millstones.

The children stumbled under loads of wood.

514 The elders have ceased from the gate, and the young men from their music.

515 The joy of our heart has ceased.

Our dance is turned into mourning.

516 The crown has fallen from our head.

Woe to us, for we have sinned!

517 For this our heart is faint.

For these things our eyes are dim:

518 for the mountain of Zion, which is desolate.

The foxes walk on it.

519 You, God, remain forever.

Your throne is from generation to generation.

520 Why do you forget us forever, and forsake us for so long a time?

521 Turn us to yourself, God, and we will be turned.

Renew our days as of old.

522 But you have utterly rejected us.

You are very angry against us.

CHAPTER 1

11 Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

12 In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,<sup>13</sup> God's word came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and God's hand was there on him.

14 I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north: a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of the middle of it as it were glowing metal, out of the middle of the fire.

15 Out of its center came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man.<sup>16</sup> Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings.<sup>17</sup> Their feet were straight feet. The sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze.<sup>18</sup> They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides. The four of them had their faces and their wings like this:<sup>19</sup> Their wings were joined to one another. They didn't turn when they went. Each one went straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man. The four of them had the face of a lion on the right side. The four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. The four of them also had the face of an eagle.<sup>11</sup> Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies.<sup>12</sup> Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went. They didn't turn when they went.<sup>13</sup> As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire.<sup>14</sup> The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, there was one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it.<sup>16</sup> The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl. The four of them had one likeness. Their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel.<sup>17</sup> When they went, they went in their four directions. They didn't turn when they went.

18 As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around.

19 When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them. When the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went. The spirit was to go there. The wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.<sup>21</sup> When those went, these went. When those stood, these stood. When those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

122 Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like an awesome crystal to look at, stretched out over their heads above.<sup>123</sup> Under the expanse, their wings were straight, one toward the other. Each one had two which covered on this side, and each one had two which covered their bodies on that side.<sup>124</sup> When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army. When they stood, they let down their wings.

125 There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads. When they stood, they let down their wings.<sup>126</sup> Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone. On the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above.<sup>127</sup> I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him.<sup>128</sup> As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of God's glory. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

21 He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you."<sup>22</sup> The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me.

23 He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day.<sup>24</sup> The children are impudent and stiff-hearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says.'<sup>25</sup> They, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse, for they are a rebellious house, yet they will know that there has been a prophet among them.<sup>26</sup> You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you dwell among scorpions. Don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.<sup>27</sup> You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse; for they are most rebellious.<sup>28</sup> But you, son of man, hear what I tell you. Don't be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat that which I give you."

29 When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was in it.

20 He spread it before me. It was written within and without; and lamentations, mourning, and woe were written in it.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."

<sup>32</sup> So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll.

<sup>33</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you." Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>34</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them.<sup>35</sup> For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel;<sup>36</sup> not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can't understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you.<sup>37</sup> But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they will not listen to me; for all the house of Israel are obstinate and hard-hearted.<sup>38</sup> Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads.<sup>39</sup> I have made your forehead as a diamond, harder than flint. Don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

<sup>310</sup> Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, receive in your heart and hear with your ears all my words that I speak to you.<sup>311</sup> Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says,' whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse."

<sup>312</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be God's glory from his place."<sup>313</sup> I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing.<sup>314</sup> So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and God's hand was strong on me.<sup>315</sup> Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv who lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

<sup>316</sup> At the end of seven days, God's word came to me, saying,<sup>317</sup> "Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and warn them from me.<sup>318</sup> When I tell the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; that wicked man will die in his iniquity; but I will require his blood at your hand.

<sup>319</sup> Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul."

<sup>320</sup> "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you have not given him warning, he will die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered; but I will require his blood at your hand.

<sup>321</sup> Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul."

<sup>322</sup> God's hand was there on me; and he said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there."

<sup>323</sup> Then I arose, and went out into the plain, and behold, God's glory stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river Chebar. Then I fell on my face.

<sup>324</sup> Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet. He spoke with me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself inside your house.<sup>325</sup> But you, son of man, behold, they will put ropes on you, and will bind you with them, and you will not go out among them.

<sup>326</sup> I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you will be mute, and will not be able to correct them; for they are a rebellious house.<sup>327</sup> But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house."

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> "You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup> Lay siege against it, build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it. Also set camps against it and plant battering rams against it all around.<sup>43</sup> Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. Then set your face toward it. It will be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

<sup>44</sup> "Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it. According to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity.<sup>45</sup> For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

<sup>46</sup> "Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have appointed forty days, each day for a year, to you.<sup>47</sup> You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it.<sup>48</sup> Behold, I put ropes on you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

<sup>49</sup> "Take for yourself also wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel. Make bread of it. According to the number of the days that you will lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it.<sup>50</sup> Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you shall eat it.<sup>51</sup> You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you shall drink.<sup>52</sup> You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man."<sup>53</sup> God said, "Even thus will the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them."

4:14 Then I said, "Ah Lord God! Behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals. No abominable meat has come into my mouth!"

4:15 Then he said to me, "Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread on it."

4:16 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness. They will drink water by measure, and in dismay;<sup>4:17</sup> that they may lack bread and water, be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

CHAPTER 5

5:1 "You, son of man, take a sharp sword. You shall take it as a barber's razor to yourself, and shall cause it to pass over your head and over your beard. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair.<sup>5:2</sup> A third part you shall burn in the fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled. You shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it. A third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them.<sup>5:3</sup> You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in the folds of your robe.

5:4 Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From it a fire will come out into all the house of Israel.

5:5 "The Lord God says: 'This is Jerusalem. I have set her in the middle of the nations, and countries are around her.'<sup>5:6</sup> She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them.'

5:7 "Therefore the Lord God says: 'Because you are more turbulent than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have followed the ordinances of the nations that are around you;<sup>5:8</sup> therefore the Lord God says: 'Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations.'<sup>303</sup>

5:9 I will do in you that which I have not done, and which I will not do anything like it any more, because of all your abominations.<sup>5:10</sup> Therefore the fathers will eat the sons within you, and the sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments on you; and I will scatter the whole remnant of you to all the winds.<sup>5:11</sup> Therefore as I live,' says the Lord God, 'surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you. My eye won't spare, and I will have no pity.<sup>5:12</sup> A third part of you will die with the pestilence, and they will be consumed with famine within you. A third part will fall by the sword around you. A third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

5:13 "Thus my anger will be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I will be comforted. They will know that I, God, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them.

5:14 "Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by.<sup>5:15</sup> So it will be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes—I, God, have spoken it—<sup>5:16</sup> when I send on them the evil arrows of famine that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you. I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread.<sup>5:17</sup> I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood will pass through you. I will bring the sword on you. I, God, have spoken it."

CHAPTER 6

6:1 God's word came to me, saying,<sup>6:2</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them,<sup>6:3</sup> and say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God! The Lord God says to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: "Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places.<sup>6:4</sup> Your altars will become desolate, and your incense altars will be broken. I will cast down your slain men before your idols.<sup>6:5</sup> I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars.<sup>6:6</sup> In all your dwelling places, the cities will be laid waste and the high places will be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.<sup>6:7</sup> The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am God.'

6:8 ""Yet I will leave a remnant, in that you will have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the countries.<sup>6:9</sup> Those of you that escape will remember me among the nations where they are carried captive, how I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols. Then they will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.<sup>6:10</sup> They will know that I am God. I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them."

6:11 "The Lord God says: 'Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, "Alas!" Because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they will fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.<sup>6:12</sup> He who is far off will die of the pestilence. He who is near will fall by the sword. He who remains and is besieged will die by the famine. Thus I will accomplish my wrath on them.

6:13 You will know that I am God, when their slain men are among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols.<sup>6:14</sup> I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations. Then they will know that I am God.”

CHAPTER 7

7:1 Moreover God’s word came to me, saying,<sup>7:2</sup> “You, son of man, the Lord God says to the land of Israel, ‘An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land.

7:3 Now the end is on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations.<sup>7:4</sup> My eye will not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I am God.’

7:5 “The Lord God says: ‘An evil! A unique evil! Behold, it comes.<sup>7:6</sup> An end has come. The end has come! It awakes against you. Behold, it comes.<sup>7:7</sup> Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land! The time has come! The day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains.<sup>7:8</sup> Now I will shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations.

7:9 My eye won’t spare, neither will I have pity. I will punish you according to your ways. Your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I, God, strike.

7:10 “Behold, the day! Behold, it comes! Your doom has gone out. The rod has blossomed. Pride has budded.<sup>7:11</sup> Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them will remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There will be nothing of value among them.<sup>7:12</sup> The time has come! The day draws near. Don’t let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude.<sup>7:13</sup> For the seller won’t return to that which is sold, although they are still alive; for the vision concerns the whole multitude of it. None will return. None will strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.<sup>7:14</sup> They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude.

7:15 “The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within. He who is in the field will die by the sword. He who is in the city will be devoured by famine and pestilence.<sup>7:16</sup> But of those who escape, they will escape and will be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, everyone in his iniquity.

7:17 All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be weak as water.<sup>7:18</sup> They will also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror will cover them. Shame will be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads.<sup>7:19</sup> They will cast their silver in the streets, and their gold will be as an unclean thing. Their silver and their gold won’t be able to deliver them in the day of God’s wrath. They won’t satisfy their souls or fill their bellies; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity.<sup>7:20</sup> As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein. Therefore I have made it to them as an unclean thing.<sup>7:21</sup> I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a plunder; and they will profane it.<sup>7:22</sup> I will also turn my face from them, and they will profane my secret place. Robbers will enter into it, and profane it.

7:23 “Make chains; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.<sup>7:24</sup> Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses. I will also make the pride of the strong to cease. Their holy places will be profaned.

7:25 Destruction comes! They will seek peace, and there will be none.<sup>7:26</sup> Mischief will come on mischief, and rumor will be on rumor. They will seek a vision of the prophet; but the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.<sup>7:27</sup> The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with desolation. The hands of the people of the land will be troubled. I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments I will judge them. Then they will know that I am God.”

CHAPTER 8

8:1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the Lord God’s hand fell on me there.<sup>8:2</sup> Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal.<sup>8:3</sup> He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north, where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy.<sup>8:4</sup> Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.

8:5 Then he said to me, “Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north.” So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and saw, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

8:6 He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they do? Even the great abominations that the house of Israel commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you will again see yet other great abominations.”

8:7 He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.<sup>8:8</sup> Then he said to me, “Son of man, dig now in the wall.” When I had dug in the wall, I saw a door.

8:9 He said to me, “Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here.”

<sup>810</sup> So I went in and looked, and saw every form of creeping things, abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. <sup>811</sup> Seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel stood before them. In the middle of them Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan stood, every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell of the cloud of incense went up.

<sup>812</sup> Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? For they say, 'God doesn't see us. God has forsaken the land.'"

<sup>813</sup> He said also to me, "You will again see more of the great abominations which they do."

<sup>814</sup> Then he brought me to the door of the gate of God's house which was toward the north; and I saw the women sit there weeping for Tammuz. <sup>815</sup> Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You will again see yet greater abominations than these."

<sup>816</sup> He brought me into the inner court of God's house; and I saw at the door of God's temple, between the porch and the altar, there were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward God's temple, and their faces toward the east. They were worshiping the sun toward the east.

<sup>817</sup> Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger. Behold, they put the branch to their nose." <sup>818</sup> Therefore I will also deal in wrath. My eye won't spare, neither will I have pity. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them."

CHAPTER 9

<sup>93</sup> The glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house; and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. <sup>94</sup> God said to him, "Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done within it."

<sup>95</sup> To the others he said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike. Don't let your eye spare, neither have pity." <sup>96</sup> Kill utterly the old man, the young man, the virgin, little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." Then they began at the old men who were before the house.

<sup>97</sup> He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" They went out, and struck in the city. <sup>98</sup> While they were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord God! Will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

<sup>99</sup> Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion; for they say, 'God has forsaken the land, and God doesn't see.'

<sup>910</sup> As for me also, my eye won't spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

<sup>911</sup> Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, "I have done as you have commanded me."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. <sup>102</sup> He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city."

He went in as I watched. <sup>103</sup> Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. <sup>104</sup> God's glory mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of God's glory. <sup>105</sup> The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

<sup>109</sup> I looked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub. The appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone.

<sup>1010</sup> As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>1011</sup> When they went, they went in their four directions. They didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it. They didn't turn as they went. <sup>1012</sup> Their whole body, including their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. <sup>1013</sup> As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "the whirling wheels". <sup>1014</sup> Every one of them had four faces. The first face was the face of the cherub. The second face was the face of a man. The third face was the face of a lion. The fourth was the face of an eagle.

<sup>10</sup><sup>15</sup> The cherubim mounted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. <sup>10</sup><sup>16</sup> When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. <sup>10</sup><sup>17</sup> When they stood, these stood. When they mounted up, these mounted up with them; for the spirit of the living creature was in them. <sup>10</sup><sup>18</sup> God's glory went out from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. <sup>10</sup><sup>19</sup> The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went out, with the wheels beside them. Then they stood at the door of the east gate of God's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

<sup>10</sup><sup>20</sup> This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. <sup>10</sup><sup>21</sup> Every one had four faces, and every one four wings. The likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. <sup>10</sup><sup>22</sup> As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves. They each went straight forward.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>11</sup><sup>5</sup> God's Spirit fell on me, and he said to me, "Speak, 'God says: 'Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.' <sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.'

<sup>11</sup><sup>7</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: 'Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you will be brought out of the middle of it.' <sup>11</sup><sup>8</sup> You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you," says the Lord God.

<sup>11</sup><sup>9</sup> "I will bring you out of the middle of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. <sup>11</sup><sup>10</sup> You will fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am God. <sup>11</sup><sup>11</sup> This will not be your cauldron, neither will you be the meat in the middle of it. I will judge you in the border of Israel. <sup>11</sup><sup>12</sup> You will know that I am God, for you have not walked in my statutes, You have not executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you.'"

<sup>11</sup><sup>13</sup> When I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord God! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

<sup>11</sup><sup>14</sup> God's word came to me, saying, <sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are the ones to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far away from God. This land has been given to us for a possession.'

<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> "Therefore say, 'The Lord God says: 'Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come.'"

<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> "Therefore say, 'The Lord God says: 'I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.'

<sup>11</sup><sup>18</sup> "They will come there, and they will take away all its detestable things and all its abominations from there. <sup>11</sup><sup>19</sup> I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; <sup>11</sup><sup>20</sup> that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them. They will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>11</sup><sup>21</sup> But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads,' says the Lord God."

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>1</sup> God's word also came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> "Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> I did so as I was commanded. I brought out my stuff by day, as stuff for moving, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought it out in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> In the morning, God's word came to me, saying,
<sup>12</sup><sup>9</sup> "Son of man, hasn't the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?'"

<sup>12</sup><sup>10</sup> "Say to them, 'The Lord God says: "This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are."

<sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> "Say, 'I am your sign. As I have done, so will it be done to them. They will go into exile, into captivity.'

<sup>12</sup><sup>12</sup> "The prince who is among them will bear on his shoulder in the dark, and will go out. They will dig through the wall to carry things out that way. He will cover his face, because he will not see the land with his eyes." <sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup> I will also spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there." <sup>12</sup><sup>14</sup> I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands. I will draw out the sword after them.

<sup>12</sup><sup>19</sup> Tell the people of the land, 'The Lord God says concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: "They will eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein." <sup>12</sup><sup>20</sup> The cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will be a desolation. Then you will know that I am God.'"

<sup>12</sup><sup>28</sup> "Therefore tell them, 'The Lord God says: "None of my words will be deferred any more, but the word which I speak will be performed," says the Lord God."

<sup>13</sup><sup>8</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: "Because you have spoken falsehood and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you," says the Lord God.<sup>304</sup>

<sup>13</sup><sup>9</sup> "My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who utter lying divinations. They will not be in the council of my people, neither will they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither will they enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord God."

<sup>13</sup><sup>13</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: "I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath. There will be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it." <sup>13</sup><sup>14</sup> So I will break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered. It will fall, and you will be consumed in the middle of it. Then you will know that I am God.

to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies.'

<sup>13</sup><sup>20</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: 'Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms. I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly.' <sup>13</sup><sup>21</sup> I will also tear your kerchiefs, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they will be no more in your hand to be hunted. Then you will know that I am God. <sup>13</sup><sup>22</sup> Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive." <sup>305</sup>

<sup>13</sup><sup>23</sup> Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am God."

<sup>14</sup><sup>6</sup> "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'The Lord God says: "Return, and turn yourselves from your idols! Turn away your faces from all your abominations.

<sup>14</sup><sup>7</sup> ""For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I God will answer him by myself." <sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among my people. Then you will know that I am God.

<sup>14</sup><sup>9</sup> ""If the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, God, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from among my people Israel. <sup>14</sup><sup>10</sup> They will bear their iniquity. The iniquity of the prophet will be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; <sup>14</sup><sup>11</sup> that the house of Israel may no more go astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God," says the Lord God."

its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal" <sup>14</sup><sup>14</sup> though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness," says the Lord God.

<sup>14</sup><sup>15</sup> "If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; <sup>14</sup><sup>16</sup> though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord God, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters. They only would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

<sup>14</sup><sup>17</sup> "Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal,' <sup>14</sup><sup>18</sup> though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord God, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only would be delivered themselves.

<sup>14</sup><sup>19</sup> "Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal," <sup>14</sup><sup>20</sup> though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live," says the Lord God, "they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness."

<sup>14</sup><sup>21</sup> For the Lord God says: "How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, the famine, the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal!" <sup>14</sup><sup>22</sup> Yet, behold, there will be left a remnant in it that will be carried out, both sons and daughters. Behold, they will come out to you, and you will see their way and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. <sup>14</sup><sup>23</sup> They will comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; then you will know that I have not done all that I have done in it without cause," says the Lord God.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>15</sup><sup>6</sup> Therefore the Lord God says: "As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup><sup>7</sup> I will set my face against them. They will go out from the fire, but the fire will devour them. Then you will know that I am God, when I set my face against them. <sup>15</sup><sup>8</sup> I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass," says the Lord God.

CHAPTER 16

16:1 Again God's word came to me, saying, 16:2 "Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; 16:3 and say, 'The Lord God says to Jerusalem: "Your origin and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite. An Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite." 16:4 As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut. You weren't washed in water to cleanse you. You weren't salted at all, nor wrapped in blankets at all. 16:5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, because you were abhorred in the day that you were born.'

16:6 ""When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, 'Though you are in your blood, live!' Yes, I said to you, 'Though you are in your blood, live!' 16:7 I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament. Your breasts were formed, and your hair grew; yet you were naked and bare.

16:8 ""Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you," says the Lord God, "and you became mine."

16:9 ""Then I washed you with water. Yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 16:10 I clothed you also with embroidered work, and put sealskin sandals on you. I dressed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. 16:11 I decked you with ornaments, put bracelets on your hands, and put a chain on your neck. 16:12 I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 16:13 Thus you were decked with gold and silver. Your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered work. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. 16:14 Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you," says the Lord God.

16:15 ""But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by. It was his. 16:16 You took some of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them. This shall not happen, neither shall it be. 16:17 You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them. 16:18 You took your embroidered garments, covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. 16:19 My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and so it was," says the Lord God.

16:20 ""Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, 16:21 that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? 16:22 In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood.

16:23 ""It has happened after all your wickedness—woe, woe to you!" says the Lord God—

16:24 "that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. 16:25 You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution.

16:26 You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger.

16:27 See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way.

16:28 You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. 16:29 You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.

16:30 ""How weak is your heart," says the Lord God, "since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; 16:31 in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay.

16:32 ""Adulterous wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband! 16:33 People give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. 16:34 You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different."

16:35 "Therefore, prostitute, hear God's word:

16:36 The Lord God says, "Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; 16:37 therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those whom you have loved, with all those whom you have hated. I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. 16:38 I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. 16:39 I will also give you into their hand, and they will throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places. They will strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels. They will leave you naked and bare.

16:40 They will also bring up a company against you, and they will stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords.<sup>1641</sup> They will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you will also give no hire any more.

<sup>1642</sup> So I will cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy will depart from you. I will be quiet, and will not be angry any more.

<sup>1643</sup> ““Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head,” says the Lord God: “and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.”<sup>306</sup>

<sup>1644</sup> ““Behold, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb against you, saying, ‘As is the mother, so is her daughter.’<sup>1645</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite.”<sup>1646</sup>

Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom with her daughters.”<sup>1647</sup> Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor done their abominations; but soon you were more corrupt than they in all your ways.”<sup>1648</sup> As I live,” says the Lord God, “Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters.”

<sup>1651</sup> Samaria hasn’t committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done.”<sup>1652</sup> You also bear your own shame yourself, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you. Yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.”

<sup>1653</sup> ““I will reverse their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives among them;”<sup>1654</sup> that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them.”

<sup>1656</sup> For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride,”<sup>1657</sup> before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you all around.”<sup>1658</sup> You have borne your lewdness and your abominations,” says God.

<sup>1659</sup> ““For the Lord God says: “I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.”

<sup>1660</sup> Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.”<sup>1661</sup> Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant.”<sup>1662</sup> I will establish my covenant with you. Then you will know that I am God,”<sup>1663</sup> that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done,” says the Lord God.”

CHAPTER 17

<sup>171</sup> God’s word came to me, saying.”<sup>172</sup> “Son of man, tell a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel;”<sup>173</sup> and say, ‘The Lord God says: “A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar.”<sup>174</sup> He cropped off the topmost of its young twigs, and carried it to a land of traffic. He planted it in a city of merchants.”

<sup>175</sup> ““He also took some of the seed of the land, and planted it in fruitful soil. He placed it beside many waters. He set it as a willow tree.”<sup>176</sup> It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him. So it became a vine, produced branches, and shot out sprigs.”

<sup>177</sup> ““There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. Behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot out its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it.”<sup>178</sup> It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might produce branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a good vine.””

<sup>179</sup> ““Say, ‘The Lord God says: “Will it prosper? Won’t he pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? It can’t be raised from its roots by a strong arm or many people.”<sup>1710</sup> Yes, behold, being planted, will it prosper? Won’t it utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the beds where it grew.””

<sup>17</sup><sup>18</sup> For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things. He won't escape.

<sup>17</sup><sup>19</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: 'As I live, I will surely bring on his own head my oath that he has despised and my covenant that he has broken.'

<sup>17</sup><sup>20</sup> I will spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me.<sup>17</sup><sup>21</sup> All his fugitives in all his bands will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered toward every wind. Then you will know that I, God, have spoken it.'

<sup>17</sup><sup>22</sup> "The Lord God says: 'I will also take some of the lofty top of the cedar, and will plant it. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.'

<sup>17</sup><sup>23</sup> I will plant it in the mountain of the height of Israel; and it will produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a good cedar. Birds of every kind will dwell in the shade of its branches.<sup>17</sup><sup>24</sup> All the trees of the field will know that I, God, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree flourish. "I, God, have spoken and have done it."

CHAPTER 18

<sup>18</sup><sup>3</sup> "As I live," says the Lord God, "you shall not use this proverb any more in Israel.<sup>18</sup><sup>4</sup> Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine. The soul who sins, he shall die."

<sup>18</sup><sup>6</sup> and has not eaten on the mountains, hasn't lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hasn't defiled his neighbor's wife, hasn't come near a woman in her impurity,

<sup>18</sup><sup>7</sup> and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment;

<sup>18</sup><sup>8</sup> he who hasn't lent to them with interest, hasn't taken any increase from them, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man,

<sup>18</sup><sup>9</sup> has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live," says the Lord God.

<sup>18</sup><sup>10</sup> "If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things,<sup>18</sup><sup>11</sup> or who does not do any of those things, but even has eaten at the mountain shrines, and defiled his neighbor's wife,

<sup>18</sup><sup>12</sup> has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination,

<sup>18</sup><sup>13</sup> has lent with interest, and has taken increase from the poor; shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominations. He shall surely die. His blood will be on him.

<sup>18</sup><sup>14</sup> "Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and doesn't do likewise,

<sup>18</sup><sup>15</sup> who hasn't eaten on the mountains, hasn't lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hasn't defiled his neighbor's wife,

<sup>18</sup><sup>16</sup> hasn't wronged any, hasn't taken anything to pledge, hasn't taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment;

<sup>18</sup><sup>17</sup> who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who hasn't received interest or increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live.

<sup>18</sup><sup>18</sup> As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he will die in his iniquity.

<sup>18</sup><sup>19</sup> "Yet you say, 'Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he will surely live.

The righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

<sup>18</sup><sup>21</sup> "But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all my statutes, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live. He shall not die."<sup>18</sup><sup>22</sup> None of his transgressions that he has committed will be remembered against him. In his righteousness that he has done, he shall live.

<sup>18</sup><sup>23</sup> Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" says the Lord God; "and not rather that he should return from his way, and live?"

according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, should he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered. In his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die.

<sup>18</sup><sup>25</sup> "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal?" <sup>18</sup><sup>26</sup> When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done he shall die. <sup>18</sup><sup>27</sup> Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he will save his soul alive. <sup>18</sup><sup>28</sup> Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live. He shall not die. <sup>18</sup><sup>29</sup> Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' House of Israel, aren't my ways fair? Aren't your ways unfair?

<sup>18</sup><sup>30</sup> "Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways," says the Lord God. "Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity will not be your ruin. <sup>18</sup><sup>31</sup> Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel?" <sup>18</sup><sup>32</sup> For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies," says the Lord God. "Therefore turn yourselves, and live!"

<sup>19</sup><sup>4</sup> The nations also heard of him. He was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup><sup>5</sup> "Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion.

<sup>19</sup><sup>7</sup> He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities. The land was desolate, with its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring.

<sup>19</sup><sup>8</sup> Then the nations attacked him on every side from the provinces. They spread their net over him. He was taken in their pit.

<sup>19</sup><sup>9</sup> They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into strongholds, so that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>19</sup><sup>11</sup> It had strong branches for the scepters of those who ruled. Their stature was exalted among the thick boughs. They were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches.

<sup>19</sup><sup>12</sup> But it was plucked up in fury. It was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches were broken off and withered. The fire consumed them.

<sup>19</sup><sup>14</sup> Fire has gone out of its branches. It has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong branch to be a scepter to rule.' This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation."

CHAPTER 20

<sup>20</sup><sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of God, and sat before me.

<sup>20</sup><sup>2</sup> God's word came to me, saying, <sup>20</sup><sup>3</sup> "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, 'The Lord God says: 'Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live,' says the Lord God, 'I will not be inquired of by you.'"

<sup>20</sup><sup>4</sup> "Will you judge them, son of man? Will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers." <sup>20</sup><sup>5</sup> Tell them, 'The Lord God says: "In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, 'I am The lord your God,'" <sup>20</sup><sup>6</sup> in that day I swore to them to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands." <sup>20</sup><sup>7</sup> I said to them, 'Each of you throw away the abominations of his eyes. Don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am The lord your God.'

<sup>20</sup><sup>8</sup> ""But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me. They didn't all throw away the abominations of their eyes. They also didn't forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the middle of the land of Egypt." <sup>20</sup><sup>9</sup> But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them out of the land of Egypt." <sup>20</sup><sup>10</sup> So I caused them to go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness." <sup>20</sup><sup>11</sup> I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he will live in them." <sup>20</sup><sup>12</sup> Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am God who sanctifies them.

<sup>20</sup><sup>13</sup> ""But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keeps, he shall live in them. They greatly profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them." <sup>20</sup><sup>14</sup> But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out." <sup>20</sup><sup>15</sup> Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands,<sup>2016</sup> because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.<sup>2017</sup> Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them. I didn't make a full end of them in the wilderness.<sup>2018</sup> I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Don't walk in the statutes of your fathers. Don't observe their ordinances or defile yourselves with their idols.'<sup>2019</sup> I am The lord your God. Walk in my statutes, keep my ordinances, and do them.<sup>2020</sup> Make my Sabbaths holy. They shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am The lord your God.'

<sup>2021</sup> ""But the children rebelled against me. They didn't walk in my statutes, and didn't keep my ordinances to do them, which if a man does, he shall live in them. They profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

<sup>2022</sup> Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.<sup>2023</sup> Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries,<sup>2024</sup> because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.<sup>2025</sup> Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live.<sup>2026</sup> I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that opens the womb to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am God."

<sup>2027</sup> "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, 'The Lord God says: 'Moreover, in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.'<sup>2028</sup> For when I had brought them into the land which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There they also made their pleasant aroma, and there they poured out their drink offerings.'<sup>2029</sup> Then I said to them, 'What does the high place where you go mean?' So its name is called Bamah to this day."

<sup>2030</sup> "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'The Lord God says: 'Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? Do you play the prostitute after their abominations?'<sup>2031</sup> When you offer your gifts, when you make your sons pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? Should I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you!

<sup>2032</sup> ""That which comes into your mind will not be at all, in that you say, 'We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.'

<sup>2033</sup> As I live, says the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you.<sup>2034</sup> I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out.<sup>2035</sup> I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.<sup>2036</sup> Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you," says the Lord God.

<sup>2037</sup> "I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant.<sup>2038</sup> I will purge out from among you the rebels and those who disobey me. I will bring them out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am God."

<sup>2039</sup> "As for you, house of Israel, the Lord God says: 'Go, everyone serve his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but you shall no more profane my holy name with your gifts and with your idols.'

<sup>2040</sup> For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel," says the Lord God, "there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land. There I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things.<sup>2041</sup> I will accept you as a pleasant aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered. I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations.<sup>2042</sup> You will know that I am God when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers.<sup>2043</sup> There you will remember your ways, and all your deeds in which you have polluted yourselves. Then you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed.<sup>2044</sup> You will know that I am God, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel," says the Lord God."

<sup>2045</sup> God's word came to me, saying,<sup>2046</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward the south, and preach toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South.<sup>2047</sup> Tell the forest of the South, 'Hear God's word: The Lord God says, 'Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree. The burning flame will not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north will be burned by it.'<sup>2048</sup> All flesh will see that I, God, have kindled it. It will not be quenched."

<sup>2049</sup> Then I said, "Ah Lord God! They say of me, 'Isn't he a speaker of parables?'"

CHAPTER 21

<sup>211</sup> God's word came to me, saying,<sup>212</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and preach toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel.<sup>213</sup> Tell the land of Israel, 'God says: 'Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked.'<sup>214</sup> Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore my sword will go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north.<sup>215</sup> All flesh will know that I, God, have drawn my sword out of its sheath. It will not return any more.”<sup>216</sup>

<sup>216</sup> “Therefore sigh, you son of man. You shall sigh before their eyes with a broken heart and with bitterness.<sup>217</sup> It shall be, when they ask you, ‘Why do you sigh?’ that you shall say, ‘Because of the news, for it comes! Every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord God.’”

<sup>218</sup> God’s word came to me, saying,<sup>219</sup> “Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘God says: “A sword! A sword! It is sharpened, and also polished.

<sup>219</sup> It is sharpened that it may make a slaughter. It is polished that it may be as lightning. Should we then make mirth? The rod of my son condemns every tree.<sup>2110</sup> It is given to be polished, that it may be handled. The sword is sharpened. Yes, it is polished to give it into the hand of the killer.”

<sup>2111</sup> Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people. It is on all the princes of Israel. They are delivered over to the sword with my people. Therefore beat your thigh.

<sup>2112</sup> “For there is a trial. What if even the rod that condemns will be no more?” says the Lord God.

<sup>2113</sup> “You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together. Let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the fatally wounded. It is the sword of the great one who is fatally wounded, which enters into their rooms.

<sup>2114</sup> I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumbling be multiplied. Ah! It is made as lightning. It is pointed for slaughter.

<sup>2116</sup> I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest. I, God, have spoken it.”

<sup>2117</sup> God’s word came to me again, saying,<sup>2118</sup> “Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come. They both will come out of one land, and mark out a place. Mark it out at the head of the way to the city.<sup>2119</sup> You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified.<sup>2120</sup> For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination. He shook the arrows back and forth. He consulted the teraphim. He looked in the liver.

<sup>2121</sup> In his right hand was the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, and to build forts.<sup>2122</sup> It will be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

<sup>2123</sup> “Therefore the Lord God says: ‘Because you have caused your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you will be taken with the hand.’<sup>308</sup>

<sup>2124</sup> “You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, <sup>2125</sup> the Lord God says: “Remove the turban,<sup>309</sup> and take off the crown. This will not be as it was. Exalt that which is low, and humble that which is high.

This also will be no more, until he comes whose right it is; and I will give it.”

<sup>2127</sup> “You, son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘The Lord God says this concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach: “A sword! A sword is drawn! It is polished for the slaughter, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning;

<sup>2128</sup> while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end.

<sup>2129</sup> Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, I will judge you.

<sup>2130</sup> I will pour out my indignation on you. I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath. I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy.

<sup>2131</sup> You will be for fuel to the fire. Your blood will be in the middle of the land. You will be remembered no more; for I, God, have spoken it.””

CHAPTER 22

<sup>221</sup> Moreover God’s word came to me, saying,<sup>222</sup> “You, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations.

<sup>223</sup> You shall say, ‘The Lord God says: “A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her!<sup>224</sup> You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made! You have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries.<sup>225</sup> Those who are near, and those who are far from you, will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

<sup>226</sup> “Behold, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood.<sup>227</sup> In you have they treated father and mother with contempt. Among you they have oppressed the foreigner. In you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow.<sup>228</sup> You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths.<sup>229</sup> Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood. In you they have eaten on the mountains. They have committed lewdness among you.

22:10 In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness. In you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity.22:11 One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law. Another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

22:12 In you have they taken bribes to shed blood. You have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me," says the Lord God.

22:13 "Behold, therefore I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been within you.22:14 Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I will deal with you? I, God, have spoken it, and will do it.22:15 I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries. I will consume your filthiness out of you.22:16 You will be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am God."

22:17 God's word came to me, saying,22:18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are bronze, tin, iron, and lead in the middle of the furnace. They are the dross of silver.22:19 Therefore the Lord God says: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem.'<sup>310</sup>

22:20 As they gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you.22:21 Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in the middle of it.22:22 As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you will be melted in the middle of it; and you will know that I, God, have poured out my wrath on you."

22:23 God's word came to me, saying,22:24 "Son of man, tell her, 'You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation.'22:25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets within it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey. They have devoured souls. They take treasure and precious things. They have made many widows within it.22:26 Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things. They have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths. So I am profaned among them.22:27 Her princes within it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain.22:28 Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, 'The Lord God says,' when God has not spoken.22:29 The people of the land have used oppression and exercised robbery. Yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully.

22:30 "I sought for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I would not destroy it; but I found no one.

22:31 Therefore I have poured out my indignation on them. I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath. I have brought their own way on their heads," says the Lord God.

CHAPTER 23

23:1 God's word came again to me, saying,23:2 "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother.23:3 They played the prostitute in Egypt. They played the prostitute in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their youthful nipples were caressed there.23:4 Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

23:5 "Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine. She doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors,23:6 who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses.23:7 She gave herself as a prostitute to them, all of them the choicest men of Assyria. She defiled herself with the idols of whoever she lusted after.23:8 She hasn't left her prostitution since leaving Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her. They caressed her youthful nipples; and they poured out their prostitution on her.

23:9 "Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted.23:10 These uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters; and they killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her.

23:11 "Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her prostitution which was more depraved than the prostitution of her sister.23:12 She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.23:13 I saw that she was defiled. They both went the same way.

23:14 "She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with red,23:15 dressed with belts on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like princes, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth.

23:16 As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them into Chaldea.23:17 The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution. She was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them.

23:18 So she uncovered her prostitution and uncovered her nakedness. Then my soul was alienated from her, just like my soul was alienated from her sister.<sup>2319</sup> Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt.<sup>2320</sup> She lusted after their lovers, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.<sup>2321</sup> Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the caressing of your nipples by the Egyptians because of your youthful breasts.

<sup>2322</sup> "Therefore, Oholibah, the Lord God says: 'Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side:<sup>2323</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; all of them desirable young men, governors and rulers, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses.<sup>2324</sup> They will come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples. They will set themselves against you with buckler, shield, and helmet all around. I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their judgments.'

<sup>2325</sup> I will set my jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will take away your nose and your ears. Your remnant will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters; and the rest of you will be devoured by the fire.<sup>2326</sup> They will also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels.<sup>2327</sup> Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and remove your prostitution from the land of Egypt; so that you will not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more.'

<sup>2328</sup> "For the Lord God says: 'Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated.<sup>2329</sup> They will deal with you in hatred, and will take away all your labor, and will leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your prostitution will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution.<sup>2330</sup> These things will be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols.'<sup>311</sup>

<sup>2331</sup> You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.'

<sup>2332</sup> "The Lord God says: 'You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large. You will be ridiculed and held in derision. It contains much.'

<sup>2333</sup> You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria.

<sup>2334</sup> You will even drink it and drain it out. You will gnaw the broken pieces of it, and will tear your breasts; for I have spoken it,' says the Lord God.

<sup>2335</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: 'Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution.'

<sup>2336</sup> God said moreover to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations.<sup>2337</sup> For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols. They have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured.<sup>2338</sup> Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths.

<sup>2339</sup> For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, they have done this in the middle of my house.

<sup>2346</sup> "For the Lord God says: 'I will bring up a mob against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed.<sup>2347</sup> The company will stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords. They will kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.'

<sup>2348</sup> "Thus I will cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to be lewd like you.<sup>2349</sup> They will recompense your lewdness on you, and you will bear the sins of your idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord God."

CHAPTER 24

<sup>24</sup><sup>7</sup> ""For her blood is in the middle of her. She set it on the bare rock. She didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust.

<sup>24</sup><sup>9</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says: "Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great.

<sup>24</sup><sup>10</sup> Heap on the wood. Make the fire hot. Boil the meat well. Make the broth thick, and let the bones be burned.

<sup>24</sup><sup>11</sup> Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its bronze may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed.

<sup>24</sup><sup>13</sup> ""In your filthiness is lewdness. Because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you won't be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest.

<sup>24</sup><sup>14</sup> ""I, God, have spoken it. It will happen, and I will do it. I won't go back. I won't spare. I won't repent. According to your ways, and according to your doings, they will judge you," says the Lord God."

<sup>24</sup><sup>18</sup> So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at evening my wife died. So I did in the morning as I was commanded.

<sup>24</sup><sup>19</sup> The people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?"

<sup>24</sup><sup>20</sup> Then I said to them, "God's word came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup><sup>21</sup> 'Speak to the house of Israel, "The Lord God says: 'Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword.' <sup>24</sup><sup>22</sup> You will do as I have done. You won't cover your lips or eat mourner's bread. <sup>24</sup><sup>23</sup> Your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet. You won't mourn or weep; but you will pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another.

<sup>24</sup><sup>24</sup> Thus Ezekiel will be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord God."""

<sup>24</sup><sup>25</sup> "You, son of man, shouldn't it be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, <sup>24</sup><sup>26</sup> that in that day he who escapes will come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears?

<sup>24</sup><sup>27</sup> In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you will speak, and be no more mute. So you will be a sign to them. Then they will know that I am God."

<sup>25</sup><sup>13</sup> therefore the Lord God says, "I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman. They will fall by the sword even to Dedan. <sup>25</sup><sup>14</sup> I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel. They will do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath. Then they will know my vengeance," says the Lord God.

<sup>25</sup>15 “The Lord God says: “Because the Philistines<sup>313</sup> have taken revenge, and have taken vengeance with contempt of soul to destroy with perpetual hostility;”
25*16 therefore the Lord God says, “Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.<sup>25</sup>17 I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes. Then they will know that I am God, when I lay my vengeance on them.””

CHAPTER 26

<sup>26</sup>1 In the eleventh year, in the first of the month, God’s word came to me, saying,<sup>26</sup>2 “Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! She is broken! She who was the gateway of the peoples has been returned to me. I will be replenished, now that she is laid waste;’<sup>26</sup>3 therefore the Lord God says, ‘Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.<sup>26</sup>4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock.<sup>26</sup>5 She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it,’ says the Lord God. ‘She will become plunder for the nations.

<sup>26</sup>6 Her daughters who are in the field will be slain with the sword. Then they will know that I am God.’

<sup>26</sup>7 “For the Lord God says: ‘Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, with chariots, with horsemen, and an army with many people.<sup>26</sup>8 He will kill your daughters in the field with the sword. He will make forts against you, cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you.<sup>26</sup>9 He will set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers.<sup>26</sup>10 By reason of the abundance of his horses, their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he enters into your gates, as men enter into a city which is broken open.<sup>26</sup>11 He will tread down all your streets with the hoofs of his horses. He will kill your people with the sword. The pillars of your strength will go down to the ground.<sup>26</sup>12 They will make a plunder of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise. They will break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses. They will lay your stones, your timber, and your dust in the middle of the waters.<sup>26</sup>13 I will cause the noise of your songs to cease. The sound of your harps won’t be heard any more.

<sup>26</sup>14 I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place for the spreading of nets. You will be built no more; for I God have spoken it,’ says the Lord God.

<sup>26</sup>15 “The Lord God says to Tyre: ‘Won’t the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made within you?’

<sup>26</sup>16 Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling. They will sit on the ground, and will tremble every moment, and be astonished at you.

<sup>26</sup>17 They will take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, “How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there!”

<sup>26</sup>18 Now the islands will tremble in the day of your fall. Yes, the islands that are in the sea will be dismayed at your departure.’

<sup>26</sup>19 “For the Lord God says: ‘When I make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I bring up the deep on you, and the great waters cover you;<sup>26</sup>20 then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living.<sup>26</sup>21 I will make you a terror, and you will no more have any being. Though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again,’ says the Lord God.”

CHAPTER 27

<sup>27</sup>1 God’s word came again to me, saying,

<sup>27</sup>2 “You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre;<sup>27</sup>3 and tell Tyre, ‘You who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, the Lord God says: ‘You, Tyre, have said, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’

<sup>27</sup>4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas. Your builders have perfected your beauty.

<sup>27</sup>5 They have made all your planks of cypress trees from Senir. They have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

<sup>27</sup>6 They have made your oars of the oaks of Bashan. They have made your benches of ivory inlaid in cypress wood from the islands of Kittim.

<sup>27</sup>7 Your sail was of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt, that it might be to you for a banner. Blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning.

<sup>27</sup>8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers. Your wise men, Tyre, were in you. They were your pilots.

<sup>27</sup>9 The old men of Gebal and its wise men were your repairers of ship seams in you. All the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.

<sup>27</sup>10 ““Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, your men of war. They hung the shield and helmet in you. They showed your beauty.

<sup>27</sup>11 The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valiant men were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around. They have perfected your beauty.

27:12 ““Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches. They traded for your wares with silver, iron, tin, and lead.

27:13 ““Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traders. They traded the persons of men and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

27:14 ““They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, war horses, and mules.

27:15 ““The men of Dedan traded with you. Many islands were the market of your hand. They brought you horns of ivory and ebony in exchange.

27:16 ““Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks. They traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

27:17 ““Judah and the land of Israel were your traders. They traded wheat of Minnith, confections, honey, oil, and balm for your merchandise.

27:18 ““Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

27:19 ““Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus were among your merchandise.

27:20 ““Dedan was your trafficker in precious saddlecloths for riding.

27:21 ““Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, rams, and goats. In these, they were your merchants.

27:22 ““The traders of Sheba and Raamah were your traders. They traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

27:23 ““Haran, Canneh, and Eden, the traders of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traders. 27:24 These were your traders in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise.

27:25 ““The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise. You were replenished and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

27:26 Your rowers have brought you into great waters. The east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas.

27:27 Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is among you, will fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin.

27:28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots, the pasture lands will shake.

27:29 All who handle the oars, the mariners and all the pilots of the sea, will come down from their ships. They will stand on the land,

27:30 and will cause their voice to be heard over you, and will cry bitterly. They will cast up dust on their heads. They will wallow in the ashes.

27:31 They will make themselves bald for you, and clothe themselves with sackcloth. They will weep for you in bitterness of soul, with bitter mourning.

27:32 In their wailing they will take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, ‘Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the middle of the sea?’

27:33 When your wares went out of the seas, you filled many peoples. You enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.

27:34 In the time that you were broken by the seas, in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell within you.

27:35 All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid. They are troubled in their face.

27:36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you. You have become a terror, and you will be no more.””

CHAPTER 28

28:1 God’s word came again to me, saying,

28:2 “Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, ‘The Lord God says:

“Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the middle of the seas;’ yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God—

28:3 behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you;

28:4 by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures;

28:5 by your great wisdom and by your trading you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches—”

28:6 “therefore the Lord God says: “Because you have set your heart as the heart of God,

28:7 therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations. They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom. They will defile your brightness.<sup>314</sup>

28:8 They will bring you down to the pit. You will die the death of those who are slain in the heart of the seas.

28:9 Will you yet say before him who kills you, ‘I am God?’ But you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you.

28:10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers; for I have spoken it,” says the Lord God.””

28:11 Moreover God’s word came to me, saying,

28:12 “Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, ‘The Lord God says: “You were the seal of full measure, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of God.

Every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. They were prepared in the day that you were created.

2814 You were the anointed cherub who covers. Then I set you up on the holy mountain of God. You have walked up and down in the middle of the stones of fire. 2815 You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you.<sup>315</sup>

2816 By the abundance of your commerce, your insides were filled with violence, and you have sinned.

Therefore I drove you in disgrace out of God's mountain, and I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from the middle of the stones of fire.

2817 Your heart became proud because of your beauty. You have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor. I have cast you to the ground. I have laid you before kings, that they may see you.

2818 By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your commerce, you have profaned your sanctuaries. Therefore I have brought out a fire from the middle of you. It has devoured you. I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you.

2819 All those who know you among the peoples will be astonished at you. You have become a terror, and you will exist no more."

2820 God's word came to me, saying, 2821 "Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it," 2822 and say, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I am against you, Sidon. I will be glorified among you. Then they will know that I am God, when I have executed judgments in her, and am sanctified in her."

2823 For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets. The wounded will fall within her, with the sword on her on every side. Then they will know that I am God.

2824 "There will no longer be a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them that scorned them. Then they will know that I am the Lord God."

2825 "The Lord God says: "When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob." 2826 They will dwell in it securely. Yes, they will build houses, plant vineyards, and will dwell securely when I have executed judgments on all those who scorn them all around. Then they will know that I am The Lord their God."""

CHAPTER 29

291 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, God's word came to me, saying,

292 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt." 293 Speak and say, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the middle of his rivers, that has said, 'My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.'

294 I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales. I will bring you up out of the middle of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales.

295 I'll cast you out into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You'll fall on the open field. You won't be brought together or gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky.

296 ""All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am God, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel." 297 When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders. When they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs."

298 "Therefore the Lord God says: "Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you." 299 The land of Egypt will be a desolation and a waste. Then they will know that I am God.

"Because he has said, 'The river is mine, and I have made it;'

2910 therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers. I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even to the border of Ethiopia." 2911 No foot of man will pass through it, nor will any animal foot pass through it. It won't be inhabited for forty years." 2912 I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the middle of the countries that are desolate. Her cities among the cities that are laid waste will be a desolation forty years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries."

2913 "For the Lord God says: "At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered." 2914 I will reverse the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth. They will be a lowly kingdom, there." 2915 It will be the lowest of the kingdoms. It won't lift itself up above the nations any more. I will diminish them, so that they will no longer rule over the nations." 2916 It will no longer be the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them. Then they will know that I am the Lord God."""

29:17 It came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, God's word came to me, saying,

29:18 "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet he had no wages, nor did his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.

29:19 Therefore the Lord God says: 'Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will carry off her multitude, take her plunder, and take her prey. That will be the wages for his army.'

29:20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his payment for which he served, because they worked for me,' says the Lord God.

29:21 "In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am God."

CHAPTER 30

30:1 God's word came again to me, saying, 30:2 "Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'The Lord God says: "Wail, 'Alas for the day!'"'

30:3 For the day is near, even God's day is near. It will be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.

30:4 A sword will come on Egypt, and anguish will be in Ethiopia, when the slain fall in Egypt. They take away her multitude, and her foundations are broken down.

30:5 ""Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all the mixed people, Cub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, will fall with them by the sword."

30:6 ""God says: "They also who uphold Egypt will fall. The pride of her power will come down. They will fall by the sword in it from the tower of Sevneh," says the Lord God.

30:7 "They will be desolate in the middle of the countries that are desolate. Her cities will be among the cities that are wasted.

30:8 They will know that I am God when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed.

30:9 ""In that day messengers will go out from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid. There will be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes."

30:10 "The Lord God says: "I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

30:11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

30:12 I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men. I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, God, have spoken it."

30:13 "The Lord God says: "I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis. There will be no more a prince from the land of Egypt. I will put a fear in the land of Egypt."

30:14 I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No."

30:15 I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt. I will cut off the multitude of No.

30:16 I will set a fire in Egypt Sin will be in great anguish. No will be broken up. Memphis will have adversaries in the daytime.

30:17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth will fall by the sword. They will go into captivity.

30:18 At Tehaphnehes also the day will withdraw itself, when I break the yokes of Egypt, there. The pride of her power will cease in her. As for her, a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity.

30:19 Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt. Then they will know that I am God."

30:20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, God's word came to me, saying, 30:21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Behold, it has not been bound up, to apply medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it may become strong to hold the sword.

30:22 Therefore the Lord God says: 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken. I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.'

30:23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

30:24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before the king of Babylon with the groaning of a mortally wounded man.

30:25 I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh will fall down. Then they will know that I am God, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he stretches it out on the land of Egypt.

30:26 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries. Then they will know that I am God."

CHAPTER 31

31:1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, God's word came to me, saying,

31:2 "Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt and his multitude: 'Whom are you like in your greatness?'

31:3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs.

31:4 The waters nourished it. The deep made it to grow. Its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.

31:5 Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied. Its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it spread them out.

31:6 All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs. Under its branches, all the animals of the field gave birth to their young. All great nations lived under its shadow.

31:7 Thus it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters.

31:8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it. The cypress trees were not like its boughs. The pine trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty.

<sup>319</sup> I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.'

<sup>3110</sup> "Therefore thus said the Lord God: 'Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; <sup>3111</sup> I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He will surely deal with him. I have driven him out for his wickedness. <sup>3112</sup> Strangers, the tyrants of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him. His branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land. All the peoples of the earth have gone down from his shadow, and have left him. <sup>3113</sup> All the birds of the sky will dwell on his ruin, and all the animals of the field will be on his branches; <sup>3114</sup> to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, and don't set their top among the thick boughs. Their mighty ones don't stand up on their height, even all who drink water; for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.'

<sup>3115</sup> "The Lord God says: 'In the day when he went down to Sheol, I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers. The great waters were stopped. I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. <sup>3116</sup> I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit. All the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. <sup>3117</sup> They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the middle of the nations.'

<sup>3118</sup> "To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth. You will lie in the middle of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. 'This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says the Lord God."

CHAPTER 32

<sup>321</sup> In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, "God's word came to me, saying, <sup>322</sup> 'Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, "You were likened to a young lion of the nations; yet you are as a monster in the seas. You broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers."

<sup>323</sup> The Lord God says: "I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they will bring you up in my net."

<sup>324</sup> I will leave you on the land. I will cast you out on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you. I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you.

<sup>325</sup> I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height.

<sup>326</sup> I will also water the land in which you swim with your blood, even to the mountains. The watercourses will be full of you.

<sup>327</sup> When I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and make its stars dark. I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon won't give its light. <sup>317</sup>

<sup>328</sup> I will make all the bright lights of the sky dark over you, and set darkness on your land," says the Lord God.

<sup>329</sup> "I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known.

<sup>3210</sup> Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid for you, when I brandish my sword before them. They will tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall."

<sup>3211</sup> For the Lord God says: "The sword of the king of Babylon will come on you.

<sup>3212</sup> I will cause your multitude to fall by the swords of the mighty. They are all the ruthless of the nations. They will bring the pride of Egypt to nothing, and all its multitude will be destroyed.

<sup>3213</sup> I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters. The foot of man won't trouble them any more, nor will the hoofs of animals trouble them.

<sup>3214</sup> Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil," says the Lord God.

<sup>3215</sup> "When I make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I strike all those who dwell therein, then they will know that I am God.

<sup>3216</sup> ""This is the lamentation with which they will lament. The daughters of the nations will lament with this. They will lament with it over Egypt, and over all her multitude," says the Lord God."

<sup>3217</sup> Also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, God's word came to me, saying, <sup>3218</sup> "Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. <sup>3219</sup> Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.

<sup>3220</sup> They will fall among those who are slain by the sword. She is delivered to the sword. Draw her away with all her multitudes. <sup>3221</sup> The strong among the mighty will speak to him out of the middle of Sheol with those who help him. They have gone down. The uncircumcised lie still, slain by the sword.

sword,<sup>3223</sup> whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

<sup>3224</sup> "There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit.<sup>3225</sup> They have set her a bed among the slain with all her multitude. Her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. He is put among those who are slain.

<sup>3228</sup> "But you will be broken among the uncircumcised, and will lie with those who are slain by the sword.

<sup>3229</sup> "There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword. They will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>3230</sup> "There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain. They are put to shame in the terror which they caused by their might. They lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>3231</sup> "Pharaoh will see them, and will be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword," says the Lord God. <sup>3232</sup> "For I have put his terror in the land of the living. He will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude," says the Lord God.

CHAPTER 33

<sup>331</sup> God's word came to me, saying,<sup>332</sup> "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, 'When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman;<sup>333</sup> if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the trumpet, and warns the people;<sup>334</sup> then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't heed the warning, if the sword comes, and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head.<sup>335</sup> He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning. His blood will be on him; whereas if he had heeded the warning, he would have delivered his soul.<sup>336</sup> But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and takes any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'

<sup>337</sup> "So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warnings from me.<sup>338</sup> When I tell the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you don't speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man will die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood at your hand.<sup>339</sup> Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

<sup>3310</sup> "You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: 'You say this, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them. How then can we live?"'

<sup>3311</sup> Tell them, "As I live," says the Lord God, "I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, house of Israel?"<sup>318</sup>

<sup>3312</sup> "You, son of man, tell the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him in the day of his disobedience. And as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall by it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither will he who is righteous be able to live by it in the day that he sins.<sup>3313</sup> When I tell the righteous that he will surely live; if he trusts in his righteousness, and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but he will die in his iniquity that he has committed.<sup>3314</sup> Again, when I say to the wicked, "You will surely die;" if he turns from his sin, and does that which is lawful and right;<sup>3315</sup> if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he will surely live. He will not die.<sup>3316</sup> None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done that which is lawful and right. He will surely live.

<sup>3317</sup> "Yet the children of your people say, "The way of the Lord is not fair;" but as for them, their way is not fair.

<sup>3318</sup> When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he will even die therein. <sup>3319</sup> When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he will live by it.

<sup>3320</sup> Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is not fair." House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways."

<sup>3321</sup> In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The

<sup>318</sup> Clearly God desires that none should sin and perish, but all should believe in Him and His commandments and live. God always gives man the choice and never revokes his free will to choose (see also Ezek 33:18-19).

city has been defeated!"<sup>3322</sup> Now God's hand had been on me in the evening, before he who had escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

<sup>3323</sup> God's word came to me, saying, <sup>3324</sup> "Son of man, those who inhabit the waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, 'Abraham was one, and he inherited the land; but we are many. The land is given us for inheritance.'"<sup>3325</sup> Therefore tell them, 'The Lord God says: "You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. So should you possess the land?"'<sup>3326</sup> You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife. So should you possess the land?"'

<sup>3327</sup> "You shall tell them, 'The Lord God says: "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword. I will give whoever is in the open field to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the pestilence.

<sup>3328</sup> I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through.'<sup>3329</sup> Then they will know that I am God, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed."

<sup>3330</sup> "As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk about you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes out from God.'<sup>3331</sup> They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain.<sup>3332</sup> Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them.

<sup>3333</sup> "When this comes to pass—behold, it comes—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

CHAPTER 34

<sup>341</sup> God's word came to me, saying, <sup>342</sup> "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and tell them, even the shepherds, 'The Lord God says: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep?"<sup>343</sup> You eat the fat. You clothe yourself with the wool. You kill the fatlings, but you don't feed the sheep.<sup>344</sup> You haven't strengthened the diseased. You haven't healed that which was sick. You haven't bound up that which was broken. You haven't brought back that which was driven away. You haven't sought that which was lost, but you have ruled over them with force and with rigor.<sup>345</sup> They were scattered, because there was no shepherd. They became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered.<sup>346</sup> My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill. Yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth. There was no one who searched or sought."

<sup>348</sup> "As I live," says the Lord God, "surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, and my shepherds didn't search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep."<sup>349</sup> Therefore, you shepherds, hear God's word:<sup>3410</sup> The Lord God says: "Behold, I am against the shepherds. I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep. The shepherds won't feed themselves any more. I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them."

<sup>3411</sup> "For the Lord God says: "Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.

<sup>3412</sup> As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so I will seek out my sheep. I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.<sup>3413</sup> I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country.<sup>3414</sup> I will feed them with good pasture; and their fold will be on the mountains of the height of Israel. There they will lie down in a good fold. They will feed on fat pasture on the mountains of Israel.<sup>3415</sup> I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord God.<sup>3416</sup> "I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will feed them in justice."

<sup>3417</sup> "As for you, O my flock, the Lord God says: 'Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats.<sup>3418</sup> Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but must you foul the residue with your feet?<sup>3419</sup> As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.'

<sup>3420</sup> "Therefore the Lord God says to them: 'Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.<sup>3421</sup> Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad;<sup>3422</sup> therefore I will save my flock, and they will no more be a prey. I will judge between sheep and sheep.<sup>3423</sup> I will set up one shepherd over them, and he will feed them, even my servant David. He will feed them, and he will be their shepherd.<sup>319</sup>

<sup>319</sup> This and passages following could be seen as a reference to Jesus to come.

<sup>34</sup>24 I, God, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them. I, God, have spoken it.

<sup>34</sup>25 "I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land. They will dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.<sup>34</sup>26 I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing. I will cause the shower to come down in its season. There will be showers of blessing.<sup>34</sup>27 The tree of the field will yield its fruit, and the earth will yield its increase, and they will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am God, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them.<sup>34</sup>28 They will no more be a prey to the nations, neither will the animals of the earth devour them; but they will dwell securely, and no one will make them afraid.<sup>34</sup>29 I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they will no more be consumed with famine in the land, and not bear the shame of the nations any more.<sup>34</sup>30 They will know that I, God, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord God.<sup>34</sup>31 You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God,' says the Lord God."

CHAPTER 35

<sup>35</sup>1 Moreover God's word came to me, saying,<sup>35</sup>2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,<sup>35</sup>3 and tell it, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you. I will make you a desolation and an astonishment.<sup>35</sup>4 I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am God.'

<sup>35</sup>5 ""Because you have had a perpetual hostility, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end;<sup>35</sup>6 therefore, as I live," says the Lord God, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood will pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, therefore blood will pursue you."<sup>320</sup>

<sup>35</sup>7 Thus I will make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation. I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns.<sup>35</sup>8 I will fill its mountains with its slain. The slain with the sword will fall in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses.<sup>35</sup>9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am God.

<sup>35</sup>10 ""Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess it,' whereas God was there;<sup>35</sup>11 therefore, as I live," says the Lord God, "I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them when I judge you.<sup>35</sup>12 You will know that I, God, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They have been laid desolate. They have been given to us to devour.'<sup>35</sup>13 You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me. I have heard it."<sup>35</sup>14 The Lord God says: "When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.<sup>35</sup>15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it. Then they will know that I am God."

CHAPTER 36

<sup>36</sup>1 You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, "You mountains of Israel, hear God's word.<sup>36</sup>2 The Lord God says: 'Because the enemy has said against you, "Ahal" and, "The ancient high places are ours in possession!"'<sup>36</sup>3 therefore prophesy, and say, 'The Lord God says: "Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people;"<sup>36</sup>4 therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: The Lord God says to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which have become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around;<sup>36</sup>5 therefore the Lord God says: "Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey."<sup>36</sup>6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains, the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations."<sup>36</sup>7 Therefore the Lord God says: "I have sworn, 'Surely the nations that are around you will bear their shame.'<sup>36</sup>8 ""But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come.<sup>36</sup>9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will come to you, and you will be tilled and sown.<sup>36</sup>10 I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it. The cities will be inhabited, and the waste places will be built.

<sup>36</sup>11 I will multiply man and animal on you. They will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before, and you will do better than at your beginnings. Then you will know that I am God.<sup>36</sup>12 Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will never again bereave them of their children."

<sup>36</sup>13 "The Lord God says: "Because they say to you, 'You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation,'<sup>36</sup>14 therefore you shall devour men no more, and not bereave your nation any more," says the Lord God.<sup>36</sup>15 "I won't let you hear the shame of the nations any more. You won't bear the reproach of the peoples any more, and you won't cause your nation to stumble any more," says the Lord God."

<sup>36</sup>16 Moreover God's word came to me, saying, <sup>36</sup>17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their ways and by their deeds. Their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. <sup>36</sup>18 Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols.

<sup>36</sup>19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. I judged them according to their way and according to their deeds.

<sup>36</sup>20 When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, 'These are God's people, and have left his land.' <sup>36</sup>21 But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

<sup>36</sup>22 "Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'The Lord God says: "I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you went.

<sup>36</sup>23 I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am God,' says the Lord God, "when I am proven holy in you before their eyes.

<sup>36</sup>24 ""For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. <sup>36</sup>25 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness, and from all your idols.

<sup>36</sup>26 I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.

<sup>36</sup>27 I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes. You will keep my ordinances and do them. <sup>36</sup>28 You will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>36</sup>29 I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. <sup>36</sup>30 I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations.

<sup>36</sup>31 ""Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. <sup>36</sup>32 I don't do this for your sake," says the Lord God. "Let it be known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel."

<sup>36</sup>33 "The Lord God says: "In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the waste places will be built. <sup>36</sup>34 The land that was desolate will be tilled instead of being a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. <sup>36</sup>35 They will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The waste, desolate, and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.' <sup>36</sup>36 Then the nations that are left around you will know that I, God, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate. I, God, have spoken it, and I will do it."

<sup>36</sup>37 "The Lord God says: "For this, moreover, I will be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. <sup>36</sup>38 As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so the waste cities will be filled with flocks of men. Then they will know that I am God."

CHAPTER 37

<sup>37</sup>1 God's hand was on me, and he brought me out in God's Spirit, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. <sup>32</sup>1

<sup>37</sup>2 He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. <sup>37</sup>3 He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Lord God, you know."

<sup>37</sup>4 Again he said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, 'You dry bones, hear God's word.'

<sup>37</sup>5 The Lord God says to these bones: "Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live."

<sup>37</sup>6 I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am God."

<sup>37</sup>7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, there was an earthquake. Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. <sup>37</sup>8 I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

<sup>37</sup>9 Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, 'The Lord God says: "Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."'"

<sup>37</sup>10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

<sup>37</sup>11 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost. We are completely cut off.' <sup>37</sup>12 Therefore prophesy, and tell them, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. <sup>37</sup>13 You will know that I am God, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. <sup>37</sup>14 I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live. Then I will place you in your own land; and you will know that I, God, have spoken it and performed it," says God.'"

<sup>37</sup>15 God's word came again to me, saying, <sup>37</sup>16 "You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, 'For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions.' Then the people of Israel. It is not to be taken literally as revitalization of actual skeletons of dead people (see Ezek 40:2; 1 Cor 15:52).

<sup>32</sup>1 Ezekiel 37 is testimony of a mystical experience God gave him which had great meaning about God's intention to revive and unify

take another stick, and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions.'<sup>3717</sup> Then join them for yourself to one another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.

<sup>3718</sup> "When the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Won't you show us what you mean by these?' <sup>3719</sup> tell them, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in my hand."<sup>3720</sup> The sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.'"<sup>3721</sup> Say to them, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land."<sup>3722</sup> I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. One king will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations. They won't be divided into two kingdoms any more at all.'<sup>3723</sup> They won't defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. So they will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>3724</sup> ""My servant David will be king over them. They all will have one shepherd. They will also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them.

<sup>3725</sup> They will dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived. They will dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever. David my servant will be their prince forever."<sup>3726</sup> Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will place them, multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forever more.<sup>3727</sup> My tent also will be with them. I will be their God, and they will be my people."<sup>3728</sup> The nations will know that I am God who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is among them forever more."""

CHAPTER 38

<sup>381</sup> God's word came to me, saying,<sup>382</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him,<sup>383</sup> and say, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal."<sup>384</sup> I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords;<sup>385</sup> Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet;<sup>386</sup> Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

<sup>387</sup> ""Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them."<sup>388</sup> After many days you will be visited.

In the latter years you will come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought out of the peoples, and they will dwell securely, all of them.<sup>389</sup> You will ascend. You will come like a storm. You will be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you."

<sup>3810</sup> "The Lord God says: "It will happen in that day that things will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan.<sup>3811</sup> You will say, 'I will go up to the land of unvalued villages. I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,<sup>3812</sup> to take the plunder and to take prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth.'<sup>3813</sup> Sheba, Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all its young lions, will ask you, 'Have you come to take the plunder? Have you assembled your company to take the prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?'"'

<sup>3814</sup> "Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, 'The Lord God says: "In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, will you not know it?"<sup>3815</sup> You will come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army.<sup>3816</sup> You will come up against my people Israel as a cloud to cover the land. It will happen in the latter days that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me when I am sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes."

<sup>3817</sup> "The Lord God says: "Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them?"<sup>3818</sup> It will happen in that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel," says the Lord God, "that my wrath will come up into my nostrils.<sup>3819</sup> For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath I have spoken. Surely in that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel;<sup>3820</sup> so that the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth will shake at my presence. Then the mountains will be thrown down, the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground.<sup>3821</sup> I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains," says the Lord God. "Every man's sword will be against his brother.

<sup>3822</sup> I will enter into judgment with him with pestilence and with blood. I will rain on him, on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, with great hailstones, fire, and sulfur.

<sup>3823</sup> I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am God."

CHAPTER 39

<sup>39</sup>1 "You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'The Lord God says: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal.<sup>39</sup>2 I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you onto the mountains of Israel.<sup>39</sup>3 I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand.<sup>39</sup>4 You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you. I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured.<sup>39</sup>5 You will fall on the open field; for I have spoken it," says the Lord God.<sup>39</sup>6 "I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands. Then they will know that I am God.

<sup>39</sup>7 ""I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I won't allow my holy name to be profaned any more. Then the nations will know that I am God, the Holy One in Israel.<sup>39</sup>8 Behold, it comes, and it will be done," says the Lord God. "This is the day about which I have spoken.

<sup>39</sup>9 ""Those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out, and will make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs and the spears, and they will make fires with them for seven years;<sup>39</sup>10 so that they will take no wood out of the field, and not cut down any out of the forests; for they will make fires with the weapons. They will plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them," says the Lord God.

<sup>39</sup>11 ""It will happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it will stop those who pass through. They will bury Gog and all his multitude there; and they will call it 'The valley of Hamon Gog'.

<sup>39</sup>12 ""The house of Israel will be burying them for seven months, that they may cleanse the land.

<sup>39</sup>13 Yes, all the people of the land will bury them; and they will become famous in the day that I will be glorified," says the Lord God.

<sup>39</sup>14 ""They will set apart men of continual employment, who will pass through the land. Those who pass through will go with those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it. After the end of seven months they will search.

<sup>39</sup>15 Those who pass through the land will pass through; and when anyone sees a man's bone, then he will set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog.<sup>39</sup>16 Hamonah will also be the name of a city. Thus they will cleanse the land."

<sup>39</sup>17 "You, son of man, the Lord God says: 'Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field,

"Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat meat and drink blood.<sup>39</sup>18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.<sup>39</sup>19 You shall eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.<sup>39</sup>20 You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war," says the Lord God.'

<sup>39</sup>21 "I will set my glory among the nations. Then all the nations will see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them.<sup>39</sup>22 So the house of Israel will know that I am The Lord their God, from that day and forward.<sup>39</sup>23 The nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them; so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword.<sup>39</sup>24 I did to them according to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions. I hid my face from them.

<sup>39</sup>25 "Therefore the Lord God says: 'Now I will reverse the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel. I will be jealous for my holy name.

<sup>39</sup>26 They will bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they dwell securely in their land, and no one will make them afraid,<sup>39</sup>27 when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations.<sup>39</sup>28 They will know that I am The Lord their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land. Then I will leave none of them captive any more.<sup>39</sup>29 I won't hide my face from them any more; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel,' says the Lord God."<sup>322</sup>

CHAPTER 40

<sup>40</sup>1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck, in the same day, God's hand was on me, and he brought me there.<sup>40</sup>2 In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on which was something like the frame of a city to the south.

<sup>40</sup>3 He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.<sup>40</sup>4 The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I will show you; for

<sup>322</sup> From these passages (Ezek 39:22, 29, 40:2) we can see that God believed in Israel that they would not betray Him again as before. Thus, He did not envision their rejection of His son, Jesus, when he later came to the chosen people of Israel, followed by the subsequent total destruction of Israel again (see Topical Index #23).

you have been brought here so that I may show them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel." <sup>40</sup><sub>5</sub> Behold, there was a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a hand width each. So he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

<sup>40</sup><sub>6</sub> Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. <sup>40</sup><sub>7</sub> Every lodge was one reed long and one reed wide. Between the lodges was five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed.

<sup>40</sup><sub>8</sub> He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. <sup>40</sup><sub>9</sub> Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house.

<sup>40</sup><sub>10</sub> The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side. The three of them were of one measure. The posts had one measure on this side and on that side. <sup>40</sup><sub>11</sub> He measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; <sup>40</sup><sub>12</sub> and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

<sup>40</sup><sub>13</sub> He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits, door against door. <sup>40</sup><sub>14</sub> He also made posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. <sup>40</sup><sub>15</sub> From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. <sup>40</sup><sub>16</sub> There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches. Windows were around inward. Palm trees were on each post.

<sup>40</sup><sub>17</sub> Then he brought me into the outer court. Behold, there were rooms and a pavement made for the court all around. Thirty rooms were on the pavement. <sup>40</sup><sub>18</sub> The pavement was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. <sup>40</sup><sub>19</sub> Then he measured the width from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.

<sup>40</sup><sub>20</sub> He measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court which faces toward the north. <sup>40</sup><sub>21</sub> The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side. Its posts and its arches were the same as the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. <sup>40</sup><sub>22</sub> Its windows, its arches, and its palm trees were the same as the measure of the gate which faces toward the east. They went up to it by seven steps. Its arches were before them. <sup>40</sup><sub>23</sub> There was a gate to the inner court facing the other gate, on the north and on the east. He measured one hundred cubits from gate to gate.

<sup>40</sup><sub>24</sub> He led me toward the south; and behold, there was a gate toward the south. He measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements.

<sup>40</sup><sub>25</sub> There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. <sup>40</sup><sub>26</sub> There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them. It had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. <sup>40</sup><sub>27</sub> There was a gate to the inner court toward the south. He measured one hundred cubits from gate to gate toward the south.

<sup>40</sup><sub>28</sub> Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. He measured the south gate according to these measurements; <sup>40</sup><sub>29</sub> with its lodges, its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements. There were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide.

<sup>40</sup><sub>30</sub> There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. <sup>40</sup><sub>31</sub> Its arches were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts. The ascent to it had eight steps.

<sup>40</sup><sub>32</sub> He brought me into the inner court toward the east. He measured the gate according to these measurements; <sup>40</sup><sub>33</sub> with its lodges, its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements. There were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide.

<sup>40</sup><sub>34</sub> Its arches were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side. The ascent to it had eight steps.

<sup>40</sup><sub>35</sub> He brought me to the north gate, and he measured it according to these measurements; <sup>40</sup><sub>36</sub> its lodges, its posts, and its arches. There were windows in it all around. The length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits. <sup>40</sup><sub>37</sub> Its posts were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side. The ascent to it had eight steps.

<sup>40</sup><sub>38</sub> A room with its door was by the posts at the gates. They washed the burnt offering there.

<sup>40</sup><sub>39</sub> In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, on which to kill the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering. <sup>40</sup><sub>40</sub> On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. <sup>40</sup><sub>41</sub> Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate: eight tables, on which they killed the sacrifices. <sup>40</sup><sub>42</sub> There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. They laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice on them. <sup>40</sup><sub>43</sub> The hooks, a hand width long, were fastened within all around. The meat of the offering was on the tables.

<sup>40</sup><sub>45</sub> He said to me, "This room, which faces toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house. <sup>40</sup><sub>46</sub> The room which faces toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to God to minister to him."

<sup>40</sup><sup>48</sup> Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side. The width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.<sup>40</sup><sup>49</sup> The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it. There were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER 41

<sup>41</sup><sup>4</sup> He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple. He said to me, "This is the most holy place."

<sup>41</sup><sup>21</sup> As for the temple, the door posts were squared. As for the face of the sanctuary, its appearance was as the appearance of the temple.<sup>41</sup><sup>22</sup> The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that is before God."<sup>41</sup><sup>23</sup> The temple and the sanctuary had two doors.<sup>41</sup><sup>24</sup> The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other.<sup>41</sup><sup>25</sup> There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like those made on the walls. There was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside.<sup>41</sup><sup>26</sup> There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch. This is how the side rooms of the house and the thresholds were arranged.

CHAPTER 42

<sup>42</sup><sup>1</sup> Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north. Then he brought me into the room that was opposite the separate place, and which was opposite the building toward the north.

were one hundred cubits.<sup>429</sup> From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

<sup>4210</sup> In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms.<sup>4211</sup> The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.<sup>4212</sup> According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

<sup>4213</sup> Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to God shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, with the meal offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy."<sup>4214</sup> When the priests enter in, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but they shall lay their garments in which they minister there; for they are holy. Then they shall put on other garments, and shall approach that which is for the people."

<sup>4219</sup> He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

<sup>4220</sup> He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

CHAPTER 43

<sup>434</sup> God's glory came into the house by the way of the gate which faces toward the east.<sup>435</sup> The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, God's glory filled the house.

<sup>436</sup> I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me.<sup>437</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places;<sup>438</sup> in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post. There was a wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed. Therefore I have consumed them in my anger.<sup>439</sup> Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me. Then I will dwell among them forever.

<sup>4310</sup> "You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.

<sup>4311</sup> If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them.

<sup>4315</sup> The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns.

<sup>4318</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, the Lord God says: 'These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it.'<sup>4319</sup> You shall give to the Levitical priests who are of the offspring of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me," says the Lord God, 'a young bull for a sin offering.'

<sup>4320</sup> You shall take of its blood, and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. You shall cleanse it and make atonement for it that way.

<sup>4321</sup> You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary.

<sup>4322</sup> "On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull.<sup>4323</sup> When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect, and a ram out of the flock without defect.

<sup>4324</sup> You shall bring them near to God, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to God.

CHAPTER 44

<sup>44</sup><sup>4</sup> Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, God's glory filled God's house; so I fell on my face.

<sup>44</sup><sup>5</sup> God said to me, "Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of God's house, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary.<sup>44</sup><sup>6</sup> You shall tell the rebellious, even the house of Israel, 'The Lord God says: "You house of Israel, let that be enough of all your abominations,<sup>44</sup><sup>7</sup> in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations.<sup>44</sup><sup>8</sup> You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves."<sup>44</sup><sup>9</sup> The Lord God says, "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel.

<sup>44</sup><sup>10</sup> ""But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they will bear their iniquity.<sup>44</sup><sup>11</sup> Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house. They shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.<sup>44</sup><sup>12</sup> Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up my hand against them," says the Lord God, "and they will bear their iniquity.<sup>44</sup><sup>13</sup> They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they will bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

<sup>44</sup><sup>14</sup> Yet I will make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that will be done therein.

<sup>44</sup><sup>15</sup> ""But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me. They shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood," says the Lord God.<sup>44</sup><sup>16</sup> "They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction.

<sup>44</sup><sup>24</sup> ""In a controversy they shall stand to judge. They shall judge it according to my ordinances. They shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts. They shall make my Sabbaths holy.

<sup>44</sup><sup>25</sup> ""They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves.<sup>44</sup><sup>26</sup> After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days.<sup>44</sup><sup>27</sup> In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering," says the Lord God.

<sup>44</sup><sup>28</sup> "They shall have an inheritance. I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel. I am their possession.<sup>44</sup><sup>29</sup> They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.<sup>44</sup><sup>30</sup> The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest. You shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house.<sup>44</sup><sup>31</sup> The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

CHAPTER 45

<sup>45</sup><sup>1</sup> ""Moreover, when you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to God, a holy portion of the land. The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand. It shall be holy in all its border all around. <sup>45</sup>2 Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the holy place; and fifty cubits for its pasture lands all around. <sup>45</sup>3 Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand. In it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. <sup>45</sup>4 It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to God. It shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. <sup>45</sup>5 Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, as a possession for themselves, for twenty rooms.

<sup>45</sup>19 The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. <sup>45</sup>20 So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple. So you shall make atonement for the house.

<sup>45</sup>21 ““In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>45</sup>22 On that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. <sup>45</sup>23 The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to God, seven bulls and seven rams without defect daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. <sup>45</sup>24 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

<sup>45</sup>25 ““In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, he shall do like that for seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.”

CHAPTER 46

<sup>46</sup>1 ““The Lord God says: “The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. <sup>46</sup>2 The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. <sup>46</sup>3 The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before God on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. <sup>46</sup>4 The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to God shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without defect and a ram without defect, <sup>46</sup>5 and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>46</sup>6 On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without defect, and six lambs, and a ram. They shall be without defect. <sup>46</sup>7 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>46</sup>8 When the prince enters, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by its way.

<sup>46</sup>9 ““But when the people of the land come before God in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate. He shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go out straight before him. <sup>46</sup>10 The prince shall go in with them when they go in. When they go out, he shall go out.

<sup>46</sup>11 ““In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.<sup>46</sup><sup>12</sup> When the prince prepares a free will offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a free will offering to God, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out; and after his going out one shall shut the gate.

<sup>46</sup><sup>21</sup> Then he brought me out into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.<sup>46</sup><sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty wide. These four in the corners were the same size.<sup>46</sup><sup>23</sup> There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around.<sup>46</sup><sup>24</sup> Then he said to me, “These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.”

CHAPTER 47

<sup>47</sup><sup>3</sup> When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles.<sup>47</sup><sup>4</sup> Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the waist.<sup>47</sup><sup>5</sup> Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be walked through.

that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who will father children among you. Then they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.
47:23 It shall happen, that in whatever tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord God.

CHAPTER 48

48:1 "Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion.

48:2 "By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion.

48:3 "By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion.

48:4 "By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion.

48:5 "By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion.

48:6 "By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion.

48:7 "By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.

48:8 "By the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in width, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side; and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it.

48:9 "The offering that you shall offer to God shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in width.
48:10 For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of God shall be in the middle of it.
48:11 It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.
48:12 It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a most holy thing, by the border of the Levites.

48:13 "Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width. All the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand.
48:14 They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to God.

48:15 "The five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for pasture lands; and the city shall be in the middle of it.

48:16 These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.
48:17 The city shall have pasture lands: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty.

48:18 The remainder in the length, alongside the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be alongside the holy offering. Its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city.
48:19 Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.
48:20 All the offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand. You shall offer it as a holy offering, with the possession of the city.

48:21 "The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, alongside the portions, it shall be for the prince. The holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it.
48:22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the middle of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

48:23 "As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion.

48:24 "By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion.

48:25 "By the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion.

48:26 "By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion.

48:27 "By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion.

48:28 "By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the brook, to the great sea.

48:29 "This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Lord God.

48:30 "These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure;
48:31 and the gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one.

48:32 "At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.

48:33 "At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one.

48:34 "At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one.

48:35 "It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, 'God is there.'

DANIEL

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars believe it was written sometime around 167–164 BC.

Authorship:

Traditionally ascribed to Daniel, a noble Jew in exile in Babylon, modern scholars believe this book was initially written by an unknown educated Jewish man. They believe the first half of the book to be legendary in origin, and the latter half to have been written by people in the 2nd century BC.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. <sup>12</sup> The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. He brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

<sup>13</sup> The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Israel, even of the royal offspring and of the nobles; <sup>14</sup> youths in whom was no defect, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and who had the ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. <sup>15</sup> The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king.

<sup>16</sup> Now among these were of the children of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. <sup>17</sup> The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

<sup>18</sup> But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank. Therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

<sup>19</sup> Now God made Daniel find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. <sup>20</sup> The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? Then you would endanger my head with the king."

<sup>21</sup> Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: <sup>22</sup> "Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink." <sup>23</sup> Then let our faces be examined before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants." <sup>24</sup> So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days.

<sup>25</sup> At the end of ten days, their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. <sup>26</sup> So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they were given to drink, and gave them vegetables.

<sup>27</sup> Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

<sup>29</sup> The king talked with them; and among them all was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore stood they before the king.

<sup>10</sup> In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm.

<sup>11</sup> Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>4</sup> Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in the Syrian language, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

<sup>5</sup> The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing has gone from me. If you don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be made a dunghill." <sup>6</sup> But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation."

<sup>8</sup> The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see the thing has gone from me." <sup>9</sup> But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the situation changes. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation."

<sup>10</sup> The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, enchanter, or Chaldean." <sup>11</sup> It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

<sup>12</sup> Because of this, the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain. They sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

<sup>14</sup> Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>15</sup> He answered Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. <sup>16</sup> Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: <sup>18</sup> that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.<sup>219</sup> Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.<sup>220</sup> Daniel answered, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his."

<sup>221</sup> He changes the times and the seasons. He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding.

<sup>222</sup> He reveals the deep and secret things. He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. <sup>223</sup> I thank you and praise you, O God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter."

<sup>224</sup> Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said this to him: "Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation."

<sup>225</sup> Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said this to him: "I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah who will make known to the king the interpretation."

<sup>226</sup> The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

<sup>227</sup> Daniel answered before the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded can't be shown to the king by wise men, enchanters, magicians, or soothsayers;<sup>228</sup> but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to king Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these:

<sup>229</sup> "As for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what will happen.<sup>230</sup> But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

<sup>231</sup> "You, O king, saw, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its appearance was terrifying.<sup>232</sup> As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze,<sup>233</sup> its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay.<sup>234</sup> You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. <sup>235</sup> Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them. The stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

<sup>236</sup> "This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king.<sup>237</sup> You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory.

<sup>238</sup> Wherever the children of men dwell, he has given the animals of the field and the birds of the sky into your hand, and has made you rule over them all. You are the head of gold.

<sup>239</sup> "After you, another kingdom will arise that is inferior to you; and another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.<sup>240</sup> The fourth kingdom will be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, it will break in pieces and crush.<sup>241</sup> Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but there will be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay.<sup>242</sup> As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong, and partly broken.<sup>243</sup> Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they will mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they won't cling to one another, even as iron does not mix with clay.

<sup>244</sup> In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be left to another people; but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever.<sup>323</sup>

<sup>245</sup> Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what will happen hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

<sup>246</sup> Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him.<sup>247</sup> The king answered to Daniel, and said, "Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret."

<sup>249</sup> Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel was in the king's gate.

<sup>323</sup> A reference to the coming kingdom of God on earth which God expected to be initiated by Jesus, 2000 years ago upon the foundation of his acceptance by the people of Israel. Tragically, this did not happen.

<sup>324</sup> This series of events echoes the course of Joseph in Egypt who was appointed prime minister after interpreting the Pharaoh's dream.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.<sup>32</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the local governors, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.<sup>33</sup> Then the local governors, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>37</sup> Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

<sup>38</sup> Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews.

<sup>313</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and fury commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then these men were brought before the king.<sup>314</sup> Nebuchadnezzar answered them, "Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?<sup>315</sup> Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, good; but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. Who is that god who will deliver you out of my hands?"

<sup>316</sup> Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.<sup>317</sup> If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king.<sup>318</sup> But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

<sup>319</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.<sup>320</sup> He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.<sup>321</sup> Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the burning fiery furnace.<sup>322</sup> Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.<sup>323</sup> These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace.

<sup>324</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished and rose up in haste. He spoke and said to his counselors, "Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?" They answered the king, "True, O king."

<sup>325</sup> He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed. The appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

<sup>326</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire.<sup>327</sup> The local governors, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies. The hair of their head wasn't singed. Their pants weren't changed, the smell of fire wasn't even on them.

<sup>328</sup> Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.<sup>329</sup> Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver like this."

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>42</sup> It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me.

<sup>43</sup> How great are his signs! How mighty are his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. His dominion is from generation to generation.

<sup>44</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace.<sup>45</sup> I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.<sup>46</sup> Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.<sup>47</sup> Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in; and I told the dream before them; but they didn't make known to me its interpretation.<sup>48</sup> But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. I told the dream before him, saying,

<sup>49</sup> "Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.<sup>50</sup> These were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth; and its height was great.<sup>51</sup> The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth.<sup>52</sup> Its leaves were beautiful, and it had much fruit, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

<sup>53</sup> "I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky.<sup>54</sup> He cried aloud, and said this, 'Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches! Shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit! Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches.'<sup>55</sup> Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky. Let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth.<sup>56</sup>

<sup>57</sup> Let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him. Then let seven times pass over him.

<sup>58</sup> "The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men."

<sup>59</sup> "This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

<sup>60</sup> Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you." Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries.<sup>61</sup> The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth;<sup>62</sup> whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation:<sup>63</sup> it is you, O king, that have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

<sup>64</sup> "Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, 'Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky. Let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him.'

<sup>65</sup> "This is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king:<sup>66</sup> that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.

<sup>67</sup> Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you will have known that the heavens do rule.<sup>68</sup> Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps there may be a lengthening of your tranquility."

<sup>72</sup> While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice came from the sky, saying, "O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: 'The kingdom has departed from you.<sup>73</sup> You shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen. Seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.'"

<sup>74</sup> This was fulfilled the same hour on Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

<sup>75</sup> At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation.

<sup>76</sup> All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stop his hand, or ask him, "What are you doing?"

<sup>436</sup> At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me.<sup>437</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.<sup>52</sup> Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded that the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem be brought to him; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them.<sup>53</sup> Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of God's house which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them.<sup>54</sup> They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

<sup>57</sup> The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>58</sup> Then all the king's wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, and couldn't make known to the king the interpretation.<sup>59</sup> Then king Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

<sup>510</sup> The queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house. The queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed.

<sup>511</sup> There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him. The king, Nebuchadnezzar, your father, yes, the king, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;<sup>512</sup> because an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams, showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts were found in the same

Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation."

<sup>513</sup> Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah?<sup>514</sup> I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you.<sup>515</sup> Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing.<sup>516</sup> But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>517</sup> Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

<sup>518</sup> "To you, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty.<sup>519</sup> Because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed whom he wanted to, and he kept alive whom he wanted to. He raised up whom he wanted to, and he put down whom he wanted to.<sup>520</sup> But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.<sup>521</sup> He was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will.

<sup>522</sup> "You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this,<sup>523</sup> but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. You have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, or hear, or know; and you have not glorified the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways.<sup>524</sup> Then the part of the hand was sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

<sup>526</sup> "This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE: God has counted your kingdom, and brought it to an end.

<sup>529</sup> Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>530</sup> In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain.<sup>531</sup> Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty local governors, who should be throughout the whole kingdom;<sup>62</sup> and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these local governors might give account to them, and that the king should suffer no loss.<sup>63</sup> Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the local governors, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

<sup>64</sup> Then the presidents and the local governors sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion or fault, because he was faithful. There wasn't any error or fault found in him.<sup>65</sup> Then these men said, "We won't find any occasion against this Daniel, unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

<sup>66</sup> Then these presidents and local governors assembled together to the king, and said this to him, "King Darius, live forever!"<sup>67</sup> All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the local governors, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever asks a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O King, he shall be cast into the den of lions.<sup>68</sup> Now, O King, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter."<sup>69</sup> Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

<sup>610</sup> When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before.<sup>611</sup> Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God.<sup>612</sup> Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: "Haven't you signed a decree that every man who makes a petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O King, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered, "This thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter."

<sup>613</sup> Then they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O King, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."<sup>614</sup> Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him.

<sup>615</sup> Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, "Know, O King, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed."

<sup>616</sup> Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you."

<sup>617</sup> A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.<sup>618</sup> Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting. No musical instruments were brought before him; and his sleep fled from him.

<sup>619</sup> Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.<sup>620</sup> When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a troubled voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?"

<sup>621</sup> Then Daniel said to the king, "O King, live forever!"

<sup>622</sup> My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O King, I have done no harm."

<sup>623</sup> Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>624</sup> The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.

<sup>625</sup> Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you."

<sup>626</sup> "I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever. His kingdom is that which will not be destroyed. His dominion will be even to the end."

<sup>627</sup> He delivers and rescues. He works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."

<sup>628</sup> So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.

<sup>72</sup> Daniel spoke and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke out on the great sea.<sup>73</sup> Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another.

<sup>74</sup> "The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man. A man's heart was given to it.

75 "Behold, there was another animal, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. They said this to it: 'Arise! Devour much flesh!'

76 "After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads; and dominion was given to it.

77 "After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, there was a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet. It was different from all the animals that were before it. It had ten horns.

78 "I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

79 "I watched until thrones were placed, and one who was the Ancient of Days<sup>325</sup> sat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire.

710 A fiery stream issued and came out from before him. Thousands of thousands ministered to him. Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The judgment was set. The books were opened.

711 "I watched at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I watched even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire.<sup>712</sup> As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

713 "I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like a son of man,"<sup>326</sup> and he came even to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him.

714 Dominion was given him, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and his kingdom one that which will not be destroyed.

715 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.<sup>716</sup> I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this.

"So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.<sup>717</sup> These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who will arise out of the earth.<sup>718</sup> But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever."<sup>327</sup>

719 "Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of bronze; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet;<sup>720</sup> and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows.<sup>721</sup> I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them,<sup>722</sup> until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

723 "So he said, 'The fourth animal will be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different from all the kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and will tread it down, and break it in pieces.<sup>724</sup> As for the ten horns, ten kings will arise out of this kingdom. Another will arise after them; and he will be different from the former, and he will put down three kings.<sup>725</sup> He will speak words against the Most High, and will wear out the saints of the Most High. He will plan to change the times and the law; and they will be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time.'

726 "But the judgment will be set, and they will take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end.<sup>727</sup> The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him.<sup>328</sup>

728 "Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and my face was changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart."

CHAPTER 8

81 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first.<sup>82</sup> I saw the vision. Now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai.<sup>83</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. The two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

84 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward. No animals could stand before him. There wasn't any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

<sup>326</sup> Divine Principle interprets this verse to refer to the coming of Jesus and to his everlasting Kingdom of Heaven on earth (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 6, Section 2.1 and Matt 24:30; 26:64; Jude 12; Rev 1:7).

<sup>327</sup> A possible reference to the literal Kingdom of Heaven on earth which Jesus came to bring.

<sup>328</sup> Another possible reference to the coming of Jesus and the Kingdom of Heaven on earth.

<sup>85</sup> As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground. The goat had a notable horn between his eyes.<sup>86</sup> He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power.

<sup>87</sup> I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him. There was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand.<sup>88</sup> The male goat magnified himself exceedingly. When he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky.

<sup>89</sup> Out of one of them came out a little horn, which grew exceedingly great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land.

<sup>90</sup> It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and it cast down some of the army and of the stars to the ground, and trampled on them.<sup>91</sup> Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.<sup>92</sup> The army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience. It cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered.

<sup>93</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long will the vision about the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot be?"<sup>94</sup> He said to me, "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary will be cleansed."

<sup>95</sup> When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. Then behold, there stood before me something like the appearance of a man.<sup>96</sup> I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

<sup>97</sup> So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end."

<sup>98</sup> Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright.

<sup>99</sup> He said, "Behold, I will make you know what will be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end.<sup>100</sup> The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia.<sup>101</sup> The rough male goat is the king of Greece. The great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.<sup>102</sup> As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not with his power.

<sup>103</sup> In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, will stand up.

power. He will destroy awesomely, and will prosper in what he does. He will destroy the mighty ones and the holy people.<sup>105</sup> Through his policy he will cause deceit to prosper in his hand. He will magnify himself in his heart, and he will destroy many in their security. He will also stand up against the prince of princes; but he will be broken without hand.

<sup>106</sup> "The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision, for it belongs to many days to come."

<sup>107</sup> I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick for some days. Then I rose up, and did the king's business. I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the offspring of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans,<sup>92</sup> in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years about which God's word came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years.

<sup>93</sup> I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>94</sup> I prayed to God my God, and made confession, and said, "Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments,<sup>95</sup> we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances.<sup>96</sup> We haven't listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

<sup>97</sup> "Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as it is today; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you.

<sup>98</sup> Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you.<sup>99</sup> To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him.<sup>100</sup> We haven't obeyed The Lord our God's voice, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.<sup>101</sup> Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice.

"Therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against him.<sup>102</sup> He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem.<sup>103</sup> As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us. Yet we have not entreated the favor of The Lord our God, that we should turn from our iniquities and have discernment in your truth.<sup>104</sup> Therefore God has watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for The Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice.

<sup>9</sup><sup>15</sup> "Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as it is today; we have sinned. We have done wickedly. <sup>9</sup><sup>16</sup> Lord, according to all your righteousness, please let your anger and your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us.

<sup>9</sup><sup>17</sup> "Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. <sup>9</sup><sup>18</sup> My God, turn your ear, and hear. Open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name; for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake. <sup>9</sup><sup>19</sup> Lord, hear. Lord, forgive. Lord, listen and do. Don't defer, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

<sup>9</sup><sup>20</sup> While I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before God my God for the holy mountain of my God; <sup>9</sup><sup>21</sup> yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. <sup>9</sup><sup>22</sup> He instructed me and talked with me, and said, "Daniel, I have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. <sup>9</sup><sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went out, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved. Therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.

<sup>9</sup><sup>24</sup> "Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy.

<sup>9</sup><sup>25</sup> "Know therefore and discern that from the going out of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Anointed One, <sup>329</sup> the prince, will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It will be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. <sup>9</sup><sup>26</sup> After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One will be cut off, and will have nothing. The people of the prince who come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end will be with a flood, and war will be even to the end. Desolations are determined. <sup>9</sup><sup>27</sup> He will make a firm covenant with many for one week. In the middle of the week he will cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. On the wing of abominations will come one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, wrath will be poured out on the desolate."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>10</sup><sup>1</sup> In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare. He understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

<sup>10</sup><sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. <sup>10</sup><sup>3</sup> I ate no pleasant bread. No meat or wine came into my mouth. I didn't anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

<sup>10</sup><sup>10</sup> Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. <sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup> He said to me, "Daniel, you greatly beloved man, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have been sent to you, now." When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling.

<sup>10</sup><sup>12</sup> Then he said to me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. I have come for your words' sake. <sup>10</sup><sup>13</sup> But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withheld me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me because I remained there with the kings of Persia. <sup>10</sup><sup>14</sup> Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days."

<sup>10</sup><sup>15</sup> When he had spoken these words to me, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. <sup>10</sup><sup>16</sup> Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, "My lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows have overtaken me, and I retain no strength. <sup>10</sup><sup>17</sup> For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me. There was no breath left in me."

you. Be strong. Yes, be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me."

<sup>10</sup><sup>20</sup> Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece will come.<sup>10</sup><sup>21</sup> But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth. There is no one who holds with me against these, but Michael your prince.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> At the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an agreement; but she will not retain the strength of her arm. He will also not stand, nor will his arm; but she will be given up, with those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times.

<sup>11</sup><sup>14</sup> "In those times many will stand up against the king of the south. Also the children of the violent among your people will lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they will fall.<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> So the king of the north will come and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city. The forces of the south won't stand, neither will his chosen people, neither will there be any strength to stand.<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> But he who comes against him will do according to his own will, and no one will stand before him. He will stand in the glorious land, and destruction will be in his hand.<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> He will set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions. He will perform them. He will give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she will not stand, and won't be for him.<sup>11</sup><sup>18</sup> After this he will turn his face to the islands, and will take many; but a prince will cause the reproach offered by him to cease. Yes, moreover, he will cause his reproach to turn on him.<sup>11</sup><sup>19</sup> Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he will stumble and fall, and won't be found.

<sup>11</sup><sup>20</sup> "Then one who will cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory will stand up in his place; but within few days he shall be destroyed, not in anger, and not in battle.

<sup>11</sup><sup>27</sup> As for both these kings, their hearts will be to do mischief, and they will speak lies at one table; but it won't prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time.<sup>11</sup><sup>28</sup> Then he will return into his land with great wealth. His heart will be against the holy covenant. He will take action, and return to his own land.

<sup>11</sup><sup>29</sup> "He will return at the appointed time, and come into the south; but it won't be in the latter time as it was in the former.<sup>11</sup><sup>30</sup> For ships of Kittim will come against him. Therefore he will be grieved, and will return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and will take action. He will even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant.

<sup>11</sup><sup>31</sup> "Forces will stand on his part, and they will profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and will take away the continual burnt offering. Then they will set up the abomination that makes desolate.<sup>11</sup><sup>32</sup> He will corrupt those who do wickedly against the covenant by flatteries; but the people who know their God will be strong, and take action.

<sup>11</sup><sup>44</sup> But news out of the east and out of the north will trouble him; and he will go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. <sup>11</sup><sup>45</sup> He will plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>1</sup> "At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time. At that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. <sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>12</sup><sup>3</sup> Those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the expanse. Those who turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever.

book, even to the time of the end. Many will run back and forth, and knowledge will be increased."

<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. <sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be to the end of these wonders?"

<sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it will be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have finished breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things will be finished.

<sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> I heard, but I didn't understand. Then I said, "My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?"

<sup>12</sup><sup>9</sup> He said, "Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.

<sup>12</sup><sup>10</sup> Many will purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked will do wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand; but those who are wise will understand.

<sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> "From the time that the continual burnt offering is taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there will be one thousand two hundred ninety days. <sup>12</sup><sup>12</sup> Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days.

<sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup> "But go your way until the end; for you will rest, and will stand in your inheritance at the end of the days."

HOSEA

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

Brief background summary

Dating:

The author, if it was the prophet Hosea, lived during the 8th century BC.

Authorship:

It is widely accepted that Hosea, the son of Beeri, was the author of this book.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>God's word that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.<sup>2</sup>When God spoke at first by Hosea, God said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking God."

<sup>3</sup>So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

<sup>4</sup>God said to him, "Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease."<sup>5</sup>It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

Then he said to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them."<sup>7</sup>But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by The Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen."

<sup>8</sup>Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

<sup>9</sup>He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours."<sup>10</sup>Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured or counted; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.'<sup>11</sup>The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>24</sup>Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy; for they are children of unfaithfulness;

<sup>25</sup>For their mother has played the prostitute. She who conceived them has done shamefully; for she said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

<sup>26</sup>Therefore behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she can't find her way.

<sup>27</sup>She will follow after her lovers, but she won't overtake them; and she will seek them, but won't find them. Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband; for then it was better with me than now.'

<sup>28</sup>For she didn't know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.

<sup>29</sup>Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness.

<sup>30</sup>Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her out of my hand.

<sup>31</sup>I will also cause all her celebrations to cease: her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.

<sup>32</sup>I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, about which she has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest,' and the animals of the field shall eat them.

<sup>33</sup>I will visit on her the days of the Baals, to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgot me," says God.

<sup>34</sup>"Therefore behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her.

<sup>35</sup>I will give her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she will respond there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>36</sup>It will be in that day," says God, "that you will call me 'my husband,' and no longer call me 'my master.'

<sup>37</sup>For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.

<sup>38</sup>In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and with the creeping things of the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, and will make them lie down safely.

<sup>39</sup>I will betroth you to me forever. Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.

<sup>40</sup>I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness; and you shall know God.

<sup>41</sup>It will happen in that day, I will respond," says God, "I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth;

<sup>42</sup>and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will respond to Jezreel.

<sup>43</sup>I will sow her to me in the earth; and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy; and I will tell those who were not my people, 'You are my people;' and they will say, 'My God!'

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup>God said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as God loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."

<sup>32</sup>So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley.<sup>33</sup>I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."

34 For the children of Israel shall live many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols.<sup>35</sup> Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek The Lord their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to God and to his blessings in the last days.

CHAPTER 4

41 Hear God's word, you children of Israel; for God has a charge against the inhabitants of the land: "Indeed there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land.

42 There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.

43 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells in it will waste away, with all living things in her, even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky; yes, the fish of the sea also die.

44 "Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.

45 You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother.

46 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to me. Because you have forgotten your God's law, I will also forget your children.<sup>330</sup>

47 As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me. I will change their glory into shame.

48 They feed on the sin of my people, and set their heart on their iniquity.

49 It will be, like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds.

410 They will eat, and not have enough. They will play the prostitute, and will not increase; because they have abandoned giving to God.

411 Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.

412 My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood. Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God.

413 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good. Therefore your daughters play the prostitute, and your brides commit adultery.

414 I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, nor your brides when they commit adultery; because the men consort with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes; so the people without understanding will come to ruin.

415 "Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, yet don't let Judah offend; and don't come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, 'As God lives.'

416 For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer. Then how will God feed them like a lamb in a meadow.

417 Ephraim is joined to idols. Leave him alone!

418 Their drink has become sour. They play the prostitute continually. Her rulers dearly love their shameful way.

419 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5

51 "Listen to this, you priests! Listen, house of Israel, and give ear, house of the king! For the judgment is against you; for you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread on Tabor.

52 The rebels are deep in slaughter; but I discipline all of them.

53 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me; for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute. Israel is defiled.

54 Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their God; for the spirit of prostitution is within them, and they don't know God.

55 The pride of Israel testifies to his face. Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity. Judah also will stumble with them.

56 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek God; but they won't find him. He has withdrawn himself from them.

57 They are unfaithful to God; for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.

58 "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah! Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin!

59 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.

510 The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark. I will pour out my wrath on them like water.

511 Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols.

512 Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness.

513 "When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, Then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to king Jareb: but he is not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound.

514 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I myself will tear in pieces and go away. I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.

515 I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face. In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

CHAPTER 6

6:1 "Come! Let's return to God; for he has torn us to pieces, and he will heal us; he has injured us, and he will bind up our wounds.

6:2 After two days he will revive us. On the third day he will raise us up, and we will live before him.

6:3 Let's acknowledge God. Let's press on to know God. As surely as the sun rises, God will appear. He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the earth."

6:4 "Ephraim, what shall I do to you? Judah, what shall I do to you? For your love is like a morning cloud, and like the dew that disappears early.

6:5 Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets; I killed them with the words of my mouth. Your judgments are like a flash of lightning.

6:6 For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.<sup>331</sup>

6:7 But they, like Adam, have broken the covenant. They were unfaithful to me, there.

6:8 Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity; it is stained with blood.

6:9 As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man, so the company of priests murder on the path toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes.

6:10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing. There is prostitution in Ephraim. Israel is defiled.

6:11 "Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, when I restore the fortunes of my people.

CHAPTER 7

7:1 When I would heal Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the gang of robbers ravages outside.

7:2 They don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. Now their own deeds have engulfed them. They are before my face.

7:3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

7:4 They are all adulterers. They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.

7:5 On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine. He joined his hand with mockers.

7:6 For they have prepared their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all the night. In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.

7:7 They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges. All their kings have fallen. There is no one among them who calls to me.

7:8 Ephraim, he mixes himself among the nations. Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.

7:9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he doesn't realize it. Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him, and he doesn't realize it.

7:10 The pride of Israel testifies to his face; yet they haven't returned to The Lord their God, nor sought him, for all this.

7:11 "Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding. They call to Egypt. They go to Assyria.

7:12 When they go, I will spread my net on them. I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.

7:13 Woe to them! For they have wandered from me. Destruction to them! For they have trespassed against me. Though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

7:14 They haven't cried to me with their heart, but they howl on their beds. They assemble themselves for grain and new wine. They turn away from me.

7:15 Though I have taught and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.

7:16 They return, but not to the Most High. They are like a faulty bow. Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

8:1 "Put the trumpet to your lips! Something like an eagle is over God's house, because they have broken my covenant, and rebelled against my law.

8:2 They cry to me, 'My God, we Israel acknowledge you!'

8:3 Israel has cast off that which is good. The enemy will pursue him.

8:4 They have set up kings, but not by me. They have made princes, and I didn't approve. Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols, that they may be cut off.

8:5 Let Samaria throw out his calf idol! My anger burns against them! How long will it be until they are capable of purity?

8:6 For this is even from Israel! The workman made it, and it is no God; indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

8:7 For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind. He has no standing grain. The stalk will yield no head. If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.

8:8 Israel is swallowed up. Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.

8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has hired lovers for himself.

8:10 But although they sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them; and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones.

8:11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they became for him altars for sinning.

<sup>331</sup> This shows that God prefers mercy and knowledge of Him over sacrifice. Thus, sacrifice can be understood to be not the most important thing to God. This has implications on the life and crucifixion of Jesus (see 1 Sam 15:22; Mic 6:7–8; Prov 21:3; Heb 9:22; and Topical Index #19).

8:12 I wrote for him the many things of my law; but they were regarded as a strange thing.

8:13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice meat and eat it; But God doesn't accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt.

8:14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire on his cities, and it will devour its fortresses."

CHAPTER 9

9:1 Don't rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations; for you were unfaithful to your God. You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.

9:2 The threshing floor and the wine press won't feed them, and the new wine will fail her.

9:3 They won't dwell in God's land; but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

9:4 They won't pour out wine offerings to God, neither will they be pleasing to him. Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; all who eat of it will be polluted; for their bread will be for their appetite. It will not come into God's house.

9:5 What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of God?

9:6 For, behold, when they flee destruction, Egypt will gather them up. Memphis will bury them. Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver. Thorns will be in their tents.

9:7 The days of visitation have come. The days of reckoning have come. Israel will consider the prophet to be a fool, and the man who is inspired to be insane, because of the abundance of your sins, and because your hostility is great.

9:8 A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God. A fowler's snare is on all of his paths, and hostility in the house of his God.

9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah. He will remember their iniquity. He will punish them for their sins.

9:10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season; but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.

9:11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no birth, no one with child, and no conception.

9:12 Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left. Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them!

9:13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place; but Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer.

9:14 Give them—God what will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

9:15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house! I will love them no more. All their princes are rebels.

9:16 Ephraim is struck. Their root has dried up. They will bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb."

9:17 My God will cast them away, because they didn't listen to him; and they will be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10

10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit. According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars. As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones.

10:2 Their heart is divided. Now they will be found guilty. He will demolish their altars. He will destroy their sacred stones.

10:3 Surely now they will say, "We have no king; for we don't fear God; and the king, what can he do for us?"

10:4 They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants. Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven; for its people will mourn over it, Along with its priests who rejoiced over it, for its glory, because it has departed from it.

10:6 It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king. Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.

10:7 Samaria and her king float away, like a twig on the water.

10:8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars. They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!" and the hills, "Fall on us!"

10:9 Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. There they remained. The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gibeah.

10:10 When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions.

10:11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck. I will set a rider on Ephraim. Judah will plow. Jacob will break his clods.

10:12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness. Break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek God, until he comes and rains righteousness on you.

10:13 You have plowed wickedness. You have reaped iniquity. You have eaten the fruit of lies, for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men.

10:14 Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces with her children.

10:15 So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness. At daybreak the king of Israel will be destroyed.

CHAPTER 11

11:1 "When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

11:2 They called to them, so they went from them. They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images.

11:3 Yet I taught Ephraim to walk. I took them by his arms; but they didn't know that I healed them.

11:4 I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love; and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks; and I bent down to him and I fed him.

11:5 "They won't return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian will be their king, because they refused to repent.

11:6 The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates, and will put an end to their plans.

11:7 My people are determined to turn from me. Though they call to the Most High, he certainly won't exalt them.

11:8 "How can I give you up, Ephraim?"<sup>332</sup>

How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? My heart is turned within me, my compassion is aroused.

11:9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One among you; and I will not come in wrath.

11:10 They will walk after God, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.

11:11 They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria; and I will settle them in their houses," says God.

11:12 Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit. Judah still strays from God, and is unfaithful to the Holy One.

CHAPTER 12

12:1 Ephraim feeds on wind, and chases the east wind. He continually multiplies lies and desolation. They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.

12:2 God also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his deeds he will repay him.

12:3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his manhood he contended with God.<sup>12:4</sup> Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;<sup>333</sup> he wept, and made supplication to him. He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with us,<sup>12:5</sup> even God, the Lord God of Hosts; God is his name of renown!

12:6 Therefore turn to your God. Keep kindness and justice, and wait continually for your God.

12:7 A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand. He loves to defraud.

12:8 Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich, I have found myself wealth. In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin."

12:9 "But I am The lord your God from the land of Egypt. I will yet again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast.

12:10 I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables.

12:11 If Gilead is wicked, surely they are worthless. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.

12:12 Jacob fled into the country of Aram, and Israel served to get a wife, and for a wife he tended flocks and herds.

12:13 By a prophet God brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.

12:14 Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger. Therefore his blood will be left on him, and his Lord will repay his contempt.

CHAPTER 13

13:1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling. He exalted himself in Israel, but when he became guilty in Baal, he died.

13:2 Now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.'

13:3 Therefore they will be like the morning mist, and like the dew that passes away early, like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney.

13:4 "Yet I am The lord your God from the land of Egypt; and you shall acknowledge no god but me, and besides me there is no savior.

13:5 I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

13:6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted. Therefore they have forgotten me.

13:7 Therefore I am like a lion to them. Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.

13:8 I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs, and will tear the covering of their heart. There I will devour them like a lioness. The wild animal will tear them.

13:9 You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me, against your help.

13:10 Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities? And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes'?

13:11 I have given you a king in my anger, and have taken him away in my wrath.

13:12 The guilt of Ephraim is stored up. His sin is stored up.

13:13 The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him. He is an unwise son; for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb.

13:14 I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.

I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? Sheol, where is your destruction?

"Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.

13:15 Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come, the breath of God coming up from the wilderness; and his spring will become dry, and his fountain will be dried up. He will plunder the storehouse of treasure.

13:16 Samaria will bear her guilt; for she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open."

CHAPTER 14

14:1 Israel, return to The lord your God; for you have fallen because of your sin.

14:2 Take words with you, and return to God. Tell him, "Forgive all our sins, and accept that which is good: so we offer our lips like bulls.

14:3 Assyria can't save us. We won't ride on horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!' for in you the fatherless finds mercy."

14:4 "I will heal their waywardness. I will love them freely; for my anger is turned away from him.

14:5 I will be like the dew to Israel. He will blossom like the lily, and send down his roots like Lebanon.

14:6 His branches will spread, and his beauty will be like the olive tree, and his fragrance like Lebanon.

14:7 Men will dwell in his shade. They will revive like the grain, and blossom like the vine. Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.

14:8 Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols? I answer, and will take care of him. I am like a green cypress tree; from me your fruit is found."

14:9 Who is wise, that he may understand these things? Who is prudent, that he may know them? For the ways of God are right, and the righteous walk in them; But the rebellious stumble in them.

JOEL

THE BOOK OF JOEL

Brief background summary

Some scholars believe the prophet Joel, son of Pethuel, was the actual author. Others do not agree.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 God's word that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.
12 Hear this, you elders, And listen, all you inhabitants of the land. Has this ever happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers?
13 Tell your children about it, and have your children tell their children, and their children, another generation.
14 What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten. What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten. What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.
15 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.
16 For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number. His teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the fangs of a lioness.
17 He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree. He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away. Its branches are made white.
18 Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth!19 The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from God's house. The priests, God's ministers, mourn.
19 The field is laid waste. The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed, The new wine has dried up, and the oil languishes.
11 Be confounded, you farmers! Wail, you vineyard keepers; for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field has perished.
12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are withered; for joy has withered away from the sons of men.
13 Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests! Wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.
14 Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of God, your God, and cry to God.
15 Alas for the day! For the day of God is at hand, and it will come as destruction from the Almighty.
16 Isn't the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
17 The seeds rot under their clods. The granaries are laid desolate. The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.
18 How the animals groan! The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.
19 God, I cry to you, For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field.
20 Yes, the animals of the field pant to you, for the water brooks have dried up, And the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2

21 Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of God comes, for it is close at hand:
22 A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn spreading on the mountains, a great and strong people; there has never been the like, neither will there be any more after them, even to the years of many generations.
23 A fire devours before them, and behind them, a flame burns. The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them, a desolate wilderness. Yes, and no one has escaped them.
24 Their appearance is as the appearance of horses, and they run as horsemen.
25 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains, they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, like a strong people set in battle array.
26 At their presence the peoples are in anguish. All faces have grown pale.
27 They run like mighty men. They climb the wall like warriors. They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course.
28 Neither does one jostle another; they march everyone in his path, and they burst through the defenses, and don't break ranks.
29 They rush on the city. They run on the wall. They climb up into the houses. They enter in at the windows like thieves.
20 The earth quakes before them. The heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.
21 God thunders his voice before his army; for his forces are very great; for he is strong who obeys his command; for the day of God is great and very awesome, and who can endure it?
22 "Yet even now," says God, "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."
23 Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to God, your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and relents from sending calamity.
24 Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to God, your God.
25 Blow the trumpet in Zion! Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly.
26 Gather the people. Sanctify the assembly. Assemble the elders. Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts. Let the bridegroom go out of his room, and the bride out of her room.
27 Let the priests, the ministers of God, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, "Spare your people, God, and don't give your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"

2<sup>18</sup> Then God was jealous for his land, And had pity on his people.

2<sup>19</sup> God answered his people, "Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied with them; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

2<sup>20</sup> But I will remove the northern army far away from you, and will drive it into a barren and desolate land, its front into the eastern sea, and its back into the western sea; and its stench will come up, and its bad smell will rise." Surely he has done great things.

2<sup>21</sup> Land, don't be afraid. Be glad and rejoice, for God has done great things.

2<sup>22</sup> Don't be afraid, you animals of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness spring up, for the tree bears its fruit. The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

2<sup>23</sup> "Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in God, your God; for he gives you the early rain in just measure, and he causes the rain to come down for you, the early rain and the latter rain, as before.

2<sup>24</sup> The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

2<sup>25</sup> I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar, my great army, which I sent among you. 2<sup>26</sup> You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, and will praise the name of God, your God, who has dealt wondrously with you; and my people will never again be disappointed. 2<sup>27</sup> You will know that I am among Israel, and that I am God, your God, and there is no one else; and my people will never again be disappointed.

2<sup>28</sup> "It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; and your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions. <sup>334</sup>

2<sup>29</sup> And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days, I will pour out my Spirit.

2<sup>30</sup> I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.

2<sup>31</sup> The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of God comes. 2<sup>32</sup> It will happen that whoever will call on God's name shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as God has said, and among the remnant, those whom God calls.

CHAPTER 3

3<sup>1</sup> "For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, 3<sup>2</sup> I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment on them there for my people, and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations. They have divided my land,

3<sup>3</sup> and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. 3<sup>4</sup> "Yes, and what are you to me, Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Palestine?<sup>335</sup> Will you repay me? And if you repay me, I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head.

3<sup>5</sup> Because you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my finest treasures into your temples,<sup>36</sup> and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their border.

3<sup>7</sup> Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, and will return your repayment on your own head;<sup>38</sup> and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba, to a faraway nation, for God has spoken it.<sup>39</sup> Proclaim this among the nations: "Prepare for war! Stir up the mighty men. Let all the warriors draw near. Let them come up.

3<sup>10</sup> Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'<sup>311</sup> Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves together." Cause your mighty ones to come down there, God.<sup>312</sup> "Let the nations arouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.<sup>313</sup> Put in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe. Come, tread, for the wine press is full, the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great."

3<sup>14</sup> Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of God is near, in the valley of decision.

3<sup>15</sup> The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. <sup>336</sup>

3<sup>16</sup> God will roar from Zion, and thunder from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth will shake; but God will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

3<sup>17</sup> "So you will know that I am God, your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain. Then Jerusalem will be holy, and no strangers will pass through her any more.<sup>318</sup> It will happen in that day, that the mountains will drop down sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters, and a fountain will flow out from God's house, and will water the valley of Shittim.

3<sup>19</sup> Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.<sup>320</sup> But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. 3<sup>21</sup> I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed: for God dwells in Zion."

<sup>336</sup> This is metaphorical language (see Gen 37:9; Eccl 12:2; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, Matt 24:29; 1 Cor 15:41; Rev 8:12, 12:1).

CHAPTER 1

11 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. 12 He said: "God will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither."

13 God says: "For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron;

14 but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.

15 I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir," says God.

16 God says: "For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they carried away captive the whole community, to deliver them up to Edom;

17 but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces.

18 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord God.

19 God says: "For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they delivered up the whole community to Edom, and didn't remember the brotherly covenant;

10 but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it will devour its palaces."

11 God says: "For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity, and his anger raged continually, and he kept his wrath forever;

12 but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13 God says: "For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a storm in the day of the whirlwind;

15 and their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together," says God.

CHAPTER 2

21 God says: "For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime;

22 but I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet;

23 and I will cut off the judge from among them, and will kill all its princes with him," says God.

24 God says: "For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have rejected God's law, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have led them astray, after which their fathers walked;

25 but I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

26 God says: "For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals;

27 They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and deny justice to the oppressed; and a man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy name;

28 and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

29 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

30 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

31 I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites. Isn't this true, you children of Israel?" says God.

32 "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Don't prophesy!'

33 Behold, I will crush you in your place, as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

34 Flight will perish from the swift; and the strong won't strengthen his force; neither shall the mighty deliver himself;

35 neither shall he stand who handles the bow; and he who is swift of foot won't escape; neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself;

36 and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day," says God.

CHAPTER 3

31 Hear this word that God has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:

32 "I have only chosen you of all the families of the earth. Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins."

33 Do two walk together, unless they have agreed?

34 Will a lion roar in the thicket, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing?

35 Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth, where no snare is set for him? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when there is nothing to catch?

36 Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city, without the people being afraid? Does disaster come to a city, and God hasn't done it?<sup>337</sup>

37 Surely the Lord God will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

38 The lion has roared. Who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken. Who can but prophesy?

39 Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see what unrest is in her, and what oppression is among them."

310 "Indeed they don't know to do right," says God, "Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

311 Therefore the Lord God says: "An adversary will overrun the land; and he will pull down your strongholds, and your fortresses will be plundered."

312 God says: "As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed."

313 "Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob," says the Lord God, the Lord God of Hosts.

314 "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on him, I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground.

315 I will strike the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end," says God.

CHAPTER 4

41 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring us drinks!"<sup>42</sup> The Lord God has sworn by his holiness that behold, "The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, and the last of you with fish hooks."<sup>43</sup> You will go out at the breaks in the wall, everyone straight before her; and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says God.

44 "Go to Bethel, and sin; to Gilgal, and sin more. Bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days,<sup>45</sup> offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim free will offerings and brag about them: for this pleases you, you children of Israel," says the Lord God.

46 "I also have given you cleanliness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in every town; yet you haven't returned to me," says God.

47 "I also have withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city. One field was rained on, and the field where it didn't rain withered.

48 So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet you haven't returned to me," says God.

49 "I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards; and the swarming locusts have devoured your fig trees and your olive trees; yet you haven't returned to me," says God.

410 "I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt. I have slain your young men with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp, yet you haven't returned to me," says God.

411 "I have overthrown some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire; yet you haven't returned to me," says God.

412 "Therefore thus I will do to you, Israel; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel.

413 For, behold, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to man what is his thought; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth: God, the Lord God of Hosts, is his name."

CHAPTER 5

51 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel.

52 "The virgin of Israel has fallen; She shall rise no more. She is cast down on her land; there is no one to raise her up."

53 For the Lord God says: "The city that went out a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went out one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."<sup>54</sup> For God says to the house of Israel: "Seek me, and you will live;<sup>55</sup> but don't seek Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and don't pass to Beersheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to nothing."<sup>56</sup> Seek God, and you will live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.

57 You who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth:

58 seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, God is his name,

59 who brings sudden destruction on the strong, so that destruction comes on the fortress.

510 They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly.

511 Therefore, because you trample on the poor, and take taxes from him of wheat: You have built houses of cut stone, but you will not dwell in them. You have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.<sup>512</sup> For I know how many are your offenses, and how great are your sins—you who afflict the just,

<sup>337</sup> Some translations say "evil" instead of disaster. This and the many references to the "evil" that the Lord God does to the backsliding and faithless peoples does not refer to "evil" in the sense of "satanic" or that of Satan. It means hardships, natural calamities, sufferings, and punishments brought upon the peoples by their own sins (Hos 11:9).

who take a bribe, and who turn away the needy in the courts.<sup>513</sup> Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time, for it is an evil time.

<sup>514</sup> Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so the Lord God almighty will be with you, as you say.<sup>338</sup>

<sup>515</sup> Hate evil, love good, and establish justice in the courts. It may be that God, the Lord God of Hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."

<sup>516</sup> Therefore God, the Lord God of Hosts, the Lord, says: "Wailing will be in all the wide ways; and they will say in all the streets, 'Alas! Alas!' and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.

<sup>517</sup> In all vineyards there will be wailing; for I will pass through the middle of you," says God.

<sup>518</sup> "Woe to you who desire the day of God! Why do you long for the day of God? It is darkness, and not light.<sup>519</sup> As if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; Or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a snake bit him.

<sup>520</sup> Won't the day of God be darkness, and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

<sup>521</sup> I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can't stand your solemn assemblies.

<sup>522</sup> Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.

<sup>523</sup> Take away from me the noise of your songs! I will not listen to the music of your harps.

<sup>525</sup> "Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel?<sup>26</sup> You also carried the tent of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves.<sup>527</sup> Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus," says God, whose name is the Lord God of Hosts.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come!

<sup>62</sup> Go to Calneh, and see; and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. are they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your border?

<sup>63</sup> Those who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

<sup>65</sup> who strum on the strings of a harp; who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David;

<sup>66</sup> who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

<sup>67</sup> Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive; and the feasting and lounging will end.<sup>68</sup> "The Lord God has sworn by himself," says God, the Lord God of Hosts: "I abhor the pride of Jacob, and detest his fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it.<sup>69</sup> It will happen, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

<sup>610</sup> "When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?' And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention God's name.'

<sup>611</sup> "For, behold, God commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits.<sup>612</sup> Do horses run on the rocky crags? Does one plow there with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness;<sup>613</sup> you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, 'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?'<sup>614</sup> For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel," says God, the Lord God of Hosts; "and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> Thus the Lord God showed me: and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest.<sup>72</sup> When they finished eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Lord God, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

<sup>73</sup> God relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says God.<sup>74</sup> Thus the Lord God showed me and behold, the Lord God called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land.<sup>75</sup> Then I said, "Lord God, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

<sup>76</sup> God relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says the Lord God.

<sup>77</sup> Thus he showed me and behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand.<sup>78</sup> God said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more.<sup>79</sup> The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

<sup>710</sup> Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words.<sup>711</sup> For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

<sup>712</sup> Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:<sup>713</sup> but don't prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!"<sup>7</sup><sup>14</sup> Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs;<sup>7</sup><sup>15</sup> and God took me from following the flock, and God said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'<sup>7</sup><sup>16</sup> Now therefore listen to God's word: 'You say, Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't preach against the house of Isaac.'<sup>7</sup><sup>17</sup> Therefore God says: 'Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'

CHAPTER 8

<sup>8</sup><sup>1</sup> Thus the Lord God showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.<sup>8</sup><sup>2</sup> He said, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then God said to me, "The end has come on my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more."<sup>8</sup><sup>3</sup> The songs of the temple will be wailing in that day," says the Lord God. "The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence."<sup>8</sup><sup>4</sup> Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail,

<sup>8</sup><sup>5</sup> Saying, 'When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel large, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;

<sup>8</sup><sup>6</sup> that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and sell the sweepings with the wheat?'"<sup>8</sup><sup>7</sup> God has sworn by the pride of Jacob, "Surely I will never forget any of their works.

<sup>8</sup><sup>8</sup> Won't the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River; and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt.<sup>8</sup><sup>9</sup> It will happen in that day," says the Lord God, "that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

<sup>8</sup><sup>10</sup> I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies, and baldness on every head. I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and its end like a bitter day.

<sup>8</sup><sup>11</sup> Behold, the days come," says the Lord God, "that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing God's words.

<sup>8</sup><sup>12</sup> They will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they will run back and forth to seek God's word, and will not find it.

<sup>8</sup><sup>13</sup> In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst.<sup>8</sup><sup>14</sup> Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, 'As your god, Dan, lives;' and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives;' they will fall, and never rise up again."

CHAPTER 9

<sup>9</sup><sup>1</sup> I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape."<sup>9</sup><sup>2</sup> Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down.<sup>9</sup><sup>3</sup> Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there; and though they be hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them.<sup>9</sup><sup>4</sup> Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good.

<sup>9</sup><sup>5</sup> For the Lord, The Lord God of Hosts, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt.<sup>9</sup><sup>6</sup> It is he who builds his rooms in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; God is his name.<sup>9</sup><sup>7</sup> Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says God. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?"<sup>9</sup><sup>8</sup> Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob," says God.<sup>9</sup><sup>9</sup> "For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth."<sup>9</sup><sup>10</sup> All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil won't overtake nor meet us.'<sup>9</sup><sup>11</sup> In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old;<sup>9</sup><sup>12</sup> that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says God who does this.

<sup>9</sup><sup>13</sup> "Behold, the days come," says God, "that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the one treading grapes him who sows seed; and sweet wine will drip from the mountains, and flow from the hills.

<sup>9</sup><sup>14</sup> I will bring my people Israel back from captivity, and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them. They shall also make gardens, and eat their fruit.

<sup>9</sup><sup>15</sup> I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says The lord your God.<sup>339</sup>

<sup>339</sup> This conclusion presumes the chosen people will accept Jesus and together create the eternal kingdom of God on earth. Tragically, this is not what happened when Jesus came (see Topical Index #23).

CHAPTER 1

11 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord God says about Edom. We have heard news from God, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Arise, and let's rise up against her in battle. 12 Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised.13 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?'14 Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there," says God.15 "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what disaster awaits you—wouldn't they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn't they leave some gleaning grapes?16 How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out!17 All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him."

18 "Won't I in that day", says God, "destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?19 Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.10 For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.11 In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them.12 But don't look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don't rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don't speak proudly in the day of distress.13 Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don't look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity.14 Don't stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don't deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress.15 For the day of God is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head.16 For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been.17 But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions.18 The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau." Indeed, God has spoken.

19 Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead.

120 The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev.

121 Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be God's.

JONAH

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars think this book was written sometime between the late 5th century and early 4th century BC after the exile to Babylon.

Authorship:

The author is unknown, writing about a man named Jonah, son of Amittai.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

1 Now God's word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,<sup>2</sup> "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."<sup>3</sup> But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of God. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of God.<sup>4</sup> But God sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up.<sup>5</sup> Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep.<sup>6</sup> So the ship master came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God! Maybe your God will notice us, so that we won't perish."<sup>7</sup> They all said to each other, "Come! Let's cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.<sup>8</sup> Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"<sup>9</sup> He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear God, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."<sup>10</sup> Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What have you done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of God, because he had told them.<sup>11</sup> Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy.<sup>12</sup> He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them.<sup>14</sup> Therefore they cried to God, and said, "We beg you, God, we beg you, don't let us die for this man's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, God, have done as it pleased you."<sup>15</sup> So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging.<sup>16</sup> Then the men feared God exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to God, and made vows.<sup>17</sup> God prepared a huge fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2

1 Then Jonah prayed to God, his God, out of the fish's belly.<sup>2</sup> He said, "I called because of my affliction to God. He answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried. You heard my voice.<sup>3</sup> For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas. The flood was all around me. All your waves and your billows passed over me.<sup>4</sup> I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'

5 The waters surrounded me, even to the soul. The deep was around me. The weeds were wrapped around my head.<sup>6</sup> I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. The earth barred me in forever: yet have you brought up my life from the pit, God my God.

7 "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered God. My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

8 Those who regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy.<sup>9</sup> But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving. I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to God."<sup>10</sup> Then God spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

CHAPTER 3

31 God's word came to Jonah the second time, saying,
32 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you."

33 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to God's word. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across.<sup>34</sup> Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!"

35 The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least.<sup>36</sup> The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.<sup>37</sup> He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water;<sup>38</sup> but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands.<sup>39</sup> Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?"

310 God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he didn't do it.<sup>340</sup>

CHAPTER 4

41 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry.<sup>42</sup> He prayed to God, and said, "Please, God, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm."<sup>43</sup> Therefore now, God, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die

<sup>340</sup> This passage again reminds us that God does not absolutely determine the everyday affairs of men but relates to man in a partnership. The fulfilment of God's will is dependent upon man's completion of his own portion of responsibility before God, otherwise His will can be temporarily frustrated by man's failure e.g. the life of Moses and the Hebrew people (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 2, Sections 2.2.1.3 and 2.2.2.4 see also Ex 2:12–14; Num 20:11–12 and Topical Index #38).

than to live.”<sup>44</sup> God said, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

<sup>45</sup> Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city.<sup>46</sup> God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine.<sup>47</sup> But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered.<sup>48</sup> When the sun arose, God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah’s head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”<sup>49</sup> God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?” He said, “I am right to be angry, even to death.”

<sup>410</sup> God said, “You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>God's word that came to Micah the Morashite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup>Hear, you peoples, all of you. Listen, O earth, and all that is therein: and let the Lord God be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

<sup>13</sup>For, behold, God comes out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

<sup>14</sup>The mountains melt under him, and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place.

<sup>15</sup>"All this is for the disobedience of Jacob, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the disobedience of Jacob? Isn't it Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Aren't they Jerusalem?

<sup>16</sup>Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down its stones into the valley, and I will uncover its foundations.

<sup>17</sup>All her idols will be beaten to pieces, and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire, and all her images I will destroy; for of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them, and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return."

<sup>18</sup>For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will howl like the jackals, and moan like the daughters of owls.

<sup>19</sup>For her wounds are incurable; for it has come even to Judah. It reaches to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Don't tell it in Gath. Don't weep at all. At Beth Ophrah I have rolled myself in the dust.

<sup>12</sup>For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from God to the gate of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; For the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath. The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah, him who will possess you. He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

<sup>16</sup>Shave your heads, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight. Enlarge your baldness like the vulture; for they have gone into captivity from you!

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup>Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand.

<sup>22</sup>They covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore God says: "Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which you will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily; for it is an evil time.

<sup>24</sup>In that day they will take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, 'We are utterly ruined! My people's possession is divided up. Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!"

<sup>25</sup>Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in God's assembly.

<sup>27</sup>Shall it be said, O house of Jacob: "Is God's Spirit angry? Are these his doings? Don't my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?"

<sup>28</sup>But lately my people have risen up as an enemy. You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.

<sup>29</sup>You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my blessing forever.

<sup>30</sup>Arise, and depart! For this is not your resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction.

<sup>31</sup>If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies: "I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;" he would be the prophet of this people.

<sup>32</sup>I will surely assemble, Jacob, all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the middle of their pasture; they will swarm with people.

<sup>33</sup>He who breaks open the way goes up before them. They break through the gate, and go out. And their king passes on before them, with God at their head.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup>I said, "Please listen, you heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: Isn't it for you to know justice?

<sup>33</sup>who also eat the flesh of my people, and peel their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as meat within the cauldron.

<sup>34</sup>Then they will cry to God, but he will not answer them. Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, because they made their deeds evil."

<sup>35</sup>God says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Peace!" and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him:

<sup>36</sup>"Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine; and the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be black over them.

37 The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded. Yes, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer from God."

38 But as for me, I am full of power by God's Spirit, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his disobedience, and to Israel his sin.

39 Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice, and pervert all equity.

310 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

311 Her leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a price, and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money: yet they lean on God, and say, "Isn't God among us? No disaster will come on us."

312 Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

CHAPTER 4

41 But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of God's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will stream to it.

42 Many nations will go and say, "Come! Let's go up to the mountain of God, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For the law will go out of Zion, and God's word from Jerusalem;<sup>341</sup>

43 and he will judge between ;many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off. They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more.

44 But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and no one will make them afraid: For the mouth of The Lord God of Hosts has spoken.

45 Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods; but we will walk in the name of The Lord our God forever and ever.

46 "In that day," says God, "I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted;

47 and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and God will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever."<sup>342</sup>

48 You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come, yes, the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

49 Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail?

410 Be in pain, and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now you will go out of the city, and will dwell in the field, and will come even to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There God will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

411 Now many nations have assembled against you, that say, "Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion."

412 But they don't know the thoughts of God, neither do they understand his counsel; for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.

413 Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze; and you will beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain to God, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

51 Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops. He has laid siege against us. They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

52 But you, Bethlehem<sup>343</sup>

Ephrathah, being small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come out to me that is to be ruler in Israel,<sup>344</sup> whose goings out are from of old, from ancient times.

53 Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth. Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.

54 He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of God, in the majesty of the name of God his God: and they will live, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.

55 He will be our peace when Assyria invades our land, and when he marches through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds, and eight leaders of men.

56 They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its gates. He will deliver us from the Assyrian, when he invades our land, and when he marches within our border.

57 The remnant of Jacob will be among many peoples, like dew from God, like showers on the grass, that don't wait for man, nor wait for the sons of men.

58 The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, among many peoples, like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to deliver.

59 Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all of your enemies be cut off.

<sup>341</sup> This again shows that God expects Jesus to be accepted as the Messiah and lifted up by the leadership and the people to establish the literal kingdom of God on earth, in his lifetime. Tragically, however, this did not happen and Jesus was executed as a heretic at the hands of faithless people.

<sup>342</sup> A possible reference to God's plan to establish His literal kingdom on earth in Israel.

<sup>344</sup> This again shows God's expectation that Jesus, born in Bethlehem, will be accepted by the leaders and the people and become King of Israel and King of Kings, in his lifetime. Tragically, though, this did not happen due to the faithlessness of key people in Israel during Jesus' ministry.

5:10 “It will happen in that day”, says God, “that I will cut off your horses out from among you, and will destroy your chariots.

5:11 I will cut off the cities of your land, and will tear down all your strongholds.

5:12 I will destroy witchcraft from your hand; and you shall have no soothsayers.

5:13 I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out from among you; and you shall no more worship the work of your hands.

5:14 I will uproot your Asherah poles out from among you; and I will destroy your cities.

5:15 I will execute vengeance in anger, and wrath on the nations that didn't listen.”

CHAPTER 6

6:1 Listen now to what God says: “Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear what you have to say.

6:2 Hear, you mountains, God's indictment, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for God has a case against his people, and he will contend with Israel.

6:3 My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer me!

6:4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage. I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

6:5 My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of God.”

6:6 How shall I come before God, and bow myself before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

6:7 Will God be pleased with thousands of rams? With tens of thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience? The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

6:8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. What does God require of you, but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?<sup>345</sup>

6:9 God's voice calls to the city, and wisdom sees your name: “Listen to the rod, and he who appointed it.

6:10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a short ephah that is accursed?

6:11 Shall I be pure with dishonest scales, and with a bag of deceitful weights?

6:12 Her rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.

6:13 Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound. I have made you desolate because of your sins.

6:14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied. Your humiliation will be within you. You will store up, but not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword.

6:15 You will sow, but won't reap. You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil; and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.

6:16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of Ahab's house. You walk in their counsels, that I may make you a ruin, and her inhabitants a hissing; And you will bear the reproach of my people.”

CHAPTER 7

7:1 Misery is mine! Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard: There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My soul desires to eat the early fig.

7:2 The godly man has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; every man hunts his brother with a net.

7:3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. The ruler and judge ask for a bribe; and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul. Thus they conspire together.

7:4 The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has come; now is the time of their confusion.

7:5 Don't trust in a neighbor. Don't put confidence in a friend. With the woman lying in your embrace, be careful of the words of your mouth!

7:6 For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7:7 But as for me, I will look to God. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

7:8 Don't rejoice against me, my enemy. When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, God will be a light to me.

7:9 I will bear the indignation of God, because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light. I will see his righteousness.

7:10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me, where is The lord your God? Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame. Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

7:11 A day to build your walls! In that day, he will extend your boundary.

7:12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain.

7:13 Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

7:14 Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your heritage, who dwell by themselves in a forest, in the middle of fertile pasture land, let them feed; in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

7:15 “As in the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt, I will show them marvelous things.”

7:16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might. They will lay their hand on their mouth. Their ears will be deaf.

717 They will lick the dust like a serpent. Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens. They will come with fear to The Lord our God, and will be afraid because of you.

718 Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage? He doesn't retain his anger forever, because he delights in loving kindness.

719 He will again have compassion on us. He will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

720 You will give truth to Jacob, and mercy to Abraham, as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

CHAPTER 1

11 A revelation about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.<sup>12</sup> God is a jealous God and avenges. God avenges and is full of wrath. God takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies.<sup>13</sup> God is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. God has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.<sup>14</sup> He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes.<sup>15</sup> The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it.<sup>16</sup> Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him.<sup>17</sup> God is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him.<sup>18</sup> But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.<sup>19</sup> What do you plot against God? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time.<sup>10</sup> For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble.<sup>11</sup> One has gone out of you who devises evil against God, who counsels wickedness.<sup>12</sup> God says: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.<sup>13</sup> Now I will break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart."<sup>14</sup> God has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, I will cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."<sup>15</sup> Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER 2

21 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily!<sup>22</sup> For God restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches.<sup>23</sup> The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished.<sup>24</sup> The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the wide ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings.<sup>25</sup> He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place.<sup>26</sup> The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved.<sup>27</sup> It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her servants moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts.<sup>28</sup> But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back.<sup>29</sup> Take the plunder of silver. Take the plunder of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture.<sup>10</sup> She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale.<sup>11</sup> Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid?<sup>12</sup> The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey.<sup>13</sup> "Behold, I am against you," says The Lord God of Hosts, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

CHAPTER 3

31 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart.<sup>32</sup> The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots,<sup>33</sup> the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies,<sup>34</sup> because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft.<sup>35</sup> "Behold, I am against you," says The Lord God of Hosts, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame.<sup>36</sup> I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle.<sup>37</sup> It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"<sup>38</sup> Are you better than No-Amon, who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea?<sup>39</sup> Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers.<sup>10</sup> Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.<sup>11</sup> You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy.<sup>12</sup> All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.<sup>13</sup> Behold, your troops among you are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars.<sup>14</sup> Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong.<sup>15</sup> There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust.<sup>16</sup> You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away.<sup>317</sup> Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.<sup>318</sup> Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. <sup>319</sup> There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

HABAKKUK

THE BOOK OF HANAKKUK

Brief background summary

Dating:

It is believed that this prophet lived during the late 7th century BC.

Authorship:

This book is attributed to the prophet Habakkuk.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

<sup>12</sup> God, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you "Violence!" and will you not save?<sup>13</sup> Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up.<sup>14</sup> Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted.

<sup>15</sup> "Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you.<sup>16</sup> For, behold, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs.<sup>17</sup> They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.<sup>18</sup> Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour.<sup>19</sup> All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand.<sup>110</sup> Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it.<sup>111</sup> Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god."

<sup>12</sup> Aren't you from everlasting, God my God, my Holy One? We will not die. God, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish.<sup>13</sup> You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he,<sup>14</sup> and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?<sup>15</sup> He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad.<sup>16</sup> Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good.<sup>17</sup> Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

<sup>1</sup> I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.
<sup>2</sup> God answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it.<sup>23</sup> For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay.<sup>24</sup> Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith.<sup>25</sup> Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous: an arrogant man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol; he is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples.

<sup>26</sup> Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?'<sup>27</sup> Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim?
<sup>28</sup> Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it.<sup>29</sup> Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil!<sup>210</sup> You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul.<sup>211</sup> For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it.<sup>212</sup> Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity!<sup>213</sup> Behold, isn't it of The Lord God of Hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity?<sup>214</sup> For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of God's glory, as the waters cover the sea.
<sup>215</sup> "Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies!<sup>216</sup> You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of God's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.
<sup>217</sup> For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.
<sup>218</sup> "What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols?<sup>219</sup> Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all within it.<sup>220</sup> But God is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!"

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.<sup>32</sup> God, I have heard of your fame. I stand in awe of your deeds, God. Renew your work in the middle of the years. In the middle of the years make it known. In wrath, you remember mercy.<sup>33</sup> God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and his praise filled the earth.<sup>34</sup> His splendor is like the sunrise. Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden.<sup>35</sup> Plague went before him, and pestilence followed his feet.
<sup>36</sup> He stood, and shook the earth. He looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains were crumbled. The age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal.<sup>37</sup> I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction. The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.<sup>38</sup> Was God displeased with the rivers? Was your anger against the rivers, or your wrath against the sea, that you rode on your horses, on your chariots of salvation?

<sup>39</sup> You uncovered your bow. You called for your sworn arrows. Selah. You split the earth with rivers.<sup>310</sup> The mountains saw you, and were afraid. The storm of waters passed by. The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.<sup>311</sup> The sun and moon stood still in the sky, at the light of your arrows as they went, at the shining of your glittering spear.<sup>312</sup> You marched through the land in wrath. You threshed the nations in anger.<sup>313</sup> You went out for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed. You crushed the head of the land of wickedness. You stripped them head to foot. Selah.<sup>314</sup> You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears. They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.<sup>315</sup> You trampled the sea with your horses, churning mighty waters.<sup>316</sup> I heard, and my body trembled. My lips quivered at the voice.

Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place, because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us.

<sup>317</sup> For though the fig tree doesn't flourish, nor fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive fails, the fields yield no food; the flocks are cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls.<sup>318</sup> yet I will rejoice in God. I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

<sup>319</sup> God, the Lord, is my strength. He makes my feet like deer's feet, and enables me to go in high places. For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

CHAPTER 1

11 God's word which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah.12 I will utterly sweep away everything from the surface of the earth, says God.13 I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says God.14 I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests,15 those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by God and also swear by Malcam,16 those who have turned back from following God, and those who haven't sought God nor inquired after him.17 Be silent at the presence of the Lord God, for the day of God is at hand. For God has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests.18 It will happen in the day of God's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing.19 In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit.10 In that day, says God, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills.11 Wail, you inhabitants of Makkath, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off.12 It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "God will not do good, neither will he do evil."13 Their wealth will become a plunder, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine.14 The great day of God is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of God. The mighty man cries there bitterly.15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness,16 a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements.17 I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against God, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of God's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

CHAPTER 2

21 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame,2 before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of God comes on you, before the day of God's anger comes on you.3 Seek God, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of God's anger.4 For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up.5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! God's word is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant.6 The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks.7 The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for God, their God, will visit them, and restore them.8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.9 Therefore as I live, says The Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them.10 This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of The Lord God of Hosts.11 God will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations.12 You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword.13 He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness.14 Herds will lie down in the middle of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams.15 This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

CHAPTER 3

31 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city!32 She didn't obey the voice. She didn't receive correction. She didn't trust in God. She didn't draw near to her God.33 Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day.34 Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law.35 God, within her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame.36 I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant.37 I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings.<sup>38</sup> "Therefore wait for me", says God, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

<sup>39</sup> For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on God's name, to serve him shoulder-to-shoulder.<sup>346</sup>

<sup>310</sup> From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering.<sup>311</sup> In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out from among you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be arrogant in my holy mountain.<sup>312</sup> But I will leave among you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in God's name.<sup>313</sup> The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

<sup>315</sup> God has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, God, is among you. You will not be afraid of evil any more.

<sup>316</sup> In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Don't be afraid, Zion. Don't let your hands be weak."<sup>317</sup> God, your God, is among you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing.<sup>318</sup> I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you.

<sup>319</sup> Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth.<sup>320</sup> At that time I will bring you in, and at that time I will gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says God.

<sup>346</sup> Some translations say a "pure language" rather than "purity the lips". The Divine Principle explains that the Messiah will establish God's worldwide kingdom on earth in which one language will be spoken by all people, the language of the Lord. This is because the kingdom of God on earth is to be the restoration of the one singular global family of man under God which should have naturally developed from Adam and Eve's descendants if Adam and Eve did not fall in sin. All of Adam and Eve's descendants would have spoken the language of their parents, ultimately of Adam and Eve, the original parents of mankind. The Messiah and his bride come as the new, divine parents of mankind, replacing the fallen Adam and Eve as the olive trees into which all fallen people are to engraft and be reborn, both physically and spiritually (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 6, Section 5 and John 8:44; 1 Cor 15:45).

HAGGAI

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars believe this book was written around 520 BC.

Authorship:

It is believed that a prophet named Haggai may have written this book, although no more information is known about him.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>13</sup> Then God's word came by Haggai, the prophet, saying,<sup>14</sup> "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste?

<sup>17</sup> This is what The Lord God of Hosts says: "Consider your ways.<sup>18</sup> Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says God.<sup>19</sup> "You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says The Lord God of Hosts, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house."<sup>10</sup> Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit.<sup>11</sup> I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground produces, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands."

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed God, their God's voice, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as God, their God, had sent him; and the people feared God.

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, God's messenger, spoke God's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says God.

<sup>14</sup> God stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of The Lord God of Hosts, their God,<sup>15</sup> in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, God's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying,<sup>2</sup> "Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,<sup>3</sup> 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing?<sup>4</sup> Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says God. 'Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says God, 'and work, for I am with you,' says

The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>25</sup> This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. 'Don't be afraid.'<sup>26</sup> For this is what The Lord God of Hosts says: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land;<sup>27</sup> and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>28</sup> The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>29</sup> 'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says The Lord God of Hosts; 'and in this place I will give peace,' says The Lord God of Hosts."

<sup>20</sup> In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, God's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying,<sup>21</sup> "The Lord God of Hosts says: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,<sup>22</sup> 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'" The priests answered, "No."

<sup>23</sup> Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?" The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

<sup>24</sup> Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says God; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean.'<sup>25</sup> Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in God's temple.<sup>26</sup> Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty.<sup>27</sup> I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says God.<sup>28</sup> 'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of God's temple was laid, consider it.'

<sup>29</sup> Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't produced. From today I will bless you."

<sup>20</sup> God's word came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,<sup>21</sup> "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth.'

<sup>22</sup> I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother.<sup>23</sup> In that day, says The Lord God of Hosts, I will take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says God, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says The Lord God of Hosts."

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup> In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, God's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,<sup>12</sup> "God was very displeased with your fathers.<sup>13</sup> Therefore tell them: The Lord God of Hosts says: 'Return to me,' says The Lord God of Hosts, 'and I will return to you,' says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>14</sup> Don't you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: The Lord God of Hosts says, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings,' but they didn't hear, nor listen to me, says God.<sup>15</sup> Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?<sup>16</sup> But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn't they overtake your fathers? "Then they repented and said, 'Just as The Lord God of Hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.'<sup>17</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, God's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,<sup>18</sup> "I had a vision in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses.<sup>19</sup> Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?' The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

<sup>10</sup> The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones God has sent to go back and forth through the earth."

<sup>11</sup> They reported to God's angel who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace."

<sup>12</sup> Then God's angel replied, "O The Lord God of Hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?"

<sup>13</sup> God answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words.<sup>14</sup> So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'The Lord God of Hosts says: 'I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.<sup>15</sup> I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity.'

<sup>16</sup> Therefore God says: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it," says The Lord God of Hosts, "and a line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup> "Proclaim further, saying, 'The Lord God of Hosts says: 'My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and God will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem.'

<sup>18</sup> I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns.<sup>19</sup> I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

<sup>20</sup> God showed me four craftsmen.<sup>21</sup> Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand.<sup>22</sup> Then I asked, "Where are you going?" He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

<sup>23</sup> Behold, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him,<sup>24</sup> and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it.'

<sup>25</sup> For I,' says God, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the middle of her.<sup>26</sup> Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says God; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says God.<sup>27</sup> 'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.'<sup>28</sup> For The Lord God of Hosts says: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye.<sup>29</sup> For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a plunder to those who served them; and you will know that The Lord God of Hosts has sent me.<sup>30</sup> Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell within you,' says God.<sup>31</sup> Many nations shall join themselves to God in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell among you, and you shall know that The Lord God of Hosts has sent me to you.<sup>32</sup> God will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.<sup>33</sup> Be silent, all flesh, before God; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before God's angel, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary.<sup>32</sup> God said to Satan, "God rebuke you, Satan! Yes, God who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

<sup>33</sup> Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel.<sup>34</sup> He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

<sup>35</sup> I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head." So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and God's angel was standing by.<sup>36</sup> God's angel protested to Joshua, saying,<sup>37</sup> "The Lord God of Hosts says: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by.<sup>38</sup> Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring out my servant, the Branch.<sup>39</sup> For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says The Lord God of Hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.<sup>310</sup> In that day,' says The Lord God of Hosts, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'

CHAPTER 4

41 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep.<sup>42</sup> He said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lamp stand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it;<sup>43</sup> and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

44 I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

45 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

46 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is God's word to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>47</sup> Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it!'"

48 Moreover God's word came to me, saying,<sup>49</sup> "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that The Lord God of Hosts has sent me to you.

410 Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are God's eyes, which run back and forth through the whole earth."

411 Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lamp stand and on the left side of it?"

412 I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"

413 He answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

414 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."<sup>347</sup>

CHAPTER 5

51 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll.<sup>52</sup> He said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits."

53 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side.<sup>54</sup> I will cause it to go out," says The Lord God of Hosts, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the middle of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."

55 Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what this is that is appearing."

56 I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is the ephah basket that is appearing." He said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land<sup>57</sup> (and behold, a talent of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the middle of the ephah basket."<sup>58</sup> He said, "This is Wickedness;" and he threw her down into the middle of the ephah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

59 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky.

510 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?"

511 He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

CHAPTER 6

61 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze.<sup>62</sup> In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses,<sup>63</sup> in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful.<sup>64</sup> Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

65 The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go out from standing before the Lord of all the earth.<sup>66</sup> The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went out toward the south country."<sup>67</sup> The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, "Go around and through the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the earth.

68 Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."

69 God's word came to me, saying,<sup>610</sup> "Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have

<sup>347</sup> A possible prophetic reference to Jesus, the new Adam, and his new Eve (with the 'Lord of the whole earth' referring to God). Divine Principle explains that God expected Jesus to wed during his lifetime

2000 years ago, and establish a new unfallen lineage of mankind into which all fallen people would eventually engraft through marriage (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 7, Sections 2 and 3 also 1 Cor 15:45).

come from Babylon.<sup>611</sup> Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest;<sup>612</sup> and speak to him, saying, 'The Lord God of Hosts says, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build God's temple; <sup>613</sup> even he shall build God's temple; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both."<sup>614</sup> The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in God's temple.<sup>615</sup> Those who are far off shall come and build in God's temple; and you shall know that The Lord God of Hosts has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey The lord your God's voice."

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> In the fourth year of king Darius, God's word came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev.<sup>72</sup> The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat God's favor,<sup>73</sup> and to speak to the priests of the house of The Lord God of Hosts, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"

<sup>74</sup> Then the word of The Lord God of Hosts came to me, saying,<sup>75</sup> "Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me?'<sup>76</sup> When you eat, and when you drink, don't you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?<sup>77</sup> Aren't these the words which God proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?"

<sup>78</sup> God's word came to Zechariah, saying,<sup>79</sup> "Thus has The Lord God of Hosts spoken, saying, 'Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother.'<sup>710</sup> Don't oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart."<sup>711</sup> But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear.<sup>712</sup> Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which The Lord God of Hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>713</sup> It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said The Lord God of Hosts;<sup>714</sup> "but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> The word of The Lord God of Hosts came to me.
<sup>82</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath."

<sup>83</sup> God says: "I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the middle of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called 'The City of Truth,' and the mountain of The Lord God of Hosts, 'The Holy Mountain.'"

<sup>84</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age.<sup>85</sup> The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

<sup>86</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>87</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country<sup>88</sup> and I will bring them, and they will dwell within Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

<sup>89</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of The Lord God of Hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built.

<sup>810</sup> For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor.<sup>811</sup> But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>812</sup> "For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things.<sup>813</sup> It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

<sup>814</sup> For The Lord God of Hosts says: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says The Lord God of Hosts, "and I didn't repent,<sup>815</sup> so again I have thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don't be afraid.<sup>816</sup> These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates,<sup>817</sup> and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says God.

<sup>818</sup> The word of The Lord God of Hosts came to me.
<sup>819</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."

<sup>820</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come;<sup>821</sup> and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying,

'Let's go speedily to entreat the favor of God, and to seek The Lord God of Hosts. I will go also.'<sup>822</sup> Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek The Lord God of Hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of God."<sup>823</sup> The Lord God of Hosts says: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

CHAPTER 9

91 A revelation. God's word is against the land of Hadrach, and will rest upon Damascus; for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward God;

92 and Hamath, also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.

93 Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets.

94 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will strike her power in the sea; and she will be devoured with fire.

95 Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will writhe in agony; as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed; and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

96 Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

97 I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also will be a remnant for our God; and he will be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

98 I will encamp around my house against the army, that no one pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them any more: for now I have seen with my eyes.

99 Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King comes to you! He is righteous, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.<sup>348</sup>

910 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow will be cut off; and he will speak peace to the nations: and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

911 As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.

912 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope!

Even today I declare that I will restore double to you.

913 For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me. I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty man.

914 God will be seen over them; and his arrow will flash like lightning; and the Lord God will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south.

915 The Lord God of Hosts will defend them; and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones; and they will drink, and roar as through wine; and they will be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar.

916 The Lord their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over his land.

917 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

CHAPTER 10

101 Ask of God rain in the spring time, God who makes storm clouds, and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.

102 For the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams. They comfort in vain. Therefore they go their way like sheep. They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.

103 My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the male goats; For The Lord God of Hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle.

104 From him will come the cornerstone, from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together.

105 They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because God is with them; and the riders on horses will be confounded.

106 "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back; for I have mercy on them; and they will be as though I had not cast them off: for I am The Lord their God, and I will hear them.

107 Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through wine; yes, their children will see it, and rejoice. Their heart will be glad in God.

108 I will signal for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they will increase as they have increased.

109 I will sow them among the peoples; and they will remember me in far countries; and they will live with their children, and will return.

1010 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and there won't be room enough for them.

1011 He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

1012 I will strengthen them in God; and they will walk up and down in his name," says God.

<sup>348</sup> A prophecy about the coming of Jesus and of his literal kingship in Israel.

<sup>11</sup><sup>3</sup> A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> God said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. <sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the meat of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. <sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

CHAPTER 12

themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. <sup>12</sup><sup>4</sup> In that day," says God, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in The Lord God of Hosts their God.' <sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> God also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of David's house and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. <sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> In that day God will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and David's house will be like God, like God's angel before them.

<sup>12</sup><sup>9</sup> It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup><sup>10</sup> I will pour on David's house, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. <sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. <sup>12</sup><sup>12</sup> The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of David's house apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; <sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup> the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; <sup>12</sup><sup>14</sup> all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup><sup>1</sup> "In that day there will be a spring opened to David's house and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. <sup>13</sup><sup>2</sup> It will come to pass in that day, says The Lord God of Hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. <sup>13</sup><sup>3</sup> It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in God's name;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. <sup>13</sup><sup>4</sup> It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: <sup>13</sup><sup>5</sup> but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' <sup>13</sup><sup>6</sup> One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.' <sup>13</sup><sup>7</sup> "Awake, sword, against my shepherd, and against the man who is close to me," says The Lord God of Hosts. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

<sup>13</sup> It shall happen that in all the land," says God, "two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it.

<sup>13</sup> I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will hear them. I will say, 'It is my people;' and they will say, 'God is my God.'

CHAPTER 14

<sup>14</sup> Behold, a day of God comes, when your plunder will be divided within you.<sup>14</sup> For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.<sup>14</sup> Then God will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.<sup>14</sup> His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south.<sup>14</sup> You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. God my God will come, and all the holy ones with you.<sup>14</sup> It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost.<sup>14</sup> It will be a unique day which is known to God; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

<sup>14</sup> It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. It will be so in summer and in winter.

<sup>14</sup> God will be King over all the earth. In that day God will be one, and his name one.<sup>14</sup> All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.<sup>14</sup> Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely.<sup>14</sup> This will be the plague with which God will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth.<sup>14</sup> It will happen in that day, that a great panic from God will be among them; and they will each hold onto the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor.<sup>14</sup> Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

<sup>14</sup> A plague like this will fall on the horse, on the mule, on the camel, on the donkey, and on all the animals that will be in those camps.<sup>14</sup> It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, The Lord God of Hosts, and to keep the feast of booths.

<sup>14</sup> It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, The Lord God of Hosts, on them there will be no rain.<sup>349</sup>

<sup>14</sup> If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which God will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths.<sup>14</sup> This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths.<sup>14</sup> In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO THE LORD"; and the pots in God's house will be like the bowls before the altar.<sup>14</sup> Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to The Lord God of Hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>349</sup> This is another indication that the Lord God expected Jesus to come and be accepted by the leaders and the people of Israel and initiate the kingdom of God on earth in his own lifetime 2000 years ago. Tragically, this did not happen and Jesus was executed as a heretic at the hands of faithless people (see Topical Index #23).

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

Brief background summary

Dating:

Some scholars believe this book was written in the mid-5th century BC.

Authorship:

Some attribute this book to the prophet Malachi, others to Ezra, and still others to an author of Zechariah.
Some scholars believe that the term Malachi is not a proper name but rather a descriptive abbreviation for Messenger of God.

CHAPTER 1

11 A revelation, God's word to Israel by Malachi.

12 "I have loved you," says God. Yet you say, "How have you loved us?" "Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says God, "Yet I loved Jacob;<sup>13</sup> but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness."<sup>14</sup> Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" The Lord God of Hosts says, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom God shows wrath forever."

15 Your eyes will see, and you will say, "God is great—even beyond the border of Israel!"

16 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says The Lord God of Hosts to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?'<sup>17</sup> You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'God's table is contemptible.'<sup>18</sup> When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says The Lord God of Hosts.

19 "Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says The Lord God of Hosts.

10 "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says The Lord God of Hosts, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand.<sup>11</sup> For from the rising of the sun even to its going down, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>12</sup> "But you profane it, in that you say, 'God's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.'<sup>13</sup> You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it", says The Lord God of Hosts; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says God.

14 "But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord a defective thing; for I am a great King," says The Lord God of Hosts, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

CHAPTER 2

21 "Now, you priests, this commandment is for you.

22 If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart, to give glory to my name," says The Lord God of Hosts, "then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart.<sup>350</sup>

23 Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it.<sup>24</sup> You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>25</sup> "My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name.<sup>26</sup> The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity.<sup>27</sup> For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>28</sup> But you have turned away from the path. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>29</sup> "Therefore I have also made you contemptible and wicked before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law.<sup>210</sup> Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers?

211 Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of God which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

212 God will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>213</sup> This again you do: you cover God's altar with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand.<sup>214</sup> Yet you say, 'Why?' Because God has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant.<sup>215</sup> Did he not make you one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.<sup>216</sup> One who hates and divorces", says God, the God of Israel, "covers his garment with violence!" says The Lord God of Hosts. "Therefore pay attention to your spirit, that you don't be unfaithful.<sup>217</sup> You have wearied God with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in God's sight, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'

CHAPTER 3
31 "Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!" says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>32</sup> "But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderers' soap;<sup>33</sup> and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to God offerings in righteousness.<sup>34</sup> Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to God, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.

<sup>35</sup> I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurors, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says The Lord God of Hosts.<sup>36</sup> "For I, God, don't change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed.<sup>37</sup> From the days of your fathers you have turned away from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says The Lord God of Hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?<sup>38</sup> Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings.<sup>39</sup> You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation.<sup>310</sup> Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says The Lord God of Hosts, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be room enough for.

<sup>311</sup> I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>313</sup> "Your words have been stout against me," says God. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?<sup>314</sup> You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before The Lord God of Hosts?<sup>315</sup> Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.<sup>316</sup> Then those who feared God spoke one with another; and God listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before him, for those who feared God, and who honored his name.<sup>317</sup> They shall be mine," says The Lord God of Hosts, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him.<sup>318</sup> Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> "For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says the Lord God of Hosts, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.<sup>352</sup>

<sup>42</sup> But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall.<sup>43</sup> You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says The Lord God of Hosts.

<sup>44</sup> "Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances.

<sup>351</sup> More expressions of God's expectation at Jesus' coming; that he will be received by the leaders and people of Israel, and Israel will become the center of the kingdom of God on earth, beginning in Jesus' own lifetime (see Topical Index #23).

<sup>352</sup> Here, fire is metaphorical and refers to God's word (see Isa 30:27; Jas 3:6).

MATTHEW

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT MATTHEW

Brief background summary

Dating:

Most scholars believe the gospel of Matthew was written around 50–60 years after Jesus' crucifixion (circa 80–90 AD).

Authorship:

The author is unknown, but scholars believe he referred heavily to the gospel of Mark for his information. The gospel of Mark is thought to be the first written, and about 600 of Mark's passages are used in the gospel of Matthew. The author of the gospel of Matthew is thought to have been a Jewish male, somewhat non-traditional, and not one of Jesus' actual apostles. The author is not named in the gospel. The phrase "according to Matthew" was probably added in the 2nd century by scribes.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup>1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

<sup>12</sup>2 Abraham became the father of Isaac. Isaac became the father of Jacob. Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers.<sup>13</sup>3 Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron. Hezron became the father of Ram.<sup>14</sup>4 Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon. Nahshon became the father of Salmon.<sup>15</sup>5 Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse.<sup>16</sup>6 Jesse became the father of King David. David became the father of Solomon by her who had been Uriah's wife.<sup>17</sup>7 Solomon became the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the father of Abijah. Abijah became the father of Asa.<sup>18</sup>8 Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram. Joram became the father of Uzziah.<sup>19</sup>9 Uzziah became the father of Jotham. Jotham became the father of Ahaz. Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah.<sup>10</sup>10 Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh. Manasseh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Josiah.<sup>11</sup>11 Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup>12 After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel.<sup>13</sup>13 Zerubbabel became the father of Abiud. Abiud became the father of Eliakim. Eliakim became the father of Azor.<sup>14</sup>14 Azor became the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Achim. Achim became the father of Eliud.<sup>15</sup>15 Eliud became the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan. Matthan became the father of Jacob.<sup>16</sup>16 Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary,<sup>354</sup> from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.<sup>355</sup>

<sup>18</sup>18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this: After his mother, Mary, was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit.<sup>19</sup>19 Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly.<sup>20</sup>20 But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.<sup>21</sup>21 She shall give birth to a son. You shall name him Jesus, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins."

<sup>22</sup>22 Now all this has happened that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

<sup>24</sup>24 Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself<sup>25</sup>25 and didn't know her sexually until she had given birth to her firstborn son. He named him Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>26</sup>26 'You Bethlehem, land of Judah, are in no way least among the princes of Judah; for out of you shall come a governor who shall govern my people, Israel.'<sup>358</sup>

<sup>27</sup>27 Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared.<sup>28</sup>28 He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him."

<sup>29</sup>29 They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them until it came and stood over where the young child was.<sup>210</sup>20 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.<sup>211</sup>21 They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.<sup>212</sup>22 Being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

<sup>213</sup>23 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."<sup>359</sup>

<sup>214</sup>24 He arose and took the young child and his mother by night and departed into Egypt,<sup>215</sup>25 and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled

<sup>355</sup> This account of Jesus' lineage includes Ruth, Rachab, Thamar and the wife of Urias (Bathsheba), all women who played an important role in Jesus' lineage.

<sup>356</sup> Herod was ruler over Israel and tried to kill baby Jesus. He was also a famous builder who restored the Jerusalem temple.

which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

216 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men.<sup>217</sup> Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,
218 "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; she wouldn't be comforted, because they are no more."<sup>360</sup>

219 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,
220 "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."

221 He arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.<sup>222</sup> But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee,<sup>223</sup> and came and lived in a city called Nazareth,<sup>361</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets that he will be called a Nazarene.<sup>362</sup>

CHAPTER 3

31 In those days, John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying,<sup>32</sup> "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!"<sup>33</sup> For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, make the way of the Lord ready! Make his paths straight!"

34 Now John himself wore clothing made of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.<sup>35</sup>

35 Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him.<sup>36</sup> They were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.<sup>37</sup> But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees<sup>38</sup> coming for his baptism, he said to them, "You offspring of vipers,<sup>365</sup> who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?<sup>38</sup> Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance!<sup>39</sup> Don't think to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

<sup>364</sup> A Jewish sect which denied the resurrection of Jesus and also angels. Jesus and John both condemned them.

<sup>365</sup> This imagery of a snake also refers to people, reminiscent of the term "serpent" which was used to refer to Lucifer, an angel (see Gen 3:1; Rev 12:9).

<sup>366</sup> Here the term "trees" again refers to people, as in the Garden of Eden (see Gen 2:9; Prov 11:30; 13:12; Matt 12:33; John 15:4–6; Rom 11:17–18; Jude 12; and Topical Index #5).

310 Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees.<sup>366</sup> Therefore every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.<sup>367</sup>

311 "I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.<sup>312</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire."

313 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him.<sup>314</sup> But John would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?"<sup>368</sup>

315 But Jesus, answering, said to him, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him.

316 Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him.<sup>317</sup> Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."<sup>369</sup>

CHAPTER 4

41 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

42 When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward.<sup>370</sup>

43 The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."<sup>44</sup> But he answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of God's mouth.'"<sup>371</sup>

45 Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple,<sup>46</sup> and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you don't dash your foot against a stone.'"

47 Jesus said to him, "Again, it is written, 'You shall not test the Lord, your God.'"

48 Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.<sup>49</sup> He said to him, "I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me."

<sup>367</sup> Here the term "fire" refers to God's word and not literal flames of fire (see Jer 23:29; John 12:48; 2 Pet 3:7; 2 Thess 2:8; Jas 3:6; Rev 19:5; and Topical Index #37).

<sup>368</sup> John acknowledges that he already knows Jesus and respects him.

<sup>370</sup> Jesus' 40 day fast and temptations by Lucifer were a direct consequence of John's lack of adequate response to the revelation he received from God after Jesus' baptism. John did not become Jesus' disciple. We will see more detail in the other Gospels.

4:10 Then Jesus said to him, “Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.’”

4:11 Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and served him.

4:12 Now when Jesus heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee.<sup>372</sup> Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,<sup>4:14</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

4:15 “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles,”<sup>373</sup>

4:16 the people who sat in darkness saw a great light; to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, to them light has dawned.”

4:17 From that time, Jesus began to preach, and to say, “Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.”<sup>374</sup>

4:18 Walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.<sup>4:19</sup> He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men.”<sup>4:20</sup> They immediately left their nets and followed him.

4:21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee,<sup>374</sup> and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them.<sup>4:22</sup> They immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.

4:23 Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.<sup>4:24</sup> The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them.<sup>4:25</sup> Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

CHAPTER 5

5:1 Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him.<sup>5:2</sup> He opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

5:3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

5:5 Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth.

5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

5:7 Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

5:8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

5:9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

5:10 Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

5:11 “Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake.<sup>5:12</sup> Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

5:13 “You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men.

5:14 You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can’t be hidden.<sup>5:15</sup> Neither do you light a lamp and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house.

5:16 Even so, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

5:17 “Don’t think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn’t come to destroy, but to fulfill.

5:18 For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter or one tiny pen stroke shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished.

5:19 Therefore, whoever shall break one of these least commandments and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven;<sup>375</sup> but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

5:20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees,<sup>376</sup> there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

5:21 “You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, ‘You shall not murder;’ and ‘Whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.’<sup>5:22</sup> But I tell you that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause will be in danger of the judgment. Whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca!’ will be in danger of the council.

<sup>373</sup> Jesus is speaking of the literal and imminent kingdom of heaven on earth, prophesied to be established by Jesus (see Isa 9, 11, Luke 1:32–33; and Topical Index #24, #25). The kingdom of heaven on earth is to resemble the spiritual kingdom of the Father (see Matt 5:10; Matt 6:10; 21:35–37; 23:37; Luke 19:41–44; John 6:28–29; 8:37–42).

<sup>374</sup> The Apostle James, brother of apostle John, first to be martyred, not to be confused with James (Jesus’ brother) or James son of Alphaeus.

<sup>375</sup> Jesus later said that even the least (person) in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than John the Baptist (see Matt 11:11; Luke 7:28).

<sup>376</sup> lit. “separatists”. One of three sects of Jews with Essenes and Sadducees. Meticulous in observing Jewish law, but externally with lax morality, self-righteousness and pride. Fundamentalists who opposed Jesus’ teachings.

Whoever says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of Gehenna.

<sup>523</sup> "If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you,<sup>524</sup> leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.<sup>525</sup> Agree with your adversary quickly while you are with him on the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison.<sup>526</sup> Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there until you have paid the last penny.

<sup>529</sup> If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.<sup>530</sup> If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.

<sup>531</sup> "It was also said, 'Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce,'<sup>532</sup> but I tell you that whoever puts away his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries her when she is put away commits adultery.

<sup>533</sup> "Again you have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, 'You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Lord your vows,'<sup>534</sup> but I tell you, don't swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God,<sup>535</sup> nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.<sup>536</sup> Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can't make one hair white or black.

<sup>537</sup> But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' be 'No.' Whatever is more than these is of the evil one.

<sup>538</sup> "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'<sup>539</sup> But I tell you, don't resist him who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.<sup>540</sup> If anyone sues you to take away your coat, let him have your cloak also.<sup>541</sup> Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two.<sup>542</sup> Give to him who asks you, and don't turn away him who desires to borrow from you.<sup>543</sup> "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.'

bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you,<sup>545</sup> that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.<sup>546</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same?

<sup>547</sup> If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors do the same?<sup>548</sup> Therefore be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.<sup>379</sup>

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> "Be careful that you don't do your charitable giving before men, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

<sup>65</sup> "When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most certainly, I tell you, they have received their reward.<sup>66</sup> But you, when you pray, enter into your inner room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.<sup>67</sup> In praying, don't use vain repetitions as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking.

<sup>68</sup> Therefore don't be like them, for your Father knows what things you need before you ask him.

<sup>611</sup> Give us today our daily bread.

<sup>612</sup> Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors.

<sup>613</sup> Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

<sup>614</sup> "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.<sup>615</sup> But if you

<sup>379</sup> Moral and spiritual perfection is the true meaning of God's first blessing to Adam and Eve "Be fruitful", and is the pre-requisite to God's second blessing, which was to "multiply" (Gen 1:28). The Divine Principle offers a more complete explanation of the meaning of God's three blessings to Adam and Eve (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 3.2 and 1 Cor 3:16–17; 6:17).

<sup>381</sup> This reference to God the Father in the third person shows that Jesus and God the creator are distinct and not the same (see Matt 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; 1 Tim 2:9; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>382</sup> Another reference by Jesus to the Kingdom of Heaven on earth which Jesus came to establish, but did not, because of his rejection by the Jewish leaders. This passage also refers to the spiritual kingdom of the Father (see Matt 4:17; 21:35–37; 23:37; Luke 19:41–44; John 6:28–29; 8:37–42; and Topical Index #24, #25).

don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

<sup>622</sup> "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light.

<sup>623</sup> But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>624</sup> "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon.<sup>625</sup> Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life: what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing?<sup>626</sup> See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?<sup>383</sup>

<sup>627</sup> "Which of you by being anxious, can add one moment to his lifespan?<sup>628</sup> Why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin,<sup>629</sup> yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these.<sup>630</sup> But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, won't he much more clothe you, you of little faith?

<sup>631</sup> "Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?'<sup>632</sup> For the Gentiles seek after all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.<sup>633</sup> But seek first God's Kingdom and his righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well.<sup>634</sup> Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged.

<sup>72</sup> For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you.<sup>73</sup> Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?<sup>74</sup> Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye,' and behold, the beam is in your own eye?

<sup>75</sup> You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

<sup>76</sup> "Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither throw your pearls before the pigs, lest perhaps they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

<sup>77</sup> "Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you.<sup>78</sup> For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.<sup>384</sup>

<sup>79</sup> Or who is there among you who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone?<sup>710</sup> Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent?<sup>711</sup> If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!<sup>385</sup>

<sup>712</sup> Therefore, whatever you desire for men to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

<sup>713</sup> "Enter in by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter in by it.<sup>714</sup> How the gate is narrow and the way is restricted that leads to life! There are who find it.

<sup>715</sup> "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.

<sup>716</sup> By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles?

<sup>721</sup> "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven,<sup>386</sup> but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>722</sup> Many will tell me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?'<sup>723</sup> Then I will tell them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.'

<sup>724</sup> "Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on a rock.<sup>725</sup> The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it didn't fall, for it was founded on the rock.

<sup>726</sup> Everyone who hears these words of mine and

<sup>386</sup> The first reference to the kingdom may be referring either to the literal kingdom of heaven on earth, which is yet to come, or to the spiritual kingdom of the Father. The second reference to heaven is clearly the spiritual kingdom of the Father.

doesn't do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.<sup>727</sup> The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell—and its fall was great.”

<sup>728</sup> When Jesus had finished saying these things, the multitudes were astonished at his teaching,<sup>729</sup> for he taught them with authority, and not like the scribes.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.<sup>82</sup> Behold, a leper came to him and worshiped him, saying, “Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean.”

<sup>83</sup> Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, “I want to. Be made clean.” Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.<sup>84</sup> Jesus said to him, “See that you tell nobody; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

<sup>87</sup> Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

<sup>88</sup> The centurion answered, “Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.<sup>89</sup> For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and tell another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and tell my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

<sup>810</sup> When Jesus heard it, he marveled and said to those who followed, “Most certainly I tell you, I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel.”

<sup>811</sup> I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Kingdom of Heaven,<sup>812</sup> but the children of the Kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”<sup>813</sup> Jesus said to the centurion, “Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed.” His servant was healed in that hour.

<sup>818</sup> Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around him, he gave the order to depart to the other side.

<sup>819</sup> A scribe came and said to him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

<sup>820</sup> Jesus said to him, “The foxes have holes and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”<sup>388</sup>

<sup>821</sup> Another of his disciples said to him, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”

<sup>822</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.”

so much that the boat was covered with the waves; but he was asleep.<sup>825</sup> The disciples came to him and woke him up, saying, “Save us, Lord! We are dying!”

<sup>826</sup> He said to them, “Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?” Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.

<sup>827</sup> The men marveled, saying, “What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

<sup>828</sup> When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way.<sup>829</sup> Behold, they cried out, saying, “What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?”<sup>830</sup> Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them.

<sup>831</sup> The demons begged him, saying, “If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs.”<sup>832</sup> He said to them, “Go!” They came out, and went into the herd of pigs; and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea and died in the water.<sup>833</sup> Those who fed them fled and went away into the city and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons.

<sup>834</sup> Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.<sup>389</sup>

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> He entered into a boat and crossed over, and came into his own city.<sup>92</sup> Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, “Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you.”

<sup>94</sup> Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?”

<sup>95</sup> For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Get up, and walk?’<sup>96</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins—”<sup>390</sup>

(then he said to the paralytic), “Get up, and take up your mat, and go to your house.”

<sup>388</sup> Jesus indicates that he has no home. Many people following him are not thinking of the needs of Jesus, but only of their own needs.

<sup>389</sup> The people did not appreciate that Jesus exorcised the demon possessed man, but wanted Jesus to leave because of the demise of the pigs.

<sup>390</sup> Jesus tells us that he does such miracles so that we may know who he is, and that he has the authority of God to forgive sins.

<sup>97</sup> He arose and departed to his house.<sup>98</sup> But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

<sup>99</sup> As Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew<sup>391</sup> sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, “Follow me.” He got up and followed him.

<sup>100</sup> As he sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples.<sup>101</sup> When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>102</sup> When Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do.<sup>103</sup> But you go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’ for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

<sup>104</sup> Then John’s disciples came to him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don’t fast?”

<sup>105</sup> Jesus said to them,

“Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom<sup>392</sup> will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>108</sup> While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

<sup>110</sup> Behold, a woman who had a discharge of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment;<sup>111</sup> for she said within herself, “If I just touch his garment, I will be made well.”

<sup>112</sup> But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, “Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that hour.

<sup>113</sup> When Jesus came into the ruler’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd in noisy disorder, <sup>114</sup> he said to them, “Make room, because the girl isn’t dead, but sleeping.” They were ridiculing him.

<sup>115</sup> But when the crowd was sent out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose.<sup>116</sup> The report of this went out into all that land.

<sup>127</sup> As Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, “Have mercy on us, son of David!”<sup>128</sup> When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They told him, “Yes, Lord.”

<sup>129</sup> Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.”<sup>130</sup> Then their eyes were opened. Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, “See that no one knows about this.”<sup>131</sup> But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

<sup>134</sup> But the Pharisees said, “By the prince of the demons, he casts out demons.”

<sup>135</sup> Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the Good News of the Kingdom,<sup>393</sup> and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.<sup>136</sup> But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them because they were harassed and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd.<sup>137</sup> Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few.<sup>138</sup> Pray therefore that the Lord of the harvest will send out laborers into his harvest.”

CHAPTER 10

<sup>391</sup> Matthew was a tax collector—also called Levi—who dramatically changed his life to follow Jesus.

<sup>392</sup> Jesus likens himself to a bridegroom (see John 3:29; Rev 19:7; 21:2, 9).

<sup>394</sup> John was called the disciple Jesus loved. Some think he was the author of five books of Bible. He was a fisherman.

<sup>397</sup> Also called publicans, or their supervisors who conveyed the collected tributes to the government. They often extorted people and were otherwise dishonest.

<sup>398</sup> James was among those present in the “upper room” after Jesus was crucified.

<sup>399</sup> Lebbaeus was also called Judas (not the same as Judas Iscariot).

money belts.<sup>1010</sup> Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor sandals, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food.<sup>1011</sup> Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you go on.<sup>1012</sup> As you enter into the household, greet it.<sup>1013</sup> If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn't worthy, let your peace return to you.

<sup>1014</sup> Whoever doesn't receive you or hear your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake the dust off your feet.<sup>1015</sup> Most certainly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

<sup>1016</sup> "Behold, I send you out as sheep among wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.<sup>1017</sup> But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge<sup>402</sup> you.

<sup>1018</sup> Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations.<sup>1019</sup> But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say.<sup>1020</sup> For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

<sup>1021</sup> "Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.

<sup>1022</sup> You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>1023</sup> But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel until the Son of Man has come.

<sup>1026</sup> Therefore don't be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known.<sup>1027</sup> What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops.

<sup>1028</sup> Don't be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

<sup>1029</sup> "Aren't two sparrows sold for an assarion coin? Not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will.<sup>1030</sup> But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.<sup>1031</sup> Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>1032</sup> Everyone therefore who confesses me before men, I will also confess him before my Father who is in heaven.<sup>1033</sup> But whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>1034</sup> "Don't think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn't come to send peace, but a sword."<sup>403</sup>

<sup>1037</sup> He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn't worthy of me.

<sup>1038</sup> He who doesn't take his cross and follow after me isn't worthy of me.<sup>1039</sup> He who seeks his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>1040</sup> "He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me.<sup>1041</sup> He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. He who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

<sup>1042</sup> Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, most certainly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward."

CHAPTER 11

<sup>111</sup> When Jesus had finished directing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities.

<sup>113</sup> and said to him, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"<sup>405</sup>

<sup>117</sup> As these went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>118</sup> But what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.<sup>119</sup> But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.<sup>1110</sup> For this is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'<sup>1111</sup> Most certainly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptist;

<sup>402</sup> Punishment by whipping not more than 40 times. Forbidden to be done to Romans.

<sup>403</sup> Here Jesus is not decrying peace, but rather pointing to the conflict and division within families that will inevitably result from a member(s) of a family becoming Jesus' disciple. Jesus is reviled of men and very controversial, at this point as the following passages suggest.

<sup>404</sup> Notice here that John has been imprisoned and will soon be beheaded. He has done little to support Jesus or his ministry.

<sup>405</sup> This statement reveals that John doubted the revelation from God telling him that Jesus is "My beloved son, with whom I am well pleased." (Matt 3:17).

yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he.<sup>406</sup>

1112 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.<sup>407</sup>

1113 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.<sup>1114</sup> If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come.<sup>408</sup>

1115 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

1116 “But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions<sup>1117</sup> and say, ‘We played the flute for you, and you didn’t dance. We mourned for you, and you didn’t lament.’<sup>1118</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’<sup>1119</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is justified by her children.”

1120 Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn’t repent.<sup>1121</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

1122 But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.<sup>1123</sup> You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Hades. For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until today.<sup>1124</sup> But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment, than for you.”

1125 At that time, Jesus answered, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants.<sup>1126</sup> Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight.<sup>1127</sup> All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

1128 “Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest.<sup>1129</sup> Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you will find rest for your souls.<sup>1130</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

CHAPTER 12

121 At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.<sup>122</sup> But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, “Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.”<sup>123</sup>

But he said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him:<sup>124</sup> how he entered into God’s house and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?<sup>125</sup> Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless?<sup>126</sup> But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here.<sup>127</sup> But if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’ you wouldn’t have condemned the guiltless.<sup>128</sup> For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

129 He departed from there and went into their synagogue.<sup>1210</sup> And behold, there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” so that they might accuse him.

1211 He said to them, “What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it and lift it out?<sup>1212</sup> Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day.”<sup>1213</sup> Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other.<sup>1214</sup> But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how they might destroy him.<sup>409</sup>

1215 Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all,<sup>1216</sup> and commanded them that they should not make him known,<sup>1217</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

1218 “Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit on him. He will proclaim justice to the nations.

1219 He will not strive, nor shout, neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

1220 He won’t break a bruised reed. He won’t quench a smoking flax, until he leads justice to victory.

1221 In his name, the nations will hope.”

1222 Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him; and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw.<sup>1223</sup> All the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?<sup>1224</sup> But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.”

<sup>406</sup> John was born with the greatest mission of all, to prepare the way of the Lord; but here Jesus says that the least person in the Kingdom of heaven is greater than John. This is because John failed to support Jesus or his ministry as God had planned and expected, and prepared him to do (see Luke 1:17; Matt 5:19).

<sup>407</sup> Jesus is the origin and personal embodiment of God’s Kingdom. Jesus is saying here that he has been subjected to violence, and now John, a key person prepared to help Jesus to establish God’s kingdom on earth, has now been taken prisoner by violent men.

<sup>408</sup> Jesus states clearly that the expected return of Elijah (for which Jewish people still await) has come in the person of John the Baptist. John has come “in the spirit and power of Elijah” according to the angel (Luke 1:17). Thus, John is not literally Elijah, who lived 900 years prior, but Elijah is represented by John (see Mal 3:1; 4:5; Matt 11:8–11, 14).

<sup>409</sup> Jesus is repeatedly opposed in every good work that he does and in every good word that he speaks, not by the spirit of God and the Holy Ghost, but by the spirit of darkness working through the religious leaders which seeks to stop Jesus and his ministry.

<sup>1229</sup> Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man and plunder his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.

<sup>1230</sup> "He who is not with me is against me, and he who doesn't gather with me, scatters.

<sup>1231</sup> Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. <sup>1232</sup> Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age, or in that which is to come.

<sup>1234</sup> You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.

<sup>1239</sup> But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet.

<sup>1240</sup> For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the huge fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

<sup>1242</sup> The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here. <sup>412</sup>

<sup>1243</sup> "When an unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest, and doesn't find it." <sup>1244</sup> Then he says, 'I will return into my house from which I came;' and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

<sup>1245</sup> Then he goes and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation."

<sup>1246</sup> While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. <sup>1247</sup> One said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you."

<sup>1248</sup> But he answered him who spoke to him, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?"

<sup>1249</sup> He stretched out his hand toward his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!"

<sup>1250</sup> For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother. <sup>413</sup>

CHAPTER 13

<sup>131</sup> On that day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the seaside. <sup>132</sup> Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. <sup>133</sup> He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow." <sup>134</sup> As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them.

<sup>135</sup> Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. <sup>136</sup> When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. <sup>137</sup> Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them.

<sup>1310</sup> The disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

<sup>1311</sup> He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. <sup>1312</sup> For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has." <sup>1313</sup> Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand."

<sup>1314</sup> In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says, 'By hearing you will hear, and will in no way understand; Seeing you will see, and will in no way perceive;

<sup>1315</sup> for this people's heart has grown callous, their ears are dull of hearing, and they have closed their eyes; or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and would turn again, and I would heal them.'

<sup>1316</sup> "But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear." <sup>1317</sup> For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see

<sup>411</sup> Here, tree refers to people (see Gen 2:9; Prov 11:30; 13:12; Matt 3:10; John 15:4–6; Rom 11:17–18; Jude 12).

the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.

<sup>13</sup><sup>31</sup> He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took, and sowed in his field, <sup>13</sup><sup>32</sup> which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."

<sup>13</sup><sup>36</sup> Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying,

"Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field."

But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country and in his own house." <sup>13</sup><sup>58</sup> He didn't do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

<sup>414</sup> The spirit of darkness was working through the religious leaders to oppose Jesus, no matter what he did or said. Jesus was not happy about this.

CHAPTER 14

14:1 At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus,<sup>415</sup>

14:2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him."<sup>416</sup> For Herod had arrested John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.

14:4 For John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her."<sup>416</sup>

14:5 When he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.<sup>416</sup> But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced among them and pleased Herod.<sup>417</sup> Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask.<sup>418</sup> She, being prompted by her mother, said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist."

14:9 The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths and of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it to be given,<sup>410</sup> and he sent and beheaded John in the prison.<sup>411</sup> His head was brought on a platter and given to the young lady; and she brought it to her mother.<sup>412</sup> His disciples came, took the body, and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.<sup>413</sup> Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed him on foot from the cities.

14:14 Jesus went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them and healed their sick.

14:15 When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, "This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food."

14:16 But Jesus said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

14:17 They told him, "We only have here five loaves and two fish."

14:18 He said, "Bring them here to me."

14:19 He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes.<sup>420</sup> They all ate and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces.<sup>421</sup> Those who ate were about five thousand men, in addition to women and children.

14:22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.<sup>423</sup> After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone.<sup>424</sup> But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. 14:25 In the fourth watch of the night, Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.<sup>426</sup> When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear.<sup>427</sup> But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."

14:28 Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."

14:29 He said, "Come!"

Peter stepped down from the boat and walked on the waters to come to Jesus.<sup>430</sup> But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

14:31 Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"<sup>432</sup> When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased.<sup>433</sup> Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, "You are truly the Son of God!"

14:34 When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret.<sup>435</sup> When the people of that place recognized him, they sent into all that surrounding region and brought to him all who were sick;<sup>436</sup> and they begged him that they might just touch the fringe of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

CHAPTER 15

15:1 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying,<sup>15:2</sup> "Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the elders? For they don't wash their hands when they eat bread."

15:3 He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition?"

15:4 For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.'<sup>15:5</sup> But you say, 'Whoever may tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God,"'<sup>15:6</sup> he shall not honor his father or mother.' You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition.<sup>15:7</sup> You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

15:8 'These people draw near to me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.'

15:9 And in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrine rules made by men.'"

15:10 He summoned the multitude, and said to them, "Hear, and understand."<sup>15:11</sup> That which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the man; but

415 Herod Antipas—tetrarch (ruler of a quarter of a region or province) of Galilee and Perea—sought the crucifixion of Jesus (Luke 23:7–12). He was the son of Herod the Great who tried to kill the baby Jesus (Matt 2:13–18).

416 Here John shows his disunity with Jesus as John is still condemning adulterers under the Mosaic law while Jesus is forgiving them under the new Gospel of love.

that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man.”<sup>417</sup>

15:12 Then the disciples came, and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?”

15:13 But he answered, “Every plant which my heavenly Father didn’t plant will be uprooted.

15:14 Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

15:15 Peter answered him, “Explain the parable to us.”

15:16 So Jesus said, “Do you also still not understand?

15:17 Don’t you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly and then out of the body?<sup>15:18</sup> But the things which proceed out of the mouth come out of the heart, and they defile the man.

15:19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies.<sup>15:20</sup> These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn’t defile the man.”

15:21 Jesus went out from there and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon.<sup>15:22</sup> Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders and cried, saying, “Have mercy on me, Lord, you son of David! My daughter is severely possessed by a demon!”

15:23 But he answered her not a word.

His disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away; for she cries after us.”

15:24 But he answered, “I wasn’t sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

15:25 But she came and worshiped him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

15:26 But he answered, “It is not appropriate to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

15:27 But she said, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”

15:28 Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

15:29 Jesus departed from there and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain and sat there.<sup>15:30</sup> Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them,<sup>15:31</sup> so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, the injured healed, the lame walking, and the blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Israel.

15:32 Jesus summoned his disciples and said, “I have compassion on the multitude, because they have continued with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way.”

15:33 The disciples said to him, “Where could we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?”

15:34 Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

15:35 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground;<sup>15:36</sup> and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.

15:37 They all ate and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over.<sup>15:38</sup> Those who ate were four thousand men, in addition to women and children.<sup>15:39</sup> Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

CHAPTER 16

16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

16:2 But he answered them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’

16:3 In the morning, ‘It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can’t discern the signs of the times!<sup>16:4</sup> An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah.” He left them and departed.<sup>16:5</sup> The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread.<sup>16:6</sup> Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

16:7 They reasoned among themselves, saying, “We brought no bread.”

16:8 Jesus, perceiving it, said, “Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, because you have brought no bread?<sup>16:9</sup> Don’t you yet perceive or remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up,<sup>16:10</sup> or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?<sup>16:11</sup> How is it that you don’t perceive that I didn’t speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

16:12 Then they understood that he didn’t tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

16:13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?”

16:14 They said, “Some say John the Baptist, some, Elijah, and others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

16:15 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

16:16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

16:17 Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.<sup>16:18</sup> I also tell you that not make one sinful. He is speaking specifically to eating with unwashed hands, but he is also making a broader point about sin (see Gen 2:17; 3; Job 31:33; Prov 30:20; Song 4:12–16).

you are Peter,<sup>418</sup> and on this rock I will build my assembly, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

16:19 I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will be released in heaven.<sup>419</sup>

16:20 Then he commanded the disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ.

16:21 From that time,<sup>420</sup> Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

16:22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you."

16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men."

16:24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."<sup>425</sup> For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it.<sup>426</sup> For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life?

16:27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds.<sup>421</sup>

16:28 Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death until they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom.<sup>422</sup>

CHAPTER 17

17:1 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves.<sup>17:2</sup> He was changed before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light.<sup>17:3</sup> Behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him.<sup>423</sup>

17:4 Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let's make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

17:5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

17:6 When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid.<sup>17:7</sup> Jesus came and touched them and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid."

17:8 Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus alone.

17:9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Don't tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

17:10 His disciples asked him, saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

17:11 Jesus answered them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things;<sup>17:12</sup> but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn't recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them."

17:13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptist.<sup>424</sup>

17:14 When they came to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him and saying,<sup>17:15</sup> "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water.<sup>17:16</sup> So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him."

17:17 Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me."<sup>17:18</sup> Jesus rebuked the demon, and it went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, "Why weren't we able to cast it out?"

17:20 He said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.<sup>17:21</sup> But this kind doesn't go out except by prayer and fasting."

17:22 While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men,<sup>17:23</sup> and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up."

They were exceedingly sorry.

<sup>418</sup> Peter was the brother of Andrew and a follower of John the Baptist. His real name was Simon, renamed Cephas (Aramaic = rock) in Greek = Petros or Peter.

<sup>419</sup> Spiritual, heartistic and providential progress made in the physical body become the basis for similar spiritual, heartistic and providential progress in the spiritual world. Thus, perfection of the heart (Matt 5:48) must be first accomplished in the physical body on earth before a person can continue with that perfected heart in his eternal spiritual life after death i.e., the Kingdom of Heaven must first be created on earth before it can be fully manifested in the spiritual world.

<sup>421</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

<sup>422</sup> Jesus is not speaking here of physical death, but rather spiritual death. We still await the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth with the Lord's return.

<sup>423</sup> These are the spirits of Moses and Elijah, who died centuries earlier. John was to represent Elijah in the flesh by continuing his mission on earth. John was not literally Elijah, but was Elijah in mission (Luke 1:17).

<sup>424</sup> Another declaration by Jesus that John the Baptist had come representing Elijah, whose literal return Jews still await (see Mal 4:5).

17<sup>24</sup> When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins came to Peter, and said, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the didrachma?”

17<sup>25</sup> He said, “Yes.” When he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?”

17<sup>26</sup> Peter said to him, “From strangers.” Jesus said to him, “Therefore the children are exempt.

17<sup>27</sup> But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you.”

CHAPTER 18

18<sup>1</sup> In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?”

18<sup>2</sup> Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in the middle of them<sup>18<sup>3</sup> and said, “Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.</sup>

18<sup>4</sup> Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.<sup>42<sup>5</sup></sup>

18<sup>5</sup> Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me,<sup>18<sup>6</sup> but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if a huge millstone were hung around his neck and that he were sunk in the depths of the sea.</sup>

18<sup>7</sup> “Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes!<sup>18<sup>8</sup> If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire.</sup>

18<sup>9</sup> If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire.<sup>18<sup>10</sup> See that you don’t despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.<sup>18<sup>11</sup> For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.</sup></sup>

18<sup>12</sup> “What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray?<sup>18<sup>13</sup> If he finds it, most certainly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray.</sup>

18<sup>14</sup> Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

18<sup>15</sup> “If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother.<sup>18<sup>16</sup> But if he doesn’t listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.<sup>18<sup>17</sup> If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector.</sup></sup>

18<sup>18</sup> Most certainly I tell you, whatever things you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever things you release on earth will have been released in heaven.

18<sup>19</sup> Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven.

18<sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the middle of them.”

18<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?”

18<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “I don’t tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven.

18<sup>23</sup> Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

18<sup>24</sup> When he had begun to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

18<sup>25</sup> But because he couldn’t pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

18<sup>26</sup> The servant therefore fell down and knelt before him, saying, ‘Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!’<sup>18<sup>27</sup> The lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him and forgave him the debt.</sup>

18<sup>28</sup> “But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him one hundred denarii, and he grabbed him and took him by the throat, saying, ‘Pay me what you owe!’

18<sup>29</sup> “So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will repay you!’<sup>18<sup>30</sup> He would not, but went and cast him into prison until he should pay back that which was due.<sup>18<sup>31</sup> So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told their lord all that was done.</sup></sup>

18<sup>32</sup> Then his lord called him in and said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me.<sup>18<sup>33</sup> Shouldn’t you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?’<sup>18<sup>34</sup> His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors until he should pay all that was due to him.<sup>18<sup>35</sup> So my heavenly Father will also do to you, if you don’t each forgive your brother from your hearts for his misdeeds.’</sup></sup></sup>

CHAPTER 19

<sup>19</sup><sup>3</sup> Pharisees came to him, testing him and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?"

<sup>19</sup><sup>4</sup> He answered, "Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female,<sup>19</sup><sup>5</sup> and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh?'

<sup>19</sup><sup>6</sup> So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart."

<sup>19</sup><sup>7</sup> They asked him, "Why then did Moses command us to give her a certificate of divorce and divorce her?"

<sup>19</sup><sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so."<sup>426</sup>

<sup>19</sup><sup>10</sup> His disciples said to him, "If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry."

<sup>19</sup><sup>11</sup> But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given."<sup>19</sup><sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."

<sup>19</sup><sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

Jesus said, "You shall not murder.' You shall not commit adultery.' You shall not steal.' You shall not offer false testimony.'<sup>19</sup><sup>19</sup> Honor your father and your mother.' And, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"

<sup>19</sup><sup>20</sup> The young man said to him, "All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?"

<sup>19</sup><sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."

<sup>19</sup><sup>22</sup> But when the young man heard this, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions.

<sup>19</sup><sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

<sup>19</sup><sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, "Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."<sup>19</sup><sup>29</sup> Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life.

<sup>19</sup><sup>30</sup> But many will be last who are first, and first who are last.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>20</sup><sup>1</sup> "For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who was the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

"They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.'

<sup>20</sup><sup>9</sup> "When those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius.

<sup>20</sup><sup>10</sup> When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius.

<sup>20</sup><sup>12</sup> saying, 'These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!'

<sup>426</sup> Here Jesus is indicating that the marriage of one man and one woman was God's intention and plan from the beginning (Adam and Eve) and that this is a sacred bond which God ordains.

<sup>427</sup> Again, those worthy of being citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven are the pure, innocent and virtuous (Matt 13).

<sup>20</sup><sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, <sup>20</sup><sup>18</sup> "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, <sup>20</sup><sup>19</sup> and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day he will be raised up."

<sup>20</sup><sup>22</sup> But Jesus answered, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They said to him, "We are able."

<sup>20</sup><sup>23</sup> He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give, but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

<sup>20</sup><sup>24</sup> When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two brothers.

<sup>20</sup><sup>25</sup> But Jesus summoned them, and said, "You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

<sup>20</sup><sup>34</sup> Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>21</sup><sup>13</sup> He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' <sup>432</sup> but you have made it a den of robbers!"

Immediately the fig tree withered away.

<sup>428</sup> This was after Jesus met with Moses and Elijah at the Mount of Transfiguration. Jesus' determination to offer his life on the cross due to failure to receive him, was established at that time (Matt 17:1-3; Mark 9:2-4; Luke 9:28-31).

21:20 When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?"
21:21 Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, if you have faith and don't doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it would be done." 21:22 All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

21:23 When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

21:24 Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things." 21:25 The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?" They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'" 21:26 But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet."

21:27 They answered Jesus, and said, "We don't know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things." 21:28 But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.'

21:29 He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind, and went. 21:30 He came to the second, and said the same thing. He answered, 'I'm going, sir,' but he didn't go. 21:31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to him, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Most certainly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into God's Kingdom before you." 21:32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him; but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

21:33 "Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. 21:34 When the season for the fruit came near, he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his fruit.

21:35 The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 21:36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first; and they treated them the same way. 21:37 But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>434</sup>

21:38 But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and seize his inheritance.' 21:39 So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard, then killed him.

21:40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

21:41 They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers who will give him the fruit in its season." 21:42 Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected was made the head of the corner. This was from the Lord. It is marvelous in our eyes'?

21:43 "Therefore I tell you, God's Kingdom will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation producing its fruit." <sup>435</sup>

21:44 He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust."

21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. 21:46 When they sought to seize him, they feared the multitudes, because they considered him to be a prophet.

CHAPTER 22

22:1 Jesus answered and spoke to them again in parables, saying, 22:2 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a wedding feast for his son, 22:3 and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come. 22:4 Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast!"'

22:5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise;

22:6 and the rest grabbed his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. 22:7 When the king heard that, he was angry, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

22:8 "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy.'

22:9 Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the wedding feast." 22:10 Those servants went out into the highways and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests.

22:11 "But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, 22:12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. 22:13 Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness. That is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.'

22:14 For many are called, but few chosen."

22:15 Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. 22:16 They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach; for <sup>434</sup> Jesus is conveying that God anticipated Israel to hold him in reverence. Many common people did, but the leaders did not (see Matt 4:17; 6:10; 23:37; Luke 19:41–44; John 6:28–29; 8:37–42; and Topical Index #25).

<sup>435</sup> This means a nation other than Israel, for the leaders of Israel rejected Jesus as the Messiah, the one who comes to establish the literal kingdom of heaven on earth. The forgiveness of sin is integral to the establishment of that kingdom (see Topical Index #23, #24).

you aren't partial to anyone.<sup>2217</sup> Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

<sup>2218</sup> But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites?<sup>2219</sup> Show me the tax money." They brought to him a denarius.

<sup>2221</sup> They said to him, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>2230</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like God's angels in heaven.<sup>2231</sup> But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,<sup>2232</sup> 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?'<sup>436</sup> God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

<sup>2235</sup> One of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him.<sup>2236</sup> "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?"

<sup>2237</sup> Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."<sup>437</sup>

<sup>2241</sup> Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,<sup>2242</sup> saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?"

They said to him, "Of David."

<sup>2243</sup> He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet'?"

<sup>2244</sup> 'The Lord said to my Lord, sit on my right hand,

<sup>2245</sup> "If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?"

<sup>2246</sup> No one was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare ask him any more questions from that day forward.

CHAPTER 23

<sup>231</sup> Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples,<sup>232</sup> saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat.<sup>233</sup> All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don't do their works; for they say, and don't do.<sup>234</sup> For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them.<sup>235</sup> But they do all their works to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the fringes of their garments, <sup>236</sup> and love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,<sup>237</sup> the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called 'Rabbi, Rabbi by men.<sup>238</sup> But you are not to be called 'Rabbi', for one is your teacher, the Christ, and all of you are brothers.

<sup>239</sup> Call no man on the earth your father, for one is your Father, he who is in heaven.<sup>439</sup>

<sup>2310</sup> Neither be called masters, for one is your master, the Christ.<sup>2311</sup> But he who is greatest among you will be your servant.

<sup>2312</sup> Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.<sup>2313</sup> "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.<sup>440</sup>

<sup>2314</sup> "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don't enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter.<sup>2315</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as yourselves.

<sup>2316</sup> "Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.'<sup>2317</sup> You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies the gold?

<sup>2318</sup> And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obligated?'

<sup>2319</sup> You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?

<sup>437</sup> The origin of this commandment lies in the failure of Adam and Eve to keep God's commandment "Thou shall not eat..." (Gen 3:6; Deut 10:12).

<sup>438</sup> The origin of this commandment lies in the failure of Cain to love his brother Abel; rather he killed him (Gen 4:8; Lev 19:18).

<sup>439</sup> God is our parent, in character and in heart, He is our Father.

<sup>440</sup> Jesus makes it clear that he is very frustrated and angry at the religious leaders who have rejected and persecuted him and blocked themselves and others from entering either the Father's spiritual kingdom or Jesus' earthly kingdom to come. This was not the will of God (see Topical Index #24, 25).

temple, swears by it and by him who has been living in it.

<sup>23</sup>22 He who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by him who sits on it.

<sup>23</sup>25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness.<sup>23</sup>26 You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the platter, that its outside may become clean also.

<sup>23</sup>27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness.

<sup>23</sup>28 Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

<sup>23</sup>29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous,<sup>23</sup>30 and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn't have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'

<sup>23</sup>36 Most certainly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.

<sup>23</sup>39 For I tell you, you will not see me from now on, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

CHAPTER 24

<sup>24</sup>1 Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.<sup>24</sup>2 But he answered them, "You see all of these things, don't you? Most certainly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."<sup>442</sup>

<sup>24</sup>3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?"

<sup>24</sup>4 Jesus answered them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.<sup>24</sup>5 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray.

<sup>24</sup>6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet.<sup>24</sup>7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places.<sup>24</sup>8 But all these things are the beginning of birth pains.

<sup>24</sup>9 "Then they will deliver you up to oppression and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake.<sup>24</sup>10 Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another.

<sup>24</sup>11 Many false prophets will arise and will lead many astray.<sup>24</sup>12 Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold.

<sup>24</sup>13 But he who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>24</sup>14 This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

<sup>24</sup>20 Pray that your flight will not be in the winter nor on a Sabbath,<sup>24</sup>21 for then there will be great suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be.<sup>24</sup>22 Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen ones, those days will be shortened.

<sup>24</sup>23 "Then if any man tells you, 'Behold, here is the Christ!' or, 'There!' don't believe it.<sup>24</sup>24 For there will arise false christ, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

<sup>24</sup>26 "If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' don't go out; or 'Behold, he is in the inner rooms,' don't believe it.

<sup>441</sup> Again, Jesus makes it clear that it was God's will that he be accepted and received as the Messiah by the nation of Israel, but he was not (see Matt 4:17; 6:10; 21:35-37; Luke 19:41-44; John 6:28,29; 8:37-42; and Topical Index #25).

<sup>442</sup> Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple and all of Jerusalem, as it came to pass in 66 AD.

<sup>24</sup><sup>29</sup> "But immediately after the suffering of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;<sup>446</sup>

<sup>24</sup><sup>30</sup> and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds<sup>447</sup> of heaven with power and great glory.

begins to beat his fellow servants, and eat and drink with the drunkards,<sup>24</sup><sup>50</sup> the lord of that servant will come in a day when he doesn't expect it and in an hour when he doesn't know it,<sup>24</sup><sup>51</sup> and will cut him in pieces and appoint his portion with the hypocrites. That is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.

CHAPTER 25

<sup>25</sup><sup>13</sup> Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

<sup>25</sup><sup>21</sup> "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few

<sup>444</sup> Luke 17:24 This indicates that the returning Lord will come from a nation in the East.

<sup>445</sup> The returning Lord will naturally be the object of intense persecution and opposition (birds of prey) because Satan and this fallen world will be unwilling to surrender to God.

<sup>446</sup> This is metaphorical language (see Gen 37:9; Exod 12:2; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, 3:15; 1 Cor 15:41; Rev 8:12, 12:1).

<sup>447</sup> This is imagery for a human and angelic "cloud of witnesses" similar to Daniel's prophecy of Jesus' coming "with the clouds of heaven", whereas Jesus was born on earth (see Dan 7:13; Heb 12:1; Matt 24:30; 26:64; John 3:13; Acts 1:11; 1 Thess 4:16; Jude 12; Rev 1:7).

<sup>449</sup> Jesus again likens himself to a bridegroom. The completion of salvation when Christ returns will involve the marriage of the Lamb to his new Eve (cf. Rev 19:7).

things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

<sup>25</sup>22 "He also who got the two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents in addition to them.'

<sup>25</sup>23 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things. I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

<sup>25</sup>24 "He also who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you didn't sow, and gathering where you didn't scatter.'<sup>25</sup>25 I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.'

<sup>25</sup>26 "But his lord answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter.'<sup>25</sup>27 You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest.<sup>25</sup>28 Take away therefore the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents.<sup>25</sup>29 For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away.<sup>25</sup>30 Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'<sup>25</sup>31 "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory.<sup>25</sup>32 Before him all the nations will be gathered,<sup>450</sup> and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.<sup>25</sup>33 He will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.<sup>25</sup>34 Then the King will tell those on his right hand, 'Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;<sup>25</sup>35 for I was hungry and you gave me food to eat. I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you took me in.<sup>25</sup>36 I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came to me.'

<sup>25</sup>37 "Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink?<sup>25</sup>38 When did we see you as a stranger and take you in, or naked and clothe you?<sup>25</sup>39 When did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?'

<sup>25</sup>40 "The King will answer them, 'Most certainly I tell you, because you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'<sup>25</sup>41 Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels;<sup>25</sup>42 for I was hungry, and you didn't give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink.<sup>25</sup>43 I was a stranger, and you didn't take me in; naked, and you didn't clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn't visit me.'

<sup>25</sup>44 "Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn't help you?'

<sup>25</sup>45 "Then he will answer them, saying, 'Most certainly I tell you, because you didn't do it to one of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.'

<sup>25</sup>46 These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHAPTER 26

<sup>26</sup>1 When Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples,<sup>26</sup>2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

<sup>26</sup>3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas.<sup>451</sup>

<sup>26</sup>10 However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? She has done a good work for me.<sup>26</sup>11 For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me.

<sup>26</sup>12 For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.<sup>26</sup>13 Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her."

<sup>26</sup>14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests<sup>26</sup>15 and said, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver him to you?" So they weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>26</sup>16 From that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

<sup>26</sup>17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>26</sup>18 He said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples."

<sup>26</sup>19 The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>450</sup> The returning Lord comes to save the entire world and become the literal "King of Kings" (Rev 19:16).

<sup>451</sup> Joseph Caiaphas was a Sadducee and the high priest over Jesus' trial and execution. Tried to get Pontius Pilate to execute Jesus for the charge of blasphemy. Husband of the daughter of Annas.

<sup>452</sup> Clearly, the leaders of Israel were not united with Jesus, even though many common people were.

<sup>26</sup><sup>22</sup> They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, “It isn’t me, is it, Lord?”

<sup>26</sup><sup>26</sup> As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.”<sup>26</sup><sup>27</sup> He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, “All of you drink it,<sup>26</sup><sup>28</sup> for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins.”<sup>457</sup>

<sup>26</sup><sup>29</sup> But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father’s Kingdom.”

<sup>26</sup><sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’”<sup>458</sup>

<sup>26</sup><sup>33</sup> But Peter answered him, “Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble.”

<sup>26</sup><sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, “Most certainly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.”

<sup>26</sup><sup>35</sup> Peter said to him, “Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you.” All of the disciples also said likewise.

them, “My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with me.”<sup>460</sup>

<sup>26</sup><sup>42</sup> Again, a second time he went away and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cup can’t pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done.”

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.<sup>26</sup><sup>51</sup> Behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

<sup>26</sup><sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword.”<sup>26</sup><sup>53</sup> Or do you think that I couldn’t ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels?<sup>26</sup><sup>54</sup> How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?”<sup>463</sup>

<sup>26</sup><sup>55</sup> In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, “Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn’t arrest me.<sup>26</sup><sup>56</sup> But all this has happened that the Scriptures of the prophets

<sup>454</sup> This repeated use of the term “betrayal” and the sorrow of the disciples indicates that this was not God’s original plan for Jesus.

<sup>455</sup> Even though Isaiah prophesied that Jesus would be rejected and suffer if Israel was faithless before him, (Isaiah 53), it was not God’s original plan or desire. Jesus came to bring God’s literal Kingdom of Heaven on earth (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>456</sup> If Judas were performing a necessary task in betraying Jesus for the fulfillment of salvation, then he should be applauded for his service and sacrifice. But here, Jesus says it would be better if Judas had not been born. Thus, the betrayal of Jesus was not God’s original plan for Jesus (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>460</sup> Jesus should not be sorrowful if God’s original and ultimate will was to be accomplished through the crucifixion. It was not God’s original plan for His son to be betrayed and crucified as a heretic (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>461</sup> Traditional explanations say that Jesus was afraid to die. The son of God was not a lesser man than many patriots and war heroes who were glad to give their lives for their comrades or for their country or king. Jesus could not be afraid to die if God’s will was to be completed by his sacrifice. This passage also shows that Jesus is distinct from God, the creator (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 27:46; 1 Tim 2:9; and Topical Index #27).

might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him and fled.<sup>464</sup>

<sup>26</sup><sup>62</sup> The high priest stood up and said to him, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?"<sup>26</sup><sup>63</sup> But Jesus stayed silent. The high priest answered him, "I adjure you by the living God that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."

<sup>26</sup><sup>71</sup> When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him and said to those who were there, "This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>26</sup><sup>74</sup> Then he began to curse and to swear, "I don't know the man!" Immediately the rooster crowed.

<sup>26</sup><sup>75</sup> Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." Then he went out and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

<sup>27</sup><sup>3</sup> Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,<sup>27</sup><sup>4</sup> saying, "I have sinned, for I have betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it."

<sup>27</sup><sup>11</sup> Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said to him, "So you say."

<sup>27</sup><sup>14</sup> He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

<sup>27</sup><sup>17</sup> When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"

<sup>466</sup> Roman governor and supreme judge presiding over Jesus' trial and execution. He found no fault in Jesus and tried repeatedly to convince the Jews to release him.

<sup>467</sup> Judas did not hang himself because he did not realize what a good thing that he had done in betraying the Son of God. He hanged himself because he realized what a sin he had committed.

<sup>469</sup> Barabbas was a criminal imprisoned for insurrection and murder. He was released at Jesus' trial, instead of Jesus.

<sup>470</sup> Those who participated in the betrayal and execution of Jesus were being used as instruments of Satan; thus, the troublesome dream of Pilate's wife. Nevertheless, God the Father and Jesus knew that he must become a sacrifice and a ransom due to the failure of the leaders of Israel to accept the Messiah, the Son of God.

two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas!"

<sup>27</sup><sup>22</sup> Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!"

<sup>27</sup><sup>23</sup> But the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

<sup>27</sup><sup>24</sup> So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."

<sup>27</sup><sup>26</sup> Then he released Barabbas to them, but Jesus he flogged and delivered to be crucified.

<sup>27</sup><sup>27</sup> Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him.

<sup>27</sup><sup>30</sup> They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head.

<sup>27</sup><sup>40</sup> and saying, "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"

<sup>27</sup><sup>41</sup> Likewise the chief priests also mocking with the scribes, the Pharisees, and the elders, said,

<sup>27</sup><sup>42</sup> "He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him."

<sup>27</sup><sup>43</sup> He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

<sup>27</sup><sup>44</sup> The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

<sup>27</sup><sup>45</sup> Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

<sup>27</sup><sup>47</sup> Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, "This man is calling Elijah."

<sup>27</sup><sup>52</sup> The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;

<sup>27</sup><sup>53</sup> and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.

<sup>27</sup><sup>54</sup> Now the centurion and those who were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things that were done, were terrified, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God!"

<sup>27</sup><sup>57</sup> When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea named Joseph, <sup>475</sup> who himself was also Jesus' disciple, came.

<sup>27</sup><sup>63</sup> saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.'

<sup>27</sup><sup>64</sup> Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

<sup>471</sup> A bitter or poisonous plant extract mixed with vinegar, offered to Jesus to deaden his pain in the crucifixion, but he declined.

<sup>472</sup> God was more heartbroken to see His Son crucified than He had been to witness Adam and Eve fall in the Garden of Eden (see Ps 22:1) This passage also shows that Jesus is distinct from God, the Creator (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 1 Tim 2:9; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>473</sup> This lone citing of the "appearance" of buried people "unto many" shows that it was a spiritual appearance and not a physical one.

<sup>474</sup> Jesus cast out 7 demons from Mary. She was at his tomb when he was crucified (Mark 16:9; Luke 8:2; John 20:11).

<sup>475</sup> Joseph was a member of the Sanhedrin—the highest court of justice and the supreme council in ancient Jerusalem—and he donated the tomb in which Jesus' body was laid (see Matt 27:57–60; Mark 15:43; Luke 23:50–51).

<sup>27</sup>65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can."<sup>27</sup>66 So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>28</sup>1 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.<sup>28</sup>2 Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky and came and rolled away the stone from the door and sat on it.<sup>28</sup>3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.<sup>28</sup>4 For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men.

<sup>28</sup>5 The angel answered the women, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified.

<sup>28</sup>6 He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying.<sup>28</sup>7 Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

<sup>28</sup>8 They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.<sup>28</sup>9 As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

<sup>28</sup>10 Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go tell my brothers that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me."

<sup>28</sup>11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city and told the chief priests all the things that had happened.<sup>28</sup>12 When they were assembled with the elders and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers,<sup>28</sup>13 saying, "Say that his disciples came by night and stole him away while we slept.<sup>28</sup>14 If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry."<sup>28</sup>15 So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continues until today.

<sup>28</sup>16 But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had sent them.<sup>28</sup>17 When they saw him, they bowed down to him; but some doubted.<sup>476</sup>

<sup>28</sup>18 Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.<sup>28</sup>19 Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>28</sup>20 teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

---

<sup>476</sup> These appearances of Jesus were real, but spiritual. Here we see that even some of Jesus' eleven disciples were not sure of his actual appearance (see Mark 16:12; cf. Acts 9:7).

MARK

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT MARK

Brief background summary

Dating:

Most scholars believe the gospel of Mark was written around 36–40 years after Jesus' crucifixion (circa 66–70 AD).

Authorship:

Most scholars believe the gospel of Mark was either written by "Mark the evangelist, a companion and interpreter of Peter", alleged by a 2nd century bishop Papias, who traveled with Barnabas and Saul and who was also called John (Acts 12:12, 25; 15:39), or that the gospel was written by an unknown author familiar with enough information to be able to write as though with an intimate relationship with Jesus' life and events.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 The beginning of the Good News of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

12 As it is written in the prophets, <sup>477</sup> “Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you:

13 the voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Make ready the way of the Lord! Make his paths straight!’

14 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching the baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. <sup>15</sup> All the country of Judea and all those of Jerusalem went out to him. They were baptized by him in the Jordan river, confessing their sins. <sup>16</sup> John was clothed with camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>17</sup> He preached, saying, “After me comes he who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.

18 I baptized you in water, but he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.”

19 In those days, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

10 Immediately coming up from the water, he saw the heavens parting and the Spirit descending on him like a dove.

11 A voice came out of the sky, “You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”<sup>478</sup>

12 Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup> He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals; and the angels were serving him.

14 Now after John was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Good News of God’s Kingdom, <sup>15</sup> and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and God’s Kingdom is at hand!”<sup>479</sup>

Repent, and believe in the Good News.”

16 Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup> Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men.”

18 Immediately they left their nets, and followed him.

19 Going on a little further from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. <sup>20</sup> Immediately he called them, and they left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.<sup>480</sup>

21 They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. <sup>22</sup> They were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. <sup>23</sup> Immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, <sup>24</sup> saying, “Ha! What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!”<sup>481</sup>

25 Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, and come out of him!”

26 The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. <sup>27</sup> They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!”<sup>28</sup> The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area.

29 Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. <sup>30</sup> Now Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. <sup>31</sup> He came and took her by the hand and raised her up. The fever left her immediately, and she served them.

32 At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by demons. <sup>33</sup> All the city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup> He healed many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons. He didn’t allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35 Early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. <sup>36</sup> Simon and those who were with him searched for him. <sup>37</sup> They found him and told him, “Everyone is looking for you.”

38 He said to them, “Let’s go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason.”

39 He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.

40 A leper came to him, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, “If you want to, you can make me clean.”

41 Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, “I want to. Be made clean.”<sup>42</sup> When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him and he was made clean. <sup>43</sup> He strictly warned him and immediately sent him out, <sup>44</sup> and said to him, “See that you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

45 But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no

<sup>478</sup> The spirit of God declared Jesus to be His son. This was a clear message from God to John that Jesus was the long-awaited Messiah. This was also John’s calling to attend the Lord and “make straight his ways” (Matt 3:3) with his whole mind, heart and soul, which he did not do.

<sup>479</sup> From the beginning of Jesus’ ministry until just before the transfiguration, Jesus preaches the imminent Kingdom of God. This is the literal Kingdom of God on earth, as in Jesus prayer “Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.” (see Matt 4:17; 6:10; 21:35–37; 23:37; Luke 19:41–44; John 6:28–29; 8:37–42, and Topical Index #24, 25).

<sup>480</sup> Jesus is seeking disciples among the local fishermen because John and his many very prepared disciples did not follow and attend Jesus, except for two (John 1:35–42).

<sup>481</sup> Unclean spirits know who Jesus is and testify to him (Mark 5:7).

more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places. People came to him from everywhere.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> When he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that he was at home.

<sup>22</sup> Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them.<sup>23</sup> Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him.<sup>24</sup> When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on.

<sup>26</sup> But there were some of the scribes sitting there and reasoning in their hearts,<sup>27</sup> "Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"<sup>482</sup>

<sup>28</sup> Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts?

<sup>29</sup> Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?'<sup>210</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"<sup>483</sup>—he said to the paralytic—<sup>211</sup> "I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house."

<sup>212</sup> He arose, and immediately took up the mat and went out in front of them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

<sup>213</sup> He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them.<sup>214</sup> As he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. He said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

<sup>215</sup> He was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him.<sup>216</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>217</sup> When Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>218</sup> John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"

<sup>219</sup> Jesus said to them, "Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can't fast.

<sup>220</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom<sup>484</sup> will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.<sup>221</sup> No one sews a piece of unshrunken cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made.<sup>222</sup> No one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins."

<sup>223</sup> He was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.<sup>224</sup> The Pharisees said to him, "Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>225</sup> He said to them, "Did you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry—he, and those who were with him?<sup>226</sup> How he entered into God's house at the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?"<sup>485</sup>

<sup>227</sup> He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath."<sup>228</sup> Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath."

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered.<sup>32</sup> They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.<sup>33</sup> He said to the man who had his hand withered, "Stand up."<sup>34</sup> He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good or to do harm? To save a life or to kill?" But they were silent.<sup>35</sup> When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other.<sup>36</sup> The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.<sup>486</sup>

<sup>482</sup> This passage, taken together with verse 10, has been wrongly interpreted to imply that Jesus is the Father. This is not the meaning.

<sup>483</sup> Jesus makes clear that he has the authority and power of God to forgive sins as he lives among us. Thus, his rejection and crucifixion were not required for him to forgive sin.

<sup>484</sup> Again, Jesus refers to himself often as a bridegroom. A bridegroom needs his bride. Jesus is also called "Adam" by St. Paul (see 1 Cor 15:45; Rev 19:7–9).

<sup>485</sup> see 1 Sam 21:1–6; 2 Sam 8:17; Exod 29:32–33; Lev 24:9

<sup>486</sup> This is the spirit of darkness and Satan working against Jesus. It has nothing to do with God's will.

cried, "You are the Son of God!"<sup>312</sup> He sternly warned them that they should not make him known.

<sup>313</sup> He went up into the mountain and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him.

<sup>314</sup> He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach

Then he came into a house.<sup>320</sup> The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.<sup>321</sup> When his friends heard it, they went out to seize him; for they said, "He is insane."<sup>322</sup> The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul," and, "By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons."

<sup>325</sup> If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.<sup>326</sup> If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can't stand, but has an end.<sup>327</sup> But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder unless he first binds the strong man; then he will plunder his house.

<sup>328</sup> "Most certainly I tell you, all sins of the descendants of man will be forgiven, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme;

<sup>329</sup> but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation."<sup>330</sup> —because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

<sup>331</sup> His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him.

<sup>332</sup> A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, "Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you."

<sup>333</sup> He answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"<sup>334</sup> Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!"<sup>335</sup> For whoever does the will of God is my brother, my sister, and mother."

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea.<sup>42</sup> He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching,
<sup>43</sup> "Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow,<sup>44</sup> and as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it.<sup>45</sup> Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil.<sup>46</sup> When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

<sup>47</sup> Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

<sup>48</sup> Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some produced thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much."<sup>49</sup> He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>50</sup> When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables.

<sup>51</sup> He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of God's Kingdom, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables,<sup>52</sup> that 'seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.'"

<sup>53</sup> He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables?

<sup>54</sup> The farmer sows the word.<sup>55</sup> The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them.

<sup>56</sup> These in the same way are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy.<sup>57</sup> They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble.<sup>58</sup> Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word,<sup>59</sup> and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

<sup>60</sup> Those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times."

<sup>61</sup> He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn't it put on a stand?

<sup>62</sup> For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light.

<sup>63</sup> If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>64</sup> He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear.

<sup>65</sup> For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him."

<sup>66</sup> He said, "God's Kingdom is as if a man should cast seed on the earth,<sup>67</sup> and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, though he doesn't know how.<sup>68</sup> For the earth bears fruit by itself: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.<sup>69</sup> But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

<sup>430</sup> He said, "How will we liken God's Kingdom? Or with what parable will we illustrate it?"<sup>431</sup> It's like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth,<sup>432</sup> yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow."

<sup>433</sup> With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.<sup>434</sup> Without a parable he didn't speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

<sup>435</sup> On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side."<sup>436</sup> Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him.

<sup>437</sup> A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled.

<sup>438</sup> He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?"

<sup>439</sup> He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm.<sup>440</sup> He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?"

<sup>441</sup> They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.<sup>52</sup> When he had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs.<sup>53</sup> He lived in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains,<sup>54</sup> because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him.<sup>55</sup> Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones.<sup>56</sup> When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him,<sup>57</sup> and crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me."<sup>58</sup> For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

<sup>59</sup> He asked him, "What is your name?"

He said to him, "My name is Legion,"<sup>488</sup> for we are many."

<sup>510</sup> He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

<sup>511</sup> Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding.<sup>512</sup> All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them."<sup>513</sup> At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea.<sup>514</sup> Those who fed the pigs fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

The people came to see what it was that had happened.<sup>515</sup> They came to Jesus, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid.<sup>516</sup> Those who saw it declared to them what happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs.<sup>517</sup> They began to beg him to depart from their region.

<sup>518</sup> As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him.<sup>519</sup> He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you."

<sup>520</sup> He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

<sup>521</sup> When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea.<sup>522</sup> Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet,<sup>523</sup> and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live."

<sup>524</sup> He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides.<sup>525</sup> A certain woman, who had a discharge of blood for twelve years,<sup>526</sup> and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse,<sup>527</sup> having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes.<sup>528</sup> For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well."

<sup>529</sup> Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

<sup>530</sup> Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>531</sup> His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>532</sup> He looked around to see her who had done this thing.<sup>533</sup> But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

<sup>534</sup> He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."<sup>489</sup>

<sup>535</sup> While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"

of James.<sup>538</sup> He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. <sup>539</sup> When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."

<sup>540</sup> They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying.<sup>541</sup> Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi!" which means, being interpreted, "Girl, I tell you, get up!"<sup>542</sup> Immediately the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement.<sup>543</sup> He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him.<sup>62</sup> When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands?<sup>63</sup> Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judah, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" So they were offended at him.

<sup>64</sup> Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house."<sup>65</sup> He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them.<sup>66</sup> He marveled because of their unbelief. He went around the villages teaching.<sup>67</sup> He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits.<sup>68</sup> He commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse,<sup>69</sup> but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics.<sup>610</sup> He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there.

<sup>611</sup> Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

<sup>612</sup> They went out and preached that people should repent.<sup>613</sup> They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them. <sup>614</sup> King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."<sup>615</sup> But others said, "He is Elijah." Others said, "He is a prophet, or like one of the prophets."<sup>616</sup> But Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead."<sup>617</sup> For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother

Philip's wife, for he had married her.<sup>618</sup> For John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."<sup>619</sup> Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn't,<sup>620</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.

<sup>621</sup> Then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee.<sup>622</sup> When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."<sup>623</sup> He swore to her, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."

<sup>624</sup> She went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" She said, "The head of John the Baptist."

<sup>629</sup> When his disciples heard this, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

<sup>630</sup> The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught.<sup>631</sup> He said to them, "You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.<sup>632</sup> They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.

<sup>633</sup> They saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him.<sup>634</sup> Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.<sup>635</sup> When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, "This place is deserted, and it is late in the day.<sup>636</sup> Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat."

<sup>637</sup> But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." They asked him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them something to eat?"

<sup>638</sup> He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go see." When they knew, they said, "Five, and two fish."

five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all.<sup>642</sup> They all ate, and were filled. <sup>643</sup> They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish.<sup>644</sup> Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

<sup>645</sup> Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat, and go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida,<sup>491</sup> while he himself sent the multitude away. <sup>646</sup> After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.

<sup>647</sup> When evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land. <sup>648</sup> Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and he would have passed by them,<sup>649</sup> but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;<sup>650</sup> for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."<sup>651</sup> He got into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled;<sup>652</sup> for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

<sup>653</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.<sup>654</sup> When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him,<sup>655</sup> and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick on their mats to where they heard he was.<sup>656</sup> Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might just touch the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>77</sup> But they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men."

<sup>78</sup> "For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things."<sup>79</sup> He said to them, "Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition."<sup>80</sup> For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother;' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.'<sup>711</sup> But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban," that is to say, given to God,<sup>712</sup> "then you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother,<sup>713</sup> making void the word of God by your tradition which you have handed down. You do many things like this."

<sup>714</sup> He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand.

<sup>717</sup> When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable.

<sup>718</sup> He said to them, "Are you also without understanding? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can't defile him,<sup>493</sup>

<sup>724</sup> From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and didn't want anyone to know it, but he couldn't escape notice.<sup>725</sup> For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet.<sup>726</sup> Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter.<sup>727</sup> But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

<sup>493</sup> Here Jesus speaks of eating with unwashed hands, but he addresses the larger issue that something taken into the mouth cannot defile a man. This reveals that the "fruit" of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, in the garden of Eden, was not a literal fruit but rather a symbol for something other than food (Gen 3:1–13).

<sup>729</sup> He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

<sup>730</sup> She went away to her house, and found the child having been laid on the bed, with the demon gone out.

<sup>731</sup> Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the middle of the region of Decapolis.<sup>732</sup> They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him.

<sup>733</sup> He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue.<sup>734</sup> Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!"<sup>735</sup> Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly.<sup>736</sup> He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it.<sup>737</sup> They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!"

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself, and said to them,<sup>82</sup> "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat.<sup>83</sup> If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way."

<sup>85</sup> He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven."

<sup>86</sup> He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude.<sup>87</sup> They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also.<sup>88</sup> They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>89</sup> Those who had eaten were about four thousand.

Then he sent them away.

<sup>90</sup> Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha.

<sup>91</sup> The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, and testing him.<sup>92</sup> He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most certainly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation."

heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

<sup>96</sup> They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread."

<sup>97</sup> Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do you reason that it's because you have no bread? Don't you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened?<sup>98</sup> Having eyes, don't you see? Having ears, don't you hear? Don't you remember?

<sup>99</sup> When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told him, "Twelve."

<sup>101</sup> He asked them, "Don't you understand yet?"

<sup>102</sup> He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him.<sup>103</sup> He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spat on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

<sup>104</sup> He looked up, and said, "I see men; for I see them like trees walking."

<sup>105</sup> Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly.<sup>106</sup> He sent him away to his house, saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."

<sup>107</sup> Jesus went out, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"

<sup>109</sup> He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ."

<sup>110</sup> He commanded them that they should tell no one about him.<sup>111</sup> He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.<sup>494</sup>

<sup>112</sup> He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.<sup>113</sup> But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men."

<sup>114</sup> He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.<sup>115</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it.

<sup>116</sup> For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?<sup>117</sup> For what will a man give in exchange for his life?<sup>118</sup> For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his Father's glory, with the holy angels.”<sup>495</sup>

<sup>494</sup> From this time, Jesus began to speak of his crucifixion and death. Before this time, Jesus only spoke of the imminent coming of the Kingdom.

CHAPTER 9

91 He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see God's Kingdom come with power.”<sup>496</sup>

92 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them.<sup>93</sup> His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.<sup>94</sup> Elijah<sup>497</sup> and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

95 Peter answered Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”<sup>96</sup> For he didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.

97 A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”

98 Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only.

99 As they were coming down from the mountain, he commanded them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.<sup>100</sup> They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the “rising from the dead” meant.

101 They asked him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

102 He said to them, “Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised?<sup>103</sup> But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him.”

104 Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them.

105 Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, greeted him.<sup>106</sup> He asked the scribes, “What are you asking them?”

107 One of the multitude answered, “Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit;<sup>108</sup> and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able.”

109 He answered him, “Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me.”

920 They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

921 He asked his father, “How long has it been since this has come to him?” He said, “From childhood.”<sup>498</sup>

922 Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.”

923 Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.”

924 Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, “I believe. Help my unbelief!”

925 When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!”

926 After crying out and convulsing him greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead, so much that most of them said, “He is dead.”<sup>927</sup> But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.

928 When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why couldn't we cast it out?”

929 He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting.”

930 They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know it.<sup>931</sup> For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, “The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again.”

932 But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

933 He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?”

934 But they were silent, for they had disputed with one another on the way about who was the greatest.

935 He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, “If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all.”<sup>936</sup> He took a little child, and set him in the middle of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them,<sup>937</sup> “Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me.”

938 John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us.”

939 But Jesus said, “Don't forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me.”<sup>940</sup> For whoever is not against us is on our side.<sup>941</sup> For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ's, most certainly I tell you, he will in no way lose

<sup>496</sup> Here Jesus may have been referring to spiritual death, or he may have been referring to the literal kingdom of God on earth which he came to establish in his lifetime, in which case he would have been referring to physical death.

<sup>497</sup> This is the spirit of the real Elijah, who went up into heaven 900 years before. John came “in the spirit and power of Elijah” representing the return of Elijah in Jesus' ministry (Luke 1:16–17).

<sup>498</sup> This question Jesus posed shows that Jesus is distinct from God, the creator. God, Himself, would not need to ask such a question (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; 1 Tim 2:9, and Topical Index #27).

his reward.<sup>942</sup> Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck.<sup>943</sup> If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire,<sup>944</sup> 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.'<sup>945</sup> If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that will never be quenched—<sup>946</sup> 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.'<sup>947</sup> If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into God's Kingdom with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire,<sup>948</sup> 'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.'<sup>949</sup> For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.

950 Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

CHAPTER 10

101 He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he was again teaching them.<sup>102</sup> Pharisees came to him testing him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

103 He answered, "What did Moses command you?"

104 They said, "Moses allowed a certificate of divorce to be written, and to divorce her."

105 But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this commandment.<sup>106</sup> But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.<sup>107</sup> For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife,<sup>108</sup> and the two will become one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh.<sup>109</sup> What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

1010 In the house, his disciples asked him again about the same matter.<sup>1011</sup> He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery against her.<sup>1012</sup> If a woman herself divorces her husband, and marries another, she commits adultery."

1013 They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them.<sup>1014</sup> But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for God's Kingdom belongs to such as these.

1015 Most certainly I tell you, whoever will not receive God's Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."<sup>1016</sup> He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

1017 As he was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

1018 Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God.<sup>499</sup>

1019 You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and mother.'"

1020 He said to him, "Teacher, I have observed all these things from my youth."

1021 Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

1022 But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions.

1023 Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into God's Kingdom!"

1024 The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter into God's Kingdom!<sup>1025</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into God's Kingdom."

1026 They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"

1027 Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

1028 Peter began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."

1029 Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News,<sup>1030</sup> but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time: houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life.

1031 But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

1032 They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him.

1033 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles.

<sup>499</sup> This passage has been mistakenly interpreted to imply that Jesus is the Father. Jesus is not saying that.

<sup>1034</sup> They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again.<sup>500</sup>

<sup>1035</sup> James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

<sup>1036</sup> He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>1038</sup> But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

<sup>1039</sup> They said to him, "We are able." Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;<sup>1040</sup> but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

<sup>1041</sup> When the ten heard it, they began to be indignant toward James and John.

<sup>1042</sup> Jesus summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.<sup>1043</sup> But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant.

<sup>1044</sup> Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondservant of all.<sup>1045</sup> For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

<sup>1046</sup> They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road.<sup>1047</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!"<sup>1048</sup> Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>1049</sup> Jesus stood still, and said, "Call him." They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you!"

<sup>1050</sup> He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

<sup>1051</sup> Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "Rabboni, that I may see again."

<sup>1052</sup> Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>111</sup> When they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,<sup>112</sup> and said to them,

"Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him.<sup>113</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs him,' and immediately he will send him back here."

<sup>114</sup> They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him.<sup>115</sup> Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?"<sup>116</sup> They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go.

<sup>117</sup> They brought the young donkey to Jesus, and threw their garments on it, and Jesus sat on it.

<sup>1111</sup> Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

<sup>1112</sup> The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry.<sup>1113</sup> Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.<sup>1114</sup> Jesus told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and his disciples heard it.

<sup>1115</sup> They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers' tables, and the seats of those who sold the doves.<sup>1116</sup> He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple.<sup>1117</sup> He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?' But you have made it a den of robbers!"

<sup>1123</sup> For most certainly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and doesn't doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says.<sup>1124</sup> Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask

<sup>500</sup> Jesus is saying these things after meeting with Moses and Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration. At that time he determined to give his life on the cross as a ransom for sinful humanity because he was not accepted as the Messiah (Matt 17:1–3; Mark 9:2–4; Luke 9:28–31)

for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them.

1125 Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions.<sup>1126</sup> But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.<sup>501</sup>

1127 They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to him,<sup>1128</sup> and they began saying to him, "By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"

1129 Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.<sup>1130</sup> The baptism of John—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

1131 They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?'<sup>1132</sup> If we should say, 'From men'"—they feared the people, for all held John to really be a prophet.<sup>1133</sup> They answered Jesus, "We don't know." Jesus said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

CHAPTER 12

121 He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the wine press, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country.<sup>122</sup> When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard.<sup>123</sup> They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty.

124 Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.

125 Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some.

126 Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, "They will respect my son."<sup>502</sup>

127 But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'<sup>128</sup> They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

129 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.

1210 Haven't you even read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected was made the head of the corner.<sup>1211</sup> This was from the Lord. It is marvelous in our eyes'?"

1212 They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away.

1213 They sent some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words.<sup>1214</sup> When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?<sup>1215</sup> Shall we give, or shall we not give?" But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

1216 They brought it. He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?" They said to him, "Caesar's."

1217 Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." They marveled greatly at him.

1218 Some Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, came to him. They asked him, saying,

1219 "Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.'<sup>1220</sup> There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring.<sup>1221</sup> The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise;<sup>1222</sup> and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died.<sup>1223</sup> In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife."

1224 Jesus answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God?<sup>1225</sup> For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.<sup>1226</sup> But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses, about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?"<sup>1227</sup> He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken."

1228 One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the greatest of all?"

1229 Jesus answered, "The greatest is, 'Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one':

1230 you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment.<sup>503</sup>

1231 The second is like this, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."<sup>504</sup>

There is no other commandment greater than these."

<sup>502</sup> Here Jesus tells us that God expected the chosen people to hold Jesus in reverence, but instead he was rejected and killed by the faithless leaders (see Topical Index #23).

<sup>504</sup> Jesus second great commandment, (cf. Matt 22:39), addresses the horizontal sin of Cain in failing to love Abel but rather succumbing to anger and jealousy (Gen 4:8).

<sup>12</sup><sup>32</sup> The scribe said to him, "Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he,<sup>12</sup><sup>33</sup> and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

<sup>12</sup><sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from God's Kingdom."

No one dared ask him any question after that.

<sup>12</sup><sup>35</sup> Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?<sup>12</sup><sup>36</sup> For David himself said in the Holy Spirit, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."

<sup>12</sup><sup>44</sup> for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on."

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup><sup>5</sup> Jesus, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.<sup>13</sup><sup>6</sup> For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and will lead many astray.

<sup>13</sup><sup>7</sup> "When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet.<sup>13</sup><sup>8</sup> For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains.<sup>13</sup><sup>9</sup> But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them.<sup>13</sup><sup>10</sup> The Good News must first be preached to all the nations.

<sup>13</sup><sup>11</sup> When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>13</sup><sup>12</sup> "Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.

<sup>13</sup><sup>13</sup> You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>13</sup><sup>22</sup> For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

<sup>13</sup><sup>25</sup> the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.<sup>506</sup>

<sup>13</sup><sup>27</sup> Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>14</sup><sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me."

<sup>14</sup><sup>7</sup> For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me.<sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying.

<sup>14</sup><sup>9</sup> Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."

<sup>14</sup><sup>10</sup> Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them.<sup>14</sup><sup>11</sup> They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him.

<sup>14</sup><sup>12</sup> On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare that you may eat the Passover?"

<sup>509</sup> Judas' betrayal of Jesus was not an unfortunate but necessary part of God's plan for Jesus' life and ministry. He should be applauded if it were so. Here Jesus tells that Judas will be the most cursed of men because of the betrayal (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>14</sup><sup>16</sup> His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>14</sup><sup>18</sup> As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, one of you will betray me—he who eats with me."

<sup>14</sup><sup>19</sup> They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"

<sup>14</sup><sup>22</sup> As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

<sup>14</sup><sup>27</sup> Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'<sup>510</sup>

<sup>14</sup><sup>29</sup> But Peter said to him, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."

<sup>14</sup><sup>30</sup> Jesus said to him, "Most certainly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

<sup>14</sup><sup>31</sup> But he spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the same thing.

"My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."<sup>511</sup>

<sup>14</sup><sup>35</sup> He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him.<sup>14</sup><sup>36</sup> He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire."

<sup>511</sup> If the crucifixion were God's original plan for Jesus' life and ministry, he would have no reason to be "sorrowful" (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>512</sup> Many heroes gladly died for a good cause. Jesus is not less than these. It is a mistake to believe that Jesus was afraid to die. The son

<sup>1437</sup> He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour?"<sup>1438</sup> Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

<sup>1439</sup> Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words.<sup>1440</sup> Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer him.

<sup>1441</sup> He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners."<sup>513</sup>

<sup>1443</sup> Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.<sup>1444</sup> Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely."

<sup>1445</sup> When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed him.<sup>1446</sup> They laid their hands on him, and seized him.<sup>1447</sup> But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

<sup>1448</sup> Jesus answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me?

<sup>1449</sup> I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."<sup>514</sup> of God came originally to establish God's Kingdom of Heaven on earth, within which would be contained all salvation. Jesus knew that it was not going to be established until his future return, due to rejection, and that his sacrifice on the cross would give man spiritual salvation of forgiveness only, but not physical salvation (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>1454</sup> Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.<sup>1455</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none.<sup>1456</sup> For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other.<sup>1457</sup> Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying,<sup>1458</sup> "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" Even so, their testimony didn't agree.

<sup>1460</sup> The high priest stood up in the middle, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?"<sup>1461</sup> But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"

<sup>1462</sup> Jesus said, "I am. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."

<sup>1463</sup> The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses?<sup>1464</sup> You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death.<sup>1465</sup> Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophesy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

<sup>1466</sup> As Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the maids of the high priest came,<sup>1467</sup> and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!"

<sup>1468</sup> But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out on the porch, and the rooster crowed.

<sup>1469</sup> The maid saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them."<sup>1470</sup> But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."<sup>1471</sup> But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!"<sup>1472</sup> The rooster crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Jesus said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>151</sup> Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, bound Jesus, carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate.<sup>152</sup> Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered, "So you say."

<sup>155</sup> But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled.

<sup>158</sup> The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them.<sup>159</sup> Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"<sup>1510</sup> For he perceived that for envy

<sup>513</sup> God's will is never accomplished by "betrayal into the hands of sinners." God's will was that Jesus be accepted by the leaders and people of Israel.

<sup>514</sup> cf. Isaiah 53—This chapter of Isaiah describes what will happen if the chosen people reject God's son. Chapters 9 and 11 of Isaiah describe what would happen if the chosen people receive God's son and have faith in him. Many common Jews did have faith in him, but the leaders did not.

the chief priests had delivered him up.<sup>1511</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead.<sup>1512</sup> Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

<sup>1514</sup> Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!"

<sup>1515</sup> Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed over Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified.<sup>1516</sup> The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort.<sup>1517</sup> They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him.<sup>1518</sup> They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"<sup>1519</sup> They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him.<sup>1520</sup> When they had mocked him, they took the purple off him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him.

<sup>1522</sup> They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull."

<sup>1523</sup> They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it.

<sup>1529</sup> Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days,<sup>1530</sup> save yourself, and come down from the cross!"

<sup>1531</sup> Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself.<sup>1532</sup> Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." Those who were crucified with him also insulted him.

<sup>1533</sup> When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

<sup>1534</sup> At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"<sup>515</sup>

<sup>1535</sup> Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah."

<sup>1536</sup> One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down."

<sup>1540</sup> There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;<sup>1541</sup> who, when he was in Galilee, followed him and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

<sup>1542</sup> When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath,<sup>1543</sup> Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for God's Kingdom, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body.<sup>1544</sup> Pilate marveled if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead long.<sup>1545</sup> When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.<sup>1546</sup> He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.<sup>1547</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, saw where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>161</sup> When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.<sup>162</sup> Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.<sup>163</sup> They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"<sup>164</sup> for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.<sup>165</sup> Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed.<sup>166</sup> He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him!"<sup>167</sup> But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you.'"

<sup>168</sup> They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.<sup>169</sup> Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.<sup>1610</sup> She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.<sup>1611</sup> When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved.

<sup>1612</sup> After these things he was revealed in another form<sup>517</sup> to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.<sup>1613</sup> They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.

<sup>1614</sup> Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen.<sup>1615</sup> He said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the Good News to the whole creation.

<sup>1616</sup> He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned.

<sup>1617</sup> These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages;<sup>1618</sup> they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

<sup>1619</sup> So then the Lord, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.<sup>1620</sup> They went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

LUKE

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT LUKE

Brief background summary

Dating:

Most scholars believe the gospel of Luke was written around 50–70 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 80–100 AD).

Authorship:

The author of the gospel of Luke is unknown, but is believed to be the same author as for the book of Acts. Together, the gospel of Luke and the book of Acts comprise 27.5% of the entire New Testament scriptures. Thus, this one author has had a major impact on Christian theology and our understanding of Jesus. The author seems to have taken much of his material from the gospel of Mark.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup> Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,<sup>2</sup> even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us,<sup>3</sup> it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus;<sup>4</sup> that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

<sup>8</sup> Now while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division<sup>9</sup> according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.<sup>10</sup> The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

<sup>11</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.<sup>12</sup> Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him.

<sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard. Your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.<sup>14</sup> You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth.<sup>15</sup> For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb.<sup>16</sup> He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God.<sup>519</sup>

<sup>17</sup> He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah,<sup>520</sup>

'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.<sup>521</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

<sup>19</sup> The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel,<sup>522</sup> who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.<sup>120</sup> Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

<sup>121</sup> The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple.<sup>122</sup> When he came out, he could not speak to them. They perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute.<sup>123</sup> When the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house.<sup>124</sup> After these days Elizabeth his wife conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying,<sup>125</sup> "Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men."

<sup>129</sup> But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be.<sup>130</sup> The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.<sup>131</sup> Behold, you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and shall name him 'Jesus.'

<sup>132</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David,<sup>133</sup> and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom.<sup>523</sup>

<sup>134</sup> Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?"

<sup>135</sup> The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God.<sup>136</sup> Behold, Elizabeth your relative also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.<sup>137</sup> For nothing spoken by God is impossible."

<sup>138</sup> Mary said, "Behold, the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

<sup>519</sup> This indicates that John's mission is to bring many Jews to follow Jesus.

<sup>520</sup> Here the angel announces that John will go before the Lord "in the spirit and power of Elijah". This shows that John is to represent the long-anticipated return of Elijah which is to precede the coming of the Messiah (Mal 4:5-6).

<sup>521</sup> This indicates that John should prepare many disciples for Jesus. In fact, John did educate many young men as his own disciples, well trained in the scriptures, but record shows that only two of them followed Jesus out of their own curiosity (see John 1:37-42 and Topical Index #23).

<sup>524</sup> Here Mary's cousin reveals that she knows of Mary's mission as Jesus' mother-to-be.

144 For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!<sup>525</sup>

145 Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!"

146 Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord.

147 My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior,

148 for he has looked at the humble state of his servant. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.

149 For he who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is his name.

150 His mercy is for generations and generations on those who fear him.

151 He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. 152 He has put down princes from their thrones, and has exalted the lowly.

153 He has filled the hungry with good things. He has sent the rich away empty.

154 He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy,

155 as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and his offspring forever."

156 Mary stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house.

157 Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and she gave birth to a son.<sup>158</sup> Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her.<sup>159</sup> On the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.<sup>160</sup> His mother answered, "Not so; but he will be called John."

161 They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."<sup>162</sup> They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

163 He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John."

They all marveled.<sup>164</sup> His mouth was opened immediately and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God.<sup>165</sup> Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea.<sup>166</sup> All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of the Lord was with him.

167 His father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

168 "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people;

169 and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

170 (as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets who have been from of old),

171 salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us;

172 to show mercy toward our fathers, to remember his holy covenant,

173 the oath which he swore to Abraham our father,

174 to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear,
175 in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

176 And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

177 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins,<sup>526</sup>

178 because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the dawn from on high will visit us,

179 to shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the way of peace."

180 The child was growing and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

CHAPTER 2

21 Now in those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus<sup>527</sup> that all the world should be enrolled.

22 This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

23 All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. 24 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to David's city, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David,<sup>528</sup>

25 to enroll himself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him as wife, being pregnant.

26 While they were there, the day had come for her to give birth.<sup>27</sup> She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger,<sup>529</sup> because there was no room for them in the inn.<sup>28</sup> There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.<sup>29</sup> Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.<sup>210</sup> The angel said to them,

"Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people."<sup>211</sup> For there is born to you today, in David's city, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.<sup>212</sup> This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding

<sup>525</sup> Since Mary and Elizabeth are related—and here we see that John and Jesus will be in a relationship reminiscent of Cain and Abel in the Genesis account, with John in the elder position and Jesus in the younger position—a similar course of events unfolds. It eventually becomes difficult for John to submit to Jesus and follow him as a living disciple of Jesus. They needed to completely unite, unlike the failed Cain and Abel in Adam's family.

<sup>529</sup> A manger is a place of feeding for animals. It is particularly unsanitary and unfit as a birthplace.

trough.”<sup>213</sup> Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying,

<sup>214</sup> “Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will toward men.”

<sup>215</sup> When the angels went away from them into the sky, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.”

<sup>216</sup> They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough.

<sup>217</sup> When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child.

<sup>220</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

<sup>221</sup> When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called Jesus, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>222</sup> When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord<sup>223</sup> (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord”),<sup>530</sup>

<sup>224</sup> and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, “A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.”

<sup>225</sup> Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him.<sup>226</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Christ.<sup>227</sup> He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law,<sup>228</sup> then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

<sup>229</sup> “Now you are releasing your servant, Master, according to your word, in peace;

<sup>230</sup> for my eyes have seen your salvation,

<sup>232</sup> a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel.”

<sup>235</sup> Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.”

<sup>236</sup> There was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity,<sup>237</sup> and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn’t depart from the temple, worshiping with fastings and petitions night and day.<sup>238</sup> Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

<sup>239</sup> When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.<sup>240</sup> The child was growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.<sup>531</sup>

<sup>242</sup> When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, <sup>243</sup> and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn’t know it,<sup>244</sup> but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day’s journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances.<sup>245</sup> When they didn’t find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him.<sup>246</sup> After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the middle of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions.<sup>247</sup> All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

<sup>248</sup> When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, “Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you.”

<sup>249</sup> He said to them, “Why were you looking for me? Didn’t you know that I must be in my Father’s house?”

<sup>250</sup> They didn’t understand the saying which he spoke to them.<sup>251</sup> And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.<sup>252</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,<sup>32</sup> in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.<sup>33</sup> He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins.<sup>34</sup> As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Make

ready the way of the Lord. Make his paths straight.<sup>532</sup>

35 Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be brought low. The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth.

36 All flesh will see God's salvation.<sup>533</sup>

37 He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers,<sup>534</sup> who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 38 Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance, and don't begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones!

39 Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.<sup>535</sup>

310 The multitudes asked him, "What then must we do?"

311 He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

312 Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

313 He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."

314 Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?"

He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

315 As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ.<sup>536</sup>

316 John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire,<sup>537</sup>

317 whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

318 Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people,<sup>519</sup> but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done,<sup>520</sup> added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.<sup>521</sup> Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was

323 Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli,<sup>524</sup> the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,<sup>525</sup> the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,<sup>526</sup> the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah,<sup>527</sup> the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,<sup>528</sup> the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er,<sup>529</sup> the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,<sup>530</sup> the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim,<sup>531</sup> the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,<sup>532</sup> the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon,<sup>533</sup> the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,<sup>534</sup> the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,<sup>535</sup> the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah,<sup>536</sup> the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,<sup>537</sup> the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan,<sup>538</sup> the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.<sup>539</sup>

CHAPTER 4

41 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness<sup>42</sup> for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry.<sup>540</sup>

43 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

44 Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'<sup>541</sup>

<sup>533</sup> This reveals John's mission to prepare the way for Jesus, which God expected him to fulfill. However, he baptized Jesus (Matt 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; Luke 3:21–22; John 1:29–34) but did not follow him (John 3:23–30; 4:1–3). Later, he even doubted that Jesus was the Messiah (Matt 11:2–6).

<sup>534</sup> A viper is a snake, reminiscent of the "serpent" in the Garden of Eden, which is also a symbol for the angel Lucifer (see Gen 3:1; Rev 12:9).

<sup>535</sup> The term "fire" refers to God's Word (see Jer 23:29; John 12:48; 2 Pet 3:7; 2 Thess 2:8).

<sup>536</sup> Here we see that John had very high credibility in the eyes of the Jewish people. They wondered if he might be the long-awaited Messiah.

<sup>538</sup> This refers to the baptism of Jesus by John, an event which took place before John was imprisoned and beheaded by Herod.

<sup>539</sup> This lineage is of Joseph, but Joseph is not the biological father of Jesus.

<sup>540</sup> Jesus went into the wilderness and fasted for 40 days after John baptized him and then went his own way. He did not follow Jesus as a disciple.

<sup>45</sup> The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>46</sup> The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want.

<sup>47</sup> If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."

<sup>48</sup> Jesus answered him, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.'

<sup>49</sup> He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here," <sup>50</sup> for it is written, 'He will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you.'

<sup>51</sup> and, 'On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.'

<sup>52</sup> Jesus answering, said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'

<sup>53</sup> When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time.

<sup>54</sup> Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. <sup>55</sup> He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>56</sup> He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>57</sup> The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

<sup>58</sup> "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to heal the broken hearted, to proclaim release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed" <sup>59</sup> and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." <sup>60</sup>

<sup>61</sup> He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. <sup>62</sup> He began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

<sup>63</sup> All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

<sup>64</sup> He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.'"

<sup>65</sup> He said, "Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown." <sup>66</sup> But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land.

<sup>67</sup> Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

<sup>68</sup> There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."

<sup>69</sup> They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. <sup>70</sup> They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. <sup>71</sup> But he, passing through the middle of them, went his way.

<sup>76</sup> Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

<sup>77</sup> Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" <sup>78</sup> News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

<sup>79</sup> He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her. <sup>80</sup> He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. <sup>81</sup> When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. <sup>82</sup> Demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" Rebuking them, he didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

<sup>83</sup> When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them. <sup>84</sup> But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of God's Kingdom to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent."

<sup>85</sup> He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee. <sup>86</sup>

CHAPTER 5

<sup>543</sup> Clearly, Jesus wanted his gospel to be received by the Jewish leadership and religious people, as shown in Luke 4:44 that he taught in the synagogues.

speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch.”

<sup>55</sup> Simon answered him, “Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net.”<sup>56</sup> When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking.<sup>57</sup> They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.<sup>58</sup> But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord.”<sup>59</sup> For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught;<sup>60</sup> and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive.”

<sup>511</sup> When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him.<sup>512</sup> While he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, “Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean.”

<sup>513</sup> He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, “I want to. Be made clean.” Immediately the leprosy left him.<sup>514</sup> He commanded him to tell no one, “But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”<sup>515</sup> But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.<sup>516</sup> But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

<sup>517</sup> On one of those days, he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them.<sup>518</sup> Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before Jesus.<sup>519</sup> Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the middle before Jesus.<sup>520</sup> Seeing their faith, he said to him, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.”<sup>544</sup>

<sup>522</sup> But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, “Why are you reasoning so in your hearts?

<sup>523</sup> Which is easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, ‘Arise and walk?’<sup>524</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”<sup>546</sup>

(he said to the paralyzed man), “I tell you, arise, take up your cot, and go to your house.”

<sup>525</sup> Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God.<sup>526</sup> Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, “We have seen strange things today.”

<sup>527</sup> After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, “Follow me!”

<sup>532</sup> I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

<sup>533</sup> They said to him, “Why do John’s disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?”

<sup>534</sup> He said to them, “Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them?<sup>535</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days.”<sup>536</sup> He also told a parable to them. “No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old.<sup>537</sup> No one puts new wine into old wine skins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Now on the second Sabbath after the first, he was going through the grain fields. His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate, rubbing them in their hands.<sup>62</sup> But some of the Pharisees said to them, “Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?”

<sup>63</sup> Jesus, answering them, said, “Haven’t you read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him,<sup>64</sup> how he entered into God’s house, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?”<sup>547</sup>

<sup>65</sup> He said to them,

“The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.”

<sup>66</sup> It also happened on another Sabbath that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered.<sup>67</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him.<sup>68</sup> But he knew

<sup>545</sup> This passage has been mistakenly interpreted to imply that Jesus is the Father. He did not mean it that way.

their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Rise up, and stand in the middle.” He arose and stood.<sup>69</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?”<sup>70</sup> He looked around at them all, and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other.<sup>71</sup> But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>72</sup> In these days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God.<sup>73</sup> When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles:<sup>74</sup> Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; James; John; Philip; Bartholomew;<sup>75</sup> Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Simon, who was called the Zealot;<sup>76</sup> Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor.<sup>548</sup>

<sup>77</sup> He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases;<sup>78</sup> as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed.<sup>79</sup> All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came out of him and healed them all.

<sup>80</sup> He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said, “Blessed are you who are poor, God’s Kingdom is yours.

<sup>81</sup> Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

<sup>82</sup> Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man’s sake.

<sup>83</sup> Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.

<sup>84</sup> “But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation.

<sup>85</sup> Woe to you, you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>86</sup> Woe, when men speak well of you, for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.

<sup>87</sup> “But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,<sup>78</sup> bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you.

<sup>88</sup> To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don’t withhold your coat also.<sup>79</sup> Give to everyone who asks you, and don’t ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.

<sup>90</sup> “As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them.<sup>72</sup> If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.<sup>73</sup> If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.<sup>74</sup> If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much.

<sup>95</sup> But love your enemies,<sup>549</sup> and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.

<sup>96</sup> “Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is also merciful.

<sup>97</sup> Don’t judge, and you won’t be judged. Don’t condemn, and you won’t be condemned. Set free, and you will be set free.<sup>75</sup> “Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you.”<sup>550</sup>

<sup>98</sup> He spoke a parable to them. “Can the blind guide the blind? Won’t they both fall into a pit?

When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock.

<sup>103</sup> But he who hears, and doesn’t do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation,

<sup>548</sup> A “traitor” is not someone who is doing God’s will, but rather going against it, blocking it or frustrating it (see Mat 6:24; Mark 14:21; and Topical Index #25).

<sup>549</sup> Setting the stage for the coming of Jesus, Jacob and Esau, and also Joseph and his 11 brothers demonstrated the ability to love their enemies (see Gen 33; cf. Gen 45).

<sup>550</sup> God does not, and will not, predestine man’s decisions nor actions.

against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

CHAPTER 7

71 After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.<sup>72</sup> A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death.<sup>73</sup> When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant.<sup>74</sup> When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him,<sup>75</sup> for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us."<sup>76</sup> Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof.<sup>77</sup> Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed.<sup>78</sup> For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."<sup>79</sup> When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel."<sup>80</sup> Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.

711 Soon afterwards, he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him.<sup>712</sup> Now when he came near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her.<sup>713</sup> When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don't cry."<sup>714</sup> He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!"<sup>715</sup> He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother.

716 Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited his people!"<sup>717</sup> This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.

718 The disciples of John told him about all these things.<sup>719</sup> John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?"<sup>551</sup>

720 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?""

721 In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight.<sup>722</sup> Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them."

723 Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me."

724 When John's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?<sup>725</sup> But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

726 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.

727 This is he of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'<sup>552</sup>

728 "For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist, yet he who is least in God's Kingdom is greater than he."<sup>553</sup>

729 When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been baptized with John's baptism.<sup>730</sup> But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves.

731 "To what then should I compare the people of this generation? What are they like?<sup>732</sup> They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call to one another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.'<sup>733</sup> For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.'

734 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

735 Wisdom is justified by all her children."

736 One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table.<sup>737</sup> Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment.<sup>738</sup> Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.<sup>739</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner."

740 Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." He said, "Teacher, say on."

<sup>551</sup> John is now in prison, awaiting execution by Herod. His question to Jesus shows clearly that he doubted the revelation given to him by God that Jesus was His son (see Matt 3:17; Mark 1:11; Luke 3:22).

<sup>552</sup> Jesus confirms the prior message of Gabriel to John's father, Zecharias, telling him that John is to prepare the way of the Lord (see Luke 1:13–17).

<sup>553</sup> Jesus says that John was the greatest of prophets but lesser than the least in the kingdom of God. Why? Because he doubted the revelation given to him by God after Jesus' baptism and failed to help and support Jesus in his life and ministry. He was not even a disciple of Jesus.

<sup>741</sup> "A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

<sup>742</sup> When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?"

<sup>743</sup> Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most." He said to him, "You have judged correctly."<sup>744</sup>

Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head.<sup>745</sup> You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet.<sup>746</sup> You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.<sup>747</sup> Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But one to whom little is forgiven, loves little."<sup>554</sup>

<sup>749</sup> Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

<sup>750</sup> He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> Soon afterwards, he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of God's Kingdom. With him were the twelve,<sup>82</sup> and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;<sup>83</sup> and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others; who served them from their possessions.<sup>84</sup> When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable.<sup>85</sup> "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.

<sup>86</sup> Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

<sup>87</sup> Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.<sup>88</sup> Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and produced one hundred times as much fruit." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

<sup>89</sup> Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?"

<sup>810</sup> He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of God's Kingdom, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.'<sup>811</sup> Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.<sup>812</sup> Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.<sup>813</sup> Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation.<sup>814</sup> That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.

<sup>815</sup> Those in the good ground, these are those who with an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and produce fruit with perseverance.

<sup>816</sup> "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.<sup>817</sup> For nothing is hidden that will not be revealed; nor anything secret that will not be known and come to light.

<sup>818</sup> Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

<sup>819</sup> His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd.<sup>820</sup> Some people told him, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."

<sup>821</sup> But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

<sup>822</sup> Now on one of those days, he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out.<sup>823</sup> But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water.<sup>824</sup> They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.<sup>825</sup> He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying to one another, "Who is this then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

<sup>826</sup> Then they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.<sup>827</sup> When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs.<sup>828</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!"<sup>829</sup> For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bonds apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

<sup>830</sup> Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him.

<sup>831</sup> They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss.<sup>832</sup> Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. Then he allowed them.<sup>833</sup> The demons came out of the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned.<sup>834</sup> When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country.

<sup>835</sup> People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.<sup>836</sup> Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed.<sup>837</sup> All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. Then he entered into the boat and returned.<sup>838</sup> But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,<sup>839</sup> "Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

<sup>840</sup> When Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.<sup>841</sup> Behold, a man named Jairus came. He was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come into his house,<sup>842</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him.<sup>843</sup> A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians and could not be healed by any<sup>844</sup> came behind him, and touched the fringe of his cloak. Immediately the flow of her blood stopped.<sup>845</sup> Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>846</sup> But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me."<sup>847</sup> When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.<sup>848</sup> He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

<sup>850</sup> But Jesus hearing it, answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."

<sup>851</sup> When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of the child, and her mother.<sup>852</sup> All were weeping and mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, but sleeping."

<sup>853</sup> They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead.<sup>854</sup> But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Child, arise!"<sup>855</sup> Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat.

<sup>856</sup> Her parents were amazed, but he commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>96</sup> They departed and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News and healing everywhere.

<sup>97</sup> Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,<sup>98</sup> and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.<sup>99</sup> Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see him.<sup>910</sup> The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done.

He took them and withdrew apart to a desert region of a city called Bethsaida.<sup>911</sup> But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, spoke to them of God's Kingdom, and he cured those who needed healing.<sup>912</sup> The day began to wear away; and the twelve came and said to him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place."

<sup>913</sup> But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people."<sup>914</sup> For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each."<sup>915</sup> They did so, and made them all sit down.<sup>916</sup> He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.<sup>917</sup> They ate and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>918</sup> As he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

<sup>919</sup> They answered, "'John the Baptist,' but others say, 'Elijah,' and others, that one of the old prophets has risen again."

<sup>920</sup> He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

<sup>921</sup> But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one,<sup>922</sup> saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."<sup>556</sup>

<sup>923</sup> He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

<sup>924</sup> For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, will save it.

<sup>925</sup> For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self?

<sup>926</sup> For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels.<sup>927</sup> But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here who will in no way taste of death until they see God's Kingdom.<sup>557</sup>

<sup>928</sup> About eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray.<sup>929</sup> As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling.<sup>930</sup> Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah,<sup>931</sup> who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.<sup>558</sup>

<sup>932</sup> Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him.<sup>933</sup> As they were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.

<sup>934</sup> While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.<sup>935</sup> A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!"<sup>936</sup> When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

<sup>941</sup> Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

<sup>942</sup> While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.<sup>943</sup> They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples,<sup>944</sup> "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men."

<sup>945</sup> But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

<sup>946</sup> An argument arose among them about which of them was the greatest.<sup>947</sup> Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side,<sup>948</sup> and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."<sup>949</sup> John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us."

<sup>950</sup> Jesus said to him, "Don't forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."

<sup>951</sup> It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem<sup>952</sup> and sent messengers before his face. They went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him.<sup>953</sup> They didn't receive him, because he was traveling with his face set toward Jerusalem.<sup>954</sup> When his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky and destroy them, just as Elijah did?"

<sup>955</sup> But he turned and rebuked them, "You don't know of what kind of spirit you are.<sup>956</sup> For the Son of Man didn't come to destroy men's lives, but to save them.<sup>559</sup>

They went to another village.<sup>957</sup> As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord."

<sup>958</sup> Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head."<sup>560</sup>

<sup>959</sup> He said to another, "Follow me!" But he said, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

<sup>960</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead,<sup>561</sup>

but you go and announce God's Kingdom."

<sup>961</sup> Another also said, "I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my house."

<sup>962</sup> But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for God's Kingdom."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> Now after these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him into every city and place where he was about to come.<sup>102</sup> Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers

<sup>559</sup> Here Jesus makes clear that references to fire in association with Jesus' ministry are not to be taken literally, but figuratively. Jesus came to save people, not destroy them with literal fire.

into his harvest.<sup>103</sup> Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves.

<sup>104</sup> Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way.<sup>105</sup> Into whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house.’<sup>106</sup> If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.<sup>107</sup> Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don’t go from house to house.<sup>108</sup> Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you.

<sup>109</sup> Heal the sick who are there, and tell them, ‘God’s Kingdom has come near to you.’<sup>1010</sup> But into whatever city you enter, and they don’t receive you, go out into its streets and say,<sup>1011</sup> ‘Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that God’s Kingdom has come near to you.’

<sup>1012</sup> I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

<sup>1013</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>1014</sup> But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.<sup>1015</sup> You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades.<sup>1016</sup> Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me.”

<sup>1018</sup> He said to them, “I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven.

<sup>1019</sup> Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you.<sup>1020</sup> Nevertheless, don’t rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

<sup>1021</sup> In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, “I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight.”

<sup>1022</sup> Turning to the disciples, he said, “All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him.”

<sup>1023</sup> Turning to the disciples, he said privately, “Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see,”<sup>1024</sup> for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn’t see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn’t hear them.”

<sup>1025</sup> Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>1026</sup> He said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read it?”

<sup>1027</sup> He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>562</sup>

<sup>1028</sup> He said to him, “You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live.”

<sup>1029</sup> But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, “Who is my neighbor?”

<sup>1030</sup> Jesus answered, “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead.<sup>1031</sup> By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

<sup>1032</sup> In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side.

<sup>1033</sup> But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion,<sup>1034</sup> came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.<sup>1035</sup> On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, gave them to the host, and said to him, ‘Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.’

<sup>1036</sup> Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?”

<sup>1037</sup> He said, “He who showed mercy on him.” Then Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

<sup>1041</sup> Jesus answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, <sup>1042</sup> but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her.”

CHAPTER 11

<sup>111</sup> When he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.”

<sup>112</sup> He said to them, “When you pray, say, ‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. May your Kingdom come. May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.’<sup>113</sup> Give us each day our daily bread.

<sup>114</sup> Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

<sup>115</sup> He said to them, “Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,’<sup>116</sup> for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,<sup>117</sup> and he from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you?'

<sup>118</sup> I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

<sup>119</sup> "I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you.

1110 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.<sup>564</sup>

<sup>1111</sup> "Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he?<sup>1112</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion, will he?

<sup>1113</sup> If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

<sup>1114</sup> He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled.<sup>1115</sup> But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons."<sup>1116</sup> Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven.<sup>1117</sup> But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls.

<sup>1118</sup> If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.<sup>1119</sup> But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.<sup>1120</sup> But if I by God's finger cast out demons, then God's Kingdom has come to you.<sup>565</sup>

<sup>1121</sup> "When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe.<sup>1122</sup> But when someone stronger attacks him and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his plunder.

<sup>1123</sup> "He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn't gather with me scatters.<sup>1124</sup> The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, 'I will turn back to my house from which I came out.'

<sup>1125</sup> When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order.<sup>1126</sup> Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first.<sup>566</sup>

<sup>1127</sup> It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"

<sup>1128</sup> But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it."

<sup>1129</sup> When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet.<sup>1130</sup> For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so the Son of Man will also be to this generation.<sup>1131</sup> The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here.<sup>1132</sup> The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>1133</sup> "No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light.<sup>1134</sup> The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness.

<sup>1137</sup> Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in and sat at the table.

<sup>1138</sup> When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner.<sup>1139</sup> The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness.<sup>1140</sup> You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also?<sup>1141</sup> But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you.<sup>1142</sup> But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and God's love. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone.

<sup>1146</sup> He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens.<sup>1147</sup> Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

<sup>564</sup> This passage shows that, while the Father knows our needs, we still have need to ask, seek and knock. This shows man's portion of responsibility. God does not predestine our choices nor actions (see Topical Index #38).

fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs.

<sup>1149</sup> Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute,'<sup>1150</sup> that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;<sup>1151</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation.<sup>1152</sup> Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered.<sup>567</sup>

<sup>1153</sup> As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him;<sup>1154</sup> lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>121</sup> Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy."<sup>122</sup> But there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known.

<sup>123</sup> Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

<sup>124</sup> "I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do."<sup>125</sup> But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear him.<sup>126</sup> "Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria coins? Not one of them is forgotten by God."<sup>127</sup> But the very hairs of your head are all counted.<sup>568</sup>

Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>128</sup> "I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, the Son of Man will also confess before the angels of God,"<sup>129</sup> but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of God's angels.<sup>1210</sup> Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>1211</sup> When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say;<sup>1212</sup> for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say."

<sup>1213</sup> One of the multitude said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

<sup>1214</sup> But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"<sup>1215</sup> He said to them,

"Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."

<sup>1216</sup> He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man produced abundantly.

<sup>1217</sup> He reasoned within himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?'

<sup>1218</sup> He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.'<sup>1219</sup> I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, and be merry."

<sup>1220</sup> "But God said to him, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?'<sup>1221</sup> So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

<sup>1222</sup> He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear."<sup>1223</sup> Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

<sup>1224</sup> Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds!

<sup>1225</sup> Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height?<sup>1226</sup> If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest?

<sup>1227</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

<sup>1228</sup> But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith?<sup>1229</sup> Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious.<sup>1230</sup> For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things.

<sup>1231</sup> But first seek God's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you.<sup>569</sup>

<sup>1233</sup> Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys.<sup>1234</sup> For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

<sup>1235</sup> "Let your waist be dressed and your lamps burning."<sup>1236</sup> Be like men watching for their lord, when he returns from the wedding feast; that when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him.<sup>1237</sup> Blessed are those servants whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most certainly I tell you that he will dress himself, make them recline, and will come and serve them.

<sup>1238</sup> They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so.

<sup>1239</sup> But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into.<sup>1240</sup> Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."

<sup>567</sup> Jesus expresses great disappointment and even anger at the scribes and Pharisees for opposing him and his ministry.

<sup>568</sup> This tells us that the Father is aware of everything about us.

<sup>569</sup> Here Jesus could be referring either to the coming Kingdom of Heaven on earth or to the spiritual Kingdom of the Father (God's Kingdom).

<sup>1241</sup> Peter said to him, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"

<sup>1243</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes.<sup>1244</sup> Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has.<sup>1245</sup> But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken,<sup>1246</sup> then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful.<sup>1247</sup> That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, <sup>1248</sup> but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

<sup>1249</sup> "I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled."<sup>570</sup>

<sup>1250</sup> But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!<sup>1251</sup> Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division.<sup>571</sup>

<sup>1252</sup> For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

<sup>1253</sup> They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

<sup>1254</sup> He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens.<sup>1255</sup> When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens.<sup>1256</sup> You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time?<sup>572</sup>

<sup>1257</sup> Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?<sup>1258</sup> For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.<sup>1259</sup> I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last penny."

CHAPTER 13

<sup>131</sup> Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.<sup>132</sup> Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things?<sup>133</sup> I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.<sup>134</sup> Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem?<sup>135</sup> I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."

<sup>136</sup> He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.<sup>137</sup> He said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?'<sup>138</sup> He answered, 'Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it.<sup>139</sup> If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'"

<sup>1310</sup> He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day.<sup>1311</sup> Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years. She was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up.<sup>1312</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity."<sup>1313</sup> He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight and glorified God.

<sup>1314</sup> The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!"

<sup>1315</sup> Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water?<sup>1316</sup> Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>1317</sup> As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

<sup>1318</sup> He said, "What is God's Kingdom like? To what shall I compare it?<sup>1319</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and put in his own garden. It grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky live in its branches."

<sup>1320</sup> Again he said, "To what shall I compare God's Kingdom?<sup>1321</sup> It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

<sup>570</sup> Jesus laments that his word has not taken root and spread throughout the world. The term "fire" refers to God's word (see Jer 23:29; John 12:48; 2 Pet 3:7; 2 Thess 2:8; Jas 3:6, Rev 19:5).

<sup>571</sup> The division of which Jesus speaks is the division of the sheep and the goats; or the believers and the non-believers (see Matt 25:32,33).

<sup>572</sup> Jesus is very unhappy that many people cannot understand who he is, his life and mission to establish the Kingdom of Heaven on earth.

He said to them, <sup>13</sup><sup>24</sup> "Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in and will not be able." <sup>13</sup><sup>25</sup> When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' <sup>13</sup><sup>26</sup> Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' <sup>13</sup><sup>27</sup> He will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.'

<sup>13</sup><sup>28</sup> There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in God's Kingdom, and yourselves being thrown outside.

<sup>13</sup><sup>29</sup> They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in God's Kingdom. <sup>573</sup>

<sup>13</sup><sup>30</sup> Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."

<sup>13</sup><sup>31</sup> On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill you."

<sup>13</sup><sup>32</sup> He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission.'

<sup>13</sup><sup>35</sup> Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"'

<sup>14</sup><sup>4</sup> But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go.

<sup>14</sup><sup>5</sup> He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

<sup>14</sup><sup>7</sup> He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, <sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him,<sup>14</sup><sup>9</sup> and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place.<sup>14</sup><sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.<sup>14</sup><sup>11</sup> For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>14</sup><sup>12</sup> He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back."<sup>14</sup><sup>13</sup> But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind;

<sup>14</sup><sup>14</sup> and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."

<sup>14</sup><sup>15</sup> When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in God's Kingdom!"

<sup>14</sup><sup>16</sup> But he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people."<sup>14</sup><sup>17</sup> He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.'

<sup>14</sup><sup>18</sup> They all as one began to make excuses. "The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.'

<sup>14</sup><sup>19</sup> Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.'

<sup>14</sup><sup>20</sup> Another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I can't come.'

<sup>14</sup><sup>21</sup> That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.'

<sup>14</sup><sup>22</sup> The servant said, 'Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.'

<sup>14</sup><sup>23</sup> The lord said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.'<sup>14</sup><sup>24</sup> For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper."

<sup>574</sup> Jesus expresses great frustration that Jerusalem has not received him as he wanted them to (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>1430</sup> saying, ‘This man began to build, and wasn’t able to finish.’<sup>1431</sup> Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?’<sup>1432</sup> Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace.<sup>1433</sup> So therefore whoever of you who doesn’t renounce all that he has, he can’t be my disciple.
<sup>1434</sup> Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it?<sup>1435</sup> It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

CHAPTER 15

<sup>153</sup> He told them this parable. <sup>154</sup> “Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn’t leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it?

<sup>155</sup> When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing.<sup>156</sup> When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!’<sup>157</sup> I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.<sup>158</sup> Or what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost one drachma coin, wouldn’t light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it?<sup>159</sup> When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.’

<sup>1510</sup> Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting.”

<sup>1511</sup> He said, “A certain man had two sons.

<sup>1512</sup> The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of your property.’ So he divided his livelihood between them.<sup>1513</sup> Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living.<sup>1514</sup> When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need.<sup>1515</sup> He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs.<sup>1516</sup> He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any.

<sup>1517</sup> But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough to spare, and I’m dying with hunger!

<sup>1518</sup> I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight.<sup>1519</sup> I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants.”

<sup>1520</sup> “He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.<sup>1521</sup> The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

<sup>1525</sup> “Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing.

<sup>1526</sup> He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on.<sup>1527</sup> He said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.’

<sup>1528</sup> But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him.<sup>1529</sup> But he answered his father, ‘Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends.<sup>1530</sup> But when this your son came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.’

<sup>1531</sup> “He said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

<sup>1532</sup> But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.’”<sup>575</sup>

CHAPTER 16

<sup>161</sup> He also said to his disciples, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions.

<sup>162</sup> He called him, and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’

<sup>163</sup> “The manager said within himself, ‘What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don’t have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg.<sup>164</sup> I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.’<sup>165</sup> Calling each one of his lord’s debtors to him, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe to my lord?’<sup>166</sup> He said, ‘A hundred batos of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’<sup>167</sup> Then he said to another, ‘How much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred cors of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents.<sup>1610</sup> He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.<sup>1611</sup> If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

<sup>1612</sup> If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?<sup>1613</sup> No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and Mammon.

<sup>1614</sup> The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. <sup>1615</sup> He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God."

<sup>1617</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall.

<sup>1618</sup> Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

<sup>1619</sup> "Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day.<sup>1620</sup> A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was taken to his gate, full of sores,<sup>1621</sup> and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores.<sup>1622</sup> The beggar died, and he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried.<sup>1623</sup> In Hades, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom.<sup>1624</sup> He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

<sup>1625</sup> "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in the same way, bad things. But here he is now comforted, and you are in anguish.'

<sup>1626</sup> Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that no one may cross over from there to us.'

<sup>1627</sup> "He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house;<sup>1628</sup> for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.'

<sup>1629</sup> "But Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.'

<sup>1630</sup> "He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

<sup>1631</sup> "He said to him, 'If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.'"<sup>577</sup>

CHAPTER 17

<sup>171</sup> He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come!"<sup>172</sup> It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.

<sup>173</sup> Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him.<sup>174</sup> If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

<sup>176</sup> The Lord said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."<sup>177</sup> But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,'<sup>178</sup> and will not rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink'?

<sup>179</sup> Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not.

<sup>1710</sup> Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.'

<sup>1711</sup> As he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>1712</sup> As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance. <sup>1713</sup> They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

<sup>1714</sup> When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were cleansed.<sup>1715</sup> One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice.

<sup>1716</sup> He fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan.<sup>1717</sup> Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine?"

<sup>1718</sup> Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner?"<sup>1719</sup> Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."

<sup>1720</sup> Being asked by the Pharisees when God's Kingdom would come, he answered them, "God's Kingdom doesn't come with observation;

<sup>576</sup> Jesus is saying his life and ministry has been preaching God's Kingdom since he began his mission with baptism at the Jordan river by the hands of John.

<sup>577</sup> This parable by Jesus about Lazarus and the rich man shows us the reality of the spirit world and afterlife, and something of how it works. Most notable is the concluding remark by Jesus that reveals what he means when talking of someone "rising from the dead". It is not meant in the physical sense of resurrection of the body, but rather as the appearance of a spirit to those living on earth.

<sup>1721</sup> neither will they say, ‘Look, here!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ for behold, God’s Kingdom is within you.”<sup>578</sup>

<sup>1722</sup> He said to the disciples, “The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.”<sup>579</sup>

<sup>1723</sup> They will tell you, ‘Look, here!’ or ‘Look, there!’ Don’t go away or follow after them.”<sup>580</sup>

<sup>1724</sup> for as the lightning, when it flashes out of one part under the sky, shines to another part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day.”<sup>1725</sup> But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.<sup>581</sup>

<sup>1726</sup> As it was in the days of Noah, even so it will also be in the days of the Son of Man.”<sup>1727</sup> They ate, they drank, they married, and they were given in marriage until the day that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

<sup>1728</sup> Likewise, even as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;<sup>1729</sup> but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky and destroyed them all.

<sup>1730</sup> It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed.”<sup>1731</sup> In that day, he who will be on the housetop and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back.

<sup>1732</sup> Remember Lot’s wife!”<sup>1733</sup> Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it.”<sup>1734</sup> I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. One will be taken and the other will be left.”<sup>1735</sup> There will be two grinding grain together. One will be taken and the other will be left.”<sup>1736</sup> -----

<sup>1737</sup> They, answering, asked him, “Where, Lord?” He said to them, “Where the body is, there the vultures will also be gathered together.”

CHAPTER 18

<sup>181</sup> He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up,”<sup>182</sup> saying, “There was a judge in a certain city who didn’t fear God, and didn’t respect man.”<sup>183</sup> A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, ‘Defend me from my adversary!’<sup>184</sup> He wouldn’t for a while, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God, nor respect man,’<sup>185</sup> yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.”

are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them?”<sup>188</sup> I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”<sup>582</sup>

<sup>189</sup> He also spoke this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others.”<sup>1810</sup> Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector.”<sup>1811</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of men, extortionists, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.’<sup>1812</sup> I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.”<sup>1813</sup> But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn’t even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’<sup>1814</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>1815</sup> They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.”<sup>1816</sup> Jesus summoned them, saying, “Allow the little children to come to me, and don’t hinder them, for God’s Kingdom belongs to such as these.”<sup>1817</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, whoever doesn’t receive God’s Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it.”<sup>583</sup>

<sup>1819</sup> Jesus asked him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one: God.”<sup>584</sup>

<sup>1820</sup> You know the commandments: ‘Don’t commit adultery,’ ‘Don’t murder,’ ‘Don’t steal,’ ‘Don’t give false testimony,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother.’”<sup>1821</sup> He said, “I have observed all these things from my youth up.”<sup>1822</sup> When Jesus heard these things, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. Then you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”

<sup>1823</sup> But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

<sup>1824</sup> Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into God’s Kingdom!”<sup>1825</sup> For it is easier for a camel to enter through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom.”

<sup>1826</sup> Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>1827</sup> But he said, “The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.”

<sup>578</sup> Jesus is making clear that the God’s Kingdom is composed of people who have been forgiven and also purified and perfected. It depends on the spiritual quality of the citizens and not on external things.

<sup>579</sup> Jesus is saying he will not always be with them in the flesh. His physical life will end.

<sup>582</sup> An indication that the Lord will return in a natural way, as a baby born of a woman (see Rev 12:5) rather than in a supernatural manner.

<sup>583</sup> Another reference to the spiritual quality of those who would be citizens of God’s Kingdom. They must be innocent as little children.

<sup>584</sup> This passage has been mistakenly interpreted to imply that Jesus is the Father. He did not mean it that way.

18:28 Peter said, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.”

18:29 He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for God’s Kingdom’s sake,

18:30 who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life.”

18:31 He took the twelve aside, and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed.<sup>585</sup>

18:32 For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on.

18:33 They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again.”<sup>586</sup>

18:34 They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn’t understand the things that were said.<sup>587</sup>

18:35 As he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging.<sup>18:36</sup> Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant.<sup>18:37</sup> They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.<sup>18:38</sup> He cried out, “Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!”

18:39 Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, “You son of David, have mercy on me!”

18:40 Standing still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him,<sup>18:41</sup> “What do you want me to do?” He said, “Lord, that I may see again.”<sup>18:42</sup> Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you.”

18:43 Immediately he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

CHAPTER 19

19:1 He entered and was passing through Jericho.

19:2 There was a man named Zacchaeus.<sup>588</sup>

He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.

19:3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn’t because of the crowd, because he was short.<sup>19:4</sup> He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was going to pass that way.<sup>19:5</sup> When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.”<sup>19:6</sup> He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully.<sup>19:7</sup> When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, “He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner.”

19:8 Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much.”

<sup>587</sup> This is evidence that Jesus’ message and ministry changed from one of building the earthly Kingdom of Heaven to offering his life on the cross.

19:9 Jesus said to him, “Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham.

19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost.”

19:11 As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that God’s Kingdom would be revealed immediately.<sup>19:12</sup> He said therefore, “A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return.<sup>19:13</sup> He called ten servants of his and gave them ten mina coins, and told them, ‘Conduct business until I come.’<sup>19:14</sup> But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, ‘We don’t want this man to reign over us.’

19:15 “When he had come back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business.<sup>19:16</sup> The first came before him, saying, ‘Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.’

19:17 “He said to him, ‘Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.’<sup>589</sup>

19:18 “The second came, saying, ‘Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.’

19:19 “So he said to him, ‘And you are to be over five cities.’<sup>19:20</sup> Another came, saying, ‘Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief,

19:21 for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you didn’t lay down, and reap that which you didn’t sow.’

19:22 “He said to him, ‘Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn’t lay down, and reaping that which I didn’t sow.’

19:23 Then why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?’<sup>19:24</sup> He said to those who stood by, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to him who has the ten minas.’

19:25 “They said to him, ‘Lord, he has ten minas!’

19:26 “For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn’t have, even that which he has will be taken away from him.

19:27 But bring those enemies of mine who didn’t want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.”<sup>19:28</sup> Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

19:29 When he came near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples,<sup>19:30</sup> saying, “Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, which no man had ever sat upon. Untie it and

<sup>1931</sup> bring it.<sup>1931</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to him: 'The Lord needs it.'

<sup>1932</sup> Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them.<sup>1933</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"<sup>1934</sup> They said, "The Lord needs it."

<sup>1935</sup> Then they brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and sat Jesus on them.

<sup>1940</sup> He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

<sup>1941</sup> When he came near, he saw the city and wept over it,<sup>1942</sup> saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes.<sup>1943</sup> For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side,<sup>1944</sup> and will dash you and the children within your walls to the ground. They will not leave one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."<sup>590</sup>

<sup>1945</sup> He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,<sup>1946</sup> saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' but you have made it a 'den of robbers'!"

<sup>1947</sup> He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests, the scribes, and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him.<sup>1948</sup> They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>201</sup> On one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, the priests and scribes came to him with the elders.

<sup>202</sup> They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"

<sup>203</sup> He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me:<sup>204</sup> the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?"

<sup>205</sup> They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why didn't you believe him?'<sup>206</sup> But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet."<sup>207</sup> They answered that they didn't know where it was from.

<sup>208</sup> Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

<sup>209</sup> He began to tell the people this parable. "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time.

<sup>210</sup> At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty.<sup>211</sup> He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.<sup>212</sup> He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out.

<sup>213</sup> The lord of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.'<sup>591</sup>

<sup>214</sup> "But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.'<sup>215</sup> Then they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them?<sup>216</sup> He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others."

When they heard that, they said, "May that never be!"

<sup>217</sup> But he looked at them and said, "Then what is this that is written, 'The stone which the builders rejected was made the chief cornerstone?'

<sup>218</sup> Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust."

<sup>219</sup> The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they feared the people—for they knew he had spoken this parable against them.<sup>220</sup> They watched him and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor.<sup>221</sup> They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God.<sup>222</sup> Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

<sup>223</sup> But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test me?<sup>224</sup> Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?" They answered, "Caesar's."

<sup>225</sup> He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>226</sup> They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer and were silent.<sup>227</sup> Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection.<sup>228</sup> They asked him, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife and raise up children for <sup>590</sup> Jesus wept over the city because he desperately wanted the leaders and the people to believe in him, receive him as the Messiah, and support him in establishing God's Kingdom on earth.

However, they failed all these responsibilities (see Matt 4:17; 6:10; 21:35–37; 23:37; John 6:28–29; 8:37–42; and Topical Index #25).

<sup>591</sup> This was God's hope and expectation, that they would receive His son.

his brother.<sup>2029</sup> There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless.<sup>2030</sup> The second took her as wife, and he died childless.<sup>2031</sup> The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died.<sup>2032</sup> Afterward the woman also died.<sup>2033</sup> Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

<sup>2034</sup> Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage."<sup>2035</sup> But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.<sup>2036</sup> For they can't die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.<sup>2037</sup> But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord 'The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'<sup>2038</sup> Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.<sup>592</sup>

<sup>2039</sup> Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well."<sup>2040</sup> They didn't dare to ask him any more questions.

<sup>2041</sup> He said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is David's son?<sup>2042</sup> David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand,<sup>2043</sup> until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."<sup>2044</sup> David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?"

<sup>2045</sup> In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples,<sup>2046</sup> "Beware of those scribes who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts;<sup>2047</sup> who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."

CHAPTER 21

<sup>211</sup> He looked up and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury.<sup>212</sup> He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins. <sup>213</sup> He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them,<sup>214</sup> for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on."

<sup>215</sup> As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said,<sup>216</sup> "As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."<sup>593</sup>

<sup>217</sup> They asked him, "Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"

<sup>218</sup> He said, "Watch out that you don't get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is at hand.' Therefore don't follow them."

<sup>219</sup> When you hear of wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately."

<sup>2110</sup> Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.<sup>2111</sup> There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven.<sup>2112</sup> But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake.<sup>2113</sup> It will turn out as a testimony for you.

<sup>2114</sup> Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer,<sup>2115</sup> for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict.<sup>2116</sup> You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death.<sup>2117</sup> You will be hated by all men for my name's sake.<sup>2118</sup> And not a hair of your head will perish.

<sup>2119</sup> "By your endurance you will win your lives.

<sup>2120</sup> "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand.

<sup>2121</sup> Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the middle of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein.<sup>2122</sup> For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

<sup>2123</sup> Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people.

<sup>2124</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.<sup>2125</sup> There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves;<sup>2126</sup> men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.<sup>2127</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud<sup>594</sup> with power and great glory.<sup>2128</sup> But when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."

<sup>2129</sup> He told them a parable. "See the fig tree and all the trees.<sup>2130</sup> When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near.<sup>2131</sup> Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that God's Kingdom is near.<sup>595</sup>

<sup>592</sup> Here we can see that Jesus is speaking of God being the God of spiritually alive people, whether they be physically dead or physically alive. The life and death which is important is spiritual life and death (see Rev 3:1; Matt 8:22; Luke 9:60; Rom 8:6).

heaven", whereas Jesus was born on earth (see Heb 12:1; Dan 7:13; Jude 12).

<sup>595</sup> When the Lord returns, it will be to establish God's Kingdom on earth—the Kingdom of Heaven—the same purpose for which Jesus was born.

<sup>21</sup><sup>32</sup> Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished.

<sup>21</sup><sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.<sup>596</sup>

<sup>21</sup><sup>34</sup> "So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly."

<sup>21</sup><sup>35</sup> For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth.<sup>21</sup><sup>36</sup> Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

<sup>21</sup><sup>37</sup> Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet.<sup>21</sup><sup>38</sup> All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

CHAPTER 22

<sup>22</sup><sup>6</sup> He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude.

<sup>22</sup><sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters.

drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until God's Kingdom comes."

<sup>22</sup><sup>19</sup> He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me."

<sup>22</sup><sup>22</sup> The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!<sup>598</sup>

<sup>22</sup><sup>28</sup> But you are those who have continued with me in my trials.<sup>22</sup><sup>29</sup> I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on me,<sup>22</sup><sup>30</sup> that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

<sup>22</sup><sup>31</sup> The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have all of you, that he might sift you as wheat,<sup>22</sup><sup>32</sup> but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers."

<sup>22</sup><sup>33</sup> He said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!"

<sup>22</sup><sup>34</sup> He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times."

<sup>22</sup><sup>35</sup> He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, wallet, and sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing."

<sup>22</sup><sup>36</sup> Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword.

<sup>22</sup><sup>37</sup> For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was counted with transgressors.' For that which concerns me has an end."

<sup>22</sup><sup>39</sup> He came out and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him.

<sup>22</sup><sup>40</sup> When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don't enter into temptation."

<sup>597</sup> It is Satan who entered into Judas who then betrayed Jesus. Satan does not promote God's providential will, but opposes it at every turn. Thus, it is clear that the betrayal of Jesus was not a part of God's original plan for him. Jesus' sacrifice on the cross became necessary when he was rejected and opposed by the leaders of the chosen people (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>598</sup> God foretold what would happen, in Isaiah 53, if the chosen people rejected His son. This came to pass, instead of the prophecies of the accepted Lord in Isaiah 9, 11 and Luke 1:32—33.

<sup>22</sup>41 He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed,<sup>22</sup>42 saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."<sup>599</sup>

22*44 Being in agony he prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

<sup>22</sup>45 When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief,<sup>22</sup>46 and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

<sup>22</sup>47 While he was still speaking, a crowd appeared. He who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to Jesus to kiss him.<sup>22</sup>48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

<sup>22</sup>49 When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said to him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"<sup>22</sup>50 A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

<sup>22</sup>51 But Jesus answered, "Let me at least do this"—and he touched his ear, and healed him.

<sup>22</sup>52 Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?

<sup>22</sup>53 When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn't stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."<sup>600</sup>

<sup>22</sup>54 They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed from a distance.<sup>22</sup>55 When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Peter sat among them.

<sup>22</sup>56 A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him."

<sup>22</sup>57 He denied Jesus, saying, "Woman, I don't know him."

<sup>22</sup>58 After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!" But Peter answered, "Man, I am not!"

<sup>22</sup>59 After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!"

<sup>22</sup>60 But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

<sup>22</sup>61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the Lord's word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times."<sup>22</sup>62 He went out, and wept bitterly.

<sup>22</sup>63 The men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him.<sup>22</sup>64 Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck you?"<sup>22</sup>65 They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.

<sup>22</sup>66 As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people were gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying,<sup>22</sup>67 "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe,<sup>22</sup>68 and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go."<sup>22</sup>69 From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

<sup>22</sup>70 They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" He said to them, "You say it, because I am."

<sup>22</sup>71 They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!"

CHAPTER 23

<sup>23</sup>1 The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate.<sup>23</sup>2 They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king."

<sup>23</sup>3 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "So you say."

<sup>23</sup>4 Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

<sup>23</sup>5 But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place."<sup>23</sup>6 But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean.

<sup>23</sup>7 When he found out that he was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days.

<sup>23</sup>8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him.

<sup>23</sup>9 He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers.<sup>23</sup>10 The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him.<sup>23</sup>11 Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate.

<sup>23</sup>12 Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

<sup>23</sup>13 Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,<sup>23</sup>14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and behold, having examined him before you, I found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him."<sup>23</sup>15 Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him.

<sup>23</sup>16 I will therefore chastise him and release him."

<sup>599</sup> Traditional explanations say that Jesus was afraid to die. The son of God was not a lesser man than many patriots and war heroes who were glad to give their lives for their comrades or for their country or king. Jesus could not be afraid to die if God's will was to be completed by his sacrifice (cf. Matt 26:29).

<sup>23</sup><sup>22</sup> He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him."

<sup>23</sup><sup>26</sup> When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Jesus.<sup>23</sup><sup>27</sup> A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him.
<sup>23</sup><sup>28</sup> But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children."<sup>601</sup>

<sup>23</sup><sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing."<sup>603</sup>

Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots.

<sup>23</sup><sup>38</sup> An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

<sup>23</sup><sup>43</sup> Jesus said to him, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

<sup>23</sup><sup>44</sup> It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.

<sup>23</sup><sup>45</sup> The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two.

<sup>23</sup><sup>46</sup> Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!"<sup>604</sup>

Having said this, he breathed his last.

<sup>23</sup><sup>50</sup> Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man<sup>23</sup><sup>51</sup> (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for God's Kingdom:<sup>23</sup><sup>52</sup> this man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body.<sup>23</sup><sup>53</sup> He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid.<sup>23</sup><sup>54</sup> It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near.<sup>23</sup><sup>55</sup> The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid.<sup>23</sup><sup>56</sup> They returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

<sup>603</sup> Jesus asked the Father to forgive those who were sending him to death, not because they did not know what a good thing they were doing, but because they were unknowingly doing the work of Satan and not what God had originally intended for Jesus' life and ministry—to bring the Kingdom of Heaven on earth (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>604</sup> Luke 23:46 as well as Luke 23:34, show the distinction between Jesus and the Father (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>24</sup>8 They remembered his words,<sup>24</sup>9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.<sup>24</sup>10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles.<sup>24</sup>11 These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them.<sup>24</sup>12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

<sup>24</sup>13 Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem.<sup>24</sup>14 They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened.<sup>24</sup>15 While they talked and questioned together, Jesus himself came near, and went with them.<sup>24</sup>16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

<sup>24</sup>17 He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"

<sup>24</sup>18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"

<sup>24</sup>19 He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people;<sup>24</sup>20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him.<sup>24</sup>21 But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.<sup>24</sup>22 Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb,<sup>24</sup>23 and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.<sup>24</sup>24 Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him."

<sup>24</sup>25 He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!"

<sup>24</sup>26 Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?"<sup>24</sup>27 Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.<sup>24</sup>28 They came near to the village where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

<sup>24</sup>29 They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over."

He went in to stay with them.<sup>24</sup>30 When he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave it to them.<sup>24</sup>31 Their eyes were opened and they recognized him, then he vanished out of their sight.<sup>605</sup>

<sup>24</sup>32 They said to one another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?"<sup>24</sup>33 They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,<sup>24</sup>34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"<sup>24</sup>35 They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

<sup>24</sup>36 As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."<sup>24</sup>37 But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

<sup>24</sup>38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts?<sup>24</sup>39 See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have."<sup>606</sup>

<sup>24</sup>40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.<sup>24</sup>41 While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

<sup>24</sup>42 They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.<sup>24</sup>43 He took them, and ate in front of them.<sup>24</sup>44 He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled."

<sup>24</sup>45 Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures.<sup>24</sup>46 He said to them, "Thus it is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day,<sup>607</sup>

<sup>24</sup>47 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem.<sup>24</sup>48 You are witnesses of these things.<sup>24</sup>49 Behold, I send out the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."

<sup>24</sup>52 They worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,<sup>24</sup>53 and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

<sup>605</sup> From Luke 24:13–16 we see that Jesus came to them in spirit and not in physical form. They did not recognize him by his appearance, and in the end, he "vanished out of their sight."

<sup>606</sup> The words "ghost" and "spirit" have different meanings in the King James version of the Holy Bible. Here, "spirit" means a negative apparition. Jesus is revealing himself to disciples in his spiritual body, which can be a tangible experience even to physical people. Angels ate a meal at Lot's house, and had sex with women. An angel fought with Jacob and dislocated his thigh bone (see Gen 6:4; 19:3; 32:25).

<sup>607</sup> Taken that the leaders of Israel did not receive the Lord, if Jesus had then not given his life through the crucifixion, then no salvation would have been given. Thus, Isaiah 53 had to be fulfilled in the face of the faithless Jewish leaders and nation.

<sup>608</sup> Another affirmation that Jesus had appeared to them spiritually.

JOHN

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT JOHN

Brief background summary

Dating:

It is believed that the gospel of John took shape in three stages, finding its final form by about 60–70 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 90–100 AD).

Authorship:

The gospel of John includes the claim that it was written by John “the disciple whom Jesus loved.” However, modern scholars do not believe it was written by any of the contemporary apostles of Jesus. It is thought that it may have been written over a period of time by more than one author.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.<sup>12</sup> The same was in the beginning with God.<sup>13</sup> All things were made through him. Without him, nothing was made that has been made.<sup>609</sup>

14 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.<sup>15</sup> The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it.<sup>16</sup> There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John.

17 The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him.<sup>610</sup>

18 He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light.<sup>19</sup> The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him.<sup>611</sup>

11 He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him.<sup>12</sup> But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name:<sup>13</sup> who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.<sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.<sup>15</sup> John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'"<sup>612</sup>

16 From his fullness we all received grace upon grace.<sup>17</sup> For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ.<sup>18</sup> No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, has declared him.<sup>613</sup>

19 This is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 He declared, and didn't deny, but he declared, "I am not the Christ."<sup>614</sup>

21 They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not."<sup>615</sup>

<sup>609</sup> This refers to the Word of God (logos) which was made flesh in Jesus and by which all creation was patterned and made (see Prov 8:29).

<sup>610</sup> This tells that John's mission from God was to assist people in believing in Jesus (see Topical Index #23).

<sup>614</sup> John's reputation was so exalted among the Jews that they wondered if he might be the Messiah.

<sup>615</sup> Taken John's reputation and esteem, this statement by John that he was not Elijah was devastating to Jesus' ministry. Jesus repeatedly spoke that John was the long-awaited return of Elijah, who was to be the precursor of the Messiah. The angel Gabriel had told his father, Zecharias, that John was coming in the spirit and power of Elijah (Luke 1:17). John's denial effectively made Jesus look like a liar to the Jewish leaders.

"Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No."

122 They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

123 He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as Isaiah the prophet said."<sup>616</sup>

124 The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees.<sup>125</sup> They asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

126 John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know."

127 He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen.<sup>617</sup>

128 These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

129 The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!"<sup>130</sup> This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.'<sup>618</sup>

131 I didn't know him,<sup>619</sup> but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that he would be revealed to Israel."<sup>132</sup> John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him.<sup>133</sup> I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending and remaining on him is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.'

134 I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God.<sup>620</sup>

135 Again, the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples,<sup>136</sup> and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!"<sup>621</sup>

137 The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.<sup>622</sup>

138 Jesus turned and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"

139 He said to them, "Come, and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.<sup>140</sup> One of the

<sup>619</sup> John 1:31 is a strange contradiction when compared with verse John 1:33 as John knew Jesus very well. Their mothers were cousins (Luke 1:36).

<sup>620</sup> John received and testified to the revelation from God that Jesus is His son, the long-awaited Messiah.

<sup>621</sup> This is John's last recorded testimony to Jesus as God's son. After this event, John never becomes Jesus' disciple nor does he help Jesus' life or ministry.

<sup>622</sup> John had prepared many of his own highly-educated disciples to become followers of the expected Messiah. He should have encouraged them to follow Jesus, which he did not. These two disciples of John, one named Andrew, followed Jesus out of their own curiosity (see John 1:40–42).

two who heard John and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.<sup>141</sup> He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ).<sup>142</sup> He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter).<sup>143</sup> On the next day, he was determined to go out into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me."<sup>144</sup> Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter.<sup>145</sup> Philip found Nathanael,<sup>623</sup> and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

<sup>146</sup> Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."<sup>147</sup> Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

<sup>148</sup> Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

<sup>149</sup> Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!"

<sup>150</sup> Jesus answered him, "Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these!"<sup>151</sup> He said to him, "Most certainly, I tell you all, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> The third day, there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee. Jesus' mother was there.<sup>22</sup> Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the wedding.<sup>23</sup> When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no wine."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come."

<sup>25</sup> His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it."<sup>26</sup> Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews' way of purifying, containing two or three metretes apiece.<sup>27</sup> Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." So they filled them up to the brim.<sup>28</sup> He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it.<sup>29</sup> When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom<sup>210</sup> and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!"<sup>211</sup> This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

<sup>623</sup> Nathanael was one of the 12 apostles and believed to be the same person as Bartholomew. More than one apostle was called by different names e.g. "...Simon who is called Peter." (John 1:40–42).

<sup>212</sup> After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days.<sup>213</sup> The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>214</sup> He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting.

<sup>215</sup> He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money and overthrew their tables.

<sup>216</sup> To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a marketplace!"<sup>217</sup> His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up."<sup>624</sup>

<sup>218</sup> The Jews therefore answered him, "What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?"

<sup>219</sup> Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

<sup>220</sup> The Jews therefore said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple! Will you raise it up in three days?"

<sup>221</sup> But he spoke of the temple of his body.<sup>222</sup> When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

<sup>223</sup> Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did.<sup>224</sup> But Jesus didn't entrust himself to them, because he knew everyone,<sup>225</sup> and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus,<sup>625</sup> a ruler of the Jews.<sup>32</sup> The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."

<sup>33</sup> Jesus answered him, "Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born anew, he can't see God's Kingdom."

<sup>34</sup> Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus answered, "Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he can't enter into God's Kingdom.<sup>36</sup> That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

<sup>37</sup> Don't marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.'<sup>38</sup> The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

<sup>310</sup> Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't understand these things?

<sup>625</sup> Nicodemus was a Pharisee and member of the Sanhedrin (John 3:1; 7:50–51). He was also a friend of Joseph of Arimathea and helped Joseph put Jesus in the tomb (John 19:38–40).

311 Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness.<sup>312</sup> If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?<sup>313</sup> No one has ascended into heaven but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.<sup>314</sup> As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up,<sup>315</sup> that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

316 For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.<sup>626</sup>

317 For God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him.<sup>318</sup> He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God.<sup>319</sup> This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil.

320 For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, lest his works would be exposed.<sup>627</sup>

321 But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God."

322 After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them and baptized.<sup>323</sup> John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized;<sup>324</sup> for John was not yet thrown into prison.<sup>325</sup> Therefore a dispute arose on the part of John's disciples with some Jews about purification.<sup>326</sup> They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, he baptizes, and everyone is coming to him."

327 John answered, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given him from heaven.<sup>328</sup> You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before him.'<sup>329</sup> He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full.<sup>330</sup> He must increase, but I must decrease.<sup>628</sup>

331 He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.

332 What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness.<sup>333</sup> He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true.<sup>334</sup> For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure.<sup>335</sup> The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.<sup>336</sup> One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one who rejects the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."<sup>629</sup>

CHAPTER 4

41 Therefore when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John<sup>42</sup> (although Jesus himself didn't baptize, but his disciples),<sup>43</sup> he left Judea and departed into Galilee.<sup>44</sup> He needed to pass through Samaria.<sup>45</sup> So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph.<sup>46</sup> Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.<sup>47</sup> A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."<sup>48</sup> For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

49 The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

410 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

411 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. So where do you get that living water?"<sup>412</sup> Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his children and his livestock?"

413 Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again,<sup>414</sup> but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

415 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

416 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

417 The woman answered, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,'<sup>418</sup> for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

419 The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet."<sup>420</sup> Our fathers worshiped in this

<sup>626</sup> This underscores the fact that each person has a personal portion of responsibility before God for their own life and salvation. It says: "whosoever believeth in him..." Thus, it is not totally up to God who is saved and who is not (see Gal 3:22 and Topical Index #38).

<sup>627</sup> Jesus is saying that those who did not receive him were doing "evil" (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>628</sup> This statement has been interpreted to be an expression of John's humility before Jesus, but it is not. John is in need of salvation, as is everyone else. John needs Jesus. If John becomes Jesus' disciple, would not the prophet John increase and not decrease? Anyone will increase as they become Jesus' disciple. The only way for John to decrease is for John to not become Jesus' disciple.

<sup>629</sup> If John said and believed all these things, one must ask why John did not become a disciple of Jesus, and even contradicted his critically important statements about the return of Elijah (John 1:21).

mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

<sup>421</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father." <sup>422</sup> You worship that which you don't know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews.

<sup>423</sup> But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshipers.

<sup>424</sup> God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

<sup>425</sup> The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes, he who is called Christ. When he has come, he will declare to us all things."

<sup>426</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who speaks to you."

<sup>427</sup> At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" <sup>428</sup> So the woman left her water pot, went away into the city, and said to the people, <sup>429</sup> "Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"

<sup>430</sup> They went out of the city, and were coming to him. <sup>431</sup> In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

<sup>432</sup> But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

<sup>433</sup> The disciples therefore said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

<sup>434</sup> Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work."

<sup>435</sup> Don't you say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already.

<sup>436</sup> He who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. <sup>437</sup> For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' <sup>438</sup> I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

<sup>439</sup> From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I did." <sup>440</sup> So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. <sup>441</sup> Many more believed because of his word. <sup>442</sup> They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

<sup>443</sup> After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. <sup>444</sup> For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. <sup>445</sup> So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast.

<sup>446</sup> Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.

<sup>447</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

<sup>448</sup> Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

<sup>449</sup> The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

<sup>450</sup> Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. <sup>451</sup> As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your child lives!" <sup>452</sup> So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him." <sup>453</sup> So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house. <sup>454</sup> This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup> Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda", having five porches. <sup>53</sup> In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water; <sup>54</sup> for an angel went down at certain times into the pool and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had.

<sup>55</sup> A certain man was there who had been sick for thirty-eight years. <sup>56</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

<sup>57</sup> The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."

<sup>58</sup> Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."

<sup>59</sup> Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked. Now it was the Sabbath on that day. <sup>60</sup> So the Jews said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."

<sup>61</sup> He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, 'Take up your mat and walk.'"

<sup>62</sup> Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your mat and walk'?"

<sup>63</sup> But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

<sup>64</sup> Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."

<sup>65</sup> The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. <sup>66</sup> For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath. <sup>67</sup> But Jesus answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too." <sup>68</sup> For this cause therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

<sup>519</sup> Jesus therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise."<sup>630</sup>

<sup>520</sup> For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel.

<sup>521</sup> For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires.

<sup>522</sup> For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son,<sup>523</sup> that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.<sup>631</sup>

<sup>524</sup> "Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life."<sup>632</sup>

<sup>525</sup> Most certainly I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live.<sup>633</sup>

<sup>526</sup> For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself.<sup>634</sup>

<sup>527</sup> He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man.

<sup>528</sup> Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice, and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.<sup>635</sup>

<sup>529</sup> I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.<sup>636</sup>

<sup>530</sup> "If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid.

<sup>531</sup> It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true.

<sup>532</sup> You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.<sup>637</sup>

<sup>533</sup> But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be

<sup>630</sup> In the Divine Principle, it is explained that there are striking similarities between Jesus' life course and the courses of Jacob and Moses. This verse also shows that there is a clear distinction between Jesus and God the Creator (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 2, Section 1 and Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:26,30; 14:28; 17:21-23; 1 Cor 15:27,28; Heb 5:7-9; 1 Tim 2:5; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>631</sup> This indicates that all of Israel should honor Jesus as the son of God, which they did not. God's original purpose in sending Jesus was that he be honored, received, accepted and establish the kingdom of God on earth (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>632</sup> This reveals the true meaning of resurrection, in the mind of Jesus, which is the transformation from spiritual death to spiritual life through the hearing and believing in the word of God through Jesus.

<sup>633</sup> The spiritually dead can now come to life through hearing God's word through Jesus. Resurrection from death to life is meant in a spiritual manner; not physical.

saved.<sup>535</sup> He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

<sup>536</sup> But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me.<sup>537</sup> The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form.<sup>538</sup> You don't have his word living in you, because you don't believe him whom he sent.

<sup>539</sup> "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me.<sup>540</sup> Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life.<sup>541</sup> I don't receive glory from men.<sup>542</sup> But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves.<sup>543</sup> I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him.

<sup>544</sup> How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?

<sup>545</sup> "Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope.<sup>546</sup> For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me.<sup>638</sup>

<sup>547</sup> But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?<sup>639</sup>

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias.<sup>640</sup>

<sup>62</sup> A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick.<sup>63</sup> Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples.<sup>64</sup> Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.<sup>65</sup> Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"<sup>66</sup> He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

<sup>634</sup> As in verses 19 and 30, this shows that Jesus is distinct from his Father in heaven (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:19,30; 14:28; 17:21-23; 1 Cor 15:27,28; Heb 5:7-9; 1 Tim 2:5; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>635</sup> The use of the word "tombs" is a metaphor and not to be taken literally. Other versions use the word "graves". Those who hear and believe his word come unto the resurrection of life. Those who hear and do not believe come unto the resurrection of death.

<sup>637</sup> Jesus is giving credit to John for his verbal testimony to him as the son of God, in spite of John's failure to become Jesus' disciple.

<sup>639</sup> Jesus is expressing great disappointment that people do not believe in him, even though John bore verbal testimony (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>640</sup> Tiberias is a Roman city in Palestine. Jesus did not go there.

<sup>67</sup> Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may receive a little."

<sup>68</sup> One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him,<sup>69</sup> "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

<sup>610</sup> Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.<sup>611</sup> Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired.

<sup>615</sup> Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself.<sup>641</sup>

<sup>616</sup> When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea.<sup>617</sup> They entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.<sup>618</sup> The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing.<sup>619</sup> When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid.<sup>620</sup> But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid."<sup>621</sup> They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

<sup>622</sup> On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that Jesus hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone.<sup>623</sup> However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.<sup>624</sup> When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.<sup>625</sup> When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

<sup>626</sup> Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled."

<sup>627</sup> Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him."

<sup>628</sup> They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"

<sup>629</sup> Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."<sup>642</sup>

<sup>630</sup> They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see and believe you? What work do you do?"<sup>631</sup> Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'

<sup>632</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven."<sup>643</sup>

<sup>633</sup> For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."

<sup>635</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will not be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

<sup>636</sup> But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe.<sup>637</sup> All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. He who comes to me I will in no way throw out.<sup>638</sup> For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.<sup>639</sup> This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day.

<sup>640</sup> This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."<sup>644</sup>

<sup>641</sup> The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven."<sup>642</sup> They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'"

<sup>643</sup> Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves.<sup>644</sup> No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day.<sup>645</sup> It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Therefore everyone who hears from the Father and has learned, comes to me.<sup>646</sup> Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father."<sup>647</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life.<sup>648</sup> I am the bread of life.

<sup>649</sup> Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died.<sup>650</sup> This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die.<sup>651</sup> I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live

<sup>641</sup> Isaiah 9 and Luke 1:32–33 offer testimony that the messiah shall become King of the Jews. However, if Jesus were to be promoted to become king now, without the advocacy of the Jewish leadership, it would mean certain disaster. The Jewish leadership could legitimately make him a king, but not the common people by themselves.

<sup>642</sup> This is a clear statement of Jesus' desire; not rejection but acceptance and faith (see Matt 4:17; 6:10; 21:35–37; 23:37; Luke 19:41–44; John 8:37–42).

<sup>645</sup> Isa 54:13; Jer 31:34; Heb 8:10; Heb 10:16

forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”<sup>646</sup>

<sup>652</sup> The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

<sup>653</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don’t have life in yourselves.

<sup>654</sup> He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.<sup>647</sup>

<sup>655</sup> For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.<sup>656</sup> He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him.<sup>648</sup>

<sup>657</sup> As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me.

<sup>658</sup> This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever.”<sup>659</sup> He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

<sup>660</sup> Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, “This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?”

<sup>661</sup> But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, “Does this cause you to stumble?<sup>662</sup> Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?<sup>663</sup> It is the spirit that gives life. The flesh profits nothing.

The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life.<sup>649</sup>

<sup>664</sup> But there are some of you who don’t believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn’t believe, and who it was who would betray him.

<sup>665</sup> He said, “For this cause I have said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by my Father.”

<sup>666</sup> At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.<sup>667</sup> Jesus said therefore to the twelve, “You don’t also want to go away, do you?”

<sup>668</sup> Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.<sup>669</sup> We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

<sup>671</sup> Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he wouldn’t walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.<sup>72</sup> Now

the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand.<sup>73</sup> His brothers therefore said to him, “Depart from here and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do.”<sup>74</sup> For no one does anything in secret while he seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world.”<sup>75</sup> For even his brothers didn’t believe in him.<sup>651</sup>

<sup>76</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.”<sup>77</sup> The world can’t hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil.<sup>78</sup> You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled.”

<sup>79</sup> Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee.<sup>80</sup> But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret.<sup>81</sup> The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, “Where is he?”<sup>82</sup> There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, “He is a good man.” Others said, “Not so, but he leads the multitude astray.”<sup>83</sup> Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews.<sup>84</sup> But when it was now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught.<sup>85</sup> The Jews therefore marveled, saying, “How does this man know letters, having never been educated?”

<sup>86</sup> Jesus therefore answered them, “My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.”<sup>87</sup> If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself.<sup>88</sup> He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.<sup>89</sup> Didn’t Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?”<sup>652</sup>

<sup>71</sup> Jesus answered them, “I did one work and you all marvel because of it.

<sup>72</sup> Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy.<sup>73</sup> If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath?”<sup>74</sup> Don’t judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment.”

<sup>75</sup> Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, “Isn’t this he whom they seek to kill?”<sup>76</sup> Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Christ?

<sup>646</sup> The concepts of life and death here are to be taken spiritually, and not physically.

<sup>647</sup> Again, the eating of Jesus’ flesh and drinking of his blood is meant in a metaphorical sense. It means to become absolutely and totally one in heart, mind, spirit and body with Jesus.

<sup>649</sup> Jesus explains that he is speaking of the life and death of the spirit, not the body.

<sup>652</sup> Jesus is angry that the Jews want to kill him.

<sup>727</sup> However we know where this man comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from."

<sup>728</sup> Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know.<sup>729</sup> I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

<sup>730</sup> They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>731</sup> But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?"<sup>732</sup> The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

<sup>733</sup> Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me.<sup>734</sup> You will seek me, and won't find me. You can't come where I am."

<sup>735</sup> The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?<sup>736</sup> What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me;' and 'Where I am, you can't come'?"

<sup>737</sup> Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink!"<sup>738</sup> He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water."<sup>739</sup> But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified.

<sup>740</sup> Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet."

<sup>741</sup> Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee?<sup>742</sup> Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ comes of the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"<sup>743</sup> So a division arose in the multitude because of him.<sup>744</sup> Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him.<sup>745</sup> The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

<sup>750</sup> Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them,<sup>751</sup> "Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

<sup>752</sup> They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee."<sup>753</sup> Everyone went to his own house,

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.<sup>82</sup> Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down and taught them.<sup>83</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the middle,<sup>84</sup> they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act.<sup>85</sup> Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. What then do you say about her?"<sup>86</sup> They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger.<sup>87</sup> But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her."<sup>88</sup> Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger.

<sup>89</sup> They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle.<sup>90</sup> Jesus, standing up, saw her and said, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?"

<sup>91</sup> She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."

<sup>92</sup> Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

<sup>93</sup> The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

<sup>94</sup> Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going."

<sup>95</sup> You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one.

<sup>96</sup> Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me.

<sup>97</sup> It's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid.

<sup>98</sup> I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

<sup>99</sup> They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."<sup>100</sup> Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.<sup>101</sup> Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come."

<sup>102</sup> The Jews therefore said, "Will he kill himself, because he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come'?"

<sup>653</sup> This shows that most of the leaders of Israel were not accepting Jesus, but only the common people.

<sup>823</sup> He said to them, “You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world.”<sup>654</sup>

<sup>824</sup> I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins.”

<sup>825</sup> They said therefore to him, “Who are you?” Jesus said to them, “Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning.”<sup>826</sup> I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world.”

<sup>827</sup> They didn’t understand that he spoke to them about the Father.<sup>828</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things.”

<sup>829</sup> He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn’t left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him.”

<sup>831</sup> Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him,<sup>655</sup>

“If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples.”<sup>832</sup> You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.”

<sup>833</sup> They answered him, “We are Abraham’s offspring, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, ‘You will be made free?’”

<sup>834</sup> Jesus answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin.”

<sup>835</sup> A bondservant doesn’t live in the house forever. A son remains forever.<sup>836</sup> If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.”<sup>837</sup> I know that you are Abraham’s offspring, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you.<sup>656</sup>

<sup>838</sup> I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you do the things which you have seen with your father.”<sup>657</sup>

<sup>839</sup> They answered him, “Our father is Abraham.” Jesus said to them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham.”

<sup>840</sup> But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. Abraham didn’t do this.”<sup>658</sup>

<sup>841</sup> You do the works of your father.” They said to him, “We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God.”<sup>659</sup>

<sup>842</sup> Therefore Jesus said to them, “If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven’t come of myself, but he sent me.”<sup>843</sup> Why don’t you understand my speech? Because you can’t hear my word.<sup>660</sup>

<sup>844</sup> You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn’t stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and the father of lies.<sup>661</sup>

<sup>845</sup> But because I tell the truth, you don’t believe me.

<sup>846</sup> Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?<sup>847</sup> He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don’t hear, because you are not of God.”

<sup>848</sup> Then the Jews answered him, “Don’t we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?”

<sup>849</sup> Jesus answered, “I don’t have a demon, but I honor my Father and you dishonor me.”<sup>850</sup> But I don’t seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges.

<sup>851</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death.”<sup>662</sup>

<sup>852</sup> Then the Jews said to him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, as did the prophets; and you say, ‘If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.’<sup>853</sup> Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?”

<sup>854</sup> Jesus answered, “If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God.”<sup>855</sup> You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, ‘I don’t know him,’ I would be like you, a liar. But I know him and keep his word.”

<sup>856</sup> Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad.”

<sup>857</sup> The Jews therefore said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old! Have you seen Abraham?”

<sup>858</sup> Jesus said to them, “Most certainly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I am.”<sup>663</sup>

<sup>859</sup> Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but Jesus was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through the middle of them, and so passed by.

<sup>654</sup> Jesus is God’s son, born sinless, and not of the fallen lineage of Adam and Eve.

<sup>655</sup> Jesus is speaking to Jews who had previously been his followers and believers.

<sup>656</sup> Thus, it is not of God that they seek to kill him. It is of Satan.

<sup>657</sup> Lucifer, or Satan, is the father of fallen humanity because the fall was sexual and the effects passed down through the generations to all the descendants of Adam and Eve in the form of original sin and fallen natures. The Divine Principle explains these things clearly (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 2, Section 4.1).

<sup>658</sup> They are not even worthy to be considered the children of Abraham because Abraham loved and obeyed God and would not seek to kill Jesus (see Matt 4:17; 6:10; 21:35–37; 23:37; Luke 19:41–44; John 6:28,29).

<sup>659</sup> Jesus is saying that wanting to kill him is the work of Satan (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>660</sup> The reason they are against Jesus is because they cannot hear or understand Jesus’ words. It is clearly not the will of God that they seek to kill Jesus.

<sup>662</sup> Jesus is speaking of spiritual death, but they do not understand.

<sup>663</sup> Jesus comes as the new Adam (1 Cor 15:45) and thus, all who come unto him in faith are reborn to become the adopted spiritual children of Jesus and the Holy Spirit. Thus, Jesus is the spiritual parent of even Abraham, in faith.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>92</sup> His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"
<sup>93</sup> Jesus answered, "This man didn't sin, nor did his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him."<sup>94</sup> I must work the works of him who sent me while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work.<sup>95</sup> While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."<sup>96</sup> When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud,<sup>97</sup> and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing.<sup>98</sup> The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind before, said, "Isn't this he who sat and begged?"
<sup>99</sup> Others were saying, "It is he." Still others were saying, "He looks like him." He said, "I am he."<sup>100</sup> They therefore were asking him, "How were your eyes opened?"
<sup>101</sup> He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.' So I went away and washed, and I received sight."
<sup>102</sup> Then they asked him, "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know."
<sup>103</sup> They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees.<sup>104</sup> It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.<sup>105</sup> Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."
<sup>106</sup> Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" So there was division among them.
<sup>107</sup> Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."
<sup>108</sup> The Jews therefore didn't believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight,<sup>109</sup> and asked them, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"
<sup>110</sup> His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind,"<sup>111</sup> but how he now sees, we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself."<sup>112</sup> His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue.<sup>113</sup> Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."
<sup>114</sup> So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."
<sup>115</sup> He therefore answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."
<sup>116</sup> They said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

<sup>927</sup> He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't also want to become his disciples, do you?"
<sup>928</sup> They insulted him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses."<sup>929</sup> We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."
<sup>930</sup> The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes."<sup>931</sup> We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does his will, he listens to him.<sup>932</sup> Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind.<sup>933</sup> If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."
<sup>934</sup> They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" Then they threw him out.
<sup>935</sup> Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"
<sup>936</sup> He answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?"
<sup>937</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you."
<sup>938</sup> He said, "Lord, I believe!" and he worshiped him.
<sup>939</sup> Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."
<sup>940</sup> Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?"
<sup>941</sup> Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> "Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, is a thief and a robber.<sup>102</sup> But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
<sup>106</sup> Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.
<sup>107</sup> Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door.<sup>108</sup> All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them.<sup>109</sup> I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture.<sup>110</sup> The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.<sup>111</sup> I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.<sup>112</sup> He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them.<sup>113</sup> The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep.

1014 I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own;<sup>1015</sup> even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep.

1016 I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd.<sup>664</sup>

1017 Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.<sup>1018</sup> No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself.<sup>665</sup>

I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father."

1019 Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words.<sup>1020</sup> Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?"<sup>1021</sup> Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"

1022 It was the Feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem.

1023 It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch.<sup>1024</sup> The Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

1025 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me.<sup>1026</sup> But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you."<sup>666</sup>

1027 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.<sup>1028</sup> I give eternal life to them. They will never perish,<sup>667</sup> and no one will snatch them out of my hand.<sup>1029</sup> My Father who has given them to me is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand.<sup>1030</sup> I and the Father are one."<sup>668</sup>

1031 Therefore the Jews took up stones again to stone him.<sup>1032</sup> Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

1033 The Jews answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

1034 Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'?"<sup>669</sup>

1035 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can't be broken),<sup>1036</sup> do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God?'<sup>1037</sup> If I don't do the works of my Father, don't believe me.<sup>1038</sup> But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works, that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father."<sup>670</sup>

1039 They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand.

1040 He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and he stayed there.

1041 Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true."<sup>1042</sup> Many believed in him there.

CHAPTER 11

111 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus<sup>671</sup> from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha.

112 It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick.<sup>113</sup> The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom you have great affection is sick."<sup>114</sup> But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it."

115 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.<sup>116</sup> When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was.

117 Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go into Judea again."

118 The disciples asked him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you. Are you going there again?"

119 Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world."

1110 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him."<sup>1111</sup> He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."

1112 The disciples therefore said, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

1113 Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep.

1114 So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus is dead."

1115 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him."

1116 Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go also, that we may die with him."

1117 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already.<sup>1118</sup> Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia away.<sup>1119</sup> Many <sup>664</sup> Jesus came to be the savior of all people, not only the Jews.

<sup>665</sup> When it became clear that the Jewish leaders were not going to receive him and believe in him (which would have led to the fulfillment of Isaiah 9, 11 and Luke 1:32–33) Jesus then committed himself to be the ransom for our sins (in fulfillment of Isaiah 53) by offering his life on the cross.

<sup>666</sup> This is not God's desire for them. They chose not to believe in Jesus of their own free will.

<sup>668</sup> Jesus is not saying that he is God. They are "one" in heart, spirit and mind and God's spirit is indwelling in Jesus as he is resonant with his Father in Heaven.

<sup>669</sup> Ps 82:6

of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. <sup>1120</sup> Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. <sup>1121</sup> Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died." <sup>1122</sup> Even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." <sup>1123</sup> Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

<sup>1124</sup> Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

<sup>1125</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. <sup>1126</sup> Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" <sup>672</sup>

<sup>1127</sup> She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God's Son, he who comes into the world."

<sup>1128</sup> When she had said this, she went away and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here and is calling you."

<sup>1129</sup> When she heard this, she arose quickly and went to him. <sup>1130</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him.

<sup>1131</sup> Then the Jews who were with her in the house and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." <sup>1132</sup> Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died."

<sup>1133</sup> When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, <sup>1134</sup> and said, "Where have you laid him?" They told him, "Lord, come and see."

<sup>1136</sup> The Jews therefore said, "See how much affection he had for him!" <sup>1137</sup> Some of them said, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?"

<sup>1138</sup> Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>1139</sup> Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

<sup>1140</sup> Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?"

<sup>1141</sup> So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you listened to me. <sup>1142</sup> I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude standing around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me." <sup>1143</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

<sup>1144</sup> He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Free him, and let him go." <sup>673</sup>

<sup>1145</sup> Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did believed in him. <sup>1146</sup> But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things which Jesus had done. <sup>1147</sup> The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? For this man does many signs. <sup>1148</sup> If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

<sup>1149</sup> But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, <sup>1150</sup> nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish." <sup>1151</sup> Now he didn't say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, <sup>1152</sup> and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. <sup>1153</sup> So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put him to death. <sup>1154</sup> Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>1155</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>1156</sup> Then they sought for Jesus and spoke with one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that he isn't coming to the feast at all?" <sup>1157</sup> Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>121</sup> Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. <sup>122</sup> So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. <sup>123</sup> Therefore Mary took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed Jesus's feet and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. <sup>124</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, <sup>125</sup> "Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?" <sup>126</sup> Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. <sup>127</sup> But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial." <sup>128</sup> For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me."

<sup>672</sup> This shows that the eternal life of which Jesus often spoke refers to eternal spiritual life, and not eternal physical life (Luke 9:60; Rev 3:1).

<sup>12</sup><sup>9</sup> A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.<sup>12</sup><sup>10</sup> But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also,<sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup><sup>12</sup> On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,<sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup> they took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"<sup>12</sup><sup>14</sup> Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written,<sup>674</sup>

<sup>12</sup><sup>19</sup> The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him."

<sup>12</sup><sup>23</sup> Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.<sup>12</sup><sup>24</sup> Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.

<sup>12</sup><sup>25</sup> He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life.

<sup>12</sup><sup>26</sup> If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there my servant will also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>12</sup><sup>27</sup> "Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'Father, save me from this time?' But I came to this time for this cause."<sup>675</sup>

<sup>12</sup><sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name!" Then a voice came out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

<sup>12</sup><sup>29</sup> Therefore the multitude who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out.<sup>12</sup><sup>32</sup> And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself."<sup>12</sup><sup>33</sup> But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die.<sup>12</sup><sup>34</sup> The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever. How do you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up?' Who is this Son of Man?"

<sup>12</sup><sup>35</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going."

<sup>12</sup><sup>36</sup> While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light." Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them.<sup>12</sup><sup>37</sup> But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him,<sup>12</sup><sup>38</sup> that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled,<sup>676</sup>

which he spoke, "Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

<sup>12</sup><sup>39</sup> For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah said again,<sup>12</sup><sup>40</sup> "He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them."

<sup>12</sup><sup>43</sup> for they loved men's praise more than God's praise.<sup>12</sup><sup>44</sup> Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me.<sup>12</sup><sup>45</sup> He who sees me sees him who sent me.<sup>678</sup>

<sup>12</sup><sup>46</sup> I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.<sup>12</sup><sup>47</sup> If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.<sup>12</sup><sup>48</sup> He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke will judge him in the last day.<sup>12</sup><sup>49</sup> For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

<sup>12</sup><sup>50</sup> I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak."

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup><sup>1</sup> Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

<sup>675</sup> Jesus was troubled because he came to establish the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, but due to the disbelief of John and the Jewish leadership, he must fulfill the prophecy of Isaiah 53 and become a ransom for our sins through his offering on the cross.

<sup>677</sup> Some Jewish leaders did believe in Jesus, but were afraid to do so publicly.

<sup>678</sup> Jesus is not saying that he is God. They are "one" in heart, spirit and mind and God's spirit is indwelling in Jesus as he is resonant with his Father in Heaven.

<sup>132</sup> During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,<sup>679</sup>

<sup>133</sup> Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came from God, and was going to God,<sup>134</sup> arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel and wrapped a towel around his waist.<sup>135</sup> Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.<sup>136</sup> Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

<sup>137</sup> Jesus answered him, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

<sup>138</sup> Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

<sup>139</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

<sup>1310</sup> Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you."<sup>1311</sup> For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, "You are not all clean."<sup>1312</sup> So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?

<sup>1313</sup> You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' You say so correctly, for so I am.<sup>1314</sup> If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.<sup>1315</sup> For I have given you an example, that you should also do as I have done to you.<sup>1316</sup> Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither is one who is sent greater than he who sent him.<sup>1317</sup> If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.<sup>1318</sup> I don't speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.'<sup>680</sup>

<sup>1319</sup> From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am he.

<sup>1320</sup> Most certainly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me."

<sup>1321</sup> When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me."<sup>681</sup>

<sup>1325</sup> He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast, asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

<sup>1326</sup> Jesus therefore answered, "It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.<sup>1327</sup> After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

<sup>1328</sup> Now nobody at the table knew why he said this to him.<sup>1329</sup> For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

<sup>1330</sup> Therefore having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.

<sup>1331</sup> When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.<sup>1332</sup> If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately.<sup>1333</sup> Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you can't come,' so now I tell you.<sup>1334</sup> A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another.<sup>1335</sup> By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

<sup>1336</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you can't follow now, but you will follow afterwards."

<sup>1337</sup> Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

<sup>1338</sup> Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won't crow until you have denied me three times.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>141</sup> "Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me.<sup>142</sup> In my Father's house are many homes. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.<sup>143</sup> If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also.

<sup>144</sup> You know where I go, and you know the way."

<sup>145</sup> Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

<sup>146</sup> Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me.

<sup>147</sup> If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him."

<sup>148</sup> Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."

<sup>149</sup> Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?'<sup>682</sup>

<sup>681</sup> Speaking of this betrayal was deeply troubling to Jesus, not because he was afraid to die, but because it was not his original purpose or mission—establishing the Kingdom of Heaven on earth—which was dear to Jesus' heart (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>682</sup> Even the chief apostles did not seem to know Jesus deeply or profoundly.

14:10 Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me?<sup>683</sup>

The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his works.<sup>14:11</sup> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake.<sup>14:12</sup> Most certainly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Father.<sup>14:13</sup> Whatever you will ask in my name, I will do it, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14:14 If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it.

14:15 If you love me, keep my commandments.

14:16 I will pray to the Father,<sup>684</sup> and he will give you another Counselor, that he may be with you forever.<sup>14:17</sup> the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see him and doesn't know him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you.<sup>14:18</sup> I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you.<sup>14:19</sup> Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also.<sup>14:20</sup> In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.<sup>685</sup>

14:21 One who has my commandments and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

14:22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

14:23 Jesus answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him.

14:24 He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who sent me.<sup>14:25</sup> I have said these things to you while still living with you.<sup>14:26</sup> But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you.<sup>14:27</sup> Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, I give to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.<sup>686</sup>

14:28 You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced because I said 'I am going to my Father, for the Father is greater than I.'<sup>687</sup>

14:29 Now I have told you before it happens so that when it happens, you may believe.<sup>14:30</sup> I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes,<sup>688</sup> and he has nothing in me.<sup>14:31</sup> But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let's go from here.

CHAPTER 15

15:1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer.

15:2 Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.<sup>15:3</sup> You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

15:4 Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me.<sup>15:5</sup> I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me and I in him bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.<sup>689</sup>

15:6 If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned.<sup>15:7</sup> If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

15:8 "In this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples.<sup>15:9</sup> Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love.<sup>15:10</sup> If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love.<sup>15:11</sup> I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.

15:12 "This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you.<sup>15:13</sup> Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.<sup>15:14</sup> You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you.<sup>15:15</sup> No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you.

15:16 You didn't choose me, but I chose you and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.<sup>15:17</sup> I command these things to you, that you may love one another.<sup>15:18</sup> If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you.<sup>15:19</sup> If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not <sup>683</sup> This means that the heart, mind and spirit of Jesus and the Father are resonant and totally united and one. Thus, Jesus' thoughts and feelings are felt by the Father, and the feelings and thoughts of the Father are felt by Jesus.

<sup>684</sup> While the Father and Jesus are one and resonant in heart, mind and spirit, they are also distinct entities. Here Jesus prays to the Father (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>685</sup> Jesus desires the same oneness with each of us that he enjoys with the Father.

<sup>686</sup> Jesus told his disciples not to be afraid. It would be a mistake to think that Jesus, himself, was afraid to die for our sins.

<sup>687</sup> This verse also shows that there is a clear distinction between Jesus and God the Creator (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:19, 26, 30; 17:21-23; 1 Cor 15:27, 28; Heb 5:7-9; 1 Tim 2:5).

<sup>688</sup> His is referring to Satan (see Matt 9:34; John 12:31; John 16:11; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 2:2; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>689</sup> A similar metaphor to the use of "tree of life" and "tree of the knowledge of good and evil" in the garden of Eden to refer to Adam and Eve (see Gen 2:9; Prov 11:30; 13:12; Matt 3:10; 12:33; Rom 11:17-18; Jude 12).

of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.<sup>690</sup>

<sup>15</sup>20 Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his lord.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours.<sup>15</sup>21 But they will do all these things to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me.<sup>15</sup>22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

15*23 He who hates me, hates my Father also.<sup>691</sup>

15*24 If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now they have seen and also hated both me and my Father.<sup>692</sup>

<sup>15</sup>25 But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law,<sup>693</sup>

'They hated me without a cause.'

<sup>15</sup>26 "When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me.

<sup>15</sup>27 You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16

16*1 I have said these things to you so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble.<sup>16</sup>2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God.<sup>16</sup>3 They will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me.<sup>16</sup>4 But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.<sup>16</sup>5 But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?'<sup>16</sup>6 But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart.

16*7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you.<sup>694</sup>

16*8 When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment;<sup>16</sup>9 about sin, because they don't believe in me;<sup>16</sup>10 about righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you won't see me any more;<sup>16</sup>11 about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

16*12 "I still have many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now.<sup>16</sup>13 However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming.<sup>16</sup>14 He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you.<sup>16</sup>15 All things that the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes of mine and will declare it to you.<sup>16</sup>16 A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."

16*17 Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father'?"

16*18 They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while'? We don't know what he is saying."

16*19 Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?'<sup>16</sup>20 Most certainly I tell you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

16*21 A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world.<sup>16</sup>22 Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

16*23 "In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.<sup>16</sup>24 Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full.<sup>16</sup>25 I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father.<sup>16</sup>26 In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you that I will pray to the Father for you,<sup>16</sup>27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came from God.<sup>695</sup>

16*28 I came from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father."

16*29 His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you are speaking plainly, and using no figures of speech.

16*30 Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came from God."

16*31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?

16*32 Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.<sup>16</sup>33 I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the

<sup>690</sup> When Jesus said "My kingdom is not of this world," (John 18:36) he was speaking of the fallen human society and did not mean "this earth," as we can see here.

<sup>691</sup> It is, and was, a sin to hate Jesus.

<sup>692</sup> Jesus is saying that rejecting him is also rejecting God the Father. This cannot be God's will (see John 16:2-3 and Topical Index #25).

<sup>694</sup> Had Jesus been embraced and lifted up by the leaders of Israel and established the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, as was his original purpose, then he would not have to send the Counselor (other translations read "Comforter" or "Holy Spirit") to sinful man.

<sup>695</sup> This demonstrates man's portion of responsibility before God, rather than God's predestined will (see Topical Index #38).

world you have trouble; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."

CHAPTER 17

<sup>17</sup>1 Jesus said these things, then lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; <sup>17</sup>2 even as you gave him authority over all flesh, so he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. <sup>17</sup>3 This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ.<sup>696</sup>

<sup>17</sup>4 I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do.<sup>697</sup>

<sup>17</sup>5 Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed.<sup>698</sup>

<sup>17</sup>6 I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word.

<sup>17</sup>7 Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you,<sup>17</sup>8 for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came from you. They have believed that you sent me.

<sup>17</sup>9 I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.

<sup>17</sup>10 All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>17</sup>11 I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are.<sup>699</sup>

<sup>17</sup>12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. I have kept those whom you have given me. None of them is lost except the son of perdition,<sup>700</sup>

that the Scripture might be fulfilled.<sup>701</sup>

<sup>17</sup>13 But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves.

<sup>17</sup>14 I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup>15 I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. <sup>17</sup>16 They are not of the world even as I am not of the world.<sup>702</sup>

<sup>697</sup> Tradition has interpreted this statement to mean that Jesus did everything God had originally wanted and planned for him to do. However, Divine Principle explains that this cannot be correct in the context of Isaiah 9 and 11, Luke 1:32–33, and other passages which point to the coming of the literal Kingdom of Heaven on earth to be brought by Jesus. It clarifies that this was expected to happen 2000 years ago, not in a rejection and second-coming scenario. Thus, Jesus did finish all that the Father gave him to do given the rejection of the Jewish leadership. Therefore he must return to finish the uncompleted work (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 4, Section 1).

<sup>699</sup> Jesus explains in what sense he and the Father are "one". It is a total resonant unity of heart, mind and spirit (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>17</sup>17 Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth. <sup>17</sup>18 As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world.

<sup>17</sup>19 For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

<sup>17</sup>20 Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who will believe in me through their word,<sup>17</sup>21 that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us;<sup>703</sup>

that the world may believe that you sent me.<sup>17</sup>22 The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one;<sup>17</sup>23 I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me and loved them, even as you loved me.<sup>704</sup>

<sup>17</sup>24 Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world.<sup>705</sup>

<sup>17</sup>25 Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me.

<sup>17</sup>26 I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

CHAPTER 18

<sup>18</sup>1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered.

<sup>18</sup>2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples.

<sup>18</sup>3 Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

<sup>18</sup>4 Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went out, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

<sup>18</sup>5 They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them.<sup>18</sup>6 When therefore he said to them, "I am he," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

<sup>18</sup>7 Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>18</sup>8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way,"

<sup>702</sup> When Jesus said "My kingdom is not of this world" (John 18:36) he was speaking of the fallen human society and did not mean "this earth," as we can see here.

<sup>703</sup> Another explanation of the sense in which he and the Father are "one". This verse also shows that there is a clear distinction between Jesus and God the Creator (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:19, 26, 30; 14:28; 1 Cor 15:27–28; Heb 5:7–9; 1 Tim 2:5; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>704</sup> These passages tell us that God seeks that all Christians unite into one.

<sup>189</sup> that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, “Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none.” <sup>190</sup> Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, struck the high priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant’s name was Malchus. <sup>191</sup> Jesus therefore said to Peter, “Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?”

<sup>192</sup> So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and bound him, <sup>193</sup> and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>194</sup> Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. <sup>195</sup> Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; <sup>196</sup> but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>197</sup> Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, “Are you also one of this man’s disciples?” He said, “I am not.”

<sup>198</sup> Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. <sup>199</sup> The high priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. <sup>200</sup> Jesus answered him, “I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret. <sup>201</sup> Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, they know the things which I said.”

<sup>202</sup> When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, “Do you answer the high priest like that?”

<sup>203</sup> Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?”

<sup>204</sup> Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. <sup>205</sup> Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, “You aren’t also one of his disciples, are you?” He denied it and said, “I am not.”

<sup>206</sup> One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, “Didn’t I see you in the garden with him?”

<sup>207</sup> Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

<sup>208</sup> They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn’t enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. <sup>209</sup> Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, “What accusation do you bring against this man?”

<sup>210</sup> They answered him, “If this man weren’t an evildoer, we wouldn’t have delivered him up to you.”

<sup>1831</sup> Pilate therefore said to them, “Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law.” Therefore the Jews said to him, “It is illegal for us to put anyone to death,” <sup>1832</sup> that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

<sup>1833</sup> Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

<sup>1834</sup> Jesus answered him, “Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?”

<sup>1835</sup> Pilate answered, “I’m not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?”

<sup>1836</sup> Jesus answered, “My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn’t be delivered to the Jews. But now my Kingdom is not from here.” <sup>706</sup>

<sup>1837</sup> Pilate therefore said to him, “Are you a king then?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice.”

<sup>1838</sup> Pilate said to him, “What is truth?” When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, “I find no basis for a charge against him.” <sup>1839</sup> But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore, do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?”

<sup>1840</sup> Then they all shouted again, saying, “Not this man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>191</sup> So Pilate then took Jesus, and flogged him. <sup>192</sup> The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. <sup>193</sup> They kept saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and they kept slapping him.

<sup>194</sup> Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, “Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him.”

<sup>195</sup> Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, “Behold, the man!”

<sup>196</sup> When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify!” Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him.”

<sup>197</sup> The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.”

<sup>198</sup> When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. <sup>199</sup> He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>200</sup> Pilate therefore said to him, “Aren’t you speaking to me? Don’t you know that I

<sup>706</sup> Jesus is making a practical explanation: there is no Kingdom of Heaven on earth yet (“now”). Therefore, he is defenseless. The only kingdom that exists is the spiritual kingdom of the Father (see Topical Index #25).

have power to release you and have power to crucify you?"

<sup>19</sup><sup>11</sup> Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

<sup>19</sup><sup>12</sup> At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

<sup>19</sup><sup>13</sup> When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement", but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha."<sup>19</sup><sup>14</sup> Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"

<sup>19</sup><sup>15</sup> They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

<sup>19</sup><sup>16</sup> So then he delivered him to them to be crucified.<sup>707</sup>

So they took Jesus and led him away.<sup>19</sup><sup>17</sup> He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The Place of a Skull", which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha",<sup>19</sup><sup>18</sup> where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle.<sup>19</sup><sup>19</sup> Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS."<sup>19</sup><sup>20</sup> Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.<sup>19</sup><sup>21</sup> The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'he said, 'I am King of the Jews.'"

<sup>19</sup><sup>23</sup> Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

<sup>19</sup><sup>24</sup> Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them. For my cloak they cast lots."<sup>708</sup>

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

<sup>19</sup><sup>28</sup> After this, Jesus, seeing that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty."<sup>19</sup><sup>29</sup> Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth.<sup>19</sup><sup>30</sup> When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished."<sup>709</sup>

Then he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

<sup>19</sup><sup>31</sup> Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

<sup>19</sup><sup>32</sup> Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him,<sup>19</sup><sup>33</sup> but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs.

<sup>19</sup><sup>38</sup> After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus' body.

Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body.<sup>19</sup><sup>39</sup> Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds.

<sup>19</sup><sup>40</sup> So they took Jesus' body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.<sup>19</sup><sup>41</sup> Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid.<sup>19</sup><sup>42</sup> Then because of the Jews' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

CHAPTER 20

<sup>20</sup><sup>1</sup> Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb.<sup>20</sup><sup>2</sup> Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"

<sup>707</sup> Crucifixion was a common but most horrible form of capital punishment for crimes among heathen peoples; a method of punishment not prescribed by Jewish law.

<sup>709</sup> This statement has been wrongly interpreted to mean that Jesus "finished" everything he came to do. This is presumptuous and incorrect. If it were the correct understanding, he would not have to return.

Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying,<sup>207</sup> and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself.<sup>208</sup> So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed.<sup>209</sup> For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead.<sup>210</sup> So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

<sup>2011</sup> But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb,<sup>2012</sup> and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.<sup>2013</sup> They asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him."

<sup>2014</sup> When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus.<sup>712</sup>

<sup>2015</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

<sup>2016</sup> Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him, "Rabboni!" which is to say, "Teacher!"

<sup>2017</sup> Jesus said to her, "Don't hold me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

<sup>2018</sup> Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her.<sup>2019</sup> When therefore it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle,<sup>713</sup>

and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>2020</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord.<sup>2021</sup> Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you."<sup>2022</sup> When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit!<sup>2023</sup> If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained."

<sup>2024</sup> But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came.<sup>2025</sup> The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

<sup>2026</sup> After eight days again his disciples were inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said, "Peace be to you."<sup>2027</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."<sup>714</sup>

<sup>2028</sup> Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>2029</sup> Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."

<sup>2030</sup> Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book;<sup>2031</sup> but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>211</sup> After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way.<sup>212</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together.

They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing.<sup>214</sup> But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus.

<sup>215</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered him, "No."

<sup>216</sup> He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish.<sup>217</sup> That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!"

So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around himself (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea.<sup>218</sup> But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish.<sup>219</sup> So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, with fish and bread laid on it.<sup>2110</sup> Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

<sup>2111</sup> Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of one hundred fifty-three great fish. Even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.

<sup>2112</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast!"

<sup>712</sup> Again, Jesus' appearance was different than when he was physically with his disciples, showing that he had appeared to Mary in the spirit.

<sup>713</sup> The doors of the room were shut (locked) for fear of the Jews, and Jesus appeared in their midst. This was a spiritual appearance.

<sup>714</sup> A spiritual body can be a very tangible and substantial experience even to physical people. Angels ate a meal at Lot's house, had sex with women, and an angel fought with Jacob and dislocated his thigh bone (see Gen 6:4; 19:3; 32:25).

None of the disciples dared inquire of him,
“Who are you?” knowing that it was the

2113 Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. 2114 This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples<sup>716</sup>

after he had risen from the dead. 2115 So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.” 2116 He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.” 2117 He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?”

Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, “Do you have affection for me?” He said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. 2118 Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you don’t want to go.”

2119 Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.”

2120 Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus’ breast at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”

2121 Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, “Lord, what about this man?”

2122 Jesus said to him, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me.” 2123 This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this disciple wouldn’t die. Yet Jesus didn’t say to him that he wouldn’t die, but, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?” 2124 This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. 2125 There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn’t have room for the books that would be written.

<sup>715</sup> Throughout this story, Jesus’ had an appearance that was not the same as his earthly one. He appeared to them again, for the third time, in spirit.

<sup>716</sup> “was revealed” means he appeared in spirit.

ACTS

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Brief background summary

Dating:

Most scholars believe that the book of Acts was written around 50–70 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 80–100 AD).

Authorship:

The author is unknown, but is believed to be the same as the author of the gospel of Luke. Early historians thought the author may have been a friend of Paul, but modern scholars do not think so.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach,<sup>12</sup> until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.<sup>13</sup> To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days,<sup>717</sup> and speaking about God's Kingdom.

<sup>14</sup> Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me."

<sup>15</sup> For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

<sup>16</sup> Therefore when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"<sup>718</sup>

<sup>17</sup> He said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority.<sup>18</sup> But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

<sup>19</sup> When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.<sup>110</sup> While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing,<sup>111</sup> who said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into heaven, will come back in the same way as you saw him going into heaven."<sup>719</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.<sup>13</sup> When they had come in, they went up into the upper room where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.<sup>14</sup> All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In these days, Peter stood up in the middle of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said,<sup>16</sup> "Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus.<sup>17</sup> For he was counted with us, and received his portion in this ministry.<sup>18</sup> Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out.<sup>19</sup> It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called 'Akeldama,' that is, 'The field of blood.'<sup>20</sup> For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his habitation be made desolate. Let no one dwell in it;' and, 'Let another take his office.'<sup>720</sup>

<sup>21</sup> Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,<sup>122</sup> beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection."

<sup>23</sup> They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias.<sup>124</sup> They prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen that he might go to his own place."<sup>126</sup> They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place.<sup>22</sup> Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.<sup>23</sup> Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them.

<sup>24</sup> They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.<sup>25</sup> Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky.<sup>26</sup> When this sound was heard, the multitude came together and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language.

<sup>214</sup> But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and spoke out to them, "You men of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words.<sup>215</sup> For these aren't

<sup>718</sup> It was the apostles' understanding that Jesus had sought to establish the literal kingdom of God on earth, and that he would return to accomplish that unfinished task.

<sup>719</sup> An ambiguous statement, but the angels are telling the disciples that they should not look into the sky to see the return of Jesus

(Rev 12:5). Jesus came and went as a real human being, born of a woman. He will return in like manner.

<sup>721</sup> Judas was considered by the apostles to be a great sinner for his betrayal of Jesus (see Topical Index #25).

drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day.<sup>216</sup> But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel:<sup>722</sup>

<sup>217</sup> ‘It will be in the last days, says God, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your young men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>218</sup> Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days, I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

<sup>219</sup> I will show wonders in the sky above, and signs on the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.

<sup>220</sup> The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

<sup>221</sup> It will be that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.’

<sup>222</sup> “Men of Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by him among you, even as you yourselves know,<sup>223</sup> him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of wicked men, crucified and killed:<sup>723</sup>

<sup>224</sup> whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it.<sup>225</sup> For David says concerning him,<sup>724</sup> ‘I saw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

<sup>226</sup> Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;

<sup>227</sup> because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.

<sup>228</sup> You made known to me the ways of life. You will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

<sup>229</sup> “Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.<sup>230</sup> Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,

<sup>231</sup> he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that his soul wasn’t left in Hades, and his flesh didn’t see decay.<sup>232</sup> This Jesus God raised up, to which we all are witnesses.<sup>233</sup> Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this, which you now see and hear.<sup>234</sup> For David didn’t ascend into the heavens, but he says himself,

‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit by my right hand
<sup>235</sup> until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.”’

<sup>236</sup> “Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

<sup>237</sup> Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

<sup>238</sup> Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.<sup>239</sup> For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Lord our God will call to himself.”<sup>240</sup> With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation!”

<sup>241</sup> Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls.<sup>242</sup> They continued steadfastly in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer.<sup>243</sup> Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.<sup>244</sup> All who believed were together, and had all things in common.<sup>245</sup> They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need.

<sup>246</sup> Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart,<sup>247</sup> praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.<sup>32</sup> A certain man who was lame from his mother’s womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple.<sup>33</sup> Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy.<sup>34</sup> Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, “Look at us.”<sup>35</sup> He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them.<sup>36</sup> But Peter said, “I have no silver or gold, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!”<sup>37</sup> He took him by the right hand and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength.<sup>38</sup> Leaping up, he stood and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God.

<sup>310</sup> They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.<sup>311</sup> As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon’s, greatly wondering.

<sup>312</sup> When Peter saw it, he responded to the people, “You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk?

<sup>313</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him.<sup>314</sup> But you denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you,<sup>315</sup> and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses.<sup>316</sup> By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

<sup>317</sup> Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers.<sup>318</sup> But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

<sup>319</sup> Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord,<sup>320</sup> and that he may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you before,<sup>321</sup> whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of his holy prophets.<sup>322</sup> For Moses indeed said to the fathers, ‘The Lord God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you.’<sup>725</sup>

<sup>323</sup> It will be that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.<sup>324</sup> Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days.<sup>325</sup> You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘All the families of the earth will be blessed through your offspring.’<sup>326</sup> God, having raised up his servant Jesus, sent him to you first to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your wickedness.”

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them,<sup>42</sup> being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.<sup>43</sup> They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening.<sup>44</sup> But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

<sup>45</sup> In the morning, their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem.<sup>46</sup> Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest.<sup>47</sup> When they had stood Peter and John in the middle of them, they inquired, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

<sup>48</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,<sup>49</sup> if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed,<sup>50</sup> may it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, this man stands here before you whole in him.<sup>51</sup> He is ‘the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.’<sup>52</sup> There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven that is given among men, by which we must be saved!”

<sup>53</sup> Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus.<sup>54</sup> Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.<sup>55</sup> But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,<sup>56</sup> saying, “What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can’t deny it.<sup>57</sup> But so that this spreads no further among the people, let’s threaten them, that from now on they don’t speak to anyone in this name.”<sup>58</sup> They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

<sup>59</sup> But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves,<sup>60</sup> for we can’t help telling the things which we saw and heard.”

<sup>61</sup> When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done.<sup>62</sup> For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.<sup>63</sup> Being let go, they came to their own company and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them.<sup>64</sup> When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, “O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them;<sup>65</sup> who by the mouth of your servant, David, said, ‘Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?’<sup>726</sup>

<sup>66</sup> The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take council together, against the Lord, and against his Christ.’

<sup>67</sup> “For truly, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed,<sup>68</sup> to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen.<sup>69</sup> Now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness,<sup>70</sup> while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus.”

<sup>71</sup> When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.<sup>72</sup> The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common.<sup>433</sup> With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all.<sup>434</sup> For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold,<sup>435</sup> and laid them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need.<sup>436</sup> Joses, who by the apostles was also called Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race,<sup>727</sup> <sup>437</sup> having a field, sold it and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

<sup>51</sup> But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira, his wife, sold a possession,<sup>52</sup> and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, then brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet.<sup>53</sup> But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the price of the land?<sup>54</sup> While you kept it, didn't it remain your own? After it was sold, wasn't it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You haven't lied to men, but to God."

<sup>55</sup> Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things.<sup>56</sup> The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him.<sup>57</sup> About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in.<sup>58</sup> Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." She said, "Yes, for so much."

<sup>59</sup> But Peter asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

<sup>511</sup> Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things.

<sup>512</sup> By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.<sup>513</sup> None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them.<sup>514</sup> More believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women.<sup>515</sup> They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them.<sup>516</sup> The multitude also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

<sup>517</sup> But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy<sup>518</sup> and laid hands on the apostles, then put them in public custody.<sup>519</sup> But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out and said,<sup>520</sup> "Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

<sup>521</sup> When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
<sup>522</sup> But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported,<sup>523</sup> "We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"

<sup>524</sup> Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this.<sup>525</sup> One came and told them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people."<sup>526</sup> Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

<sup>527</sup> When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them,
<sup>528</sup> saying, "Didn't we strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

<sup>529</sup> But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men.<sup>530</sup> The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree.<sup>531</sup> God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins.<sup>532</sup> We are his witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

<sup>533</sup> But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and were determined to kill them.<sup>534</sup> But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles out for a little while.

<sup>535</sup> He said to them, "You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do.

<sup>536</sup> For before these days Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves. He was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing.<sup>537</sup> After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad.
<sup>538</sup> Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown.<sup>539</sup> But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!"

<sup>727</sup> Barnabas introduced Paul to the apostles in Jerusalem and he was a cousin of John Mark (Acts 12:12, 25, 37–39; Col 4:10).

<sup>540</sup> They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.<sup>541</sup> They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus' name.

<sup>542</sup> Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service.<sup>62</sup> The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables.<sup>63</sup> Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.<sup>64</sup> But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

<sup>68</sup> Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people.<sup>69</sup> But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines", and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen.<sup>610</sup> They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.<sup>611</sup> Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."<sup>612</sup> They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, then brought him in to the council,<sup>613</sup> and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law."<sup>614</sup> For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us."<sup>615</sup> All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> The high priest said, "Are these things so?"

<sup>72</sup> He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,<sup>73</sup> and said to him, 'Get out of your land and away from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.'

<sup>74</sup> Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land, where you are now living.<sup>75</sup> He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him, when he still had no child.<sup>76</sup> God spoke in this way: that his offspring would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years.<sup>77</sup> 'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God, 'and after that they will come out, and serve me in this place.'<sup>78</sup> He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>79</sup> "The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt. God was with him,<sup>710</sup> and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house.<sup>711</sup> Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food.<sup>712</sup> But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time.<sup>713</sup> On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's race was revealed to Pharaoh.<sup>714</sup> Joseph sent and summoned Jacob, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls.<sup>715</sup> Jacob went down into Egypt and he died, himself and our fathers,<sup>716</sup> and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shechem.

<sup>717</sup> "But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,<sup>718</sup> until there arose a different king, who didn't know Joseph.<sup>719</sup> The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn't stay alive.<sup>720</sup> At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father's house.<sup>721</sup> When he was thrown out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up and reared him as her own son.<sup>722</sup> Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his words and works.<sup>723</sup> But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel.<sup>724</sup> Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian.<sup>725</sup> He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand.<sup>726</sup> "The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, <sup>728</sup> Philip was a spirit-filled follower who was known for doing exorcisms and healings (Acts 8:5–7).

'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?'<sup>727</sup> But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?'<sup>728</sup> Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'<sup>729</sup> Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

<sup>730</sup> "When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush."<sup>731</sup> When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of the Lord came to him,<sup>732</sup> 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' Moses trembled, and dared not look.<sup>733</sup> The Lord said to him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you stand is holy ground.'

<sup>734</sup> I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.'

<sup>735</sup> "This Moses, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'—God has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush."<sup>736</sup> This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>737</sup> This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, 'The Lord our God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.'<sup>738</sup> This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living revelations to give to us,<sup>739</sup> to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt,<sup>740</sup> saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.'

<sup>741</sup> They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands.<sup>742</sup> But God turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets, 'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?'<sup>740</sup>

<sup>743</sup> You took up the tabernacle of Moloch, the star of your god Rephan, the figures which you made to worship. I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'

<sup>744</sup> "Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen,"<sup>745</sup> which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David,<sup>746</sup> who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.<sup>747</sup> But Solomon built him a house.<sup>748</sup> However, the Most High doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says,

<sup>749</sup> 'heaven is my throne, and the earth a footstool for my feet. What kind of house will you build me?' says the Lord. 'Or what is the place of my rest?'<sup>750</sup>

<sup>750</sup> Didn't my hand make all these things?

751 "You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do."
752 Which of the prophets didn't your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers.<sup>732</sup>

753 You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!"

<sup>754</sup> Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.

<sup>755</sup> But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,<sup>756</sup> and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

<sup>758</sup> They threw him out of the city and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.<sup>733</sup>

<sup>759</sup> They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!"<sup>760</sup> He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them!" When he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles.<sup>82</sup> Devout men buried Stephen and lamented greatly over him.<sup>83</sup> But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house and dragged both men and women off to prison.<sup>84</sup> Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word.<sup>85</sup> Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ.<sup>86</sup> The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip when they heard and saw the signs which he did.<sup>87</sup> For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed.<sup>88</sup> There was great joy in that city.

<sup>733</sup> Saul of Tarsus (in now Southern Turkey) a Pharisee of the tribe of Benjamin (Phil 3:4–6; Acts 23:6)—an ardent persecutor and opponent of early Christians (Acts 8:1–3; Acts 9:1–2; Acts 22:4–5; 1 Tim 1:13)—converted and played a pivotal role in spreading the Gospel (Acts 9:15–16; Gal 2:7–8; 2 Tim 4:7–8).

<sup>89</sup> But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one,<sup>90</sup> to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that great power of God."<sup>91</sup> They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.<sup>92</sup> But when they believed Philip preaching the good news concerning God's Kingdom<sup>734</sup> and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.<sup>93</sup> Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed.

<sup>94</sup> Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them,<sup>95</sup> who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit;<sup>96</sup> for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of Christ Jesus.<sup>97</sup> Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.<sup>98</sup> Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,<sup>99</sup> saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit."<sup>100</sup> But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!<sup>101</sup> You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God.<sup>102</sup> Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.<sup>103</sup> For I see that you are in the poison of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

<sup>104</sup> Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

<sup>105</sup> They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans.<sup>106</sup> But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert."

<sup>107</sup> He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship.

<sup>108</sup> He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>109</sup> The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."

<sup>110</sup> Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

<sup>111</sup> He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip to come up and sit with him.<sup>112</sup> Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter. As a lamb before his shearer is silent, so he doesn't open his mouth."

<sup>113</sup> In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away. Who will declare His generation? For his life is taken from the earth."<sup>735</sup>

<sup>114</sup> The eunuch answered Philip, "Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?"

<sup>115</sup> Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him about Jesus.<sup>116</sup> As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?"

<sup>117</sup> (Philip said, 'If you believe with all your heart, you may.' The eunuch answered, 'I believe that Jesus Christ is the son of God.')<sup>118</sup> He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

<sup>119</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn't see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing.

<sup>120</sup> But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>121</sup> But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest<sup>92</sup> and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus,<sup>736</sup>

that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.<sup>93</sup> As he traveled, he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him.<sup>94</sup> He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

<sup>95</sup> He said, "Who are you, Lord?" The Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.<sup>96</sup> But rise up and enter into the city, then you will be told what you must do."

<sup>97</sup> The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one.<sup>737</sup>

<sup>98</sup> Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.<sup>99</sup> He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.<sup>100</sup> Now there was a certain disciple at <sup>734</sup> Either God's Kingdom (the Father), or the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, to be established at the Lord's return. The goal of God never changes: it remains the literal Kingdom of Heaven on earth with its complete physical and spiritual salvation.

<sup>736</sup> Capital of Syria 130 miles north of Jerusalem, near where Paul was converted by the resurrected Jesus.

<sup>737</sup> Saul was visited by Jesus and heard his voice, but Jesus was not seen by any in the group. This is further evidence that Jesus lives and appears in the spirit and not in the flesh.

Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision,<sup>738</sup>

"Ananias!" He said, "Behold, it's me, Lord."

911 The Lord said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying,<sup>912</sup> and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."

913 But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem.<sup>914</sup> Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

915 But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel.<sup>916</sup> For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake."

917 Ananias departed and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me that you may receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit."<sup>918</sup> Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized.

919 He took food and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus.

920 Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that he is the Son of God.<sup>921</sup> All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"

922 But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.<sup>923</sup> When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him,<sup>924</sup> but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him,<sup>925</sup> but his disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

926 When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.<sup>927</sup> But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the way,<sup>739</sup> and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.<sup>928</sup> He was with them entering into Jerusalem,<sup>929</sup> preaching boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him.<sup>930</sup> When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus.<sup>931</sup> So the assemblies throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

932 As Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda.<sup>933</sup> There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed.<sup>934</sup> Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose.<sup>935</sup> All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

936 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did.<sup>937</sup> In those days, she became sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room.<sup>938</sup> As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them.<sup>939</sup> Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them.<sup>940</sup> Peter sent them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.<sup>941</sup> He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.<sup>942</sup> This became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.<sup>943</sup> He stayed many days in Joppa with a tanner named Simon.

CHAPTER 10

101 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment,<sup>102</sup> a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God.<sup>103</sup> At about the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

104 He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God.<sup>105</sup> Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is also called Peter.

106 He is staying with a tanner named Simon, whose house is by the seaside.

107 When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually.<sup>108</sup> Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.<sup>109</sup> Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon.

1010 He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance.<sup>1011</sup> He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth,<sup>1012</sup> in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky.

<sup>738</sup> The Lord appeared in a vision, suggesting that Jesus lived on in spirit after his crucifixion, rather than bodily or physically (see Topical Index #33).

<sup>739</sup> Barnabas relates that Saul saw Jesus, but it was a light from the sky that surrounded him and he only heard Jesus' voice. His fellow travelers only heard a voice (Acts 9:3-7).

<sup>10</sup><sup>14</sup> But Peter said, “Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.”

<sup>10</sup><sup>15</sup> A voice came to him again the second time, “What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean.”

<sup>10</sup><sup>21</sup> Peter went down to the men, and said, “Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?”

<sup>10</sup><sup>22</sup> They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say.”

<sup>10</sup><sup>23</sup> So he called them in and provided a place to stay. On the next day Peter arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.<sup>10</sup><sup>24</sup> On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends.<sup>10</sup><sup>25</sup> When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him.<sup>10</sup><sup>26</sup> But Peter raised him up, saying, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.”<sup>10</sup><sup>27</sup> As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together.<sup>10</sup><sup>28</sup> He said to them, “You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn’t call any man unholy or unclean.”<sup>10</sup><sup>29</sup> Therefore I also came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?”

<sup>10</sup><sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.

<sup>10</sup><sup>45</sup> They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles.

<sup>10</sup><sup>46</sup> For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God. Then Peter answered,<sup>10</sup><sup>47</sup> “Can anyone forbid these people from being baptized with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just like us.”

<sup>10</sup><sup>48</sup> He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay some days.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>11</sup><sup>1</sup> Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.<sup>11</sup><sup>2</sup> When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him,<sup>11</sup><sup>3</sup> saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!”

<sup>11</sup><sup>4</sup> But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying,<sup>11</sup><sup>5</sup> “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me.”<sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky.

<sup>740</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

<sup>741</sup> He speaks again of the distinction between Jesus and the Father (see Topical Index #27).

three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me.<sup>11</sup><sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house.

<sup>11</sup><sup>13</sup> He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, 'Send to Joppa, and get Simon, who is called Peter,<sup>11</sup><sup>14</sup> who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.'<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning.

<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.'<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?"

<sup>11</sup><sup>19</sup> They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only.<sup>11</sup><sup>20</sup> But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus.<sup>11</sup><sup>21</sup> The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.<sup>11</sup><sup>22</sup> The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch,<sup>11</sup><sup>23</sup> who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord.<sup>11</sup><sup>24</sup> For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

<sup>11</sup><sup>26</sup> When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread.<sup>12</sup><sup>4</sup> When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for him.<sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

<sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting."

<sup>12</sup><sup>15</sup> They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel."<sup>12</sup><sup>16</sup> But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed.<sup>12</sup><sup>17</sup> But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James and to the brothers." Then he departed and went to another place.

<sup>12</sup><sup>18</sup> Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter.<sup>12</sup><sup>19</sup> When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, then commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.<sup>12</sup><sup>20</sup> Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food.<sup>12</sup><sup>21</sup> On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them.<sup>12</sup><sup>22</sup> The people

<sup>742</sup> God desires no person should perish and that all should be saved (2 Pet 3:9).

<sup>743</sup> John Mark or Marcus, friend of Paul and Peter (see Acts 12:25; 15:37-39; Col 4:10; Phlm 24; 2 Tim 4:11; 1 Peter 5:13). He is thought by scholars to be the author of the Gospel of Mark and was not one of the 12 Apostles (see Matt 10:2-4; Mark 3:16-19; Luke 6:13-16).

shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!"<sup>1223</sup> Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn't give God the glory. Then he was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>1224</sup> But the word of God grew and multiplied. <sup>1225</sup> Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John who was called Mark.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>131</sup> Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

<sup>132</sup> As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them."

<sup>133</sup> Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

<sup>134</sup> So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>135</sup> When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed God's word in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John as their attendant.<sup>136</sup> When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar Jesus,<sup>137</sup> who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God.<sup>138</sup> But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withheld them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.<sup>139</sup> But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him,<sup>1310</sup> and said, "You son of the devil, full of all deceit and all cunning, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?<sup>1311</sup> Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!"

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.<sup>1312</sup> Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>1313</sup> Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem.<sup>1314</sup> But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down.<sup>1315</sup> After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."

<sup>1316</sup> Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen.<sup>1317</sup> The God of this people chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it.

them in the wilderness.<sup>1319</sup> When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance for about four hundred fifty years.<sup>1320</sup> After these things, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.<sup>1321</sup> Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.<sup>1322</sup> When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.'<sup>1323</sup> From this man's offspring, God has brought salvation to Israel according to his promise,<sup>1324</sup> before his coming, when John had first preached the baptism of repentance to Israel.<sup>1325</sup> As John was fulfilling his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'<sup>1326</sup> Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you.<sup>1327</sup> For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn't know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him.<sup>744</sup>

<sup>1328</sup> Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed.<sup>1329</sup> When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb.<sup>1330</sup> But God raised him from the dead,<sup>1331</sup> and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.<sup>1332</sup> We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers,<sup>1333</sup> that God has fulfilled this to us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm,<sup>745</sup> 'You are my Son. Today I have become your father.'

<sup>1334</sup> "Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.'<sup>1335</sup> Therefore he says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.'<sup>1336</sup> For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, was laid with his fathers, and saw decay.<sup>1337</sup> But he whom God raised up saw no decay.<sup>1338</sup> Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins,<sup>1339</sup> and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses.<sup>1340</sup> Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:<sup>746</sup>

<sup>1341</sup> 'Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.'

<sup>1342</sup> So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.<sup>1343</sup> Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.<sup>1344</sup> The next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God.<sup>1345</sup> But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed.

<sup>1346</sup> Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God's word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from yourselves, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.<sup>1347</sup> For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, 'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"

<sup>1348</sup> As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed.<sup>1349</sup> The Lord's word was spread abroad throughout all the region.<sup>1350</sup> But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders.<sup>1351</sup> But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium.<sup>1352</sup> The disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>141</sup> In Iconium, they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed.<sup>142</sup> But the disbelieving Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers.<sup>143</sup> Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands.<sup>144</sup> But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles.<sup>145</sup> When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them,<sup>146</sup> they became aware of it and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region.<sup>147</sup> There they preached the Good News.

<sup>148</sup> At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked.<sup>149</sup> He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole,<sup>1410</sup> said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked.<sup>1411</sup> When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!"<sup>1412</sup> They called Barnabas "Jupiter", and Paul "Mercury", because he was the chief speaker.<sup>1413</sup> The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes.<sup>1414</sup> But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out,<sup>1415</sup> "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them;<sup>1416</sup> who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways.<sup>1417</sup> Yet he didn't leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."

<sup>1418</sup> Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them.<sup>1419</sup> But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

<sup>1420</sup> But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe.<sup>1421</sup> When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,<sup>1422</sup> strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into God's Kingdom.<sup>1423</sup> When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commanded them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

<sup>1424</sup> They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.<sup>1425</sup> When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.<sup>1426</sup> From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.<sup>1427</sup> When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations.<sup>1428</sup> They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>151</sup> Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can't be saved."<sup>152</sup> Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.<sup>153</sup> They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers.<sup>154</sup> When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported everything that God had done with them.

<sup>155</sup> But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

<sup>156</sup> The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter.<sup>157</sup> When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News and believe.

<sup>15</sup><sup>8</sup> God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. <sup>15</sup><sup>9</sup> He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. <sup>15</sup><sup>10</sup> Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>15</sup><sup>11</sup> But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are.”

<sup>15</sup><sup>16</sup> ‘After these things I will return. I will again build the tabernacle of David, which has fallen. I will again build its ruins. I will set it up<sup>15</sup><sup>17</sup> that the rest of men may seek after the Lord; all the Gentiles who are called by my name, says the Lord, who does all these things.’ <sup>15</sup><sup>18</sup> “All of God’s works are known to him from eternity. <sup>15</sup><sup>19</sup> Therefore my judgment is that we don’t trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, <sup>15</sup><sup>20</sup> but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. <sup>15</sup><sup>21</sup> For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.’

rejoiced over the encouragement. <sup>15</sup><sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words and strengthened them. <sup>15</sup><sup>33</sup> After they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the brothers to the apostles. <sup>15</sup><sup>34</sup> (But it seemed good to Silas to stay there.) <sup>15</sup><sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

<sup>15</sup><sup>36</sup> After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.” <sup>15</sup><sup>37</sup> Barnabas planned to take John, who was called Mark, with them also. <sup>15</sup><sup>38</sup> But Paul didn’t think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn’t go with them to do the work. <sup>15</sup><sup>39</sup> Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus, <sup>15</sup><sup>40</sup> but Paul chose Silas and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. <sup>15</sup><sup>41</sup> He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>16</sup><sup>1</sup> He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek.

<sup>16</sup><sup>2</sup> The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. <sup>16</sup><sup>3</sup> Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>16</sup><sup>4</sup> As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup><sup>5</sup> So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

<sup>16</sup><sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath day we went outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together.<sup>1614</sup> A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us. The Lord opened her heart to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul.<sup>1615</sup> When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay." So she persuaded us.

<sup>1616</sup> As we were going to prayer, a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling.<sup>1617</sup> Following Paul and us, she cried out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us a way of salvation!"<sup>1618</sup> She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" It came out that very hour.

<sup>1619</sup> But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers.<sup>1620</sup> When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jews, are agitating our city<sup>1621</sup> and advocate customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."

<sup>1622</sup> The multitude rose up together against them and the magistrates tore their clothes from them, then commanded them to be beaten with rods.<sup>1623</sup> When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely,<sup>1624</sup> who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.

<sup>1625</sup> But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.<sup>1626</sup> Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened.<sup>1627</sup> The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.<sup>1628</sup> But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself, for we are all here!"

<sup>1629</sup> He called for lights, sprang in, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas,<sup>1630</sup> brought them out, and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>1631</sup> They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."<sup>1632</sup> They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.

<sup>1633</sup> He took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household.<sup>1634</sup> He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

<sup>1635</sup> But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."

<sup>1636</sup> The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out and go in peace."

<sup>1637</sup> But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"

<sup>1638</sup> The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans,<sup>1639</sup> and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city.<sup>1640</sup> They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, then departed.

CHAPTER 17

<sup>171</sup> Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.<sup>172</sup> Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures,<sup>173</sup> explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ."

<sup>174</sup> Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women.

<sup>175</sup> But the unpersuaded Jews took along some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assailing the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people.<sup>176</sup> When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also,<sup>177</sup> whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus!"<sup>178</sup> The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things.<sup>179</sup> When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.<sup>1710</sup> The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.

<sup>1711</sup> Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.<sup>1712</sup> Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men.<sup>1713</sup> But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes.<sup>1714</sup> Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there.<sup>1715</sup> But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

<sup>1716</sup> Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols.<sup>1717</sup> So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. <sup>17</sup><sup>18</sup> Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>17</sup><sup>22</sup> Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things." <sup>17</sup><sup>23</sup> For as I passed along and observed the objects of your worship, I also found an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, I announce to you. <sup>17</sup><sup>24</sup> The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands.

<sup>17</sup><sup>25</sup> He isn't served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. <sup>17</sup><sup>26</sup> He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings, <sup>17</sup><sup>27</sup> that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. <sup>17</sup><sup>28</sup> 'For in him we live, move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.' <sup>17</sup><sup>29</sup> Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. <sup>17</sup><sup>30</sup> The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, <sup>17</sup><sup>31</sup> because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; <sup>749</sup> of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."

<sup>17</sup><sup>33</sup> Thus Paul went out from among them. <sup>17</sup><sup>34</sup> But certain men joined with him and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18

with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them, <sup>18</sup><sup>3</sup> and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers.

<sup>18</sup><sup>7</sup> He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

<sup>18</sup><sup>14</sup> But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you," <sup>18</sup><sup>15</sup> but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don't want to be a judge of these matters." <sup>18</sup><sup>16</sup> So he drove them from the judgment seat.

<sup>18</sup><sup>22</sup> When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch.

<sup>749</sup> Speaking of Jesus as a man whom God "hath ordained" shows again the distinction between Jesus and the Father (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>751</sup> Here Jesus appears to Paul in a vision and speaks to him. Clearly, Jesus is alive in the spirit, rather than in the flesh.

<sup>752</sup> Considered the greatest city in ancient Asia, with the temple of Diana and largest outdoor theatre in the world at that time.

went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.<sup>1824</sup> Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures.<sup>1825</sup> This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John.

<sup>1826</sup> He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

<sup>1827</sup> When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace;<sup>1828</sup> for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

CHAPTER 19

<sup>191</sup> While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus and found certain disciples.<sup>192</sup> He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They said to him, "No, we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

<sup>193</sup> He said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into John's baptism."

<sup>194</sup> Paul said, "John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus."

<sup>195</sup> When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.<sup>196</sup> When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them and they spoke with other languages and prophesied.<sup>197</sup> They were about twelve men in all.<sup>198</sup> He entered into the synagogue and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning God's Kingdom.

<sup>199</sup> But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.<sup>1910</sup> This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>1911</sup> God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul,<sup>1912</sup> so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out.<sup>1913</sup> But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches."<sup>1914</sup> There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

<sup>1915</sup> The evil spirit answered, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?"<sup>1916</sup> The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.<sup>1917</sup> This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.<sup>1918</sup> Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.<sup>1919</sup> Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver.

<sup>1920</sup> So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

<sup>1921</sup> Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the Spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

<sup>1922</sup> Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.<sup>1923</sup> About that time there arose no small disturbance concerning the Way.<sup>1924</sup> For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen,<sup>1925</sup> whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth."<sup>1926</sup> You see and hear that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods that are made with hands.<sup>1927</sup> Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships."

<sup>1928</sup> When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"<sup>1929</sup> The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel.<sup>1930</sup> When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him.<sup>1931</sup> Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater.<sup>1932</sup> Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together.<sup>1933</sup> They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people.<sup>1934</sup> But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>1935</sup> When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus?"<sup>1936</sup> Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet and to do nothing rash.<sup>1937</sup> For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess.<sup>1938</sup> If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another.<sup>19</sup><sup>39</sup> But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly.<sup>19</sup><sup>40</sup> For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning today's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."<sup>19</sup><sup>41</sup> When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

<sup>20</sup><sup>11</sup> When he had gone up, and had broken bread and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed.<sup>20</sup><sup>12</sup> They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

<sup>20</sup><sup>13</sup> But we, going ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there; for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land.<sup>20</sup><sup>14</sup> When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene.<sup>20</sup><sup>15</sup> Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus.<sup>20</sup><sup>16</sup> For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>20</sup><sup>17</sup> From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly.<sup>20</sup><sup>18</sup> When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time,<sup>20</sup><sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews;<sup>20</sup><sup>20</sup> how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house,<sup>20</sup><sup>21</sup> testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus.<sup>20</sup><sup>22</sup> Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there;<sup>20</sup><sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me.<sup>20</sup><sup>24</sup> But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>21</sup><sup>1</sup> When we had departed from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.<sup>21</sup><sup>2</sup> Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail.<sup>21</sup><sup>3</sup> When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, for the ship was there to unload her cargo.<sup>21</sup><sup>4</sup> Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit that he should not go up to Jerusalem.<sup>21</sup><sup>5</sup> When those days were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed.<sup>21</sup><sup>6</sup> After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

<sup>21</sup>7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and stayed with them one day.<sup>21</sup>8 On the next day, we who were Paul's companions departed, and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

<sup>21</sup>9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.<sup>21</sup>10 As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.<sup>21</sup>11 Coming to us and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "The Holy Spirit says: 'So the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

<sup>21</sup>12 When we heard these things, both we and the people of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem.<sup>21</sup>13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>21</sup>14 When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."

<sup>21</sup>15 After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem.<sup>21</sup>16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

<sup>21</sup>17 When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly.<sup>21</sup>18 The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present.

<sup>21</sup>19 When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry.<sup>21</sup>20 They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law."<sup>21</sup>21 They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children and not to walk after the customs.

<sup>21</sup>22 What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.<sup>21</sup>23 Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow.<sup>21</sup>24 Take them and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law.

<sup>21</sup>25 But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."

<sup>21</sup>26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.<sup>21</sup>27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him,<sup>21</sup>28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!"<sup>21</sup>29 For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

<sup>21</sup>30 All the city was moved and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut.

<sup>21</sup>31 As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.<sup>21</sup>32 Immediately he took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul.<sup>21</sup>33 Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done.<sup>21</sup>34 Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

<sup>21</sup>35 When he came to the stairs, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd;<sup>21</sup>36 for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!"<sup>21</sup>37 As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, "May I speak to you?"

He said, "Do you know Greek?<sup>21</sup>38 Aren't you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"

<sup>21</sup>39 But Paul said, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

<sup>21</sup>40 When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

CHAPTER 22

<sup>22</sup>1 "Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you."

<sup>22</sup>2 When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, <sup>22</sup>3 "I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are today."

<sup>22</sup>4 I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women,

<sup>22</sup>5 as also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.

<sup>22</sup>6 As I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light shone around me from the sky.

<sup>22</sup><sup>7</sup> I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

<sup>22</sup><sup>8</sup> I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.’

<sup>22</sup><sup>9</sup> “Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn’t understand the voice of him who spoke to me.”<sup>753</sup>

<sup>22</sup><sup>10</sup> I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ The Lord said to me, ‘Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.’<sup>22</sup><sup>11</sup> When I couldn’t see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.<sup>22</sup><sup>12</sup> One Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus,<sup>22</sup><sup>13</sup> came to me, and standing by me said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ In that very hour I looked up at him.<sup>22</sup><sup>14</sup> He said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth.<sup>22</sup><sup>15</sup> For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard.<sup>22</sup><sup>16</sup> Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.’<sup>22</sup><sup>17</sup> “When I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance,<sup>22</sup><sup>18</sup> and saw him<sup>754</sup> saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.’

<sup>22</sup><sup>19</sup> I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you.<sup>22</sup><sup>20</sup> When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.’

<sup>22</sup><sup>21</sup> “He said to me, ‘Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.’”

<sup>22</sup><sup>22</sup> They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice and said, “Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn’t fit to live!”

<sup>22</sup><sup>27</sup> The commanding officer came and asked him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” He said, “Yes.”

<sup>22</sup><sup>28</sup> The commanding officer answered, “I bought my citizenship for a great price.” Paul said, “But I was born a Roman.”

<sup>22</sup><sup>29</sup> Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him.<sup>22</sup><sup>30</sup> But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

<sup>23</sup><sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?”

<sup>23</sup><sup>5</sup> Paul said, “I didn’t know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”<sup>23</sup><sup>6</sup> But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, “Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!”

and said, “Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome.”

<sup>753</sup> Here, Paul says that Jesus appeared to him as a bright light, but that he did not see him. He only heard his voice, and others in his company heard the sound, but did not see anyone (see Acts 9:3–7).

<sup>754</sup> Here Jesus appears to Paul while he is “in a trance”, again demonstrating that Jesus lives in spirit and not in the flesh.

bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near."

<sup>23</sup><sup>16</sup> But Paul's sister's son heard they were lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. <sup>23</sup><sup>17</sup> Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."

<sup>23</sup><sup>18</sup> So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you."

<sup>23</sup><sup>19</sup> The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

<sup>23</sup><sup>22</sup> So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." <sup>23</sup><sup>23</sup> He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night." <sup>23</sup><sup>24</sup> He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. <sup>23</sup><sup>25</sup> He wrote a letter like this:

<sup>23</sup><sup>27</sup> "This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.

<sup>23</sup><sup>31</sup> So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>23</sup><sup>32</sup> But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. <sup>23</sup><sup>33</sup> When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. <sup>23</sup><sup>34</sup> When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, <sup>23</sup><sup>35</sup> "I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be kept in Herod's palace.

They informed the governor against Paul. <sup>24</sup><sup>2</sup> When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that prosperity is coming to this nation by your foresight, <sup>24</sup><sup>3</sup> we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness." <sup>24</sup><sup>4</sup> But that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. <sup>24</sup><sup>5</sup> For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>24</sup><sup>6</sup> He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. <sup>24</sup><sup>7</sup> (but the commanding officer, Lysias, came by and with great violence took him out of our hands,) <sup>24</sup><sup>8</sup> By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

<sup>24</sup><sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. <sup>24</sup><sup>10</sup> When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, <sup>24</sup><sup>11</sup> seeing that you can verify that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup><sup>12</sup> In the temple they didn't find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. <sup>24</sup><sup>13</sup> Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>24</sup><sup>14</sup> But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; <sup>24</sup><sup>15</sup> having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. <sup>24</sup><sup>16</sup> In this I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men. <sup>24</sup><sup>17</sup> Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; <sup>24</sup><sup>18</sup> amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. <sup>24</sup><sup>19</sup> They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me.

<sup>24</sup><sup>22</sup> But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case." <sup>24</sup><sup>23</sup> He ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him.

<sup>24</sup><sup>24</sup> But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>24</sup><sup>25</sup> As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you." <sup>24</sup><sup>26</sup> Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often and talked with him.<sup>24</sup><sup>27</sup> But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

<sup>25</sup><sup>2</sup> Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him, <sup>25</sup><sup>3</sup> asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way.

<sup>25</sup><sup>4</sup> However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly.<sup>25</sup><sup>5</sup> "Let them therefore", he said, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."

<sup>25</sup><sup>6</sup> When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.<sup>25</sup><sup>7</sup> When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove,<sup>25</sup><sup>8</sup> while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."

<sup>25</sup><sup>9</sup> But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?"

<sup>25</sup><sup>10</sup> But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.

<sup>25</sup><sup>11</sup> For if I have done wrong and have committed anything worthy of death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

<sup>25</sup><sup>16</sup> I answered them that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction before the accused has met the accusers face to face and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him.<sup>25</sup><sup>17</sup> When therefore they had come together here, I didn't delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought.<sup>25</sup><sup>18</sup> When the accusers stood up, they brought no charges against him of such things as I supposed,<sup>25</sup><sup>19</sup> but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.<sup>25</sup><sup>20</sup> Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.<sup>25</sup><sup>21</sup> But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

<sup>25</sup><sup>22</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."<sup>25</sup><sup>23</sup> So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.<sup>25</sup><sup>24</sup> Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.<sup>25</sup><sup>25</sup> But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him,<sup>25</sup><sup>26</sup> of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write.<sup>25</sup><sup>27</sup> For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

CHAPTER 26

<sup>26</sup><sup>4</sup> "Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem;<sup>26</sup><sup>5</sup> having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.<sup>26</sup><sup>6</sup> Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers,<sup>26</sup><sup>7</sup> which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa!<sup>26</sup><sup>8</sup> Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

<sup>26</sup><sup>9</sup> "I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.<sup>26</sup><sup>10</sup> I also did this in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them.

fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

<sup>26</sup><sup>15</sup> "I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' "He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.'<sup>26</sup><sup>16</sup> But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you;<sup>26</sup><sup>17</sup> delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you,<sup>26</sup><sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

<sup>26</sup><sup>24</sup> As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"

<sup>26</sup><sup>25</sup> But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness.<sup>26</sup><sup>26</sup> For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner."<sup>26</sup><sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

<sup>26</sup><sup>29</sup> Paul said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."

<sup>26</sup><sup>30</sup> The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them.<sup>26</sup><sup>31</sup> When they had withdrawn, they spoke to one another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds."

<sup>26</sup><sup>32</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

CHAPTER 27

<sup>27</sup><sup>1</sup> When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band.

about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.<sup>27</sup><sup>3</sup> The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself.<sup>27</sup><sup>4</sup> Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.<sup>27</sup><sup>5</sup> When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.<sup>27</sup><sup>6</sup> There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board.<sup>27</sup><sup>7</sup> When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone.<sup>27</sup><sup>8</sup> With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

<sup>27</sup><sup>9</sup> When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them<sup>27</sup><sup>10</sup> and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."<sup>27</sup><sup>11</sup> But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul.<sup>27</sup><sup>12</sup> Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking southwest and northwest.

<sup>27</sup><sup>19</sup> On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands.<sup>27</sup><sup>20</sup> When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

<sup>27</sup><sup>21</sup> When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete and have gotten this injury and loss.<sup>27</sup><sup>22</sup> Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.<sup>27</sup><sup>23</sup> For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve,<sup>27</sup><sup>24</sup> saying, 'Don't be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.'

<sup>756</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

<sup>27</sup><sup>25</sup> Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. <sup>27</sup><sup>26</sup> But we must run aground on a certain island."

<sup>27</sup><sup>27</sup> But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. <sup>27</sup><sup>28</sup> They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms. After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms. <sup>27</sup><sup>29</sup> Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. <sup>27</sup><sup>30</sup> As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, <sup>27</sup><sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved." <sup>27</sup><sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

<sup>27</sup><sup>42</sup> The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape.

<sup>27</sup><sup>43</sup> But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; <sup>27</sup><sup>44</sup> and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So they all escaped safely to the land.

CHAPTER 28

<sup>28</sup><sup>5</sup> However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed. <sup>28</sup><sup>6</sup> But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

<sup>28</sup><sup>16</sup> When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

<sup>28</sup><sup>17</sup> After three days Paul called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>28</sup><sup>18</sup> who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. <sup>28</sup><sup>19</sup> But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation.

<sup>28</sup><sup>20</sup> For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

<sup>28</sup><sup>21</sup> They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. <sup>28</sup><sup>22</sup> But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

<sup>28</sup><sup>23</sup> When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about God's Kingdom, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening.

Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers,<sup>757</sup>

<sup>28</sup><sup>26</sup> saying, ‘Go to this people and say, in hearing, you will hear, but will in no way understand. In seeing, you will see, but will in no way perceive.

<sup>28</sup><sup>27</sup> For this people’s heart has grown callous. Their ears are dull of hearing. Their eyes they have closed. Lest they should see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and would turn again, then I would heal them.’

<sup>28</sup><sup>28</sup> “Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations, and they will listen.”

<sup>28</sup><sup>29</sup> When he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.

<sup>28</sup><sup>30</sup> Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house and received all who were coming to him, <sup>28</sup><sup>31</sup> preaching God’s Kingdom, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

ROMANS

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

There is much discussion about the exact date of the epistle to the Romans, but it is thought by most to have been written about 25–27 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 55–57 AD).

Authorship:

It is widely believed that Paul was the author of the Epistle to the Romans and that he probably wrote it while in Corinth.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>18</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.<sup>19</sup> For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers,<sup>10</sup> requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established;<sup>12</sup> that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>13</sup> Now I don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles.<sup>14</sup> I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish.<sup>15</sup> So as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome.<sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Christ, because it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first, and also for the Greek.<sup>17</sup> For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith."<sup>18</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness,<sup>19</sup> because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them.<sup>10</sup> For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity, that they may be without excuse.<sup>759</sup>

<sup>21</sup> Because knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, and didn't give thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.

<sup>122</sup> Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,<sup>123</sup> and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, four-footed animals, and creeping things. <sup>124</sup> Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves; <sup>125</sup> who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. <sup>126</sup> For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. <sup>127</sup> Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error.<sup>128</sup> Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; <sup>129</sup> being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers,<sup>130</sup> backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,<sup>131</sup> without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful;<sup>132</sup> who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things.<sup>22</sup> We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.<sup>23</sup> Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?

<sup>24</sup> Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?

<sup>25</sup> But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God;<sup>26</sup> who "will pay back to everyone according to what he has done."<sup>760</sup>

<sup>27</sup> to those who by perseverance in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruption, eternal life;<sup>28</sup> but to those who are self-seeking, and don't obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath, indignation, <sup>29</sup> oppression, and anguish on every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.<sup>761</sup>

<sup>759</sup> Here (Rom 1:20) Paul says that we can understand something about the Father by studying the creation that He made. A much deeper exploration of this can be found in the Divine Principle (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Sections 1 and 2; also Ps 19:1–2).

<sup>760</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

<sup>761</sup> Any non-Jewish nation or people.

210 But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 211 For there is no partiality with God. 212 For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. 213 For it isn't the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified 214 (for when Gentiles who don't have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, 215 in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) 216 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by Jesus Christ. 217 Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, rest on the law, glory in God, 218 know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 219 and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 220 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. 221 You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn't steal, do you steal? 222 You who say a man shouldn't commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 223 You who glory in the law, do you dishonor God by disobeying the law? 224 For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," just as it is written. 225 For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 226 If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? 227 Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? 228 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; 229 but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

CHAPTER 3

31 Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 32 Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the revelations of God. 33 For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? 34 May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, "that you might be justified in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment." 762

35 But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do.

36 May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? 37 For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 38 Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let's do evil, that good may come?" Those who say so are justly condemned.

39 What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks that they are all under sin. 310 As it is written, "There is no one righteous; no, not one."

311 There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after God.

312 They have all turned away. They have together become unprofitable. There is no one who does good, no, not so much as one."

313 "Their throat is an open tomb. With their tongues they have used deceit." "The poison of vipers is under their lips."

314 "Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."

315 "Their feet are swift to shed blood."

316 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

317 The way of peace, they haven't known."

318 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

319 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. 320 Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight; for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

321 But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets, 322 even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction, 323 for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 324 being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 325 whom God sent to be an atoning sacrifice, through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God's forbearance; 326 to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

327 Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

328 We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 329 Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn't he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, 330 since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith.

331 Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

762 Ps 116:11; 51:4

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh?<sup>42</sup> For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward God.<sup>43</sup> For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."<sup>44</sup> Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as something owed.<sup>45</sup> But to him who doesn't work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness.<sup>46</sup> Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works,

<sup>49</sup> Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness.<sup>50</sup> How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.<sup>51</sup> He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they might be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them.<sup>52</sup> He is the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision.

<sup>53</sup> For the promise to Abraham and to his offspring that he should be heir of the world wasn't through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.<sup>54</sup> For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect.<sup>55</sup> For the law produces wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience.<sup>56</sup> For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the offspring, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.<sup>57</sup> As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations." This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were.<sup>58</sup> Besides hope, Abraham in hope believed, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your offspring be."<sup>59</sup> Without being weakened in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb.<sup>60</sup> Yet, looking to the promise of God, he didn't waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God,<sup>61</sup> and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform.<sup>62</sup> Therefore it also was "credited to him for righteousness."<sup>63</sup> Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone,<sup>64</sup> but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Jesus, our Lord, from the dead,<sup>65</sup> 66 who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.<sup>67</sup>

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;<sup>52</sup> through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God.<sup>53</sup> Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces perseverance;<sup>54</sup> and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope:<sup>55</sup> and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.<sup>56</sup> For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.<sup>57</sup> For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps for a good person someone would even dare to die.<sup>58</sup> But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>59</sup> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him.

<sup>60</sup> For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

<sup>61</sup> Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.<sup>62</sup> Therefore as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; so death passed to all men, because all sinned.

<sup>63</sup> For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law.<sup>64</sup> Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come.<sup>65</sup> But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.<sup>66</sup> The gift is not as through one who sinned; for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification.<sup>67</sup> For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.<sup>68</sup> So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life.<sup>69</sup> For through one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of one, many will be made righteous.<sup>765</sup>

<sup>64</sup> God's judgment to pardon all the sins of believers and consider them as restored to the quality of obedience before the law.

<sup>520</sup> The law came in that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly;<sup>521</sup> that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?<sup>62</sup> May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer?

<sup>63</sup> Or don't you know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?<sup>64</sup> We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.<sup>766</sup>

<sup>65</sup> For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; <sup>66</sup> knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin.<sup>67</sup> For he who has died has been freed from sin.<sup>68</sup> But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him;<sup>69</sup> knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over him!<sup>610</sup> For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. <sup>611</sup> Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>612</sup> Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.<sup>613</sup> Also, do not present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.<sup>614</sup> For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace.

<sup>615</sup> What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be!
<sup>616</sup> Don't you know that when you present yourselves as servants and obey someone, you are the servants of whomever you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?

<sup>617</sup> But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were delivered.<sup>618</sup> Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

<sup>619</sup> I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification.<sup>620</sup> For when you were servants of sin, you were free from righteousness.<sup>621</sup> What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.<sup>622</sup> But now, being made free from sin and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification and the result of eternal life.

<sup>623</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> Or don't you know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives?<sup>72</sup> For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband.<sup>73</sup> So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man.

<sup>74</sup> Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might produce fruit to God.<sup>75</sup> For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law worked in our members to bring out fruit to death.<sup>76</sup> But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>77</sup> What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."<sup>78</sup> But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead.<sup>79</sup> I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

<sup>710</sup> The commandment which was for life, this I found to be for death;<sup>711</sup> for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.<sup>712</sup> Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

<sup>713</sup> Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, was producing death in me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceedingly sinful.<sup>714</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin.<sup>715</sup> For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do.<sup>716</sup> But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good.<sup>717</sup> So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.<sup>718</sup> For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good.<sup>719</sup> For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice.<sup>720</sup> But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.

<sup>766</sup> Paul compares "walking in newness of life" with the resurrection of Jesus. Resurrection means passing from death to life. Paul shows here in Rom 6:4 and in the other similar passages (Rom 7:22–25; 8:6, 11, 15, 19–23) that it is meant in a spiritual sense, and not a physical sense.

<sup>721</sup> I find then the law that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present.<sup>722</sup> For I delight in God's law after the inward person,<sup>723</sup> but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members.<sup>724</sup> What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death?<sup>725</sup> I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, sin's law.<sup>767</sup>

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.<sup>82</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death.<sup>83</sup> For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh;<sup>84</sup> that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.<sup>85</sup> For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.<sup>86</sup> For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace.<sup>768</sup>

<sup>87</sup> because the mind of the flesh is hostile toward God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be.<sup>88</sup> Those who are in the flesh can't please God.<sup>89</sup> But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his.<sup>90</sup> If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness.<sup>811</sup> But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead<sup>769</sup> will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.<sup>770</sup>

<sup>812</sup> So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.<sup>813</sup> For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.<sup>814</sup> For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God.<sup>815</sup> For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"<sup>771</sup>

<sup>816</sup> The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God;<sup>817</sup> and if children, then heirs: heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

<sup>818</sup> For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us.

<sup>820</sup> For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope<sup>821</sup> that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.<sup>772</sup>

<sup>822</sup> For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now.<sup>773</sup>

<sup>823</sup> Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body.<sup>774</sup>

<sup>824</sup> For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees?<sup>825</sup> But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience.

<sup>826</sup> In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered.<sup>827</sup> He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.

<sup>828</sup> We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, for those who are called according to his purpose.

<sup>829</sup> For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

<sup>830</sup> Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.<sup>775</sup>

<sup>767</sup> These passages show that the salvation given by Jesus is spiritual, but not yet physical (Rom 8:23).

<sup>768</sup> A clear statement contrasting the spiritual meaning of life and death.

<sup>771</sup> God is our parent, in character and in heart, He is our Father.

<sup>772</sup> Adam and Eve were to have perfected themselves as temples of God, as Jesus said in Matt 5:48, and they and their descendants would have had true dominion over the creation (Gen 1:28).

<sup>773</sup> Even creation (nature) has suffered under fallen mankind being unable to experience God's true love through man, as was originally intended. God's third blessing to Adam was to "have dominion" which was to be a dominion not only of skill but of God's divine love in man (Gen 1:28).

<sup>774</sup> This tells that man, though he be saved through grace by faith in Jesus, he still needs physical salvation, expected at his return (Rom 7:25).

<sup>775</sup> These two passages have long been cited as evidence of God's absolute predestination of man. However, the Divine Principle points

<sup>831</sup> What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?<sup>832</sup> He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? <sup>833</sup> Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies.<sup>834</sup> Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

<sup>835</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?<sup>836</sup> Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."<sup>776</sup>

<sup>837</sup> No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.<sup>838</sup> For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,<sup>839</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from God's love which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit<sup>92</sup> that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>93</sup> For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh<sup>94</sup> who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises,<sup>95</sup> of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>96</sup> But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel that are of Israel.

<sup>97</sup> Neither, because they are Abraham's offspring, are they all children. But, "your offspring will be accounted as from Isaac."<sup>98</sup> That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as heirs.<sup>99</sup> For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."<sup>100</sup> Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. <sup>101</sup> For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls,<sup>102</sup> it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."<sup>103</sup> Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

<sup>104</sup> What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be!<sup>105</sup> For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."<sup>777</sup>

<sup>916</sup> So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy.<sup>917</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."<sup>918</sup> So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires.

<sup>919</sup> You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?"<sup>920</sup> But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"<sup>921</sup> Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor?<sup>922</sup> What if God, willing to show his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction,<sup>923</sup> and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory,

<sup>924</sup> us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles.<sup>925</sup> As he says also in Hosea, "I will call them 'my people,' which were not my people; and her 'beloved,' who was not beloved."

<sup>926</sup> "It will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'children of the living God.'"

<sup>927</sup> Isaiah cries concerning Israel, "If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant who will be saved;

<sup>928</sup> for He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."

<sup>929</sup> As Isaiah has said before, "Unless the Lord of Armies had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and would have been made like Gomorrah."

<sup>930</sup> What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who didn't follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;

<sup>931</sup> but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness.<sup>932</sup> Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,<sup>933</sup> even as it is written, "Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; and no one who believes in him will be disappointed."

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved.<sup>102</sup> For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.<sup>103</sup> For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to out that between the step of being "called" and being "justified" is the exercise of man's own portion of responsibility in terms of responding or not responding to God's call in faith and accomplishing or not accomplishing God's will for that person. Man's response determines who is justified and then glorified (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 6).

<sup>777</sup> These and similar passages which follow are intended to convey the authority and power and supremacy of the Father, but not to negate man's own personal portion of responsibility before God (see John 3:16, Rom 10:13).

the righteousness of God.<sup>104</sup> For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.<sup>105</sup> For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them."<sup>106</sup> But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down);<sup>107</sup> or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)."<sup>108</sup> But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;" that is, the word of faith which we preach:<sup>109</sup> that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.<sup>1010</sup> For with the heart, one believes resulting in righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made resulting in salvation.<sup>1011</sup> For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed."

<sup>1012</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call on him.<sup>1013</sup> For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved."<sup>1014</sup> How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher?<sup>1015</sup> And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Good News of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!"

<sup>1016</sup> But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"<sup>778</sup>
<sup>1017</sup> So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.<sup>1018</sup> But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most certainly, "Their sound went out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."

<sup>1019</sup> But I ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says, "I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation. I will make you angry with a nation void of understanding."<sup>779</sup>

<sup>1020</sup> Isaiah is very bold and says, "I was found by those who didn't seek me. I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me."<sup>780</sup>

<sup>1021</sup> But about Israel he says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

CHAPTER 11

<sup>111</sup> I ask then, did God reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.<sup>112</sup> God didn't reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel:<sup>113</sup> "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars. I am left alone, and they seek my life."<sup>114</sup> But how does God answer him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."<sup>115</sup> Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.<sup>116</sup> And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.<sup>117</sup> What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened.<sup>118</sup> According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day."<sup>781</sup>

<sup>1111</sup> I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy.<sup>1112</sup> Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?
<sup>1113</sup> For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry;<sup>1114</sup> if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead?<sup>782</sup>

<sup>1116</sup> If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches.
But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree,<sup>783</sup>

<sup>1118</sup> don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you.
<sup>1119</sup> You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in."
<sup>1120</sup> True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear;
<sup>1121</sup> for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.
<sup>1122</sup> See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off.<sup>784</sup>

<sup>1123</sup> They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.
For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

<sup>780</sup> Isa 65:1

<sup>783</sup> The use of trees and branches is a metaphor for man. It implies that Jesus is the true olive tree and that fallen man is a wild olive tree. This is reminiscent of the pair of "trees" in the garden of Eden which symbolized Adam and Eve (see Gen 2:9; Prov 11:30; 13:12; Matt 3:10; 12:33; John 15:4-6; Jude 12).

<sup>784</sup> Here we see that God's covenants with man rest on man's portion of responsibility to obey and respect them and they can be thereby negated, apart from the promise God made to Noah not to destroy the earth by water again.

<sup>11</sup><sup>25</sup> For I don't desire you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, <sup>11</sup><sup>26</sup> and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written, "There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

<sup>11</sup><sup>34</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?"

<sup>11</sup><sup>35</sup> "Or who has first given to him, and it will be repaid to him again?"

<sup>11</sup><sup>36</sup> For of him, and through him, and to him are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>1</sup> Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. <sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God.

<sup>12</sup><sup>3</sup> For I say through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. <sup>12</sup><sup>4</sup> For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function, <sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another, <sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us: if prophecy, let's prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; <sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> or service, let's give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; <sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> or he who exhorts, to his exhorting; he who gives, let him do it with generosity; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

<sup>12</sup><sup>18</sup> If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men.

<sup>12</sup><sup>21</sup> Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup><sup>1</sup> Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God.

<sup>13</sup><sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. <sup>787</sup>

<sup>13</sup><sup>9</sup> For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>13</sup><sup>10</sup> Love doesn't harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law.

<sup>13</sup><sup>11</sup> Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. <sup>13</sup><sup>12</sup> The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the deeds of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light. <sup>13</sup><sup>13</sup> Let's walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy.<sup>13</sup><sup>14</sup> But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

<sup>14</sup><sup>5</sup> One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind.<sup>14</sup><sup>6</sup> He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks.<sup>14</sup><sup>7</sup> For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself.<sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's.<sup>14</sup><sup>9</sup> For to this end Christ died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

<sup>14</sup><sup>10</sup> But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.<sup>14</sup><sup>11</sup> For it is written, "As I live," says the Lord, 'to me every knee will bow. Every tongue will confess to God.'"<sup>788</sup>

<sup>14</sup><sup>12</sup> So then each one of us will give account of himself to God.

<sup>14</sup><sup>13</sup> Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling.

<sup>14</sup><sup>14</sup> I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

<sup>14</sup><sup>22</sup> Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves.<sup>14</sup><sup>23</sup> But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

<sup>14</sup><sup>24</sup> Now to him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages,<sup>14</sup><sup>25</sup> but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations;<sup>14</sup><sup>26</sup> to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.

<sup>15</sup><sup>4</sup> For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through perseverance and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.<sup>15</sup><sup>5</sup> Now the God of perseverance and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus,<sup>15</sup><sup>6</sup> that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>789</sup>

<sup>15</sup><sup>12</sup> Again, Isaiah says, "There will be the root of Jesse, he who arises to rule over the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles will hope."<sup>793</sup>

<sup>15</sup><sup>13</sup> Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>15</sup><sup>14</sup> I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others.<sup>15</sup><sup>15</sup> But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God,<sup>15</sup><sup>16</sup> that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest of the Good

News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>15</sup><sup>26</sup> For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup><sup>27</sup> Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. <sup>15</sup><sup>28</sup> When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain. <sup>15</sup><sup>29</sup> I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of Christ.

<sup>15</sup><sup>30</sup> Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, <sup>15</sup><sup>31</sup> that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, <sup>15</sup><sup>32</sup> that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest. <sup>15</sup><sup>33</sup> Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16

me. <sup>16</sup><sup>8</sup> Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. <sup>16</sup><sup>9</sup> Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. <sup>16</sup><sup>10</sup> Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. <sup>16</sup><sup>11</sup> Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet them of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. <sup>16</sup><sup>12</sup> Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Lord. <sup>16</sup><sup>13</sup> Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. <sup>16</sup><sup>14</sup> Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them. <sup>16</sup><sup>15</sup> Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. <sup>16</sup><sup>16</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of Christ greet you.

<sup>16</sup><sup>25</sup> to the only wise God by glory forever through Jesus Christ! Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

The First Epistle to the Corinthians was probably written about 25–27 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 55–57 AD).

Authorship:

It is widely believed that Paul was the author of the First Epistle to the Corinthians, probably written when he was in Ephesus.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,<sup>12</sup> to the assembly of God which is at Corinth—those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours:<sup>13</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup> I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; <sup>15</sup> that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge;<sup>16</sup> even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:<sup>17</sup> so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ;<sup>18</sup> who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>19</sup> God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

<sup>10</sup> Now I beg you, brothers, through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment.<sup>11</sup> For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you.<sup>12</sup> Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ."

<sup>13</sup> Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul?

<sup>14</sup> I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius,<sup>15</sup> so that no one should say that I had baptized you into my own name.

<sup>16</sup> (I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I baptized any other.)

<sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be made void.<sup>18</sup> For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.<sup>19</sup> For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise. I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."

<sup>20</sup> Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world?<sup>21</sup> For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe.<sup>22</sup> For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom,<sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks,<sup>24</sup> but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God;<sup>25</sup> because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

<sup>26</sup> For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble;<sup>27</sup> but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world that he might put to shame the things that are strong.<sup>28</sup> God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that don't exist, that he might bring to nothing the things that exist,<sup>29</sup> that no flesh should boast before God.<sup>30</sup> Because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption:<sup>31</sup> that, as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.<sup>22</sup> For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.<sup>23</sup> I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.<sup>24</sup> My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,<sup>25</sup> that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

<sup>26</sup> We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown, yet a wisdom not of this world nor of the rulers of this world who are coming to nothing.<sup>27</sup> But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory,<sup>28</sup> which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory.<sup>794</sup>

<sup>29</sup> But as it is written, "Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't enter into the heart of man, these God has prepared for those who love him."

<sup>30</sup> But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.

<sup>31</sup> For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit.<sup>795</sup>

<sup>22</sup> But we received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God.<sup>23</sup> We also speak these things, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.<sup>24</sup> Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned.<sup>25</sup> But

<sup>794</sup> Paul is saying that Jesus came as the Lord of Glory and not the Lord of Suffering described in Isaiah 53. The Lord of Glory is to establish the kingdom of heaven on earth and thereby bring complete salvation, of spirit and body, to all people. He is saying that killing Jesus was a mistake due to ignorance (see Topical Index #25).

<sup>795</sup> A reminder of the spiritual nature of human beings.

he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one.<sup>216</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?" But we have Christ's mind.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Brothers, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ.<sup>32</sup> I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, you aren't ready even now,<sup>33</sup> for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of men?<sup>34</sup> For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly?<sup>35</sup> Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed, and each as the Lord gave to him?<sup>36</sup> I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase.<sup>37</sup> So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.<sup>38</sup> Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.<sup>39</sup> For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building.<sup>310</sup> According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it.

<sup>311</sup> For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ.<sup>312</sup> But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble,<sup>313</sup> each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is.<sup>314</sup> If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward.<sup>315</sup> If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

<sup>316</sup> Don't you know that you are a temple of God, and that God's Spirit lives in you?<sup>796</sup>

<sup>317</sup> If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which you are.<sup>797</sup>

<sup>318</sup> Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.<sup>319</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness."<sup>798</sup>

<sup>321</sup> Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours,<sup>322</sup> whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours,<sup>323</sup> and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> So let a man think of us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries.<sup>42</sup> Here, moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful.<sup>43</sup> But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self.<sup>44</sup> For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord.<sup>45</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God.

<sup>46</sup> Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another.<sup>47</sup> For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?<sup>48</sup> You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.<sup>49</sup> For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men.<sup>50</sup> We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor.<sup>51</sup> Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place.

<sup>52</sup> We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure.<sup>53</sup> Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.

<sup>54</sup> I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.<sup>55</sup> For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, you don't have many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News.

<sup>56</sup> I beg you therefore, be imitators of me.

<sup>57</sup> Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly.<sup>58</sup> Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

<sup>59</sup> But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.<sup>60</sup> For God's Kingdom is not in word, but in power.<sup>61</sup> What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

<sup>796</sup> This passage indicates that not only is Jesus to be considered a living temple of God, but also all who believe in him and live accordingly. Thus, the perfection of which Jesus spoke in Matt 5:48, and oneness with God through the Lord, is meant for all. It is the fulfillment of the first blessing given to Adam and Eve (see Gen 1:28 and EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 3).

<sup>797</sup> Matt 5:48

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife.<sup>52</sup> You are arrogant, and didn't mourn instead, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you.<sup>53</sup> For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing.

<sup>54</sup> In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>55</sup> are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>56</sup> Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump?<sup>57</sup> Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place.<sup>58</sup> Therefore let's keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>59</sup> I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners;<sup>60</sup> yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortionists, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world.<sup>61</sup> But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortionist. Don't even eat with such a person.<sup>62</sup> For what do I have to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within?<sup>63</sup> But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves."

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?<sup>62</sup> Don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

<sup>63</sup> Don't you know that we will judge angels?<sup>799</sup>

How much more, things that pertain to this life?

<sup>64</sup> If then you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly?<sup>65</sup> I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers?<sup>66</sup> But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers!<sup>67</sup> Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?<sup>68</sup> No, but you yourselves do wrong and defraud, and that against your brothers.

<sup>69</sup> Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's Kingdom? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals,<sup>70</sup> nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortionists, will inherit God's Kingdom.<sup>71</sup> Some of you were such, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.

<sup>72</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything.<sup>73</sup> "Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality,<sup>800</sup> but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

<sup>74</sup> Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power.<sup>75</sup> Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be!

<sup>76</sup> Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two", he says, "will become one flesh."<sup>77</sup> But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit.<sup>78</sup> Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

<sup>79</sup> Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you,<sup>801</sup> whom you have from God? You are not your own,<sup>802</sup> for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman.<sup>802</sup>

<sup>76</sup> But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment.<sup>77</sup> Yet I wish that all men were like me.

<sup>799</sup> This passage confirms that humans are meant to be in a higher position in God's creation than the angels (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 5.2.2 Section 6.3.2). The Bible explains that this becomes clear when mankind, God's sons and daughters, realize their own perfection in God's love and character (Matt 5:48). Before our perfection, unfallen angels can be considered, in some sense, to be superior, as Hebrews says concerning even Jesus (Heb 1:5; 2:7-9).

<sup>802</sup> Sexual purity before marriage and fidelity within marriage is most important to human perfection, according to the Divine Principle (see EDP Part 1: Chapter 1: Sec 4.3.1). It is also related to the commandment given to Adam and Eve not to eat of the "fruit" of the "tree of the knowledge of good and evil" (Gen 3:12; 2:17).

However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind.<sup>78</sup> But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am.<sup>79</sup> But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn.<sup>80</sup> But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband<sup>81</sup> (but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

<sup>82</sup> But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her.

<sup>83</sup> The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband.

<sup>84</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.

<sup>85</sup> Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace.
<sup>86</sup> For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

<sup>87</sup> Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.

<sup>88</sup> Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.
<sup>89</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
<sup>90</sup> Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called.
<sup>91</sup> Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it.
<sup>92</sup> For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's bondservant.
<sup>93</sup> You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men.
<sup>94</sup> Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

<sup>95</sup> Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy.

<sup>96</sup> Therefore I think that because of the distress that is on us, that it's good for a man to remain as he is.

<sup>97</sup> Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife.
<sup>98</sup> But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you.

<sup>99</sup> But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none;

<sup>730</sup> and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess;
<sup>731</sup> and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away.

<sup>732</sup> But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;
<sup>733</sup> but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

<sup>734</sup> There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband.
<sup>735</sup> This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction.
<sup>736</sup> But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry.
<sup>737</sup> But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no urgency, but has power over his own will, and has determined in his own heart to keep his own virgin, does well.

<sup>738</sup> So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better.

<sup>739</sup> A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord.
<sup>740</sup> But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.
<sup>82</sup> But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know.
<sup>83</sup> But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him.
<sup>84</sup> Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one.
<sup>85</sup> For though there are things that are called "gods", whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords";
<sup>86</sup> yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him.
<sup>87</sup>

<sup>87</sup> However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.
<sup>88</sup> But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.
<sup>89</sup> But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak.
<sup>90</sup> For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols?<sup>811</sup> And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake Christ died.<sup>812</sup> Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.<sup>813</sup> Therefore if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forever more, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.

<sup>803</sup> God is our parent, in character and in heart, He is our Father.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Lord?<sup>804</sup> Aren't you my work in the Lord?<sup>92</sup> If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.<sup>93</sup> My defense to those who examine me is this:<sup>94</sup> Have we no right to eat and to drink?<sup>95</sup> Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?<sup>96</sup> Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work?

<sup>97</sup> What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk?<sup>98</sup> Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing?<sup>99</sup> For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it for the oxen that God cares, <sup>910</sup> or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope.<sup>911</sup> If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things?<sup>912</sup> If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we didn't use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ.<sup>913</sup> Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar?<sup>914</sup> Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News.<sup>915</sup> But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void.

<sup>916</sup> For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me if I don't preach the Good News.<sup>917</sup> For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me.<sup>918</sup> What then is my reward? That when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News.<sup>919</sup> For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more.<sup>920</sup> To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law;<sup>921</sup> to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law.<sup>922</sup> To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some.<sup>923</sup> Now I do this for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it.<sup>924</sup> Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win.<sup>925</sup> Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.<sup>926</sup> I therefore run like that, not aimlessly. I fight like that, not beating the air,<sup>927</sup> but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;<sup>102</sup> and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;<sup>103</sup> and all ate the same spiritual food;<sup>104</sup> and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.<sup>805</sup>

<sup>105</sup> However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness.<sup>106</sup> Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.<sup>107</sup> Don't be idolaters, as some of them were.

As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."<sup>108</sup> Let's not commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell.<sup>109</sup> Let's not test Christ, as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents.<sup>1010</sup> Don't grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer.<sup>1011</sup> Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come.<sup>1012</sup> Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall.

<sup>1013</sup> No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

<sup>1015</sup> I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say.<sup>1016</sup> The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't it a sharing of the body of Christ?<sup>1017</sup> Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread.<sup>1018</sup> Consider Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

<sup>1019</sup> What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?<sup>1020</sup> But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have fellowship with demons.

<sup>10</sup><sup>21</sup> You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons.<sup>10</sup><sup>22</sup> Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

<sup>10</sup><sup>23</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up.<sup>10</sup><sup>24</sup> Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good.<sup>10</sup><sup>25</sup> Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience,<sup>10</sup><sup>26</sup> for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness."<sup>10</sup><sup>27</sup> But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience.<sup>10</sup><sup>28</sup> But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, with all its fullness."<sup>10</sup><sup>29</sup> Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience?<sup>10</sup><sup>30</sup> If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for something I give thanks for?<sup>10</sup><sup>31</sup> Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.<sup>10</sup><sup>32</sup> Give no occasion for stumbling, whether to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God;<sup>10</sup><sup>33</sup> even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

<sup>11</sup><sup>1</sup> Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

<sup>11</sup><sup>2</sup> Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you.<sup>11</sup><sup>3</sup> But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.<sup>11</sup><sup>4</sup> Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head.

<sup>11</sup><sup>10</sup> For this cause the woman ought to have authority over her own head, because of the angels.

nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him?

<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering.<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies.

<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse.<sup>11</sup><sup>18</sup> For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it.<sup>11</sup><sup>19</sup> For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you.<sup>11</sup><sup>20</sup> When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat.<sup>11</sup><sup>21</sup> For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken.<sup>11</sup><sup>22</sup> What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly and put them to shame who don't have enough? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you.

<sup>11</sup><sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread.<sup>11</sup><sup>24</sup> When he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me."<sup>11</sup><sup>25</sup> In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me."<sup>11</sup><sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

<sup>11</sup><sup>27</sup> Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in a way unworthy of the Lord will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.<sup>11</sup><sup>28</sup> But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.<sup>11</sup><sup>29</sup> For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy way eats and drinks judgment to himself if he doesn't discern the Lord's body.

<sup>11</sup><sup>30</sup> For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep.<sup>11</sup><sup>31</sup> For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged.<sup>11</sup><sup>32</sup> But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.<sup>11</sup><sup>33</sup> Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

<sup>11</sup><sup>34</sup> But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>1</sup> Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant.<sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> You know that when you were heathen, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led.

<sup>12</sup><sup>3</sup> Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord.

<sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all.

<sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. <sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit;

<sup>12</sup><sup>9</sup> to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit; <sup>12</sup><sup>10</sup> and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages. <sup>12</sup><sup>11</sup> But the one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

<sup>12</sup><sup>12</sup> For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. <sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup> For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit. <sup>12</sup><sup>14</sup> For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>12</sup><sup>15</sup> If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. <sup>12</sup><sup>16</sup> If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. <sup>12</sup><sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? <sup>12</sup><sup>18</sup> But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. <sup>12</sup><sup>19</sup> If they were all one member, where would the body be? <sup>12</sup><sup>20</sup> But now they are many members, but one body. <sup>12</sup><sup>21</sup> The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you."

<sup>12</sup><sup>22</sup> No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>12</sup><sup>23</sup> Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety; <sup>12</sup><sup>24</sup> whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, <sup>12</sup><sup>25</sup> that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. <sup>12</sup><sup>26</sup> When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. When one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

<sup>12</sup><sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. <sup>12</sup><sup>28</sup> God has set some in the assembly: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. <sup>12</sup><sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? <sup>12</sup><sup>30</sup> Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? <sup>12</sup><sup>31</sup> But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup><sup>1</sup> If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. <sup>13</sup><sup>2</sup> If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. <sup>13</sup><sup>3</sup> If I give away all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.

<sup>13</sup><sup>4</sup> Love is patient and is kind. Love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, <sup>13</sup><sup>5</sup> doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; <sup>13</sup><sup>6</sup> doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; <sup>13</sup><sup>7</sup> bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. <sup>13</sup><sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. <sup>13</sup><sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part; <sup>13</sup><sup>10</sup> but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. <sup>13</sup><sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. <sup>13</sup><sup>12</sup> For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. <sup>806</sup>

<sup>13</sup><sup>13</sup> But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love. <sup>807</sup>

CHAPTER 14

<sup>14</sup><sup>6</sup> But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching?

<sup>14</sup><sup>7</sup> Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>14</sup><sup>8</sup> For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war?

<sup>807</sup> Others interpret "charity" to be "love". The Divine Principle and Unification Thought explain that the essence of God, and therefore Godliness, is true love. Therefore, the motivation, direction and purpose of all that a Godly person does should be true love (see New Essentials of UT, Chapter 1, Section 1 and EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Sections 1 and 4).

<sup>149</sup> So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. <sup>1410</sup> There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without meaning. <sup>1411</sup> If then I don't know the meaning of the language, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. <sup>1412</sup> So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. <sup>1413</sup> Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret.

<sup>1414</sup> For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

<sup>1415</sup> What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

<sup>1416</sup> Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? <sup>1417</sup> For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. <sup>1418</sup> I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all.

<sup>1419</sup> However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

<sup>1421</sup> In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. They won't even hear me that way, says the Lord." <sup>808</sup>

<sup>1422</sup> Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe.

<sup>1423</sup> If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? <sup>1424</sup> But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. <sup>1425</sup> And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

<sup>1426</sup> What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, or has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. <sup>1427</sup> If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. <sup>1428</sup> But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. <sup>1429</sup> Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. <sup>1430</sup> But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. <sup>1431</sup> For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. <sup>1432</sup> The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, <sup>1433</sup> for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the saints. <sup>1434</sup> Let the wives be quiet in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to be talking except in submission, as the law also says, <sup>1435</sup> if they desire to learn anything. "Let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a wife to be talking in the assembly." <sup>1436</sup> What!? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? <sup>1437</sup> If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. <sup>1438</sup> But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. <sup>1439</sup> Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages. <sup>1440</sup> Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>151</sup> Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, <sup>152</sup> by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. <sup>153</sup> For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>154</sup> that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>809</sup>

<sup>155</sup> and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. <sup>156</sup> Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. <sup>157</sup> Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, <sup>158</sup> and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. <sup>810</sup>

<sup>159</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. <sup>1510</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was given to me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>1511</sup> Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

<sup>1512</sup> Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>1513</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>1514</sup> If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. <sup>1515</sup> Yes, we are also found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead

<sup>810</sup> It is important to note that Paul says here that he "saw" Jesus, but his description of the encounter in Acts indicates that he did not actually see Jesus, but only saw a great light and heard his voice (see Acts 9:3–7; 22:14, 18; 23:11; 1 Cor 15:35–52).

are not raised.<sup>1516</sup> For if the dead aren't raised, neither has Christ been raised.

<sup>1517</sup> If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins.

1518 Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.<sup>811</sup>

<sup>1519</sup> If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

<sup>1520</sup> But now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruit of those who are asleep.

1521 For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man.

1522 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.<sup>812</sup>

<sup>523</sup> But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming.<sup>1524</sup> Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father, when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power.<sup>1525</sup> For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

<sup>1526</sup> The last enemy that will be abolished is death.

<sup>1527</sup> For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet." But when he says, "All things are put in subjection", it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him.<sup>1528</sup> When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all.<sup>813</sup>

<sup>1529</sup> Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead?<sup>1530</sup> Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour?

<sup>1531</sup> I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.<sup>1532</sup> If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let's eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."<sup>1533</sup> Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals."

<sup>1534</sup> Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

<sup>1535</sup> But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?"<sup>1536</sup> You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies.<sup>1537</sup> That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind.<sup>1538</sup> But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own.<sup>1539</sup> All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.<sup>1540</sup> There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial.<sup>1541</sup> There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.<sup>814</sup>

1542 So also is the resurrection of the dead.

The body is sown perishable; it is raised imperishable.

<sup>1543</sup> It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.<sup>1544</sup> It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.<sup>815</sup>

<sup>1545</sup> So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.<sup>816</sup>

<sup>1546</sup> However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual.<sup>1547</sup> The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord from heaven.<sup>1548</sup> As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.<sup>1549</sup> As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's also bear the image of the heavenly.

<sup>1550</sup> Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood can't inherit God's Kingdom; neither does the perishable inherit imperishable.<sup>817</sup>

<sup>1551</sup> Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>1552</sup> in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised incorruptible,<sup>818</sup>

and we will be changed.

<sup>1553</sup> For this perishable body must become imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality.<sup>1554</sup> But when this perishable body will have become imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

<sup>1556</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.<sup>1557</sup> But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>1558</sup> Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always <sup>811</sup> We can see here that death and resurrection are not referring to the body, but to the spirit. He says here that even those who died (physically) would therefore be dead (spiritually).

<sup>812</sup> This passage compares Adam with Jesus, who is called the "last Adam" by Paul (see also 1 Cor 15:45).

<sup>813</sup> This verse also shows that there is a clear distinction between Jesus and God the Creator (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:19, 26, 30; 14:28; 17:21–23; Heb 5:7–9; 1 Tim 2:5; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>814</sup> This is metaphorical language (see Gen 37:9; Eccl 12:2; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, 3:15; Matt 24:29; Rev 8:12, 12:1).

<sup>815</sup> A clear explanation that man was created with both a physical body and a spiritual body, and that the resurrection of the dead is a spiritual resurrection of the spiritual body, and not of the physical body of man (Eccl 12:7).

<sup>816</sup> This passage compares Jesus, a perfect man having God's spirit indwelling, to Adam who failed to realize his own perfection but died in imperfection and sin (see Matt 5:48; John 10:38).

<sup>817</sup> Here Jesus does not mean that the Kingdom is not an earthly one, but reminds of the virtuous qualities and qualifications necessary in order to be a part of God's Kingdom. It is not flesh and blood which qualifies one to inherit the Kingdom, but the many aspects of internal virtue Jesus has often described e.g. Matt 5:3–48 abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

<sup>818</sup> John 15:42, 52 states that man will be resurrected spiritually, incorruptible (see Ezek 37).

CHAPTER 16

<sup>16</sup>1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. <sup>16</sup>2 On the first day of every week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections are made when I come. <sup>16</sup>3 When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>4 If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. <sup>16</sup>5 But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. <sup>16</sup>6 But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. <sup>16</sup>7 For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.

<sup>16</sup>8 But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>16</sup>9 for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

<sup>16</sup>10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>16</sup>11 Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

<sup>16</sup>12 Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

<sup>16</sup>13 Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be courageous! Be strong! <sup>16</sup>14 Let all that you do be done in love.<sup>819</sup>

<sup>16</sup>15 Now I beg you, brothers—you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the saints—

<sup>16</sup>16 that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors.

<sup>16</sup>17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaeus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. <sup>16</sup>18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

<sup>16</sup>19 The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the assembly that is in their house.

<sup>16</sup>20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>16</sup>22 If any man doesn't love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be cursed. Come, Lord!

<sup>16</sup>23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

<sup>16</sup>24 My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

The Second Epistle to the Corinthians was probably written about 27 years after Jesus' crucifixion (circa 57 AD).

Authorship:

It is widely believed that Paul and Timothy wrote this epistle together.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy<sup>820</sup> our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia:<sup>12</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; <sup>14</sup> who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.<sup>15</sup> For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ.<sup>16</sup> But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. <sup>17</sup> Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so you are also of the comfort.<sup>18</sup> For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life.

that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead,<sup>10</sup> who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us;<sup>11</sup> you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift given to us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf.

<sup>12</sup> For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you.<sup>13</sup> For we write no other things to you than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end, <sup>14</sup> as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit,<sup>16</sup> and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea.<sup>17</sup> When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?"<sup>18</sup> But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no."<sup>19</sup> For the Son of God,

Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes."

<sup>120</sup> For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen", to the glory of God through us.

<sup>121</sup> Now he who establishes us with you in Christ and anointed us is God,<sup>122</sup> who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.

<sup>123</sup> But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you.<sup>124</sup> We don't control your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow.<sup>22</sup> For if I make you grieve, then who will make me glad but he who is made to grieve by me?<sup>23</sup> And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you.<sup>24</sup> For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made to grieve, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you.<sup>25</sup> But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all.<sup>26</sup> This punishment which was inflicted by the many is sufficient for such a one;

<sup>27</sup> so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him.<sup>29</sup> For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things.<sup>210</sup> Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ,<sup>211</sup> that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>212</sup> Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, <sup>213</sup> I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia.

<sup>214</sup> Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place.<sup>215</sup> For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved and in those who perish:<sup>216</sup> to the one a stench from death to death, to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?<sup>217</sup> For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as <sup>820</sup> Timothy was a close companion and trusted collaborator of Paul. He had a Greek father and Jewish mother (Acts 16:1–3; 1 Cor 4:17; Phil 2:19–22; 2 Tim 1:2). Timothy is often associated with Paul in his letters, and Paul's epistles sometimes include Timothy's name in the opening greetings, indicating that Timothy was closely involved in Paul's ministry and likely assisted him in various capacities.

<sup>821</sup> A reference to the stain of sin passed down through the human lineage from Adam and Eve, often called the original sin. Only the Lord can remove this sin from man's lineage (cf. John 8:44; Rom 8:23).

of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

31 Are we beginning again to command ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you?<sup>32</sup> You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men,<sup>33</sup> being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh.<sup>34</sup> Such confidence we have through Christ toward God,<sup>35</sup> not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God,<sup>36</sup> who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.<sup>37</sup> But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face, which was passing away,<sup>38</sup> won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory?<sup>39</sup> For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory.<sup>310</sup> For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses.<sup>311</sup> For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

312 Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech,<sup>313</sup> and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away.<sup>314</sup> But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away.<sup>315</sup> But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart.<sup>316</sup> But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.<sup>317</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.<sup>318</sup> But we all, with unveiled face seeing the glory of the Lord as in a mirror, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

CHAPTER 4

41 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint.

42 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by the manifestation of the truth commanding ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.<sup>43</sup> Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who are dying,<sup>44</sup> in whom the god of this world<sup>822</sup> has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them.<sup>45</sup> For we don't preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake,<sup>46</sup> seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

47 But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves.<sup>48</sup> We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair;<sup>49</sup> pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed;<sup>50</sup> always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.<sup>51</sup> For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh.<sup>52</sup> So then death works in us, but life in you.<sup>53</sup> But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." We also believe, and therefore we also speak;<sup>823</sup>

54 knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you.<sup>55</sup> For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

56 Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward person is decaying, yet our inward person is renewed day by day.<sup>57</sup> For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory,<sup>58</sup> while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.<sup>824</sup>

CHAPTER 5

51 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.<sup>52</sup> For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven,<sup>53</sup> if indeed being clothed, we will not be found naked.<sup>54</sup> For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened, not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.<sup>55</sup> Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

56 Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord;<sup>57</sup> for we walk by faith, not by sight.

58 We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.<sup>59</sup> Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well

<sup>824</sup> These passages (2 Cor 4:16–18) speak clearly to the temporal nature of the physical body and the eternal nature of the spiritual body. Eternal life is spiritual, not physical.

pleasing to him.<sup>510</sup> For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ that each one may receive the things in the body according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

<sup>511</sup> Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God, and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences.<sup>512</sup> For we are not commanding ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart.<sup>513</sup> For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you.<sup>514</sup> For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died.<sup>515</sup> He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again.

<sup>516</sup> Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more.<sup>825</sup>

<sup>517</sup> Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new.<sup>518</sup> But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation;<sup>519</sup> namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation.

<sup>520</sup> We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.<sup>521</sup> For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Working together, we entreat also that you do not receive the grace of God in vain,<sup>62</sup> for he says, "At an acceptable time I listened to you. In a day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation.<sup>63</sup> We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed,<sup>64</sup> but in everything commanding ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,

<sup>69</sup> as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed;<sup>610</sup> as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

<sup>611</sup> Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged.<sup>612</sup> You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections.

<sup>613</sup> Now in return, I speak as to my children: you also open your hearts.<sup>614</sup> Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship do righteousness and iniquity have? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness?<sup>615</sup> What agreement does Christ have with Belial? Or what portion does a believer have with an unbeliever?<sup>616</sup> What agreement does a temple of God have with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, "I will dwell in them and walk in them. I will be their God and they will be my people."<sup>826</sup>

<sup>617</sup> Therefore "Come out from among them, and be separate," says the Lord. 'Touch no unclean thing. I will receive you.'

<sup>618</sup> I will be to you a Father. You will be to me sons and daughters,' says the Lord Almighty."

CHAPTER 7

<sup>71</sup> Having therefore these promises, beloved, let's cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness<sup>827</sup> in the fear of God.

<sup>72</sup> Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one.

<sup>73</sup> I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and live together.<sup>74</sup> Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

<sup>75</sup> For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside.

<sup>76</sup> Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus,<sup>77</sup> and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more.

<sup>78</sup> For though I grieved you with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you grieve, though just for a while.

<sup>79</sup> I now rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to repentance. For you were grieved in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing.<sup>710</sup> For godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death.<sup>711</sup> For behold, this same thing, that you were grieved in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter.<sup>712</sup> So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God.<sup>713</sup> Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.<sup>714</sup> For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth.

<sup>715</sup> His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him.<sup>716</sup> I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia,<sup>82</sup> how in much proof of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity.<sup>83</sup> For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord,<sup>84</sup> begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints.<sup>85</sup> This was not as we had expected, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. <sup>86</sup> So we urged Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. <sup>87</sup> But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace.

<sup>88</sup> I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love.<sup>89</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich.<sup>90</sup> I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing.<sup>91</sup> But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability.

<sup>92</sup> For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have.

<sup>93</sup> For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed,<sup>94</sup> but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality.<sup>95</sup> As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."<sup>928</sup>

<sup>96</sup> But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.<sup>97</sup> For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord.

<sup>98</sup> We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known throughout all the assemblies.<sup>99</sup> Not only so, but he was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness.

<sup>820</sup> We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us.<sup>821</sup> Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

<sup>822</sup> We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you.<sup>823</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of Christ.<sup>824</sup> Therefore show the proof of your love to them before the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints,<sup>92</sup> for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to those of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for the past year. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. <sup>93</sup> But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared,<sup>94</sup> lest by any means, if anyone from Macedonia comes there with me and finds you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) would be disappointed in this confident boasting.

<sup>95</sup> I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness.

<sup>96</sup> Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.<sup>97</sup> Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.<sup>98</sup> And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work.<sup>99</sup> As it is written, "He has scattered abroad. He has given to the poor. His righteousness remains forever."<sup>929</sup>

<sup>910</sup> Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness,<sup>930</sup>

<sup>911</sup> you being enriched in everything to all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us.

<sup>912</sup> For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through much giving of thanks to God,<sup>913</sup> seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to all,<sup>914</sup> while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you.<sup>9</sup><sup>15</sup> Now thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

CHAPTER 10

<sup>10</sup><sup>1</sup> Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you.<sup>10</sup><sup>2</sup> Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh.

<sup>10</sup><sup>7</sup> Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that even as he is Christ's, so we also are Christ's. <sup>10</sup><sup>8</sup> For even if I boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down, I will not be ashamed, <sup>10</sup><sup>9</sup> that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. <sup>10</sup><sup>10</sup> For, "His letters", they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised."

<sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup> Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. <sup>10</sup><sup>12</sup> For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who command themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding.

<sup>10</sup><sup>13</sup> But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. <sup>10</sup><sup>14</sup> For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, <sup>10</sup><sup>15</sup> not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, <sup>10</sup><sup>16</sup> so as to preach the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. <sup>10</sup><sup>17</sup> But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord." <sup>10</sup><sup>18</sup> For it isn't he who commands himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commands.

CHAPTER 11

am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ.<sup>831</sup>

<sup>11</sup><sup>3</sup> But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.<sup>11</sup><sup>4</sup> For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we didn't preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you didn't receive, or a different "good news", which you didn't accept, you put up with that well enough. <sup>11</sup><sup>5</sup> For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. <sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. <sup>11</sup><sup>7</sup> Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge?<sup>11</sup><sup>8</sup> I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. <sup>11</sup><sup>9</sup> When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. <sup>11</sup><sup>10</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup><sup>11</sup> Why? Because I don't love you? God knows. <sup>11</sup><sup>12</sup> But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.

<sup>11</sup><sup>15</sup> It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little.

<sup>11</sup><sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the offspring of Abraham? So am I.

<sup>831</sup> This does not infer that that bride of Christ is literally the church or Christians, but conveys that we are to be pure and innocent in mind and heart before the Lord, as a virgin, ideally.

<sup>832</sup> Lucifer (Gen 14:12) was originally an angel of light, a good angel, trusted by the Father, but fell and became Satan (Job 1:6; Gen 3:1). He pretends still to be an angel of light (Rev 12:9).

I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep.<sup>1126</sup> I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers;<sup>1127</sup> in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

<sup>1128</sup> Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily: anxiety for all the assemblies.<sup>1129</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation?<sup>1130</sup> If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness.<sup>1131</sup>

The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>833</sup>

he who is blessed forever more, knows that I don't lie.
<sup>1133</sup> I was let down in a basket through a window by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>121</sup> It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

<sup>122</sup> I know a man in Christ who was caught up into the third heaven fourteen years ago—whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows.<sup>123</sup> I know such a man (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows),<sup>124</sup> how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.<sup>834</sup>

<sup>125</sup> On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.
<sup>126</sup> For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me or hears from me.

<sup>127</sup> By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, a thorn in the flesh was given to me: a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively.<sup>128</sup> Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me.<sup>129</sup> He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.<sup>1210</sup> Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, and in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong.<sup>1211</sup> I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for I am in no way inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing.
<sup>1212</sup> Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty works.<sup>1213</sup> For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

<sup>1214</sup> Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children.<sup>1215</sup> I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less?

<sup>1216</sup> Even so, I myself didn't burden you. "But, being crafty, I caught you with deception."<sup>1217</sup> Did I take advantage of you by anyone of those whom I have sent to you?

<sup>1218</sup> I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps?

<sup>1219</sup> Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying.

<sup>1220</sup> For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire, that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, or riots,<sup>1221</sup> that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness, sexual immorality, and lustfulness which they committed.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>131</sup> This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established."<sup>132</sup> I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare;<sup>133</sup> seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you.

<sup>134</sup> For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you.

<sup>135</sup> Examine your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you know about your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified.<sup>136</sup> But I hope that you will know that we aren't disqualified.

<sup>137</sup> Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate.

<sup>833</sup> Again, underscoring the distinction between Jesus and the Father (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>834</sup> These verses give insight into the nature of the spiritual world and remind us of the fact that we have both a physical self, or body, and a spiritual self (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 6).

strong. We also pray for this: your becoming perfect.<sup>835</sup>

<sup>13</sup>10 For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

<sup>13</sup>11 Finally, brothers, rejoice! Be perfected. Be comforted. Be of the same mind. Live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>13</sup>12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>13</sup>14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, God's love, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

GALATIANS

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

It is thought by scholars that this epistle was written about 20–30 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 50–60 AD). Some scholars date it earlier, around 47 AD.

Authorship:

It is generally accepted that Paul is the author of this epistle.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, an apostle—not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead<sup>836</sup><sup>12</sup> and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia:<sup>13</sup> Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>14</sup> who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father—<sup>15</sup> to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>16</sup> I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different “good news”,<sup>17</sup> but there isn’t another “good news.” Only there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the Good News of Christ.<sup>18</sup> But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any “good news” other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed.

<sup>19</sup> As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any “good news” other than that which you received, let him be cursed.<sup>10</sup> For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn’t be a servant of Christ.

<sup>11</sup> But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man.<sup>12</sup> For I didn’t receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.<sup>13</sup> For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews’ religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God and ravaged it.

<sup>14</sup> I advanced in the Jews’ religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.<sup>15</sup> But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother’s womb and called me through his grace<sup>16</sup> to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I didn’t immediately confer with flesh and blood,<sup>17</sup> nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup> Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days.<sup>19</sup> But of the other apostles I saw no one except James, the Lord’s brother.<sup>20</sup> Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I’m not lying.<sup>21</sup> Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.<sup>22</sup> I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ,<sup>23</sup> but they only heard: “He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy.”<sup>24</sup> So they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me.<sup>22</sup> I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain.<sup>23</sup> But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.<sup>24</sup> This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage,<sup>25</sup> to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you.<sup>26</sup> But from those who were reputed to be important—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn’t show partiality to man—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me,<sup>27</sup> but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcised, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcised—<sup>28</sup> for he who worked through Peter in the apostleship with the circumcised also worked through me with the Gentiles—<sup>29</sup> and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, those who were reputed to be pillars, gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision.<sup>10</sup> They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

<sup>21</sup> But when Peter came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned.<sup>22</sup> For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision.<sup>23</sup> And the rest of the Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

<sup>24</sup> But when I saw that they didn’t walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?”

<sup>25</sup> “We, being Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners,<sup>26</sup> yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law.<sup>27</sup> But if while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not!<sup>28</sup> For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker.

<sup>29</sup> For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God.<sup>20</sup> I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.

221 I don't reject the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

CHAPTER 3

31 Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed among you as crucified?<sup>32</sup> I just want to learn this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith?<sup>33</sup> Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh?<sup>34</sup> Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain?<sup>35</sup> He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you and does miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith?<sup>36</sup> Even so, Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness."

37 Know therefore that those who are of faith are children of Abraham.<sup>38</sup> The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed."<sup>39</sup> So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.

310 For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them."<sup>311</sup> Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith."<sup>312</sup> The law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live by them."

313 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"<sup>314</sup>

314 that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

315 Brothers, speaking of human terms, though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void or adds to it.<sup>316</sup> Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring. He doesn't say, "To descendants", as of many, but as of one, "To your offspring", which is Christ.<sup>317</sup> Now I say this: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect.

318 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

319 Then why is there the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.

320 Now a mediator does not represent just one party, but God is one.<sup>838</sup>

321 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law.<sup>322</sup> But the Scripture imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.<sup>839</sup>

323 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed.<sup>324</sup> So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.<sup>325</sup> But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.<sup>326</sup> For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus.<sup>327</sup> For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.<sup>328</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.<sup>329</sup> If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to promise.

CHAPTER 4

41 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all,
42 but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father.<sup>43</sup> So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world.<sup>44</sup> But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law,<sup>45</sup> that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as children.<sup>840</sup>

46 And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba, Father!"<sup>47</sup> So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

48 However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods.

49 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again?<sup>410</sup> You observe days, months, seasons, and years.<sup>411</sup> I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you.

412 I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong,<sup>413</sup> but you know that because of weakness in the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time.<sup>414</sup> That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

<sup>838</sup> For Jesus to serve as a "mediator" between the Father and fallen mankind, then there must be a distinction between the Father and Jesus. Jesus cannot be a mediator to himself (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>840</sup> That Christians are "adopted" children of Christ indicates fallen people are of the lineage not of God, but of Lucifer, due to his sexual fall with Eve. Thus the need for baptism and holy communion to engraft into Jesus through the partaking of his body and blood.

<sup>415</sup> What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.<sup>416</sup> So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?<sup>417</sup> They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them.<sup>418</sup> But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>419</sup> My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you—<sup>420</sup> but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.

<sup>421</sup> Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don't you listen to the law?<sup>422</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant, and one by the free woman.<sup>841</sup>

<sup>423</sup> However, the son by the servant was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise.<sup>424</sup> These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar.<sup>425</sup> For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children.<sup>426</sup> But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is the mother of us all.<sup>427</sup> For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren who don't bear. Break out and shout, you who don't travail. For the desolate have more children than her who has a husband."<sup>842</sup>

<sup>428</sup> Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise.<sup>429</sup> But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now.<sup>430</sup> However what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the servant and her son, for the son of the servant will not inherit with the son of the free woman."<sup>431</sup> So then, brothers, we are not children of a servant, but of the free woman.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

<sup>52</sup> Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing.<sup>53</sup> Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision that he is a debtor to do the whole law.<sup>54</sup> You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace.<sup>55</sup> For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness.

<sup>56</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love.

<sup>57</sup> You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth?<sup>58</sup> This persuasion is not from him who calls you.<sup>59</sup> A little yeast grows through the whole lump.<sup>510</sup> I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

<sup>511</sup> But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.<sup>512</sup> I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off.

<sup>513</sup> For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but serve one another in love.<sup>514</sup> For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."<sup>843</sup>

<sup>515</sup> But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another.

<sup>524</sup> Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts.

<sup>525</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let's also walk by the Spirit.

<sup>526</sup> Let's not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted.<sup>62</sup> Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.<sup>63</sup> For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.<sup>64</sup> But let each man examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself, and not in someone else.<sup>65</sup> For each man will bear his own burden.

<sup>66</sup> But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches.<sup>67</sup> Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.<sup>68</sup> For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the

<sup>843</sup> "Liberty" or freedom, is not license to live any way we please. It is given by God as a "freedom to love", creatively and spontaneously (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 2, Section 5.1).

<sup>844</sup> This speaks of what the Divine Principle, with much greater detail and insight, calls "mind and body unity" (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 1 and Section 6.3.3; also Chapter 7, Section 1).

Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.<sup>69</sup> Let's not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up.

<sup>610</sup> So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

<sup>611</sup> See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand.<sup>612</sup> As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh compel you to be circumcised; just so they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.<sup>613</sup> For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.<sup>614</sup> But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.<sup>615</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

<sup>616</sup> As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel.<sup>617</sup> From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus branded on my body.

<sup>618</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus:<sup>12</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,<sup>14</sup> even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without defect before him in love,
<sup>15</sup> having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself,<sup>845</sup> according to the good pleasure of his desire,<sup>16</sup> to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely gave us favor in the Beloved,<sup>17</sup> in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>18</sup> which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence,<sup>19</sup> making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him<sup>10</sup> to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth, in him.<sup>11</sup> We were also assigned an inheritance in him, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who does all things after the counsel of his will,
<sup>12</sup> to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ.<sup>13</sup> In him you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit,<sup>14</sup> who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory.

<sup>15</sup> For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints,<sup>16</sup> don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,
<sup>17</sup> that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him,

<sup>18</sup> having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,<sup>19</sup> and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might

<sup>120</sup> which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places,<sup>846</sup>

<sup>121</sup> far above all rule, authority, power, dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come.<sup>122</sup> He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly,<sup>123</sup> which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins,<sup>847</sup>

<sup>22</sup> in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience.<sup>23</sup> We also all once lived among them in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest.<sup>24</sup> But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us,<sup>25</sup> even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ<sup>848</sup>

—by grace you have been saved—<sup>26</sup> and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,<sup>27</sup> that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus;<sup>28</sup> for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God,<sup>29</sup> not of works, that no one would boast.<sup>210</sup> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.

<sup>211</sup> Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision" (in the flesh, made by hands),<sup>212</sup> that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world.<sup>213</sup> But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ.<sup>214</sup> For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of separation,<sup>215</sup> having abolished in his flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace,
<sup>216</sup> and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility through it.<sup>217</sup> He came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near.<sup>218</sup> For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.<sup>219</sup> So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God,<sup>220</sup> being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone;<sup>221</sup> in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord;<sup>222</sup> in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

<sup>845</sup> All people are predestined to eventually be saved and made whole through the Father's undying will that none should perish (2 Pet 3:9) and Jesus' statement that "Every knee shall bow and every tongue proclaim that Christ is lord." (Rom 14:11). It does not preclude man's own responsibility to "believe in him" (John 3:16) as a pre-requisite for salvation.

<sup>847</sup> As in Rom 8:11, this is speaking of a spiritual resurrection of people still alive in the flesh. They were spiritually dead, but are now alive in Christ."

<sup>848</sup> This compares this resurrection of the spirit of the living saints with Jesus' own resurrection.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles,<sup>32</sup> if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you,<sup>33</sup> how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words,<sup>34</sup> by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ,<sup>35</sup> which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit,<sup>36</sup> that the Gentiles are fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of his promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News,<sup>37</sup> of which I was made a servant according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power.<sup>38</sup> To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,<sup>39</sup> and to make all men see what is the administration of the mystery which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ,<sup>40</sup>

<sup>310</sup> to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places,<sup>311</sup> according to the eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord.<sup>312</sup> In him we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him.<sup>313</sup> Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

<sup>314</sup> For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>41</sup>

<sup>315</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,<sup>316</sup> that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner person,<sup>317</sup> that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love,<sup>318</sup> may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and height and depth,<sup>319</sup> and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>320</sup> Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,<sup>321</sup> to him be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called,<sup>42</sup> with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love,<sup>43</sup> being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
<sup>44</sup> There is one body and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling,<sup>45</sup> one Lord, one faith, one baptism,<sup>46</sup> one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all, and in us all.<sup>47</sup>

<sup>47</sup> But to each one of us, the grace was given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

<sup>48</sup> Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to people."

<sup>49</sup> Now this, "He ascended", what is it but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth?

<sup>410</sup> He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

<sup>411</sup> He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and teachers;<sup>412</sup> for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ,<sup>413</sup> until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ,<sup>414</sup> that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error;<sup>415</sup> but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him who is the head, Christ,<sup>416</sup> from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

<sup>417</sup> This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind,<sup>418</sup> being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts.

<sup>419</sup> They, having become callous, gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

<sup>420</sup> But you didn't learn Christ that way,

<sup>421</sup> if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus:<sup>422</sup> that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit,<sup>423</sup> and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind,<sup>424</sup> and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

<sup>850</sup> Another indication of the distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>851</sup> God is our parent, in character and in heart, He is our Father.

redemption.<sup>431</sup> Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander be put away from you, with all malice.<sup>432</sup> And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.

CHAPTER 5

5:1 Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children.

5:2 Walk in love, even as Christ also loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance.<sup>852</sup>

5:3 But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints;<sup>54</sup> nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate, but rather giving of thanks.

5:5 Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God.

5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience.<sup>57</sup> Therefore don't be partakers with them.<sup>58</sup> For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, 59 for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth,<sup>510</sup> proving what is well pleasing to the Lord.<sup>511</sup> Have no fellowship with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather even reprove them.<sup>512</sup> For it is a shame even to speak of the things which are done by them in secret.<sup>513</sup> But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light.<sup>514</sup> Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

5:15 Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise,<sup>516</sup> redeeming the time, because the days are evil.<sup>517</sup> Therefore don't be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.<sup>518</sup> Don't be drunken with wine, in which is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit,<sup>519</sup> speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;<sup>520</sup> giving thanks always concerning all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God, even the Father;<sup>521</sup> subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Christ.

5:22 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord.<sup>523</sup> For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body.<sup>524</sup> But as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

5:25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it;<sup>526</sup> that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word,<sup>527</sup> that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without defect.<sup>528</sup> Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself.<sup>529</sup> For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly,<sup>530</sup> because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones.

5:31 "For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. Then the two will become one flesh."<sup>853</sup>

5:32 This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and of the assembly.<sup>533</sup> Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

CHAPTER 6

6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.<sup>62</sup> "Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with a promise,<sup>63</sup> "that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth."

6:4 You fathers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.<sup>854</sup>

6:5 Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ,<sup>66</sup> not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,<sup>67</sup> with good will doing service as to the Lord, and not to men,<sup>68</sup> knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same good again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free.

6:9 You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might.<sup>611</sup> Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

6:12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.<sup>613</sup> Therefore put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

6:14 Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,<sup>615</sup> and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace,<sup>616</sup> above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.

<sup>852</sup> This indicates that Jesus gave himself to God as a sacrifice for us. This, again, indicates a distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>854</sup> These passages speak to God's second great blessing to Adam and Eve, to "multiply", (Gen 1:28) meaning to create a Godly family. More in-depth meaning can be found through reading the Divine Principle (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 3).

<sup>6</sup><sup>17</sup> And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God;<sup>855</sup>

<sup>6</sup><sup>18</sup> with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints;<sup>6</sup><sup>19</sup> on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News,<sup>6</sup><sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

<sup>6</sup><sup>21</sup> But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things.
<sup>6</sup><sup>22</sup> I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state and that he may comfort your hearts.

<sup>6</sup><sup>23</sup> Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>6</sup><sup>24</sup> Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love. Amen.

---

<sup>855</sup> Jesus slays unrighteousness with the sword of truth, or the word of God (see Rev 1:16; 2:16; 19:15, 21).

PHILIPPIANS

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

Most scholars think this epistle was written about 32 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 62 AD).

It seems to have been written during one of Paul's incarcerations, but which one is unclear.

Authorship:

Most scholars agree that Paul was the likely author of this epistle.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ; To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants:

<sup>12</sup> Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>13</sup> I thank my God whenever I remember you,<sup>14</sup> always in every request of mine on behalf of you all, making my requests with joy,<sup>15</sup> for your partnership in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now;<sup>16</sup> being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ.<sup>17</sup> It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace.

<sup>18</sup> For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment, <sup>10</sup> so that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ,<sup>11</sup> being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup> Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News, <sup>13</sup> so that it became evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ,<sup>14</sup> and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear.<sup>15</sup> Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will.<sup>16</sup> The former insincerely preach Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains;<sup>17</sup> but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News.

<sup>18</sup> What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice.

<sup>19</sup> For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your prayers and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,<sup>20</sup> according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death.

<sup>21</sup> For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.<sup>122</sup> But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't know what I will choose.<sup>123</sup> But I am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better.<sup>124</sup> Yet to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake.<sup>125</sup> Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all for your progress and joy in the faith,<sup>126</sup> that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

<sup>127</sup> Only let your way of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News,<sup>128</sup> and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God.
<sup>129</sup> Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf,<sup>130</sup> having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> If therefore there is any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion,<sup>22</sup> make my joy full by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind;<sup>23</sup> doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself;<sup>24</sup> each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

<sup>25</sup> Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus,<sup>26</sup> who, existing in the form of God, didn't consider equality with God a thing to be grasped,<sup>27</sup> but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men.

<sup>28</sup> And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, yes, the death of the cross.<sup>29</sup> Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name,<sup>856</sup>

<sup>20</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth,<sup>21</sup> and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.<sup>857</sup>

<sup>212</sup> So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

<sup>213</sup> For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure.<sup>858</sup>

<sup>214</sup> Do all things without complaining and arguing,<sup>215</sup> that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without defect in the middle of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world,<sup>216</sup> holding up the word of life, that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain.

<sup>857</sup> This indicates that all will eventually be saved through Jesus (see Isa 45:23; Rom 14:11).

<sup>858</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

217 Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all.
218 In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

219 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing.
220 For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you.
221 For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ.
222 But you know the proof of him, that as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News.
223 Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me.
224 But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly.
225 But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need,
226 since he longed for you all, and was very troubled because you had heard that he was sick.
227 For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow.

228 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
229 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such people in honor,
230 because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

CHAPTER 3

31 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe.
32 Beware of the dogs; beware of the evil workers; beware of the false circumcision.
33 For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh,
34 though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more:
35 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee;
36 concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

37 However, I consider those things that were gain to me as a loss for Christ.
38 Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be a loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ
39 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith,
40 that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death,
41 if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.
42 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect;

but I press on, that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.

43 Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do: forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before,
44 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
45 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you.
46 Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let's walk by the same rule. Let's be of the same mind.

47 Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example.
48 For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ,
49 whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things.
50 For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,
51 who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

CHAPTER 4

41 Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

42 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord.
43 Yes, I beg you also, true partner, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.
44 Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!"
45 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.
46 In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.
47 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

48 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report: if there is any virtue and if there is any praise, think about these things.
49 The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

50 But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity.
51 Not that I speak because of lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it.
52 I know how to be humbled, and I also know how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need.

53 I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me.

<sup>4</sup>14 However you did well that you shared in my affliction.<sup>4</sup>15 You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only.<sup>4</sup>16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need.<sup>4</sup>17 Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account.<sup>4</sup>18 But I have all things and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God.

<sup>4</sup>19 My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.<sup>4</sup>20 Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>4</sup>23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

COLOSSIANS

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

This epistle may have been written while Paul was incarcerated, but if Paul was not the author, then the dating may be later, around 80 AD (about 50 years after Jesus' crucifixion).

Authorship:

Traditional scholars have attributed this epistle to Paul and Timothy. However, many later scholars have argued against that, citing much evidence that might imply that Paul was not the author of this epistle.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,<sup>12</sup> to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,<sup>14</sup> having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have toward all the saints,<sup>15</sup> because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News<sup>16</sup> which has come to you, even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth,<sup>17</sup> even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on your behalf,<sup>18</sup> who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

<sup>19</sup> For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,<sup>10</sup> that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God,<sup>11</sup> strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy,<sup>12</sup> giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light,<sup>13</sup> who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love,<sup>14</sup> in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins.

<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.<sup>16</sup> For by him all things were created in the heavens and on the earth, visible things and invisible things, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things have been created through him and for him.<sup>17</sup> He is before all things, and in him all things are held together.<sup>859</sup>

<sup>18</sup> He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he might have the preeminence.<sup>19</sup> For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him,<sup>10</sup> and through him to reconcile all things to himself by him, whether things on the earth or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of his cross.

<sup>21</sup> You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil deeds,<sup>22</sup> yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without defect and blameless before him,<sup>23</sup> if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven, of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

<sup>124</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly,<sup>125</sup> of which I was made a servant according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you to fulfill the word of God,<sup>126</sup> the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints,<sup>127</sup> to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.<sup>128</sup> We proclaim him, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus;<sup>29</sup> for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh,<sup>22</sup> that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ,<sup>23</sup> in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.

<sup>24</sup> Now I say this that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech.<sup>25</sup> For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

<sup>26</sup> As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him,<sup>27</sup> rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving.

<sup>28</sup> Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ.<sup>29</sup> For in him all the fullness of the Deity dwells bodily,<sup>10</sup> and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power.

<sup>211</sup> In him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ,<sup>212</sup> having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.<sup>860</sup>

<sup>213</sup> You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses,<sup>214</sup> wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us. He has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross.<sup>215</sup> Having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>216</sup> Let no one therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon

<sup>860</sup> Here Paul tells that those who believe in Christ are "risen with him". Thus, the resurrection is a spiritual resurrection rather than a physical one. Also, he again speaks of the Father distinct from the son, as the God "who raised him from the dead" (Gal 1:1; Rom 10:9; also see Topical Index #27 and #33).

or a Sabbath day,<sup>217</sup> which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's.<sup>218</sup> Let no one rob you of your prize by self-abasement and worshiping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,<sup>219</sup> and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth.

<sup>220</sup> If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances,<sup>221</sup> "Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch"<sup>222</sup> (all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men?<sup>223</sup> These things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>312</sup> Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance;<sup>313</sup> bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as Christ forgave you, so you also do.

<sup>314</sup> Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection.<sup>315</sup> And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body, and be thankful.<sup>316</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord.

<sup>318</sup> Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

<sup>321</sup> Fathers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.

<sup>322</sup> Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.<sup>323</sup> And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men,<sup>324</sup> knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ.<sup>325</sup> But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

<sup>42</sup> Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving,<sup>43</sup> praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds,<sup>44</sup> that I may reveal it as I ought to speak.<sup>45</sup> Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time.

<sup>46</sup> Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

<sup>47</sup> All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord.<sup>48</sup> I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts,<sup>49</sup> together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here.

<sup>410</sup> Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if he comes to you, receive him"),<sup>411</sup> and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for God's Kingdom who are of the circumcision, men who have been a comfort to me.

<sup>412</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.<sup>413</sup> For I testify about him that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis.<sup>414</sup> Luke,<sup>864</sup> the beloved physician and Demas greet you.<sup>415</sup> Greet the brothers who are in

<sup>862</sup> Again speaking of the distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>863</sup> The Divine Principle speaks extensively to the relationships within the marriage and family as they are in fulfillment of God's second blessing to Adam and Eve, which was to "multiply" (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 3 and Gen 1:22).

<sup>864</sup> This Luke was not one of Jesus' 12 Apostles. He was a friend of Paul and a medical doctor (Col 4:14; 2 Tim 4:11; Phlm 24). Luke is believed by scholars to have been the author of the Gospel of Luke and Acts.

Laodicea, and Nympha, and the assembly that is in his house.<sup>416</sup> When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans, and that you also read the letter from Laodicea.<sup>417</sup> Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."

<sup>418</sup> The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 THESSALONIANS

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

This book is considered by scholars as possibly the earliest of Paul's writings and also the first written of the entire New Testament. It is thought that it was written about 22 years after Jesus' crucifixion (circa 52 AD).

Authorship:

Scholars generally agree that Paul is the author of this epistle, and that it was probably written in either Corinth or in Athens.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>865</sup>

2 We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers,

3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and perseverance of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father.<sup>14</sup> We know, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen,<sup>15</sup> and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake.

4 You became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit,<sup>17</sup> so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.<sup>18</sup> For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out, so that we need not to say anything.

5 For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God,<sup>10</sup> and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead: Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

1 For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you wasn't in vain,<sup>22</sup> but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict.<sup>23</sup> For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception.<sup>24</sup> But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak: not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts.<sup>25</sup> For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness),<sup>26</sup> nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ.<sup>27</sup> But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

28 Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us.

29 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God.

10 You are witnesses with God how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe.<sup>211</sup> As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children,<sup>212</sup> to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory.<sup>213</sup> For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe.<sup>214</sup> For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews<sup>215</sup> who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and don't please God, and are contrary to all men,<sup>866</sup>

16 forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire,<sup>218</sup> because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us.<sup>219</sup> For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Jesus at his coming?<sup>220</sup> For you are our glory and our joy.

CHAPTER 3

31 Therefore when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone,<sup>32</sup> and sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith,<sup>33</sup> that no one would be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task.

34 For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know.

35 For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain.

36 But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you,<sup>37</sup> for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith.<sup>38</sup> For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.

39 For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God,<sup>310</sup> night and day praying

<sup>865</sup> Again, this passage implies a distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>866</sup> Here Paul indicates that God was displeased with the Jews, and strongly implies that the killing of Jesus was not what God wanted them to do. He also did not want them to kill the prophets who were sent (see Matt 21:35; 23:37; Luke 13:34; Acts 7:51–53; and Topical Index #25).

exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

311 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.<sup>867</sup>

312 May the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you.<sup>868</sup>

313 to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4

41 Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more and more.<sup>42</sup> For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

43 For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality,<sup>44</sup> that each one of you know how to control his own body in sanctification and honor,<sup>45</sup> not in the passion of lust,<sup>869</sup> even as the Gentiles who don't know God,<sup>46</sup> that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified.

47 For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification.<sup>48</sup> Therefore he who rejects this doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

49 But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another,<sup>50</sup> for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more,<sup>51</sup> and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you;<sup>52</sup> that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

413 But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope.<sup>414</sup> For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus.<sup>870</sup>

415 For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep.<sup>416</sup> For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first,<sup>871</sup>

417 then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds,<sup>872</sup> to meet the Lord in the air.<sup>873</sup>

So we will be with the Lord forever.

418 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

51 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you.<sup>52</sup> For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night.<sup>874</sup>

53 For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman. Then they will in no way escape.

54 But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief.<sup>55</sup> You are all children of light and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness,<sup>56</sup> so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober.

57 For those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who are drunk are drunk in the night.<sup>58</sup> But since we belong to the day, let's be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.

59 For God didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>510</sup> who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

511 Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do.

512 But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you,

513 and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves.

514 We exhort you, brothers: Admonish the disorderly; encourage the faint-hearted; support the weak; be patient toward all.

515 See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good for one another and for all.

516 Always rejoice.

517 Pray without ceasing.

518 In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.

519 Don't quench the Spirit.

520 Don't despise prophecies.

<sup>867</sup> Again, implying a distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>870</sup> Those "which sleep in Jesus" refers to believers who have died. Because they believe in Jesus, they will be with him, not physically, but in spirit, eternally. It does not imply that they will be restored into physical bodies again.

<sup>871</sup> The dead in Christ are those who died believing in Jesus.

<sup>873</sup> The term "air" may be metaphorical. Jesus is said to have "descended from heaven", when in fact he was born on earth in a normal manner.

<sup>874</sup> The implication is that those who are not awake, not watching, will miss the Lord's coming. This would be unlikely if the Lord would appear literally in the clouds in the sky with trumpets and angels, etc. The language is metaphorical (see Rev 3:3; Luke 21:34-36).

<sup>5</sup>21 Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good.

<sup>5</sup>23 May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>24 He who calls you is faithful, who will also do it.

<sup>5</sup>25 Brothers, pray for us.

<sup>5</sup>27 I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

<sup>5</sup>28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars who believe that Paul was the author of this epistle, date it around 21–22 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 51–52 AD). However, other scholars believe this was written much later, by someone else, around 50–85 years after Jesus' crucifixion (circa 80–115 AD).

Authorship:

As mentioned above, many scholars believe Paul wrote this epistle, while others do not.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:<sup>12</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you toward one another abounds,<sup>14</sup> so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your perseverance and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure.<sup>15</sup> This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of God's Kingdom, for which you also suffer.<sup>16</sup> Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you,<sup>17</sup> and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire,<sup>18</sup> punishing those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus,<sup>19</sup> who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might,<sup>10</sup> when he comes in that day to be glorified in his saints and to be admired among all those who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.<sup>11</sup> To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith with power,<sup>12</sup> that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to him, we ask you<sup>22</sup> not to be quickly shaken in your mind, and not be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as if from us, saying that the day of Christ has already come.<sup>23</sup> Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction,<sup>24</sup> he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself up as God.<sup>25</sup> Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?<sup>26</sup> Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.<sup>27</sup> For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way.<sup>28</sup> Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming;<sup>29</sup> even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,<sup>210</sup> and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.<sup>211</sup> Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie;<sup>212</sup> that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

<sup>213</sup> But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth,<sup>214</sup> to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>215</sup> So then, brothers, stand firm and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word or by letter.

<sup>216</sup> Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace,<sup>217</sup> comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you,<sup>32</sup> and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith.<sup>33</sup> But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one.<sup>34</sup> We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command.<sup>35</sup> May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love, and into the perseverance of Christ.

<sup>36</sup> Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us.<sup>37</sup> For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you,<sup>38</sup> neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you,<sup>39</sup> not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us.<sup>310</sup> For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone is not willing to work, don't let him eat."<sup>311</sup> For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies.<sup>312</sup> Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that they work with quietness and eat their own bread.

<sup>313</sup> But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing what is right.<sup>314</sup> If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed.<sup>315</sup> Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

<sup>316</sup> Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>317</sup> The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write.<sup>318</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 TIMOTHY

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

Brief background summary

Dating:

If it was written by Paul, it is generally believed to be dated about 32–37 years after the crucifixion of Jesus (circa 62–67 AD). If it was not written by Paul, scholars suggest it may have been written sometime between 80–150 AD.

Authorship:

Traditionally it has been believed that Paul was the author of this epistle, but many modern scholars have doubted that claim and attribute it to someone else, unknown.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the commandment of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ our hope;<sup>12</sup> to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

13 As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine,<sup>14</sup> and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith—<sup>15</sup> but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith,<sup>16</sup> from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned away to vain talking,<sup>17</sup> desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm.<sup>18</sup> But we know that the law is good, if a person uses it lawfully,<sup>19</sup> as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,<sup>10</sup> for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine,<sup>11</sup> according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service;<sup>13</sup> although I used to be a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.<sup>14</sup> The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.<sup>15</sup> The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.<sup>16</sup> However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life.<sup>17</sup> Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18 I commit this instruction to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which were given to you before, that by them you may wage the good warfare,<sup>19</sup> holding faith and a good conscience, which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith,<sup>20</sup> of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

21 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks be made for all men:<sup>22</sup> for kings and all who are in high places, that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence.

23 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior,<sup>24</sup> who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth.<sup>875</sup>

25 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,<sup>876</sup>

26 who gave himself as a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times,<sup>27</sup> to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

28 I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting.

29 In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety, not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing,<sup>210</sup> but with good works, which is appropriate for women professing godliness.<sup>211</sup> Let a woman learn in quietness with full submission.<sup>212</sup> But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness.<sup>213</sup> For Adam was formed first, then Eve.<sup>877</sup>

214 Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a sinner;<sup>878</sup>

215 but she will be saved through her childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3

31 This is a faithful saying: someone who seeks to be an overseer desires a good work.<sup>32</sup> The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching,<sup>33</sup> not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous;<sup>34</sup> one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence;<sup>35</sup> (but how could someone who doesn't know how to rule one's own house take care of God's assembly?)<sup>36</sup> not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil.<sup>37</sup> Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

38 Servants, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money,<sup>39</sup> holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.<sup>310</sup> Let them also first be tested; then let them serve if they are blameless.

<sup>875</sup> This indicates that God wants to save all people, not only His elect (Isa 45:23; Rom 14:11).

<sup>876</sup> This passage again indicates the distinction between the Father and Jesus. If Jesus were not distinct from the Father, then he could not be a "mediator" between the people and himself (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:19, 26, 30; 14:28; 17:21–23; 1 Cor 5:27–28; Heb 5:7–9; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>877</sup> There are two creation narratives (Gen 1:27; 2:7, 22). In the first, Adam and Eve are simultaneously created. In the second, Adam is created and later Eve is created from one of his ribs.

<sup>878</sup> Eve was deceived by Lucifer (the Serpent) to fall, but later Eve tempted Adam to disobey God's commandment, and he fell with her (Gen 3:1–12).

<sup>316</sup> Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great: God was revealed in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen by angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, and received up in glory. <sup>879</sup>

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, <sup>42</sup> through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron, <sup>43</sup> forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>44</sup> For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. <sup>45</sup> For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

<sup>46</sup> If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. <sup>47</sup> But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness. <sup>48</sup> For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. <sup>49</sup> This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. <sup>50</sup> For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. <sup>880</sup>

<sup>52</sup> Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity.

<sup>53</sup> Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching.

<sup>54</sup> Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders.

<sup>55</sup> Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all.

<sup>46</sup> Pay attention to yourself and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; <sup>52</sup> the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. <sup>53</sup> Honor widows who are widows indeed. <sup>54</sup> But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety toward their own family and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of God. <sup>55</sup> Now she who is a widow indeed and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day.

<sup>56</sup> But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives. <sup>881</sup>

<sup>57</sup> Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. <sup>58</sup> But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

<sup>59</sup> Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, <sup>60</sup> being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

<sup>61</sup> But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, <sup>62</sup> having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. <sup>63</sup> Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. <sup>64</sup> I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. <sup>65</sup> For already some have turned away after Satan. <sup>66</sup> If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened, that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.

<sup>67</sup> Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. <sup>68</sup> For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."

<sup>69</sup> Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses.

<sup>70</sup> Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear.

<sup>71</sup> I command you in the sight of God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. <sup>72</sup> Lay hands hastily on no one. Don't be a participant in other people's sins. Keep yourself pure.

<sup>879</sup> A definition of "Godliness". To say that "God was manifest in the flesh" means that God's spirit was indwelling in Jesus and that he was fully resonant with God's spirit, heart and mind. It does not mean that the Father and Jesus were one and the same being. It means that the Father was expressed through Jesus, as He desires to be indwelling in all of His children in their intended perfection (see Matt 5:48; John 14:10; 1 Tim 4:8).

<sup>880</sup> God can be called the savior of all men, since all men can be saved by Him. However, in order to be saved, each person must believe in the salvation which He offers to them (John 3:16).

<sup>881</sup> This passage again shows the distinction between physical life and death, and spiritual life and death (see Matt 8:22; Luke 9:60).

<sup>523</sup> Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

<sup>524</sup> Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later.<sup>525</sup> In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

CHAPTER 6

<sup>61</sup> Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed.

<sup>62</sup> Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

<sup>66</sup> But godliness with contentment is great gain.<sup>67</sup> For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out.<sup>68</sup> But having food and clothing, we will be content with that.<sup>69</sup> But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation, a snare, and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction.

<sup>610</sup> For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

<sup>611</sup> But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness.

<sup>612</sup> Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses.<sup>613</sup> I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession,<sup>614</sup> that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>615</sup> which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords.

<sup>616</sup> He alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.<sup>882</sup>

<sup>617</sup> Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be arrogant, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy;<sup>618</sup> that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to share;<sup>619</sup> laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.

<sup>620</sup> Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge,<sup>621</sup> which some profess, and thus have wandered from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

<sup>882</sup> This verse must refer to God, rather than Jesus, since the Bible says "No one has ever seen God" (John 1:18; 1 John 4:12) and since appearances of Jesus were common after his crucifixion (see Matt 28:9–10; Luke 24:13–16, 30–31; John 20:19–20, 26–28; 1 Cor 15:3–6).

2 TIMOTHY

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

Brief background summary

Dating:

This epistle may have been written around the end of Paul's life, or later. It is unclear. That would make it sometime after 67 AD (about 37 years after Jesus' crucifixion, or later).

Authorship:

Most modern scholars do not think that Paul was the author of this epistle, but rather one of Paul's followers.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus,<sup>12</sup> to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>13</sup> I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day<sup>14</sup> longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy;<sup>15</sup> having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you, which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

<sup>16</sup> For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.<sup>17</sup> For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control.<sup>18</sup> Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God,<sup>19</sup> who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time.<sup>883</sup>

<sup>10</sup> but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News.<sup>884</sup>

<sup>11</sup> For this I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

<sup>12</sup> For this cause I also suffer these things. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

<sup>13</sup> Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup> That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>15</sup> This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me, of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain,<sup>17</sup> but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently and found me<sup>18</sup> (the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.<sup>22</sup> The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same things to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.<sup>23</sup> You therefore must endure hardship as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier.<sup>25</sup> Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules.

<sup>26</sup> The farmer who labors must be the first to get a share of the crops.<sup>27</sup> Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.

<sup>28</sup> Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the offspring of David, according to my Good News,<sup>885</sup>

<sup>29</sup> in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.<sup>211</sup> This saying is trustworthy: "For if we died with him, we will also live with him.<sup>886</sup>

<sup>212</sup> If we endure, we will also reign with him. If we deny him, he also will deny us.

<sup>213</sup> If we are faithless, he remains faithful; for he can't deny himself."

<sup>214</sup> Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

<sup>215</sup> Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth.<sup>216</sup> But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in ungodliness,<sup>217</sup> and those words will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus:<sup>218</sup> men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some.<sup>887</sup>

<sup>219</sup> However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness."<sup>220</sup> Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor.<sup>221</sup> If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

<sup>884</sup> The passage speaks of spiritual death, and spiritual life eternal through the saving grace given by the Lord (1 Tim 6:16).

<sup>885</sup> All of Paul's references to Jesus' resurrection clearly point to a spiritual resurrection, rather than physical (see 1 Cor 15:4-8; 35-52; Acts 9:3-7).

<sup>886</sup> Paul is saying if we die (physically) with Jesus in our hearts, then we will live with him in spirit forever.

<sup>887</sup> Paul is saying that Jesus continues to live in the resurrection of the spirit, forever. It is not an event which has ceased to continue.

quarrel, but be gentle toward all, able to teach, patient,<sup>25</sup> in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth,<sup>26</sup> and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> But know this: that in the last days, grievous times will come.<sup>32</sup> For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholly,
<sup>33</sup> without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, not lovers of good,
<sup>34</sup> traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, <sup>35</sup> holding a form of godliness, but having denied its power. Turn away from these, also.
<sup>36</sup> For some of these are people who creep into houses and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts,<sup>37</sup> always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
<sup>38</sup> Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind, who concerning the faith are rejected.<sup>39</sup> But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be.<sup>40</sup> But you followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness,<sup>41</sup> persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. The Lord delivered me out of them all.
<sup>42</sup> Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.<sup>43</sup> But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.<sup>44</sup> But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them.<sup>45</sup> From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus.<sup>46</sup> Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness,<sup>47</sup> so that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.<sup>888</sup>

<sup>41</sup> I command you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom:<sup>42</sup> preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort with all patience and teaching.<sup>43</sup> For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts,<sup>44</sup> and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn away to fables.

<sup>45</sup> But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.

<sup>46</sup> For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come.

<sup>47</sup> I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith.<sup>48</sup> From now on, the crown of righteousness is stored up for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing.

<sup>49</sup> Be diligent to come to me soon,<sup>50</sup> for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia; and Titus to Dalmatia.<sup>51</sup> Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service.

<sup>52</sup> But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.<sup>53</sup> Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments.<sup>54</sup> Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds,<sup>55</sup> of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.

<sup>56</sup> At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them.<sup>57</sup> But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear. So I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.<sup>58</sup> And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his heavenly Kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>62</sup> The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Brief background summary

Dating:

If Paul was the author of this letter, then it is thought to have been written about 66–67 AD (about 36–37 years after Jesus' crucifixion). If it was not written by Paul, it is thought that it may have been written much later, even as late as the end of the 2nd century AD.

Authorship:

Traditional scholarship attributes this letter to Paul. However, many modern scholars believe that it was written not by Paul, but by someone else, possibly much later after Paul's death.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness,<sup>12</sup> in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began;<sup>889</sup>

<sup>13</sup> but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior;<sup>14</sup> to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

<sup>15</sup> I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you;<sup>16</sup> if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior.

<sup>17</sup> For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward, not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain;<sup>18</sup> but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled,<sup>19</sup> holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him.

<sup>10</sup> For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, whose mouths must be stopped: men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake.

<sup>13</sup> This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,<sup>14</sup> not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.

<sup>15</sup> To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

<sup>16</sup> They profess that they know God, but by their deeds they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.<sup>890</sup>

CHAPTER 2

<sup>1</sup> But say the things which fit sound doctrine,<sup>2</sup> that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in perseverance:<sup>3</sup> and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good,<sup>4</sup> that they may train the young wives to love their husbands, to love their children,<sup>25</sup> to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed.<sup>6</sup> Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded.

<sup>7</sup> In all things show yourself an example of good works. In your teaching, show integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility,<sup>8</sup> and soundness of speech that can't be condemned, that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us.

<sup>9</sup> Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters and to be well-pleasing in all things, not contradicting,<sup>10</sup> not stealing, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things.

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men,<sup>12</sup> instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present age;<sup>13</sup> looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ,<sup>14</sup> who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works.<sup>15</sup> Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work,<sup>32</sup> to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men.

<sup>33</sup> For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

<sup>34</sup> But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared,<sup>35</sup> not by works of righteousness which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit,<sup>36</sup> whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior,<sup>37</sup> that being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

<sup>38</sup> This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men;<sup>39</sup> but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

<sup>310</sup> Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning,<sup>311</sup> knowing that such a one is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

<sup>312</sup> When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there.

<sup>889</sup> God's original plan, before the fall of Adam and Eve, was for all mankind to grow to perfection and enjoy eternal life with Him. Spiritual death was not part of His original plan (see Gen 1–3 and EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 3).

<sup>890</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God (see Matt 7:24–26; Jas 2:14 and EDP Part 1, Chapter 3, Sections 2.1 and 2.2).

<sup>3</sup>13 Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them.

<sup>3</sup>14 Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

<sup>3</sup>15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Brief background summary

Dating:

The dating depends upon which incarceration Paul was suffering when he wrote this letter.

Authorship:

Most scholars believe this letter, the shortest in the New Testament, was written by Paul (and Timothy) while he was in prison, either in Rome or in Ephesus.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, <sup>12</sup> to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house:<sup>13</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup> I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers,<sup>15</sup> hearing of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints,<sup>16</sup> that the fellowship of your faith may become effective in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ Jesus.
<sup>17</sup> For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate,<sup>19</sup> yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

<sup>10</sup> I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus,<sup>11</sup> who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me.<sup>12</sup> I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart,<sup>13</sup> whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News.<sup>14</sup> But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will.<sup>15</sup> For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, <sup>16</sup> no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup> If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me.<sup>18</sup> But if he has wronged you at all or owes you anything, put that to my account.

<sup>19</sup> I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides).<sup>20</sup> Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

<sup>22</sup> Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

<sup>23</sup> Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you,<sup>24</sup> as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

<sup>25</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

Brief background summary

Dating:

It is thought by scholars to have been written in late 63 or early 64 AD

Authorship:

Most modern scholars do not believe that Paul was the author of this epistle, but rather someone imitating Paul's style.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways,<sup>12</sup> has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds.<sup>891</sup>

<sup>13</sup> His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, who, when he had by himself purified us of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high,<sup>14</sup> having become as much better than the angels as the more excellent name he has inherited is better than theirs.

15 For to which of the angels did he say at any time, “You are my Son. Today I have become your father?” and again, “I will be to him a Father, and he will be to me a Son?”<sup>892</sup>

<sup>16</sup> When he again brings in the firstborn into the world he says, “Let all the angels of God worship him.”

<sup>17</sup> Of the angels he says, “He makes his angels winds, and his servants a flame of fire.”

<sup>18</sup> But of the Son he says, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom.”

<sup>10</sup> And, “You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the works of your hands.”

<sup>11</sup> They will perish, but you continue. They all will grow old like a garment does.

<sup>12</sup> You will roll them up like a mantle, and they will be changed; but you are the same. Your years won’t fail.”

<sup>13</sup> But which of the angels has he told at any time, “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?”

14 Aren’t they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?<sup>893</sup>

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away.

<sup>22</sup> For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just penalty,<sup>23</sup> how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard,<sup>24</sup> God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?

<sup>25</sup> For he didn’t subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels.<sup>26</sup> But one has somewhere testified, saying, “What is man, that you think of him? Or the son of man, that you care for him?”

<sup>27</sup> You made him a little lower than the angels.<sup>894</sup>

You crowned him with glory and honor.

<sup>28</sup> You have put all things in subjection under his feet.” For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don’t see all things subjected to him, yet.<sup>895</sup>

29 But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death<sup>896</sup>

crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone.<sup>210</sup> For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings.<sup>897</sup>

<sup>211</sup> For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers,<sup>212</sup> saying, “I will declare your name to my brothers. Among the congregation I will sing your praise.”

<sup>213</sup> Again, “I will put my trust in him.” Again, “Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me.”

<sup>214</sup> Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil,<sup>215</sup> and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

<sup>216</sup> For most certainly, he doesn’t give help to angels, but he gives help to the offspring of Abraham.

<sup>217</sup> Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.

218 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.<sup>898</sup>

CHAPTER 3

31 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession: Jesus,<sup>32</sup> who was faithful to him who appointed him,<sup>899</sup>

<sup>891</sup> John 1:1–10

<sup>893</sup> Heb 1:5; Ps 8:5.

<sup>894</sup> Angels do not grow up from babies. They are created functional, whereas man is created as a baby and must grow physically and internally. Therefore, it can be said that man is created a little lower than angels, but also that man is to grow to become the lords of creation and “judge the angels” (see Heb 2:1–5, 14; 1 Cor 6:3).

<sup>895</sup> The fallen elements of this world are not yet under Jesus’ lordship.

<sup>896</sup> Paul describes Jesus as being lower than angels in the sense that, as a man, he could die, whereas angels cannot die.

<sup>897</sup> This indicates that Jesus became perfect Adam through the things that he suffered. This means that Jesus grew to perfection like all people were originally intended to do (see 1 Cor 15:45; Matt 5:48; Gen 1:28).

as also Moses was in all his house.<sup>33</sup> For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, because he who built the house has more honor than the house.<sup>34</sup> For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God.<sup>35</sup> Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken,<sup>36</sup> but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house. We are his house, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end.<sup>37</sup> Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, "Today if you will hear his voice,

<sup>38</sup> don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, in the day of the trial in the wilderness,<sup>900</sup>

<sup>39</sup> where your fathers tested me and tried me, and saw my deeds for forty years.

<sup>310</sup> Therefore I was displeased with that generation, and said, 'They always err in their heart, but they didn't know my ways.'

<sup>311</sup> As I swore in my wrath, 'They will not enter into my rest.'

<sup>312</sup> Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there might be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God;<sup>313</sup> but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today", lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.<sup>314</sup> For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence firm to the end,<sup>315</sup> while it is said, "Today if you will hear his voice, don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."

<sup>316</sup> For who, when they heard, rebelled? Wasn't it all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?<sup>317</sup> With whom was he displeased forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?<sup>318</sup> To whom did he swear that they wouldn't enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient?<sup>319</sup> We see that they weren't able to enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Let's fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest.<sup>42</sup> For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn't profit them, because it wasn't mixed with faith by those who heard.<sup>43</sup> For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.<sup>44</sup> For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "God rested on the seventh day from all his works;"<sup>45</sup> and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest."

<sup>46</sup> Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter into it, and they to whom the good news was preached before failed to enter in because of disobedience,<sup>47</sup> he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said), "Today if you will hear his voice, don't harden your hearts."

<sup>48</sup> For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day.<sup>49</sup> There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.<sup>50</sup> For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his.<sup>51</sup> Let's therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience.<sup>52</sup> For the word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.<sup>53</sup> There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him to whom we must give an account.

<sup>54</sup> Having then a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let's hold tightly to our confession.<sup>55</sup> For we don't have a high priest who can't be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin.<sup>901</sup>

<sup>56</sup> Let's therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and may find grace for help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>52</sup> The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness.<sup>53</sup> Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself.<sup>54</sup> Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was.<sup>55</sup> So also Christ didn't glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him, "You are my Son. Today I have become your father."<sup>902</sup>

<sup>56</sup> As he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek."<sup>903</sup>

<sup>57</sup> He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his reverent submission,<sup>904</sup>

<sup>58</sup> though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered.

<sup>59</sup> Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation,<sup>905</sup>

<sup>904</sup> This again indicates a distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>905</sup> This again indicates that Jesus became perfect Adam through the things that he suffered. This means that Jesus grew to perfection like

5:10 designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.<sup>906</sup>

5:11 About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing.

5:12 For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the revelations of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food.

5:13 For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby.<sup>5:14</sup> But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

6:1 Therefore leaving the teaching of the first principles of Christ, let's press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God,<sup>6:2</sup> of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.<sup>6:3</sup> This will we do, if God permits.<sup>6:4</sup> For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit,<sup>6:5</sup> and tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come,<sup>6:6</sup> and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame.<sup>6:7</sup> For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it and produces a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God;<sup>6:8</sup> but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

6:9 But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this.

6:10 For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them.

6:11 We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end,<sup>6:12</sup> that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and perseverance inherited the promises.<sup>6:13</sup> For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself,<sup>6:14</sup> saying, “Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you.”<sup>907</sup>

6:15 Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise.<sup>6:16</sup> For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation.<sup>6:17</sup> In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath,<sup>6:18</sup> that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us.<sup>6:19</sup> This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil,<sup>6:20</sup> where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

CHAPTER 7

7:1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,<sup>7:2</sup> to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, “king of righteousness”, and then also “king of Salem”, which means “king of peace”,<sup>7:3</sup> without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually.

7:4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch,<sup>908</sup> gave a tenth out of the best plunder.<sup>7:5</sup> They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham,<sup>7:6</sup> but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises.<sup>7:7</sup> But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.<sup>7:8</sup> Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives.<sup>7:9</sup> We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes,<sup>7:10</sup> for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him.

7:11 Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron?<sup>7:12</sup> For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law.<sup>7:13</sup> For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.<sup>7:14</sup> For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.<sup>7:15</sup> This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life;<sup>7:17</sup> for it is testified, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>909</sup> all people were originally intended to do (see Heb 2:10; Luke 2:40, 52; 1 Cor 15:45; Matt 5:48; Gen 1:28). This verse also shows that there is a clear distinction between Jesus and God the Creator (see Matt 6:9; 24:36; 26:39; 27:46; John 5:19, 26, 30; 14:28; 17:21–23; 1 Cor 15:27–28; 1 Tim 2:5).

<sup>906</sup> This is saying that Jesus was “called of God.” (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>718</sup> For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness<sup>719</sup> (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.<sup>720</sup> Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath<sup>721</sup> (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him, "The Lord swore and will not change his mind, 'You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.'"

<sup>722</sup> By so much, Jesus has become the collateral of a better covenant.<sup>723</sup> Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death.<sup>724</sup> But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable.<sup>725</sup> Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

<sup>726</sup> For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;<sup>727</sup> who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself.<sup>728</sup> For the law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

CHAPTER 8

<sup>81</sup> Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,<sup>82</sup> a servant of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man.

<sup>83</sup> For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.<sup>84</sup> For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law,<sup>85</sup> who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain."<sup>910</sup>

<sup>86</sup> But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as law.<sup>87</sup> For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.

<sup>88</sup> For finding fault with them, he said, "Behold, the days come", says the Lord, "that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah,"<sup>911</sup>

<sup>89</sup> not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they didn't continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them," says the Lord.

<sup>90</sup> "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. After those days," says the Lord; "I will put my laws into their mind, I will also write them on their heart. I will be their God, and they will be my people."<sup>912</sup>

<sup>91</sup> They will not teach every man his fellow citizen, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for all will know me, from their least to their greatest.<sup>913</sup>

<sup>92</sup> For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness.

I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more."

<sup>93</sup> In that he says, "A new covenant", he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

CHAPTER 9

<sup>94</sup> Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and an earthly sanctuary.<sup>95</sup> For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lamp stand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place.<sup>96</sup> After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies,<sup>97</sup> having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant;<sup>98</sup> and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't speak now in detail.<sup>99</sup> Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services,<sup>100</sup> but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people.<sup>101</sup> The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn't yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing.<sup>102</sup> This is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshiper perfect,<sup>103</sup> being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

<sup>104</sup> But Christ having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation,<sup>105</sup> nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption.

more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without defect to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?<sup>915</sup> For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

<sup>916</sup> For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it.<sup>917</sup> For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives.<sup>918</sup> Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood.

<sup>919</sup> For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,<sup>920</sup> saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."

<sup>921</sup> Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in the same way with the blood.

922 According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.<sup>914</sup>

<sup>923</sup> It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.<sup>924</sup> For Christ hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us,<sup>925</sup> nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own,<sup>926</sup> or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

927 Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment.<sup>915</sup>

<sup>928</sup> so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>101</sup> For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near.

<sup>102</sup> Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins?

<sup>103</sup> But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins.<sup>104</sup> For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.<sup>105</sup> Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, "You didn't desire sacrifice and offering, but you prepared a body for me.<sup>106</sup> You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

<sup>107</sup> Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.'

<sup>108</sup> Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the law),<sup>109</sup> then he has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that he may establish the second,<sup>1010</sup> by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.<sup>1011</sup> Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and offering often the same sacrifices which can never take away sins,<sup>1012</sup> but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God,<sup>1013</sup> from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet.

<sup>1014</sup> For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.

<sup>1015</sup> The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,<sup>1016</sup> "This is the covenant that I will make with them: 'After those days,' says the Lord, 'I will put my laws on their heart, I will also write them on their mind;'" then he says,<sup>1017</sup> "I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more."

<sup>1018</sup> Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

<sup>1019</sup> Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus,<sup>1020</sup> by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh,<sup>1021</sup> and having a great priest over God's house,<sup>1022</sup> let's draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water,<sup>1023</sup> let's hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

<sup>1024</sup> Let's consider how to provoke one another to love and good works,<sup>1025</sup> not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

<sup>1026</sup> For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins,<sup>1027</sup> but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries.<sup>1028</sup> A man who disregards Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses.

<sup>914</sup> Mosaic law specifies several other ways to receive forgiveness from sins, including the scapegoat, faith and obedience, money, oil, flour, live birds, incense, meat, drink, jewelry and shewbread. Explicitly, blood sacrifice is NOT God's preferred offering for remission of sin. Rather, it is faith and obedience that God prefers from us (see Lev 2:1; 14:4; Hos 6:6; Prov 16:6; 1 Sam 15:22; Micah 6:6–8; Ps 51:15–17; Luke 5:20, 24; 7:47 and Topical Index #19).

<sup>915</sup> Heb 9:27 indicates that physical death is part of God's plan for all people. Thus, eternal life is referring to the eternal spiritual life.

<sup>1029</sup> How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?<sup>1030</sup> For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me. I will repay," says the Lord. Again, "The Lord will judge his people."<sup>916</sup>

<sup>1031</sup> It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.<sup>1032</sup> But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings;<sup>1033</sup> partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so.<sup>1034</sup> For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. <sup>1035</sup> Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward.

<sup>1036</sup> For you need endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.

<sup>1037</sup> "In a very little while, he who comes will come, and will not wait."<sup>1038</sup> But the righteous will live by faith. If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."

<sup>1039</sup> But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>111</sup> Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen.<sup>112</sup> For by this, the elders obtained testimony.<sup>113</sup> By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible.

through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks.

<sup>115</sup> By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he wouldn't see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God.<sup>918</sup>

<sup>116</sup> Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him.

<sup>117</sup> By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

<sup>118</sup> By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went.
<sup>119</sup> By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.
<sup>1110</sup> For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

<sup>1111</sup> By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised.

<sup>1112</sup> Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead.

<sup>1113</sup> These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.<sup>1114</sup> For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.<sup>1115</sup> If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return.<sup>1116</sup> But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>1117</sup> By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son,<sup>1118</sup> to whom it was said, "Your offspring will be accounted as from Isaac,"<sup>1119</sup> concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead.

<sup>1120</sup> By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come.

<sup>1121</sup> By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

<sup>1122</sup> By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

<sup>1123</sup> By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

<sup>1124</sup> By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

<sup>1125</sup> choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time,

<sup>918</sup> Gen 5:21-24

Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up.
11<sup>30</sup> By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days.

11<sup>31</sup> By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.

11<sup>32</sup> What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets,
11<sup>33</sup> who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
11<sup>34</sup> quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee.
11<sup>35</sup> Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

11<sup>36</sup> Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment.
11<sup>37</sup> They were stoned. They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated—
11<sup>38</sup> of whom the world was not worthy—wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth.

11<sup>39</sup> These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn't receive the promise,
11<sup>40</sup> God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.
9<sup>19</sup>

CHAPTER 12

12<sup>1</sup> Therefore let's also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses,
9<sup>20</sup>

lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let's run with perseverance the race that is set before us,
12<sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
12<sup>3</sup> For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls.
12<sup>4</sup> You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin.
12<sup>5</sup> You have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children,

"My son, don't take lightly the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are reproved by him;
12<sup>6</sup> for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines, and chastises every son whom he receives."

12<sup>7</sup> It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father doesn't discipline?
12<sup>8</sup> But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then you are illegitimate, and not children.

12<sup>9</sup> Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?
12<sup>10</sup> For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness.
12<sup>11</sup> All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.
12<sup>12</sup> Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,
12<sup>13</sup> and make straight paths for your feet, so what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

12<sup>14</sup> Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord,
12<sup>15</sup> looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it,
12<sup>16</sup> lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal.

12<sup>17</sup> For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears.

12<sup>18</sup> For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm,
12<sup>19</sup> the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them,
12<sup>20</sup> for they could not stand that which was commanded, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned".

12<sup>21</sup> So fearful was the appearance that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling."

12<sup>22</sup> But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels,
12<sup>23</sup> to the festal gathering and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect,
12<sup>24</sup> to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.

12<sup>25</sup> See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven,
12<sup>26</sup> whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens."

12<sup>27</sup> This phrase, "Yet once more" signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain.

9<sup>19</sup> Great insight into this statement (Heb 11:39–40) can be obtained in the Divine Principle (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 5, Section 2.3 and Section 2.4; also 1 Cor 13:9–12).

9<sup>20</sup> Here again "cloud" is used to refer to a group of people. The Divine Principle speaks at great length to the topic of Jesus' expected return "on the clouds" (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 6, Section 2; also Dan 7:13; Matt 24:30; 26:64; Rev 1:7)."

<sup>12</sup>28 Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that can't be shaken, let's have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, <sup>12</sup>29 for our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>13</sup>1 Let brotherly love continue. <sup>13</sup>2 Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it.<sup>921</sup>

<sup>13</sup>3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them, and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body.

<sup>13</sup>4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled; but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

<sup>13</sup>5 Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you."

<sup>13</sup>6 So that with good courage we say, "The Lord is my helper. I will not fear. What can man do to me?"

<sup>13</sup>7 Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith.

<sup>13</sup>8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. <sup>13</sup>9 Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

<sup>13</sup>10 We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. <sup>13</sup>11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.

<sup>13</sup>12 Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. <sup>13</sup>13 Let's therefore go out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. <sup>13</sup>14 For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. <sup>13</sup>15 Through him, then, let's offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. <sup>13</sup>16 But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>13</sup>17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

<sup>13</sup>18 Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. <sup>13</sup>19 I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

<sup>13</sup>20 Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, <sup>13</sup>21 make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>13</sup>22 But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation; for I have written to you in few words.

<sup>13</sup>23 Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you.

<sup>13</sup>24 Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. The Italians greet you.

<sup>13</sup>25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

JAMES

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

Brief background summary

Dating:

If James, the brother of Jesus, wrote this letter, then it would be dated no later than 32 years after Jesus' crucifixion, when James was martyred (circa 62 AD). However, other scholars date it later, perhaps toward the end of the first century or into the early 2nd century AD.

Authorship:

Most scholars believe that this letter was written by James, the brother of Jesus, to whom Jesus appeared after his resurrection. However, other scholars think another James was the actual author, or that this letter may have been originally penned by Jesus' brother, James, and later polished to its current form in later years.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: Greetings.

12 Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various temptations,<sup>13</sup> knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.<sup>14</sup> Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

15 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.<sup>16</sup> But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed.<sup>17</sup> For that man shouldn't think that he will receive anything from the Lord.<sup>18</sup> He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

19 But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position;<sup>10</sup> and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away.<sup>11</sup> For the sun arises with the scorching wind and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So the rich man will also fade away in his pursuits.

12 Blessed is a person who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, “I am tempted by God,” for God can’t be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.<sup>922</sup>

14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed.<sup>15</sup> Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin. The sin, when it is full grown, produces death.<sup>923</sup>

16 Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow.

18 Of his own will he gave birth to us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.<sup>19</sup> So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger;<sup>20</sup> for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God.<sup>21</sup> Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

122 But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves.<sup>924</sup>

123 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror;<sup>124</sup> for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.<sup>125</sup> But he who looks into the perfect law of freedom and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.<sup>126</sup> If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless.<sup>127</sup> Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

CHAPTER 2

21 My brothers, don't hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with partiality.<sup>22</sup> For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in,<sup>23</sup> and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing and say, "Sit here in a good place;" and you tell the poor man, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool"<sup>24</sup> haven't you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?
25 Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn't God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he promised to those who love him?<sup>26</sup> But you have dishonored the poor man. Don't the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts?<sup>27</sup> Don't they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called?

28 However, if you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well.<sup>29</sup> But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors.

210 For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all.

211 For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

212 So speak and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom.<sup>213</sup> For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy.

Mercy triumphs over judgment.

214 What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him?<sup>215</sup> And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, 216 and one of you tells them, "Go in peace. Be warmed and filled;" yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it?

217 Even so faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.<sup>925</sup>

218 Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

<sup>922</sup> God does not tempt man to do evil (see Heb 2:18; 4:15; and Topical Index #27).

<sup>923</sup> Taking "lust" in a sexual meaning, then this gives further evidence that the temptation of Lucifer to Eve was of a sexual nature. Adam and Eve disobeyed God's commandment and died, spiritually (cf. Gen 3).

<sup>924</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

<sup>925</sup> The spirit of man grows when virtue is expressed outwardly with the physical body (Ps 92:12–14).

<sup>219</sup> You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder.<sup>220</sup> But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead?<sup>221</sup> Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?

<sup>222</sup> You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected.<sup>223</sup> So the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness," and he was called the friend of God.<sup>224</sup> You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith.

<sup>225</sup> In the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

<sup>226</sup> For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.<sup>926</sup>

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment.<sup>32</sup> For we all stumble in many things. Anyone who doesn't stumble in word is a perfect person, able to bridle the whole body also.<sup>33</sup> Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body.<sup>34</sup> Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires.

<sup>35</sup> So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest!<sup>36</sup> And the tongue is a fire.<sup>927</sup>

The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna.<sup>37</sup> For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and sea creature, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind,<sup>38</sup> but nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

<sup>39</sup> With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men who are made in the image of God.<sup>928</sup>

<sup>310</sup> Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so.<sup>311</sup> Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water?<sup>312</sup> Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.

<sup>313</sup> Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom.<sup>314</sup> But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth.<sup>315</sup> This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic.<sup>316</sup> For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed.<sup>317</sup> But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.<sup>318</sup> Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members?

<sup>42</sup> You lust, and don't have. You murder and covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask.

<sup>43</sup> You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures.<sup>44</sup> You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.<sup>45</sup> Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"?<sup>46</sup> But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."<sup>47</sup> Be subject therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

<sup>48</sup> Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners. Purify your hearts, you double-minded.

<sup>49</sup> Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom.

<sup>50</sup> Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.<sup>929</sup>

<sup>51</sup> Don't speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.<sup>52</sup> Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?

<sup>53</sup> Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let's go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit."<sup>54</sup> Whereas you don't know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.<sup>55</sup> For you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that."

<sup>56</sup> But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil.<sup>57</sup> To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn't do it, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you.<sup>52</sup> Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten.<sup>53</sup> Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days.

<sup>926</sup> A reminder of the spiritual and physical nature of man.

<sup>927</sup> see Jer 23:29; John 12:48; 2 Pet 3:7; 2 Thess 2:8; Rev 19:5

<sup>928</sup> A reminder that spiritually mature man is to be like God (Matt 5:48).

<sup>929</sup> God does not, and will not, predestine man's decisions nor actions.

<sup>54</sup> Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Armies. <sup>55</sup> You have lived in luxury on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter.

<sup>56</sup> You have condemned and you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you.

<sup>57</sup> Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. <sup>58</sup> You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

<sup>59</sup> Don't grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. <sup>60</sup> Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of perseverance, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

<sup>61</sup> Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the perseverance of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

<sup>62</sup> But above all things, my brothers, don't swear—not by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes", and your "no", "no", so that you don't fall into hypocrisy.

<sup>63</sup> Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. <sup>64</sup> Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, <sup>65</sup> and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. <sup>930</sup>

<sup>66</sup> Confess your offenses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective. <sup>67</sup> Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months. <sup>68</sup> He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

<sup>69</sup> Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>70</sup> let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

<sup>930</sup> God does not, and will not, predestine the decisions and actions of man (see Topical Index #38).

1 PETER

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars hold a variety of opinions as to when this letter was written, depending upon the view of the authorship. Arguments are given for anywhere from 60 AD (30 years after the crucifixion of Jesus) to 160 AD.

Authorship:

This letter claims to be written by the apostle Peter, but modern scholars doubt his authorship for many reasons. The authorship, according to most scholars, remains unknown.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

11 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 12 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

13 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>931</sup> who according to his great mercy caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,<sup>14</sup> to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you,

15 who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.<sup>16</sup> Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved in various trials,<sup>17</sup> that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ—

18 whom, not having known, you love. In him, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy that is unspeakable and full of glory,<sup>19</sup> receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.<sup>10</sup> Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently. They prophesied of the grace that would come to you,<sup>11</sup> searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them.<sup>12</sup> To them it was revealed, that they served not themselves, but you, in these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

13 Therefore prepare your minds for action. Be sober, and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ—14 as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance,<sup>15</sup> but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior;<sup>16</sup> because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy."<sup>932</sup>

17 If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear,<sup>933</sup>

18 knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers,<sup>19</sup> but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish or spot, the blood of Christ,<sup>20</sup> who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in this last age for your sake,<sup>934</sup>

19 who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God.

20 Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently,<sup>21</sup> having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever.

21 For, "All flesh is like grass, and all of man's glory like the flower in the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls;<sup>22</sup> but the Lord's word endures forever." This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.

CHAPTER 2

22 Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking,

23 as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that with it you may grow,<sup>935</sup>

24 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious:

25 coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious.<sup>26</sup> You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.<sup>27</sup> Because it is contained in Scripture, "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen and precious:

He who believes in him will not be disappointed."

28 For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone,"

29 and, "a stumbling stone and a rock of offense."

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed.<sup>29</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.<sup>30</sup> In the past, you were not a people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

31 Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;<sup>32</sup> having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation.

<sup>931</sup> Again, this indicates the distinction between Jesus and the Father (see Topical Index #27).

<sup>933</sup> Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

<sup>935</sup> The truth of God is nourishment for the spirit and helps it to grow (Matt 4:4).

<sup>213</sup> Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme;<sup>214</sup> or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well.<sup>215</sup> For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:<sup>216</sup> as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.

<sup>218</sup> Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all respect: not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked.<sup>219</sup> For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God.<sup>220</sup> For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God.<sup>221</sup> For you were called to this, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps,<sup>222</sup> who didn't sin, "neither was deceit found in his mouth."<sup>223</sup> When he was cursed, he didn't curse back. When he suffered, he didn't threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously.<sup>224</sup> He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness. You were healed by his wounds.<sup>225</sup> For you were going astray like sheep; but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

CHAPTER 3

<sup>31</sup> In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word,<sup>32</sup> seeing your pure behavior in fear.

<sup>33</sup> Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing;<sup>34</sup> but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.<sup>35</sup> For this is how in the past, the holy women who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands.<sup>36</sup> So Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

<sup>37</sup> You husbands, in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as also being joint heirs of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered.

<sup>38</sup> Finally, all of you be like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, courteous,<sup>39</sup> not rendering evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing.<sup>310</sup> For, "He who would love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit.

<sup>311</sup> Let him turn away from evil and do good. Let him seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>312</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their prayer; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

<sup>313</sup> Now who will harm you if you become imitators of that which is good?<sup>314</sup> But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled."<sup>315</sup> But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. Always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear,<sup>316</sup> having a good conscience. Thus, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good way of life in Christ.<sup>317</sup> For it is better, if it is God's will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil.

<sup>318</sup> Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the Spirit,<sup>936</sup>

<sup>319</sup> in whom he also went and preached to the spirits in prison,<sup>320</sup> who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.<sup>321</sup> This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,<sup>322</sup> who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

CHAPTER 4

<sup>41</sup> Therefore, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,<sup>42</sup> that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.

<sup>43</sup> For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries.

<sup>44</sup> They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming.<sup>45</sup> They will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.<sup>46</sup> For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit.

<sup>47</sup> But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer.

<sup>48</sup> And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins.

<sup>410</sup> As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms.<sup>411</sup> If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever.

<sup>936</sup> This again affirms that Jesus died in the flesh but resurrected in the spirit, not the flesh.

Amen.

412 Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you.413 But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice, that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy.414 If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified.

415 For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters.

416 But if one of you suffers for being a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter.417 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God?

418 "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?"

419 Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5

51 Therefore I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed:

52 Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly;

53 not as lording it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock.54 When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.

55 Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

56 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time,57 casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you.

58 Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.59 Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings.

510 But may the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.511 To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

512 Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.

513 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you. So does Mark, my son.

514 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to all of you who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 PETER

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars hold a wide variety of opinions as to when this letter was written. Arguments are given for anywhere from 60 AD (30 years after the crucifixion of Jesus) to 160 AD.

Authorship:

Most modern scholars do not believe that the apostle Peter actually wrote this letter. In fact, Peter was martyred in 65–67 AD. They do not know who the actual author may be, but they believe he did quote from and adapt from Jude extensively, and uniquely referred to the epistles of Paul in his writing.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:<sup>12</sup> Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,<sup>13</sup> seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue,<sup>14</sup> by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust.<sup>15</sup> Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge;<sup>16</sup> and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control perseverance; and in perseverance godliness;<sup>17</sup> and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love.<sup>18</sup> For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to not be idle or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>19</sup> For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.<sup>10</sup> Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble.<sup>11</sup> For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth.

<sup>13</sup> I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you,<sup>14</sup> knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.<sup>937</sup>

<sup>15</sup> Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure.<sup>16</sup> For we didn't follow cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.<sup>17</sup> For he received from God the Father honor and glory when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."<sup>18</sup> We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.<sup>938</sup>

<sup>19</sup> We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts:<sup>20</sup> knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation.<sup>21</sup> For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction.<sup>22</sup> Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned.<sup>23</sup> In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber.

<sup>24</sup> For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to hell, and committed them to pits of darkness to be reserved for judgment;<sup>939</sup>

<sup>25</sup> and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly;<sup>26</sup> and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live in an ungodly way<sup>27</sup> and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked<sup>28</sup> (for that righteous man dwelling among them was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds):<sup>29</sup> the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment,<sup>210</sup> but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries;<sup>211</sup> whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord.

<sup>217</sup> These are wells without water, clouds<sup>941</sup> driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.

<sup>218</sup> For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in <sup>937</sup> The body is a temporary house for the eternal spirit. Eternal life is not physical but naturally spiritual after we shed our body, or "tent".

<sup>939</sup> There are fallen angels. They fell from God's grace with Lucifer (Rev 12:9; Isa 14:12; Jude 6).

error;<sup>219</sup> promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.
220 For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

221 For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

222 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again," and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

CHAPTER 3

31 This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you<sup>32</sup> that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets and the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior:

33 knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts<sup>942</sup>

34 and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."

35 For this they willfully forget that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water by the word of God,

36 by which means the world that existed then, being overflowed with water, perished.<sup>943</sup>

37 But the heavens that exist now and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

38 But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

39 The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but he is patient with us, not wanting anyone to perish, but that all should come to repentance.<sup>944</sup>

310 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.<sup>945</sup>

311 Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness,<sup>312</sup> looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?

313 But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

314 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without defect and blameless in his sight.<sup>315</sup> Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you,<sup>316</sup> as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

317 You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness.

318 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

<sup>943</sup> Here "world" refers to fallen humanity, which perished in the flood of Noah. It does not refer to the earth.

<sup>944</sup> God desires to save all human beings, past, present and future (see 2 Peter 3:9; 1 Tim 2:3–4; John 3:16; Ezekiel 33:11; Matt 18:14).

<sup>945</sup> The meanings of these passages (2 Pet 3:10, 12–13) is understood metaphorically in the Divine Principle perspective (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 3). The last days will be one of transformation from the world of Satan's kingdom into the world of God's kingdom (see Jer 23:29; Ps 78:69; Luke 12:49; 2 Pet 3:10; Jas 3:6; Rev 21:1).

THE FIRST GENERAL EPISTLE OF JOHN

Brief background summary

CHAPTER 1

11 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life<sup>12</sup> (and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us);<sup>13</sup> that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ.<sup>14</sup> And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

15 This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.<sup>16</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth.<sup>17</sup> But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.<sup>18</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.<sup>946</sup>

19 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

21 My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous.<sup>22</sup> And he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.<sup>23</sup> This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments.<sup>24</sup> One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in him.<sup>25</sup> But God's love has most certainly been perfected in whoever keeps his word. This is how we know that we are in him:<sup>26</sup> he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

27 Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.<sup>28</sup> Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away and the true light already shines.<sup>29</sup> He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness even until now.<sup>210</sup> He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him.<sup>211</sup> But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

212 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

213 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.

214 I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

215 Don't love the world or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him.<sup>216</sup> For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't from the Father, but is from the world.<sup>947</sup>

217 The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.

218 Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour.<sup>219</sup> They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us.

220 You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge.<sup>221</sup> I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

222 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son.<sup>223</sup> Whoever denies the Son doesn't have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.<sup>948</sup>

224 Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father.

225 This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life.<sup>226</sup> These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray.

227 As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him.<sup>228</sup> Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.<sup>229</sup> If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.

<sup>946</sup> All people are of the fallen lineage of Satan (Lucifer) and therefore all have original sin and all, knowingly or unknowingly, commit personal sins. In addition, the Divine Principle explains that all fallen men share in the responsibility for collective sins (social sins), and also their own ancestral sins (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 2, Section 4.5 and Exod 20:5).

<sup>947</sup> Jesus said: "My kingdom is not of this world." He was referring to fallen mankind, not to the earth (John 18:36).

<sup>948</sup> This passage, again, underscores the distinction between the Father and Jesus (see Topical Index #27).

CHAPTER 3

31 See how great a love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him.32 Beloved, now we are children of God. It is not yet revealed what we will be; but we know that when he is revealed, we will be like him;<sup>949</sup> for we will see him just as he is.

33 Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure.

34 Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness.35 You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and no sin is in him.36 Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him and doesn't know him.

37 Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.38 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed: that he might destroy the works of the devil.39 Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him, and he can't sin, because he is born of God.

310 In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who doesn't love his brother.311 For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another;312 unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous.

313 Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you.

314 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death.<sup>950</sup>

315 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

316 By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.317 But whoever has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, then closes his heart of compassion against him, how does God's love remain in him?318 My little children, let's not love in word only, or with the tongue only, but in deed and truth.319 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him,320 because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.321 Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God;322 so whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight.323 This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded.324 He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

CHAPTER 4

41 Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.42 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,<sup>951</sup>

43 and every spirit who doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the Antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already.44 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world.45 They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them.46 We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

47 Beloved, let's love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves has been born of God, and knows God.48 He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love.<sup>952</sup>

49 By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.

410 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins.411 Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another.

412 No one has seen God at any time.<sup>953</sup>

If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

413 By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.<sup>954</sup>

414 We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world.415 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God.416 We know and have believed <sup>949</sup> In the last days, all people are to be cleansed of all sin and fallen nature and grow to perfection, resembling the Lord (Matt 5:48).

<sup>950</sup> Resurrection is of the spirit, not the flesh. Thus, even those who have physically died can have eternal life by way of the love of God (see John 5:24; 11:25–26; 1 Cor 15:20–22; Rom 6:23; 1 Thess 4:13–14).

<sup>951</sup> 1 John 4:2 refers to Jesus during his earthly life, not after his death and resurrection.

<sup>952</sup> While God obviously manifests His love through intellect, emotion and will, the essence of God's being is love. A clear explanation of this is contained in the Divine Principle and in

Unification Thought (see New Essentials of UT, Chapter 1, Section 1 and EDP Part 1, Chapter 1, Sections 1 and 4)

<sup>953</sup> 1 John 4:12 means that God does not have a form or body, even in the spirit world. However, he uses the form of Jesus or angels to express Himself to us. It says that no man has seen God and also shows that Jesus, who assumed flesh and walked among us, is distinct from the Father (see Topical Index #26).

<sup>954</sup> 1 John 4:12–13 explains what Jesus meant when he said: "He who has seen me has seen the Father" (John 14:9). It does not mean that Jesus is the Father, but that the spirit and love of the Father dwells in Jesus and is manifested through him (see Topical Index #26).

the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him.

<sup>417</sup> In this, love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so we are in this world.<sup>418</sup> There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love.<sup>419</sup> We love him, because he first loved us.<sup>420</sup> If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?<sup>421</sup> This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

CHAPTER 5

<sup>51</sup> Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him.<sup>52</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments.<sup>53</sup> For this is loving God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous.<sup>54</sup> For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith.<sup>55</sup> Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?<sup>56</sup> This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.<sup>57</sup> For there are three who testify:<sup>58</sup> the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one.

<sup>59</sup> If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son.<sup>60</sup> He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son.<sup>61</sup> The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

<sup>62</sup> He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have God's Son doesn't have the life.

<sup>63</sup> These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

<sup>64</sup> This is the boldness which we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us.<sup>65</sup> And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

<sup>66</sup> If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this.

<sup>67</sup> All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death.

<sup>518</sup> We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him.

<sup>519</sup> We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

<sup>520</sup> We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

13 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father,<sup>955</sup> in truth and love.

14 I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father.<sup>15</sup> Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.<sup>16</sup> This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

17 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, who don't acknowledge the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh.<sup>956</sup>

This is the deceiver and the Antichrist.

18 Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward.<sup>19</sup> Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ, doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.<sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him,<sup>11</sup> for he who welcomes him participates in his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full.<sup>13</sup> The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

---

<sup>955</sup> 2 John 3 underscores again the distinction between the Father and the Son (see Topical Index #26).

<sup>956</sup> 2 John 7 refers to Jesus during his earthly life and not after his resurrection.

3 JOHN

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars do not agree on the date of this letter, but opinions range from 96 AD
(66 years after the crucifixion of Jesus) to 115 AD.

Authorship:

Many scholars accept that this letter may have been written by “John the Evangelist” at an old age, and that the Gospel of John, as well as 1st John and 2nd John were written by the same person. Others scholars disagree.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

<sup>11</sup> The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

<sup>12</sup> Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers.<sup>13</sup> For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth.<sup>14</sup> I have no greater joy than this: to hear about my children walking in truth.

<sup>15</sup> Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers.

<sup>16</sup> They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of God,<sup>17</sup> because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles.<sup>18</sup> We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

<sup>19</sup> I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly.<sup>11</sup> Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God.<sup>12</sup> Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup> I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen;<sup>14</sup> but I hope to see you soon. Then we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

JUDE

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars disagree within a range of dates from 66 AD (36 years after the crucifixion of Jesus) and 125 AD.

Authorship:

Many scholars attribute this letter to Jude, the brother of James the Just. There is much disagreement as to who this Jude really was, but they agree that he was not the "Judas" who betrayed Jesus. Scholars widely disagree on who James the Just was, in relation to Jesus. Some believe he was Jesus' blood brother, others his half-brother, cousin, etc. Other scholars believe Mary, Jesus' mother, had no other children and remained a "virgin" perpetually. Many scholars see some connection between the letter of Jude and 2 Peter.

Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ:<sup>12</sup> May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

<sup>13</sup> Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.

<sup>14</sup> For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into license and immorality, and denying Jesus Christ, our only sovereign and Lord.<sup>957</sup>

<sup>15</sup> Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe.<sup>16</sup> The angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day.<sup>17</sup> Even as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having in the same way as these given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are shown as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.<sup>958</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings.

<sup>19</sup> But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!"<sup>10</sup> But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. They are destroyed in these things that they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason.<sup>11</sup> Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion.

<sup>12</sup> These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds<sup>959</sup> without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees<sup>960</sup> without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

<sup>14</sup> About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones,<sup>15</sup> to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

<sup>17</sup> But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>18</sup> They said to you, "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts."<sup>19</sup> These are those who cause divisions and are sensual, not having the Spirit.

<sup>20</sup> But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.

<sup>21</sup> Keep yourselves in God's love, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

<sup>22</sup> On some have compassion, making a distinction,

<sup>23</sup> and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup> Now to him who is able to keep them from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy,<sup>25</sup> to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

<sup>957</sup> Denial of Jesus is clearly evil in God's eyes.

<sup>958</sup> The fallen angels referred to in Rev 12:9 are described here "in like manner" to the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, indulging in fornication and going after strange flesh. This tells us that the sin of the fallen angels was sexual in nature (Jude 6–7). Lucifer was the "old serpent" in the Garden of Eden who tempted Eve to sin. This ties the shame of Adam and Eve of their sexual parts—realizing they were naked after the Fall they covered themselves with aprons made of fig leaves (Gen 3:7)—to the sexual sin between Eve and Lucifer (the serpent), and later between Eve and Adam.

<sup>959</sup> In Jude 12 the term clouds refers to people (see Dan 7:13; Heb 12:1; Matt 24:30; 26:64; 1 Thess 4:16, Rev 1:7).

<sup>960</sup> In Jude 12 the term trees refers to people (see Gen 2:9; Prov 11:30; 13:12; Matt 3:10; 12:33; John 15:4–6; Rom 11:17–18).

<sup>961</sup> In Jude 12 the term stars refers to people (see Eccl 12:2; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, 3:15; Matt 24:29; 1 Cor 15:41; Rev 8:12, 12:1).

REVELATION

THE REVELATION OF SAINT JOHN THE DIVINE

Brief background summary

Dating:

Scholars believe this book was written during the reign of Domitian, which was 81–96 AD (about 51–66 years after the crucifixion of Jesus).

Authorship:

Traditionally, the author is thought to be the Apostle John, but modern scholars generally do not agree with this and believe the author was a Christian prophet, possibly from Patmos.
Refer to the maps for additional background information.

CHAPTER 1

<sup>11</sup> This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel to his servant, John, <sup>12</sup> who testified to God's word and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw.

<sup>13</sup> Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.

<sup>14</sup> John, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne, <sup>15</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood—<sup>16</sup> and he made us to be a Kingdom, priests to his God and Father—to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>17</sup> Behold, he is coming with the clouds, <sup>962</sup> and every eye will see him, <sup>963</sup> including those who pierced him. <sup>964</sup>

All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

<sup>18</sup> "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

<sup>19</sup> I John, your brother and partner with you in the oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

<sup>20</sup> I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet <sup>11</sup> saying, "What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup> I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lamp stands. <sup>13</sup> And among the lamp stands was one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest. <sup>14</sup> His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. <sup>15</sup> His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters.

<sup>16</sup> He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. <sup>965</sup> His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. <sup>17</sup> When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man.

<sup>962</sup> A metaphor for followers, as in "a cloud of witnesses" (see Dan 7:13; Heb 12:1; Matt 24:30; 26:64; 1 Thess 4:16, Jude 12).

<sup>963</sup> He will be known to all.

<sup>964</sup> Jesus was literally pierced by a Roman soldier. The phrase has metaphorical meaning.

<sup>965</sup> John is having a mystical experience which is filled with much metaphor and symbolism. Judgment based on God's word can be seen in Rev 1:16 as symbolized by a two-edged sword coming from the mouth of the Lord (cf. John 12:48; Heb 4:12; Rev 19:13–15).

He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last, <sup>18</sup> and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forever and ever. Amen. I have the keys of Death and of hell. <sup>966</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter. <sup>20</sup> The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lamp stands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven lamp stands are seven assemblies.

CHAPTER 2

<sup>21</sup> "To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write: He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks among the seven golden lamp stands says these things:

<sup>22</sup> "I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false. <sup>23</sup> You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary. <sup>24</sup> But I have this against you, that you left your first love.

<sup>25</sup> Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your lamp stand out of its place, unless you repent. <sup>26</sup> But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

<sup>27</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, <sup>967</sup> which is in the Paradise of God. <sup>968</sup>

<sup>28</sup> "To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write: The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

<sup>29</sup> "I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. <sup>30</sup> Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>31</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death.

<sup>32</sup> "To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write: He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:

<sup>966</sup> Jesus is obviously alive in the spirit as a part of this experience of John.

<sup>967</sup> In the garden of Eden, the Tree of Life was a symbol for fully matured and perfected Adam. He was blocked from the fulfillment of this—by cherubim (see Ezek 10) and a flaming sword (Gen 3:24)—as a consequence of his sin. Jesus is called by Paul "the last Adam" (1 Cor 15:45). Thus, Jesus can be said to be a new "Tree of Life".

213 “I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn’t deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

214 But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality.

215 So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise.

216 Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.

217 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.<sup>969</sup>

218 “To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write: “The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things:

219 “I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first.

220 But I have this against you, that you tolerate your woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 221 I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. 222 Behold, I will throw her and those who commit adultery with her into a bed of great oppression, unless they repent of her works.

223 I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

224 But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don’t have this teaching, who don’t know what some call ‘the deep things of Satan,’ to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you.

225 Nevertheless, hold that which you have firmly until I come.

226 He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations.

227 He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; as I also have received of my Father:<sup>970</sup>

228 and I will give him the morning star.

229 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

CHAPTER 3

31 “And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write: “He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.<sup>971</sup>

32 Wake up and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God.

33 Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it and repent. If therefore you won’t watch, I will come as a thief, and you won’t know what hour I will come upon you.

34 Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that didn’t defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. 35 He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.<sup>36</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

37 “To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write: “He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things.”<sup>972</sup>

38 “I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn’t deny my name.<sup>39</sup> Behold, I give some of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie—behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.<sup>40</sup> Because you kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of testing which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

311 I am coming quickly!<sup>973</sup>

Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown.<sup>41</sup> 12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.<sup>974</sup>

313 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

<sup>969</sup> see Rev 3:12; 12:1–5; 19:12. The savior will return, born of a woman, with a new name.

<sup>970</sup> Rev 2:26–27 is Jesus speaking of his return, but in the person of another, similar to the return of Elijah in the person of John the Baptist (see Rev 3:12, 21; 12:4–5; 19:11–16; Matt 11:13–14; 17:10–13; Mark 9:11–13; Luke 1:17).

<sup>971</sup> Rev 3:1 distinguishes between physical life and death, and spiritual life and death. The people referred to are physically alive, but spiritually dead (see Topical Index #31).

<sup>972</sup> Rev 3:7 appears to be the words of Jesus to the Churches.

<sup>973</sup> While it is Jesus who says this, the Divine Principle asserts that he will return in the same manner as Elijah returned through John the Baptist in the time of Jesus, again through a special representative instead of himself (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 4, Section 2.4; and Rev 2:17, 26–27; 3:12, 21; 12:5; 19:11–16).

<sup>974</sup> If the Lord returns with a new name, which no one knows, then again, his return may be likened to the return of Elijah in the person of John the Baptist (see Rev 2:17; 12:1–5; Matt 11:13–14; 17:10–13; Mark 9:11–13; Luke 1:17).

3:14 “To the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write: ‘The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of God’s creation, says these things:

3:15 “I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot.<sup>3:16</sup> So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth.<sup>3:17</sup> Because you say, ‘I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;’ and don’t know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked;<sup>3:18</sup> I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see.

3:19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent.<sup>3:20</sup> Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me.

3:21 He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne.<sup>975</sup>

3:22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

CHAPTER 4

4:1 After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, “Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this.”

4:2 Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne

4:3 that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at.

4:4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads.

4:5 Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

4:6 Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the middle of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.<sup>4:7</sup> The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.<sup>4:8</sup> The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!”

4:9 When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever,<sup>4:10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying,

4:11 “Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!”

CHAPTER 5

5:1 I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals.<sup>976</sup>

5:2 I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?”<sup>5:3</sup> No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book or to look in it.<sup>5:4</sup> Then I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look in it.<sup>5:5</sup> One of the elders said to me, “Don’t weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome: he who opens the book and its seven seals.”<sup>5:6</sup> I saw in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.<sup>5:7</sup> Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne.<sup>5:8</sup> Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.<sup>5:9</sup> They sang a new song, saying, “You are worthy to take the book and to open its seals: for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood out of every tribe, language, people, and nation,<sup>5:10</sup> and made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign on the earth.”

5:11 I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders. The number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands,<sup>5:12</sup> saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!”

5:13 I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!”

5:14 The four living creatures said, “Amen!” Then the elders fell down and worshiped.

<sup>975</sup> Rev 3:21 is Jesus saying that he “overcame” and therefore became the Christ, or Savior of all mankind. Furthermore, he is saying that the one who overcomes will be like him (see Rev 2:26–27; 3:12; 12:4–5; 19:11–16).

<sup>976</sup> Rev 5:1 is the Father who sat on the throne, with a sealed book in His right hand (cf. Rev 7:10).

CHAPTER 6

61 I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!"

62 Then a white horse appeared, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

63 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!"

64 Another came out: a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

65 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. 66 I heard a voice in the middle of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"

67 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!" 68 And behold, a pale horse, and the name of he who sat on it was Death. Hades followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.

69 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. 70 They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 71 A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

72 I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. 73 The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. 74 The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island was moved out of its place. 75 The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. 76 They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, 77 for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

CHAPTER 7

71 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. 72 I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, 73 saying, "Don't harm the earth, the sea, or the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!" 74 I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

75 of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, 76 of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, 77 of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, 78 of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, and of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.

79 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could count, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. 80 They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

711 All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God, 712 saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

713 One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and where did they come from?"

714 I told him, "My lord, you know." He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great suffering.

They washed their robes, <sup>977</sup> and made them white in the Lamb's blood.

715 Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them.

716 They will never be hungry or thirsty any more. The sun won't beat on them, nor any heat;

717 for the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne shepherds them and leads them to springs of life-giving waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

CHAPTER 8

81 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

82 I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

83 Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne.<sup>84</sup> The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.<sup>85</sup> The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, then threw it on the earth. Thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake followed.

<sup>86</sup> The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.<sup>87</sup> The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burned up, and one third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

<sup>88</sup> The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood,<sup>89</sup> and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>89</sup> The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters.<sup>91</sup> The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

<sup>91</sup> The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way.<sup>978</sup>

<sup>91</sup> I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!"

CHAPTER 9

<sup>91</sup> The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him.<sup>92</sup> He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit.<sup>93</sup> Then out of the smoke came locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.<sup>94</sup> They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads.<sup>95</sup> They were given power, not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a person.

<sup>96</sup> In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them.<sup>97</sup> The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces.<sup>98</sup> They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions.<sup>99</sup> They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war.<sup>100</sup> They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm men for five months.<sup>101</sup> They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon", but in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon".<sup>102</sup> The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

<sup>103</sup> The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God,<sup>104</sup> saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

<sup>105</sup> The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind.<sup>106</sup> The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million. I heard the number of them.<sup>107</sup> Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the horses' heads resembled lions' heads. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur.<sup>108</sup> By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths.<sup>109</sup> For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm.<sup>110</sup> The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can't see, hear, or walk.<sup>111</sup> They didn't repent of their murders, their sorceries, their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

<sup>103</sup> He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices.

<sup>104</sup> When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them."

<sup>105</sup> The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky,<sup>106</sup> and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay,<sup>107</sup> but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets.<sup>108</sup> The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."<sup>109</sup>

<sup>978</sup> Rev 8:12 is metaphorical language (see Gen 37:9; Eccl 12:2; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, 3:15; Matt 24:29; 1 Cor 15:41; Rev 12:1).

<sup>109</sup> I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book. He said to me, "Take it, and eat it. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."

<sup>10</sup><sup>10</sup> I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.<sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup> They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

CHAPTER 11

<sup>11</sup><sup>1</sup> A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it.<sup>11</sup><sup>2</sup> Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months.

<sup>11</sup><sup>3</sup> I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."<sup>11</sup><sup>4</sup> These are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands, standing before the Lord of the earth.

<sup>11</sup><sup>5</sup> If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way.

<sup>11</sup><sup>6</sup> They have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.<sup>11</sup><sup>7</sup> When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them.<sup>11</sup><sup>8</sup> Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.<sup>11</sup><sup>9</sup> From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations, people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.<sup>11</sup><sup>10</sup> Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.<sup>11</sup><sup>11</sup> After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them.<sup>11</sup><sup>12</sup> I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them.<sup>11</sup><sup>13</sup> In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven.<sup>11</sup><sup>14</sup> The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

"The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ. He will reign forever and ever!"<sup>979</sup>

<sup>11</sup><sup>16</sup> The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God,<sup>11</sup><sup>17</sup> saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was; because you have taken your great power and reigned.<sup>11</sup><sup>18</sup> The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the saints, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

CHAPTER 12

<sup>12</sup><sup>2</sup> She was with child. She cried out in pain, laboring to give birth.<sup>12</sup><sup>3</sup> Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns.

<sup>12</sup><sup>5</sup> She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne.<sup>982</sup>

<sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

<sup>12</sup><sup>7</sup> There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war.<sup>12</sup><sup>8</sup> They didn't prevail. No place was found for them any more in heaven.

<sup>12</sup><sup>9</sup> The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He

<sup>979</sup> The Kingdom of Heaven on earth is to be a literal kingdom, created from the transformation of existing kingdoms, or nations.

<sup>980</sup> Rev 12:1 is metaphorical language (see Gen 37:9; Ecc 12:2; Isa 13:10; Ezek 32:7; Joel 2:10, 3:15; Matt 24:29; 1 Cor 15:41; Rev 8:12).

<sup>981</sup> The "dragon" symbolizes Satan (Rev. 12:9; 20:2) who would want to kill the newborn savior upon his earthly and physical return by birth. We see this when Herod the Great sought to kill the baby Jesus (Matt 2:1–18), perhaps outwardly for personal and political reasons but unwittingly serving the desire of Satan.

<sup>982</sup> Rev 12:5 indicates that Christ will return again as a human child born of woman, as at his first coming. The "rod of iron" is given by Jesus (see Rev 2:26–28; 3:12, 21; 19:11–16).

was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.<sup>983</sup>

<sup>10</sup> I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ has come; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night."

<sup>11</sup> They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

<sup>13</sup> When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child.<sup>14</sup> Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.<sup>15</sup> The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream.<sup>16</sup> The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth.<sup>17</sup> The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep God's commandments and hold Jesus' testimony.

CHAPTER 13

<sup>1</sup> Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names.<sup>2</sup> The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.<sup>984</sup>

<sup>3</sup> One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast.<sup>4</sup> They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"

<sup>5</sup> A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to him.<sup>6</sup> He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven.<sup>7</sup> It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him.

<sup>18</sup> All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed.<sup>985</sup>

<sup>19</sup> If anyone has an ear, let him hear.<sup>10</sup> If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup> I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon.<sup>12</sup> He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.<sup>13</sup> He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of people.<sup>14</sup> He deceives my own people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast, saying to those who dwell on the earth that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived.<sup>15</sup> It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed.

<sup>16</sup> He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks on their right hands, or on their foreheads;<sup>17</sup> and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.<sup>18</sup> Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>1</sup> I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.<sup>2</sup> I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps.

<sup>3</sup> They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth.<sup>4</sup> These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb.<sup>5</sup> In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.

<sup>6</sup> I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on <sup>983</sup> Rev 12:9 reveals the identity of the "serpent" metaphor in the Garden of Eden as being the Devil, or Lucifer (see Isa 14:12; Gen 3:1). We can also see from this passage the gender of the angel (male) and that he was a leader of angels who was originally good, dwelling in heaven, but turned bad and was cast out of heaven (see Ezek 28:13–17).

<sup>984</sup> According to the Divine Principle, the beast referred to here is God-denying communism which took over much of the world (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 5, Section 4.2.4 and Chapter 6, Section 3.3.2).

<sup>985</sup> Some contemporary theologians believe this passage (Rev 13:8) should read as above, but it has often been wrongly transposed to read "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world." (cf. Rev 17:8).

the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people.<sup>147</sup> He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

<sup>148</sup> Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

<sup>149</sup> Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand,<sup>1410</sup> he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.<sup>1411</sup> The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."<sup>1412</sup> Here is the perseverance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

<sup>1413</sup> I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

<sup>1414</sup> I looked, and saw a white cloud, and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

<sup>1415</sup> Another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!"<sup>1416</sup> He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

<sup>1417</sup> Another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle.<sup>1418</sup> Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!"<sup>1419</sup> The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God.<sup>1420</sup> The wine press was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.

CHAPTER 15

<sup>151</sup> I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God's wrath is finished.<sup>152</sup> I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image, and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God.

<sup>153</sup> They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God, the Almighty! Righteous and true are your ways, you King of the nations."<sup>154</sup> Who wouldn't fear you, Lord, and glorify your name? For you only are holy. For all the nations will come and worship before you. For your righteous acts have been revealed."

<sup>155</sup> After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.<sup>156</sup> The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.

<sup>157</sup> One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.<sup>158</sup> The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

CHAPTER 16

<sup>161</sup> I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!"

<sup>162</sup> The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

<sup>163</sup> The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>164</sup> The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood.<sup>165</sup> I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, O Holy One, because you have judged these things.<sup>166</sup> For they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this."<sup>167</sup> I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments."

<sup>168</sup> The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire.<sup>169</sup> People were scorched with great heat, and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn't repent and give him glory.

<sup>1610</sup> The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain,<sup>1611</sup> and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They still didn't repent of their works.

<sup>1612</sup> The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be prepared for the kings that come from the sunrise.<sup>1613</sup> I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs;<sup>1614</sup> for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.

<sup>1615</sup> "Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn't walk naked, and they see his shame."

<sup>16</sup><sup>17</sup> The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

<sup>16</sup><sup>18</sup> There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as has not happened since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, and so mighty.

<sup>16</sup><sup>19</sup> The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

<sup>16</sup><sup>21</sup> Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

<sup>17</sup><sup>1</sup> One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters,<sup>17</sup><sup>2</sup> with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality. Those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality."<sup>17</sup><sup>3</sup> He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.<sup>17</sup><sup>4</sup> The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth.<sup>17</sup><sup>5</sup> And on her forehead a name was written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."<sup>17</sup><sup>6</sup> I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement.<sup>17</sup><sup>7</sup> The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns."

<sup>17</sup><sup>8</sup> The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world<sup>986</sup> will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present.<sup>17</sup><sup>9</sup> Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.<sup>17</sup><sup>10</sup> They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while.<sup>17</sup><sup>11</sup> The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction.<sup>17</sup><sup>12</sup> The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.<sup>17</sup><sup>13</sup> These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.<sup>17</sup><sup>14</sup> These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those who are with him are called chosen and faithful."

<sup>17</sup><sup>15</sup> He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.<sup>987</sup>

<sup>16</sup> The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, will make her desolate, will strip her naked, will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire.<sup>17</sup><sup>17</sup> For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished.<sup>17</sup><sup>18</sup> The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

CHAPTER 18

<sup>18</sup><sup>4</sup> I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues,<sup>18</sup><sup>5</sup> for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities.<sup>18</sup><sup>6</sup> Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double.<sup>18</sup><sup>7</sup> However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.'<sup>18</sup><sup>8</sup> Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong.

<sup>18</sup><sup>9</sup> The kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning,<sup>18</sup><sup>10</sup> standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.'<sup>18</sup><sup>11</sup> The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more:<sup>18</sup><sup>12</sup> merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel

<sup>987</sup> This passage in Rev 17:15 shows that the term waters can refer to fallen people, as do many other metaphors we have seen (trees, clouds, etc.).

made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,<sup>1813</sup> and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and people's bodies and souls.<sup>1814</sup> The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you. All things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all.<sup>1815</sup> The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,<sup>1816</sup> saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!<sup>1817</sup> For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every ship master, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away,<sup>1818</sup> and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?'<sup>1819</sup> They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth! For she is made desolate in one hour.'

<sup>1820</sup> "Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her."

<sup>1821</sup> A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all.<sup>1822</sup> The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you.<sup>1823</sup> The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived.<sup>1824</sup> In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

CHAPTER 19

<sup>191</sup> After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah!"<sup>988</sup> Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God;<sup>192</sup> for his judgments are true and righteous. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."

<sup>193</sup> A second said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever."<sup>194</sup> The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

<sup>195</sup> A voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!"

<sup>196</sup> I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns!"

<sup>197</sup> Let's rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let's give the glory to him.

For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.<sup>989</sup>

<sup>198</sup> It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

<sup>199</sup> He said to me, "Write,

'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb.'

He said to me, "These are true words of God."

<sup>200</sup> I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy."

<sup>201</sup> I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war.<sup>202</sup> His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself.<sup>990</sup>

<sup>203</sup> He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called "The Word of God."

<sup>204</sup> The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen.<sup>205</sup> Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty.<sup>991</sup>

<sup>206</sup> He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written,<sup>992</sup>

"KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

<sup>207</sup> I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God,<sup>208</sup> that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, small and great."

<sup>209</sup> I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army.

<sup>210</sup> The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which

<sup>989</sup> The returning Lord will marry, the two of them replacing the failed Adam and Eve, and begin a new lineage of God without original sin and not related to Satan (cf. John 8:44). A much deeper explanation is given in the Divine Principle (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 4, Section 1).

<sup>990</sup> These passages refer to the returning Lord, who comes with a new name (Rev 2:26-27; 3:12, 21; 12:4-5).

<sup>992</sup> The "writing" of the new name was done by Jesus (Rev 3:12).

he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.<sup>1921</sup> The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came out of his mouth. So all the birds were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER 20

who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years,<sup>203</sup> and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time.<sup>204</sup> I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.<sup>205</sup> The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.<sup>206</sup> Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years.

<sup>207</sup> And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison,<sup>208</sup> and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. <sup>209</sup> They went up over the width of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God and devoured them.<sup>2010</sup> The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

<sup>2011</sup> I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them.<sup>2012</sup> I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their work

<sup>2013</sup> The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them.

They were judged, each one according to his works.<sup>994</sup>

<sup>2014</sup> Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.<sup>2015</sup> If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21

<sup>211</sup> I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more.<sup>995</sup>

<sup>212</sup> I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

<sup>213</sup> I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God."<sup>214</sup> He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."

<sup>215</sup> He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." He said, "Write, for these words of God are faithful and true."<sup>216</sup> He said to me, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life."<sup>217</sup> He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son.<sup>218</sup> But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

<sup>219</sup> One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb's bride."

<sup>2110</sup> He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,<sup>2111</sup> having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal,<sup>2112</sup> having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

<sup>2113</sup> On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.<sup>2114</sup> The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.<sup>2115</sup> He who spoke with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, its gates, and its walls.<sup>2116</sup> The city is square, and its length is as great as its width. He measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand twelve stadia. Its length, width, and height are equal.<sup>2117</sup> Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.<sup>2118</sup> The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass.

<sup>995</sup> Ps 78:69; Eccl 1:4

2119 The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones.

The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;

2120 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolute; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst.

2121 The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.
2122 I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple.
2123 The city has no need for the sun or moon to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb.
2124 The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.
2125 Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there),
2126 and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter.
2127 There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER 22

221 He showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb,
222 in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
223 There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him.
224 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.
225 There will be no night, and they need no lamp light or sun light; for the Lord God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever.

226 He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his bondservants the things which must happen soon."

227 "Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

228 Now I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things.
229 He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

2210 He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand.
2211 He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

2212 "Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work."
2213 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.
2214 Blessed are those who do his commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city.

2215 Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.
2216 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David, the Bright Morning Star.

2217 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely.
2218 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this scroll, if anyone adds to them, may God add to him the plagues which are written in this scroll.
2219 If anyone takes away from the words of the scroll of this prophecy, may God take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this scroll.

2220 He who testifies these things says,
"Yes, I come quickly."

Amen! Yes, come, Lord Jesus.

2221 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with all the saints. Amen.

996 Salvation must result in the transformation of both internal beliefs and in their expression in external life, i.e., mind and body unity, centered upon God.

997 The "tree of life" was the ideal and intended destiny in maturity and perfection of the first Adam who failed, (Gen 2:9, 3:24) and Jesus is referred to by Paul as the last Adam (1 Cor 15:45). This reference to the tree of life is seen in the Divine Principle as referring to Jesus, the new Adam and therefore the new tree of life (see EDP Part 1, Chapter 7, Section 2.1 and Rom 11:17). The city in this passage is taken to be the newly created Kingdom of Heaven (Matt 5:20).

998 Gen 37:9–10; Isa 14:13

999 Some translations say "this book", but it refers not to the Bible, but to the book of Revelation, or to the scroll.

1000 Rev 22:20 has been taken by many to be an indication of Jesus' return in a physical body. However, what Jesus promises to do upon his return (Matt 16:27; Rev 22:12; 2 Cor 5:10; Rom 2:6–8; Matt 25:31–32) indicates that it will be a spiritual return, rewarding each person according to his deeds. Such could not be done in a physical body (see EDP Part 2, Chapter 6, Section 2; and Topical Index #34, #35).

Bible Concordance

written concordance has been omitted for the following reasons:

Many students of the Holy Bible today have access to computer-based search tools with which to study and quickly and very efficiently look up various words and topics in the Bible. These computer-based tools offer many advantages over a concordance in print, such as copy-paste features, word counts, side-by-side comparisons of word usage as well as of differences in translation in more contemporary versions of scripture, etc. These search tools are today available as downloadable programs, cell phone apps, on tablets, home computers, laptops, and even on-line.

Also, many people who are sincerely interested in the Holy Bible and what it means already have in their possession Bibles which may feature very exhaustive and complete concordances, or even separately published concordance reference books.

Thus, a somewhat simple, printed concordance here would seem to be of little practical value, given the above circumstances. Thus, the decision to omit a concordance was not made to limit the reader's access to understanding and research, but rather simply to conserve unnecessary production effort and paper. We pray that God will augment your use of this Study Bible and bless you richly in your overall spiritual life.

For your convenience, we have included some suggested links and sources for digital Bible concordances which may help you in your study. There are many other sources of concordance available besides these. Here are some suggestions:

Introducing the Divine Principle

This introduction to the Divine Principle is intended to give a quick overview of the teachings of Rev. Sun Myung Moon; it is a text you can read in about an hour, and understand all the main points.

The Divine Principle is the teaching of Rev. Sun Myung Moon. It consists of three basic parts. The first explains God's ultimate desire for man. Have you ever wondered just why we live this life for 70 or 80 years or so, and just what God expects from us, anyway? If you ever thought about this, then the first part of the Principle is for you.

The second part explains very specifically, and logically, why our lives are so full of frustration and lack of fulfillment. Did you ever wonder why true happiness and true love are so nearly impossible to find? If you ever asked yourself that question, part two of the Principle is for you.

Part three traces the history of man from "day one" to the present, revealing a remarkable, but unnoticed and recurring, pattern in the history of God's efforts to help us. God's not a sadistic God who's heartlessly watching man suffer and waiting for the right moment to condemn everyone for their weaknesses. Instead, He's a heartbroken God who's been trying to show us how we can transform our misery into true happiness, but we've almost always refused to listen, and when we listened, we usually didn't understand. This world is going to soon become a beautiful place, socially. Both God and we will make this transformation together; it won't be done by God alone when He's good and ready. God has always been desperate for his children to stop suffering and become happy and prosperous. Part three of the Principle will put your whole life in a new perspective and turn what has seemed to be historical chaos into purposeful, logical sense.

and now, the Principle... PART I

Everybody's desire, throughout history, has been to be truly happy and fulfilled. As Christians, knowing we're forgiven of our sins offers liberation to our spirit. But, the everyday trials and contradictions we still have to wrestle within ourselves show that the happiness God originally intended for us is still out of reach.

Science has been the hope of many. But, science can never completely solve man's problems until it incorporates a clear and rational understanding of God's purpose and motivation for designing nature the way He has. It's impossible to achieve the ideals of life unless we know what those ideals are supposed to be. What does it mean to be a true man, from God's point of view, or a true woman? What's true love? Who has tasted it? Who can describe it? Since God seems to be invisible and intangible, many have given up believing in God. Others feel powerless to know anything more than that "a God must somehow exist".

According to the Principle, and echoing the Bible in Romans 1:20, God's character can be seen in the world He designed the world all around us. Just as an art critic can look at the paintings or listen to the music of ten different artists and easily distinguish the works of one from the next, so too God's own personality has to be embodied in the things He designed and created. Could a chaotic God create a logical world? Of course not. Could a heartless God create a world that's full of beauty? No. Therefore, like St. Paul, the Principle tells us to look at the creation and we can learn something about God.

For one thing, we can see that nature was designed in either a masculine/feminine pair of genders, or in the material world, as positives and negatives. We see man and woman, male and female animals, staminate and pistilate plant life, anions and cations, protons and electrons, and so on. What can this tell us about God?

It tells us that God must have not only the essence of masculine nature in His own personality, but He must have the essence of feminine nature as well. Otherwise, where would feminine nature come from but from the same creator and designer of life? Therefore, man and woman are equally essential expressions of God in the world. In fact, if you think about it, the most complete human expression of the heart and personality of God would require both a man and a woman, together; not just a man alone.

Notice, too, that these masculine/feminine and positive/ negative complementary pairs usually exist in harmonious relationship with each other in nature, unlike with us. Why would it be that God's highest creation, man and woman, should find such a harmonious relationship so nearly impossible to achieve? If our designer, God, is the harmonized origin of all that we see in nature, then why should harmony within and among ourselves be so difficult to achieve? We'll discuss this point later.

Another thing we can see in nature is that everything has both an external, physical form and also an invisible, internal, and intangible character which supplies purpose and direction to the form.

Particles, atoms, and molecules are made of energy, but are guided by the invisible laws of nature. Plants are made of cells, but are guided by the same laws of nature and also by a simple sensitivity and a kind of awareness. Animals are made of tissues, but are guided by instincts, and man is also made of tissues but is guided by instincts, plus emotions, will and intellect.

Since a designer and creator must embody more than those elements that appear in the things He designs and creates, then God must embody something greater than the emotions, will and intellect of even the greatest of human beings. If we really understand this deeply, then how would it be possible for the designer, God, to be less compassionate than all of the human race put together? He must have more compassion than can be found in all of His work of creation. This should have a profound impact on the way we understand many things.

Now ask yourself: "What would make God happy?"

As the Bible says, we're created in God's image. A work of art has to reflect the personality of the artist. With us, we can see we bear a resemblance to God in the sense of being creators, ourselves. As humans, we've learned that a creator or artist feels greatest happiness when his work perfectly reflects and resembles his own personality and feeling. If I feel great peace within myself, but my work of art is full of anxiety, I'm not going to be so happy looking at it. It should embody the same things that I feel.

In the same way, men and women were designed and created to give happiness to God by reflecting His own personality back to Him. That's why the Bible says God created mankind "in His image", and God said of His new creation, "It's very good". God made us to resemble and return joy to Him, and He likewise designed and created the rest of nature to resemble, in some sense, our own human design and return joy to us.

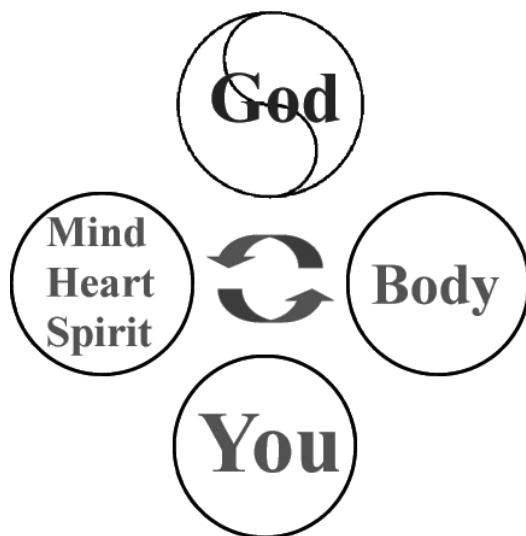

For example, when we enjoy the companionship of a dog or other pet, it's because we experience something of ourselves in that animal. You could come up with endless examples, yourself.

How, then, can you and I most completely fulfill our potential to realize both the happiness of God and also our own happiness?

The Genesis story of the Bible says God gave the first humans three "blessings". As explained by the Principle, the first blessing, to "be fruitful," was not intended to mean that we should have lots of children, but that we should be people who live "fruitful" lives—meaning to be people of good fruits. Matthew 7:16 also talks of recognizing the Lord by "His fruits". A truly "fruitful" Adam would have been a spiritually mature man whose mind and heart had grown to resemble God's own mind and heart, and with perfect harmony both within himself and with nature.

Such a fully matured person would feel God's joy or sorrow, and think as God would think. The kind of inner struggles and frustrations that we take for granted would not be the case for such a person. He would live according to his mature heart, and be in perfect harmony with both God and nature—without the need for moral laws and rules. Such a mature person could be described as a living temple of God, and a human expression of God. Jesus Christ was like this—both human and Divine; As He said, "When you see me, you see the Father." However, this was also God's intention for Adam and Eve, and for all of their descendants, including for you and me.

Adam and Eve were blocked from the Tree of Life after they disobeyed God's directions to them. It was the "last Adam", Jesus, who became the new Tree of Life in their place, and a Tree of Life to which we, as descendants of crippled Adam and Eve, must engraft ourselves, as the Bible says. Therefore, God originally intended for each of us, as individuals, to become perfectly mature in God's heart and personality as adults, thus becoming, ourselves, "trees of life."

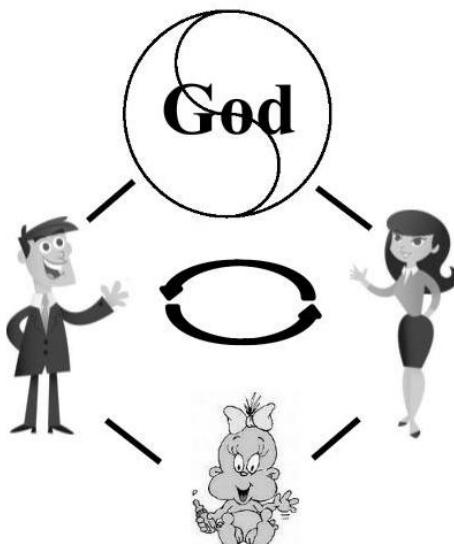

- Perfected Personality
- Temple of God
- One with God
- Divine Nature

If the kind of love we feel for our friends and neighbors were the same unconditional love that most parents feel for their own children, then this maturity of heart would basically be accomplished. It's not impossible. In fact, the potential for that love is designed into us.

The second blessing of God to the first humans was to “multiply”. This might seem obvious in its meaning, but God wanted Adam and Eve to not only have babies, but to multiply both Godly children and goodness, in general. He never intended for us to multiply selfishness and children needing to be saved from sin. This means God had planned to see a true man—a spiritually mature Adam—marry a true woman—a spiritually mature Eve—and together raise sinless children who would not need to be saved from sin. The children were to be raised by their spiritually mature parents to themselves become true men and women—“trees of life”. They would naturally grow up experiencing the masculine love of God through their father, and the feminine love of God through their mother.

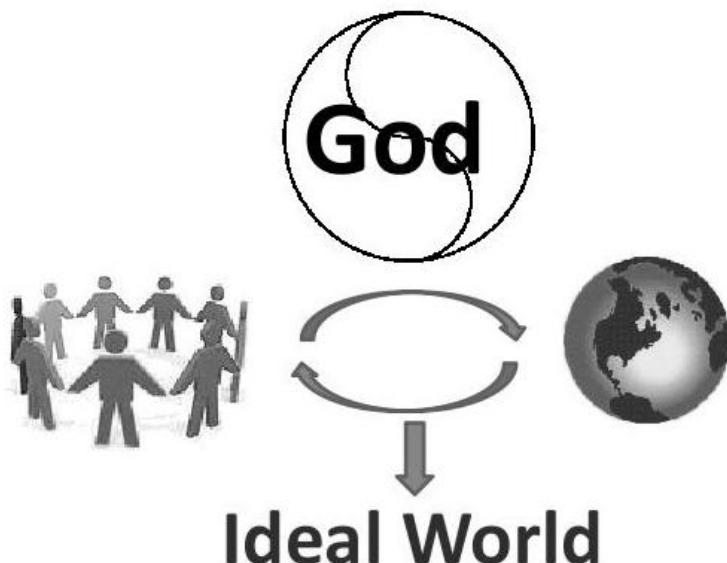

Do we have such a family today? Have we ever had such a family? No, not really, if we're honest. The human race got off to a bad start and we've never seen true parents who could raise up true children in any generation. Therefore, the world is orphaned, in a sense, from God's love. Everyone is starving for, and searching for, the love of true parents.

If the first humans had become true parents, a whole family, society, nation and world would have been populated with children knowing the love of God as an everyday social reality. They would not live in a world governed by all kinds of moral laws, rules and regulations.

The third blessing, to "subdue the earth," would have been fulfilled by a spiritually mature society loving nature the way it was intended to be loved. The Bible tells us that even the creation is "groaning in travail, awaiting the revealing of the sons of God." (Rom. 8:22) With individuals, families and a society like this—loving nature as it was intended to be loved—the literal Kingdom of God, or Kingdom of Heaven on earth, would be our reality.

The plan was simple, but profound. Of course, looking at such a scenario from our worldly point of view, it might seem almost like hearing a fairy tale. However, there's a natural, simple mechanism by which this was all to originally take place.

You may have noticed that virtually everything in nature develops or matures through some sort of process, even rocks and chemicals. The developmental process always takes a period of time. You can't name anything that became what it is in an instant. All things develop. Especially when we think about man's love and personality, we are focusing on a part of God's creation that requires an obvious process and period of time to develop and mature. In fact, as the Principle explains, our heart and personality actually go through three basic stages of development.

As a child, we know how to receive love. Parents don't expect young children to return mature love to them. Later on, as an adolescent, we grow to have a more sharing kind of heart and personality. We can give to others the amount of love that we ourselves have received. In a sense, "as much as you love me, I can love you," would describe it. Unfortunately, as we look around us, we can find few examples of people who've matured beyond this level of heart. Even many marriages are based on this conditional kind of love. However, man can and does possess a still higher degree of love, called unconditional, or parental, love.

When a parent feels willing to give his very life for his children, or for someone else, without thought for himself, this is an example of unconditional love. It's not so uncommon, actually, but most of us are lucky if we feel it for more than one or two people in our lifetime, let alone for everyone.

Jesus had this kind of love for all people. It's God's love—unconditional, parental love. It's interesting to note that of all the laws and commandments given in the Bible, they're all summed up by the two great commandments given by Jesus: "Love God above all things... and love your neighbor as yourself." His sermon on the mount was about love, perfect love. How to love—that was Jesus' message—both in action and words. And it's not enough just to have mature love in our hearts. We have to learn to express that love effectively, as well.

Why then, if God's plan and design for us was so simple, have we lived such a suffering history of frustration and selfishness? Where did selfishness come from? After all, human selfishness is not like an animal's instinct for survival. We are not selfish because we must eat to live. Social conflicts are only an extension of the personal conflicts we all experience within ourselves. We seem to live with two conflicting desires; One which tells us to lift other people up above ourselves and care for them first, and the other desire which tells us to take care of our own comforts first, at the expense of others. Virtually everyone has been torn by this spiritual conflict. Where does this come from? Did God—after creating a beautiful, harmonious and ecologically balanced system of nature—somehow slip, and design His sons and daughters with an inherent contradiction, like a bucket with a hole in the bottom of it? Of course He didn't. The answer lies hidden in the book of Genesis. We will reveal the practical, relevant meaning it has for each of us as we begin PART II of the Principle...

The Principle, Part II

According to the Genesis story, there was a garden, and in the garden, and together in the center of the garden, were two trees: a “Tree of Life” and a “Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil” which bore a forbidden fruit. Also in the garden was a serpent who spoke to Eve and tricked her.

God told Adam that they were not to eat the fruit of the tree of knowledge, or they would die. Then the serpent tricked Eve into eating the fruit, and she, in turn, shared the fruit with Adam. At that point they felt fear and guilt and they covered their “lower parts” and hid from God. God then blocked their way to the Tree of Life and sent them out of the garden. Now ask yourself: What in this story is to be taken literally, and what is symbolic?

Almost everyone has just assumed that the fruit was a literal fruit, maybe an apple or pear. But Jesus later explained very clearly in Matthew 15:11 and 17–20, that it's not what you eat that makes you sinful. He said:

“Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.... Do you not see that what goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and so passes on? But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a man. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a man....”

Jesus was talking to the Jews about eating with unwashed hands, but his point about the relationship between eating food and sin is clear. Eating something will not make you sinful.

Also, we cannot inherit the damage from something our parents have eaten. The effects of food poisoning could last only one generation, at most.

From still another perspective, why would two people eat something that they knew would kill them, especially if they were surrounded by a feast of healthy and delicious fruits? Even an animal will avoid poisonous grasses or berries.

The other traditional explanation for this part of the story is that the fruit is not important; it was just Adam and Eve's disobedience that caused all historical evil and sin in mankind. Let's now take a look at this explanation.

If God, as our creator and Father, has more love and heart than what He gave to us, which He must, then how can we say that God would condemn the entire human race over a small act of disobedience by the first two of his children? That would mean that God would subject all people in history to misery and suffering for one mistake on the part of two people. If Adam and Eve, who were completely sinless and pure, couldn't follow even a simple commandment from God, then what chance is there for any of us to do any better? If a human father were to test the obedience of his children with a deadly fruit, or make them and all their descendants suffer in some way for one small mistake, even our selfish society would be outraged and call him a child abuser, take the children away from him, and put him in prison. Is this the kind of heartless God you believe in? This effort to explain the root of our problems as a simple act of disobedience is obviously wrong.

The word "fruit", as used in this story, is symbolic of something far more important to man's happiness than simply something to eat. To understand what the fruit was, we have to look at the tree which bore the fruit, and also at the "serpent".

The "Tree of Knowledge" is mentioned only here in the Bible. But, the Tree which stood next to the Tree of Knowledge in the center of the garden was the "Tree of Life," and the Tree of Life is mentioned several times in the Bible.

First of all, there are two meanings of "trees" in the Bible. One meaning, of course, is a tree which can be chopped down. In other parts of the Bible "trees" refer to people. For example, Jesus cursed a tree and it withered and died. This was a literal tree. He also referred to himself and others as "trees" when he said in John 15:5 "I am the vine. You are the branches." St. Paul also referred to us as wild olive trees, and Jesus as the true olive tree, to which we should engraft ourselves. And, Revelations 22:14 refers to Jesus when it says, "Blessed are those who wash their robes that they may have the right to the Tree of Life and enter the City by the gates." What relationship might there be between the Tree of Life in Genesis and the Tree of Life in Revelations? Obviously, "Tree of Life" is not referring to the type of tree which can be chopped down. It refers to a person. When you read carefully Genesis 2:9–11, you discover that the Tree of Life and the Tree of Knowledge were distinct from the literal trees of the Garden.

"And out of the ground the Lord God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil."

The so-called "Serpent" was also a central character in this story. Who, or what, was this serpent? We find the answer in Revelations 12:9, where it describes

"that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him."

This tells us several important things. It tells us that the "serpent", in both the Genesis story and also in Revelation, is symbolic for something other than a snake. This serpent is a creature that knew God's commandment to Adam and Eve (i.e., it must have been a spiritual being), is called the "Devil" and "Satan", lived in Heaven until it was "cast out" to the earth, and was a leader of angels. Now, as you probably have figured out by now, this can only refer to one creature, namely Lucifer, one of the angels who ruled over the angelic realms. Thus, the "serpent" in the Garden was not a snake, but rather a symbolic term for the angel Lucifer.

Then, let's get to the point. What really happened in the Garden? After Adam and Eve's disobedience, their immediate reaction was to cover their sexual parts with aprons? If they had sinned with their mouths, they would have been ashamed of their mouths or hands. Why be ashamed of their sexual parts? And why did God immediately say, upon hearing Adam's confession of his newly-acquired shame, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" There was an unmistakable connection between Adam and Eve's loss of innocence, and their sinful act.

Lucifer was also involved in this. What was the sin of the fallen angels? Jude 6–7 reveals that:

"The angels that did not keep their own position, but left their proper dwelling, have been kept by him in eternal chains in the nether gloom until the judgment of the great day; just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise acted immorally and indulged in unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire."

The sin of the fallen angels was immorality and unnatural lust. What's a fruit? A fruit is that part of a tree which contains the seeds for reproduction. What was the fruit of Eve? It was her sexual part. Even today, some cultures refer to sexual relationships as "eating the fruit."

God had wanted his first two children to grow to full spiritual maturity - perfection - as Jesus described it in his Sermon on the Mount, before having children. Had the first human ancestors matured to have this Christ-like love before having children, what a different world we would live in today! Everyone is still searching for true love. Only in Jesus can we see it (the Last Adam, not the first).

What really happened is this: Lucifer tempted Eve to share sexual love with him to facilitate his totally selfish motivation and ambition to take his own dominion over mankind, supplanting God as our Father. Eve succumbed to his lies and sexual temptations and then took her new-found carnal knowledge, guilt and fear to Adam for comfort, tempting Adam to disobey God's commandment, as well, and "eat the fruit". Were these two people perfect, and not just pure? Their behavior tells us they were not mature, or perfect. Adam told God it was Eve's fault that he sinned, and Eve told God it was the angel's fault that she sinned. Everyone "passed the buck". Would a mature, Christ-like person do that? No! They were not yet mature. They began having children outside of the Garden, after they fell and were kicked out. Eve inherited the selfish motivation of Lucifer. Adam inherited it from Eve. We have all inherited immature selfish love and self-centered motivation. The world has been the same ever since. Children have never been able to find true and perfect love from their parents. It's been an endless cycle - an unbreakable cycle. Everyone has suffered from it.

That's why Jesus came to show us true love. But we have yet to break the cycle. God is still unfolding His plan to help us do that.

Lucifer acted out of a feeling of selfish jealousy for Adam and Eve's superior position to him in relation to God. They were God's first children, while he was a servant of God—an angel. God loved them all, of course, but Lucifer was used to being God's 'top dog' until Adam and Eve came along. The full process and motivation for the fall of Adam and Eve are critical to understand, but a full explanation would require more time than this study would allow. You should study the full text of the Exposition of the Divine Principle to more deeply understand how this process expresses itself in your own life today.

Sex, itself, was not the problem in the Garden of Eden. Sex was intended by God to be the most beautiful, exciting and holy expression of love between a husband and wife. Sex was not intended to be mistaken for love, itself. Many people think sex is love, sometimes making a heartless sport out of it. Consider prostitution, the so-called oldest profession in the world. Why has Catholicism seen celibacy as the way to come closest to God, refraining from normal human sexual activity? Consider incest, pornography, rape, sex trafficking, etc. Today, where is sex? Sexual imagery and pornography are everywhere. How do we advertise a car, or tires, except by showing lots of skin. Why has sex always been so degraded and misplaced in people's lives? Why have our relationships, marriages and families been so strained in this area? Sex seems to be everything except the fantastic divine experience that God intended it to be in our lives.

It is because the original fall of man was actually the distortion and destruction of love, love that was to be the very center of human life. God's love was supposed to be the very fabric of the Kingdom of God on earth, but selfishness combined with sexuality has become the fabric of the kingdom of hell on earth.

After the fall, God's heart was shattered. After all of His effort to create a beautiful and perfect world for his children, He lost everything when true love was compromised. He tells us in Genesis 6:6 that He was "sorry he made man on the face of the earth, and it grieved him to his heart." But, He wanted, and still wants, to restore this world to the state of goodness and love He originally intended for it. The question many of us have is, why has God allowed us to suffer so many generations before doing something about it? Why did He wait so many thousands of years before sending Jesus? And, why does He now wait so long to fulfill His promise to establish His Kingdom on earth, once and for all? The answers will be revealed as we begin PART III of the Principle.

The Principle, Part III

As the Principle explains, God did not want to wait 4,000 years, or even 400 years, before sending Jesus. However, God needed to prepare man to understand and accept the Messiah when He finally sent him to us.

The Messiah comes as the "last Adam" to reveal the full and perfect love of God as a man -- what the first Adam failed to do. The first Adam lost faith in God and lost the ability to embody God's love in his life. The human race then inherited this very same problem from generation to generation. What problem do we suffer from that's not rooted in selfishness and lack of true love? God's promise was to one day send Christ to defeat Satan and to be a model for us of a True Man of faith and a True Man of love.

God began to prepare a group of people so they could recognize Jesus as a model of faith and love and unite with him and support his efforts. God worked to mold the chosen people, the Jews, into a race that would be living for, and striving for, the same virtues of faith and love that Jesus would teach and demonstrate later. To accomplish this, God began working immediately, even in Adam's family, to establish preparatory traditions of faith and love.

Adam was too close to the fall to distinguish between good and evil, so God divided Adam's character between his two eldest sons, Cain and Abel. That way, some distinction could be seen between relatively good and relatively evil character.

Both Cain and Abel tried to be close to God. God asked both sons to show Him their faith by making offerings, which they both did. Secondly, if we consider Lucifer to have been in a kind of "elder brother" position to Adam - only in the sense that Lucifer was created first and had more knowledge and experience to draw from, even though Lucifer was clearly an angel and not a human being - then we can see that God re-established the situation of the fall in a clever way. God purposefully rejected the elder brother Cain's offering, and accepted the younger brother Abel's. This put Cain in the position to feel the same kind of jealousy and rejection that Lucifer felt when Adam and Eve took his place as the highest of God's creations.

God then begged Cain to overcome his ugly feelings toward Abel and warned Cain of what might happen (in Gen. 4:7) if he did not overcome. Unfortunately, Cain killed Abel, just as Lucifer had spiritually killed Adam and Eve.

But God didn't give up, as we might have. He raised up another man of faith ten generations later, named Noah.

Noah was a great man who successfully demonstrated his faith by building a boat on top of a mountain, as God had asked him to. But, Noah's sons failed to fulfill their roles in this important spiritual process. Therefore, we will move on to the next important historical character, Abraham.

Once again, God asked Abraham to demonstrate his faith, this time by cutting and sacrificing a number of animals and birds. But, because Abraham was not serious enough about God's request, he fell asleep before finishing, and failed. However, God gave Abraham another chance, but God required a much more difficult demonstration of faith the second time. God asked Abraham to sacrifice his son on the altar. After some hesitation, Abraham took his son to a hillside, built an altar, bound his son and placed him upon it. Just as Abraham was about to kill his son, an angel appeared and stopped him, telling him it was not necessary to sacrifice his son, and that God had only wanted to see if Abraham really had faith.

And, because Abraham's son understood what was happening and did not resist his father's efforts to sacrifice him to God, he inherited the faith of his father, as Ham had failed to do from Noah.

Next, to overcome the jealousy and anger problem between brothers, God used Isaac's two sons, Esau and Jacob. Esau and Jacob were destined to re-enact the problem between Lucifer and Adam, between Cain and Abel, actually between all of us, in a sense. This explains why God said He loved Jacob more than Esau, even while they were still in their mother's womb (Gen 25:22–23 and Rom 9:10–13). These special brothers had a fore-ordained mission in life to overcome this jealousy and resentment. Therefore, God allowed a situation to develop in which Jacob stole the family inheritance from his elder brother Esau, which made Esau furious with jealousy and anger. Understandably, Esau wanted to kill his younger brother, and even hired an army of 400 men to help him do it.

But Jacob fled to Haran where he lived a humiliating life under his cruel uncle Laban for many years. After a long period of suffering, Jacob gathered his family and belongings and set out to return to his angry brother and somehow reconcile their relationship.

Along the way, the Bible tells us that Jacob was attacked by an angel of God, but Jacob prevailed over the angel, thereby symbolically restoring the proper relationship between man and the angelic world. Upon Jacob's victory, the angel blessed him and gave him a new name, "Israel", which means "the victorious one," and it was his descendants which multiplied to become the race of Israel to which Jesus later came.

After this spiritual victory, Jacob proceeded to offer everything he had—his family, servants, material wealth, and even himself—to his jealous and angry brother Esau. He valued his brother's love more than anything else in the world.

Through this self-sacrifice, Esau's heart of resentment was melted, and, as Esau and Jacob lovingly embraced each other as brothers, this established the pattern by which the problem of jealousy and anger between brothers—or between any two people—can be resolved. Jacob's victory over resentment paved the way for the human race to be able to understand and receive Jesus's coming message of sacrificial love and forgiveness. The same pattern of love overcoming hatred was also repeated in the life of Jacob's son, Joseph.

However, practically speaking, in the midst of a whole world of hostile and ungodly peoples and nations, Jesus would not have been safe being born into a tiny family of potential believers. Furthermore, God was looking forward to a faithful nation that would spread his new Gospel throughout the world.

From the time of Abraham's victory of faith, God spent a Biblical period of 1930 years preparing His chosen people to receive and believe in Jesus. This period can be broken down into a distinct pattern of events which led to Jesus' coming at the precise time that he was born. A remarkably similar pattern of events and time periods have occurred since the time of Jesus until today. We will now briefly describe each recurring situation or event.

Starting with Jacob's 12 sons and 70 kinsmen, there eventually arose the entire nation of Israel, carrying with it the legacy of Jacob. Beginning with Jacob's family, we see that the Israelites suffered as slaves during a 400 year period in Egypt. Through this experience, God strengthened and deepened the faith of the Chosen People. In their suffering, they sought God fervently.

Then, after this 400 year period, God called a man named Moses to liberate them from their plight. While Moses didn't know it, he was actually to lift the Chosen People up to the next stage in God's preparations to send Jesus.

During the following 400 years, the Jewish people lived in a feudal society under leaders called Judges. God wanted them to be a united body of believers to receive Jesus as a nation. But, unfortunately, the Jewish Judges failed to unite, delaying Jesus' appearance. So, after this 400 year period of feudalism, God established a United Jewish Kingdom when the prophet Samuel crowned Saul the first Jewish King.

If the political leader and the religious leader at that time could have united in this monarchy, Jesus would have had a very efficient vehicle through which to spread his Gospel—much more efficient than in a democracy. Unfortunately again, the political and the religious leaders were not united at all. These failures could have been avoided if the people involved had had a deeper understanding of the legacy of Jacob and Esau, who overcame the most severe of differences and reunited with each other.

God also wanted a Holy Temple built as a physical symbol of the holiness of the living “Temple of God” who was to come. However, Saul was too corrupt to build the temple, and his successor, David, shed too much innocent blood. Finally, David’s son and successor, Solomon, fulfilled the building of the Holy Temple, only to defile it later with the false idols and traditions of some of his many wives. The process to get to this point took three King’s reigns of 40 years each.

Therefore, after all of this, God was left with an impure people who had embraced the ideas and traditions of other religions.

To try to purify his chosen people, God acted in the same way He had with Adam’s own family. He created a relative distinction between the good traditions and the bad by separating the Jewish nation into two parts; that of Judah to the south, and Israel to the north. Judah was generally more pure and Abel-like, and Israel was generally more corrupt and Cain-like.

God then sent the four major prophets and twelve minor ones from relatively pure Judah to relatively corrupt Israel, to try to reform them. But, after trying this for 400 years, the people resisted God’s calling and Judah, too, fell into corruption.

At this point, God was left with no choice but to sift out the loyal among his people by letting the Jews fall into the captivity of Babylon and Assyria. These two nations conquered the Jews and removed most of them to captivity.

After about 70 years, they were released and allowed to return to their homeland. Only the most faithful Jews returned to rebuild the temple and reestablish the Jewish nation and culture, which is exactly what God wanted. A faithful remnant emerged.

Finally, after another 140 years, having succeeded in establishing a new, strong, and united Jewish culture, God sent the prophet Malachi, and others, to set the final stage for Jesus to appear.

About this same time, the great empire of Rome emerged, with all its technology, communications and trade routes. The Roman Empire reached to the four corners of the known world. The language of Rome was spoken throughout the world, much like English is today.

Around 600 BC, Buddhism appeared, teaching that a “Maitreya Buddha” or messiah figure, would later come to the Buddhist world.

Confucius also appeared less than a century later, teaching about a “True Man” who would someday come. Plato and Socrates also lived at this time. Plato looked forward to the appearance of a “great thinker,” or “philosopher king”.

In these and other ways, God set the stage for the literal worldwide reign of Jesus as the Lord of Glory that is described in Isaiah 2, 9, 11, 60, and in Jeremiah 23 and 33, Daniel 7, and in Luke 1:31–33. God prepared many peoples in many ways to receive Jesus as their Lord. Jesus was intended to fulfill each of their hopes for a Messiah-figure to come.

However, God also warned in detail in Isaiah 53, that without the people's faith in His Son, Jesus would be a suffering and miserable lord at their hands.

To do everything possible to prevent such an outcome, God raised up Jesus's own cousin, John the Baptist, as the greatest Jewish leader of that age. The Bible says John was appointed by God to the position of Elijah, to "make straight the path of the Lord," (John 1:23) and to make a "people prepared." (Luke 1:17). An angel said John was coming "in the spirit and power of Elijah." (Luke 1:17).

John, in turn, gathered many fine Jewish disciples and spoke to them at length about the expected appearance of the Christ. John's father, Zachariah, was even a Jewish priest.

When Jesus came before John at the River Jordan, John knew him only as his cousin. John then received a revelation that Jesus was the Christ, and John publicly stated this to the people present.

However, here was the turning point in the life of Jesus Christ. John testified publicly to the divinity of his cousin Jesus, but John himself never followed Jesus. John never again helped Jesus. John did not even tell his disciples to follow Jesus.

Yes, two of John's followers later came to John to ask about Jesus, and John spoke of how Jesus was greater than himself, after which these two decided to follow Jesus, but that was all.

As John continued down the banks of the Jordan River, continuing to baptize as was his custom, those whom John had prepared for Jesus followed after John, some of them probably wondering why John did not become Jesus' chief disciple, nor any kind of disciple of Jesus. They trusted that John knew best what to do about the revelation he had received about Jesus. It would seem only false humility for John to say that Jesus "must increase and he must decrease," (John 3:30). After all, if John had united with Jesus, wouldn't they both have increased together? Wouldn't it be greater to have been one of Jesus' chief apostles, rather than just a prophet, as John was?

When the scribes and elders asked Jesus, "By what authority do you do the things you do?" (Luke 20:2), John should have been standing by his side, responding to their questioning with testimony of his own revelation concerning Jesus as the Son of God.

Instead, while Jesus was proclaiming the new message of forgiveness in his encounters with adulterers, and for the sick and the lame, John was continuing to follow the Old Testament way of condemnation with Herod's sister-in-law for her immorality under the law. For this, John was soon beheaded.

Just before his execution, still struggling with his revelation about the divinity of Jesus, John sent some of his disciples to Jesus to ask him if he was really the one who was to come, or if he should look for another. Jesus responded, in Luke 7:22, "Blessed is he who takes no offense at me." Later, Jesus said of John (Matt 11:11) "Truly I say to you, among those born of women, there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he." To repeat: "...even the least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than John." He added: "From the days of John the Baptist, the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and men of violence take it by force." (Matt 11:12).

John did almost nothing after his proclamation at the Jordan River to testify to Jesus. He even contradicted Jesus, undercutting Jesus' authority and credibility in the eyes of the Jewish people. Jesus said John was the Elijah who was prophesied to come, but John himself denied it... (Matt 17:10–13 and John 1:21)

If Jesus appeared at your door today, and you recognized who he was, wouldn't you become his disciple and testify to him?

Instead, Jesus was forced to find some ill-prepared disciples among the fishermen of the area. Most of them had no knowledge of the Mosaic law. They had very little faith in Jesus, and could hardly understand his simple parables. Were it not for Jesus' resurrected appearance to them for 40 days after his death, these followers would have never started the Christian movement.

Jesus' request from the beginning of his ministry was for people to "believe in him whom God had sent." (John 6:29)

"Oh Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how I would have gathered you together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you would not." (Matt 23:37)

The apostle Luke said Jesus was betrayed and killed because they "did not know the time of [their] visitation" (Luke 19:42–44).

Matthew 10:15 tells of terrible judgment for those who reject even Jesus' disciples. In John 10:38, Jesus pleads with the people that if they would not believe his words, that they at least believe his works, that they might be saved.

Jesus did everything he could to convince the people that he was the Son of God. But, without the continuing supportive testimony of a person like John the Baptist, which God had expected, the Jewish leaders could not believe. They even said Jesus' miraculous powers came from the Devil.

Of them, Jesus said in Matthew 23:13–36, that those whom they led away from Jesus were becoming twice the children of hell as they themselves. Jesus was very angry with them.

Jesus came to reveal to man the fullness of the love of God. Jesus' living ministry and living authority to absolve sins, even before he was crucified, could have spread quickly with the support of John and John's father, Zachariah, to the rest of the Jewish leadership and eventually to all the Jewish people. After that, a great missionary crusade, led by Jesus himself, would have carried the news of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth throughout the world through the network of the Roman Empire. Jesus said, in John 10:16 "I have other sheep that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, one shepherd."

But instead, when it became clear that God's Kingdom on earth was not going to be established in his lifetime, Jesus, from the time of his meeting with Moses and Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration, knew that he must pay the painful price for our faithlessness and give God's love by dying on the cross and then resurrecting. From that time on, it was Jesus' determination that he must go the way of the cross and resurrect to his disciples, to convict them in their faith and to pay the price for mankind's rejection of him. He knew he must now become the Lord of Suffering predicted in Isaiah 53. He would have to return at a later time in history to become the Lord of Glory and establish God's Kingdom on Earth.

As Paul said in 1 Cor. 2:8, "None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they never would have crucified the Lord of Glory."

Satan entered Judas Iscariot, as it says in the Bible, and Judas betrayed Jesus. Of Judas, Jesus later said, "Woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed. It would have been better for that man if he had not been born." (Matt 26:24)

Yes, Jesus said, "It is done." But, what did he mean by that?

Before his crucifixion, he said "I have many things to tell you, but you cannot bear them now," (John 16:12) and he also said that he wanted to speak to us "of heavenly things, but we could not even understand the earthly things of which he spoke." (John 3:12)

He said, "I speak to you now in parables and symbols, but the day will come when I will speak to you plainly and clearly of the Father." (John 16:25)

On the cross Jesus asked God to forgive the people for crucifying him. By Jesus' death and resurrection, all can have forgiveness of sins and spiritual salvation. This is the priceless gift that Jesus gave to us through the cross. But, the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth, which Jesus initially said was “at hand,” remains the hope of all Christians and remains to be realized when Christ returns again.

Until then, Jesus and the Holy Spirit stand in the positions of Spiritual Father and Spiritual Mother, the spiritual parents through whom we can have spiritual rebirth.

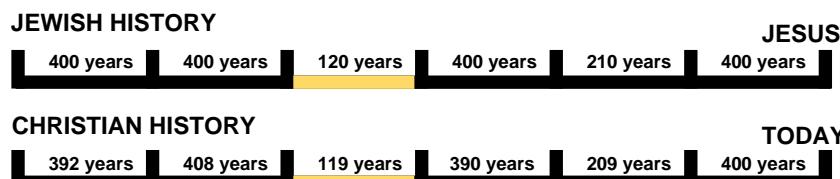

From this point, God wasted no time in beginning to reconstruct a foundation in the world for the acceptance of the return of Christ. He again began to seek one united body of believers, Christian believers this time, to receive him when he should come again.

We can see how the Christian faith sprang from the 12 apostles and 70 disciples of Jesus, paralleling the family of Jacob. For the next 400 years, Christians suffered even more than the Jews had in Egypt. They were boiled in hot oil, fed to lions, and burned alive as torches at the Roman Emperor’s garden parties. But Christians again became strengthened and deepened in their faith, and became the convicted believers who could spread Jesus’s teachings throughout the world.

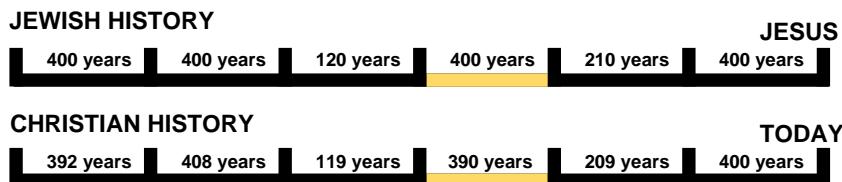

In 392 AD Augustine, somewhat like Moses, helped to liberate Christians from their suffering, this time by making Christianity the legal religion of Rome. This was followed by another 400 years of a feudal Christian society. Sound familiar? Seven Holy Sees were ruled by leaders who stood in the combined positions of monastic, pope and king, echoing the period of the Jewish Judges. But unfortunately once again, there was no unity among the Holy Sees.

On Christmas Day, 800 AD, Pope Leo III crowned Charlemagne as the first Christian Roman Emperor. He and his sons and grandsons reigned for about 120 years, again reminiscent of the 120 year period of the three Jewish kings.

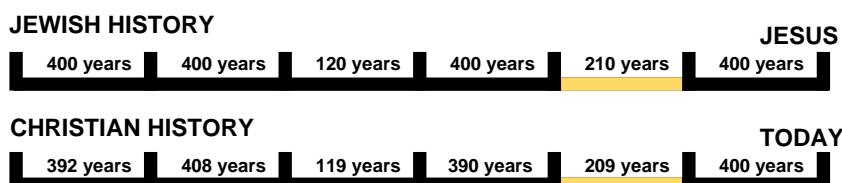

However, God's desire for a united body of believers to receive the return of Christ was ever farther away. The grandsons of Charlemagne divided the kingdom into several parts, and at one point there were three competing popes. Therefore, in 919 AD, God divided the Christian empire into the Eastern and Western Frankish Kingdoms.

This time, instead of major and minor prophets arising to reform the Church, monastic orders arose. St. Francis of Assisi and his followers, St. Thomas Aquinas and his followers, and others, tried to set a higher standard and reform the corrupted church. Unfortunately, their pleas to the papal authorities fell on deaf ears.

God then directly chastised the church in a manner similar to that with which as He had the Jews. Since Christians did not belong to any one nation from which they could be exiled, the French king held the Roman Pope captive in Avignon, France for 69 years. Historians have even noticed this historical parallel and referred to this as the "Babylonian captivity of the Pope."

Later, after the Christian empire was fully re-established, in 1517 AD, the great reformer Martin Luther appeared. He, too, sought to restore orthodoxy to the church.

Later, America was founded in the name of God. Originally as a Christian nation, and a unique nation of all peoples and all cultures and races, God raised America up to quickly become the central nation of the world. Its technology, communications, transportation, and even its language reached every corner of the earth. Amidst great signs of division, an undercurrent has also been moving which has been pulling the world closer together. Eastern and Western cultures have begun to mix. Economic and political alliances have formed. Major religions have begun seeking common ground in their beliefs. The world has become divided generally into two basic camps—one more Cain-like camp of humanism, led by Marxism-Leninism, which, as you might expect, is characterized by jealousy, anger and resentment, and one more Abel-like camp of various forms of Christian or God-centered ethics and law.

The final conflict between the world-wide Cain and Abel camps has been underway for the past century. It has recently passed through its final resolution. The Abel-like free world has prevailed over the Cain-like communist world without being killed. All prophecy of the Last Days is being, or has already been, fulfilled. Now it is time for all religions to understand and teach the importance of Christ coming as a true Adam and a true Eve, as True Parents, as the fulfillment of their God-given ideals.

We are living in the precise time when God will send his Son again, to completely reveal God's love and truth to man—this time clearly and plainly without speaking in parables—and to liberate all men from suffering and pain. This time he will return to elevate the model of true love to the family and social level, coming as True Parents and establishing the True Family as the cornerstone of the True Society, True Nation and True World, or literal Kingdom of God on Earth. Some believe he has already come, but most people could not recognize him, just like 2,000 years ago.

What you have just read is a very brief introduction to the Divine Principle, the teaching of Rev. Sun Myung Moon. This booklet is the author's own personal expression of The Divine Principle; and is not an official publication of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification.

Many topics and points were completely left out. Dozens of pages of background and elaboration have been devoted to every point that was just mentioned here. But, if you study this brief explanation two or three times and begin to see even a glimmer of the truth it embodies, then study the Principle more deeply.

The Principle is not traditional doctrine. But remember, the truth of God, as Jesus expressed it 2,000 years ago, was not considered orthodox, either, in his day. That's why God's chosen people failed to recognize and accept him, and that's also why Jesus posed the question about the Lord's return when he said, "Will he find faith?" When he explains the truth again in our day, as he said "...without parables and symbols," it may not sound like traditional doctrine. Will you be ready to hear it?

Through the Divine Principle, God is giving 21st Century man a new, more rational and logical expression of the same truths He has revealed to us throughout the ages. You must study the Principle more deeply to realize how it can change your life and destiny, and the world.

God wants all of His children to be happy, and He will not give up trying until each one of us responds to him and finds the happiness and fulfillment He intended for us all.

Find out for yourself how profoundly God is speaking to mankind today. If you are serious, it will be the most important and exciting undertaking you have ever begun. Pray for God's guidance in this matter. He will lead you into all the truth.
